4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneeth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the free-will offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chiefs of the fathers of Iudah and Benjamin, and the Priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised to goe vp to build the house of the LORD, which is in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things: besides all these was willingly offered.

7 Also Cyrus the King brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put them in the house of his gods:

8 Burnt these did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them upon Sheshbazzar the Priest of Iudah.

9 And this is the number of them; thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives:

10 Thirty basins of gold: silver basins of a second sort, four hundred and ten: and other vessels a thousand.

11 All the vessels of gold and of silver were nine thousand and four hundred: all these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity, that were brought vp from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

CHAP. III.

The Silver as it was offered for the Temple

7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundation of the Temple was laid in great joy and merriment.

And when the second month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together, as one man to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up Jeshua the sonne of Josadak, and his brethren the Priests, and Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the Altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the Altar upon his bases, (for soere was upon them, because of the people of those countries) and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the Feast of Tabernacles, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custome, as the duty of every day required:

5 And afterward offered the continuall burnt offering, both of the new Moones, and of all the Feasts of the LORD, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free will offering unto the LORD.

6 From the first day of the seventh month, began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD: but the foundation of the Temple of the LORD was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the Masons, and to the Carpenters, and mear, and drinke, and oyle, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, so bring Cedar trees from Lebanon to the Sea of Joppa: according to the grant that they had of Cyrus King of Persia.

8 Now in the second yere of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Josadak, and the remnant of their brethren the Priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem: and appointed the Levites from twenty yeeres old and upward, to set forward the worke of the house of the LORD.

9 Then stood Jeshua with his soun and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah together to set forward the workemen in the house of God: the sounes of Hezadai, with their sounes and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the Temple of the LORD, they set the Priests in their apparel with Trumpets, and the Levites the sounes of Asaph, with Cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David King of Israel.

11 And they sing together by course, in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD: because he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout when they praised the LORD: because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But many of the Priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men that had seen the first house: when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice and many shouted aloud for joy.

13 So that the people could not shew the noise of the shout of joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud voice, and the noise was heard afar off.

CHAP. IIIII

1 The adversaries being not accepted in the building of the Temple with the Jews, endeavour to hinder it. 7 Their letter to Artaxerxes. 17 The decree of Artaxerxes. 23 The building is hindered.

Now when the adversaries of Judah & Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the Temple unto the LORD God of Israel:

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you, for we seek you: God is with us, we do sacrifice unto him since the dayes of Esarhaddon King of Assur, which brought us up hither.

3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel said unto them, You have nothing to do with us, to build an house unto our God, but wee our selves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as King Cyrus the King of Persia hath commanded us.

4 Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building.

5 And hired counsellors against them to frustrate their purpose, all the dayes of Cyrus king of Persia, even untill the reigne of Darius King of Persia.

6 And in the reigne of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

7 And in the daies of Artaxerxes, wrote Bilshan, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes King of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue; and interpreted in the Syrian tongue.

8 Return the chancellour, and Shimshai the scribe, wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the King in this sort:

9 Then wrote Return the chancellour, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, the Apharathkites, the Targelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Sufanites, the Debanites, and the Elamites.

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Agapbar brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time.

11 This is the copy of the letter: that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the King: Thy servants are on this side the river, and at such a time, 12 Be it knowne unto the King, that the Iewes which came up from thee to us, are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and founded the foundations.

13 Be it knowne now unto the King, that if this city be builded, and the walls set up againe, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custome, and so thou shalt endanger the revenue of the Kings.

14 Now because we have maintenance from the Kings palace, and it was not meet for us to see the Kings dishonour: therefore have we sent and certified the King.

15 That search may be made in the booke of the Records of thy fathers: so shalt thou finde in the booke of the Records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtfull unto Kings and Provinces, and that they have founded sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the King, that if this city be builded againe, and the walls thereof set up: this means that thou shalt have no portion on this side the River.

17 ¶ Then sent the King an edvve unto Rehem the Chancellor, and to Shimthai the Scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and vnto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and as such a time.

18 The letter which ye sent vnto vs, hath bene plainly read before me.

19 And ¶ I remembred, and search hath bene made, and it is found, that thiricity of old time hath made insurrection against Kings, and that rebellion and sedition have bene made therein.

20 Therefore have mighty Kings alio over Ierusalem, which haue ruled ouer all countries beyond the river, and tolle tribute, and custome was payed vnto them.

21 ¶ Give ye now commandement to cease these men to cease, and that this city be not builded vntill another commandement shal be giuen from me.

22 Take heed now that ye faile not to doe that which should dammage grow to the hurt of the Kings?

23 ¶ Now when the copie of King Artaxerxes letter was read before Reham, and Shimthai the Scribe, and their companions, they went vp an hieft to Ierusalem vnto the Lewes, and made them to cease, by ¶ force and power.

24 Then ceased the worke of the house of God which is at Ierusalem. So it ceased vnto the second yeere of the reigne of Darius King of Persia.

CHAP. V.

1 Zerubbabel and Shealtiel incited by Haggai and Zachary, set forth the building of the Temple. 2 Tarnai and Sathar-Bozmai could not hinder the same. 6 Their letter to Darius against the Iduei.

¶ Then the Prophets, Haggai the Prophet and Zerachiah the sonne of Iudo, prophesied vnto the Iewes that were in Iudah and Ierusalem, in the Name of the God of Israel, thus vnto them.

2 ¶ Then spake Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Ieshua the sonne of Ioanadh, and began to build the house of God which is at Ierusalem: and such them were the Prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them, Tarnai gouernour on this side the river, and Sathar-Bozmai, and their companions, and said thus vnto them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make vp this wall?

4 Then said we vnto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was vpon the Elders of the Lewes, that they could not cease there to cease till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answere by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copie of the letter that Tarnai gouernour on this side the river, and Sathar-Bozmai, and his companions the Apharathies, which were on this side the river, sent vnto Darius the King:

7 They sent a letter vnto him, wherein was written thus: vnto Darius the King, all peace.

8 Be it knowen vnto the King, that we went into the Promue of Iudah, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great boues, and timber is laid on the walls, and this worke goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those Elders, and said vnto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make vp these walls?

10 We alied, their names also, to cease thee, that we might write the names of the men that work the chiefe of them.

11 And thus they returned vs answere, saying,

Wee are the seruants of the God of heauen and earth, and build the house that was builded the many yeeres agoe, which a great King of Israel builded, and let vp.

12 But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heauen vnto wrath, he gaue them into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar the King of Babylon, the Caldeas, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first yeere of Cyrus the King of Babylon, the same King Cyrus made a Decree to build this house of God.

14 And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nabuchad-nezzar tooke out of the Temple that was in Ierusalem, he brought them into the Temple of Babylon, thence did Cyrus the King take out of the Temple of Babylon, and they were deliuered vnto one, whose name was Shefthazzar, whom he had made gouernour.

15 And he said vnto him, Take these vessels, Goe carry them into the Temple that is in Ierusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Shefthazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God, which is in Ierusalem. And since that time men will now haue it become in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore if it seeme good to the King, let there be search made in your treasure house which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a Decree was made of Cyrus the King, to build this house of God at Ierusalem: and let the King send his pleasure to vs concerning this matter.

CHAP. VI.

1 Darius finding the Decree of Cyrus, make the new decree for the advancement of the building. 29 By the help of the eunuchs and the direction of the Prophets, the Temple is finished. 36 The feast of the dedication is kept, 29 and the Passover.

¶ Then Darius the King made a Decree, and search was made in the house of the King, where the treasures were laid vp in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace, that is in the Promue of the Medes, a Roulle, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first yeere of Cyrus the King, the same Cyrus the King made a decree concerning the house of God at Ierusalem: let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid, the height thereof thirtie cubites, and the breadth thereof thirtie cubites:

4 With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be giuen out of the Kings house.

5 And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nabuchad-nezzar tooke forth out of the Temple which is at Ierusalem, and brought vnto Babylon, be restored, & brought againe vnto the Temple which is at Ierusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore Tarnai gouernour beyond the river, Sathar-Bozmai, and your companions the Apharathies, which are beyond the river, be ye farre from thence:

7 Let the worke of this house of God alone, let the gouernour of the Lewes, and the Elders of the Lewes build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover, I make a Decree what ye shall doe to the Elders of these Lewes for the building of this house of God: that of the kings goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, such things as ye shall see good, giuen

C H A P. VII.

1 Ezra goeth up to Jerusalem, 2 The pious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra. 3 Ezra blesseth God for his favour.

Now after these things in the reigne of Artaxerxes King of Persia, Ezra the son of Serubabab, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Ithiel, the sonne of Shelemiah, the sonne of Zadoth, the sonne of Ahubab, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Zetaniah, the sonne of Vnai, the sonne of Buhai, the sonne of Abihana, the sonne of Phineas, the son of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the chiefe Priest:

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ready Scribe in the Law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and this King granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God vpon him.

7 And there went up with him of the children of Israel, and of the Priests and the Levites, and the Singers, and the Porters, and the Nequimins vnto Jerusalem, in the seventh yeere of Artaxerxes the King.

8 And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh yeere of the King.

9 For vpon the first day of the first month began he to goe up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came hee to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God vpon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seeke the Law of the LORD, and to doo it, and to teach in Israel, Statutes and Iudgements.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the King Artaxerxes gaue to Ezra the Priest, the Scribe, and a Scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his Statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes King of Kings, ¶ Vnto Ezra the Priest, a Scribe of the Law of the God of heauen, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13 I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his Priests, and Levites in my realme which are minded of their owne free will to goe vnto Jerusalem, goe with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the King, and of his seven Councillers to enquire concerning Iudah and Ierusalem, according to the Law of thy God, which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold which the King and his Councillers haue freely offered vnto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Ierusalem.

16 * And all the silver and gold that thou shalt find in all the prouince of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the Priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Ierusalem:

17 That thou mayest pay speedily with this money, bullockes, rammes, lambs, with their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings, and offer them vpon the Altar of the house of your God, which is in Ierusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seme good vnto thee and to thy brethren, to doe with the rest of the silver and gold, doe as after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee, for the seruice of the house of thy God, these desire thou before the God of Ierusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needfull for the house of thy God, which thou shalt haue occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the Kings treasure house.

21 And I, Iesus Artaxerxes the King, doe make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the Priest, the Scribe of the Law of the God of heauen, shall require of you, it be done speedily.

23 ¶ What.

13 † Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the residue of the King and his soanes?

14 Also we certifie you, that touching any of the Priests, and Levites, Singers, Porters, Nethinims, or Ministers of this house of God: it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custome vpon them.

15 And thou Ezra, after the wisdoms of thy God that is in thine hand, set Magistrates and Judges, which may iudge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the Lawes of thy God, and teach ye them that know them not.

16 And whatsoever will not doe the Law of thy God, and the law of the King, let iudgement be executed speedily vpon him, whether it bee vnto death, or to † banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

17 † Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the Kings heart, to beautifie the house of the LORD which is in Ierusalem.

18 And hath entreated mercy vnto the before the King and his counsellors, and before all the Kings mighty Princes, and I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was vpon me, and I gathered together out of Israel, chiefe men to goe vp with mee.

1 The companions of Ezra, who returned from Babylon. 25 He sendeth to Iddo for Ministers for the Temple. 27 He keepeth a fast. 28 He committeth the treasures to the custody of the Priests. 31 From Abana they come to Ierusalem. 32 The treasure is weighed in the temple. 36 The Commission is delivered.

These are now the chiefe of their fathers, and this is the genealogie of them that went vp with me from Babylon, in the reigne of Artaxerxes the King.

1 Of the sonnes of Phinehas, Gershom t of the sonnes of Ithamar, Daniel: of the sonnes of David, Hattush.

2 Of the sonnes of Shechaniah, of the sonnes of Pethuch, Zechariah, and with him were reckoned by genealogie of the males, an hundred and fifty.

3 Of the sonnes of Pahath-Moab, Eliezer: the same of Zerethiah: and with him two hundred males.

4 Of the sonnes of Shechaniah, the sonne of Iahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

5 Of the sonnes also of Adin, Ebed the same of Sennesai, and with him fifty males.

6 And of the sons of Elam, Iehoiach the sonne of Athaliah, and with him seventy males.

7 And of the sons of Septhiah, Zethai: the sonne of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

8 Of the sonnes of Iush, Obadiah the sonne of Babel, and with him two hundred and eightscore males.

9 And of the sonnes of Sheumath, the sonne of Iehoshaphat, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

10 And of the sonnes of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

11 And of the sonnes of Azgad, Iohanan (the son of Hakkarai), and with him an hundred and ten males.

12 And of the last sonnes of Adonikam, whose names are these: Eliphelet, Iehael, and Sheumath, and with them threescore males.

13 Of the sonnes also of Bigaia, Vabai, and Zebad, and with them seventy males.

15 † And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Abana, & there abode we in tents three dayes: and I viewed the people, and the Priests, and found there some of the sons of Leui.

16 Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Sheumath, and for Elathaz, and for Ierib, and for Elanath, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshallam chiefe men; also for Ierib, and for Elanath, men of vnderstanding.

17 And I sent them with commandment vnto Iddo the chiefe at the place Caspita, and I † told them what they should say vnto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Caspita, that they should bring vnto vs ministers for the house of our God.

18 And by the good hand of our God vpon vs, they brought vs a man of vnderstanding of the sons of Moli, the son of Leui, the son of Israel, and Sherebish with his son, and his brethren eightscore.

19 And Meshabih, and with him Iehoiach of the sons of Merari, his brethren, and their sons, twenty.

20 † Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the Princes had appointed for the seruice of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 † Then I proclaimed a Fast there, at the river Abana, that we might afflict our selves before our God, to seeke of him a right way for vs; and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the King a band of soldiers and horsemen to helpe vs against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken vnto the King, saying, The hand of our God is vpon all them for good that seek him, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted, and besought our God for this; and he was intreated of vs.

24 † Then I separated twelue of the chiefe of the Priests, Sherebish, Meshabih, and ten of their brethren with them.

25 And weighed vnto them the silver & the gold, and the vessels, euen the offering of the house of our God, which the King and his Counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered.

26 I euen weighed vnto their hand fixe hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents.

27 Also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drammes, and two vessels of † fine copper, † precious as gold.

28 And I said vnto them, Ye are holy vnto the LORD: the vessels are holy also, and the silver and the gold are a free-will offering vnto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch you, and keepe them, vntill ye weigh them before the chiefe of the Priests, and the Levites, and chiefe of the fathers of Israel at Ierusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the Priests and the Levites the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Ierusalem vnto the house of our God.

31 † Then we departed from the river of Abana on the twelfth day of the first month: to goe vnto Ierusalem: and the hand of our God was vpon vs, and he deliuered vs from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Ierusalem, and abode there three dayes.

33 † Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold, & the vessels weighed in the house of our God, by the hand of Meremoth the sonne of Uriah the Priest, and with him was Eliezer the sonne of Phinath,

 25 Also the children of those that had bene carried away, which were come out of captivity, offered burnt offerings unto God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, sixty & five ramses, twenty and seven lambs, twelve he-goats, for a sin offering:
 all which was a burnt offering unto the LORD.
 26 And they delivered the Kings Commissions unto the Kings Lieutenant, and to the Governors on this side the river, and they fortified the people, and the house of God.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affliction of the people with strangers. 2 He prayeth unto God with confession of sinne.

Now when these things were done, the Princes came to weeping, The people of Israel, and the Priests & the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Am-monites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, & the Amorites.

3 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yet the head of the Princes and Rulers hath bene chiefe in this trespass.

4 And when I heard this thing, I tore my garment, and my mantle, and plucked off the haire of my head, and of my beard, and sate down astonied.

5 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the word of God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had bene carried away, & I sate astonied until the evening sacrifice.

6 And so it came passing through I stole yr from my beard, and having rent my garment, and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God.

7 And said, O my God, I am ashamed, and blush to lift up my face to thee my God: for our iniquities are multiplied over our head, and our trespasses are gone up vnto the heavens.

8 Since the daies of our fathers, haue we bene in a great trespass vnto this day, and for our iniquities haue we our Kings, and our Priests bene deli-uered into the hand of the Kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoule and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

9 And now for a while space grace hath bene shewed from the LORD our God, to leaue vs a remnant to escape, and to giue vs a waste in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and giue vs a little remaing in our bondage.

10 For we were disobedient, yet our God hath not forsaken vs in our bondage, but hath exceeded mercy vnto vs in the sight of the Kings of Persia, to giue vs a remnant to set vp the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to giue to us a wall in Iudah, and in Ierusalem.

11 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we haue forsaken thy Commandments, which thou hast commanded by thy ser-uants the Prophets, saying, The land vnto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land, with the filthinesse of the people of the lands: with their abominations which haue filled it from our land to another, with their detestable offer.

12 Now therefore, O our God, shew thou thy mercy, and thy loving kindness vnto thy seruants, which are left vnto us, and do not let our faces be ashamed, for we are left remnant.

4000, nor letke their peace, or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and lease it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come vpon vs for our euill deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished vs less then our in-iquities deserve, and hast giuen vs such deliuerance as this:

14 Should wee againe breake thy Commandements, and ioyce in sinning with the people of these abominations? wouldst thou not bee angry with vs till thou hadst consumed vs, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remaine yet escaped, as it is this day: Behold we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

CHAPTER X.

1 Shebaniah encourageth Ezra to reforme the strange marriages. 2 Ezra mourning, assembleth the people, & the people at the exhortation of Ezra repent, and promise amendments. 3 The cure to pro-forge it. 4 The names of them who had married strange women.

Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping, & casting himselfe down before the house of God, there assembled vnto him out of Israel, a very great Congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people wept very sore.

2 And Shebaniah the sonne of Iehiel, one of the sounes of Elam, answered and said vnto Ezra, We haue trespassed against our God, and haue taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let vs make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and such as are borne of them, according to the counsell of thy lord, & of those that tremble at thy commandment of our God: let it be done according to the Law.

4 And for this matter belongeth vnto thee, we allow thee with thee of good courage, & do it.

5 When are these, and made the chief Priests, the Levites, & all Israel to sweare, that they should doe according to this word? and they swore.

6 Then Ezra rose vp from Iehiel the house of God, and went into the chamber of Iohanan, the sonne of Elashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drinke water, for he was moued because of the transgression of them that had bene disobedient.

7 And they made proclamation throughout Iudah and Ierusalem, vnto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together vnto Ierusalem.

8 And that whosoever would not come within three daies, according to the counsell of the Princes, and the Elders, shall his name be put forth, & he shall be himselfe separated from the Congregation of those that had bene carried away.

9 Then all the men of Iudah and Benjamin gathered themselves together vnto Ierusalem with in three daies: it was the sixth month, on the twentieth day of the month, and all the people sate in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

10 And Ezra the Priest stood vp, and said vnto them, Ye haue transgressed, and haue taken strange wives to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore make confession vnto the LORD God of your fathers, for he is plentiful in good.

and separate your skirts from the people of the land, and from the strange wines.

13 Then all the Congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, Jehovah we do: 14 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without; neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our Rulers of all the Congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wines in any cities, come at appointed times, and with them the Elders of every city, and the Judges thereof; until the decree of our God: for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Oneley Jonathan the son of Afsib, and Iahobiah the son of Tihiah were employed about this matter: and Meshullam, and Shabbethai the Dinite helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so, and Ezra the Priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them, by their names were separated, and sat downe in the first day of the tenth month, to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wines, by the first day of the first month.

18 ¶ And among the houses of the Priests, there were found that had taken strange wines: namely, of the houses of Ietham, son of Iozabad, & his brethren, Misah, and Eliazar, & Iath, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their hands, that they would put away their wines: and being guilty, they offered a ramme of the flocks for their trespass.

20 And of the houses of Immer, Husai, and Zebadiah:

21 And of the houses of Harim, Masiah, and Eljah, and Semeiah, and Ithiel, and Vaziah.

22 And of the houses of Padar: Elioenai, Masiah, Mesael, Methenai, Iezabad, and Elshah.

23 All of the Levites: Iozabad, and Shemei, and Keliah, (the same is Keliah), Pethahiah, Jashai, and Eliezer.

24 Of the singers also, Eliashih, and of the porters, Shullam, and Telpao, and Uri.

25 Moreover, of Israel of the houses of Parsah, Rasiah, and Iethah, and Malchiah, and Miziam, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah.

26 And of the sons of Elam: Marriash, Zachariah, and Ithiel, and Abdi, and Ieremoth, and Ilishi.

27 And of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashih, Marriash, and Ieremoth, and Zabab, and Azana.

28 Of the houses also of Bebai: Iehohanan, Meshumiah, Zabai, and Athah.

29 And of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malchiah, and Adath, Iathah, and Sheal, and Remoth.

30 And of the sons of Pahath Mesab: Adah, and Chah, Meshiah, Masiah, Marriash, Brachel, and Binnai, and Mesafah.

31 And of the sons of Harim: Eliazar, Ithajah, Malchiah, Sheumiah, Shimon, and Shemariah.

32 Of the sons of Hakmoni: Marosai, Mephasah, Zabab, Eliphelet, Teremai, Masafah, and Shimeai.

39 Anath, and Semeiah, Simeon, and Ithiel, 40 Of the sons of Nebo: Ithiel, Marriash, Zabab, Zabiah, Iadai, and Iocai, Benaiah.

41 All these had taken strange wines, and some of them bad wines, by whom they had children.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah understanding by Hanani, the squire of Jerusalem, mourning, fastings, and prayers, his prayer.

2 His words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to passe in the twentieth Chiffen in the twentieth yeere, as I was in Shushan the palace;

3 That Hanani one of my brethren came, and brought me news of the brethren in Jerusalem, and of the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

4 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken downe, and the gates thereof are burne with fire.

5 ¶ And I came to pray when I heard these words, that I fasted downe and wept, and mourned certaine dayes, and fasted, and jeaped before the God of heauen.

6 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him, and observe his Commandements:

7 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest heere the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night for the children of Israel thy servants: and confess the finnes of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my fathers house have sinned.

8 Wee have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the Commandements, nor the Statutes, nor the iudgements, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, My people will I cause thee to prosper, and will I give thee the land which thou shalt desire.

10 But if ye turne unto mee, and keepe my Commandements, and doe them: though there were of you cast out unto the vttermost part of the heauen, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen, to dwell in the place there.

11 Now these are thy servants, and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and thy strong hand.

12 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servants, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to heere thy Name: and prosper, pray thee, thy servants day by day, and grante them mercy in the sight of this King. For I was the Kings cupbearer.

CHAP. II.

1 Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's desire, sendeth him with letters and commission to Ierusalem. 2 Nehemiah, to the griefe of the enemies, cometh to Ierusalem. 3 He vieweth secretly the ruines of the walls. 4 He sheweth the Jews to build, in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to passe in the month Nisan, in the twentieth yeere of Artaxerxes the King, thus was before him, and I tooke vp the wine, and gave it unto the King: Now I had not been before thus (as in his presence).

2 Wherefore the King said vnto mee, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art no sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

3 And said vnto the King, Let the King list for cause why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers sepulchres, heath waste, & the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the King said vnto mee, For what doest thou make request? so I prayed to the God of heauen.

5 And I said vnto the King, If it please the King, and if thy seruant haue found fauour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send mee vnto Iudah, vnto the city of my fathers sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the King said vnto mee, the Kinge also sitting by him, For how long shall thy iourney be? and when wilt thou returne? So it pleased the King to send me, and I set him a time.

7 Moreover, I said vnto the King, If it please the King, let letters be giuen me to the gouernours beyond the riuer, that they may conuey mee ouer, till I come vnto Iudah.

8 And a letter vnto Asaph, the keeper of the Kings forest, that he may giue me timber to make beames for the gates of the palace which appertaine to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter vnto: and the King granted me according to the good hand of my God vpon me.

9 Then I came to the gouernours beyond the riuer, and gaue them the Kings letters: (now the King had sent captains of an army, & horsemen with me.)

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobias the seruant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, that there was come a man to seek the wellfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Ierusalem, and was there three dayes.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with mee, neither told I any man what God had put in my heart to doe at Ierusalem: neither was there any that went with mee, save the beast that I rode vpon.

13 And I went out by night, by the gate of the valley, euen before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walles of Ierusalem, which were broken downe, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountaine, and to the King pool: but there was no place for the beast that was vnder me to passe.

15 Then went I vp in the night by the brooke, and viewed the wall, and turned backe, and came by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the Rulers knew not whether I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the Priests, nor to the Nobles, nor to the Rulers, nor to the rest that did the worke.

17 ¶ Then said I vnto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Ierusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come, and let vs build vp the wall of Ierusalem, that we bee vs more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God, which was good vpon me, as also the Kings word: that hee had spoken vnto mee. And they said, Let vs rise vp and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good worke.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobias the seruant, the Ammonite, and Gessem the Arabian heard it, they laughed vs to scorne, and despised vs, and said, What is this thing that ye doe? will ye rebell against the King?

20 Then answered I them, and said vnto them, The God of heauen he will prosper vs, therefore we his seruants will arise and build: but you haue no portion, nor light, nor memoriall in Ierusalem.

CHAP. III.

CHAP. IIII

1 While the enemies scoffed, Nehemiah prophesied, and countenanced the worke. 7 vnderstanding the wrath and secrets of the enemy, he fetcheth a watch. 13 He encourageth the labourers, 19 and giveth vnto them precepts.

But it came to passe, that when Salsabaz heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Iewes.

2 And he spake before his brethren, and the armie of Samaria, and said, What doe these feeble Iewes? will they fortifie themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they renue the stones out of the leaues of the rubbish which are being?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Euen that which they build, is a faxe: goe vp, he shall ouerbreake downe their strong wall.

4 Heare, O our God, for we are § despitied; and turne their reprobacion vpon their owne head, and giue them for a pray in the hand of captiuitie.

5 And couer not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blessed out from before thee, for they haue provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall, and all the wall was ioined together vnto the halfe thereof; for the people had a mind to worke.

7 ¶ But it came to passe that when Salsabaz, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the § Iudites heard that the wals of Ierusalem were made vp, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.

8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Ierusalem, and to hinder it.

9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer vnto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Iudah said, The strength of the bearers of burdenes is decayed, and there is much rubbith, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our aduersaries said, They shall not know neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the worke to cease.

12 And it came to passe, that when the Iewes which dwelt by them, came, they said vnto vs many times, § From all places whence ye shall returne vnto vs, they will be vpon you.

13 ¶ Therefore, sit § in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I euen sit the people after their families, with their swords, their speares, and their bowes.

14 And I looked, and sawe vp, and said vnto the Nobles, and to the Rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: Remember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to passe when our enemies heard that it was knowne vnto vs, and God had brought their counsell to nought, that we returned all of vs to the wall, eury one vnto his worke.

16 And it came to passe from that time forth, that the halfe of my seruants wrought in the wall, and the other halfe of them, held both the speares, the shields, and the bowes, and the habergeons, and the Rulers were behind all the house of Iudah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdenes, with those that laied, eury one with one of his hands wrought in the worke, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, eury one had his sword girded § by his side, and so builded: and he that founded the trumpets, was by me.

19 ¶ And I said vnto the Nobles, and to the Rulers, and to the rest of the people, The worke is great and large, and we are separated vpon the wall, one farre from another:

20 In what place therefore ye heare the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither vnto vs: our God shall fight for vs:

21 So we laboured in the worke: and halfe of them held the speeres, from the rising of the morning, till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I vnto the people, Let every one with his seruant, lodge with in Ierusalem: that in the night they may be a guard to vs, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my seruants, nor the children of the guard which followed me, none of vs put off our clothes, if seeing that euery one put the same off for waiting.

C H A P. V.

1 The lewes complained of their debts, mortgages, and bondage. 2 Nehemiah rebuketh the vsurers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 3 He forbearth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

And there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the lewes.

1 For there were that said, We, our sowes, and our daughters are many: therefore we take vp corne for them, that we may eat and live.

2 Some also there were that said, We haue mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and bowles, that we might buy corne because of the dearth.

3 There were also that said, We haue borrowed money for the Kings tribute, and that vpon our lands and vineyards.

4 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and loe, we bring into bondage our sons, and our daughters, to be seruants, and some of our daughters are brought vnto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them: for other men haue our lands and vineyards.

5 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry, and these words.

6 Then I consulted with my selfe, and I rebuked the Nobles, and the rulers, and said vnto them, You exact viury euery one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

7 And I said vnto them, We, after our ability, haue redeemed our brethren the lewes, which were sold vnto the heathen; and will you euertell your brethren or sell them they be sold vnto vs? Then held they their peace & found nothing to answer.

8 Also I said, It is not good that ye doe: ought ye not to walke in the feare of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

9 I like wis, and my brethren and my seruants, might exact of them money and corne: I pray you let vs leaue off this vsury.

10 Restore, I pray you, to them euery this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the mney, and of the corne, the wine, and the oyle that ye exact of them.

11 Then said they, We will restore: because we will require nothing of the: so will we do, as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and tooke an oath of them, that they should doe according to this promise.

12 Also I shooke my lap, and said, So God shake our euerie man from his house, and from his labour that performeth not this promise, euery thus be he shaken out, and emptyed. And all the Congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

13 ¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their Governour in the land of Iudah, from the twentieth yeere, euen vnto the two and thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes the King, that is twentie yeeres, I and my brethren haue not eaten the bread of the governors.

14 But the former gouernours that had bene before me, were chargeable vnto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of siluer, yea, euen their seruants bare rule ouer the people: but I did not, because of the feare of God.

15 Yea also, I continued in the worke of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my seruants were gathered thither vnto the worke.

16 Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the lewes and rulers, besides those that came vnto vs from among the heathen that are about vs.

17 Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox, and six cheape therpe; also fowles were prepared for me, and once in ten dayes, store of all sortes of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the gouernours, because the bondage was heavy vpon this people.

18 ¶ Thank you me, my God, for good, according to all that I haue done for this people.

C H A P. VI.

1 Sanballath practiseth his craft, by rauens, by hired prophets, and to rife Nehemiah, 25 the worke is finished, 26 the seruors of the enemies, 27 Secre intelligence passeth betwixt the enemies and the Nobles of Iudah.

Now it came to passe, when Sanballath, and Tobiah, and Geshon the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein: (though at that time I had not let vp the stones vpon the gates.)

1 Then Sanballath and Geshon sent vnto me, saying, Come, let vs meet together in some one of the villages in the plaine of Ono: but they thought on doe me mischief.

2 And I sent messengers vnto them, saying, I am doing a great worke, so that I cannot come downe to you: should the worke cease, which I haue left, and come downe to you?

3 Yet they sent vnto mee foure times after this sort, and I answered them after the same manner.

4 Then sent Sanballath his seruant vnto me in like manner the sixth time, with an open letter in his hand:

5 Wherein was written; It is reported among the heathen, and I Gashmeh saith it, that thou and I, the lewes thinke to rebell: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their King, according to these words.

6 And thou hast also appointed Prophets to preach of thee at Ierusalem, saying, There is a King in Iudah. And now shall it be reported to the King according to these words. Come now therefore, and let vs take the walle together.

7 Then I sent vnto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou findest them out of thine own heart.

8 For they all made vs afraid, saying, Their hand shall be weakened from the worke, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

9 Afterward I came vnto the house of Sheznai the son of Delaias, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut vp, and he said, Let vs meet together in the house of God, within the Temple, and let vs shut the dores of the Temple, for they will come to slay thee, yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

10 And I said, Should such a man as I be? and who is there, that being as I am, would goe into the Temple to save his life? I will not goe in.

11 And loe, I perceived that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophesie against me; for Tobiah and Sanballath had hired him.

13 Therefore was he hired that I should be afraid, and doe (said) he, & that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

14 My God think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to their works, and on the Propheticke Noadiah, and the rest of the Prophets, that would have put me in feare.

15 ¶ So the wall was finished, in the twenty and six day of the month Elul, in thirtie and two days.

16 And it came to passe, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about vs saw these things, they were much cast downe in their owne eyes: for they perceived that this worke was wrought of our God.

17 ¶ Moreover, in those days the Nobles of Iudah & first many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

18 For there were many in Iudah sworne unto him: because he was the sonne in law to Shechaniah the sonne of Arah, and his sonne Iohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berehiah.

19 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him: and Tobiah sent letters to put me in feare.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Nehemiah commeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogie of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the Priests, 43 of the Levites, 45 of the Nehemims, 57 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the Priests which could not find their pedigree. 66 The whole number of them, with their substance. 70 Their obligations.

Now it came to passe when the wall was built, and I had set vp the doores; and the porters, and the singers, and the Levites were appointed.

2 That I gaue my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge ouer Ierusalem, for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, let not the gates of Ierusalem be opened, vntill the Sonne be hot, and while they stand by, let them shut the doores, and barre them, and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Ierusalem, every one in his watch, and euery one to be oner against his house.

4 Now the city was large and great, but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogie. And I found a register of the genealogie of them which came vp at the first, and found written therein;

6 * These were the children of the province, that went vp out of the captivity, of those that had bene carried away, whom Nebuchad-nezzar the King of Babylon had carried away, & came againe to Ierusalem, and to Iudah, every one unto his city:

31 The men of Michmash, an hundred and twenty and two.

32 The men of Bethel and Ai, an hundred twenty and three.

33 The men of the other Nebo, fifty and two.

34 The children of the other * Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and foure.

35 The children of Harim, three hundred and twenty.

36 The children of Iericho, three hundred forty and five.

37 The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seuen hundred twenty and one.

39 ¶ The Priests. The children of * Iedaia, of the house of Ieffus, nine hundred seuenity and three.

40 The children of Immer, a thousand fifty and two.

41 The children of Pashur, a thousand two hundred forty and seuen.

42 The children of Harim, a thousand and seuen score.

43 ¶ The Levites. The children of Ieffus, of Kadmiel, and of the children of | Hodadiah, seuen hundred and foure.

44 ¶ The singers. The children of Asaph, an hundred forty and eight.

59 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Harthi, the children of Pochereth-Zabaim, the children of Amon, 60 All the Nehemites, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two 61 ¶ And these were they which went up with Zerubbabel, the children of Zerubbabel, and Immer: but they could not show their fathers' houses, neither their kindred, whether they were of Israel.

62 The children of Bethai, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, sixe hundred forty and two.

63 ¶ And of the Priests: the children of Habaiab, the children of Kor, the children of Barzilai which tooke one of the daughters of Harthi: the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

64 These fought their register among those that were reckned by genealogie, but it was not found: therefore were they as polluted, put from the Priesthood.

65 And Jobe the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eate of the most holy things, till there stood up a Priest with Ysrahel and Thunimim.

66 ¶ The whole congregation together was for tie and two thousand, three hundred & three score.

67 Besides their men-servants, and their maid-servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men & singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and six.

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: sixe thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

70 ¶ And ¶ some of the chiefe of the fathers gave unto the worke: the Tirshatha gave to the treasure, a thousand drames of gold, fifty boures, five hundred and thirte Priests garments.

71 And some of the chiefe of the fathers, gave to the treasure of the worke twenty thousand drames of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave, was twenty thousand drames of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and three score and seven Priests garments.

73 So the Priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nehemites, and all Israel dwelt in their cities: and when the tenth moneth came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

C H A P. VIII.

1 The religious manner of reading, and hearing the Law. 9 They comfort the people. 13 The forewardness of them to beare, and to be instructed, 16 They keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

AND all the people gathered themselves together as one man, into the street that was before the water gate, and they spake unto Ezra the Scribe, to bring the booke of the Law of Moses which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

2 And Ezra the Priest brought the law before the Congregation, both of men and women, and all that could heare with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate, from the morning until mid-day, before the men and women, and those that could understand: And the ears of all the people were attentive unto the booke of the Law.

4 And Ezra the Scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose, and beside him stood Mattheiah, and Seemai, and Ananiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah on his right hand: and on his left hand Pedaiab, and Misael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hathabada, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

5 And Ezra opened the booke in the sight of all the people, (for hee was aboue all the people) and when hee opened it, all the people stood up:

6 And Ezra blessed the LORD the great God: and all the people answered, Amen Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped: like the LORD with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Seemai, and Hassi and Sherebith, Iamin, Akkub, Sabbathai, Hosaijah, Maaseiah, Keltai, Azariah, Isakab, Haan, Pelaiab, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the Law: and the people stood in their place.

8 So they read in the booke, in the Law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is the Thirshatha, and Ezra the Priest the Scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God, mourn not, nor weep: for all the people wept, when they heard the words of the Law.

10 Then he said: unto them, Goe your way, eate the fat, and drinke the sweet, and be merry: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither bee ye sorry, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites filled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy, neither bee ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drinke, and to send porcions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chiefe of the fathers of all the people, the Priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the Scribe, even to understand the words of the Law.

14 And they found written in the Law which the LORD had commanded by Moyses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths, in the feast of the seventh month:

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in at their cities, and in Ierusalem, saying, Go forth into the mount, and fetch olive branches, and Pine branches, and myrtle branches, and Palm branches, and branches of thicke trees, to make booties, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them and made the Ierusalem booties, every one upon the rooffe of his house, and in their courts: and in the courts of the house of God, and in the frizer of the water-gate, & in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the Congregation of them that were come againe out of the captiuitie made booties and face vnder the booties: for since 4 dayes of Iehusua the son of Nun, vnto that day, had not the children of Israel done so: & there was very great gladnes.

18 Also day by day, from the first day vnto the last day, hee read in the booke of the Law of God: and they kept it the last seuen dayes, and on the eight day moe† a solemn assembly according vnto the manner.

CHAP. IX.

1 A Solemn fast, and repentance of the people of the Leuites make a righteous confession of Gods goodness, and their wickedness.

NOW in the twentieth and fourth day of this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sack clothes, and earth vpon them.

2 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all † strangers, and stood and confessed their finnes, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood vpon their place, and read in the booke of the Law of the LORD their God, one fourth part of the day, another fourth part they confesse, and worshipped the LORD their God.

4 ¶ Then stood vpon the † staires of the Leuites, Iehusua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherabiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cryed with a loud voyce vnto the LORD their God.

5 Then the Leuites, Iehusua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Shebaniah, Sherabiah, Hodijah, Sacaniam, & Pe. thubai, said, Stand vp, and bless the LORD your God for ever and euer, and blessed be thy glorious Name, as is exalted aboue all blessing and praise.

6 ¶ Then, euen thou art LORD alone, † thou hast made heauen, the heauct of heauens, with all their hoste, the earth and all things that are therein, the Sea, and all that is therein, and thou preferrest them all, & the hoste of heauen worshippeth thee: 7 ¶ Thou art the LORD the God, who diddest chuse † Abram, and broughtest him fourth out of the land of the Caldees, and gauest him the Name of Abraham:

8 And foundest his heart faithfull before thee, and madest a † Couenant with him, to giue the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Petizites, and the Iebusites, and the Girgathites, to giue it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy wordes, for thou art righteous,

9 ¶ And didst seeke the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardst their cry by the red Sea, 10 And shewedst signes, and wonders vpon Pharaoh, and on all his seruants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knowest that they dealt proudly against thee: so didst thou get thee a Name, as it is this day.

11 ¶ And thou didst diuide the sea before them so that they went thorow the midst of the sea on the drie land, & their persecuters thou threwest into the deeper, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar, and in the night by a pillar of fire to giue them light in the way wherein they should goe.

13 ¶ Thou earnest downe also vpon mount Sinai, and speakest with them from heauen, and gauest them right Iudgements, and † true Lawes, good Statutes and Commandements.

14 And madest knowne vnto them thy holy Saboth, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and lawes, by the hand of Moses thy seruant:

15 And gauest them bread from heauen for their hunger, and broughtst forth water for them out of the rock, for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should † goe in to possess the land, † which thou hadst sworne to giue them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their neckes, and hearkened not to thy Commandements.

17 And refused to obey, neither were mindfull of the wonders that thou didst among them: but hardened their neckes, and in their rebellion appointed a Captain to returne to their bondage; but thou art † a God ready to pardon, gracious and mercifull, slow to anger and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calfe, and said, This is thy God that brought thee vpon out of Egypt, and had wrought great prouocations:

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the † pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night to shew them light, and the way wherein they should goe.

20 ¶ Thou gauest also thy good Spirit to instruct them, and withheldst not thy † Manna from their mouth, and gauest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea forty yeres didst thou sustaine them in the wilderness, in that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not old, & their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover thou gauest them kingdoms, & nations, and diddest diuide them into conuerstie they possessed the land of † Sihon, and the land of the king of Hesbon, and † land of Og king of Basan.

23 Their children also multiplied thou as the stars of heauen, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should goe in to possess it.

24 So the children went in, & possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gauest them into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, that they might doe with them † as they would.

25 And they tooke cities of strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, & wells digged, vineyards, and oliueyards, and † fruit trees, in abundance: so they did eate, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.

26 Nevertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy Law behind their backs, and slew thy † Prophets, which testified against them, to turne them to thee, and they wrought great prouocations.

27 Therefore thou deliueredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vtred them, and in the time of their trouble, when they cryed vnto thee, thou heardst them from heauen: and according to thy manifold mercies, thou gauest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, † they did euill againe before thee: therefore leddest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned and cried unto thee, thou hast not turned from heaven, & many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies: 29 And testifiedst against them that they might bring them againe unto thy Law: yet they did not obey, and hearkened not unto thy Commandements, but sinned against thy Judgements, (which if a man doe, hee shall live in them,) & with-drew the shoulder, and hardened their necke, and would not heare.

30 Yet many yeeres didst thou \dagger forbear them, and testifiedst \dagger against them by thy spirit, \dagger in thy Prophets: yet would they not give eare: therefore gauest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless, for thy great mercies sake, thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and mercifull God.

32 Now therefore our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepeth Covenant, and mercy: let not all the \dagger trouble seeme little before thee, \dagger that hath come upon vs, on our Kings, on our Princes, and on our Priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, & on all thy people since the time of the Kings of Assyria, unto this day.

33 Howbeit, thou art iust in all that is brought upon vs, for thou hast done right, but we haue done wickedly.

34 Neither haue our Kings, our Princes, our Priests, nor our fathers kept thy Law, nor hearkened unto thy Commandements, and thy Testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they haue not serued thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodnesse that thou gauest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gauest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, we are seruaunts this day; and for the land that thou gauest vnto our fathers, to eate the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are seruaunts in it.

37 And it would much increase vnto the kings whom thou hast set ouer vs, because of our sinnes: for they haue dominion ouer our bodies, and ouer our catell at their pleasure: & we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it, and our Princes, Levites, and Priests \dagger saue vnto it.

38 And the Priest the sonne of Aaron shall bee with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes, and the Levite shall bring vp the tithes of the tithes vnto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel, and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the carme, of the new wine, and the oile, vnto the chambers, where are the vessels of the Sanctuary, and the Priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers, and we will not forsake the house of our God.

 lem:

 19 And of Iosiah, Mattania: of Iedaiah, Vazit:
 20 Of Salai, Kallai of Amok, Eber:
 21 Of Hilkiah, Harubai: of Iedaiah, Nethannual.

22 ¶ The Levites in the dayes of Eiehiab, Ioiada, and Iohanan, and Iaddo, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the Priests, to the reigne of Darius the Persian.

23 The sons of Leni, the chief of the fathers, were written in the booke of the * Chronicles, cur-veill the dayes of Iohanan the son of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Hasubaiab, Sherobiah, and Iessua the son of Kadmeel, with their brethren over against them, to praise, and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward, at the thresholds of the gate.

26 These were in the dayes of Iosiah, the son of Iessua, the son of Iozabab, and in the dayes of Nehemiah the Governour, and of Ezra the Priest, the Scribe.

27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Ierusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Ierusalem, to keep the dedication with gladnes, both with thanksgivings, & with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harpes.

28 And the sonnes of the fingers gathered themselves together, both out of the plaine country round about Ierusalem, and from the villages of Neotaphathi.

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azmaneth: for the fingers had builded them villages round about Ierusalem.

30 And the Priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought vp the Princes of Iudah vpon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, wheresoever we went on the right hand vpon the wall toward the dung-gate:

32 And after them went Hoiathiah, and halfe of the Princes of Iudah, 33 And Azariah, Esra, and Meshullam.

34 Iudah, and Benjamin, and Sheumiah, and Ieremiah.

35 And certain of the Priests sons with trans-perts: Moseh, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Sheumiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiab, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:

36 And his brethren, Sheumiah, and Azazel, Milai, Gilalai, Maai, Nerhamael, and Iudah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the Scribe before them.

37 And at the fouraine gate, which was over against them, they went vp by the faires of the city of David, at the going vp of the wall above the house of David, even vnto the water-gate Eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the halfe of the people vpon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even vnto the broad wall.

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fifth-gate, and the tower of Hammeel, and the tower of Meah, went vnto the sheeps-gate: and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the halfe of the rulers with me:

41 And the Priests: Eliakim, Masfeiah, Minianus, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with transperts:

42 And Masfeiah, and Sheumiah, and Eleazar, and Vazai, and Ichoshan, and Malchijah, and Elon, and Elni. And the fingers that sang loud, with Ierubiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and reioyced: for God hath made them reioyce with great ioy: the wises also, and the children: reioyced: so that the ioy of Ierusalem was heard each afare off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed ouer the chambers, for the treasure, for the offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to Gather into them out of the fields of the cities, the portions of the law for the Priests and Levites: for Iudah reioyced for the Priests, and for the Levites that waited.

45 And both the fingers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Salomon his soune.

46 For in the dayes of David, and Asaph of old, there were chiefs of the fingers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving vnto God.

47 And all Israell in the dayes of Zerubbabel, and in the dayes of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the fingers, and the porters, every day his portion, and they sanctified holy things vnto the Levites, and the Levites sanctified them vnto the children of Aaron.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Vpon the reading of the Law, separation is made from the mixed multitude. 2 Nehemiah at his reuise causeth the chambers to be builded. 3 He reformeth the officers in the house of God. 4 The violation of the Sabbath, 5 and the marriages with strangers were.

ON the day that they read in the booke of Moyses in the audience of the people, and therein was found written, that the Ammonite, and the Moabite should not come into the Congregation of God for euer:

2 * Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balazam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to passe when they had heard the Law, that they separated from Israell all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this Elieashib the Priest, that had the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied vnto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corne, the new wine, and the oyle, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the fingers, and the porters, and the offerings of the Priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Ierusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yeere of Artaxerxes King of Babylon, came I vnto the King, and after certaine dayes I obtained I leave of the King.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the euill that Elisibib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And he greeted me sore, therefore I cast forth all the household stuffe of Tobiah, out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers, and thither brought I againe the vessels of the house of God, with the wheat offering, and the frankincense.

10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not bene given, thou: for the Levites and the singers that did the worke, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the Rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? and I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithes of the corne, and the new wine, and the oyle vnto the treasuries.

13 And I made treasuries vnder the treasuries, Shemaiah the Priest, and Zadok the Scribe, and of the Levites, Pedajah: and I went to them was Hanan the son of Zacchar: the son of Mattathiah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute vnto their brethren.

14 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds, that I haue done for the house of my God, & for the officers thereof.

15 In those dayes saw I in Iudah some treading, wince, presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses, & as also wing grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdenes, which they brought into Ierusalem on the Sabbath day: and I rebuked against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish & all manner of ware, and sold on the Sabbath vnto the children of Iudah, & in Ierusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Iudah, and said vnto them, What euill thing is this that ye doe, and profane the Sabbath day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this euill vpon vs, and vpon this city: yet ye bring more wraoth vpon Israel, by profaning the Sabbath.

19 And it came to passe, that when the gates of Ierusalem began to be shut, before the Sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, & charged that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath: and some of my seruants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Ierusalem ouer & twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said vnto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? If ye doe so againe, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keepe the gates, to Sanctifie the Sabbath day: Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me, according to the greatness of thy mercy.

23 In those dayes also saw I Iewes that had married wives of Asidod, of Ammon, & of Moab.

24 And their children spake halfe in the speech of Asidod, and I could not speake in the Iewes language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and I cursed them, and smote certaine of them, and plucked off their haire, & made them sweare by God, saying, ye shall not giue your daughters vnto their sons, nor take their daughters vnto your sons, or for your selues.

26 Did not Solomon King of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no King like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him King ouer all Israel: * nevertheless, euen him did our Iudaish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken vnto you to do all this great euill, to transgresse against our God, in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons of Ioiada, the son of Elisibib the high Priest, was come in law to Szababim the Horozite: therefore I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, because they despised the Priesthood, and the covenant of the Priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the Priests, and the Levites, carry out in his businesse:

31 And for the wood offering at times appointed, and for the first fruits, Remember me, O my God, for good.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal Feast. 20 Vastai sent for, & refused to come. 23 Ahasuerus, by the counsel of Memucan maketh the Decree of mens four against.

OW it came to passe in the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from Iudoe, euen vnto Ethiopia,ouer and hundred and seuen and twenty prouinces.)

1 In those dayes when the King Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his Kingdome, which was in Shushan the pallace:

2 In the third yeere of his reigne, hee made a feast vnto all his princes, and his seruants, the power of Persia, and Media, the Nobles and Princes of the Prouinces being before him.

3 When he showed the riches of his glorious Kingdome, and the honour of his excellent Maiestie, many dayes, euen an hundred and fourscore dayes.

4 And when these dayes were expired, the King made a feast vnto all the people that were present in Shushan the pallace, both vnto great and small, seuen dayes, in the court of the garden of the Kings pallace.

5 Where were white, Greene, and blew hangings, fastened with cords of fine linnen and purple, to siluer rings, and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and siluer, vpon a pavement of Ired and blew, and white, and blacke marble.

6 And they gaue them drinke in vessels of gold (the vessels being dined one from another) and froyall wine in abun dance, according to the face of the King.

7 And the drinking was according to the Law, none did compell: for the King had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should doe according to eury mans pleasure.

8 Also Vastai the Queene made a feast for the women in the royall house which belonged to King Ahasuerus, 10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the King was merry with wine, he commanded Methusan, Buzha, Harbona, Bigthan, and Abagtha, Zerbar, and Carcas, the seven Chamberlains that stood in the presence of Ahasuerus the King.

11 To bring Vashti the Queen before the King with the crowne royall to shew the people and the Princes her beauty for she was faire to looke on.

12 But the Queene Vashti refused to come at the Kings Commandment by his Chamberlains: therefore was the King very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the King said to the wise men, which know the times, (for so was the Kings manner towards all that knew law and iudgement.

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Sathar, Admatha, Tarshis, Meres, Martena, and Memucan, the seven Princes of Persia, and Media, which saw the Kings face, and which sate the first in the Kingdome.)

15 ¶ What shall we doe vnto the Queene Vashti, according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the King Ahasuerus, by the Chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king, and the princes, Vashti the Queene hath not done wrong to the King onely, but also to all the Princes, and to all the people that are in all the Provinces of the King Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the Queene shall come abroad vnto all women, so that they shall despite their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported; The King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the Queene to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Zakariath shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the Kings Princes, which have heard of this deed of the Queene. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 ¶ If it please the King, let there goe a royall commandment from him, and let it be written among the lawes of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vashti come no more before King Ahasuerus, and let the King give her royal estate: ynto another that is better then she.

20 And when the Kings Decree, which he shall make, shall be published thorowout all his Empire (for it is great:) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying that pleased the King, and the Princes, and the King did according to the word of Memucan.

22 For he sent letters into all the Kings Provinces, into every Province, according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should beare rule in his owne house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

C H A P. II.

1 ¶ One of the choice of virgins, a Qyrene is to be chosen. 2 Mordecai the waying father of Esther. 3 Esther is preferred by Hegaia before the rest. 4 The manner of purification and going in to the King. 5 Esther hath pleased the King made Qyrene. 6 Mordecai discovering a treason, is rewarded by the Chabrier.

¶ After these things, when the wrath of King Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, & what she had done, & what was decreed against her. Then said the King servants that ministered vnto him, Let there be faire young virgins sought for the King.

2 And let the King appoint officers in all the Provinces of his Kingdome that they may gather together all the faire young virgins vnto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, & vnto the custody of Hegaia the Kings Chamberlaine, keeper of the women and let their things for purification be given them.

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the King be Queene in stead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the King, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace there was a certaine lew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair the son of Shimei, the sonne of Kish, a Beniamite, who had bene carried away from Ierusalem, with the captiuitie which had bene carried away with Ieremiah King of Iudah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon had carried away.

7 And he brought vp Hadassah (that is, Esther) his vncles daughter, for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was faire and beautiful, whom Mordecai (when her father and mother were dead) took for his owne daughter.

8 ¶ So it came to passe, when the Kings commandment, and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together vnto Shushan the palace to the custody of Hegaia, that Esther was brought also vnto the Kings house, vnto the custody of Hegaia keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him, and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her out of the Kings house, and that he preferred her and her maids vnto the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not shewed her people or her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her, that he should not tell it.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens house, to know how Esther did, and what should becom of her.

12 ¶ Now when every maids turne was come to goe in to King Ahasuerus, after that she had bene twelve months, according to the manner of the women (for so were the dayes of their purification accomplished, to wit six months with oyle of myrrhe, and six months with sweet odour, and with other things for the purifying of the women.)

13 Then thus came every maiden vnto the King, whosoever she desired, was given her to goe with her out of the house of the women, vnto the Kings house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she remained into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shashgaz the Kings Chamberlaine, which kept the rosebriars: the came in vnto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turne of Esther the daughter of Ahasui, the vncle of Mordecai, (who had taken her for his daughter) was come, so goe in vnto the King: she required nothing, but what Hegaia the Kings Chamberlaine the keeper of the women appointed: And Esther obtained fauour in the sight of all them that looked vpon her.

16 So Esther was taken vnto King Ahasuerus, into his house Royall in the tenth month, (which is the month Tchebeth) in seventh yeere of his reigne.

17 And the King loued Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace, and fauour: for in his sight, more then all the virgins; so that he set the royall crowne vpon her head, and made her Queene in stead of Vashti.

18 Then the King made a great feast unto all his Princes, and his servants, as Effther feare, and he made a freewill to the Princes, and gave gifts according to the state of the King.

19 And when the virgines were gathered together the second time, Then Mordecai fate in the Kings gate.

20 Effther had not yet showed her kindred, nor her people, as Mordecai had charged her: for Effther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In thoe dayes (while Mordecai fate in the Kings gate) two of the Kings Chamberlaines, ¶ Bigthan and Teresh, and of those which kept the doore, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the King Ahafersus:

22 And the thing was knowen to Mordecai, who told it unto Effther the Queene, and Effther certified the King thereof, in Mordecaies name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out: therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the booke of the Chronicles before the King.

CHAP. III.

2 Haman advanced by the Kings, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh vengeance upon all the Jewes. 7 He casteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumniation, a decree of the King to put the Jewes to death.

After these things did King Ahafersus promote Haman the soune of Ammedatha the Agagite and advanced him, and set his seat above all the Princes that were with him.

2 And all the Kings servants that were in the Kings gate, bowed and reverence Haman, for the King had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the Kings servants which were in the Kings gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressedst thou the Kings commandment?

4 Now it came to passe, when they spake dayly unto him, and he hearkened not unto them: that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai his matters would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone, for they had showed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jewes that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahafersus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 ¶ In the first month, (that is the month Nissan) in the twelfth yeere of King Ahafersus, they cast Pur, that is the lot, before Haman, from day to day, and from month to month, so the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto King Ahafersus: There is a certaine people scattered abroad, and dispersed among the people, in all the provinces of thy kingdom, and their lawes are diverse from all people, neither keep they the Kings lawes, therefore it is meet for the Kings profit to suffer them.

9 If it please the King, let it be written that they may be destroyed, and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver, to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the Kings treasures.

10 And the King took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the soune of Ammedatha the Agagite, the Jewes enemy.

11 And the King said unto Haman, What wilt arguen to thee, the people will: ¶ doe with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the Kings ¶ Scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded, unto the Kings Lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people, of every province, according to the writing thereof, and so every people, after their language, in the name of King Ahafersus was it written, and sealed with the Kings ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the Kings provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jewes, both young and old, little children and women in que day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, (which is the month Adar) and to take the spoyle of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against ¶ day.

15 The posts went out being hastened by ¶ Kings commandment, & the decree was given in Shushan the palace: and the King and Haman fate downe to drinke, but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jewes. 2 Effther understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai who sheweth the cause, and adviseth her to undertake to save. 3 She accusing her selfe is threatened by Mordecai. 4 She appointing a fast, undertaketh the same.

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the middle of the city, and cryed with a loud and bitter cry.

2 And come even before the Kings gate: for none might enter into the Kings gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province whithersoever the Kings commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jewes, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Effther moiled, and her ¶ chamberlaines came, and told it her: then was the Queene exceedingly grieved, and sore for sorrow to clothe Mordecai, and to take away the sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 Then called Effther for Hatath one of the Kings chamberlaines, ¶ whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatath went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the Kings gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the summe of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the Kings treasures for the Jewes, to destroy them.

8 Also hee gave him the copy of the writing of the decree, that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Effther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should get in unto the King, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatath came and told Effther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Againe Effther spake unto Hatath, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai.

11 All the Kings servants, and the people of the Kings provinces doe knowe, that whatsoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the King, into the inner court, who is not called, there is one

Law of his to whip to death, except ſuch to whom the King ſhall hold out the golden ſcepter, that hee may live: but I have not beene called to come in unto the King theſe thirty dayes.

12. And they told to Mordecai Eſthers words.

13. Then Mordecai commanded to anſwer Eſther, Thinke not with thy ſelfe that thou ſhalt eſcape in the Kings houſe, more then all the Jewes.

14. For if thou altogether holdeſt thy peace at this time, then ſhall there be enlargement and deliverance ariſe to the Jewes from another place, but thou and thy fathers houſe ſhall be destroyed: And who knoweth, whether thou art come to the kingdom for ſuch a time as this?

15. ¶ Then Eſther bade them returne Mordecai this anſwer:

16. Goe gather together all the Jewes that are preſent in Shuſhan, and faſt ye for me, and neither eate nor drinke three dayes, night or day: I alſo and my maidens will faſt likewise, and fo will I goe in unto the King, which is not according to the law, and if I periſh, I periſh.

17. So Mordecai ſwear his wayes, and did according to all that Eſther had commanded him.

C H A P. V.

1. Eſther admiring on the Kings favour, obtineth the grace of the golden ſcepter, and inviteth the King and Haman to a banquet. 6. She being encouraged by the King in her ſuit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9. Haman proud of his advancement, ſpeareth as the counſell of Mordecai. 14. By the counſell of Zereth, he buildeth for him a paire of gallows.

NOW it came to paſſe, on the third day, that Eſther put on her royall apparell, & ſtood in the inner court of the Kings houſe, over againſt the Kings houſe: and the King ſate upon his royall throne in the royall houſe, over againſt the gate of the houſe.

2. And it was ſo, when the King ſaw Eſther the Queene ſtanding in the court, that he obtained favour in his ſight: and the King held out to Eſther the golden ſcepter that was in his hand: ſo Eſther drew neere, and touched the top of the ſcepter.

3. Then ſaid the King unto her, What wilt thou Queene Eſther? and what is thy requeſt? It ſhall be done according to the haile of the kingdomes.

4. And Eſther answered, If it ſeeme good unto the King, let the King and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5. Then the King ſaid, Canſe Haman to make haſte, that he may doe as Eſther hath ſaid: ſo the King and Haman came to the banquet that Eſther had prepared.

6. ¶ And the King ſaid unto Eſther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, and it ſhall be granted thee: and what is thy requeſt? even ſo the haile of the Kingdomes it ſhall be performed.

7. Then answered Eſther, and ſaid, My petition and my requeſt is,

8. If I have found favour in the ſight of the King, and if it pleaſe the King to grant my petition, and to performe my requeſt, let the King and Haman come to the banquet that I ſhall prepare for them: and I will doe to morrow as the King hath ſaid.

9. ¶ Then went Haman forth that day ſuddenly, and with a glad heart: but when Haman ſaw Mordecai in the Kings gate, that he ſtood not up, nor bowed for him, he was full of indignation againſt Mordecai.

10. Nevertheless, Haman refrained himſelfe, and went home, he ſent, and called for his friends, and Zereth his wife.

11. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the King had promoted him; and how he had advanced him above the Princes and ſervants of the King.

12. Haman ſaid moreover, Yea, Eſther the Queene did let no man come in unto the King unto the banquet that he had prepared, but my ſelfe, and to morrow ſhe invited unto her alſo with the King.

13. Yet all this availeth me nothing, ſo long as I ſee Mordecai the Jew ſitting at the Kings gate.

14. ¶ Then ſaid Zereth his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of ſixty cubits high, and to morrow ſpeake thou unto the King, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon; then goe thou in merrily with the King unto the banquet. And the thing pleaſed Haman, and he cauſed the gallows to be made.

C H A P. VI.

1. Mordecai reading in the Chronicles of the good ſervice done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. 4. Haman ſuſpecting ſo far that Mordecai might be hanged, unawares ſeeketh counſell that he might doe him honour. 12. Complaining of his miſfortune, his friends tell him of his ſinfull deſtiny.

ON that night it could not be the Kings deſire to command to bring the booke of records of the Chronicles; and they were read before the King.

2. And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Tereth, two of the Kings Chamberlaines, the keepers of the doore, who taught to lay hand on the King Abſuerus.

3. And the King ſaid, What honour and dignity hath bene done to Mordecai for this? Then ſaid the Kings ſervants that miniſtered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4. ¶ And the King ſaid, Who is in the Court? (now Haman was come into the outward court of the Kings houſe, to ſpeake unto the King to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5. And the Kings ſervants ſaid unto him, Behold, Haman ſtandeth in the court. And the King ſaid, Let him come in.

6. So Haman came in, and the King ſaid unto him, What ſhall be done unto the man whom the King delighteth in honour? (now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the King delight to doe honour more then to my ſelfe?)

7. And Haman answered the King, For the man whom the King delighteth to honour,

8. ¶ Let the royall apparell be brought which the King uſeth to wear, and the horſe that the King rideth upon, and the crowne royall which is ſet upon his head:

9. And let this apparell and horſe be delivered to the hand of one of the Kings moſt noble Princes, that they may aray the man with all, whom the King delighteth to honour, and bring him on horſebacke thorow the ſtreet of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus ſhall it be done to the man whom the King delighteth to honour.

10. Then the King ſaid to Haman, Make haſte, and take the apparell, & the horſe, as thou haſt ſaid, & doe even ſo to Mordecai; ſee that ſereth at the Kings gate, let nothing faile of all that thou haſt ſpoken.

11. Then took Haman the apparell, & the horſe, and traped Mordecai, and brought him on horſebacke thorow the ſtreet of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus ſhall it be done unto the man whom the King delighteth to honour.

12. ¶ And Mordecai came againe to the Kings gate, gave: but Haman hasted to his house, mourning and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife, and all his friends, every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wife men, and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jewes, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the Kings chamberlaines, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

C H A P. VII.

1 Esther entreining the King and Haman, maketh suit for her owne life, and her peoples. 2 She accuseth Haman. 7 The King in his anger understanding of the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

SO the King and Haman came to banquet with Esther the Queene.

2 And the King said againe unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition Queene Esther, and it shall be granted thee? and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the halfe of the kingdome.

3 Then Esther the Queene answered, and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O King, and if it please the King, let my life be given me as my petition, and my people as my request.

4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slaine, and to perish: but if wee had beene sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not counterwaile the Kings damage.

5 ¶ Then the King Ahasuerus answered, and said unto Esther the Queene; who is he? and where is he? that durst presume in his heart to doe so?

6 And Esther said, ¶ The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the King and the Queene.

7 ¶ And the King arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace garden, and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the Queene: for he saw that there was could determined against him by the King.

8 Then the King returned out of the palace garden, into the place of the banquet of wine, and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the King, Will hee force the Queene also? before me in the house? As the word went out of the Kings mouth, they covered Hamans face.

9 And Harbous one of the chamberlaines, said before the King, behold also the gallows sixty cubites high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the King, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the Kings wrath pacified.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Mordecai is advanced. 2 Esther wakasheth suit to reverse Hamans letters. 7 Ahasuerus granteth to the Jewes to defend themselves. 15 Mordecai's honour, and the Jewes joy.

ON that day did the King Ahasuerus give the honour of Haman the Jewes enemy, unto Esther the Queene; and Mordecai came before the King, for Esther had told what hee was unto her.

2 And the King tooke off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 ¶ And Esther spake thus againe before the King, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with teares to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his seed, that hee had devised against the Jewes.

4 Then the King held out the golden Scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the King.

5 And said, If it please the King, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seeme right before the King, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the fomer of Hamanestha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jewes, which are in all the Kings provinces.

6 ¶ For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the King Ahasuerus said unto Esther the Queene, and to Mordecai the Jew, behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and hath they have hanged upon the gallows, because hee laid his hand upon the Jewes.

8 Write ye also for the Jewes, as it liketh you, in the Kings name, and seale it with the Kings ring: for the writing which is written in the Kings name, and sealed with the Kings ring, may not be reversed.

9 Then were the Kings Scribes called at that time, in the third month, (that is, the month Siuan) on the three and twentieth day thereof, and it was written (according to all that Mordecai commanded) unto the Jewes, & to the licutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces, which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province, according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jewes according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the King Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the Kings ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels and young dromedaries.

11 Wherein the King granted the Jewes, which were in every city, to gather themselves together, & to stand for their lives, to destroy, to slay, & to cause to perish all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones, and women, and to take the spoile of them for a prey.

12 Upon one day, in all the Provinces of King Ahasuerus, namely upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and the Jewes should be ready against that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the Posts that rode upon mules and camels went out being hastened, and printed on by the Kings commandment, and the decree was given at Susanna the palace.

15 ¶ And Mordecai went out from the presence of the King, in royal apparel of blew and white, and with a great crowne of gold, and with a garment of fine linnen and purple, and the city of Susanna rejoiced, and was glad.

16 The Jewes had light and gladnesse, and ioy, and honour.

17 And in every province and in every city whithersoever the Kings commandment, and his decree came, the Jewes had ioy and gladnesse, a feast and a good day: and many of the people of the land became Jewes, for the feare of the Jewes fell upon them.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The Jewes (the Rulers for their Murdering holding them) by their counsels; with the assistance of Haman. 12 Abasuerus at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter; and Hamans sonnes to be hanged. 20 The two dayes of Purim are made fitfull.

NOW in the twelfth month (that is the month Adar) on the thirtieth day of the same, when the kings commandment & his decree drew neere to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jewes hoped to have power over them: (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jewes had rule over them that hated them.)

2 The Jewes gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the King Abasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt, and no man could withstand them, for the feare of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the Rulers of the provinces, and the Lieutenants, and the Deputies, and Officers of the King helped the Jewes: because the feare of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and his name went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jewes imong all their enemies wote the stroke of the sword, & slaughter, & destruction, and did what they would vnto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jewes slew and destroyed five hundred men:

7 And Parthandatha, & Dalphon, and Aspasia, & Ad Paratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

8 And Parmathas, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajzatha, 9 The ten sonnes of Haman, the sonne of Hamanmedatha, the enemy of the Jewes, slew they, but on the spoyle laid they not their hand.

10 On that day the number of those that were slaine in Sushan the palace, was brought before the King.

11 And the King said vnto Esther the Queene, The Jewes haue slaine and destroyed five hundred men in Sushan the palace, and the ten sonnes of Haman: what have they done in the rest of the Kings provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

12 Then said Esther, If it please the King, let it be granted to the Jewes which are in Sushan, to doe to morrow also according to this dayes decree, and let Hamans ten sonnes be hanged vpon the gallows.

13 And the King commanded it so to be done: and the decree was giuen at Shushan, and they hanged Hamans ten sonnes.

14 For the Jewes that were in Shushan, gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan: but on the prey they laid not their hand.

15 But the other Jewes that were in the Kings provinces, gathered themselves together, and stood for their liues, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes, slauery and five thousand: but they laid not their hands on the prey.

16 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladnesse.

17 But the Jewes that were at Shushan, assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof, and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladnesse.

18 Therefore the Jewes of the villages that dwell in the walled towncs, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar, a day of gladnesse and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

19 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters vnto all the Jewes that were in all the provinces of the King Abasuerus, both nigh and farre, 20 To stablish this among them, that they should keepe the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the sixteenth day of the same yeerlye.

21 As the dayes wherein the Jewes rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned vnto them from sorrow to ioy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them dayes of feasting and ioy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poore.

22 And the Jewes undertooke to doe as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written vnto them:

23 Because Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jewes, had devised against the Jewes, to destroy them, and had cast Pur, (that is the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them.

24 But when Esther came before the King, she commanded by letters, that his wicked decree which he deuised against the Jewes, should returne vpon his owne head, and that hee and his sonnes should be hanged on the gallows.

25 Wherefore they called these dayes Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore, for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, & which had come vnto them,

26 The Jewes ordained, and took vpon them, and vpon their seed, and vpon all such as ioynted themselves vnto them, so as it should not faille; that they would keepe these two dayes, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every yeere:

27 And that their dayes should be remembered, & kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, and that these dayes of Purim should not passe from among the Jewes, nor the memoriall of them perishe from their seed.

28 Then Esther the Queene, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirme this second letter of Purim.

29 And he sent the letters vnto all the Jewes, to the hundred countie and seven Provinces of the kingdom of Abasuerus, with words of peace, and truth:

30 To confirme these dayes of Purim, in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the Queene had enioyned them, and as they had decreed for themselves, and for their seed, the matters of the fallings, and their cry.

31 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the booke.

CHAPTER X.

1 Abasuerus his greatnesse. 3 Mordecai his advancement.

AND the King Abasuerus laid a tribute vpon the land, and vpon the fles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the greatnesse of Mordecai, wherunto the King advanced him, as they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was next vnto King Abasuerus, and great among the Jewes, & accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his foot.

THE BOOK OF IOB.

CHAP. I.

1 The holinesse, riches, and religious care of Iob for his children. 6 Satans appearing before God, by calumniation abasheth Iob so that Iob 13 For deriding of the losse of his goods and children, in his mourning he bleiseth GOD.

Here was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Iob, and that man was perfect and vpright, and one that feared God, and eschewed euill.

2 And there were borne vnto him seuen sonnes and three daughters.

3 His substance also was such thousand sheepe, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a vtry great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the East.

4 And his sons went and feasted in their houses of euery one his day, and ioyed and called for their three sisters to eat and to drinke with them.

5 And it was so, when the dayes of their feasting were gone about, that Iob sate and sanctified them, and rose vp early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings, according to the number of them all: for Iob said, It may be that my sons haue sinned, and cursed God in their hearts: Thus did Iob continually.

6 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the LORD said vnto Satan, Whence comest thou? then Satan answered the LORD, saying, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking vp and downe in it.

8 And the LORD said vnto Satan, Hast thou considered my seruant Iob, that there is none like him in the earth? a perfect and an vpright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill?

9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doeth Iob feare God for nought?

10 Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on euery side? thou hast blessed the worke of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the LORD said vnto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power: only vpon himselfe will I put no wrath thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating, and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

14 And there came a messenger vnto Iob, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them,

15 And the Sabeans fell vpon them, and tooke them away: yea, they haue slaine the seruaunts with the edge of the sword, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While hee was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heauen, and hath burnt vp the sheepe, and the seruaunts, and consumed them, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While hee was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three hands, and fell vpon the camels, and haue carried them away, yea, and slaine the seruaunts with the edge of the sword, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While hee was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sonnes and thy daughters were eating, and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the foure corners of the house, and it fell vpon the young men, and they are dead, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Iob arose and rent his mantle, and staued his head, and fell downe vpon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, Naked came I out of my mothers wombe; and naked shall I returne thither: the LORD hath taken away, blest be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this I haue sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAP. II.

1 Satans appearing againe before God, and further leaues to tempt Iob: 7 Iob with sore boiles. Satans reproaching his wife mourning him to curse Gods name. His three friends could not see him in silence.

AGAINE there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himselfe before the LORD.

1 And the LORD said vnto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, saying, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking vp and downe in it.

2 And the LORD said vnto Satan, Hast thou considered my seruant Iob, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an vpright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth euill? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou mouest me against him, to destroy him without cause.

3 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that he hath will he giue for his life.

4 And Satan said vnto the LORD, Touch not his bone, and his sinew, & he will curse thee to thy face.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his sinew, & he will curse thee to thy face.

6 And the LORD said vnto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand, I but saue his life.

7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Iob with sore boiles, from the sole of his foot vnto his crowne.

8 And he tooke him a potsherd to scrape himselfe withall: and he sate downe among the ashes.

9 ¶ Then said his wife vnto him, Doest thou still remaine thine integrity? Curse God, and die.

10 But he said vnto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh: what shall we receive good at the hand of God, & shall we not receive euill? In all this did not Iob sin with his lips.

11 ¶ Now when Iobs three friends heard of all this euill that was come vpon him, they came euery one from his owne place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together, to come to mourne with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lift vp their eyes as they sat, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept, and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

12 So they sat downe with him upon the ground seven dayes, and seven nightes, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his griefe was very great.

C H A P. III.

1 Job curseth the day, and serveth of his birth.
12 The rage of death. 20 The complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

After this opened Job his mouth, and curseth his day.

1 And Job ſpake, and ſaid,
2 Let the day perish wherein I was borne, and the night in which it was ſaid, There is a man-child conceived.

3 Let that day be darkneſſe, let not God regard it from above, neither let the light ſhine upon it.

4 Let darkneſſe and the ſhadow of death ſtaine it, let a cloud dwell upon it, let the blackneſſe of the day terrifie it.

5 As for that night, let darkneſſe ſeize upon it, let it not be joyed unto the dayes of the yeere, let it not come into the number of the monthes.

6 Oe, let that night be ſolitary, let no joyfull voice come thither.

7 Let them curſe it that curſe the day, who are ready to rapt up to their mourning.

8 Let the ſtarres of the twilight thereof be darke, let it looke for light, but have none, neither let us ſee it the dawning of the day:

9 Becauſe if that not up the doores of my mothers wombe, nor hid ſorrow from mine eyes.

10 Why die I out from the wombe? why did I not give up the ghoſt when I came out of the belly?

11 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I ſhould ſucke?

12 For now ſhould I have ſien ſtill and bin quiet, I ſhould have ſlept, then had I bene at reſt.

13 With Kings and Counſellers of the earth, which build deſtroyed places for themſelves, 14 Or with Princes that had gold, who filled their houſes with ſilver:

15 Or as an hidden untimely birth, I had not bene: as infants which never ſaw light.

16 There the wicked ceaſe from troubling, and there the ſavage be at reſt.

17 There the ſheep ſeek together, they heare not the voice of the oppreſſour.

18 The ſmall and great are there, and the ſervant is free from his maſter.

19 Wherefore is light given to him that is in miſery, and life vpon the bitter in ſoul?

20 Which I long for death, but it cometh not, and dig for it more then for hid treaſures:

21 Which reioice exceedingly, and are glad when they can find the grave?

22 Why is light given to a man whoſe way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

23 For my ſighting cometh before I eat, and my roarings are powdered out like the waters.

24 For I ſee the thing which I greatly feared is come vpon me: and that which I was afraid of, is come vnto me.

25 I was not in ſafety, neither had I reſt, neither was I quiet: yet trouble came.

C H A P. IIIII.

1 Eliphaz reprooveth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth Gods judgments to beget for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His ſureſell wiſdom, 20 humble the excellencies of ſtrength before God.

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, and ſaid, 1 If wee may ſee to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himſelfe from ſpeaking?

2 Behold, thou haſt instructed many, and thou haſt ſtrengthened the weak hands.

3 Thy words haue upheld many, and thou haſt ſtrengthened the terrible faces.

4 But now it is come vpon thee, and thou fainteſt, it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

5 Is not this thy feare, thy confidence, the uprightneſſe of thy wayes, and thy hope?

6 Remember, I pray thee, who thee perished being innocent, or where were the righteous out off?

7 Euen as I have ſeene, they that plow iniquitie, and ſow wickedneſſe, reape the ſame.

8 By the bleſſing of God they periſh, and by the breath of his wrath are they conſumed.

9 The roaring of the lyon, and the voyce of the fierce lyon, and the teeth of the young lynes are broken.

10 The old lyon periſheth for lacke of prey, and the ſtrong lynes whelpes are ſcattered abroad.

11 Now a thing was ſeeked from thee to mee, and mine care receiued a little cheroot.

12 In thoughtes from the viſions of the night, when deepe ſleepe falleth on men:

13 Feare came vpon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to ſhake.

14 Then a ſpirit paſſed before my face: the haire of my ſkin ſtood vp.

15 It ſtood ſtill, but I could not diſcerne the forme thereof: an image was before mine eyes,

16 There was ſilence, and I heard a voyce, ſaying,

17 Shall moſt tall man be more iuſt then God? ſhall a man be more pure then his Maker?

18 Behold, he hath put no truſt in his ſervants, and his Angels he charged with folly:

19 How much leſſe with them that dwell in houſes of clay, whoſe foundation is in the duſt, which are cruſhed before the meek.

20 They are deſtroyed from morning to evening: they periſh for ever without any regarding it.

21 Doeth not their excellency which is in them, goe away? they die, euen without wiſedome.

C H A P. V.

1 The harme of moſt elevation. 2 The end of the wicked is miſery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of Gods correption.

All now, if there be any that wilt anſwere thee, and to which of the Saints wilt thou turne?

2 For wrath killeth the fooliſh man, and ſeareth away the ſilly one.

3 I haue ſeene the fooliſh taking root: but ſuddenly I curſed his habitation, 4 His children are ſure from ſafety, and they are cruſhed in the gate, neither is there any to deliuer them.

5 When harneſſ the hungry eateth vp, and increaſeth it euen out of the thornes, and the robber ſhall ſwallow vp their ſubſtance.

6 Although I ſit downe cometh now ſorrow of the duſt, neither doeth trouble ſpring out of the ground:

7 Yet man is borne vnto trouble, as if the ſparke be ſpurned.

8 I would ſeek vnto God, and vnto God would I commit my cauſe:

9 Which doeth great things, and vnſearchable: myſterious things without number.

10 Who giveth raine vpon the earth, and ſendeth waters vpon the fields:

... the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledging Gods justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Mans innocency is not to be questioned by afflictions.
Then Job answered, and said,
2 I know it is of a truth: but how should I man be just with God.
3 If hee will contend with him, hee cannot an-swere him one of a thousand.
4 Hee is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
who hath hardened himselfe against him, and hath prospered?
5 Which remooveth the mountains, and try they out: which overthroweth them in his anger:
6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble:
7 Which commandeth the Sunne, and it riseth not: and saileth vp the Starres.
8 Which scooteth upon the heauens, and treaseth upon the fowles of the Sea.
9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleides, and the chambers of the Soules:
10 Which doeth great things past finding out:
yea, and wonders without number.
11 Lo, hee goeth by mee, and I see him not: hee passeth on also, but I perceiue him not.
12 Behold, hee taketh away, & who can hinder him? who will say vnto him, What doest thou?
13 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers doe stompe vnder him.
14 How much lesse shall I answer him; and close out my words to reason with him?
15 Whom thought I were righteous, yet would I not answer; but I would make supplication so my Iudge.
16 If I had called, and he had answered me: yet would I not believe that hee had hearkned vnto my voyce:
17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and mul-tiplieth my woundes without cause.
18 He will not suffer mee to speake my truth, but silkteth me with lies.
19 If I speake of strength, loe he is strong: and if of iudgement, who shall see me a time to plead?
20 If I iustifie my selfe, mine enemy shall condemne me: If I say, I am perfect, it shall also prooue me pernitious.
21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soule: I would despise my life, 22 This is one thing, therefore I said it; Hee de-stroyeth the perfect and the wicked:
23 If he scourge slay suddenly, hee will laugh at the trayll of the innocēt.
24 The earth is giuen into the hand of the wicked:
he conuerteth the faces of the Iudges thereof; if not, wher is and who is he?
25 Now my dayes are swifter then a Post: they flee away, they see no good.
26 They are passed away as the fowling ships:
the Eagle that hasteth to the prey.
27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heauinesse, and comfort my selfe.
28 I am afraid of all my sorrowes, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.
29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vaine?
30 If I wash my selfe with snow water, and make my hands neuer so cleane:
31 Yet shall thou plunge mee in the ditch, and mine owne clothes shall I abhorre me.
32 For he is not a man as I, therefore I should answer.

CHAP. VIII.

Bildad sheweth Gods justice, in dealing with men according to their works. 8 He allegeth antiquity to prooue the certaine destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applieth Gods iust dealing to Job.

Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
1 How long wilt thou speake these things?
and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?
2 Doeth God peruert iudgement? or doth the Almighty peruert iustice?
3 If thy children haue sinned against him, and he haue cast them away, & for their transgression:
4 *If thou wouldst sleeke vnto God with trimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty:
5 If thou wert pure and vpright, surely now hee would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
6 I taught thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.
7 *For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thy selfe to the search of their fathers.
8 *For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our dayes vpon earth are a fleeting shadow.
9 Shall we not they teach thee, and tell thee, and vnter words out of their heart?
10 Can the rush grow vp without mire? can the flagge grow without water?
11 Whilst it is yet in his greenesse, and not cut downe, it withereth before any other herbe.
12 So are the paths of all that forget God; and their hope shall perish:
13 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be as a spiders web.
14 He shall lye vpon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
15 He is greene before the Sunne, and his branch shooteh forth in his garden.
16 His rootes are wrapped about the heape, and his branches spread out vnto the place of stones.
17 If hee destroy him from his place, then it shall be as if hee were gone, & hee shall see none.
18 He shall be as if hee were gone, & hee shall see none.
19 He shall be as if hee were gone, & hee shall see none.
20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will hee helpe the millic doers:
21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with praising.
22 They shall see thee, and shall be slayned with

It is his that shall me w.

The swelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

C H A P. IX.

1 Job acknowledging Gods justice, sheweth that there is no contending with him. 22 In mans innocency is not to be commended by afflictions.

Then Job answered, and said, 2 I know it is of a truth: but how should man be just with God.

3 If hee will contend with him, hee cannot overcome him one of a thousand.

4 Hee is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himselfe against him, and hath despised him?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger:

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble:

7 Which commandeth the Sunne, and it riseth not: and scaldeth up the Starrs.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the Sea.

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the South:

10 Which doeth great things past finding out: yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, hee goeth by mee, and I see him not: hee passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

12 Behold, hee hath taken away, & who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What dost thou?

13 If God will not withdraw his anger, & if proud helpers doe stoop under him.

14 How much lesse shall I answer him: and chuse out my words to reason with him?

15 Whom though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, lest I would make supplication to my Judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered mee: yet would I not believe that hee had hearkened unto my voyce:

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer mee to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, loe he is strong: and if of iudgement, who shall set me a time to plead?

20 If I iustifie my selfe, mine owne mouth shall condemn me: if I say I am perfect, it shall also prouve me perverbe.

21 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soule: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it; Hee destroyeth the perfect: and the wicked;

23 If he scourge day suddenly, hee will laugh at the cryall of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: hee covereth the faces of the Iudges thereof; if not, where and who is he?

25 Now my dayes are swifter then a Post: they see away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the Eagle that swifteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heavynesse, and comfort my selfe.

28 I am afraid of all my sorrowes, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vaine? 30 If I wash my selfe with snow water, and make my hands never so cleane:

31 Yet shalt thou plauge mee in the ditch, and I mine owne clothes shall I abhorre me.

15 So that my death rather than I loath it, 16 I loath it, because for my sinnes.

17 What is mine iniquity? and what thine iniquity? 18 And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

19 How long wilt thou not depart from mee? nor let me alone till I swallow downe my spittle?

20 I have sinned, what shall I doe unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a marke against thee, so that I am a burden to my selfe?

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleepe in the dust, and thou shalt seeke me in the morning, but I shall not be.

C H A P. VIII.

1 Biddar sheweth Gods justice, in dealing with men according to their workes. 8 Hee allegeth anxiety to prouve the certaine destruction of the hypocrite. 20 Hee applieth Gods will dealing to Job.

Then answered Biddar the Shuhite, and said, 1 How long wilt thou speake these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

2 Doeth God pervert iudgement? or doth the Almighty pervert iustice?

3 If thy children have sinned against him, and hee have cast them away for their transgression:

4 If thou wouldst seeke unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

5 If thou wert pure and upright, surely now hee would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousnesses prosperous.

6 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

7 For thou hast despised his word, and despisest his voice, therefore thou shalt be hated, and shalt be despised.

8 For thou hast despised his word, and despisest his voice, therefore thou shalt be hated, and shalt be despised.

9 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

10 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flagge grow without water?

11 If it withereth before any other herbe, shall it not wither? shall it not be cut downe like the other herbes?

12 Where are the paths of all that forget God? and where are the hypocrites hope shall perish?

13 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be like a spiders web.

14 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

15 He is greene before the Sunne, and his branch sheweth forth in his garden.

16 His roots are wrapped about the heape, and he shall be like the place of flowers.

17 If hee destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seene thee.

18 Behold, thus is the ioy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

19 He shall not be cast away, nor shall hee be helped: he shall be like the mill doores.

20 Till hee fill the mouth with laughing, and thy lips with reviling.

21 They that hate thee, shall be clothed with 22 Neither is there any daye man betwixt vs, that might lay his hand vpon vs both.

23 Let him take his rod away from mee, and let not his feare terrifie me.

24 Then would I speake and not feare him, but it is not so with me.

CHAP. X.

1 Job taking liberty of complaint expollatesh with God about his afflictions. 28 He complauesh of his good estate a little eafe before death.

MY soule is weary of my life, I will leane my complaint vpon my selfe; I will speake in the bitterness of my soule.

2 I will say vnto God, Doe not condemne mee; shew me wherefore thou contradictest with me.

3 Is it good vnto thee, that thou shouldest oppresse? that thou shouldest despise the worke of thine hands? and thine vpon the counsell of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy dayes as the dayes of men? are thy yeeres as mans dayes?

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sinne?

7 Thou knowest that I am not wicked, & there is none that can deliuer out of thine hand.

8 Thine handes haue made me, and fashioned me together round about, yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust againe?

10 Hast thou not powdered me out as milke, and cruded me like cheefe?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinewes.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, & thy visitation hath preferred my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart; I know that this is with thee.

14 If I sinned, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

15 If I be wicked, woe vnto mee, and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift vp mine head: I am full of confusion, therefore see thou mine affliction.

16 For it increaseth; thou huntest me as a fierce Lion: and againe, thou shalt see thy selve marvellous vpon me.

17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation vpon me; changes and wars are against me.

18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the wombe? O that I had giuen vp the ghost, and no eye had seene me!

19 I should haue bene as though I had not bene, I should haue bene carryed from the wombe to the graue.

20 Are not my dayes few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little.

21 Before I goe whence I shall not returne, euen to the land of darkness, and the shadow of death.

22 A land of darkenes, as darkenesse it selfe, and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkenes.

CHAP. XI.

1 Zophar reprooueth Job for misifying himselfe, Gods wisdom is vnsearchable. 12 The assured blessing of repentance.

Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

... can be in the hands of words...

... hold their peace...

... shall you make them...

... and open his...

... and he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom;

... that they are double to that which they know therefore that God exareth of thee;

... Canst thou by searching finde out God? canst thou finde out the Almighty vnto perfection?

8 If it is as high as heauen, what canst thou doe deeper then heil, what canst thou know?

9 The measure thereof is longer then the earth, and broader then the Sea.

10 If he cut off and shut vp, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

11 For he knoweth what meane the seeth wickednesse also, will he not then consider it?

12 For a vaine man would be wise, though man be borne like a wild Asses colt.

13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him.

14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickednesse dwell in thy tabernacle.

15 For when shalt thou lift vp thy face without spot, yea thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not feare?

16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that passe away.

17 And thine age shall bee clearer then the noone daye, thou shalt see thine seed, thou shalt see as the morning.

18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

19 Ask thou shalt lie downe, and none shall make thee afraid; yea many shall make suit vnto thee.

20 But the eyes of the wicked shall faile, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving vp of the ghost.

CHAP. XII.

1 Job maintaineth himselfe against his friends that reprove him. 7 He acknowledgeth the general doctrine of Gods omnipotence.

And Job answered, and said,

2 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

3 But I haue understanding as well as you, I am not inferior to you, yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

4 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth vpon God, and he answereth him; the iust vpright man is laughed to scorn.

5 Hee that is ready to slip with his feet: is as a lampe despised in the thought of him that is secure.

6 The tabernacles of robbers prosper: and they that procure God are secure, into whose hand God bringeth abundance.

7 But aske now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the foules of the ayre, and they shall tell thee.

8 Or speake to the earth, and it shall teach thee; and the fishes of the Sea shall declare vnto thee.

9 Who knoweth not in all these, that the hand of the Lord hath wrought this?

10 In whose hand is the soule of every liuing thing, and the breath of every mankinde.

11 Or, lift up thine eyes, and see the workes of his hand.

12 Or, lift up thine eyes, and see the workes of his hand.

13 Or, lift up thine eyes, and see the workes of his hand.

14 Or, lift up thine eyes, and see the workes of his hand.

15 Or, lift up thine eyes, and see the workes of his hand.

Chap. 11 * Dost not the earth try wood? and the mouth talk his meat?
 12 With the ancient is wisdom, and in length of dayes understanding.
 13 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.
 14 * Behold hee breaketh downe; and it cannot be built againe: hee * smothereth † vp a man, and there can be no opening.
 15 Behold, hee withholdeth the waters, and they dry vp: also he sendeth them out, and they overflowe the earth.
 16 With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.
 17 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the iudges fooles.
 18 Hee looseth the bond of Kings, and garnisheth their loynes with a girdle.
 19 He leadeth Princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.
 20 * Hee removeth away the speech of the tuisly, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.
 21 Hee pouereth contempt vpon Princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.
 22 He discovereth deepe things out of darkenes, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.
 23 Hee increaseth the Nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and † straighteneth them againe.
 24 He taketh away the heart of the chiefe of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
 25 They grope in the darke without light, and he maketh them ro † stagger like a drunken man.
 CHAP. XIII.

Job reprooveth his friends of partiality. 14 He professeth his confidence in God. 22 and increaseth to know his owne heart, and Gods purpose in afflicting him.
 1 Do mine eye hath seene all this, mine eare hath heard and vnderstood it.
 2 What ye know, the same doe I know also, I am not inferiour vnto you.
 3 Surely I would speake to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.
 4 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are † Physicians of no value.
 5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, and it should be your wisdom.
 6 Heare now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleading of my lips.
 7 Will you speake wickedly for God? and talke deceitfully for him?
 8 Will ye accept his person? will ye count for God?
 9 Is it good that he should search you out? for as one man smothereth another, doe ye so make him?
 10 He will surely reprove you, if ye doe secretly accept persons.
 11 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall vpon you?
 12 Your remembrances are like vnto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.
 13 † Hold your peace, let mee alone, that I may speake, and let come on me what will.
 14 Wherefore doe I take my flesh in my teeth? and put my life in mine hand?
 15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will not maintaine mine owne wayes before him.
 16 He shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not commend him.

17 Heare diligently my speech, and my declaration with your eares.
 18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause, I know that I shall be iustified.
 19 Who is hee that will please with mee? for now if I hold my tongue, I shall giue vp the ghost.
 20 Once I doe not two things vnto mine deitie: will I not hide my selfe from thee?
 21 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.
 22 Thou shalt call thou, and I will answer: or let me speake, and answer thou me.
 23 How many are mine iniquities, and findmaketh me to know my transgression: and my inime.
 24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?
 25 Wilt thou breake a iackstraw, and speare of gold, and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?
 26 For thou writest bitter things against mee, & makest me to possesse the iniquities of my youth.
 27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and † lookest on rowly vnto all my path without respect: a print vpon the † books of my feet.
 28 And hee as a rotten thing of fustian, as a garment that is moaten with.

CHAP. XIII.

Job commendeth God for favour by the shortness of his, and certainties of his life. 7 Though life once lost is irreuerendly yet he waiteth for his change.
 16 By his creation he is subiect to corruption.
 MANKIND is borne of a woman, is † vt of few dayes, and full of trouble.
 * Hee commeth forth like a flower, and is cut downe: hee fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.
 3 And dost thou open thine eyes vpon such an one, and bringest me into iudgement with thee?
 4 † Who can bring a cleane thing out of an vnclene? or one.
 5 * Seeing his dayes are determined, the number of his monthes are with thee; thou hast appointed his boundes, that he cannot passe.
 6 Turne from him that he may rest till hee shall accomplish as an hireling, his daye.
 7 For there is hope of a tree if it be cut downe, that it will sprout againe, and that the tender branch thereof will not be drie.
 8 Though the root thereof waxe old in the earth, and the stocke thereof die in the ground:
 9 Yet inough the stee of water it will bud, and bring forth boughes like a plant.
 10 But man dieth, and † wasteth away; yea, man giueth vp the ghost, and where is he?
 11 As the waters faile from the sea, and the flood decayeth and dryeth vp:
 12 So man lieth downe, and riseth not: till the beams be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleepe.
 13 O that thou wouldest hide mee in the grave, that thou wouldest keepe mee secret vntill thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint mee a set time, and remember mee.
 14 If a man die, shall hee liue againe? All the dayes of my appointed time will I waite till my change come.
 15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt haue a desire to the worke of thine hand.
 16 * For now thou numberest my steps, dost thou not watch ouer my inime?
 17 Mytrangression is sealed vp in a bagge, and thou lowest vp mine iniquity.
 18 And surely the merceture faileth † cometh

20 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and hee ¶ fleeth: thou changeest his countenance, and findest him away.

21 His finnes come to honour, and he knoweth it not: and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproacheth Job of impiety in justifying himselfe. 17 He prometh by tradition the wickedness of wicked men.

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, & said, 2 Should a wise man utter ¶ vaine knowledge, and fill his belly with the East wind?

3 Should he reason with vnpromisable talke? or with speeches which with he can doe no good?

4 Yea, ¶ thou castest off feare, and restrainest ¶ prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth ¶ uttereth thine iniquity, and thou givest the tongue of the crafty.

6 Thine owne mouth condemneeth thee, and not thy lips: thine owne lips testify against thee.

7 What thou the first man that was borne? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 ¶ Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thy selfe?

9 What knowest thou that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in vs?

10 With vs are both the gray headed, and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

11 Are the consolers of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why dost thine heart carry thee away? and what doct thou thinke thy eyes winke at, 13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and leastest his words upon: of thy mouth?

14 ¶ What is man, that he should be cleane? and he which is borne of a woman, that he should bee righteous?

15 ¶ Behold, hee putteth no trust in his Saints, yea the innocents are not cleane in his sight.

16 How much more abominable and filthy is man which drinketh iniquity like water?

17 I will shew thee, heare me, and that which I haue seene, I will declare,

18 Which wife man haue told from their fathers, and haue not hid it:

19 Vnto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

20 The wicked man is smaleth with paine all his dayes, and the number of yeeres is hidden to the oppressour.

21 ¶ A dreadfull sound is in his eares; in prosperitie the destroyer shall come vpon him.

22 He beliceth it not that he shall returne out of darkness, and he is wanted for of the sword.

23 He wandreth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darknesse is ready at his hand.

24 Trouble and anguist, shall make him afraid: they shall prevaille against him, as a King ready to the battell.

25 For he stretched out his hand against God, and strenghteneth himselfe against the Almighty.

26 He ranceth vpon him, even on his necke, vpon the thicke bowles of his bucklers:

27 Because hee covereth his face with his fanesie and maketh collops of fax on his flankes.

28 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heapes.

29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the pccission thereof vpon the earth.

30 He shall not depart out of darknesse, the flame shall drie vp his branches, and by the breath of his wrath shall hee goe away.

31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

32 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be Greene.

33 He shall shake off his vine grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the Olive.

34 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be deolace, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 They conceive mischief, ¶ and bring forth ¶ vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Job reproacheth his friends of unmercifulnesse. 7 He sheweth the pitifullnesse of his case. 17 Hee mourneth his inuicety.

Then Job answered, and said,

1 I haue heard many such things: ¶ miserable comforters are ye all.

2 Shall ¶ vaine words haue an end? or what emboldeneth thee, that thou answerest?

3 I also should speake as yee doe: if your soules were in my soules stead, I could heape vp words against you, and shake mine head at you.

4 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the mourning of my lips should aluoyge your griefe.

5 Though I speake, my griefe is not alluaged: and though I forbear, ¶ what am I eased?

6 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

7 And thou hast filled me with wrineles, which is a witness against me: and my leauensiee rising vp in me, beareth witness to my face.

8 He reareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gaaseth vpon me with his teeth, mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes vpon me.

9 They haue gaped vpon me with their month, they haue smitten me vpon ¶ cheeke reprochfully, they haue gathered themselues together against me.

10 God ¶ hath deliuered me to the vngodly, and turned me ouer into the hands of the wicked.

11 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my necke, and shaken me so pierce, and set me vp for his mark.

12 His archers compass me round about, he cleaureth my reins ariuer, and doth not spare; how powreth out my gall vpon the ground.

13 He breaketh me with breach vpon breach; he runneth vpon me like a giant.

14 I haue sowed sackcloth vpon my skin, and defiled my home in the dust.

15 My face is torle with weeping, and on mine eye lids is the shadow of death.

16 Not for any iniustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

17 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry haue no place.

18 Alas now, ¶ behold my witnesse is in heaven, and my record is ¶ on high.

19 My friends ¶ scorne me: but mine eye powreth out teares vnto God.

21 O that one might plead for a man with God as a man pleades for his neighbour.

22 When ¶ a few yeeres are come, then I shall see the way wherunto I shall not returne.

C H A P. XVII.

1 Job appealeth from men to God. Of the vniuersall dealing of men with the afflicted, way of comfort but not discourage the righteous. 11 His hope is not in life but in death.

MY breath is corrupt, my dayes are as ashes, and the graces are ready for me.

2 Are there not weepers with me? and doth not mine eye ¶ continue in their prouocation?

3 Lay downe now, put me in a sack with ther, who is he that will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hid their heart from vnderstanding: therefore shall they not exalt them.

5 He that speaketh flattery to his friends: euen the eyes of his children shall faile.

6 He hath made me also a byword of the people, and ¶ afore time I was as a tabret.

7 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all ¶ my members are as a shadow.

8 Vpright men shall be astonish'd at this, and the innocent shall stir vphisoull against the hypocrite.

9 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath cleane hands ¶ shall bee stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, doe you returne, and come now, for I cannot finde one wise man among you.

11 My dayes are past, my purposes are broken off, euen ¶ the thoughts of my heart:

12 They change the night into day: the light is ¶ short, because of darkness.

13 If I wait, the grasse is mine house: I haue made my bed in the darkness.

14 I haue ¶ said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worme, Thou art my mother & my sister.

15 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall goe downe to the bars of the pit, when our testimony is in the dust.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 Bildad representeth Job of presumption and impiety. 5 The calamities of the wicked.

Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou be, ere you make an end of words? make, and afterwards wee will speake.

3 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

4 He teareth ¶ himselfe in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for ther? and shall the rocke be removed out of his place?

5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall bee put out, and the sparke of his fire shall not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his ¶ candle shall be put out with him.

7 The steps of his strength shall be straitned, and his owne counsell shall cast him downe.

8 For he is cast into a net by his owne feet, and he walketh vpon a snare.

9 The grin shall take him by the heeles, and the robber shall preuaile against him.

10 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

11 Terrours shall make him afraid on every side, and shall ¶ drive him to his feet.

12 His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.

13 It shall deuoure the strength of his sin: and the still borne of death shall deuoure his strength, 14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his T abernacle, and it shall bring him to the King of ¶ terrours.

15 He shall dwell in his T abernacle, because it is the house of his brimstone: shall be scattered vpon his habitation.

16 His roores shall be cryed vp beneath: and his house shall his bone be durt off.

17 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall haue no name in the street.

18 ¶ He shall be driuen from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

19 He shall neither haue son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

20 They that come after him shall be astonish'd at his day, as they that ¶ went before, ¶ were affrighted.

21 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

C H A P. XIX.

1 Job complaineth of his friends cruelty, sheweth there is misery enough in him to feed their cruelty.

21. 25 He teacheth piety. 23 Hee belongeth to the reformation.

Then Job answered, and said,

2 How long will you vex me soule, and breake me in pieces with words?

3 These tenne times haue ye reproach'd me: you are not ashamed that you make your selues strange to me.

4 And be it indeede that I haue erred, mine error remaineth with my selfe.

5 If indeede ye will magnifie your selues against me, and plead against me my reproch:

6 Know now that God hath overthrowne mee: and hath compassed me with his net.

7 Behold, I cry out of ¶ wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud but there is no iudgment.

8 He hath fenced vp my way, that I cannot passe, and he hath set darkness in my path.

9 He hath stripe me of my glory, and taken the crowne from my head.

10 He hath destroyed me on euery side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, & he counteth me vnto him as one of his enemies.

12 His troups come together, and raise vp their way against me, and encampe round about my Tabernacle.

13 He hath put my brethren farre from me, and mine acquaintance are verely estranged from me.

14 My kinnefolke haue failed, and my familiar friends haue forgotten me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maidens count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

16 I called my seruants, and he gaue me no answer: I entreated him with my mouth.

17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the childrens sake of ¶ mine owne body.

18 Yea, ¶ young children despised me, I arose, and they spake against me.

19 All ¶ my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved, are turned against me.

20 My hope cleaueth to my skin, and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.

21 Haue pittie vpon me, Haue pittie ¶ vpon me, O ye my friends: for the hand of God hath touched me.

22 Why doe ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

23 ¶ Oh that my words were now written, Oh that they were printed in a booke:

24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead, in the rock for ever.
 25 For I know that my Redeemer lieth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:
 26 And though after my skin, worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:
 27 Whom I shall see for my selfe, and mine eyes shall behold, and not for another, though my reins be consumed within me.
 28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him? seeing the rock of the matter is found in me.
 29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishment of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgement.

Or, and what root of matter is found in me?

CHAP. XX.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

Tillem answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said:

1 Therefore doe my thoughts cause mee to answer, and for this I make haste.
 2 I have heard the checke of my reproch, and the spirit of my understanding canserth me to answer.
 3 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,
 4 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?
 5 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds:
 6 Yet he shall perish for ever, like his own dung, they which haue sence him shall say, Where is he?
 7 He shall flee away as a dremie, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away, as a vision of the night.
 8 The eye also which saw him, shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.
 9 His children shall seeke to please the poore, and his hands shall restore their goods.
 10 His bones are full of the sinne of his youth, which shall be downe with him in the dust.
 11 Though wickednesse be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it vnder his tongue, 12 Though he see spere it, and forsake it not, but keepe it still within his mouth:
 13 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of aspes within him.
 14 He hath swallowed downe riches, and he shall vomit them vp againe: God shall cast them out of his belly.
 15 He shall sucke the poyson of aspes: the vipers tongue shall stay him.
 16 He shall not see the rivers, nor the floods, the brookes of honey and butter.
 17 That which he laboured for, shall he restore, and shall not swallow it downe: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and hee shall not receive therein.
 18 Because he hath oppressed, and hath forsaken the poore: because hee hath violently taken away an house which he builded not.
 19 Surely hee shall not see, nor shall he desire, he shall not see of that which he desired.
 20 There shall none of his meate be left, therefore shall no man looke for his good.
 21 In the fulcricke of his sufficiency, he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.
 22 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall take it upon him, while he is eating.

24 Hee shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of Steele shall strike him through.
 25 It is drawne and cometh out of the body of pee, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terror is vpon him.
 26 All darknesse shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blowne shall consume him: it shall geue ill with him that is left in his Tabernacle.
 27 The heauen shall reueale his iniquity: and the earth shall rise vp against him.
 28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.
 29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed vnto him by God.

CHAP. XXI.

Joh sheweth that euen in the iudgement of man, he hath reason to be grieved. Sometimes the wicked doe so prosper, as they despise God: as Samson, since their destruction is manifest. The happy and unhappy are alike in death. The iudgement of the wicked is in another world.

1 Vt Iob answered, and said,
 2 I Heare diligently my speech, and let this be your consolation.
 3 Suffer mee that I may speake, and after that I haue spoken, mocke on.
 4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?
 5 Make me, and be astonished, and lay your hand vpon your mouth.
 6 Euen when I remember, I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.
 7 Wherefore doe the wicked liue, become old, yea, are mighty in power?
 8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their off-spring before their eyes.
 9 Their houses are full: safe from feare, neither is the rod of God vpon them.
 10 Their bull graudeth, and faileth not, their cow calueth, and calueth not her calfe.
 11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
 12 They take the timbrell and harpe, and they dance at the sound of the organs.
 13 They spend their dayes in wealth, and in a moment goe downe to the graue.
 14 Therefore they say vnto God, Depart from vs: for we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.
 15 What is the Almighty, that wee should feare him? and what profit should we haue, if we pray vnto him?
 16 See, their good is not in their hand, the counsell of the wicked is farre from me.
 17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out, and how oft cometh their destruction vpon them? God distributeth sorrowes in his anger.
 18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaffe that the storme carryeth away.
 19 God layeth vp his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.
 20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drinke of the wrath of the Almighty.
 21 For what pleasure shall he in his house after him, when the number of his monthes is cut off in the midst?
 22 Shall any teach God knowledge, seeing hee iudgeth those that are high?
 23 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.
 24 His breasts are full of milke, and his bowels are moistened with marrow.

3 Job protesteth his sincerity, 8 The hypocrite without hope, 11 The blessings which the wicked hath, are turned into curses.

MOREOVER, JOB continued this parable, & said, 2 As God lieth who hath taken away my judgement, and the Almighty who hath vexed my soule:
3 All the while my breath is in mee, and * the Spirit of God is in my nostrils:
4 My lips shall not speake wickednesse, nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 God forbid that I should iustifie you: till I die, I will not remove my integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reprove me + so long as I live.
7 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that rideth up against me, as the unrighteous.
8 * For what is the hope of the hypocrite though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soule?
9 * Will God bear his cry, when trouble commeth upon him?
10 Will he delight him: selfe in the Almighty?
will he alwaies call upon God?
11 I will teach you + by the hand of God: + that which is with the Almighty, will I not conceale.
12 Behold all see your secretes how feene they, why then are ye thus altogether vaine?
13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressours, which they shall receive of the Almighty.
14 If his children be multiplied, it is for + sword:
and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
15 * The other that remaine of him shall be buried in death: + and his widowes shall not weepe.

on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

Bilad sheweth that man cannot be iustified before God.

THOU answered Bilad the Sinite, and said,
1 Dominion and feare are with him, hec maketh peace in his high places.
2 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?
3 * How then can man be iustified with God: or how can he be cleane that is borne of a woman?
4 Behold, even as the moon, and it shineth not,
yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.
5 How much lesse man that is a worme: and the sonne of man which is a * vaine?

CHAP. XXVIL

Job repeating the unsearchable spirit of Bilad, acknowledgeth the power of God to be infinite and unsearchable.

HE answered, and said,
2 How hast thou helped him that is without power: how hast thou saved him that hath no strength?

21 The East wind carrieth him away, and he departed, as a storme hurleth him out of his place.
 22 For God shall cast vpon him, and not spare: he would haue sice out of his hand.
 23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hisse him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of nature all things, 22 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

3 Surely there is a veare for the siluer, and a place for gold where they fire it.

4 Iron is taken out of the flint, and brasse is molten out of the stone.

5 He seetheth an end to darknesse, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

6 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitants: euen the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried vp, they are gone away from men.

7 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and vnder it is turned vp as it were fire.

8 The stones of it are the place of Saphire, and it hath flint of gold.

9 There is a path which no fowle knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seene.

10 The lions whelps haue not trodden it, nor the fierie lion passed by it.

11 He putteth forth his hand vpon the flint rocks: he ouerturneth the mountaines by the roots.

12 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks, and his eye seeth euery precious thing.

13 He bindeth the floods from overflowing, and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.

14 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of vnderstanding?

15 Man knoweth not the price thereof, neither is it found in the land of the living.

16 The depth saith, it is not in mee: and the sea saith, it is not with me.

17 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall siluer be weighed for the price thereof.

18 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious Onix or the Saphire.

19 The gold and the crystall cannot equall it: and the exchange of it shall not be for iewels of fine gold.

20 No mention shall be made of Corall, or of Pearle: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

21 The Topaz of Ethiopia shall not equall it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

22 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of vnderstanding?

23 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the foules of the ayre.

24 Destruction and death say, Wee haue heard the same thereof with our eares.

25 God vnderstandeth the way thereof, and hee knoweth the place thereof.

26 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth vnder the whole heauens.

27 To make the weight for the winds, and hee weigheth the waters by measure.

28 When he made a decree for the raine, and a way for the lightening of the thunder.

29 Then did he see it, and declare it, he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

30 And vnto man he said, Behold the feare of the Lord, that is wisdom, and to depart from euill is vnderstanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

Job denieth himselfe of his former prosperitie and knowe.

1 Moreouer, Job continued his parable, & said, 2 O that I were as in months past, as in the dayes when God preferred me:

3 When his candle shined vpon my head, and when by his light I walked throu darknesse;

4 As I was in the dayes of my youth, when the secret of God was vpon my tabernacle:

5 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me:

6 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rocke powdered me our rivers of oile:

7 When I went out to the gate throu the city, when I prepared my seat in the street.

8 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood vp.

9 The Princes retained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

10 The Nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaied to the roofe of their mouth.

11 When the eare heard me, then it blisshed mee: and when the eye saw mee, it gaue witness to me:

12 Because I deliuered the poore that cryed, and the fatherlesse, and hee that had none to help him.

13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish, came vpon me: and I caused the widowes heart to sing for ioy.

14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed mee: my iudgement was as a robe and a diadem.

15 I was eyes to the blinde, and feete was I to the lame.

16 I was a father to the poore: and the cause which I knew not, I searched out.

17 And I brake the iawes of the wicked, and I pluckt the spoole out of his teeth.

18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my dayes as the sand.

19 My rooe was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night vpon my branch.

20 My glory was fresh in mee, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

21 Vnto mee no game came, and I waited, and kept silence at my counsell.

22 After my words they spake not againe, and my speech dropped vpon them.

23 And they waited for mee as for the raine, & they opened their mouth wide, as for the latter raine.

24 If I laughed on them, they belceied it not, and the light of my countenance they cast not downe.

25 I chose out their way, and set chiefe, and dwelt as a King in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Jobs knower is turned into extreme contempt: 15 His prosperitie into calamitie.

2 Now they that are younger than I, haue me in derision, whose fathers I would haue disdained to haue set with the dogs of my flocke.

3 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

4 For want and famine they were solitary, flying into the wilderness: in former time desolate and waste.

5 Who cut vp mallows by the bushes, and I gathered roots for their meat.

6 They were driuen forth from among men, (they cryed after them as after a chiefe.)

7 To dwell in the clefts of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rockes.

8 Among the bushes they brayed: vnder the nettles they were gathered together.

9 They were children of sodex, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the carth.

And

9 * And now in their founges, I am their by-word.

10 They abhorre me, they flee far from me, and spere not to spit in my face.

11 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have all let loose the bridle before me.

12 Upon my right hand life the youth, they push away my feet, and they rise vp against mee the wayes of their destruction.

13 They marre my path, they see forward my equanimity, they haue no helper.

14 They came upon mee, as a wide breaking in of waters: in the delouation they tolled themselves upon me.

15 Terrors are turned vpon me: they pursue † my soule as the wind, and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 And now my soule is poured out vpon mee: the dayes of affliction haue taken hold vpon me.

17 My bones are pierced in mee in the night season: and my snowes take no rest.

18 By the great torce of my disease, is my garment changed: it buildeth mee about as the collic of my coat.

19 He hath cast me into the myre, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry vnto thee, and thou dost not heare me: I stand vp, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art † become cruel to me: with † thy strong hand thou opposeth thy selfe against me.

22 Thou liest vnto me vnto the wind: thou canst not to ride vpon it, and dissoluest my † substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the haue appointed for all lining.

24 Howbeit, hee will not thrust out his hand to the † graue, though they cry in his destruction.

25 * Did not I weepe † for him that was in trouble? was not my soule grieved for the poore?

26 When I looked for good, then euill came vnto mee: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels are voyd and rested not: the dayes of affliction presented me.

28 I wear mourning without the Sunne: I stood vp, and I cryed in the Congregation.

29 * I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owles.

30 My sin is blacke vpon me, and my boone are burne with heat.

31 My harpe also is turned to mourning, and my Organ into the voyce of them that weepe.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Job maketh a solenne protestation of his integrity in iereral distre.

I Made a conscience with mine eyes, why then should I thinke vpon a misde?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty is from high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 * Death not be see any wayes, and count all my iob steps?

5 If I haue walked with vanity, or if my foot hath slied to deceit;

6 * Let mee be weighed in an even ballance, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blacke hath cleane to my hands:

8 Then let me sowe, and let another eate; yea, let my off-spring be reared out.

9 If mine heart hath bene deceiued by a woman, or if I haue laid wait at my neighbours doore:

10 Then let my wife grinde vnto another, and let others bow downe vpon her,

11 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the Iudges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

13 If I did despise the cause of my man-seruant, or of my maid-seruant, when they contended with mee:

14 What then shall I doe when God riseth vp? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the wombe, make him? and I did not one fashion vs in the wombe?

16 If I haue withheld the poore from their desire, or haue caused the eyes of the widow to faile:

17 Or haue eaten my morsell my selfe alone, and the fatherlesse hath not eaten thereof:

18 (For from my youth he was brought vp with mee as with a father, and I haue guided her from my mothers wombe.)

19 If I haue serued any perishe for want of clothing, or any poore without covering:

20 If his loynes haue not blessed me, and if hee were not warmed with the sweat of my sleepe:

21 If I haue lift vp my hand against the fatherlesse, when I saw my helpe in the gate:

22 Then let mine arme fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arme be broken from the bone.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to mee: and by reason of his highnesse, I could not endure.

24 If I haue made gold my hope, or haue said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence:

25 If I reioyced because my wealth was mine, and because mine hand had gotten much:

26 If I beheld † the Sunne when it shined, or the Moone walking † in brightness:

27 And mine heart hath bene secretly inticed, or † my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 This also were an iniquity to bee: punished by the Iudge: for I should haue denied the God that is above, 29 If I reioyced at the destruction of him that hated mee, or lift vp my selfe when euill found him.

30 (Neither haue I suffered † my mouth to sin, by wishing a curse to his soule.)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stronger did not lodge in the street: thus I opened my doores † to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions: as Adam: by hiding my iniquity in my bosome:

34 Did I feare a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrifie mee? that I kept silence, and went not out of the doore?

35 O that one would heare me! I bebold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine aduersary had written a booke.

36 Surely I would take it vpon my shoulder, and bind it as a crowne to me.

37 I would declare vnto him the number of my steps, as a Prince would I goe reere vnto him.

38 If my bad cry against me, or that the sutrowes likewise thereof † complaine:

39 If I haue † eaten the fruits thereof without money, or haue † caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

40 Let thistles grow in stead of wheat, and I cockle in stead of barley. The words of Iob are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Eliphaz is angry with Iob, and his three friends.

him for not satisfying of Job. 16 He teale to

So these three men ceased to answer Job because he was righteous in his owne eyes.
2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he in-sulted himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled: because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken:
because they were full of anger toward him.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

6 And Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite answered, and said, I am a young man, and yet am very old, wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

7 I feare, Dayes should speake, and centuries of yeeres should teach wisdom.

8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giueth them vnderstanding.

9 Great men are not alwayes wise: neither doe the aged vnderstand iudgement.

10 Therefore I feare, Hearken to me: I also will shew mine opinion.

11 Behold, I waited for your words: I gane eare to you: for I saw that you searched out what to say.

12 Yet I attended vnto you: and behold, there was none of you that answered Job, or that answered his words:

13 And ye should say, We haue found out wise-dom: God hath rebuked him downe, and he is as a nothing.

14 Now he hath no: I directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

15 They were amazed, they answered no more,
for they lack off speaking.

16 When I had waited (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more.)

17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

18 For I am full of the matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

19 Behold, my belly is as wine, which hath no need, it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 I will speake, for that I may be reuenged: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not, I pray you, except any mans person: neither let me giue flattering titles vnto man.

22 For I know not to giue flattering titles: in so doing, my Maker would soone take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himselfe in stead of God, with scurry and meekenes to reason with Job. 8 He ex-poseth Gods wayes from giuing man an account of his wayes, by his creatures. 13 God calleth man to repentance by vision, 19 by affliction, 23 and by his ministry. 31 Heaueneth Job to astonion.

Wherefore Job, I pray thee, heare my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I haue opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken that in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the vprightnesse of my heart, and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The Spirit of God hath made mee, and the breath of the Almighty hath giuen me life.

5 If thou canst answer mee, let thy words interfuge mee, and I will heare thee.

6 Behold, I am forwarding to thee, within Gods tent: I also am formed out of the clay.

7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy vpon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken that in my hearing, and I haue heard the voyce of thy words, saying,

9 I am cleane without transgression, I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he searcheth occasions against me, he conueneth me for his enemy.

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not iust, I will answer thee: for God is greater then man.

13 Why dost thou strise against him? for that greatest not account of any of his matters.

14 For God speaketh once, yet man perceiueth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when sleep leape falleth vpon men, in slumbering vpon the bed.

16 Then he openeth the eares of men, and teacheth their instruction.

17 That he may withdraw man from his pride, and hide his pride from man.

18 He keepeth backe his soule from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with paine vpon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong paine.

20 So that his life abhorreth abroad, and his soule detesteth meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seene: and his bones that were not seene, stick out.

22 His soule draweth neere vnto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew vnto man his spightfulness.

24 Then he is gracious vnto him, and saith, Deli-uer him from going downe to the pit, I haue found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a childers: his shall returne to the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray vnto God, and he will be foundation vnto him, and he shall see his face with ioy:
for he will reuerse vnto man his righteousnesse.

27 If he looketh vpon men, and if any say, I haue sinned, and peruersted that which was right, and it profited me not:

28 If he will deliuer his soule from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 Lo, all these things worketh God: if obseruance with man.

30 To bring backe his soule from the pit, to keepleighten with the light of the living.

31 Marke well, O Job, hearken vnto me, hold thy peace, and I will speake.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer mee:
speake, for I desire to iustifie thee.

33 If not, hearken vnto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God vniuersally couereth his wrath. 35
It is his merit himselfe vnto God. 34 Elihu reprobueth Job.

1 Wherefore Elihu answered, and said,

2 Heare my words, O ye wise men, and giue eare vnto me, ye that haue knowledge.

3 For the eare tryeth words, as the tongue tasteth meat.

4 Let vs chuse to vs iudgement; let vs know among our selues what is good.

5 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgement.
 6 Should I be against my right? } my wound is incurable without transgression.
 7 What man is like Job, who drinketh vp scowring like water?
 8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.
 9 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.
 10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye } men of understanding: } far be it from God that he should doe wickedly, and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
 11 * For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to finde according to his way.
 12 Yes surely, God will not doe wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgement.
 13 Whom hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed } the whole world?
 14 * If he see his heart } upon man, if he gather unto himselfe his spirit, and his breath:
 15 * All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turne againe unto dust.
 16 If now thou hast understanding, heare this: hearken to the voice of my words.
 17 Shall even he that heareth right, } governe? and wilt thou condemne him that is most iust?
 18 Is it fit to say to a King, Thou art wicked? and to Princes, Ye are vngodly?
 19 * How much lesse to him that accepteth not the persons of Princes, nor regardeth } rich more then the poore? for they all are the worke of his hand.
 20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and passe away, and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.
 21 * For his eyes are upon the wayes of man, and he seeth all his goings.
 22 There is no darkness nor shadow of death, where } workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
 23 For he will not lay upon man more then right, that he should } enter into judgement with God.
 24 He shall breake in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.
 25 Therefore he knoweth their workers, and he overtumeth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
 26 He striketh them as wicked men, } in the open sight of others:
 27 Because they turned backe } from him, and would not consider any of his wayes.
 28 So that they cause the cry of the poore to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
 29 When he quieteth, whom then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, whom then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man onely:
 30 That the hypocrite reigne not, lest the people be enslaved.
 31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have sinned obsequiously, I will not offend any more.
 32 That which I see not, teach thou me; if I have done iniquity, I will doe no more.
 33 } Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou chuse, } nor therefore speake what thou knowest.
 34 Let men } of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.
 35 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.
 36 My desire is, that Job may be tried unto the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

 37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands against vs, and multiplieth his words against God.
 C H A P. XXXV.
 1 Comparison is not to be made with God, because our good or evil cannot extend unto him. 2 An cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.
 E Like spake moreover, and said,
 1 Thinkest thou this to be right, } that thou sayest, My righteousness is more then Gods?
 2 For thou sayest, What advantage will it be unto thee, and, What profit shall I have, } if I be cleared in my conscience?
 3 I will answer thee, } thy companions of thine.
 4 I looke unto the heavens, and see, and behold, the clouds which are higher then thou.
 5 If thou search, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions bee multiplied, } what dost thou unto him.
 6 * If thou be righteous, what giveth thee hind? or what receiveth he of thine hand?
 7 Thy wickednesses see, } how a man as thou art, and thy right counsell see } profit the son of man.
 8 By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arme of the mighty.
 9 But now saith, Where is God my Maker, } what giveth songs in the night?
 10 Who teacheth us more then the beasts of the earth, } and maketh us wiser then the fowles of heaven?
 11 There they cry, } (but none giveth answer) because of the pride of euill men.
 12 * Surely God will not heare vanity, } neither will the Almighty regard it.
 13 Although thou sayest } I shall not see him, yet indignation is before him, } therefore craile thou in him.
 14 But now because it is so, } he hath visited in his anger, yet he knoweth it not in great extremity.
 15 Therefore doke loe open his mouth in vain, he multiplieth words without knowledge.
 C H A P. XXXVI.
 1 Elihu sheweth how God is iust in his wayes. 12 How Job seems hinder Gods blessings. 24 Gods works are to be magnified.
 E Like also proceeded, and said,
 1 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee, } that I have yet to speake on Gods behalfe.
 2 I will fetch my knowledge from afarre, } and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
 3 For truly my words shall not be fallacious, } they are perfect in knowledge, is with thee.
 4 Behold, God is mighty, and despieth not any, } he is mighty in strength, and } wisdom.
 5 His preteriteth not the life of the wicked: } but giveth right to the } poore.
 6 * He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous; } but with Kings are they on the throne, yet he doth establish them for ever, } they are exalted in words of affliction.
 7 And if they be } bowed in sickness, and be holden in words of affliction.
 8 Then he sheweth them their works, } and their transgressions that they have exceeded.
 9 He openeth also their eare to discipline, } and commandeth that they returne from iniquity.
 10 If they obey and serve him, } they shall find their dust in prosperity, } and their perie in pleasures.
 11 But if they obey not, } they shall perish by the sword, } and they shall die without knowledge.
 12 But the hypocrites in heart heape vp wrath: } they cry not when he bindeth them.

 32 Canst thou bring forth the Magroth in his season? or canst thou guide the Arcturus with his bound?
 33 Knowest thou the ordinances of heauen? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?
 34 Canst thou hit vp thy voyce to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?
 35 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and thy voice thee, that they may see?
 36 Who hath hid per wisdom in the inward part? or who hath given understanding to the heart?
 37 Who can number the clouds in widom? or who can stay the bottles of the heauen?
 38 When the dust groweth into hardnes, and the clods cleave fast together?
 39 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions?
 40 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?
 41 Who provideth for the raven his foods? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lacke of meat.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Of the wild goats and hinds. 2 Of the wild ass. 3 The unicorn. 4 The peacocks, herke, and ostrich. 5 The horse. 6 The hawk. 7 The eagle.
Knowest thou the time when the wild Goats of the rocke bring forth? or canst thou mark when the Hinds doe calve?
 2 Canst thou number the months when they fall? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
 3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their suckowes.
 4 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow vp with courage: they goe fourth, and returne not unto them.
 5 Who hath sent out the wild Asses into the wilderness, and loosed the bands of the wild Ass?
 6 Whose home I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.
 7 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the cry of the drummer.
 8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.

9 Will the Vainesse be willing to serve thee? or abide by thy crib?
 10 Canst thou binde the Unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
 11 Wilt thou trust him because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?
 12 Wilt thou believe him that hee will bring home thy seed? and gather it into thy barn?
 13 Gather thou the goodly wings unto the Peacocks? or the wings and feathers unto the Ostrich?
 14 Which leaseth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in doft, 15 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may breaketh them:
 16 Shee is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vaine without feare.
 17 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath hee imparted to her understanding.
 18 What time she lifteth vp her selfe on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.
 19 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?
 20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.
 21 He paweth in the valley, and retoyeth in his strength: hee goeth on to meete the armed men.
 22 Hee looketh at scare, and is not affrighted: neither turneth he backe from the sword.
 23 The quiver ratteth against him, the glittering speare and the shield.
 24 He swalloweth the ground with greedinesse and rage: neither beleueth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.
 25 He saith among the trumpets, He, he: and hee smelleth the barrel a farre off, the chamber of the captiues, and the shouting.
 26 Doeth the Hauke sic by the wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the South?
 27 Doth the Eagle mount vp by thy command? and maketh her nest on high?
 28 She dwelleth and abideth on the rocke, upon the crag of the rocke, and the strong place.
 29 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold a farre off.
 30 Her young ones also sucke vp blood: and where the flaine are, there is shee.

CHAP. XL.

1 Job bewaileth himselfe to God. 2 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousnesse, power, and wisdom. 3 Of Behemoth.
MOROVER, the LORD answered Job, and said:
 2 Shall hee that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.
 3 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
 4 Behold, I am vile, what shall I answer thee? I will lay my hand upon my mouth.
 5 Once have I spoken, but I will not answer a yea twice, but I will proceed no further.
 6 Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlewinde, and said:
 7 Gird vp thy loines now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
 8 Wilt thou also disannul my judgement? wilt thou condemne mee, thou mayest be righteous?
 9 Hast thou an arm like Gods? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?
 10 Decke thy selfe now with minnie and gaudy, and array thy selfe with glory and beauty.
 11 Canst thou stay the course of the winds?

every one that is proud, and abate him.

12. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him lowe: tread downe the wicked in their place.

13. Mide them in the dust together, and binde their faces in fetters.

14. Then will I also confesse unto thee, that thine owne right hand can save thee.

15. Behold now Behemoth, which I made with thee: what canst thou say against him?

16. For now, his strength is in his loynes, and his force is in the navell of his belly.

17. His strength is like cedar: the firmness of his bones is as wrapt together.

18. His bones are as strong pieces of brasse: his bones are like barres of iron.

19. He is the chief of the wayes of God: he that made him, can make his sword to approach unto him.

20. Surely the mountaines bring him forth food: where all the beasts of the field play.

21. He lieth vnder the shade trees, in the covert of the rock and of fens.

22. The shade trees cover him with their shade, the willowes of the brooke compass him about.

23. Behold, if he drinke vp a river, and halseth not: he trusteth that he can draw vp Iordan into his mouth.

24. If he takeh it with his eyes, his nose pierceth thorrow inarcs.

CHAP. XL.

Of Gods great power in the Leviathan.

Canst thou draw our Leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord? which thou stretchest downe?

2. Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his eye, and throw with a thorn?

3. Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speake soft words unto thee?

4. Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou give him for a servant for ever?

5. Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

6. Shall the compassions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7. Canst thou fill his skin with barbed iron? or his head with fish spears?

8. I say thine hand upon him, remember the battell doe no more.

9. Behold, the hope of him is in vaine: shall not we cast him downe, even at the sight of him?

10. Now is he fierce that dare stirre him up: who then is able to stand before me?

11. Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whose favour is vnder? whose benediction is mine.

12. I will not conceale his parts, nor his power, nor will I make any secretly proposition.

13. When canst thou discover the face of his garment? or canst thou come to him with his double bridle?

14. Who can open the doores of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15. His scales are his pride, shut vp together as with a close scale.

16. One is so close to another, that no ayre can come betweene them.

17. They are joyned one to another, they stick together: like they cannot be sundered.

18. By his nostrings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eye-lites of the morning.

19. Out of his mouth goe burning lampes, and a spark of fire leape out.

20. The fire of his nostrills smoketh forth, as the fire of a furnace: and he smoketh out coales.

21. His breath kindleth coales, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22. In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

23. The scales of his flesh are joyned together: they are firme in themselves, they cannot be moved.

24. His heart is as firme as a flint, yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

25. When he raised vp himselfe, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purifie themselves.

26. The sword of him that layeth at him, cannot holdeth the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

27. He esteemeth iron as straw, and brasse as rotten wood.

28. The arrow cannot make him fleeing: stones are turned with him into stubble.

29. Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a speare.

30. Sharp stones are vnder him: hee spreadeth shales pointed things vpon the mire.

31. He maketh the deepe to boyle like a pot: hee maketh the sea like a pot of oymment.

32. Hee maketh a path to thine after him: one would thinke the deepe to be hoary.

33. Vpon the earth there is not his like: who is made without feare.

34. He beholdeth all high things: hee is King over all the children of pride.

CHAP. XLII.

3. Iob saluaterh himselfe vnto God. 7 God preferring Iobs case, maketh him friend to Iob.

Then Iob answered the LORD, and said,

1. I know that thou canst do euery thing, and that I knowe nothing that thou canst not do.

2. Who is hee that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore haue I vttered that I vnderstood not, things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

3. Heare, I beseech thee, and I will speake: I will demand of thee, and thou shalt answer me.

4. I haue heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: now mine eye seeth thee.

5. Wherefore I abhorre my selfe, and repent in dust and ashes.

6. And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words vnto Iob, the LORD said vnto Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye haue not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Iob hath.

7. Therefore take vnto you now seven bullocks, and seven rammes, and goe to my servant Iob, and offer vp for your selues a burnt offering, and my servant Iob shall pray for you, for I will accept of him: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye haue not spoken of mee the thing that is right, like my servant Iob.

8. So Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted of Iob.

9. And the LORD turned the captivity of Iob, when hee prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Iob double, or as much as he had before.

10. Then came there vnto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house, and they bestowed vnto him, and comforted him, over all the evil that the LORD had brought vpon him: every man also gave him a piece of money.

 12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job, more then the beginning: for he had fourteene thousand sheepe, and sixe thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand shee asses.
 13 He had also seuen sons, and three daughters.
 14 And he called the name of the first, Jemima, and the name of the second Kezia, and the name of the third Keren-happach.

 15 And in all the land were no women found so faire as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
 16 After this lived Job an hundred and fourty yeeres, and saw his sonnes, and his sonnes sonnes, even foure generations.
 17 So Job died being old, and full of dayes.

THE BOOKE OF PSALMES.

PSAL. I.

The happinesse of the godly. 4 The unhappinesse of the vngodly.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsell of the vngodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornfull.

1 But his delight is in the Law of the LORD, and in his Law doth he meditate day and night.

2 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season: his leaf shall not wither, and whatsoever he doth, shall prosper.

3 The vngodly are not so: but are like the chaffe which the wind driueth away.

4 Therefore shall vngodly shall not stand in the iudgment, nor sinners in the Congregation of righteous.

5 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the vngodly shall perish.

PSAL. II.

The kingdom of Christ. 13 Kings are exhorted to accept of it.

Why doe the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The Kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsell together against the LORD, and against his Anointed, saying,

3 Let vs breake their bands of asunder, and cast away their cords from vs.

4 He that sitteth in the heauen shall laugh at the LORD shall haue them in derision.

5 Then shall he speake vnto them in his wrath:
 and vex them in his fure displeasure.

6 Yet haue I set my King vpon my holy hill of Sion.

7 I will declare the decree of the LORD which he hath said vnto me, Thou art my Sonne, this day haue I begotten thee.

8 As yet I will not be angry, and I shall give thee the heauen, and the vndermost parts of the earth for an inheritance.

9 Thou shalt breake them with a rod of iron, thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potters vessel.

10 Be wise now therefore, O ye Kings: be in-bruted, ye iudges of the earth.

11 Serue the LORD with feare, and reioyce with trembling.

12 Kisse the Sonne, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled because a litle: Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSAL. III.

The security of Gods protection.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Achisom his sonne.

LORD, howe they increased that trouble me?
 many are they that rise vp against me.

2 Many there is which say of my soule, There is no helpe for him in God. Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me: my glory, and the litter vpon mine head.

4 I cryed vnto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

5 I laid me downe and slept: I awaked, for the LORD sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousand of people, if I have set myselfe against me round about.

7 Arise, O LORD, take me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies vpon the cheek-bone: thou hast broken the teeth of the vngodly.

8 A salutation belongeth vnto the LORD, who bleaseth vs vpon thy people. Selah.

PSAL. IIIII.

David prayeth for audience. 2 He reprobate and exhorteth his enemies. 6 Mans happinesse is in Gods fauour.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth.
 A Psalm of David.

Heare me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress, thou hast mercy vpon me, and heare my prayer.

2 O ye fountaines of men, how long will ye say, my glory into shame? how long will ye loue vanity, and delecte after irasing? Selah.

3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himselfe: the LORD will heare when I call vnto him.

4 Stand in awe, and feare not: for as much as your owne heart vpon your bed, and he will still. Selah.

5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

6 There be many that say, Who will shew vs any good? LORD, lift thou vp the light of thy countenance vpon vs.

7 Thou hast put gladnesse in my heart, when thou in the same that they trowe and their wise iudged.

Mat. 13 8 * I will both lay me down in peace, & sleepe: for thou LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSAL. V.

1 David prayeth, and professeth his study in prayer, & Gods favour to the wicked. 7 David professing his faith, prayeth unto God to guide him, 10 to destroy his enemies, 11 and to preserve the godly. ¶ To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth.

A Psalm of David.

Give care to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

1 Hearken unto the voyce of my cry, my King, and my God: for vnto thee will I pray.

2 My voyce shall thou heare in the morning, O LORD, in the morning will I direct my prayer vnto thee, and will looke vp.

3 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickednesse: neither shall euill dwell with thee. 4 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hast all workers of iniquity,

5 Thou shalt destroy them that speake leasing: & the LORD will abhorre the bloody and deceitfull man. 6 But as for me, I will come into thy house, in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy feare will I worship toward thy holy Temple.

7 Lende me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies, make thy way straight before my face.

8 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth, their inward part is very wickednesse, & their throat is an open sepulchre, they barre with their tongue.

9 Destroy thou them, O God, let them fall by their owne counsels: cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they haue rebelled against thee.

10 But let all those that put their trust in thee, reioyce: let them euer shout for ioy, because thou hast defended them: let them also that loue thy Name, be ioyfull in thee.

11 For thou LORD, wilt blese thy righteous: with fauour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

12 Davids complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Negemoth upon Scheminith. A Psalm of David. ¶ LORD rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure. 2 Haue mercy vpon me, O LORD, for I am weak: O LORD heale me, for my bones are vexed. 3 My soule is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long? 4 Reuise, O LORD, deliuer my soule: O saue me, for thy mercies sake. 5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the graue who shall giue thee thanks? 6 This weary with my groaning, all the night make I my bed to swim: & water my couch with my teares. 7 Mine eyes are consumed because of griefe: it waxeth old because of all mine enemies. 8 Depart from me all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard the voyce of my weeping. 9 The LORD hath heard my supplication, & the LORD hath receiued my prayer. 10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed: & for ever let their confusion, and be ashamed suddenly.

PSAL. VI.

1 Davids complaint in his sickness. 8 By faith he triumpheth over his enemies.

To the chief Musician on Negemoth upon Scheminith. A Psalm of David.

LORD rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 Haue mercy vpon me, O LORD, for I am weak: O LORD heale me, for my bones are vexed.

3 My soule is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?

4 Reuise, O LORD, deliuer my soule: O saue me, for thy mercies sake.

5 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the graue who shall giue thee thanks?

6 This weary with my groaning, all the night make I my bed to swim: & water my couch with my teares.

7 Mine eyes are consumed because of griefe: it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

8 Depart from me all ye workers of iniquity: for the LORD hath heard the voyce of my weeping.

9 The LORD hath heard my supplication, & the LORD hath receiued my prayer.

10 Let all mine enemies be ashamed: & for ever let their confusion, and be ashamed suddenly.

PSAL. VII.

1 David prayeth against the malice of his enemies, professing his innocency. 10 By faith he sets his defence, and the destruction of his enemies.

¶ Shiggaion of David; which he sang vnto the LORD, concerning the sword of Gath the Beniamite.

LORD my God, in thee doe I put my trust: saue me from all them that persecute mee, and deliuer me.

1 Let he reare my soule like a lion, resting in pieces, while there is none to deliuer.

2 O LORD my God, if I haue done this, if there be iniquity in my hands:

3 If I haue rewarded euill vnto him that was at peace with me: (yes, I haue deliuered him that without cause is mine enemy.)

4 Let the enemy persecute my soule, and take it, yea, let him tread downe my life vpon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

5 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift vp thy selfe, because of the rage of mine enemies: & awake for me to the iudgement that thou hast commanded.

6 So shall the Congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore returne thou on high.

7 The LORD shall iudge the people: iudge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

8 O let the wickednesse of the wicked come to an end, but establish the iust: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

9 My defender is of God, which saucth the vp-right in heart.

10 God iudgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

11 If he curse noc, he will whet his sword: he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

12 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death: he ordaineth his arrowes against the persecutors.

13 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, & hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

14 He made a pit, and digged it, * and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

15 His mischief shall returne vpon his owne head, and his violent dealing shall come downe vpon his owne pate.

16 In all the earth, O LORD, according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the Name of the LORD most High.

PSAL. VIII.

Gods glory magnified by his workes, and by his leas to man.

To the chief Musician vpon Githith. A Psalm of David.

LORD, our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth: who shall set thy glory above the heauens.

1 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the conquer.

2 When I consider thy heauens, the worke of thy fingers, the Moone, and the Starres which thou hast ordained:

3 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the sonne of man, that thou visitest him?

4 For thou hast made him a little lower than the Angelles: hast crowned him with glory & honour.

5 Thou madest him to haue dominion over the workes of thy hands; thou hast put all things vnder his feet.

7 All these and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field :

8 The fowle of the ayre, and the fish of the Sea, and whatsoever passeth thorow the pathes of the Seas.

9 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy Name in all the earth !

PSAL. IX.

1 David prayeth God for executing of iudgement. 11 Heinteth others to prayse him. 12 He prayeth that he may haue cause to prayse him.

4 To the chief Musician vpon Maud-Labben.

A Psalm of David.

I Will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvellous workes.

2 I will be glad and reioyce in thee: I will sing prayse to thy Name, O thou most high.

3 When mine enemies are turnd backe, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintain'd my right, and my cause: thou fastest in the throne in daunging right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end; and thou hast destroyed cities, their memoriall is perished with them.

7 But the LORD shall endure for ever; he hath prepared his throne for iudgement.

8 And he shall iudge the world in righteousness: he shall minister iudgement to the people in vprightnesse.

9 The LORD also will bee a refuge for the oppressed: a refuge in times of trouble.

10 And they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou LORD hast not forsaken them that seeke thee.

11 Sing praises to the LORD which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: hee forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

13 Have mercy vpon me, O LORD, consider my trouble, which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me vp from the gates of death:

14 That I may shew forth all thy prayse in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will reioyce in thy saluation.

15 The heathen are sunke downe in the pit, wher they were: in the net which they hid is their owne foot taken.

16 The LORD is known by the iudgment which he executeth: the wicked is slauered in the worke of his owne hands. Higgaion. Selah.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the vnions that forget God.

18 For they shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poore shall not perish for ever.

19 Arise, O LORD, let not man preuaile: let the heathen be iudged in thy sight.

20 Put them in feare, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSAL. X.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He professeth his confidence.

Why standest thou asfarre off, O LORD? why hidest thou thy selfe in times of trouble?

2 The wicked in his pride doth preferne the poore: let them be taken in the devices that they haue imagin'd.

3 For the wicked boasterh of his heart desireth, and blasphemeth the courteous, when the LORD abhorreth.

4 The wicked through the pride of his countenance will not seeke after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

5 His waies are alwayes gracious, thy iudgements are farre aboue out of his sight, as for all his enemies he puffeth at them.

6 He hath said in his heart I shall not be troubled for I shall neuer be in aduersity.

7 His mouth is full of cursing, and pleasure, and fraud: vnder his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8 He sitteth in the hiding places of the villages, in the secret places doth he murder the innocents: his eyes are priuily set against the poore.

9 He lieth wait secretly, as a lyon in his den, he lyeth in wait to catch the poore, he doth catch the poore when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth and humbleth himselfe, that the poore may fall by his strong ones.

11 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face, he will neuer see me.

12 Arise, O LORD: O God, lift vp thine hands forget not the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemne God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

14 Thou hast seene it, for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poore committeth himselfe vnto thee, thou art the helper of the fatherlesse.

15 Brake thou the arme of the wicked, and the euill man: seeke out his wickednesse, till thou finde none.

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

17 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine eare to heare.

18 To iudge the fatherlesse, and the oppressed: that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

† Heb. leueth. * Ps. 139. 9. and 141. 13. and 145. 209. lam. 5. 19. Or, establish. Or, stricke.

PSAL. XI.

1 David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 4 The proudnes and infirmitie of God.

4 To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soule, Flee as a bird to your mountaine?

2 For see, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow vpon the string, that they may priuily shoot at the vpright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous doe?

4 The LORD is in his holy Temple, the LORDS throne is in heauen: his eyes behold, his eye-look try the children of men.

5 The LORD trieth the righteous but the wicked, and him that loueth violence, his soule hearch.

6 Vpon the wicked hee shall raine snares, fire, and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness: his countenance doth not behold the vpright.

PSAL. XII.

1 David desireth of humane comfort, crampch helpe of God. 3 He comforteth himselfe with Gods iudgements on the wicked, and the iust in Gods word promise.

1 The LORD hath broken the pieces of silver, and he hath broken the golden chain.

2 The LORD hath broken the silver, and he hath broken the golden chain.

3 The LORD hath broken the silver, and he hath broken the golden chain.

4 The LORD hath broken the silver, and he hath broken the golden chain.

To the chiefe Musician | upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

HELPE LORD, for the godly man ceaseth: for hee faithfull faile from among the children of men.

They speake vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart doe they speake.

The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things.

Who hath said, With our tongue will we prevail, our lips are our owne, who is Lord over vs?

For the oppression of the poore, for the sighing which is of the needy, now will I arise (saith the LORD) I will set them in safety, from him that putteth at him.

The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

Thou shalt keepe them (O LORD) thou shalt preferre them from this generation for ever.

The wicked walke on every side, when the voice of vilest men are exalted.

PSALM XIII.

David complaineth of delay in helpe. Hee prayeth for presenting grace. He is loath of divinity mercy.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalm of David.

How long wilt thou forget me (O LORD) for how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

How long shall I take counsell in my soule, how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

Consider and heare me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleepe the sleepe of death.

Least mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: and those that trouble me, reioyce when I am mooved.

But I have trusted in thy mercy, my heart shall reioyce in thy salvation.

I will sing unto the LORD, because hee hath spoken bountifully with me.

PSALM XIII.

David describeth the corruption of a naturall man. He commureth the wicked by the light of their conscience. He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chiefe Musician. A Psalm of David. The soule hath said in his heart, there is no God: they are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doth good.

The LORD looked downe from heauen upon the children of men: to see if there were any that did understand, and seeke God.

They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doth good, no not one.

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who care vpon my people as they eat bread, and call not vpon the LORD.

These were they in great feare; for God is in the generation of the righteous.

You have shamed the counsell of the poore, because the LORD is his refuge.

O that the salvation of Israel were come out of Sion! when the LORD bringeth backe the captivity of his people, Iacob shall reioyce, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM XV.

David describeth a citizen of Sion, A Psalm of David.

Who shall abide in thy Tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

He that walketh uprightly, & worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

He shall backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh vp a reproach against his neighbour.

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned: but he honoureth them that feare the LORD: hee that sweareth to his owne hurt, and changeth not.

He that putteth not out his money to vsury, nor taketh reward against the innocent: hee that doth these things shall never be mooved.

PSALM XVI.

David in distrust of merit, and hatred of idolatry, flyeth to God for preservation. He sheweth the hope of his calling, of the resurrection, and life everlasting.

Micham of David.

Preserue me, O God: for in thee doe I put my trust.

O my soule, thou hast said vnto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee.

But to the Saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

Their forrowes shall be multiplied: they shall forsake another god: their drinke offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take vp their names into my lips.

The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

The lines are fallen vnto me in pleasant places: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless the LORD, who hath giuen me counsell: my times also instruct mee in the night seasons.

I have set the LORD alwayes before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be mooued.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory reioyceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soule in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption.

Thou wilt shew mee the path of life: in thy presence is fulnesse of ioye, at thy right hand shall be pleasures for euermore.

PSALM XVII.

David in confidence of his integrity, craveth defence of God against his enemies. He sheweth his bold praye, craft, and averaige. He prayeth against them in confidence of his hope.

A Prayer of David.

Heare the right; O LORD, attend vnto my cry: giue care vnto my prayer that goeth not out of thine lips.

Let my sentence come forth from thy presence: let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

Thou hast proued mine heart, thou hast visited me in the night, thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing: I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgresse.

Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the pathes of the deuiour.

Hold vp my goings in thy pathes; that my footsteps slip not.

I have called vpon thee, for thou wilt heare me, O God: incline thine eare vnto me, and heare my speeche.

7 Show thy mercifull loving kindeſſe, O LORD: that ſaueſt by thy right hand, them which put their trust in thee, from thoſe that riſe vp againſt them.

8 Keepe me as the apple of the eye: hide me vnder the ſhadow of thy wings.

9 From the wicked that oppreſſe me: from my deadly enemies, who compaſſe me about.

10 They are incloſed in their owne fat: with their mouth they ſpeake proudly.

11 They haue now compaſſed vs in our ſteps: they haue ſet their eyes bowing downe to the earth:

12 Like as a lyon ſhall be greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lyon lurking in ſecret place.

13 Ariſe, O LORD: & diſappoint him, caſt him downe: deliuer my ſoule from the wicked, which is in thy ſword.

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which beaſt their portion in this life, and whoſe belly thou filleſt with thy hid treaſure: they are full of children, and leaue the reſt of their ſubſtance to their babes.

15 As for mee, I will behold thy face in righteousneſſe: I ſhall be ſatiſfied when I awake with thy likeneſſe.

ſitting. & Hebr. ſeruant in his ſide. Or, by the ſword. men by thine hand. Or, better children are full.

P S A L M. XVIII.

David praifeth God for his manifold and mercifull bleſſings.

1 To the chief Muſician, A Pſalme of David the ſeruant of the LORD, who ſpoke vnto the LORD the words of this ſong, in the day that the LORD deliuered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he ſaid, I will loue thee, O LORD my ſtrength.

2 The LORD is my rocke, and my forteſſe, and my deliuerer: my God, & my ſtrength, in whom I will truſt, my buckler, and the horn of my ſalutation, and my high tower.

3 I will call vpon the LORD, who is worthy to be praized: ſo ſhall I be ſaued from mine enemies.

4 The ſorrowes of death compaſſed me, and the floods of deadly enmities made me afraid.

5 The ſorrowes of hell compaſſed mee about: the ſnares of death preuented me.

6 In my deſtreſſe: I called vpon the LORD, and cryed vnto my God: he heard my voyce out of his Temple, and my cry came before him, even into his eares.

7 Then the earth ſhook, and trembled, the foundations alſo of the hills moued, and were ſhaken, becauſe he was wroth.

8 There went vp a ſmoke: & out of his noſtrils, and fire out of his mouth deuoured, coales were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heauens alſo, and came downe: and darkneſſe was vnder his feet.

10 And he rode vpon a Cherub, and did ſit vpon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkneſſe his ſecret place: his pavillion round about him, was darke waters, and thicke clouds of the ſkies.

12 At the brightneſſe that was before him, his thicke clouds paſſed, haile ſtones, and coales of fire.

13 The LORD alſo thundered in the braues, & the Higheſt gave his voyce, haile ſtones, & coales of fire.

14 Yea, he ſent out his arrows, & ſcattered them: and he ſent out lightnings, and diſcomforded them.

15 Then the channels of waters were ſeene, & the foundations of the world were diſcovered: & they reſe, O LORD, at the brightneſſe of thy noſtrils.

16 He ſent from above, hee tooke me, hee drew me out of many waters.

17 He deliuered me from my ſtrong enemy, and from them which hated mee: for they were too ſtrong for me.

18 They preuented me in the day of my calamitie: but the LORD was my ſtay.

19 Hee brought mee forth alſo into a large place: he deliuered mee, becauſe he delighted in me.

20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousneſſe: according to the cleaſeneſſe of my hands hath he recompenſed me.

21 For I haue kept the wayes of the LORD, and haue not wickedly departed from my God.

22 For all his iudgements were before mee: and I did not put away his ſtatutes from me.

23 I was alſo upright: before him: and I kept my liſſe from mine iniquity.

24 Therefore hath the LORD recompenſed mee according to my righteousneſſe: according to the cleaſeneſſe of my hands: & in his eye ſight.

25 With the mercifull thou wilt: ſhow thy ſelfe mercifull: with an upright man: thou wilt ſhow thy ſelfe upright.

26 With the pure, thou wilt ſhow thy ſelfe pure: and with the ſorrowd, thou wilt ſhow thy ſelfe ſorrowd.

27 For thou wilt ſaue the afflicted people: hee wilt bring downe high lookes.

28 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkneſſe.

29 For by thee I haue paſſed through a troop: and by my God haue I leaped ouer a wall.

30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: hee is a buckler to all thoſe that truſt in him.

31 For who is God, ſine the LORD or who is a rocke, ſine our God?

32 It is God that increaſeth me with ſtrength, and maketh my way perfect.

33 He maketh my feet like hinds feet, and ſetteth me vpon my high places.

34 Hee teacheth my hands to war, ſo that a bow of ſteels is broken by mine armes.

35 Thou haſt alſo giuen me the ſhield of thy ſalutation: and thy right hand hath holden me vp, and thy gentleſſe hath made me great.

36 Thou haſt enlarged my ſteps vnder me: that my feet did not ſlip.

37 I haue purſued mine enemies, and ouertaken them: neither did I turne againe till they were confounded.

38 I haue wounded them that they were not able to riſe: they are fallen vnder my feet.

39 For thou haſt giued me with ſtrength vnto the battell: thou haſt ſubdued vnder mee thoſe that roſe vp againſt me.

40 Thou haſt alſo giuen mee the neckes of mine enemies: that I might deſtroy them that hate me.

41 They cryed, but there was none to ſaue them: euen vnto the LORD, but hee anſwered them not.

42 Then did I beat them ſmall as the duſt before the wind: I did caſt them out as the dirt in the ſtreets.

43 Thou haſt deliuered me from the ſtrivings of the people, and thou haſt made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I haue not knowne, ſhall ſerue me.

44 A ſonne as they heare of me, they ſhall obey me: & the ſcoundrels ſhall ſubmit themſelues vnto me.

45 The braggards shall fade away, and bee afraid out of their cloist'ers.

46 The LORD lieth, and blessed be my rock: and for the God of my saluation be exalted.

47 It is God that strengtheneth mee, and subdueth the people vnder me.

48 He deliuereth me from mine enemies, yea thou liest me vp above those that rise vp against mee: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks vnto thee O LORD among the heathen: and sing praises vnto thy Name.

50 Great deliuerance giueth thee to his King: and sheweth mercy to his Anointed, vnto David; and to his seed for euermore.

PSAL XIX.

The creatures shew Gods glory: 7 The words his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The heauens declare the glory of God: and the firmament sheweth his handy worke.

1 Day vnto day vttereth speech, and night vnto night sheweth knowledge.

2 There is no speech nor language, where their voyce is not heard.

3 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world: in them hath he set a Tabernacle for the sunne.

4 Which is as a bridegrome coming out of his chamber, and reioyceth as a strong man to run a race.

5 His going forth is from the end of the heauen, and his circuit vnto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the face thereof.

6 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soule: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

7 The Statutes of the LORD are right, reioycing the heart: the Commandement of the LORD is pure, enlightning the eyes.

8 The feare of the LORD is cleane, endaring for ouer: the iudgements of the LORD are true, and righteous altogether.

9 More to be desired are they then gold, yea, then much fine gold: sweeter also then honey, and purer then the hony combe.

10 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

11 Who can understand his errors? cleane thou me from secret faults.

12 Keepe backe thy servant also from presumptuous sinnes: let them not haue dominion ouer mee: then shall I be vpright, and I shall be innocēt from [the] great transgression.

13 Let the wordes of thy mouth, and the meditation of my heart, bee acceptable in thy sight, O LORD: my strength, and my redeemer.

PSAL XX.

The Church blesteth the King in his exploits. He is confident in Gods succour.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The LORD heare thee in the day of trouble, the Name of the God of Iacob defend thee.

1 Send forth the helpe from the Sanctuary: and strengthen thee out of Sion.

2 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifices, Selah.

3 Grant thee according to thine owne heart: and fulfill all thy counsel.

4 Wee will reioyce in thy saluation, and in the Name of our God we will set vp our banners: thy way shall all thy petitions.

6 Now know I, that the LORD standeth his Anointed: he will heare him from his holy heauen, with the sounding strength of his right hand. 7 Somewhat in chariot; and some in horses: but we will remember the Name of the LORD our God. 8 They are brought downe and fallen: but wee are risen and stand vpright. 9 Saue LORD, let the King heare vs when we call.

PSAL XXI.

A Thanksgiving for victory. Confidence of the firstborn.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

The King shall say in thy strength, O LORD, and in thy saluation how greatly shall he reioyce.

1 Thou hast giuen him his hearts desire: and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

2 For thou preuentest him with the blessings of goodwille: thou settest a crowne of pure gold on his head.

3 He asked life of thee, and thou gapest in him: thou length of dayes for euer and euer.

4 His glory is great in thy saluation: honour and maiestie hast thou laid vpon him.

5 For thou hast made him most blessed for euer: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.

6 For the King trusteth in the LORD: and throw the mercy of the most High vnto thee shall not be mowed.

7 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies, thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.

8 Thou shalt make them as a ficke tree in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them vp in his wrath, and the fire shall deuoure them.

9 Their fruit shall thou destroy from the earth: and their seed from among the children of men.

10 For they intended euill against thee: they imagined a malicious device which they are not able to performe.

11 Therefore shalt thou make them turne their backe, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows vpon thy strings against the face of them.

12 Be thou exalted, O LORD, in thine owne strength: so will we sing, and praise thy power.

PSAL XXII.

David complaineth in great discouragement. He prayeth in great distress. He prayeth God.

To the chief Musician vpon Arjel: Saiah. A Psalm of David.

MY God, my God, why hast thou forsaken mee? why art thou so farre from helping mee, and from the wordes of my roaring?

1 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not: and in the night season, I am not silent.

2 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Irael.

3 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliuer them.

4 They cryed vnto thee, and were deliuered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

5 But I am a worme, and no man: a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

6 All they that see me, laugh me to scorn: they shut out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

7 He trusted on the LORD, that hee would deliuer him: let him deliuer him, seeing hee delighted in him.

8 But thou art hee that tooke mee out of the wombe: thou didst make mee hope, when I was vpon my mothers breasts.

PSALM XXXIII.

1 Gods Lordship in the world. 3 The designe of his glorious kingdom. 7 An exhortation to rectifie him.

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is the LORDS, and the filius datus of the world, and they that dwell therein, For he hath founded it upon the Seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? and who shall stand in his holy place?

Hee that hath cleane hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lift vp his soule vnto vanity, nor iurane deceitfully.

He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seeke him: that seeke thy face, O Iacob. Selah.

Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift vp, ye everlasting doores, and the King of glorie shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battell.

Lift vp your heads, O ye gates, euen lift vp, ye euerslasting doores, and the King of glorie shall come in.

Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hostes, he is the King of glorie. Selah.

PSALM XXXV.

1 Davids confidence in prayer. 7 He prayeth for remission of sinnes, 16 and for helpe in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

Vnto thee O LORD, doe I lift vp my soule. O my God, I trust in thee: let mee not be ashamed: let not mine enemies triumph ouer me.

Yea, let some that wait on thee be ashamed: let them bee ashamed, that transgresse without cause.

Shew me thy wayes, O LORD, reach me thy pathes.

Lead in me thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my saluation, on thee doe I wait all the day.

Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies, and thy louing kindnesses: for they haue bene euer of olde.

Remember not the finnes of my youth, nor my transgressions, according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodnes sake, O LORD.

Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach finnes in the way.

The mecke will hee guide in iudgement: and the mecke will hee teach his way.

All the pathes of the LORD are mercy and truth: vnto such as keepe his Covenant, and his Testimoines.

For thy names sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity: for it is great.

What man is he that seareth the LORD? him shall hee teach in the way that he shall chuse.

His soule shall dwell in ease, and his seed shall inherit the earth.

The secret of the LORD is with them that seare him: and he will shew them his Covenant.

Mine eyes are euer toward the LORD: for he shall speake my secret out of the hee.

Turne thee vnto mee, and haue mercy vpon me: for I am desolate and afflicted.

The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distress.

Looke vpon mine affliction, and my paine, and forgive all my iniquities.

1 I was cast vpon thee from the wombe: thou art my God from my mothers belly.

Be not farr from mee, for trouble is neere: for there is none to helpe.

Many haue bene compassed me: strong labors of Babylon haue beleeued me round.

They that gaped vpon mee with their mouthes, as a ranning and a roaring Lyon.

I am powred out like water, and all my bones are out of ioynt: my heart is like waxe, it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

My strength is dried vp like a pottsherd: and my tongue cleauech to my iawes: and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

For they haue compassed mee: the assembly of the wicked haue inclosed me: they pierced my hailes and my feet.

I may tell all my bones: they looke and stare vpon me.

They part my garments among them, and cast lots vpon my vesture.

But be not thou farr from me, O LORD: O my strength, helpe thee to helpe me.

Deliuer my soule from the sword: and my darling from the power of the dog.

Save me from the Lyons mouth: for thou hast heard me from the corner of the Unicorne.

I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

Yee that feare the LORD, praise him: all yee the seed of Iacob glorifie him, and feare him, all yee the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised, nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted: neither hath he hid his face from him: when he cryed vnto him he heard.

My prayer shall come in the day of great congregation: I will pay my vowes before thee, yea feare him.

The mecke shall eat, and be satisfied, they shall praise the LORD that seeke him: your heart shall linc for euer.

All the ends of the world shall remember, and come vnto the LORD: and all the hundreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

For the kingdom is the LORDS: and hee is the gouernour among the nations.

All they that be set vpon earth, shall eat and worship: all they that goe down to the dust, shall bow before him, and none can keepe aboue his owne soule.

A seed shall serue him, it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness vnto a people that shall be borne, that is hath done thus.

PSALM XXXIII. Davids confidence in Gods grace.

A Psalm of David.

The LORD is my strength: I shall not waite. He meeketh mee to lie downe in peace pastures: hee leadeth me beside the still waters.

He reioiceth my soule: hee leadeth me in the pathes of righteousness for his Names sake.

Yea though I walke throu the valley of the shadow of death, I will feare none ill: for thou art with me, thy rod & thy staffe, they comfort mee.

Thou preparest a table before me, in the presence of mine enemies: thou increasest my head with oyle, my cup runneth ouer.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the dayes of my life: and I will dwell in the temple of the LORD for euer.

Make a full & true, to the end of dayes.

Hebr. sword of patience.

19 Consider mine enemies: for they are many, and they hate me with cruel hatred.
20 O keepe my soule and deliuer mee: let me not be shamed, for I put my trust in thee.
21 Let integritie and vprightnesse preserue me: for I waite on thee.
22 Redeeme Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

P S A L. XXV.

Dauid rejoyceth vnto God, in confidence of his integritie.

A Psalm of Dauid.

I Vdge mee, O LORD, for I haue walked in mine integritie: I haue trusted also in the LORD: therefore I shall not slide.

- 2 * Examine me, O LORD, and proue me: thy my teares and my part.
- 3 For thy louing kindness is before mine eyes: and I haue walked in thy truth.
- 4 * I haue not seen with mine persons, neither will I see in with dissemblers.
- 5 I haue hated the congregation of euill doers: and will not sit with the wicked.
- 6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine Altar, O LORD:
- 7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous workes.
- 8 LORD I haue loued thy habitation of thy house: and the place where thine honour dwelleth.
- 9 * Gather not my soule with sinners, nor my life with bloody men.
- 10 In whose hands is mischief: and their right hand is full of bribes.
- 11 But as for me, I will walke in mine integritie: redeme me, and be mercifull vnto me
- 12 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I blesse the LORD.

P S A L. XXVII.

Dauid iustifieth himself by the power of God, by his loue to the seruants, Job, 9 by prayer.

A Psalm of Dauid.

T HE LORD is my light and my saluation, whom shall I feare? the LORD is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

- 2 When the wicked, euen mine enemies, and my foes, came vpon me to eat vp my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
- 3 * Though an holke should encampe against me, my heart shall not feare: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
- 4 One thing haue I desired of the LORD, that will I seeke after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the dayes of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, & to enquire in his Temple.
- 5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his Tabernacle shall he hide me, he shall set me vp vpon a rocke.
- 6 And now shall mine head be lifted vp above mine enemies round about mee: therefore will I offer in his Tabernacle sacrifices of ioy, I will singe, I will sing praises vnto the LORD.
- 7 Heare, O LORD, when I cry with my voyce: haue mercy also vpon me, and answer me.
- 8 * When thou shalt iudge, Seeke yee my face, my heart shall vnto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seeke.
- 9 Hide not thy face farre from mee, pittie not thy seruant away in anger: thou hast bin my help, let me not be ashamed for sake me, O God of my saluation.
- 10 When my father and my mother for sake me, then the LORD will take me vp.
- 11 * Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead mee in a plaine path, because of mine enemies.
- 12 Deliuer mee not ouer vnto the will of mine enemies: for false witnessers are risen vp against me, and such as breathe out crookedly.

- 13 I had feared vntill I had beleened, to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the liuing.
- 14 * Wait on the LORD: bee of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

P S A L. XXVIII.

Dauid prayeth earnestly against his enemies, & He blesseth God. 9 He prayeth for the people.

A Psalm of Dauid.

V NTO thee will I cry, O LORD, my rocke, be not silent to me: * lett if thou be silent to me, I become like them: yee goe downe into the pit.

- 2 Heare the voyce of my supplications, when I cry vnto thee: when I lift vp my hands toward thy holy Oracle.
- 3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity: * which speake peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.
- 4 Gine them according to their deede, and according to the wickednesse of their endeanours: giue them after the worke of their hands, render to them their desert.
- 5 Because they regard not the workes of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, hee shall destroy them, and not build thera vp.
- 6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voyce of my supplications.
- 7 The LORD is my strength, and my shield, my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly reioyceth: and with my song will I praise him.
- 8 The LORD is their strength, and hee is the facing strength of his armoured.
- 9 Save thy people, and blesse thine inheritance, I feed them also, and lift them vp for euer.

Dauid exhorteth Princes to give glory to God, 3 by reason of his power, and protection of his people.

A Psalm of Dauid.

G Iue vnto the LORD, (O ye mighty) gine vnto the LORD glory and strength.

- 2 Gine vnto the LORD the glory due vnto his Name: worship the LORD in the beauty of holinesse.
- 3 The voyce of the LORD is vpon the waters: the God of glory thundereth, the LORD is vpon many waters.
- 4 The voyce of the LORD is full of powerfull: the voyce of the LORD is full of Maiesse.
- 5 The voyce of the LORD breaketh the cedars: yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon, and * Sirion like a young Vnicorne.
- 6 The voyce of the LORD shaketh the flames of fire.
- 7 The voyce of the LORD shaketh the wilderness: the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 8 The voyce of the LORD maketh the Hinderes to calue, and discometh the forestes: and in his Temple doeth every one speake of his glory.
- 9 The LORD sitteth vpon the flood: yea, the LORD sitteth King for euer.
- 10 The LORD will gine strength vnto his people: the LORD will blesse his people with peace.

A Psalm and song at the dedication of the house of David.

I will extoll thee, O LORD, for thou hast lifted me vp, and hast not made my foes to reioyce over me.

O LORD my God, I cryed vnto thee, and thou hast heald me.

O LORD thou hast brought vp my soule from the graue: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not goe downe to the pit.

Sing vnto the LORD (O ye Saints of his) and giue thanks: at the remembrance of his holines.

For his anger endureth but a moment, in his fauour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

And in my prosperitie I said, I shall neuer be mooued.

LORD, by thy fauour thou hast made my mountaine to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

I cryed to thee, O LORD: and vnto the LORD I made my supplication.

What profit is there in my blood when I goe downe to the pit? shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

Hear, O LORD, and haue mercy vpon me: LORD be thou my helper.

Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladnesse.

To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent, O LORD my God, I will giue thanks vnto thee for ever.

PSAL. XXXI.

Dauid shewing his confidence in Gods trust in his helpe. He reioyceth in his mercy, & he prayeth in his calamities, as he praiseth God for his goodnesse.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of Dauid. IN thee, O LORD, do I put my trust, let me neuer be ashamed: deliver me in thy righteousnesse.

Bow downe thine eare to me, & heare me speedily: be thou my strong rocke, for an house of defence to save me.

For thou art my rocke and my fortress, therefore: thy Names sake, leade me and guide me.

Pull me out of the net: that they haue laid priuily for me: for thou art my strength.

Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

I haue hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

I will be glad and reioyce in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, thou hast knowen my soule in aduersities;

And hast not shut me vp into the hand of the enemy: thou hast see my feet in a large roome.

Haue mercy vpon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grieke, my soule and my belly.

For my life is spent with grieke, and my yeres with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bowes are consumed.

I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a feare to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without, fled from me.

I am forgotten as a dead man out of minde: I am like a broken vessel.

For I haue heard the slander of many, feare was on every side: while they sought counsell together against me, they desired to take away my life.

But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

Make thy face to shine vpon thy seruants: haue me for thy mercies sake.

Let me not be ashamed, O LORD, for I haue called vpon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the graue.

Let the lying lips be put to silence: which speake of prouous things proudly and conceitously against the righteous.

How great is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laid vp for them that feare thee: which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee, before the sonnes of men!

Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion, from the strife of tongues.

Blessed be the LORD: in as much as he hath shewed me his maruolous kindeesse in a strong city.

For I said in my hurt, I am cut off from before thine eyes: Nevertheless, thou hearest the voyce of my supplications, when I cryed vnto thee.

O lone the LORD, all ye his Saints: for the LORD preferreth the faithfull, and plentifully rewardeth the proud coe.

Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your hearts: all ye that hope in the L

PSAL. XXXII.

Dauid confesseth in remission of sinnes. Confession of sinnes giveth ease to the conscience. Gods promises bring ioy.

A Psalm of Dauid, Maschil. Blesse he whose transgression is forgiveness, whose sinne is covered.

Blessed is the man vnto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity: and in whose spirit there is no guile.

When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my swearing all the day long.

For day and night thy hand was heavy vpon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of Summer. Selah.

I acknowledge my sinne vnto thee, and mine iniquity haue I not hid: I said I will outcesse my transgressions vnto the LORD, and thou forganest the iniquity of my sinne. Selah.

For this shall every one that is godly pray vnto thee, in a time when thou shalt be angry: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh vnto him.

Thou art my hiding place, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliuerance. Selah.

I will instruct thee, and teach thee in the way which thou shalt goe: I will guide thee with mine eye.

Be ye not as the horse, as the mule, which haue no vnderstanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come nere vnto thee.

Many sorrowes shall bee to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

Be glad in the LORD, & reioyce ye righteous: and shew it for ioy, all ye that are vpright in heart.

PSAL. XXXIII.

Recioyce in the LORD, O ye righteous for praise is comely for the vpright.

1 Praise the LORD with harpe : sing vnto him with the Psaltery, and an instrument of ten strings.
2 Sing vnto him a new song playfullly with a loud voyce.

3 For the word of the LORD is right : and all his workes are done in truth.

4 He loneth righteousness and iudgement: the earth is full of the goodnesse of the LORD.

5 * By the word of the LORD were the heuens made: and all the hostes of them, by the breath of his month.

6 He gathereth the waters of the sea together, and heape i he heyn vp the depth in fhorowes.

7 Let all the earth feare the LORD : let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

8 For he spake and it was done: he commanded,
and it stood fast.

9 * The LORD † bringeth the counsell of the heaven to nought : hee maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

10 * The counsell of the LORD standeth for euer:
the thoughts of his heart † to all generations.

11 * Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD : and the people, whom he hath chosen for his owne inheritance.

12 The LORD looketh from heauen : he behol-deth all the finnes of men.

13 From the place of his habitation, hee looketh vpon all the inhabitants of the earth.

14 He fashioneth their hearts alike: hee confide-reth all their workes.

15 There is no King saved by the multitude of an hoste: a mightyman is not deliuered by much strength.

16 * Truste is a vaine thing for safety: neither shall the deliner any by his great strength.

17 * Behold, the eye of the LORD is vpon them that feare him: vpon them that hope in his mercy:

18 To deliuer their soule from death, and to keepe them alme in famine.

19 Our soule waiteth for the LORD : hee is our helpe and our shield.

20 For our heart shall reioyce in him: because we haue trusted in his holy Name.

21 Let thy mercy (O LORD) be vpon vs: according as we hope to thee.

PSAL XXXIII.

David praesed God and exhorted other thereto by his experience. They are blessed that trust in God. Hee exhortheth to the feare of God. 15
The primidiues of the righteous.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech who droue him away, and hee departed.

I will blesse the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soule shall make her boast in the LORD:
the humble shall heare thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnifie the LORD with me, and let vs exalt his Name together.

4 I fought the LORD, and he heard me; and de-liuered mee from all my feares.

5 They looked vnto him, and were lightened:
and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poore man cryed, and the LORD heard him: and lauded him out of all his troubles.

7 The Angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that feare him, and deliuereth them.

8 O cast and fetter that the LORD is good, blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

O feare the LORD ye his Saints: for there is no want to them that feare him.

10 The young lions doe lacke and suffer hunger:
but they that fecke the LORD, shall not want any good thing.

11 Come ye children, hearken vnto me: I will teach you the feare of the LORD.

12 * What man is he that delereth life, and loneth many dayes that he may see good?

13 Keepe thy tongue from euill, and thy lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from euill, and doe good: seeke peace and pursue it.

15 * The eyes of the LORD are vpon the righteous: and his eares are open vnto their cry.

16 The face of the LORD is against them that doe euill: to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth: and deliuereth them out of all their troubles.

18 The LORD is nigh † vnto them that are of a broken heart: and saveth such as be † of a contrite spirit.

19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD deliuereth him out of them all.

20 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

21 Enill shall say the wicked: and they that hate the righteous, shall say I be desolate.

22 The LORD redeemeth the soule of his ser-uants: and none of them that trust in him, shall be desolate.

PSAL XXXV.

David praesed for his owne safety, and his owne confusion. Hee complaineth of their wrong-full dealing. Thereby hee witnesseth Gods truth.

A Psalm of David.
Lead my cause (O LORD) vnto them that strive with me: fight against them y fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand vp for mine helpe.

3 Draw out also the speare, and stop the mouth against them that persecute me: say vnto my soule,
I see thy saluation.

4 * Let them bee confounded and put to shame that seeke after my soule: let them be turned backe and brought to confusion that desire my hurt.

5 * Let them be as * chaffe before the wind: and let the Angel of the LORD chase them.

6 Let their way be † darke and slippery, and let the Angel of the LORD persecute them.

7 For without cause haue they hid for mee their net in a pit, which without cause they haue dugged for my soule.

8 Let destruction come vpon him; at vnawares, and let his net that he hath hid, catch himselfe: into that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soule shall be ioyfull in the LORD:
it shall reioyce in his saluation.

10 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like vnto thee, which deliuerest the poore from him that is too strong for him; yea, the poore and the needy from him that spoileth him?

11 † False witnesses did rise vp: † they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded mee euill for good, to the † spoiling of my soule.

13 But as for me, when they were sicke, my clothing was sackcloth: I † humbled my soule with fasting, and my prayer turned into woe and boiour.

PSAL. XXXVI.

1 The innocency of the wicked. 2 The excellency of Gods mercy. 10 David prayeth for fa-uour to Gods children.

† To the chief Musicians. A Psalm of David,
the seruant of the LORD.

The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no feare of God before his eyes.

1 For he scattereth himselfe in his owne eyes, † vtill his iniquity be found to be hateful.

2 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to doe good.

3 He denieth † mischief vpon his bed, he terreth himselfe in a way that is not good, he abhorreth not euill.

4 Thy mercy (O LORD) is in the heauens: & thy faithfullnesse reacheth vnto the clouds.

5 Thy righteousnesse is like † the great moun-taines: thy iudgments are a great deepe, O LORD, thou preferrest man and beast.

6 How † excellent is thy louing kindnesse, O God: therefore the children of men put their trust vnder the shadow of thy wings.

7 They shall be † abundantly satisfied with the fruits of thy house: and thou shalt make them drinke of the riuers of thy pleasures.

8 For with thee is the fountaine of life, in thy light shall we see light.

9 O † continue thy louing kindnesse vnto them that know thee: and thy righteousnesse to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against me: & let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: & they are cast downe, and shall not be able to rise.

PSAL. XXXVII.

David persuadeth to patience and confidence in God, by the difference of the goodly and the wicked.

A Psalm of David.

Fret not thy selfe because of euill doers, neither be thou enuious against † workers of iniquity.

1 For they shall soone be cut downe like the grasse, and wither as the Greene herbe.

2 Trust in the LORD, & do good: so shall thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

3 Delight thy selfe alse in the LORD, and he shall giue thee the desires of thine heart.

4 Commit thy way vnto the LORD: trust also in him, and he shall bring it to passe.

5 And he shall bring forth thy righteousnesse as the light, and thy iudgement as the noone day.

6 Rest in the LORD, and waite patiently for him: fret not thy selfe because of him who prosper-eth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked deuices to passe.

7 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thy selfe in say wite to doe euill.

8 For euill doers shall be cut off: but those that waite vpon the LORD, they shall inherite the earth.

9 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

10 But the meeke shall inherite the earth: and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

11 The wicked † ploteth against the iust, and gatheth vpon him with his teeth.

12 The LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his days are coming.

13 The wicked haue drawne out the sword, and haue bent their bow to cast downe the poore and needy, and to slay † such as be of vpright conuersation.

14 The sword shall enter into their owne heart, and their bowes shall be broken.

15 A little that a righteous man hath, is better then the riches of many wicked.

16 For the armes of the wicked shall be broken:
but the LORD vpholdeth the righteous.

17 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for euer.

18 They shall not be ashamed in the euill times:
and in the dayes of famine they shall be satisfied.

19 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall as the fat of lambs: they shall consume: inso muche shall they consume away.

20 The wicked borroweth, & payeth not againe:
but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giueth.

21 For such as be blessed of him, shall inherite the earth: and they that be caused of him, shall be cut off.

22 The steps of a good man are † ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

23 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast downe: for † the LORD vpholdeth him with his hand.

24 I haue bene young, and now am old: yet haue I not seene the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

25 He is † curer mercifull, and lenient: and his seed is blessed.

26 Depart from euill, and doe good: and dwell for euermore.

27 For the LORD loveth iudgement, and he hateth the wicked.

28 Let the righteous be as the sunne, when the sunne shall arise.

29 Righteousnesse shall flourish as the olive tree: and shall increase like the cedar in Libanus.

30 The righteous shall flourish as the palm tree: and shall increase like the cedar
in Libanus.

31 The righteous shall flourish as the palm tree: and shall increase like the cedar
in Libanus.

32 The righteous shall flourish as the palm tree: and shall increase like the cedar
in Libanus.

fisher not his Saints, they are preferred for ever : but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land ; and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgement.

31 The Law of his God is in his heart : none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the LORD, and keepe his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land : when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power : and spreading himselfe like a greene bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and loe, he was not : yet, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Marke the perfect man, and behold, the upright : for the end of their way is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together : the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD : he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall helpe them, and deliver them : he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

PSAL. XXXVIII.

A Psalm which David saith to the LORD, when he was sick.

A Psalm of David to bring to remembrance,

LORD rebuke me not in thy wrath : neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows sticketh fast in me : and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger : neither is there any trust in my bones, because of my sinne.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head : as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stinketh, and are corrupt : because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled, I am bowed downe greatly : I goe mourning all the day long.

7 For my loynes are filled with a loathsome disease : and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken : I have roared by reason of the disquietnesse of my heart.

9 Lord, all my desire is before thee : and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me : as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My bones and my friends stand aloofe from me : and my kinsfolkes stand farre off.

12 They also that seeke after my life, say shames for me : and they that seeke my hurt, speake malicious things, & imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I as a deafe man, heard not, and I was as a dumbe man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reprooves.

15 For I in thee, O LORD, doe I hope : thou wilt heare, O Lord, my God.

16 For I said, Neare unto me, lest otherwise they should rejoyce over mee : when my foot slipper, they magnifie themselves against me.

17 For I am ready to fall, and my sorrow is continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquity : I will be sorry for my sinne.

29 But mine enemies are liuely, and they are strong : and they that hate me wrongfully, are multiplied.

30 They also that render euill for good, are from mine adversaries, because I follow the thing that is good.

31 Forsaake me not, O LORD : O my God, be not faire from me.

32 Make haste to helpe mee, O Lord, my salvation.

PSAL. XXXIX.

A Psalm of David, when he was sick.

1 Davids care of his thoughts : 4 The consideration of the breuitie and vniuersity of life : 7 The recovery of Gods iudgements, 10 and prayer, are his bridle of temperance.

2 To the chief Musician, upon an Instrument of Dauid.

3 I said, I will take heed to my waies, that I sinne not with my tongue : I will keepe my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

4 I was dumbe with silence, I held my peace, even from good, and my sorrow was stirred.

5 My heart was hot within me, while I was troubling the fire burned : then spake I with my tongue.

6 LORD make me to know mine end, and the measure of my dayes, what it is : that I may know how frail I am.

7 Behold thou hast made my dayes as an handbreadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee : verely enemy man is at his best that is altogether vanity. Selah.

8 Surely every man walketh in vanity, surely they are disquieted in vaine : he heareth vanity, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

9 And now Lord, what waile for : my hope is in thee.

10 Deliver me from all my transgressions : make me not the reproof of the foolish.

11 I was dumbe, I opened not my mouth, because thou didst it.

12 Remove thy stroke away from mee : I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

13 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth : surely every man is vanity. Selah.

14 Heare my prayer, O LORD, and give care unto my cry, hold not thy peace at my request : for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

15 O spare me, that I may recover strength : before I goe hence, and be no more.

PSAL. XL.

A Psalm of David, when he was sick.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 4 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 12 The sense of Davids caitif iniquity by prayer.

2 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

3 I waited patiently for the LORD, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

4 Hee brought me vp also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet vpon a rocke, and established my going.

5 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God : many shall see it, and feare, and shall trust in the LORD.

6 Blessed is the man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud : nor seeketh to turne aside to lies.

7 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderfull workes which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to be feared : they cannot be reckoned to thee.

vp in order vnto thee : if I would declare and speak of them, they are more then can be numbred.
 6 * Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire, mine eares hast thou opened : burnt offering and sinne offering hast thou not required, 7 Then said I, Lo, I come : in the volume of the booke it is written of me :

8 I delight to doe thy will, O my God : yea, thy Law is i within my heart.
 9 I haue preached righteousnesse in the great Congregation : loe, I haue not restrained my lips, 10 LORD, thou knowest.

11 I haue not hid thy righteousnesse within my heart: I haue declared thy faithfulness, and thy salu-ation : I haue not concealed thy louing kind-nesse and thy truth, from the great Congregation.
 12 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD : let thy louing kindnesse and thy truth continually preuaile me.

13 For innumerable euils haue compassed mee about, mine iniquities haue taken hold vpon me, so that I am not able to looke vp: they are moe then the haire of mine head : therefore my heart is falth mee.

14 Repleased, O LORD, to deliuer me: O LORD make haste to helpe me.

15 Let them be ashamed & confounded together that seek after my soule to destroy it: let them be driuen backward & put to shame y with me euil.

16 Let them be deuiate, for a reward of their shame: that say vnto me, Aha, aha!

17 Let all those that seek thee, reioyce and bee glad in thee : let such as love thy saluation, say continually, The LORD be magnified.

18 But I am poore and needy, yet LORD thinke th vpon mee : thou art my helpe and my deliuerer, make not tarrying, O my God.

PSAL XLII

Gods care of the poore. 4. Dauid complaineth of his enemies treacherie. 10. Hee fleeth to God for succour.

1 To the chiefe Musician, A Psalm of Dauid, Blessed is hee that considereth the poore : the LORD will deliuer him in time of trouble.

2 The LORD will p^rsecute him, and keepe him aline, & he shall be blessed vpon the earth, and thou wilt not deliuer him vnto the wil of his enemies.

3 The LORD will strengthen him vpon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, LORD be mercifull vnto me: heale my soule, for I haue sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speake euil of me: when shall hee dye, and his name perishe?

6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity:
 his heart gathereth iniquity to it selfe, when hee goeth abroad, he telleth it.

7 All that hate mee, whisper together against me against mee do they deuise & my hurt.

8 For an euil deuce, say they, cleaueth fast vnto him: and now that hee lieke he shall rise vp no more.

9 Yea, for mine owne familiar friend in whom I trusted, which did eate of my bread, hath lift vp his heele against mee.

10 But thou, O LORD, be mercifull vnto me, and raise me vp: that I may requite thee.

11 By this I know that thou fauorest mee: because mine enemies doe not triumph ouer me.

12 And as for me, thou vpholdest me in mine iniquities, and ferrest me before thy face for ouer.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, from euiling and to euiling. Amen, and Amen.

PSAL XLIII

*Dauids psalm to serue God in the Temple. 3
 Hee encourageth his soule to trust in God.*

1 To the chiefe Musician, [Maltai], for the Iouers of Korah.

As the Hart pantseth after the water brookes, so pantseth my soule after thee, O God.

2 My soule thirsteth for God, for the liuing
 God: when shall I come and appeare before God?

3 My teares haue bene my meate day and night, while they continually say vnto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, I powre out my soule in me; for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God; with the voyce of ioy and praise, with a multitude that kept holy day.

5 Why art thou cast downe, O my soule, and why art thou disquieted in mee? hope thou in God, for I shall yet praise him: the helpe of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soule is cast downe within me:
 therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, & of the Hermonites, from y hill Misar.

7 Deepe calleth vnto deepe at the nois of thy water spouts: all thy waves and thy billowes are gone ouer me.

8 For the LORD will command his louing kin-desse in the day time, and in night his song shall bee with me, & my prayer vnto the God of my life.

9 I will say vnto God, My soule, Why hast thou forgotten me? why goe I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me: while they say daily vnto me,
 Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast downe, O my soule? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSAL XLIII

Dauid praying to be restored to the Temple promiseth to serue God faithfully. 5. Hee encourageth his soule to trust in God.

1 Iudge me, O God, and plead my cause against an vngodly nation, O deliuer me from the de-ceitfull and vniust man.

2 For thou art the God of my strength, why dost thou cast me off? why goe I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3 O iud out thy light and thy truth: let them leade me, let them bring me vnto thy holy hill, and to thy Tabernacle.

4 Then will I goe vnto the Altar of God, vnto
 God, y my exceeding ioy: yea vpon the harpe will I praise thee, O God, my God.

5 Why art thou cast downe, O my soule? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God, for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSAL XLIII

*The Church in memory of former succours, y

2 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hast a favour unto them.

4 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will wee push downe our enemies: through thy Name will wee tread them under that rise vp against vs.

6 For I will not trust in my bow: neither shall my sword save mee.

7 But thou hast saved vs from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated vs.

8 In God we trust all the day long: and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou hast cast off, and put vs to shame: and ghest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest vs to turne backe from the enemy: and they which hate vs, spoile for themselves.

11 Thou hast given vs like sheepe appointed for meate: and hast scattered vs among the heathen.

12 Thou sellest thy people for nought: and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest vs a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about vs.

14 Thou makest vs a by-word among the heathen: a speaking of the head among the people.

15 My confusion is continually before mee, and the shame of my face hath covered mee.

16 For the voyce of him that reproacheth, and blasphemeth: by reason of the enemy and anenger.

17 All this is come upon vs, yet have wee not forgotten thee, neither have wee desist falsely in thy Covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned backe: neither have our steps declined from thy way.

19 Though thou hast forebroken vs in the place of dragons, and covered vs with the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the Name of our God or stretched out our hands to a strange God:

21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, for thy sake are wee killed all the day long: we are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.

23 Awake, why sleepest thou, O LORD? arise, call us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest our affliction, and our oppression?

25 For our soule is bowed downe to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise for our helpe: and redeeme vs for thy mercies sake.

PSAL. XLV.

1 The valour and grace of Christ's Kingdome. 10 The duty of the Church, and the benefits thereof.

2 To the chiefe Musitian, upon Saltham, for the sonnes of Korah, 5 Matteil: A Song of Loves.

MY heart is in desiring a good matter: I speake of the things which I have made touching the King: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

3 Thou art fairer then the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

4 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty: with thy glory and thy mastery.

5 And in thy mastery ride profperously, because of thine righteousness, and righteousness shall thy right hand shall touch thy terrible things.

7 Thine arrows are sharpe in the heart of the Kings enemies: whereby the people fall under thee.

8 Thy throne (O God) is for ever and ever: like the scepter of thy kingdom is a right scepter.

9 Thou lovest righteousness, and hastest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oyle of gladnes above thy fellows.

10 All the garments finest of myrrhe, and aloes, and cassia: out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

11 Kings daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queene in gold of Ophir.

12 Hearken (O daughter) and consider, and incline thine eare: forget also thine owne people, and thy fathers house.

13 So shall the King greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, and worship thee him.

14 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift, from the rich among the people shall increase thy favour.

15 The Kings daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is wrought gold.

16 She shall be brought unto the King: as a simment of needle-worke: the virgins her companions that follow her, shall be brought unto thee.

17 With gladnesse and rejoycing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the Kings palace.

18 In stead of thy fathers, shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make Princes in all the earth.

19 I will make thy Name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

PSAL. XLVI.

1 The confidence which the Church hath in God, 8 An exhortation to behold it.

2 To the chiefe Musitian, for the sonnes of Korah. A Song upon Alamoth.

God is our refuge and strength: a very present helpe in trouble.

3 Therefore will not we feare though the earth be removed: and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the Sea.

4 Though the waters thereof rage, and be troubled: though the mountaines shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

5 There is a river, the streames whereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the Tabernacles of the most High.

6 God is in the midst of her: she shall not be moved: God shall helpe her, and stand right early.

7 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

8 The LORD of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

9 Come, behold the worker of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

10 He maketh wars to come unto the end of the earth: he breaketh the brow, and cutteth the square in funder, he burneth the Chariot in the fire.

11 Bee still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

12 The LORD of hostes is with vs: the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

¶ A Song or Psalm for the sonnes of Korah.

Hear is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the Citie of our God, in the mountaine of his holinesse.

1 Beantifull for situation, the ioy of the whole earth is mount Zion; on the side of the North, the Citie of the great King.

2 God is knowne in her palaces for a refuge.

3 For here the Kings were assembled: they passed by together.

4 They saw it, and they marueiled, they were troubled, and lasted away.

5 Feare took hold vpon them there, and paine tooke a woman in travail.

6 Thou brakest the ships of Tarshish with an East winde.

7 As we haue heard, so haue we seene in the citie of the LORD of hosts, in the citie of our God, God will establish it for euer. Selah.

8 We haue thought of thy loeing kinnesse, O God, in the midst of thy Temple.

9 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise vnto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

10 Let mount Zion reioyce, let the daughters of Iudah be glad because of thy iudgements.

11 Walke about Zion, and goe round about here: tell the towers thereof.

12 Marke yee well her bulwarkes, I consider her palaces, that ye may tell it to the generations following.

13 For this God is our God for euer and euer: he will be our guide euen vnto death.

PSAL XLIX.

¶ To the chiefe Musician. A Psalm for the sonnes of Korah.

Hear this, all ye people, giue care, all ye inhabitants of the world:

1 Both high and low, rich and poore together.

2 My mouth shall speake of wisdom: and the meditation of my heart shall be of vnderstanding.

3 I will encline mine eare to a parable, I will open my darke saying vpon the harpe.

4 Wherefore should I feare in the dayes of euill, because the iniquity of my heeles shall compass me about?

1 The Majesty of God in the Church. 5 His order to gather a church. 7 The pleasure of God is more in ceremonies, 14 but in sincerity of obedience.

¶ A Psalm for Asaph.

The mighty God, euen the LORD hath spoken, and called the earth, from the rising of the Sun, vnto the going downe thereof.

2 Out of Zion the perfection of beauty, God hath said,

3 Our God shall come, and shall not keepe silence: a fire shall deuoure before him, and he shall be very terrible round about him.

4 He shall call to the heauens from aboue, and to the earth that he may iudge his people.

5 Gather my Saints together vnto mee: those that haue made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

6 And the heauens shall declare his righteousness: for God is iudge himselfe. Selah.

7 Heare, O my people, and I will speake of Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, euen thy God.

8 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices, because thine offerings are burnt continually before me.

9 I will take no bullocke out of thy house, nor hee-gone out of thy fields.

10 For eueny heafe of the sacrifice is mine, and the cattell vpon a thousand hills.

11 I know all the soules of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are of mine.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulnes thereof.

13 Will I eate the flesh of bullockes, or drinke the blood of goates?

14 Offer vnto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows vnto the most High.

15 And call vpon me in the day of trouble: I will deliuer thee, and thou shalt glorifie mee.

PSALM LII

David concerning the speeches of Doeg the ephraimite his destruction: & the righteous shall rejoice at it. & David upon his confidence in God, mercy giueth thanks.

To the chief Musician Maschil, A Psalm of David: when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul and said vnto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

Why boastest thou thy selfe in mischief, O mighty man: the goodnes of God endereth continually.

Thy tongue denieth mischiefs: like a sharper thane working deceitfully.

Thou lovest euill more then good, and lying rather then to speake righteousnesse. Selah.

Thou lovest all deuoicing words, O thou deceitfull tongue.

God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and roote thee out of the land of the liuing. Selah.

The righteous also shall see and feare, and shall laugh at him.

Loe, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himselfe in his wickednesse.

But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy Name, for it is good before thy Saints.

PSALM LIII

David describeth the corruption of a nauall man. He denunceth the wicked by the light of their own conscience. He glorieth in the saluation of God.

To the chief Musician vpon Mahalath Maschil. A Psalm of David.

The foole hath said in his heart, There is no God: euen up are they, and haue done abominable iniquity, & there is none that doeth good.

God looked downe from heauen vpon the children of men, to see if there were any that did vnderstand, that did seeke God.

Every one of them is gone backe, they are altogether become stibby: there is none that doeth good no not one.

Haue the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who call vpon my people as they eat bread: they haue not eate up vpon God.

There were they in great feare where no feare was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

That the saluation of Israel were come out of Sion: when God bringeth back the captiuitie of his people, Iacob shall reioyce, and Israel shall be glad.

PSALM LIIII

David concerning the Ziphims, prayeth for saluation. Upon his confidence in Gods helpe he promisseth sacrifice.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when the Ziphims came and said to Saul: Dorth not David hide himselfe with vs?

Save me O God, by thy Name, and iudge me by thy strength.

Hear my prayer, O God: giue care to the words of my mouche.

not in sincerity. 18 He prayeth for the Church.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the Prophet came vnto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

Haue mercy vpon me, O God, according to thy flowing kindness, according vnto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

Wash me thorowly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sinne.

For I acknowledge my transgression: and my sinne is euer before me.

Against thee, thee onely haue I sinned, and done this euill in thy sight: that thou mightest bee iustified when thou speakest, and bee cleare when thou iudgest.

Behold, I was shapen in iniquity: and in sin did my mother conceive me.

Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward part: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be cleane: wash me, and I shall be whiter then snow.

Make me to heare ioy and gladnesse: that the bones which thou hast broken may reioyce.

Hide thy face from my finnes, and blot out all mine iniquities.

Create in me a cleane heart, O God: and renew a right spirit within me.

Cast me not away from thy presence: and take not thy holy spirit from me.

Reiuce vnto me the ioy of thy saluation: and uphold me with thy free Spirit.

How will I teach my transgressions by wayes, and sinners shall be conuerted vnto thee.

Deliver me from blood-guiltinesse, O God, thou God of my saluation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousnesse.

O Lord open thou my lips, and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

For thou desirest not sacrifice: if else would I giue it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

Doe good in thy good pleasure vnto Sion: build thou the walles of Ierusalem.

Then shall thou be pleased with the sacrifices

8 David in his prayer complaineth of his fearful case. 9 He prayeth against his enemies, of whose wickednesse and treachery he complaineth. 16 He comforteth himselfe in Gods preservation of him, and confesse of his enemies.

9 To the chiefe Musicians on Neginoth, Makhil. A Psalm of David.

1 GIVE eare to my prayer, O God: and hide not thy selfe from my supplication.

2 Attend vnto me, and heare me: I mourne in my complaint, and make a noise.

3 Because of the voyce of the tummy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they call iniquity vpon my head in wrath they hate me.

4 My heart is sore pained within me: and the tartours of death are fallen vpon me.

5 Fearefulnesse and trembling are come vpon me, and horror hath overcome me.

6 And I said, O that I had wings like a dove: for then would I flee away, and be at rest.

7 Loe, thus would I wander far off, and remaine in the wilderness. Selah.

8 I would haue my escape from the windy storme and tempest.

9 Destroy, O Lord, and diuide their tongues: for I haue seene violence and strife in the city.

10 Day and night they goe about it vpon the wals thereof: in iudicacie also and sorrow are in the middelt of it.

11 Wickednesse is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me, then I could haue borne it: neither was it be that hated me, then I did not magnifie myselfe against mee, then I would haue hid my selfe from him.

13 But it was thou, O Lord, a man, mine equal, my guide, and my acquaintance.

14 When thou tooke sweet counsell together, and walked vnto the house of God in company.

15 Let death seaze vpon them, and let them goe downe quicke into hell: for wickednesse is in their dwellings, and among them.

16 As for mee, I will call vpon God: and the Lord shall saue me.

17 Evening and morning, and at noone will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall heare my voyce.

18 Hee hath deliuered my soule in peace from the battell that was against me: for there were many with me.

19 God shall heare, and stillet them, euen he that stillet of old. Selah: because they haue no stumps, therefore they feare not God.

20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: for hee hath broken his covenant. At the words of his mouth were smoother then butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer then oyle, yet were they drawne swordes.

21 Cast thy burden vpon the Lord, and hee shall sustaine thee: hee shall neuer suffer the righteous to be moued.

22 But thou, O God shalt bring them downe into the pit of destruction: and bloody and deceitfull men shall not haue out halfe their dayes, for I will trust in thee.

7 They gather themselves together: they hide themselves, they marke my steps, when they waite for my soule.

David complaineth of his affliction. 12 He prayeth for deliverance. 22 Hee bewaileth his enemies to destruction. 26 He prayeth God with thanksgiving.

To the chief Musician upon Shofannim, A Psalm of David.

SALUTE me, O God, for the waters are come in unto my soule.

2 I sinke in deepe voyce, where there is no standing: I am come into deepe waters, where the floods overflow me.

3 I am weary of my crying, my throat is dried: mine eyes faile while I wait for my God.

4 They that hate me without a cause, are mee then the hates of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I refused that which I tooke not away.

7 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach, shame hath covered my face.

8 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mothers children.

9 For the zeale of thine house hath eaten mee up: and the reproaches of them that reproached thee, are fallen upon me.

10 When I weep, and oblaimes my soule with fasting, that was to my reproach.

11 I made sackcloth also my garment: and I became a prouber to them.

12 They that sit in the gate, speake against me: and I was the song of the drunkards.

13 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy heare me, in the truth of thy salvation.

14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let mee be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deepe waters.

15 Let not the water flood overflow me neither let the deepe swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

16 Heare me, O LORD, for thy loving kindness is good: turne unto me, according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

17 And hide not thy face from thy servant: for I am in trouble: let heare me speedily.

18 Draw nigh unto my soule, and redeme it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

19 Thou hast known my reproach and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

20 Reproach hath broken my heart, thine I am full of heavinesse: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

21 They gave me also gall for my meate, and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drinke.

22 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

23 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, and make their joyes continually to shake.

24 Powre out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathfull anger take hold of them.

25 Let their habitation be desolate, and let none dwell in their tents.

26 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten, and they talke of the griefe of those whom thou hast wounded.

27 Adde thou iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.

28 Let them be blotted out of the booke of the living, and not be writzen with the righteous.

29 Bar I am poore, and sorrowfull: let thy salvation, O God, be unto me upon high.

30 I will praise the Name of God with a song, and will magnifie him with thanksgiving.

31 This also shall please the LORD, better then an ox or bullocke that hath homies and hooves.

32 The humble shall see this and be glad: and your heart shall lince that seeke God.

33 For the LORD heareth the poore, and despiseth not his prisoners.

34 Let the heaves and earth praise him; the seas and every thing that hath mouth therein.

35 For God will save Sion, and will build the cities of Judah that they may dwell therein, and have it in possession.

36 The seed also of his servants shall inherite it, and they that love his Name shall dwell therein.

PSALM LXXI.

David soliciteth God to the speedy destruction of the wicked, and preservation of the goodly.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

MAKE haste, O God, to deliver mee, make haste to helpe mee, O LORD.

2 Let them be ashamed and confounded that helpeleske after my soule: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

3 Let them be turned backe for a reward of their shame, like say, Aha, aha.

4 Let all those that seeke thee, rejoyce, and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation, say continually, Let God be magnified.

5 But I am poore and needy, make haste unto me, O God: thou art my helpe, and my deliverer, O LORD make no tarrying.

PSALM LXXII.

David in confidence of faith, and experiences of Gods favour prayeth loob for himselfe, and against the enemies of his soule. 14 Hee protesteth confidence. 17 He prayeth for perseverance. 19 He prayeth God, and promiseth to doe it cheerfully.

IN THEE O LORD, do I put my trust, let me never be put to confusion.

2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: mine enemy are vnto me, and save mee.

3 Be thou my strong habitation, wherunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me, for thou art my rocke, and my fortress.

4 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the vngifted, and cruel all men.

5 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth.

6 By thee have I been holden vp from the womb.

7 By thee have I been holden vp from the womb.

then art bee that ~~take~~ me out of my mothers bowels, my praise shall be continually of thee.

7 I am as a wonder unto many, but thou art my strong refuge.

8 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise, and with thy honour all the day.

9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

10 For mine enemies speake against me, and they that say wait for my fault: like counsell together;

11 Saying, God hath forsaken him: pervertur and take him for there is none to deliver him.

12 O God, be not farr from mee: O my God, make haste for my helpe.

13 Let them be confounded and consumed, that are adversaries to my soule: let them bee covered with reproach and dishonour, that seek: my hurt.

14 Bee I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness, and thy saluation all the day: for I know not the numbers thereof.

16 I will goe in the strength of the Lord God: I will make mention of thy righteousness, O God, of thine onely.

17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto I declared thy wondrous workes.

18 Now also when I am old and gray headed, O God forsake me not: vnaill I haue shewed thy strength vnto this generation, and thy power to ebery one that is to come.

19 Thy righteousness also O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like vnto thee?

20 Thou which hast shewed me great, and sore trochises, shalt quicken me againe, and shalt bring me vp againe from the depths of the earth.

21 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on ebery side.

22 I will also praise thee with the Psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: vnto thee will I sing with the harpe, O thou holy one of Israel.

23 My lips shall greatly reioyce when I sing vnto thee: and my soule which thou hast redeemed.

24 My tongue also shall talke of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought vnto shame that seek: my hurt.

PSAL. LXXIII.

1 David praying for Solomon, bewitch the goodness and glory of his, in type and in truth of Christs Kingdom. 2 He blessing God.

A Psalm of Solomon.

Glory the King thy Indignours, O God, and thy righteousness vnto the Kings Soune.

2 He shall iudge thy people with righteousness, and thy poore, with iudgement.

3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

4 He shall iudge the poore of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall breake in pieces the oppressour.

5 They shall feare thee: as long as the Sunne and Moone endureth, throughout all generations.

6 He shall come downe like raine vpon the mountain grasses: he shallower that water the earth.

7 In his dayes shall the righteous flourish: and abundance of peace: so long as the Moone endureth.

8 He shall haue dominion also from Sea to Sea, and from the riuer, vnto the ends of the earth.

9 They that dwell in the wilderness, shall bow before him: and his enemies shall lick the dust.

10 The Kings of the earth, and of the Sea shall bring presents: the Kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

11 Yea, all Kings shall fall downe before him: all nations shall serue him.

12 For hee shall deliuer the needy when hee cryeth: hee shall save the poore also, and him that hath no helper.

13 He shall spare the poore and needy, and shall save the soules of the needy.

14 He shall redeeme their soules from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood bee in his sight.

15 And he shall liue and to him shall be giuen of the gold of Sheba; prayer also shall be made for him continually, and daily shall he be praised.

16 There shall be a handfull of corne in the ear: vpon the top of the mountaines; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon, and they of the city shall flourish like grasse of the earth.

17 His Name shall endure for ever, this Name shall be continued as long as the Sunne and moone shall be blessed in him, all Nations shall call him blessed.

18 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who onely doeth wonderous things.

19 And blessed be his glorious Name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen.

20 The prayers of David the soune of Iesse, are ended.

PSAL. LXXIII.

1 The Prophet prevailling in a temptation, 2 sheweth the occasion thereof, the prosperitie of the wicked. 3 The wound giuen thereby, 4 his diligence: 5 The victory ouer it, knowledge of Gods purpose in destroying of the wicked, and sustaining the righteous.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Trudy God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a cleane heart.

2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone: my steps had well nigh slept.

3 For I was enuious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperitie of the wicked.

4 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is as firme.

5 They are not in trouble, as other men: neither are they plagued like other men.

6 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain: violence covereth them as a garment.

7 Their eyes stand out with fatnesse: they haue more then heart could wish.

8 They are courage and speake wickedly concerning oppression: they speake loftily.

9 They set their mouth against the heauen: and their tongue walketh thorrow the earth.

10 Therefore his people returne liether: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

11 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

12 Behold, these are the vngodly: who prosper in the world, they increase in riches.

13 Verily I haue cleansed my heart in vaine, and washed my hands in innocencie.

14 For all the day long haue I been plagued: and I chaffened euery morning.

15 If I say, I will speake thus: I behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

16 When I thought: I know this, it was too painfull for me.

17 Vnaill I went into the Sanctuary of God: shew vnderstood I their end.

18 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou calledst them into destruction.

19 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment they are utterly consumed with terrors.
 20 As a dream when one awaketh: so O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.
 21 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

22 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

23 Nevertheless, I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsell: and afterward receive me to glory.

25 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire besides thee.

26 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

27 For loe, they that are farre from thee, shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that goe a whoring from thee.

28 But it is good for me to draw neere to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD: that I may declare all thy workes.

PSALM LXXXIII

The Prophet complaineth of the desolation of the Sanctuary. 10 He moueth God to helpe in consideration of his power, 12 of his reproachfull enemies, of his children and of his Covenant.

¶ Machil of Asaph.

O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doest thou these things against the Sanctuary of thy pasture?

1 Remember thy Congregation which thou hast purchased of old: the rod of thine inheritance which thou hast redeemed, this mount Sion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

2 Lift up thy feet vnto the perpetuall desolation: for all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the Sanctuary.

3 Thine enemies roare in the midst of thy Congregation: they set vp their ensignes for signes.

4 A Max was famous, according as he had lifted up axes vpon the thicke trees.

5 But now they brake downe the carved worke thereof: & ouer, with axes and hammers.

6 They haue cast fire into thy Sanctuary: they haue defiled, by casting downe the dwelling place of thy Name to the ground.

7 They said in their hearts, Let vs destroy them together: they haue burnt vp all the Synagogues of God in the land.

8 Wee see not our signes, there is no more any Propheet, neither is there among vs any that knoweth how long.

9 O God how long shall the aduersary reprobate shall the enemy blaspheme thy Name for ever?

10 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, euenthy might hand? plucke it out of thy bosome.

11 For God is my King of old, working saluati on in the mydd of the earth.

12 Thou didst diuide the Sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the water.

13 Thou brakest the heads of Leviathan in pieces, and gartest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

14 Thou diddest cleane the fountaine and the flood: thou driedst vp mighty riuers.

15 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the Sunne.

16 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made Summer and Winter.

17 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD: and that the foolish people haue blasphemed thy Name.

18 O deliuer not the soule of thy trauellour vnto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poore for euer.

19 Haue respect vnto the conent: for the darke places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

20 O let not the oppressed returne ashamed: let the poore and needy praise thy Name.

21 Arise, O God plead thine owne cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

22 Forget not the voyce of thine enemies: for the result of those that rise vp against thee, increaseth continually.

PSALM LXXXV

The Prophet praiseth God 2 Promiseth to iudge uprightly. 4 He rebueth the proud by consideration of Gods prouidence. 6 He praiseth Gods and promiseth to execute iustice.

¶ To the chief Musician, Altsachith, A Psalm or song of Asaph.

Vnto thee O God doe we give thanks, vnto thee doe we give thanks: for that thy Name is nere, thy wonderous workes declare.

1 When I shall recite the Congregation, I will iudge uprightly.

2 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: beare vp the pillars of the world.

3 I said vnto the fooles, Deal not so foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not vp the horn.

4 Lift not vp your horn on high: speake not with a stiff necke.

5 For promotion cometh neither by strength, nor from the West, nor from the East.

6 But God is the iudge: hee putteth downe one and setteth vp another.

7 For in the hand of the Lord there is a cup, and the wine is red: it is full of mixture, and hee pouereth out of the fountaine the dreg, thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drinke them.

8 But I will declare for euer: I will sing praises to the God of Iacob.

9 All the hornes of the wicked also will I cut off, as the hornes of the righteous shall be exalted.

PSALM LXXXVI

A declaration of Gods mercy to the Church. 12 An exhortation to feare him perpetually.

¶ To the chief Musician, of Nehemiah, A Psalm or song of Asaph.

IN Iudah is God knowne: his Name is great in Israel.

1 In Salem also is his Tabernacle: and his dwelling place in Sion.

2 There brake hee the arrows of the bow, the shield and the sword, and the battell.

3 Thou art more glorious and excellent then the mountaynes of prey.

4 The stout hearted are spoiled: they haue sleept their sleepe: and none of the men of might haue found their hands.

5 As thy rebuke, O God, of Iacob, both the chariot and horse are, falling into a dead sleepe.

6 Thou, enemies thou art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

7 Thou didst cause iudgement to be heard from heauen: the earth feared, and was still.

8 When God arose to iudgement, to Iuda all the mecke of the earth.

9 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shall be stille.

 6 That the generation to come might know shew, even the children which should bee borne: who should aske and declare shew to their children:

35 And they remembered that God was their rock: and the high God their redeemer.

36 Nevertheless, they did flatter him with their mouth: and they lied vnto him with their tongues.

37 For their heart was not right with him: neither were they stedfast in his Covenant.

38 But he being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity: and desisted about them: yet many a time turned he his anger away: and did not stirre vp all his wrath.

39 For he remembered that they were but flesh: a wind that passeth away, and cometh not againe.

40 How oft did they provoke him in the wil-dernes: and grieved him in the desert?

41 Yea, they turned bocke and tempted God: and haunted the holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand: nor the day when he deliuered them from the enemy:

43 How he had wrought his signes in Egypt:
and his wonders in the field of Zoan:

44 And had turned their riuers into blood: and their floods that they could not drinke.

45 Hee sent diuers sorts of flies among them, which denoured them: and frogs which destroyed them.

46 He gaue also their increase vnto the cater-pillers: and their labour vnto the locust.

47 He destroyed their vines with hail: and their Sycomore trees with frost.

48 He gaue vp their cattell also to the hail: and their flockes to the thunderbolts.

49 He cast vpon them the fiercenesse of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble: by sending cruell angels among them.

50 He made away, to his anger, he spared not their soule from death: but gaue their life ouer to the pestilence.

51 And smote all the first borne in Egypt: the chefe of their strength in the Tabernacles of Ham:

52 But made his owne people to goe forth like sheepe: and guided them in the wilderness like a flocke.

53 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea + overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And hee brought them to the border of his Sanctuarie: euen to this inuaine which his right hand had purchased.

55 Hee cast out the heathen also before them, and decided them an inheritance by Iure: and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high
God: and kept not his Testimonies:

57 But turned backe, and dealt faithfullly like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitfull bow.

58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places: and moued him to ielousie with their grauen images.

59 When God heard this, hee was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israels

60 So that hee forsooke the tabernacle of Shiloah: the tent which hee placed among men.

61 And deliuered his strength into captiuitie:
and his glory into the enemies hand.

62 He gaue his people ouer also vnto the sword, and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriage.

64 Their Priests fell by the sword: and their wi-dowes made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that stretcheth by reason of wine

66 And hee sawe his enemies in the binder parts he put them to a perpetuall reproach.

67 Moreover hee persecuted the tabernacle of Ioseph:
and chose not the tribe of Ephraim.

68 But chose the tribe of Iudah: the mount Sion which hee loued.

69 And hee build his Sanctuary like high palaces:
like the earth which hee hath established for euer.

70 Hee chose Dauid also his seruant, and took him from the sheepe-folds.

71 From following the ewes great with young: hee brought him to feed Iacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So hee fed them according to the integrity of his heart: and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

PSALM LXXIX.

The Psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Ierusalem. He prayeth for deliuerance, and promiseth thankfulness.

A Psalm of Asaph.

God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance, thy holy Temple haue they desolated, they haue laid Ierusalem on heaps.

The dead bodies of thy seruants haue they gi-uen to be meate vnto the foules of the heauen: the flesh of thy Saines vnto the beasts of the earth.

Their blood haue they shed like water round about Ierusalem: there was none to bury them:

We are become a reproch to our neighbors:
a scorn and derision to them that are round about vs.

How long LORD, wilt thou be angry for euer? shall thy ielousie burne like fire?

Power out thy wrath vpon the heathen that haue not knowne thee: and vpon the kingdomes that haue not called vpon thy Name.

For they haue denoured Iacob: and laid waste his dwelling place.

Remember not against vs former iniquities, let thy tender mercies speedily preuent vs for we are brought very low.

Help vs, O God of our saluation, for the glory of thy Name: and deliuer vs, and purge away our sins for thy Names sake.

Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let them be knowne among the heathen in our sight, by the renewing of the blood of thy seruants which is shed.

Let the fighting of the prisoner come before thee, according to the greatness of thy power:
+ preferre those that are appointed to die.

And render vnto our neighbors Iesus Todd into their bosome, their reproach wherewith they haue reproached thee, O Lord.

So wee thy people, and sheepe of thy pasture, will giue thee thanks for euer: we will thy forth thy praise + to all generations.

PSALM LXXX.

mistries of the Church, Gods former fauours are turned into iudgements, he prayeth for deliuerance.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Give eare, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that lead-est Ioseph like a flocke: thou that dwellest betweene the Cherubins, shine forth.

Before Ephraim, and Benjamin, and Iudah,
+ before Ierusalem, + come and see vs.

Turne vs againe, O God: and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

be angry against the prayer of thy people?
5 Thou feedest them with the bread of teares:
and giuest them teares to drinke in great measure, 6 Thou makest vs a strife vnto our neighbours:
and our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Turne vs againe O God of hostes, and cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.
8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.
9 Thou preparedst vs me before it: and didst make it to take deepe roote, and it filled the land.
10 The hills were couered with the shadow of it, and the boughes thereof were like † the goodly Cedars.
11 Shee sent out her boughes vnto the Sea: and her branches vnto the river.
12 Why hast thou thou broken downe her hedge:
so that all they which passe by the way, doe plucke her?
13 The boare out of the wood doth waste it: and the wilde beast of the field doth deuoure it.
14 Returne we beseech thee, O God of hostes:
looke downe from heauen, and behold, and visite this vine.
15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted: and the branch that thou madest strong for thy selfe.
16 It is burnt with fire, it is cut downe: they peck it: as the rebuke of thy countenance.
17 Ere thy hand bee vpon the man of thy right hand: vpon the fountaine of man, whose chaine madest strong for thy selfe.
18 So will not we goe backe from thee: quicken
we, and we will call vpon thy Name.
19 Turne vs againe, O LORD God of hostes:
cause thy face to shine, and we shall be saved.

A Psalm of Asaph.

Hebr. psal. 74.
Sing aloud vnto God our strength: make a ioyfull sound vnto the God of Iacob.
1 Telle a Psalm, and bring hither the timbrell:
the pleasaunt harpe, and the Psalterie.
2 Blow vp the trumpet in the new Moone: in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.
3 For this was a Statute for Israel: and a Law of the God of Iacob.
4 This he ordained in Ioseph for a Testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt:
where I heard a language that I vnderstood not.
5 I remoued his shoulder from the burden of his hands: † I was deliuered from the pots.
6 Thou hast kept in trouble, and I deliuered thee,
I answered thee in the secret place of thunders: I † proued thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah.
7 Heare, O my people, and I will testify vnto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken vnto me.
8 There shall no strange God be in thee: neither shalt thou worship any strange god.
9 I am the LORD thy God which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
10 But my people would not hearken vnto my voice: and Israel would none of me.
11 So I gave them vp vnto their owne hearts:
and they walked in their owne counsils.

12 O that my people had hearkened vnto mee:
and (I said) had walked in my wayes!
14 I should soone haue subdued their enemies:
and turned mine hand against their aduersaries.
15 The haters of the LORD should haue submitted themselves vnto him: but their time should haue endured for ever.
16 He should haue fed them also † with the fi-ocft of the wheat: and with hony out of the rocke, should I haue satisfied thee.

PSAL. LXXXIII.

The Prophet longing for the coming of the Sanctuary, & stretcheth how blessed they are that dwell therein. He prayeth to be restored unto it. To the chiefe Musician upon Guttech, A Psalm for the finnes of Korah.

How desirable are thy Tabernacles, O LORD of hostes.

- 1 My soule longeth, yea, enea fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh cryeth out for the living God.
- 2 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for her selfe, where she may lay her young, even thine Altars, O LORD of hostes, my King and my God.
- 3 Blessed are they that dwell in thine house: they will be still praising thee, Selah.
- 4 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee: in whose heart are the wayes of chem.
- 5 Who passing thorow the valley of Baca, make it a well: the raine also filleth the pooles.
- 6 They goe from strength to strength, carry one of them in Zion appeareth before God.
- 7 O LORD God of hostes heare my prayer: gise care, O God of Iacob, Selah.
- 8 Behold, O God our shield: and looke vpon the face of thine Anointed.
- 9 For a day in thy courts is better then a thousand: I had rather be a doore keeper in the house of my God, then to dwell in the tents of wickednes.
- 10 For the LORD God is a Sonne and Shield: the LORD will gise grace & glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walke uprightly.
- 11 O LORD of hostes: blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSAL. LXXXV.

The Psalmist out of the experience of former mercies, prayeth for the continuance thereof. He promisseth to wait thereon, out of confidence of Gods goodness.

To the chiefe Musician, A Psalm: for the finnes of Korah.

- 1 LORD thou hast bene favourable vnto thy people: thou hast brought backe the captivity of Iacob.
- 2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people: thou hast covered all their sinne, Selah.
- 3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thy selfe from the fiercenes of thine anger.
- 4 Turne vs, O God of our saluation: and cause thine anger towards vs to cease.
- 5 Wilt thou bee angry with vs for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?
- 6 Wilt not thou reuine vs againe: that thy people may reioyce in thee?
- 7 Shew vs thy mercy, O LORD: and grant vs thy saluation.
- 8 I will heare what God the LORD will speake: for he will speake peace vnto his people, and to his Saints: but let them not turne againe to folly.
- 9 Surely his saluation is nigh them: that feare him: that glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth are met together: righteousnesse and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring out of the earth: and righteousness shall looke downe from heauen.
- 12 Yea the LORD shall gise that which is good: and our land shall yeeld her increase.
- 13 Righteousnesse shall goe before him: and shall set vs in the way of his steps.

The David strengtheneth his prayer by the confidence of his religion. & by the goodness and power of God. He desireth the continuance of former graces: & complaining of the proud, he prayeth some tokens of Gods goodness.

A prayer of David.

- 1 Bow downe thine eare O LORD, heare me: for I am poore and needy.
- 2 Preferre my soule, for I am holy: O thou my God, saue thy seruant that trusteth in thee.
- 3 Be mercifull vnto me, O LORD: for I cry vnto thee daily.
- 4 Reioyce the soule of thy seruant: for vnto thee (O Lord) doe I lift vp my soule.
- 5 For thou Lord art good, and ready to forgive: and plentious in mercy vnto all them that call vpon thee.
- 6 Gise care, O LORD, vnto my prayer: and attend to the voice of my applications.
- 7 In the day of my trouble I will call vpon thee: for thou wilt answer me.
- 8 Among the gods there is none like vnto thee (O LORD): neither are there any workes like vnto thy workes.
- 9 All nations whom thou hast made, shall come and worship before thee, O Lord: and shall glorifie thy Name.
- 10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.
- 11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, I will walke in thy truth: vnto my heart to feare thy Name.
- 12 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorifie thy Name for evermore.
- 13 For great is thy mercy toward mee: and thou hast deliuered my soule from the lowest hell.
- 14 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men haue sought after my soule: and haue not set thee before them.
- 15 But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion: and gracious: long suffering, and plentious in mercy and truth.
- 16 O turne vnto mee, and haue mercy vpon mee, gise thy strength vnto thy seruant: and saue the soule of thy handmaid.
- 17 Shew mee a token for good: that thy which hate me, may see it, and bee ashamed: because thou LORD hast holpen me, and comforted me.

- 3 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God, Selah.
- 4 I will make mention of Rahab, and Babylon, to them that know me: Behold, Philistia and Tyre with Ethiopias: this was borne there.
- 5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was borne in her: and the Highest himselfe shall establish her.
- 6 The LORD shall count when hee writeth vpon the people: that this man was borne there, Selah.

chiefe Medicin vpon Mahathah the Exrabithe,

Maschil of Heman the Exrabithe.

O LORD God of my saluation, I haue cryed day and night before thee.

1 Let my prayer come before thee; and let thine care vnto my cry.

2 For my soule is full of troubles; and my life draweth nigh vnto the grave.

3 I am counted with them that goe downe into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength.

4 Free among the dead, like the stone that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

5 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit: in darknesse in the deepes.

6 Thy wrath lyeth hard vpon me; and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waues. Selah.

7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance farre from me: thou hast made me an abomination vnto them: I am shut vp, and I cannot come forth.

8 Mine eye weepeth by reason of affliction, LORD, I haue called dayly vpon thee; I haue stretched out my hands vnto thee.

9 Wike thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead rise and praise thee? Selah.

10 Shall thy louing kindnesse be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulnesse in destruction?

11 Shall thy wonders be knowne in the darke? and thy righteousnesse in the hand of forgetfulness?

12 But vnto thee haue I cryed, O LORD, and in the morning shall my prayer present thee.

13 LORP, why comest thou out of my soule? why hast thou thy face from me?

14 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth vp: while I suffer thy terrors, I am distracted.

15 Thy fierce wrath goeth ouer me: thy terrors haue cut me off.

16 They came round about me | dayly like water: they compassed me about together.

17 Lower and friend hast thou put far from me: and mine acquaintance into darkness.

PSAL. LXXXII.

1 The Psalmist praiseth God for his covenants, 5 for his wonderfull power, 15 for the care of his Church, 29 for his fauour to the kingdome of Dauid: 38 Then complaining of contrary euents: 46 he expostulateth, prayeth, and blessing God.

Maschil of Heman the Exrabithe.

I Will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: and with my mouth will I make knowne thy faithfulnesse | to all generations.

2 For I haue said, Mercy shall be built vp for ever: thy faithfulnesse shall thou establish in the very heauen.

3 I haue made a covenant with my chosen I haue sworn vnto Dauid my seruant.

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever: and build vp thy throne | to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heauens shall praise thy wonder, O LORD: thy faithfulnesse also in the Congregation of the Saints.

6 For who in the heauen can be compared vnto the LORD? who among the firmes of the mighty can be likened vnto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the Saints: and to be had in reuereuce of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hostes, who is a Strong LORD like vnto thee? or to thy faithfulnesse round about thee?

9 Thou wilt the raging of the Sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou shalt still them.

10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is false: thou hast scattered thine enemies | with thy strong arme.

11 The heauens are thine, he earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulnesse thereof, thou hast founded them.

12 The North and the South, thou hast created them: Tabor & Hermon shall reioyce in thy Name.

13 Thou hast | a mighty arme: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

14 Infirmitie and iudgment are the habitation of thy thronemercy & truth shall go before thy face.

15 Blessed is the people that know the | ioyfull sound: they shall walke, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

16 In thy Name shall they reioyce all the days: and in thy righteousnesse shall they be exalted.

17 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy fauour our hornes shall be exalted.

18 For the | LORD is our defender: and the holy One of Israel is our King.

19 Then thou speakest in vision to thy holy One, and saydest, I haue laid helpe vpon one that is mighty: I haue exalted one chosen out of the people.

20 I haue found Dauid my seruant: with my holy Oyle haue I anointed him.

21 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arme also shall strengthen him.

22 The enemy shall not extirpate him: nor the sonne of wickednesse afflict him.

23 And I will heare downe his foes before his face: and plague them that hate him.

24 But my faithfulnesse and my mercy shall be with him: and in my Name shall his horn be exalted.

25 I will set his hand also in the Sea: and his right hand in the rivers.

26 He shall cry vnto me, Thou art my father: my God, and the rocke of my saluation.

27 Also I will make him my first borne: higher then the Kings of the earth.

28 My mercy will I keepe for him for euermore: and my Covenant shall stand fast with him.

29 His seed also will I make to endure for euer: and his throne as the dayes of heauen.

30 If his childen forsake my law: and walke not in my iudgements:

31 If they | breake my Statutes, and keepe not my Commandements:

32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.

33 Nevertheless, my louing kindnesse will I not utterly take from him: nor | suffer my Cuthulnesse to fail.

34 My covenant will I not breake: nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

35 Once haue I sworn by my holinesse: | that I will not lie vnto Dauid.

36 His seed shall endure for ever: and his throne as the Sunne before me.

37 It shall be established for euer as the Moon: and as a faithfull witness in heauen. Selah.

38 But thou hast cast off and abhorred: thou hast become wroth with thine anointed.

39 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy seruant: thou hast profaned his crowne, by calling it to the ground.

40 Thou hast broken downe all his hedges: thou hast brought his strong hold to raime.

41 All that passe by the way spoile him: he is a reproch to his neighbours.

42 Thou hast set vp the right hand of his aduersaries: thou hast made all his enemies to reioyce.

43 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword: and hast not made him to stand in the battell.

44 Thou hast made his \dagger glory to cease: and cast his throne downe to the ground.

45 The dayes of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

46 How long LORD wilt thou hide thy selfe, for ever? shall thy wrath burne like fire?

47 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vaine?

48 What man is he that lieth, and shall not see death? shall he deliuer his soule from the hand of the graue? Selah.

49 Lord, where are thy former loving kindneses, which thou \dagger wastest vnto Dauid in thy truth?

50 Remember (LORD) the reproach of thy seruants: how I doe brag in my boosome the reproach of all the mighty people.

51 Wherewith thine enemies haue reproached, O LORD: wherewith they haue reproached the footstepes of thine Anointed.

52 Blessed be the LORD for euermore, Amen, and Amen.

PSAL. XC.

1 Moses setting forth Gods providence, 3 complaint of humane frailty, 7 diuine chastisement, 10 and breuity of life, 13 He prayeth for the knowledge and sensible experience of Gods good providence.

¶ A prayer of Moses the man of God.

LORD, thou hast bene our dwelling place \dagger in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or euer thou hadst formed the earth and the world: euen from euertlasting to euertlasting thou art God:

3 Thou wast as mist to destruction: and as sayell, Returne ye children of men.

4 For a thousand yeeres in thy sight, are but as yesterday when it is past: and as a watch in the night.

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood, they are as a sleepe: in the morning they are like grasse which \dagger groweth vp.

6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth vp: in the evening it is cut downe, and withereth.

7 For wee are consumed by thine anger: and by thy wrath art we troubled.

8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thine our secret sinnes in the light of thy countenance.

9 For all our dayes are \dagger passed away in thy wrath: we spend our yeeres \dagger as a tale that is told.

10 For the dayes of our yeeres are threescore yeeres and ten, and if by reason of strength, they be fourscore yeeres, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soone cut off, and we flie away.

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? or been according to thy stare, so \dagger is thy wrath.

12 So teach vs to number our dayes, that we may \dagger apply our hearts vnto wisdom.

13 Returne (O LORD) how long? and let it repect thee concerning thy seruants.

14 O satisfie vs early with thy mercy: that wee may reioyce and be glad all our dayes.

15 Make vs glad according to the dayes wherein thou hast assisted vs: and the yeeres wherein wee haue sene euill.

16 Let thy worke appeare vnto thy seruants, and thy glory vnto their children.

17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be vpon vs, and establish thou the work of our hands vpon vs: yea, the worke of our hands establish thou it.

PSAL. XCI.

1 The effects of the gods, 3 Their safety, 9 Their habitation, 11 Their seruants, 14 Their friends, with the effects of them all.

HEE that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High: shall \dagger abide vnder the shadow of the Almighty.

2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge, and my fortress: my God, in him will I trust.

3 Surely he shall deliuer thee from the snare of the Fowler: and from the noyome pestilence.

4 Hee shall cover thee with his feathers, and vnder his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

5 Thou shalt not bee afraid for the terror by night: nor for the arrow that flieth by day:

6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darknesse: nor for the destruction that waiteth at noone day.

7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand: but it shall not come nigh thee.

8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.

9 Because thou hast made the LORD which is my refuge, thou shalt see the most High, thy habitation:

10 There shall no euill befall thee: neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

11 For he shall giue his Angels charge ouer thee: to keepe thee in all thy wayes.

12 They shall beare thee vp in their hands: lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Thou shalt tread vpon the Lyon, and the Dragon shalt thou trample vnder feet.

14 Because he hath for his lone vpon me, therefore will I deliue him: I will set him on high, because he hath knowen my Name.

15 Hee shall call vpon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble, I will deliuer him, and honour him.

16 With \dagger long life will I satisfie him: and I will shew him my saluation.

PSAL. XCII.

1 The Prophet exhorteth to praise God, for his great works: 6 for his iudgements on the wicked, 10 and for his goodness to the godly.

¶ A Psalm or Song for the Sabbath day.

IT is a good thing to giue thanks vnto the LORD, and to sing praises vnto thy Name, O most High:

2 To shew forth thy louing kindnesse in the morning: and thy faithfullnesse ieuery night:

3 Vpon an instrument of ten strings, and vpon the Psaltery: vpon the \dagger harpe with a solemn sound.

4 For thou LORD hast made mee glad through thy worke: I will triumph in the workes of thy hands.

5 O LORD, how great are thy workes! and thy thoughts are very deepe.

6 A brutish man knoweth not: neither doth a foole vnderstand this.

7 When the wicked spying as the grasse, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish: it is that they shall be destroyed for euer.

8 For thou LORD art most high for euermore.

9 For loe, thine enemies, O LORD, for loe, thine enemies shall perish: all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

10 But my home shall thou erect, like the barne of an Viceroy: I shall be appointed with fresh joye, 11 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies: and mine ear shall heare my desire of the wicked that rise vp against me.

12 * The righteous shall flourish like the palme tree: he shall grow like a Cedar in Lebanon.

13 Those that bee planted in the house of the LORD, shall flourish in the courts of our God.

14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age: they shall be fat and flourish.

15 To show that the LORD is vpright: he is my rocke, and there is no vnrighthead in him.

PSAL XCIII

The Majesty, power, and holinesse of Christs Kingdom.

The LORD reigneth, hee is clothed with Majesty: the LORD is clothed with strength.

wherewith hee hath girded himselfe: the world also is established, that it cannot be mooued.

Thy throne is established for old: thou art from cursting.

The floods haue lifted vp, O LORD: the floods haue lifted vp their voice: the floods lift vp their waues.

The LORD on high is mightier then the noise of many waters, yea then the mighty waues of the Sea.

Thy Testimonies are very sure: holinesse becometh thine house, O LORD for ever.

PSAL XCIII

The Prophet calling for iustice, complaint of wrong and misery.

He teacheth Gods prouidence. 12 He sheweth the blessedness of affliction.

16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD God to whom vengeance belongeth: O God to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thy selfe.

Lift vp thy selfe thou Iudge of the earth, render a reward to the proud.

LORD, how long shall the wicked: how long shall the wicked triumph?

How long shall they utter and speake hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boall themselves.

They breake in pieces thy people, O LORD: and afflict thine heritage.

They slay the widow and the stranger: and murder the fatherlesse.

Yea they say, the LORD shall not see: neither shall the God of Iacob regard it.

Vnderstand, yee brau:ish among the people: and yee fooles, when will ye be wise?

He that planned the care, shall hee not heare? he that formed the eye, shall hee not see?

He that chastiseth the heauen, shall hee be coerced: hee that teacheth man knowledge, shall hee not be knowne?

The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man: that they are vanity.

Blessed is the man whom thou chastisest, O LORD: and teachest him out of thy Law:

That thou mayest giue him selfe from the days of aduersity: vntill the pit be digged for the wicked.

For the LORD will not cast off his people: neither will he forsake his inheritance.

But iudgement shall returne vnto righteousnesse: and all the vpright in heart shall follow it.

Who will rise vp for me against the euill doers? or who will stand vp for mee against the workers of iniquity?

17 Vnto the LORD had bene my helpe: my soule had almost dwelt in silence.

18 When I said, my foot slippeth: thy mercy, O LORD, held me vp.

19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me, thy comforts deliight my soule.

20 Shall the throne of iniquity haue fellowship with thee: which firmeth mischief by a law?

21 They gather themselves together against the soule of the righteous: and condemne the innocēt blood.

22 But the LORD is my defence: and my God is the rocke of my refuge.

23 And hee shall bring vpon them their owne iniquity, and shall cut them off in their owne wickednesse: yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

PSAL XCV

An exhortation to praise God, for his great iustice and for his goodnesse.

3 And not to tempt him.

Come let vs sing vnto the LORD, let vs make a ioyfull noise to the rocke of our saluation.

Let vs come before his presence with thanksgiving: and make a ioyfull noise vnto him with psalms.

For the LORD is a great God: and a great King about all gods.

In his hand are the deepe places of the earth: the strength of the hills is in his alow.

The Sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

Come let vs worship, and how low: let vs kneele before the LORD our maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his hand: to day if ye will heare his voice,

Harden not your heart, as in the day of temptation: in the wilderness:

When your fathers tempted mee: proued me, and saw my works.

Forty yeeres long was I grieved with this generation, and said: it is a people that doe erre in their heart: and they haue not knowen my waye.

Vnto whom I swore in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

PSAL XCVI

An exhortation to praise God, for his great iustice, for his kingdom, and for his general iudgement.

Sing vnto the LORD a new song, sing vnto the LORD all the earth.

Sing vnto the LORD, blesse his Name: shew forth his saluation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the heauen: his wonders among all the people.

For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: hee is to be feared above all gods.

For all the Gods of the nations are idolst: but the LORD made the heauen.

Honour and maiesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his Sanctuary.

Giue vnto the LORD (O ye kindreds of the people) giue vnto the LORD glory and strength.

Giue vnto the LORD the glory of due praise: his numbering an offering, and come into his courts.

O worship the LORD in the beauty of holinesse: feare before him all the earth.

Say among the heauen, that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established: hee shall not be moued: hee shall iudge the people righteously.

Let the heauenst ioyce, and let the earth be glad:

glad: let the Sea roare and the fulness thereof.

12 Let the field be joyfull and all that is therein then shall all the trees of the wood reioyce.

13 Before the LORD, for he cometh, for he cometh to iudge the earth: he shall iudge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

PSAL. XC VII.

1 The mercy of Gods Kingdom, 7 The Church triumpeth at Gods iudgements upon sinners. 10 An exhortation to godlinesse and gladnesse.

The LORD reigneth, let the earth reioyce: let the multitude of the Isles be glad thereof.

2 Clouds of darkness are round about him: righteousness and iudgement are the habitations of his throne.

3 A fire goeth before him: and burneth vp his enemies round about.

4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

5 The hills melted like waxe at the presence of the LORD: at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6 The heauens declare his righteousness: and all the people see his glory.

7 Confounded bee all they that set their graven Images, that boast themselves of Idoles: worship him all ye gods.

8 Sion heard, and was glad, and the daughters of Iudah reioyced: because of thy iudgements, O LORD.

9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted farre above all gods.

10 Yet that loue the LORD, hate euill: he preferreth the soules of his Saints: hee deliuereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is for me for the righteous: and gladnesse for the vpright in heart.

12 Reioyce in the LORD, ye righteous: and giue thanks: at the remembrance of his holinesse.

PSAL. XC VIII.

1 The Psalmist exhorteth the Iewes, 4 the Gentiles, 7 and all the creatures to praise God.

A Psalm.

Sing vnto the LORD a new song, for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arme hath gotten him the victory.

2 The LORD hath made knowne his saluation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heauen.

3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth haue seene the saluation of our God.

4 Make a joyfull noisc vnto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noisc, & reioyce and sing praise.

5 Sing vnto the LORD with the harpe: with the harpe, and the voice of a Psalm.

6 With trumpets, and sound of cornet: make a joyfull noisc before the LORD the King.

7 Let the Sea roare, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein.

8 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyfull together.

9 Before the LORD, for he cometh to iudge the earth: with righteousness shall he iudge the world, and the people with equity.

PSAL. XC IX.

1 The Prophet setting forth the Kingdom of God in Zion, 5 exhorteth all by the example of our forefathers, to worship GOD at his holy hill.

The LORD reioyceth, let the people tremble: they feare because the Churches, by the earth shall be moued,

1 The LORD is great in Zion: and he is high above all people.

2 Let them praise thy great and terrible name: for it is holy.

3 The Kings strength also longeth iudgement: thou dost establish equity: thou circumspect iudgement and righteousness in Iacob.

4 Erect ye the LORD our God, and worship at his foote stoe: for he is holy.

5 Moses and Aaron among his Priests, and Samuel among them that call vpon his Name: they called vpon the LORD, and he answered them.

6 He spake vnto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gaue them.

7 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their iniquities.

8 Erect the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill: for the LORD our God is holy.

1 An exhortation to praise God cheerfully, 3 for his greatness, 4 and for his power.

A Psalm of praise.

Make a ioyfull noisc vnto the Lord, fall ye lands.

2 Serue the LORD with gladnesse: come before his presence with singing.

3 Knowe ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made vs, and we are his seruants: we are his people, and the sheepe of his pasture.

4 Enter into his gate with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankfull vnto him, and bless his Name.

5 For the LORD is good, his mercy is euery day: and his truth endureth to all generations.

1 David maketh a vow & profession of godlinesse

A Psalm of David.

I will sing of mercy and iudgement: vnto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

2 I will beane my selfe wisely in a perfect way: O when wilt thou come vnto me? I will walke within my house with a perfect heart.

3 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the worke of them that cause strife: I shall not cleaue to me.

4 A coward heart shall depart from me, I will not know a wicked person.

5 Whoso priuily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look, and a proud heart, will not I suffer.

6 Mine eyes shall be vpon the faithfull of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way he shall serue me.

7 He that worketh deceit, shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies, I shall not carry in my sight.

8 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land: that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

3 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble, encline thine ear vnto me: in the day when I call, answer me speedily.

4 For my dayes are consumed like smoke: my boues are burnt as an hearth.

5 My heart is smitten and withered like grass: so that I forget to eat my bread.

6 By reason of the voice of my groanings my bones cleane to my skin.

7 I am like a Pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owle of the desert.

8 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone vpon the house top.

9 Mine enemies reproach me all the days: and they that are mad against me, are sworn against me.

10 For I haue eaten the bread of sorrow: and mingled my drinke with weeping.

11 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast hated me vp, and cast me downe.

12 My dayes are like a shadow that declineth: and I am withered like grass.

13 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for euer: and thy remembrance vnto all generations.

14 Thou shalt arise, and haue mercy vpon Zion: for the time to fauour her, is the set time, is come.

15 For thy seruants take pleasure in her houses: and fauour the dust thereof.

16 So the heathen shall feare the Name of the LORD: and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

17 When the LORD shall build vp Zion: hee shall appeare in his glory.

18 He will regard the prayer of the destitute: and not despise their prayer.

19 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created, shall praise the LORD.

20 For he hath looked downe from the height of his Sanctuary: from heauen did the LORD behold the earth:

21 To heare the groaning of the prisoner: to loose them that are appointed to death,

22 To declare the Name of the LORD in Zion: and his praise in Ierusalem:

23 When the people are gathered together: and the kingdome to serue the LORD.

24 Hee weakened my strength in the way: hee shortened my dayes.

25 I said, O my God, take mee not away in the midst of my dayes: thy yeeres are throughout all generations.

26 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: & the heauens are the work of thy hands.

27 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure, yea, all of them shall waxe old like a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, & they shall be changed.

28 But thou art the same: and thy yeeres shall haue no end.

29 The children of thy seruants shall continue: and their seed shall be established before thee.

PSALM CIII.

1 An exhortation to blefse God for his mercy, 2 And for his clemency therof.

A Psalm of David.

1 Bless the LORD, O my soule: and all that is within mee blefse his holy Name.

2 Bless the LORD, O my soule: and forget not all his benefites.

3 Who forgineth all thine iniquities: who healeth all thy diseases.

4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with loving kindnesse and tender mercies.

5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things: so that thy youth is renewed like the Eagles.

6 The LORD exorceth righteous: and iudgement for all that are oppressed.

7 He made knowne his wayes vnto Moses: his aduers vnto the children of Israel.

8 The LORD is mercifull and gracious: slow to anger, and pleneous in mercy.

9 Hee will not alwayes chide: neither will hee keepe his anger for euer.

10 He hath not dealt with vs after our iniquities, nor rewarded vs according to our miseries.

11 For as the heauen is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that feare him.

12 As farre as the East is from the West: so far hath hee removed our transgressions from vs.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children: so the LORD pitteth them that feare him.

14 For he knoweth our frame: hee remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, his dayes are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth ouer it, and it is gone: and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from euerlasting to euerlasting vpon them that feare him: and his righteousnesse vnto childrens children:

18 To such as keepe his command: and to those that remember his commandments to doe them.

19 The LORD hath prepared vs his way to the heauens: and his kingdom is euer all.

20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels: that excell in strength: that doe his commandments: hearken- ing vnto the voice of his word.

21 Bless the LORD in his hosts: ye ministers of his that doe his pleasure.

22 Bless the LORD, all his workes in all places of his dominion: blefse & praise, O my soule.

PSALM CIII.

1 A meditation vpon the mighty power & end- less wonderfull prouidence of God. 2 Gods glory is eternall. 3 The Peoples vowes pertained to praise God.

Bless the LORD, O my soule: O LORD my God thou art very great: thou art clothed with honour and maiesty.

2 Who coverest thy selfe with light, as with a garment: who stretchest out thy heauens like a curtain.

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters, who maketh the clouds his chariot, who walketh vpon the wings of the wind.

4 Who maketh his Angels spirits: his ministers a flaming fire.

5 Who laid the foundations of the earth: that it should not be removed for euer.

6 Thou coverest it with the deepe as with a garment: the waters flood about the mounteines.

7 At thy rebuke they fled: at the voice of thy thunder they hast away.

8 They goe vp by the mounteines: they goe downe by the valleys, vnto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not passe: that they turne not againe to couer the earth.

10 Thou sendest the springs into the valleys: which run among the hills.

11 They giue drinke to every beast of the field: the wilde asses quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowles of the heauen haue their habitation: which sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is enriched with the fruit of thy workes.

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattell, and herbe for the service of man: * that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oyle to make his face to shine: and bread which strengtheneth mans heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sappe: the Cedars of Lebanou which he hath planted:

17 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the firre trees are her house.

18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats: and the rocks for the coais.

19 He appointed the Moone for seasons: the Sun knoweth his going downe.

20 Thou maketh darkenes, and it is night: wherein \dagger all the beastes of the Forrest doe creepe forth.

21 The young lions roare after their prey: and seeke their meat from God.

22 The Sunn priests, they gather themselves together: and lay them downe in their dross.

23 Man goeth forth vnto his worke, and to his labour vntill the evening.

24 O LORD, how manifold are thy workes! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

25 So is this great and wide Sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable: both small and great beastes.

26 Their goe the ships: there is that Louisiana, where thou hast \dagger made to play therein.

27 * Thus wait all vpon thee: that thou mayest giue them their meat in due season.

28 That thou giueth them, they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled, thou takest away their breath, they die: and retaine to their dust.

30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

31 The glory of the LORD \dagger shall continue for ever: the LORD shall reioyce in his workes.

32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smooke.

33 I will sing vnto the LORD as long as I liue: I will sing praise to my God, while I haue my being.

34 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more: blessed thou the LORD, O my soule. Praise ye the LORD.

P S A L M CV.

1 An exhortation to praise God, as he stele out his workes. 2 The glory of Gods providence over Abraham, 16 over Israhel, 23 over Iacob in Egypt, 25 over Moses, deliuering the Israelites, 37 over the Israelites brought out of Egypt, led in the wilderness, and planted in Canaan.

1 Give * thanks vnto the LORD, call vpon his Name: make known his deeds among the people.

2 Sing vnto him, sing Psalms vnto him: talke ye of all his wondrous workes.

3 Glory ye in his holy Name, let the heart of them reioyce, that take the LORD.

4 Seeke the LORD, and his strength: seeke his face enuermore.

5 Remember his marvellous workes that he hath done: his wonders, and the iudgements of his mouth.

6 O ye seed of Abraham his seruant: ye children of Iacob his chosen.

7 He is the LORD our God, his iudgements are in all the earth.

8 He hath remembered his Covenant for ever: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

9 * Which Covenant he made with Abraham: and his oath vnto Isaac.

10 And confirmed the same vnto Iacob for a law: and to Israhel for an everlasting Covenant:

11 * Saying, vnto thee will I giue the land of Canaan: \dagger the lot of your inheritance.

12 When they were but a few men in number: yea, very few, and strangers in it.

13 When they went from one nation to another from one kingdom to another people.

14 He suffered no man to doe them wrong: yea, he reuenged Kings for their sakes:

15 Saying, Touch not mine Anointed; and doe my Prophets no harme.

16 Moreover, he called for a famine vpon the land: he brake the whole staffe of bread.

17 He sent a man before them: * euen Joseph, who was sold for a seruant.

18 * Whose feet they hurt with fetters: \dagger he was laid in iron.

19 Vntill the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him.

20 * The King sent and loosed him: euen the ruler of the people, and let him goe free.

21 * He made him lord of his house: and ruler of all his \dagger substance:

22 To bind his Princes at his pleasure: and teach his Senators wisdom.

23 * Israhel also came into Egypt: and Iacob sojourned in the land of Ham.

24 And he increased his people greatly: and made them stronger then their enemies.

25 * He turned their heart to hate his people: to deceiue subtilly with his seruants.

26 * He set Moses his seruant: and Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 * They shewed his \dagger signes among them: and wonders in the land of Ham.

28 * He sent darkenes, and made it darke: and they rebelled nor against his word.

29 * He turned their waters into blood: and slew their fish.

30 * The land brought forth frogs in abundance: in the chambers of their Kings.

31 * He spake, and there came diuers sorts of flies: and lice in all their coashes.

32 * He gaue them haile for raine: and flaming fire in their land.

33 He smote their vines also, and their figtrees: and brake the trees of their coashes.

34 * He spake, and the locusts came: and caterpillars, and that without number.

35 And it did eate vp all the herbes in their lands: and deuoured the fruit of their ground.

36 * He smote also all the first borne in their land: the chief of all their strength.

37 * He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and they were not one feeble person among their tribes.

38 * Egypt was glad when they departed: for the feare of them fell vpon them.

39 * He spread a cloud for a covering: and fire to giue light in the night.

40 * The people asked, and he brought quails: and satisfied them with the bread of heavn.

41 * He opened the rocks, and the waters gushed out: they ran in the dry places like a river.

42 For he remembered his holy promise: and Abraham his seruant.

PSAL. CVI.

The Psalmist exhorteth to praise God. 4 His strength for yarden of sea, as God did, with the jehers. 7 The story of the peoples rebellion, and Gods mercy. 47 He coveineth with peoper and praise.

PRaise ye the LORD. O * give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

1 * Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

2 Blessed are they that keepe judgement; and he that doeth righteousnesse at all times.

3 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

4 That I may see the good of thy chosen: that I may rejoyce in the gladnesse of thy nation: that I may glory with thy inheritance.

5 * We have sinned with our fathers: we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

6 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt, they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies: but provoked thee at the Sea, when at the red Sea.

7 Nevertheless, he saved them for his Names sake: he might make his mighty power to be knowne.

8 He rebuked the red sea also, and it was dryed up: so he led them through the depths as through the wilderness.

9 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them: and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

10 * And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

11 * Then believed they his words: they sang his praise.

12 * They sone forgate his wonders: they waited not for his counsell:

13 * But they fasted exceedingly in the wilderness: and tempted God in the desert.

14 * And he gave them their request: but sent leanness into their soules.

15 * They envied Moses also in the campe: and Aaron the Saint of the LORD.

16 * The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan: and covered the company of Abiram.

17 * And a fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt up the wicked.

18 * They made a calf in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image.

19 * Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grasse.

20 They forgot God their Saviour: which had done great things in Egypt.

21 * Wondrous wonders in the land of Ham: and terrible things by the red Sea.

22 * Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach: to come away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

23 * Yet they despised the pleasant land: they believed not his word:

24 * But murmured in their hearts, and besetted out unto the voyce of the LORD.

25 * Therefore he lifted up his hand against them: to overthrow them in the wilderness.

26 * To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

27 * Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

28 * Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgement: and so the plague was stayed.

29 And that was counted unto him for righteousnesse: unto all generations for evermore.

30 * They sinned also at the waters of strife: so that it went ill with Moises for their sakes:

31 Because they provoked his Spirit: so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

32 * They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them.

33 * But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

34 * And they turned their idols: which were a snare unto them.

35 * Yes, they sacrificed their soanes, and their daughters unto devils.

36 And shed innocent blood, saw the blood of their soanes, and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

37 * Thus were they defiled with their own works: and went a whoring with their owne inventions.

38 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people: inso much that he abhorred his owne inheritance.

39 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen: and they that hated them: ruled over them.

40 Their enemies also oppressed them: and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

41 * Many times did he deliver them: but they provoked him with their counsell, and were brought low for their iniquity.

42 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction: when he heard their cry.

43 * And he remembered for them his Covenant: and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

44 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

45 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy Name, and to triumph in thy praise.

46 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL. CVII.

The Psalmist exhorteth to praise God, as he redeemed in praising God, to observe his manifold providence, 4 our travellers, 10 our captives, 17 our sick men, 22 our sea men, 33 and in divers varieties of life.

O* Give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

1 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so: whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy:

2 And gathered them out of the lands, from the East, and from the West: from the North, and from the South:

3 They wandered in the wilderness, in a solitary way: they found no city to dwell in.

4 Hungry and thirsty: their soule fainted in them.

5 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble: and he delivered them out of their distresses.

6 And he led them forth by the right way: that they might goe to a city of habitation.

7 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse:

goodness: and for his wonderfull workes to the children of men.

9 For he satisfieth the longing soule: and filleth the hungry soule with goodnesse.

10 Such as sit in darknesse, and in the shadow of death: being bound in affliction and yron.

11 Because they rebelled against the words of God: and contemned the counsell of y^e most High:

12 Therefore he brought downe their heart with labour: they fell downe, & there was none to helpe:

13 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble: and he rescued them out of their distresses.

14 He brought them out of darknesse, and the shadow of death: and brake their bands in sunder.

15 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse: and for his wonderfull workes to the children of men.

16 For he hath broken the gates of brass: and cut the barres of yron in sunder.

17 For he because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities are afflicted.

18 Their soule abhorreth all manner of meat: and they drew nere unto the gates of death.

19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble: he saucth them out of their distresses.

20 He sent his Word, and healed them: and delivered them from their destructions.

21 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse: and for his wonderfull workes to the children of men.

22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving: and declare his workes with y^e rejoycing.

23 They that goe downe to the sea: in ships: that doe businesse in great waters:

24 These see the workes of the LORD: and his wonders in the deepe.

25 For he commaundeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

26 They mount vp to the heauen: they goe downe againe to the depthes: their soule is melted, because of trouble.

27 They reele to, and fro, and stagger like a drunken man: and y^e are at their wits end.

28 Then they cry unto y^e LORD in their trouble: and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

29 He maketh the storme a calme: so that the waves thereof are still.

30 Then are they glad because they be quiet: so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

31 O that men would praise the LORD for his goodnesse: and for his wonderfull workes to the children of men.

32 Let them exte him also in the Congregation of the people: and praise him in the assembly of the Elders.

33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the water springs into dry ground.

34 A fruitful land into y^e barrensse: for the wickednesse of them that dwell therein.

35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water: and dry ground into water-springs.

36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell: that they may prepare a city for habitation.

37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards: which may yeeld fruits of increase.

38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly: and suffereth not their cattel to decrease.

39 Againe, they are diminished and brought low, through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

40 His powereth conceipt upon Princes: and catcheth them no wonder in the wilderness, where there is no way.

41 Yet fetcheth he the poore on high from affliction: and maketh him families like a flocke.

42 The righteous shall see it and reioyce: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

43 Who so is wise, and will obserue those things: euen they shall vnderstand the louing kindeesse of the LORD.

1 David encourageth himselfe to praise God, 5 He prayeth for Gods assistance, according to his promise. 11 His confidence in Gods helpe.

A Song or Psalm of David.

God my heart is fixed: I will sing and giue praise, euen with my glory.

2 Awake Psalterie and Harpe: I my selfe will awake early.

3 I will prayse thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the Nations.

4 For thy mercie is great above the heauens: and thy truth reacheth vnto the clouds.

5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heauens, and thy glory aboue all the earth.

6 That thy beloued may be deliuered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

7 God hath spoken in his holinesse, I will reioyce, I will diuide Shechem: and mete out the valley of Succoth.

8 Gilead is mine, Manasse is mine, Ephraim also is the strength of mine hand: Judah is my Lawgiuer.

9 Moab is my washpott, our Edom will I cast out my throe: ouer Philistia will I triumph.

10 Who will bring mee into the strong city? who will leade me into Edom?

11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast vs off: wilt not thou, O God, goe forth with our hosts?

12 Giue vs helpe from trouble: for vaine is the helpe of man.

13 Through God we shall doe valiantly: for he is it that shall tread downe our enemies.

PSAL. CIX.

1 David complaining of his penitens enemies vnder the person of Iudas denoting shon, 16 He sheweth their sinne. 21 Complaining of his owne misery, he prayeth for helpe, 29 He promiseth thankfulness.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

Hold not thy peace, O God, of my praise.

2 For the mouth of the wicked, & the mouth of the deceitfull y^e are opened against me: they haue spoken against me with a lying tongue.

3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred: and fought against me without a cause.

4 For my loue they are my adversaries: but I giue my selfe vnto prayer.

5 And they haue rewarded me euill for good: and hatred for my loue.

6 Set thou a wicked man ouer him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

7 When he shall be iudged, let him be confounded: and let his prayer become sione.

8 Let his cryes bee few: and let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherlesse: and his wife a widow.

10 Let his children be continually voyabonds, and beg: let them seeke their bread also out of their defolour places.

11 Let the extortioner catch all that hee hath: and let the stranger spoyle his labour.

12 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither

13 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither

14 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither

15 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither

16 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither

17 Let there be none to extend mercy vnto him: neither neither let there bee say to fauour his fatherlesse children.

13 Let his posterity be cut off, and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

14 Let the iniquities of his fathers be remembered with the LORD: and let not the sinne of his mother be blotted out.

15 Let them bee before the LORD continually: that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poore and needy man: that he might euen slay the broken in heart.

17 As he loned cursing, so let it come vnto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it bee farre from him.

18 As he clothed him selfe with cursing, like as with his garment: so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oyle into his bones.

19 Let it be vnto him as the garment which covereth him: and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this bee the reward of mine aduersaries from the LORD: and of them that speake euill against my soule.

21 Because thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy Names sake: because thy mercy is good: deliuer thou me.

22 For I am poore and needy: and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: X am toiled vp and downe as the locust.

24 My knees are weake through talking: and my flesh fasteth of fauour.

25 I became also a reproch vnto them: when they looked vpon me, they shaked their heads.

26 Helpe me, O LORD my God: O saue me according to thy mercy.

27 That they may know that this is thy hand: that thou LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise let them be ashamed, but let thy feruour reioyce.

29 Let mine aduersaries be clothed with shame: and let them couer their eies with teares: owne confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praye the LORD with my mouth: yea I will praye him among the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at y^e right hand of the poore: to saue him from thole that coniceme his soule.

10 It is better to trust in the LORD: then to put confidence in Princes.

11 All nations compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD will I destroy them.

12 They compassed me about: yet they compassed me about: but in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them.

13 They compassed me about like Bees: they are quenched as the fire of thornes: for in the Name of the LORD I will destroy them.

14 Thou hast thrust sore at me, that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

15 The LORD is my strength and song: and is become my saluation.

16 The voyce of reioycing and saluation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

17 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

18 I shall not die, but live: and declare the works of the LORD.

19 The LORD hath chastened me sore: but hee hath not giuen me ouer vnto death.

20 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will goe into them, and I will praise the LORD.

21 This gate of the LORD: into which the righteous shall enter.

22 I will praise thee, for thou hast heard mee: and art become my saluation.

23 The stone which the builders refused, is become the head stone of the corner.

24 This is the LORDS doing: it is marvellous in our eyes.

25 This is the day which the LORD hath made: we will reioyce and be glad in it.

G I M E L.

32 I will run the way of thy Commandements: when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

K E.

33 Teach me, O LORD the way of thy Statutes: and I shall keepe it vnto the end.

44 So shall I keepe thy Law continually: for ever and ever.
 45 And I will walke in liberty: for I seeke thy precepts.
 46 I will speake of thy testimonies also before Kings, and will not be ashamed.
 47 And I will delight my selfe in thy commandments, which I have loved.
 48 My hands also will I lift vp unto thy commandments, which I have loved: and I will meditate in thy Statutes.

Z A I N.

49 Remember the word unto thy servants upon which thou hast caused me to hope.
 50 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.
 51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy Law.
 52 I remembered thy iudgements of old, O LORD: and have comforted my selfe.
 53 Horror hath taken hold upon me: because of the wicked that forsake thy Law.
 54 Thy statutes have bene my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.
 55 I have remembered thy Name, O LORD, in the night: and have kept thy Law.
 56 Thus I had: because I keepe thy precepts.

C H R I H.

57 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said, that I would keepe thy word.
 58 I increased thy faithfullnes with my whole heart: be mercifull vnto me according to thy word.
 59 I thought on my wayes: and turned my feet vnto thy Testimonies.
 60 I made hast, and delayed not to keepe thy Commandements.
 61 Thy hands of the wicked haue robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy Law.
 62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks vnto thee: because of thy righteous iudgements.
 63 I am a compassion of all them that feare thee: and of them that keepe thy precepts.
 64 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

T E T H.

65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according vnto thy word.
 66 Teach me good iudgement and knowledge: for I have beleened thy Commandement.
 67 Before I was afflicted, I wear asray: but now haue I kept thy word.
 68 Thou art good, and doest good: teach mee thy Statutes.
 69 The proud haue forged a lie against me: but I will keepe thy precepts with my whole heart.
 70 Their heart is as fat as greale: but I delight in thy Law.
 71 It is good for me that I haue bene afflicted: that I might learne thy Statutes.
 72 The Law of thy mouth is better vnto me: then thousands of gold and silver.

I O D.

73 Thy hands haue made me and fashioned me: giue me vnderstanding, that I may learne thy Commandements.
 74 They that feare thee will be glad when they see me: because I haue hoped in thy word.
 75 I know O LORD, that thy iudgements are right: and that thou in faithfullnesse hast afflicted mee.
 76 Let I pray thee, thy mercifull kinde be for my comfort according to thy word vnto thy servant

77 Let thy tender mercies come vnto me, that I may liue: for thy Law is my delight.
 78 Let the proud be ashamed, for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.
 79 Let those that feare thee turne vnto me: and those that haue knowne thy testimonies.
 80 Let thy heart be found in thy Statutes: that I be not ashamed.

C A P H.

81 My soule fainteth for thy saluation: but I hope in thy word.
 82 Mine eyes faile for thy word: saying, When wilt thou comfort me?
 83 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke: yet doe I not forget thy Statutes.
 84 How many are the dayes of thy seruants? when wilt thou execute iudgement on them that persecute me?
 85 The proud haue digged pits for me: which are not after thy Law.
 86 All thy commandements are true: which thou hast confirmed vpon earth: but I forsooke not thy precepts.
 87 Quicken me after thy loving kinde: so shall I keepe the testimony of thy mouth.

L A M E D.

88 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heauen.
 89 Thy faithfullnesse is true vnto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it standeth.
 90 They counte not this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy seruants.
 91 Vnto thee thy Law has bene my delight: I should then haue perished in mine affliction.
 92 I will neuer forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.
 93 I am thine, saue mee: for I haue sought thy precepts.
 94 The wicked haue waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.
 95 I haue serued an end of all perfidious: but thy Commandement is exceeding broad.

M E M.

96 O how loue I thy Law: it is my medication all the day.
 97 Thou through thy commandements hast made me wiser than thine enemies: for they are euer with me.
 98 I haue more vnderstanding then all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.
 99 I vnderstand more then the ancients: because I keepe thy precepts.
 100 I haue retained my feet from every euill way: that I may keepe thy word.
 101 I haue not departed from thy iudgements: for thou hast taught me.
 102 How sweet are thy words vnto my taste? yea sweeter then honey to my mouth.
 103 Through thy precepts I get vnderstanding: therefore I hate every false way.

N V N.

104 Thy word is a lampe vnto my feet: and a light vnto my path.
 105 I haue sworn, and I will performe it: that I will keepe thy righteous iudgements.
 106 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according vnto thy word.
 107 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings, of my mouth, O LORD: and teach me thy iudgements.

What shall be giuen vnto thee? or what shall be done vnto thee, thou false tongue?

Will I lift vp mine eyes vnto the hills: from whence cometh my helpe.

My helpe cometh from the LORD: which made heauen and earth.

Behold, hee that keepeth Israel, shall neither slumber nor sleepe.

The Sonne shall not smite thee by day: nor the Moue by night.

The LORD shall preserue thee from all euils he shall perseue thy soule.

The LORD shall perseue thy going out, and thy coming in: from this time forth, and euer for euermore.

David prophesie his joy for the Church, and prays for the peace thereof.

A Song of degrees of David.

Was glad when they said vnto me: Let vs goe into the house of the LORD.

Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Ierusalem.

Ierusalem is builded as a city, that is compact together.

Whether the tribes goe vp, the tribes of the LORD, vnto the testimony of Israel: to giue thanks vnto the Name of the LORD.

For there are set thrones of iudgement: the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Ierusalem: they shall prosper that loue thee.

Peace be within thy walles: and prosperitie within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions like: I will now say, Peace be within thee.

Because of the house of the LORD our God: I will seeke thy good.

What shall be giuen vnto thee? or what shall be done vnto thee, thou false tongue?

PSAL. CXXIII. The godly professe their confidence in God, and pray so be deliuered from contempt.

A Song of degrees.

Vnto thee lift I vp mine eyes: O thou that dwellest in the heauens.

Behold, as the eyes of seruants looke vnto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a matrone vnto the hand of her mistresse: so our eyes are vpon the LORD our God, vntill that he haue mercy vpon vs.

Haue mercy vpon vs, O LORD, haue mercy vpon vs: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

Our soule is exceedingly filled with the scorn of those that are at ease: and with the contempt of the proud.

The Church blesseth God for a miraculous deliuerance.

A Song of degrees of David.

If it had not bene the LORD, who was on our side: now may Israel say:

If it had not bene the LORD, who was on our side, when men rose vp against vs:

Then they had swallowed vs vp quick: when their wrath was kindled against vs.

Then the waters had ouerwhelmed vs: the fire had gone ouer our soule.

Then the proud waters had gone out our soule.

Blessed be the LORD: who hath not giuen vs as a prey to their teeth.

Our soule is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

Our helpe is in the Name of the LORD: who made heauen and earth.

The safety of such as trust in God, and pray for the godly, and against the wicked.

A Song of degrees.

They that trust in the LORD, shall be as Mount Zion, which cannot be remoued, but abideth for euer.

As the mountaine are round about Ierusalem, so the LORD is round about his people: from henceforth euer for euer.

For the rod of the wicked shall not rest vpon the lot of the righteous: least the righteous put forth their hands vnto iniquity.

Due good, O LORD, vnto those that be good: and to them that are vpright in their hearts.

As for such as turne aside vnto their crooked wayes, the LORD shall leade them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be vnto Israel.

† Pal. 12 94.6. I Will praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.
 2 I will worship towards thy holy Temple, and praise thy Name, for thy loving kindness, and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy Name.

3 In the day when I cryed, thou answerdest me: and strengthenedst me with strength in my smeth.

4 All the Kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD: when they heare the words of thy mouth.

5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

7 Though I walke in the midst of trouble, thou wilt reasse me, thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies: and thy right hand shall saue me.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of Dauid.

O LORD, thou hast searched me, and knowest me.

2 Thou knowest my down sitting, and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou hast compassed my path, and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my wayes.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue: but loe, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

5 Thou hast beset me behind and before: and laid thine hand vpon me.

6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me: it is high, I cannot asseue vpon it.

7 Whether shall I goe from thy Spirit? or whether shall I flee from thy presence?

8 * If I ascend vp into heauen, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the vtmost parts of the Sea:

10 Euen there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

16 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being without spot, and in thy booke † all my members were written: which in continuance were fashioned,

17 * How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God: how great is the summe of care?

18 If I should count them, they are more in number then the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore ye bloody men.

20 For they speake against thee wickedly: and thine enemies take thy Name in vain.

21 Doe not: I hate them, O LORD: that hate thee: and am not grieued with those that rise vp against thee?

22 I have them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

21 My mouth shall speake the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy Name for ever and ever.

PSAL CXLVI.

1 The Psalmist commendeth perpetuall praises to God. He exhorteth not to trust in man. God for his power, iustice, mercy, and kingdom, is only worthy to be praised.

Praise ye the LORD: praise the LORD, O my soule.

2 While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises vnto my God, while I haue any being.

3 Put not your trust in Princes: nor in the son of man, in whom there is no helpe.

4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth: in that very day his thoughts perish.

5 Happy is he that hath the God of iacob for his helpe: whose hope is in the LORD his God:

6 Which made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that wherein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

7 Which executeth iudgment for the oppressed, which giveth food to the hungry: the LORD looth the prisoners.

8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind, the LORD raiseth them that are bowed downe: the LORD looth the righteous.

9 The LORD preferreth the strangers, he relieueth the fatherlesse and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside downe.

10 The LORD shall reigne for ever, euen thy God, O Zion, vnto all generations: praise ye the LORD.

PSAL CXLVII.

1 The Prophet exhorteth to praise God for his care of the Church, his power, and his mercy. To praise him for his providence: 12 To praise him for his blessings vpon the kingdom: 15 for his power over the heathens, and for his ordinances in the Church.

Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises vnto our God: for it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

2 The LORD doeth build vp Ierusalem: he gathereth together the out-casts of Israel.

3 He healeth the broken in heart: and bindeth vp their wounds.

4 He telleth the number of the stars, he calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his vnderstanding is infinite.

6 The LORD lifteth vp the meeke: he casteth the wicked downe to the ground.

7 Sing vnto the LORD with thanksgiving: sing praise vpon the harpe vnto our God:

8 Who covereth the heauen with clouds, who prepareth raine for the earth: who maketh grasse to grow vpon the mountaines.

9 Hee giveth to the beast his food: and to the young ransons which cry.

10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that feare him: in those that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Ierusalem: praise thy God, O Zion.

13 For he hath strengthened the barres of thy gates: he hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He maketh peace in thy borders: and filleth thee with the fruit of the wheat.

15 He sendeth forth his commandement vpon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

16 Hee giveth snow like wolle: he scattereth the heare frost like ashes.

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 Hee sheweth his word vnto iacob: his statutes, and his iudgements vnto Israel.

20 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his iudgements they haue not knowne them. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL CXLVIII.

1 The Psalmist exhorteth the creatures, the terrestriall, and the ratiouall creatures to praise God.

Praise ye the LORD, praise ye the LORD from the heauen: praise him in the heightes.

2 Praise ye him all his angels: praise ye him all his hostes.

3 Praise ye him Sun and Moone: praise him all ye stars of heauen.

4 Praise him ye heuens of heuens: and ye waters that be above the heauens.

5 Let them praise the Name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.

6 Hee hath also established them for ever and euer: he hath made a decree which shall not passe.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth: ye dragons and all creepes.

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapour: stormy wind fulfilling his word.

9 Mountaine and all hills: fruitfull trees, and all Cedars.

10 Beasts and all cattell: creeping things, and flying fowle.

11 Kings of the earth, and all people: Princes and all Iudges of the earth.

12 Both young men and maidens: old men and children.

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his Name alone is excellent: his glory is about the earth and heauen.

14 Hee also exalteth the borne of his people, the praise of all his Saints: euen of the children of Israel a people neere vnto him. Praise ye the LORD.

PSAL CXLIX.

1 The Prophet exhorteth to praise God for his love to the Church, and for that power which he hath given to the Church to rule the confessions of man.

Praise ye the LORD.

THE PROVERBS.

CHAP. I.

The use of the Proverbs. 7. An exhortation to feare God, and helpe his word: 10. To auoide the cattions of sinners. 20. Wisdomes complaint of her cattions. 24. 5 he is vnto mannes her to be taught.

THE PROVERBS of Solomon, the sonne of David, King of Israel,
 1 To know wisdom and instruction: & to perceiue the words of vnderstanding.

2 To receiue the instruction of wisdom, iudice, and iudgement, and of equity,
 3 To giue subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.
 4 A wit man will heare, and will increase learning: and a man of vnderstanding shall attaine vnto wise counsel.

5 To vnderstand a parable, and the interpretation of the words of the wise, & their dark sayings.
 6 The feare of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fooles despise wisdom and instruction.

7 My soune, heare the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the Law of thy mother.
 8 For they shall be for an ornament of grace vnto thy head, and chaines about thy necke.
 9 My soune, if sinners entice thee, consent not: if they say, Come with vs, let vs lay waite for blood, let vs lurke privily for the innocent without cause:
 10 Let vs swallow them vp alive as the grave, and whole, as those that goe downe into the pit:
 11 We shall finde all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoile:
 12 Call in thy lot among vs, let vs all haue one purse:
 13 My soune, walke not thou in the way with them: refrain thy foot from their path:
 14 For their feet runne to euill, and make haste to shed blood.
 15 Surely in uaine is the net is spread in the sight of any bird.
 16 And they lay waite for their owne blood, they lurke privily for their owne liues.
 17 So are the wayes of euery one that is greedy of gain: which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.
 18 The wisdomes cryeth without, she * vnto the streetes:

21 She cryeth in the chiefe place of concourse, in the opening of the gates in the city, saying,

22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye loue simplicity? and the scorner delight in their scorning, and fooles hate knowledge?

23 Tume you at my reproofe: behold, I will poure out my spirit vnto you, I will make known my words vnto you.

24 * Because I haue called, and yee refused, I haue stretched out my hand, and no man regarded: but yee haue set at nought all my counsell, and would none of my reproofe:

25 I also will laugh at your calamity, I will mocke when your feare cometh.

26 * When your feare cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwinde, when distress and anguish cometh vpon you:

27 * Then shall they call vpon mee, but I will not answer: they shall seeke me early, but they shall not find me:

28 For that they hated knowledge, and did not chuse the feare of the LORD.
 29 They would none of my counsell: they despised all my reproofe.

30 Therefore shall they eate of the fruit of their owne way, and be filled with their owne devices.

31 For the turning away of the simple shall destroy them: and the prosperity of fooles shall destroy them.
 32 But whoo hearkeneth vnto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from feare of euill.

CHAP. II.

Wisdomes proueth godlinesse to her children, 10 and safety from euill company, 20 and direction in good wayes.

My soune, if thou wilt receive my words, and abide my Commandments with thee;
 2 So that thou incline thine eare vnto wisdom, and apply thy heart to vnderstanding:

3 Yea, if thou cryest after knowledge, and liftest vp thy voyce for vnderstanding:
 4 * If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures:

5 Then shalt thou vnderstand the feare of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 * For the LORD giueth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and vnderstanding.
 7 He layeth vp found wisdomes for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walke vprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of iudgement, and preferreth the way of his Saints.

9 Then shalt thou vnderstand righteousnesse, and iudgement, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdome entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is plentiful vnto thy soule;

11 Discretion shall preserue thee, vnderstanding shall keepe thee:

12 To deliuer thee from the way of the euill man, from the man that speaketh froward things.

13 Who leaue the pathes of vprightnesse, to walke in the waies of darkenesse:

14 Who reioyce to doe euill, and delight in the frowardnesse of the wicked.

15 Whose waies are crooked, and they froward in their pathes.

16 To deliuer thee from the strange woman, * from the stranger which hazureth with her words:

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her house is, liuech vnto death, and her pathes vnto the dead:

19 None that goe vnto her, returne againe; neither take they hold of the pines of life.

20 That thou maieest walke in the way of good men, and keepe the pathes of the righteous.

21 ¶ For the vpright shall dwell in the land; and the perfect shall remaine in it.

22 ¶ But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressours shall be rooted out of it.

CHAP. III.

1 An exhortation to obedience, 5 to faith, 7 to mortification, 9 to deuotion, 11 to patience; The happy game of wisdom. 17 The power, 21 and the blessing of wisdom. 27 An exhortation to charitablenesse, 30 peaceablenesse, 31 and contentednesse. 32 The cursed state of the wicked.

My soune, forget not my law: * but let thine heart keepe my commandments:

2 For length of dayes, and long life, and peace, shall they adde to thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: * binde them about thy necke, write them vpon the table of thine heart.

4 * So shalt thou see favour, and good vnderstanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and leaue not to thine owne vnderstanding.

6 ¶ In all thy waies acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy pathes.

7 ¶ Be not wise in thine owne eyes: feare the LORD, and depart from euill.

8 It shall be health to thy maill, and † narrow to thy bones.

9 * Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the first frutes of all thine increase.

10 ¶ So shall thy barnes be filled with plensy, and thy presses shall brack out with new wine.

11 ¶ My soune, despise not the chastening of the LORD: neither be wary of his correction.

12 For whom the LORD loueth, he correcteth, euen as a father the sonne in whom he delighteth.

13 ¶ Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and † the man that getteth vnderstanding.

14 ¶ For the merchandise of it is better then the merchaundise of silver, and the gaue thereof then fine gold.

15 Shee is more precious then rubies; and all the things thou canst desire, are not to be compared vnto her.

16 Length of dayes is in her right hand, and in her left hand riches and honour.

17 Her waies are waies of pleasantnesse: and all her paths are peace.

18 Shee is a tree of life to them that lay hold vpon her, and happy is euery one that retaineth her.

19 The LORD by wisdome hath formed the earth; by vnderstanding hath hee † established the heavens.

20 By his knowledge the depths are broken vp: and the clouds drow, do wne the dew.

21 ¶ My soune, let not thine eyes depart from thine eyes: keepe sound wisdom, and discretion.

22 So shall they be life vnto thy soule, and grace to thy necke.

23 ¶ Then shalt thou walke in thy way wisely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

24 When thou liest downe, thou shalt not bee afraid; yea, thou shalt lie downe, and thy sleepe shall bee sweet.

25 Be not afraid of sudden feare, neither of the deuelation of the wicked when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thee too, from being taken.

27 ¶ Withhold not good from them † to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to doe it.

28 Say not vnto thy neighbour; Get, and come againe, and to morrow I will giue, when thou hast it by thee.

29 ¶ Desist not tuill against thy neighbour, seeing he doeth securely by thee.

30 ¶ Strive not with a man without cause, if he haue done thee no harme.

31 ¶ Empe not † the oppressour, and chuse none of his waies, 32 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: * but his secret is with the righteous.

33 ¶ The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesteth the habitation of the iust.

34 * Surely he feoureth the scorner: but hee graue graue vnto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherite glory, but shame shall be the promotion of foolkes.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Solomon is persuaded obedience, 3 sheweth what wisdom he had of his parents, 5 to lady wisdom, 14 and to show the paine of the wicked.

20 He exhorteth to faith, 23 and sanctification.

¶ Heaure children, the instruction of a father: Heaure attend to know vnderstanding.

1 For I gave you good doctrine, forsake you not my law.

2 For I was my fathers soune, * tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

3 ¶ He taught me also, and said vnto mee; Let thine heart reuenge my words: keepe my commandments and law.

4 Get wisdom, get vnderstanding; forget it not, neither decline from the words of my mouth.

5 Forsake her not, and thee shall preferre thee: * loue her, and shee shall keepe thee.

6 Wisdom is the principall thing; it therefore getteth wisdom: and withall thy getting, getteth vnderstanding.

10 Hearc, O my soune, and receive my sayings, and the peeres of thy life shall be many.

11 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom: I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened, & when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

13 Take fast hold of instruction, let her not go: keepe her, for she is thy life.

14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and goe not in the way of evil men.

15 Avoid it, passe not by it, turne from it, and passe away.

16 For they sleepe not except they have done mischief: & their sleepe is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eate the bread of wickednesse, and drinke the wine of violence.

18 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

19 The way of the wicked is as darknesse: they know not at what they stumble.

20 My son, attend to my words, and incline thine ear unto my sayings.

21 Let them not depart from thine eyes: keepe them in the midst of thine heart.

22 For they are life unto those that finde them, and health to all their flesh.

23 Keepe thy heart with all diligence: for out of it are the issues of life.

24 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perners lips spue fire from thee.

25 Let thine eyes looke right on, and let thine eye-lids looke straight before thee.

26 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy wayes be established.

27 Turne not to the right hand, nor to the left: remove thy foot from euill.

C H A P. V.

1 Solomon exhorteth to the studie of wisdom.

2 He sheweth the mischiefe of whoredome and vice.

3 He exhorteth to continence, liberality, and chastity.

4 The wicked are overtaken with their own sinnes.

5 My soune, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my vnderstanding.

6 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keepe knowledge.

7 For the lips of a strange woman drop as an hony combe, and her mouth is smoother then oyle.

8 But her end is bitter as wormewood, sharpe as a two edged sword.

9 Her feet goe downe to death: her steps take hold on hell.

10 Let thou shouldest ponder the path of life: her wayes are mooneable, that thou canst not know them.

11 Hearc me now therefore, O ye children: and departe not from the words of my mouth.

12 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the doore of her house:

13 Let thou give thine honour unto others, and thy peeres unto the cruel:

14 Let strangers be filled with thy wealth, and thy labours be in the house of a stranger.

15 And thou mourne at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed.

16 And say, How least I had instruction: and my heart delighted in reproofe?

17 And howe hast thou obeyed? & of my teaching, thou hast not enclined thine ear: that instructed me.

18 I was almost in all euill in the midst of the Congregation and assembly.

19 Drink waters out of thine owne cistern; and running waters out of thine owne well.

20 Let thy fountaines be digged abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

21 Let them be only thine owne, and not straitened with dike.

22 Let thy fountaine be: blessed & and reioyce with the wife of thy youth.

23 Let her be as the living Hinde, and pleasant Roe: let her breasts furnish thee at all times, and be thou refreshed alwayes with her lous.

24 And why wilt thou, my son, be refreshed with a strange woman, and embrace the bosome of a stranger?

25 For the wayes of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

26 His owne iniquities shall take the wicked himselfe, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sinnes.

27 He shall die without instruction, and in the greatnesse of his folly he shall goe astray.

C H A P. VI.

1 Against fornication. 2 Adultery, 3 and mischance. 4 Seuen things hateful to God. 5 The blessings of obedience. 6 The mischiefs of whoredome.

7 My soune, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

8 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

9 Doe this now, my soune, and deliuer thy selfe, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend: procure humble thy selfe, and make sure thy friend.

10 Give not sleepe to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eye-lids.

11 Deliuer thy selfe as a Roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

12 Goe to the Ant, thou sluggard, consider her wayes, and be wise.

13 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

14 Provideth her meate in the Summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

15 How long wilt thou sleepe, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleepe?

16 Yet a little sleepe, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleepe.

17 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

18 A haughty person, a wicked man walketh with a froward mouth.

19 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his lips, he teacheth with his fingers.

20 Frowardnesse is in his heart, he deviseth mischiefes continually, he is froward discord.

21 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly, suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

22 These sixe things doeth the LORD hate: yea, seuen are an abomination unto him:

23 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood:

24 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief.

25 A false witness that speaketh lies, and that soweth discord among brethren.

26 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

27 These are the things which the LORD loveth, and which he hateth.

28 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

29 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

30 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

31 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

32 My soune, keepe thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and eye them about thy sides.

22 When thou goest; it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 * For the Commandement is as a lamp, and the Law is light: and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 * To keep thee from the euill woman, from the harlotry of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 * Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eye-lids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman, a man is brought to a price of bread; and the adulteresse will haue for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosome, and his clothes not be burnt?

28 Can one goe vpon hot coales, and his feet not be burnt?

29 So her that goeth in to his neighbours wife; whose car toucheth her, shall not be innocent.

30 Men doe not despise a thiefe, if he steale to satiate his soule when he is hungry:

31 But if he be found, he shall restore seven fold, he shall giue all the substance of his house.

32 But who so committech adultery with a woman, lacketh vnderstanding: he that doth it, defileth his owne soule.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get, and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For lechouse is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He wil not regard any ransom, neither will he set content, though thou giuest many gifts.

CHAP. VII.

1 Solomon vsueth to a fierce and kind familiarity with wisdom. 6 In an example of his own experience he sheweth to the cunning of a whore, 21 and the desperate simplicity of a young woman. 24 He denoteth from such wickedness.

My son, keepe my words, and lay vp my commandements with thee.

2 * Keepe my Commandements and line: and my Law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them vpon thy fingers, write them vpon the table of thine heart.

4 Say vnto wisdom, Thou art my sister, and call vnderstanding thy kinfewoman.

5 * That they may keepe thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 * For at the window of my house I looked thorow my casement,

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of vnderstanding,

8 Passing tharow, the street betwix her corner, and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, & in the evening, in the blacke and darke night:

10 And behold, there met him a woman, with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 * She is loud and stubborne, her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at euery corner,

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and & with an impudens face said vnto him, 14 I haue peace offerings with mee, this day haue I paid my vowes.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently I sought thy face, and I haue found thee.

16 I haue deckt my bed with coverings of cyprus, with carued works, with fine lincos of Egypt.

17 I haue perfumed my bed with saffron, galban, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let vs take our fill of loue vntill the morning, let vs fulsur our selues with loue.

19 For the good man is not at home, he is gone a long iourney.

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With much faire speech she caused him to yeeld, with & flattering of her lips, she forced him.

22 Hee goeth after her & straightway, as an oxe goeth to the slaughter, or as a foole to the correction of the stocks, 23 Till a dart strike thorow his liver, as a bird hattereth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 Hearken vnto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her wayes, goe not stray in her pathes.

26 For she hath cast downe many wounded: yea many strong men haue bene slaine by her.

27 * Her house is the way to bell, going downe to the chambers of death.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The same 6 and euidence of wisdom. 10 The excellency, 12 the nature, 15 the power, 28 the riches, 22 and the seruicy of wisdom. 32 Wisdom is to be desired for the blessings it bringeth.

Do not wisdom cry? and vnderstandings put forth her voyce?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She cryeth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doores.

4 Vnto you, O men, I call, and my voyce is to the sonnes of man.

5 O ye simple, vnderstand wisdom: and yee fooles, be ye of an vnderstanding heart.

6 Heare, for I will speake of excellent things: and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speake truth, and wickednesse is & an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness, there is nothing froward or peruerse in them.

9 They are all please to him that vnderstandeth: and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receiue my instruction, and not silver: and knowledge, rather then chioice gold.

11 * For wisdom is better then rubies: and all the thinges that may be desired, are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and finde out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The feare of the LORD is to hate euill: pride and arrogancy, and the euill way, and the froward mouth doe I hate.

14 Counsell is mine, and sound wisdom: I am vnderstanding, I haue strength.

15 By me Kings reigne, & Princes decree iustice.

16 By me Princes rule, and Nobles, euen all the Iudges of the earth.

17 I loue them that loue mee, and those that seek me early, shall finde mee:

18 * Riches and honour are with me, yea, durable riches and righteousnesse.

19 * My fruit is better then gold, yea, than fine gold, and my recompense then choyce silver.

20 I will leade in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of iudgement.

22 That I may cause thee that lovest me, to inherit substance: and I will fill thine treasures.

23 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

24 I was set vp from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

25 When there were no depths, I was brought forth: when there were no fountains abounding with water.

26 Before the mountains were settled: before the hills, was I brought forth:

27 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world:

28 When he set a compass upon the face of the depth.

29 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

30 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

31 Turn I was by him: as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him:

32 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth, and my delights were with the fountains of man.

33 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

34 Hearse instruction: & be wise, and refuse it not.

35 Blessed is the man that heareth me: watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

36 For whoso findeth me, findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

37 But he that sinneth against me, wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me, love death.

CHAP. IX.

1 The discipline, & doctrine of Wisdom.

2 The wisdom, is a ladder of life.

3 The wisdom hath builded her house: she hath chosen oak her seven pillars.

4 She hath killed her beasts: she hath mingled her wine: she hath also furnished her table.

5 Shee hath sent forth her maidens: she cryeth upon the highest places of the city.

6 Who is simple, let him turne in hither: as for him that wasteth understanding, shee saith to him:

7 Come eate of my bread, and drinke of the wine which I have mingled.

8 For take the foolishly, and live: and see in the way of understanding.

9 He that reproveth a scooner, getteth to himselfe shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man, getteth himselfe a bloue.

10 Reprove not a scorner: lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

11 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

12 The feare of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

13 For by me thy dayes shall be multiplied: and the yeeres of thy life shall be increased.

14 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wife for thy selfe: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt beare it.

15 A foolish woman is clamorous: shee is simple, and knoweth nothing.

16 For shee stretcheth out the doore of her house on a high: shee sitteth in the high places of the city.

17 To call passengers who goe right on their wayes:

18 Who is simple, let him turne in hither: and as for him that wasteth understanding, shee saith to him, 19 Stollens waters are sweet, and bread hid in secret is pleasant.

20 But he knoweth not that the dead are there, and that her guests are in the depth of hell.

CHAP. X.

From this Chapter to the fine and strength, and sundry Observations of morall vertues, and their contrary vices.

The Proverbes of Solomon: a wife findeth such a glad father: but a foolish son is the blemish of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness deliverech from death.

3 The LORD will not suffer the soule of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

4 Hee becometh poore that dealeth with a slacke hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

5 He that gathereth in Summer, is a wise soune: but he that sleepech in harvest, is a soune that can seeke shame.

6 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

8 The wife in heart will receive Commandments: but a fooling foole shall fall.

9 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his wayes, shall be knowne.

10 He that winketh with the eye, causeth sorrow: but a prating foole shall fall.

11 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sinnes.

13 In the lips of him that hath understanding, wisdom is found: but a rod is in the hands of him that is void of understanding.

14 Wisemen lay vp knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is an open destruction.

15 The rich mans wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poore is their poverty.

16 The labour of the righteous soweth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sinne.

17 Lye is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproofe, erreth.

18 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a foole.

19 In the multitude of words there wasteth away sinne: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is filthie worth.

21 The lips of the righteous feed many: but foolkes die for want of wisdom.

22 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

23 It is as a sport to a foole to doe mischief, but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

24 The sinne of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

25 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an ever lasting foundation.

26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

27 The feare of the LORD is prolongeth dayes: but the yeeres of the wicked shall be shortened.

28 The hope of the righteous shall be glorified: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall bee to the workers of iniquity.

30 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

31 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh forthwardness.

CHAPTER XI.

A False balance is abomination to the LORD: but y^e just weight is his delight.

2 When pride cometh, then cometh shame; but with the lowly is wisdom.

3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

4 Kings perish not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughty net.

7 When a wicked man dyeth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of violent men perisheth.

8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble: and the wicked cometh in his stead.

9 An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

10 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is mourning.

11 By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted: but it is overthrowed by the mouth of the wicked.

12 Hee that is full of wisdom, despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 Where no council is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellers there is safety.

15 He that is surety for a stranger, shall smart for it: and he that hateth surety shall be sure.

16 A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong man ret. in riches.

17 The mercifull man doth good to his owne soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his owne flesh.

18 The wicked worketh a deceitfull worke: but to him that toucheth righteousness, shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness leadeth to life: so he that pursueth evil, persecuteth it to his owne death.

20 They that are of a froward heart, are abominable to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way, are his delight.

21 Though hand sepe in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be scattered.

22 Jewell of gold in a silver mine, so is a faire woman which is without dissimulation.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth: and there is that withholdeth more than is meet: but it cometh to poverty.

25 The liberal sowing shall be made fat: and the sparing sowing shall be increased.

26 Hee that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall bee upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 Hee that diligently seeketh good, procureth favour: but hee that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 Hee that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his owne house, shall inhite the wind: and the foole shall bee servant to the wife of his heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life: and hee that sowereth soweth in peace.

31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked & the sinner.

CHAPTER XII.

Whose mouth instruction leaveth knowledge: but hee that hateth reprove is brutish.

2 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will be condemned.

3 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

4 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed, is as rottenness in his bones.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are war: for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

7 The wicked are overthrowed, and are not: but the foule of the righteous shall stand.

8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart, shall be despised.

9 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better then he that honoureth himselfe, and lacketh bread.

10 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

11 He that tilleth his land, shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vaine persons, is void of understanding.

12 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

13 The wicked is siared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a mans hands shall be rewarded unto him.

15 The way of a foole is right in his own eyes: but hee that hearkeneth unto counsell, is wise.

16 A fool's wrath is presently knowne: but a prudent mans countenance is calme.

17 He that speaketh truth, sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness, deceit.

18 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

20 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

21 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

22 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

23 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fooles proclaimeth foolishness.

24 The hand of the diligent shall beare rule: but the slothfull shall be under tribute.

25 Humbleness in the heart of man maketh it lowe: but a great word maketh it glad.

CHAP. XXIII.

When thou meet to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee.
 2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.
 3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.
 4 Labour not to be rich: cease from thine owne wisdom.
 5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings, they fly away as an Eagle toward heaven.
 6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainties meats.
 7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drinke such he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.
 8 The morsell which thou hast eaten shall thou vomit vp, and lose thy sweet words.
 9 Speake not in the eares of a foole: for hee will despise the wisdom of thy words.
 10 Remove not the old land marke, and ceaseth not in the fields of the fatherlesse.
 11 For their redeemer is mighty, he shall plead their cause with thee.
 12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine eares to the words of knowledge.
 13 Wilt thou hold correction from the child? for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.
 14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soule from hell.
 15 My soune, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall reioyce, I even mine.
 16 Yes, my riches shall reioyce, when thy lips speake right things.
 17 Let not thine heart enuy sinners, but be thou in the feare of the LORD all the day long.
 18 For surely there is reward, and thine expectation shall not be cut off.
 19 Heare thou my soune, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.
 20 Be not amongst wine bibbers, amongst riotous eaters of flesh.
 21 For the drunkard & the glutton shall come to poverty, & drownesse shall clothe a man with rags.
 22 Hearken unto thy father when he begueth thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.
 23 Buy the truth, and sell it not: also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
 24 The Father of the righteous shall greatly reioyce; and he that begetteth a wife child, shall his ioy of him.
 25 Thy Father and thy mother shall be glad, and thou shalt reioyce in the LORD.
 26 My soune, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes delight in my wayes.
 27 For a whore is a deep ditch, and a strange woman is a narrow pit.
 28 She also lies in wait, as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressours among men.
 29 Who hath wood who hath oxrowd who hath silver? who hath babbling who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?
 30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that see to seeke mixt wine.
 31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour, in the cup, when it moveth it selfe aright.
 32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an Adder.
 33 These eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall wander from these things.

34 Yes, thou shalt be as he that lieth downe in the midst of the Sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.
 35 They have stricken me, saith thou, say, and I was not faken: they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seke it yet againe.
 CHAP. XXIII.
 Behold thou not curious against euill men, neither desire to be with them.
 2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talke of mischief.
 3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by vnderstanding it is established.
 4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant things.
 5 A wise man is strong, yea a man of knowledge is increased strength.
 6 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy way: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.
 7 Wisdom is too high for a foole: she openeth not his mouth in the gate.
 8 Hee that despiseth to doe euill shall be called a mischieuous person.
 9 The thought of foolishness is sinne: and the scooner is an abomination to men.
 10 If thou faint in the day of aduersity, thy strength is small.
 11 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawne vnto death, and those that are ready to die: sinne is.
 12 If thou sayest, Behold, we know it notwithstanding not be thou proud: the heart consider it, and he that keepeth thy soule shall not be knowen, and shall not be render to every man according to his works.
 13 My sou, eat thou honey because it is good, and the honey combe which is sweet to thy taste.
 14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be vnto thy soule: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, & thy expectation shall not be cut off.
 15 Lay not wait O wicked man against the dwelling of the righteous: spoile not his resting place.
 16 For a iust man gathereth sinners together, and the wicked shall fall into mischief.
 17 Reioyce not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth.
 18 If the LORD see it, and he be displeas'd in him, and he turne away his wrath from him.
 19 Fiat not thy ielle because of euill men: neither be thou enuyous as the wicked.
 20 For there shall be no reward to the euill: the euill shall be cast out of the wicked shall be put out.
 21 My sou, feare thou the LORD & the King: and make not wrath with them that are giuen to change.
 22 For their calamities shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the reuenge of them both?
 23 These things also belong to the wicked: it is not good to haue respect of persons in iudgement.
 24 Hee that hath vnto the wicked, Thou art righteous him shall the people curse: nations shall abhorre him.
 25 But to them that reuoke him, shall be delight: and a good blessing shall come vpon them.
 26 Every man shall kisse his lips that giueth a right answer.
 27 Prepare thy worke without, and make it fit for thy selve in the field: and afterwards build thine house.
 28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour wicked cause: and deceiue not with thy lips.

20 * Say not, I will doe so to him as he hath doe to me: I will render to the man according to his worke.

21 I went by the field of the flockfall, and by the vineyard of the man void of vnderstanding, 22 And lo, it was all growne ouer with thornes, and netles had covered the face thereof, and the thone wall thereof was broken downe.

23 There I saw, and I considered it well, I looked vpon it, and reuolued in my minde,

24 * Yet a little sleepe, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleepe:

25 So shall thy poverty come, as one that travaileth, and thy want as if an armed man.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Observations about fooles, 8 and about avoiding causes of quarrels, and sinners causes thereof.

1 He is also Proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah King of Iudah copied out.

2 It is the gift of God to conceale a thing: but the honour of Kings is to search out the same.

3 The heaven is high, and the earth for depth, and the heart of Kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the siluer, and there shall come forth a vessel for the line.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thy selfe in the presence of the King, and stand not in the place of great men.

7 For better it is that it be said vnto thee, Come vp hither: then that thou shouldst be put lower in the presence of the Prince, whom thine eyes haue seen.

8 Do not reuile hastily to bring, lest thou knowest what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himselfe, and I will discover not a secret to another.

10 Let not heare: it put thee to shame, and thine infamy shall not away.

11 A word fitly spoken, is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an earneing of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reproofe vpon an obedient eare.

13 As the rind of snow in the time of harvest: so is a faithfull messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soule of his masters.

14 Whoso beareth himselfe of a false gift, is like cloud and wind without raine.

15 By rage for beating is a Prince perswaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? eate so much as is sufficient for thee: lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbours house: lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour, is a snare, and a sword, and a sharpe arrow.

19 Confidence in an unfaithfull man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of soyle.

20 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar vpon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heauy heart.

21 If thine enemy be hungry, giue him bread to eate: and if he be thirsty, giue him water to drinke.

22 For thou shalt heape coales of fire vpon his head, and the LORD shall scowrd thee.

23 The North wind driveth away raine: so is he that bringeth out his tongue as a chaffing twaine.

24 It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then in a brawling woman, & in a wide house.

25 As cold water to a thirsty soule: so is good newes from a farre country.

26 A righteous man falling downe before a wicked, is as a troubled fountain, & a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their owne glory, is not glory.

28 He that hath no rule over his owne spirit, is like a city that is broken downe, and without walles.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Observations about fooles, 13 about fluggards, 17 and about contentious busy-bodies.

1 As snow in summer, and as raine in harvest: so honour is not seemely for a foole.

2 As the bird by wandring, as the swallow by flying: so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the asse, and a rod for the fooles backe.

15 The flockfull hideth his hand in his bosome, I yet priseneth him to bring it againe to his mouth.

16 The fluggard is wiser in his owne conceit, then seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and I meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the eare.

18 As a mad man, who collecteth fire-brands, arrows, and death:

19 So is the man that deceiueth his neighbour, and faith, Am not I in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no tale-bearing, there is no strife.

21 As coales are to burning coales, and wood to fire: so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a tale-bearer are as wounds, and they goe downe into the inmost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a postheard couered with silver dross.

24 Hee that hateth, I dissembleth with his lips, and lieth vp deceit within him.

25 When hee I speaketh faire, belicue him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 His hate is covered by deceit, his wickednes shall be shewed before I whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit, shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will retaine vpon him.

28 Or, is knowne, I haue misdeed his woe: gracious, is conuerted to curse.

29 Or, is knowne, I haue misdeed his woe: gracious, is conuerted to curse.

30 Or, is knowne, I haue misdeed his woe: gracious, is conuerted to curse.

31 Or, is knowne, I haue misdeed his woe: gracious, is conuerted to curse.

18 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it, and a flattering mouth worketh reare.

CHAP. XXVII.

Observations of self-love: 5 of true love: 21 of care to avoid offences; 23 and of the household care.

1 Do not say thou wilt be rich to morrow: for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee; and not thine owne mouth; a stranger, and not thine owne lips.

3 A stone is not heavy, and the sand weighty; but a foolies wrath is heavier then them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before it?

5 Open rebuke is better then secret love.

6 Faithfull are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are \dagger deceitfull.

7 The full soule \dagger loatheth an hony combe; but to the hungry soule every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest: so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume reioyce the heart: so doeth the sweetness of a mans friend \dagger by hearty counsell.

10 Thine owne friend, and thy fathers friend, forsake not; wither goe into thy brothers house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is neere, then a brother farre off.

11 My son, be wise, and make mine heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himselfe: but the simple passe on, and are punished.

13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

14 He that bleaseth his friend with a loud voye, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

15 A continual dropping in a very rainy day, and a contentious woman are alike.

16 Whosoever hideth her, hi leth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand which bewepeth it.

17 Iron sharpeneth iron: so a man that reproveth the countenance of his friend.

18 Whoso keepeth the figtree, shall eate the fruit thereof: so hee that watcheth on his master, shall be honoured.

19 As in water face answereth to face: so the heart of a man to man.

20 Hell and destruction are \dagger never full: so the eyes of a man are never satisfied.

21 As the lining pee for siluer, and the furnace for gold: so is a man to his praise.

22 Though thou shouldst bray a foolke in a mortar among wheat, with a pebble: yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

23 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flock, and \dagger looke well to thy herds.

24 For riches are not for ever: and doeth the crovne endure \dagger to every generation?

25 The hay appeareth, & the tender grass sheweth it selfe, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

26 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats as the price of thy field.

27 And thou shalt have goats milke enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

CHAP. XXVIII.

General observations of impiety and religious hypocrisy.

1 The wicked hideth his malice, but the righteous see him in a lye.

2 For the transgression of a land maye the Prince thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge, she shall be preserved.

3 A poore man that oppresseth the poore, is like a sweeping raine, \dagger which leaveth no food.

4 They that forsake the law, will hate the wicked: but such as keepe the law, will hate them.

5 Evil men understand not judgement: but they that seeke the LORD, understand all things.

6 Better is the poore that walketh in his uprightnesse, then he that is perverse in his wayes, though he be rich.

7 Whoso keepeth the law, is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men, shameth his father.

8 He that by vsury and \dagger usurieth gain, increaseth his substance; he shall gather it for him: that will pity the poore.

9 Hee that turneth away his eare from hearing the Law, even his prayer shall be abominacion.

10 Whoso causeth the righteous to goe astray in an evil way, he shall fall himselfe into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

11 The rich man is wise \dagger in his owne conceit: but the poore that hath understanding, searcheth him out.

12 When righteous men doe reioyce, there is great glory: but when the wicked riseth, a man is \dagger hidden.

13 He that conceiteth his sinnes, shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them, shall have mercy.

14 Happy is the man that searcheth always: but he that hardeneth his heart, shall fall into mischief.

15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear, is a wicked ruler over the poore people.

16 The Prince that hath understanding, is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousnesse, shall prolong his dayes.

17 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person, shall lie to the pit: let no man stay him.

18 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his wayes, shall fall at once.

19 He that tilleth his land, shall have plenty of bread: but hee that followeth after vaine persons, shall have poverty enough.

20 A faithfull man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh hast to be rich, shall not be \dagger innocent.

21 To have respect of persons, is not good: for, for a piece of bread that man will transgresse.

22 He that hateth to be rich, hath an earth eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

23 He that rebuketh a roan, afterwards shall finde more favour, then he that flattereth with the tongue.

24 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and hath, it is so transgression, the same is the companion of \dagger a deceiver.

25 Hee that is of a proud heart, shall be made low: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD, shall be made high.

26 He that trusteth in his owne heart, is a foolke: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

27 He that giveth vnto the poore, shall not lacke: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

28 When the wicked rise, even hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous shall be glad.

CHAP. XXX.

2 Observations of publicke government, 15 and of private. 22 Of auyer, pride, theuery, covardise and corruption.

1 HE that being often reposed, hardeneth his necke, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

2 * When the righteous are in authority, the people reioyce: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

3 * Whoso loveth wisdom, reioyceth his father: he that keepeth company with harlots, spendeth his substance.

4 The King by judgement established the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

5 A man that flattereth his neighbour, spreadeth a net for his feet.

6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and reioyce.

7 * The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

8 Scourges and stripes bring a city into a snare: but wisdom turne away wrath.

9 If a wife man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

10 † The bloudie: man hate the upright: but the iust seeke his soule.

11 A tooe vittereth all his mind: but a wife man keepeth it in his heart afterwards.

12 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

13 * The poore and the deceitfull man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

14 * The King that faithfully iudgeth the poore, his throne shall be established for ever.

15 * The rod and reproofe give wisdom: but a child left to himselfe, bringeth his mother to shame.

16 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

17 * Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soule.

18 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

19 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand, he will not answer.

20 Seest thou a man that is hollie in his words? above is more hope of a fooler than of him.

21 He that delicately bringeth vp his servants from a child, shall haue him become his son at the length.

22 * An angry man stirreth vp strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

23 * A mans pride shall bring him low: but honour shall vphold him humble in spirit.

24 Whoso is partner with a cheate, hateth his owne soule: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

25 The feare of man bringeth a snare: but who putteth his trust in the LORD, shall be safe.

26 * Many to ke the rulers favour: but every mans iudgement cometh from the LORD.

27 An vnjust man is an abomination, to the iust: and he that is vpright in the way, is abomination to the wicked.

28 The feare of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: but the knowledge of the holy men, shall increase.

29 The LORD is high above all the earth: he hath set his habitation on high, above the cherubims.

30 The LORD is high above all the earth: he hath set his habitation on high, above the cherubims.

31 The LORD is high above all the earth: he hath set his habitation on high, above the cherubims.

32 The LORD is high above all the earth: he hath set his habitation on high, above the cherubims.

33 The LORD is high above all the earth: he hath set his habitation on high, above the cherubims.

Four things hard to be knowne: 21 Four things exceeding terrible: 24 Four things exceeding wise: 29 Four things rarely: 32 My word is to be presented.

1 The words of Agur the son of Iachai, euen the prophetic: The man spake vnto Ithiel, euen vnto Ithiel and Veai.

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and haue not the vnderstanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor † haue the knowledge of the holy.

4 * Who hath ascended vp into heauen, or descended? who hath gathered the winds in his fist, who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his surname, if thou canst tell?

5 * Eery word of God † is pure: he is a shield vnto them that put their trust in him.

6 * Adde thou not vnto his words, lest hee reprocue thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things haue I required of thee, † O Lord: me thou not before I die.

8 Remove farre from me vanity and hypocisie: mee neither pouerty nor riches: † feed mee with food † convenient for me.

9 * Let I be full and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? for lest I be poore, and steale, and take the Name of my God in vaine.

10 † Accuse not a servant vnto his master; lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father and doth not blesse their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, & yet is not washed from their filthines.

13 * There is a generation, O how loyly are their eyes! and their eye-lids are lashed vp.

14 * There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their iaw teeth as knives, to devour the poore from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Giue, giue. There are three things that are neuer satisfied, yea, fourth things say not, † it is enough: 1. The grave, and the barren wombe, and the earth which is not filled with water; and the fire that saith, not, I is enough.

16 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother; the ravens of the valley shall picke it out, and they which are greedy shall eat it.

17 There be seven things which I know not: 1. The way of an eagle in the aire, the way of a serpent vpon a rock, the way of a ship in the midst of the sea, and the way of a man with a maid.

18 Such is the way of an adulterous woman: she catcheth and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I haue done no wickednesse.

19 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot beare: 1. For a servant when he reigneth, and a fooler when he is filled with meat.

2. For an odious woman when shee is married, and an handmaid that is heire to her mistresse.

3. There be foure things which are little vpon the earth; but they are † exceeding wise: 1. The Ant, the Asse, the Ox, and the Mule.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Lemuel's lesson of chastity and temperance. & The afflicted are to be comforted and defended, to the praise and properties of a good wife.

The words of King Lemuel, the prophetic that his mother taught him.

1 What, my sonne: and what, the sonne of my wombe: and what, the sonne of my vowes!

2 Give not thy strength vnto women, nor thy wayes to that which destroyeth Kings.

3 It is not for Kings, O Lemuel, it is one for kings to drinke wine, nor for princes strong drinke:

4 Left they drinke and forget the law, and peruer the iudgement of any of the afflicted, 5 Give strong drinke vnto him that is ready vnto perill; and wine vnto those that bee full of heavy heeres.

6 Let him drinke and forget his pouerty, and remember his misery no more.

7 Open thy mouth for the dumbe, in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.

8 Open thy mouth, iudge righteously, and plead the cause of the poore and needy.

9 Who can finde a vertuous woman? for her price is farre above rubies.

10 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her: so that he shall haue no need of spoile.

11 She will doe him good and not euill, all the dayes of her life.

12 Shee seeketh wooll and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

13 Shee is like the Merchants ships, shee bringeth her food from a farre.

14 Shee ariseth also while it is yet night, & giveth meat to her household, & a portion to her maids.

15 Shee considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands shee planteth a vineyard.

16 Shee girdeth her loynes with strength, and strengtheneth her armes.

17 If shee perceiveth that her merchant is good: her candle goeth not out by sugar.

18 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaffe.

19 She stretcheth out her hand to the poore: yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

20 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with warlike.

21 Shee maketh her selfe coverings of sayset: & her clothing is silke and purple.

22 Her husband is knowne in the gates, when he sitteth among the Elders of the land.

23 Shee maketh fine linnen, and selleth it, and deliuereth girles vnto the Merchant.

24 Strength and honour are her clothing, and she shall reioyce in time to come.

25 She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

26 Shee looketh well to the wayes of her household, and careth not the bread of idleness.

27 Her children rise vp, and call her blessed; her husband also, and hee praiseth her.

28 Many daughters haue done vertuously, but thou excellest them all.

29 Favour is deceitfull, and beauty is vaine: but a woman that feareth the LORD, shee shall be praised.

30 Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her owne workes praise her in the gates.

ECCLIESIASTES, OR THE PREACHER.

CHAP. I.

1 The Preacher telleth that all humane courses are vaine: 4 Because the creature is vaine & restless in their courses: 9 They bring forth nothing new, and all old things are forgotten: 12 And because hee hath found it so in the studies of wisdom.

The words of the Preacher, the sonne of David, King in Ierusalem.

1 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities, all is vanity.

2 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh vnder the Sunne?

3 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

4 The Sun also ariseth, and the Sun goeth downe, and it hatheth to the place where hee ariseth.

5 The wind goeth toward the South, and turneth about vnto the North: it whistleth about continually, and the wind returneth againe according to his circuits.

6 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full: vnto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they returne againe.

7 All things are full of labour, man cannot see the end of it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the eare filled with hearing.

8 The thing that hat's bin, is that which shall be: and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing vnder the Sunne.

9 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See that is new? It hath bene already of olde time, which was before vs.

10 There is no remembrance of former things, neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

11 ¶ The Preacher was King over Ierusalem in Ierusalem.

12 ¶ The thing that hat's bin, is that which shall be: and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing vnder the Sunne.

13 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See that is new? It hath bene already of olde time, which was before vs.

14 There is no remembrance of former things, neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come, with those that shall come after.

15 ¶ The Preacher was King over Ierusalem in Ierusalem.

16 And I gave my heart to seeke and search out by wisdom, concerning all things that are done vnder heauen: this sore trauell hath God giuen to the sonnes of men, that they should labour therein.

17 I haue seene all the workes that are done vnder the Sun, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 That which is crooked, cannot bee made straight: and that which is wanting, cannot bee numbered.

19 I communed with mine owne heart, saying, See, I am come to great age, and haue seene many dayes.

More wisdom than all they that I have seen behind me in Jerusalem; yet, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 * And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madnesse and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

18 For in much wisdome is much griefe: and he that increaseth knowlege, increaseth sorrow.

CHAP. II.

1 The vanity of humane courses in the wayes of pleasure. 2 Though she wife be better then the foole, yet I have seen much. 3 The vanity of business labour, in leaving it they knowe not so many. 4 Nothing better then joy in our labour, but that is Gods gift.

I said in mine heart, Goe to now, I will proove
I there with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure, and behold this: his is vanity.

I said of laughter, it is mad: and of mirth,
What doth it?

I sought in mine heart to give my selfe vanity, (not acquainting my heart with wisdom) and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sinnes of men, which they should doe vnder the heave with all the dayes of their life.

I made me great workes, I builded me houses,
I planted me vineyards.

I made me gardenes and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits.

I made me pooles of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

I got me servants and maids, and had servants borne in mine house: also I had great possessions of great and small cattell, above all that were in Jerusalem before me.

I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of Kings, and of the Promises: I got me men-singers, and women singers, and the delights of the soundes of men, and musickal instruments, and that of all sorts.

So I was great, and increased more then all that were before me in Jerusalem; also my wife came to dwell with me.

And whatsoever mine eie desired, I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy:
for my heart rejoiced in all my labour; and this was my portion of all my labour.

Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to doe: and behold, all was vanity, and vexation of spirit: and there was no profit vnder the Sun.

And I turned my selfe to behold wisdom, and madnesse, and folly: for what can the man doe that commeth after the King? I saw that which hath bene al ready done.

Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as farre as light excelleth darknesse.

The wise mans eyes are in his head, but the foole walketh in darknesse: and I my selfe perceived also that one cunct happeneth to them all.

Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the foole, so it happeneth unto me, and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart,
That this also is vanity.

For there is no remembrance of the wise, more they of the foole for ever, seeing that which now is, in the dayes to come shall be forgotten: and how dieth the wise man? As the foole.

Therefore I hated life, because the woile that is wrought vnder the Sunne, is grievous vnto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

I hated all my labour which I had taken vnder the Sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a foole? yet shall hee haue rule ouer all my labour wherein I haue laboured, and wherein I haue shewed my selfe vnder the Sun. This is also vanity.

Therefore I went about to cause my heart not to despair of all my labour which I took vnder the Sun for there is a man, whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity: yet to a man that hath not laboured therein, shall hee give it for his portion: This also is vanity, and a great euill.

For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured vnder the Sun?

For all his dayes are sorrowes, and his crowell griefe, yet, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

There is nothing better for a man, then that he should eat and drinke, and that he should make his soule enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw that it was from the hand of God.

For who can eat? or who else can drinke herewith more then I?

For God giueth to a man that is good in his fight, wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giueth trouble, to grieve, and to heape vp trouble: hee may give to him that is good before God: This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. III.

By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to humane travail. 2 There was an excellency in Gods workes. 3 As for man, God shall iudge him vnder these: and here he shall be like a beast.

Every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose vnder the heauen.

A time to be born, & a time to die: a time to plant, and a time to plucke vp which is plucked,

A time to kill, and a time to beale: a time to breake downe, and a time to build vp.

A time to weep, and a time to laugh: a time to mourne, and a time to dance.

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together: a time to embrace, and a time to reframe from embracing.

A time to see: and a time to be hid: a time to keepe, and a time to cast away.

A time to reare, and a time to low: a time to keepe silence, and a time to speake.

A time to love, and a time to hate: a time of warre, and a time of peace.

What profit hath he that worketh, in that wherein he labourerh?

I haue seen from the travail which God hath giuen to the foener of men, to be exercisid in it.

Hee hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the woile in their heart, so that no man can find out the woile that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

I know that there is no good in them: but for a man to reioyce, and to doe good in his life.

And also that every man should eat and drinke, and enjoy the good of all his labour: it is the gift of God.

I know that whatsoever God doth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doth it, that men should fear before him.

That which hath bene, is now, and that which which is to be, hath already bene, and God requireth that which is past.

16 ¶ And Moreover, I saw under the Sunne the place of iudgement, that wickednesse was there: and the place of righteousnesse, that iniquity was there.

Verse 1.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall iudge the righteous, and the wicked: for there is a time there; for every purpose, and for every worke.

18 I said in my heart concerning the estate of the Sonnes of men, if that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 ¶ For that which befalleth the sons of men, befalleth beasts, even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other: yea, they haue all one breath, so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All goe vnto one place, all are of the dust, and all turne to dust againe.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man, that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast, that goeth downward to the earth?

22 ¶ Wherefore I perceive, that there is nothing better, then that a man should reioyce in his owne worke; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAP. III.

1 Vanity is increased vnto men by oppressions, & by enuies, 5 by idleness, 7 by enuiousnesse, 9 by Johnaruesse, 12 by wishfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done vnder the Sun; and behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter: and the hide of their oppressors there was power, but they had no comforter.

2 ¶ Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead, more then the liuing which are yet aliue.

3 ¶ Yea, better is he then both they, which hath not yet bene, who hath not scene the euill worke that is done vnder the Sun.

4 ¶ Againe, I considered all transiit, and euery right worke, that I for this man is euicted of his neighbour: this is alio vanity & vexation of spirit.

5 ¶ The foole foldeth his hands together, and eateth his owne flesh.

6 ¶ Better is an handfull with quietnesse, then both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 ¶ Then I returned, and I saw vanity vnder the Sunne.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour, neither is his eye satisfied with riches, neither, saith he, For whom doe I labour, and beare my foule of good? this is alio vanity, yea, it is a fore trauell.

9 ¶ Two are better then one; because they haue a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift vp his fellow: but wee to him that is alone when he falleth, he hath none another to helpe him vp.

11 Againe, if two lie together, then they haue heat: but how can one be warme alone.

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him: and a three-fold cord is not quickly broken.

13 ¶ Better is a poore and a wife child, then an old and foolish King: for who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison hee cometh to reigne, whereas also he that is borne in his kingdom, becometh poore.

15 I considered all the liuing which walke vnder the Sun, with the second child that shall stand vp in his stead.

16 There is no end of all the people, sum of all that haue bene before them: they also that come after, shall not reioyce in him: surely this alio is vanity and vexation of spirit.

CHAP. V.

1 Vanities in diuine seruice, 8 in mourning against oppression, 9 and in riches, 18 to pray rather in the gift of God.

KEEPE thy foot: when thou goest to the house of God, and bee more ready to heare, then to give the sacrifices of fooles: for they consider not that they doe euill.

2 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heauen, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

3 For a dreame cometh through the multitude of businesse, and a foolkes voyce is knowne by multitude of words.

4 ¶ When thou vowest a vow vnto God, deferre not to pay it: for hee hath no pleasure in fooles: nor pay that which thou hast vowed.

5 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, then that thou shouldest vow, and not pay.

6 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin, neither say thou before the Angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voyce, and destroy the worke of thine hands?

7 For in the multitude of dreames, and many words, there are also diuine vanities: but feare thou God.

8 ¶ If thou feest the oppression of the poore, and violent pernering of iudgement and iustice in a Province, thou wilt see that the matter is that is higher then the highest, regardeth, and there be higher then they.

9 ¶ Moreover, the profit of the earth is for all: but the King himselfe is he that vnderstandeth the field.

10 He that loatheth siluer, shall not be satisfied with siluer; nor he that loatheth abundance, with increase: this is alio vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, seeing the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleepe of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eate little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleepe.

13 There is a fore still which I haue seene vnder the Sunne, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But thine riches perish by euill trauell: and he beginneth to eate, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 ¶ As he came forth of his mothers wombe, naked shall he returne to goe: he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which hee may carry away in his hand.

16 And this alio is a fore euill, that in all points as he came, so shall he goe: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

17 All his dayes also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I haue seene: it is good and comely, for one to eat and to drinke, and to enioy the good of all his labour that he taketh vnder the Sunne, ¶ all the dayes of his life which God giveth him: for it is his portion.

19 Euery man also to whom God hath giuen riches and wealth, and hath giuen him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to reioyce in his labour, this is the gift of God.

20 For he shall not remem- ber the dayes of his life: because God auſwereth him in the joy of his heart.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vanity of riches without wifdom, 2 Of education, 3 and of all age without riches. 4 The vanity of fight and wifdoming defires. 5 The concluſion of vanities.

1 There is an euill which I haue ſcene vnder the Sonne, and it is common among men :

2 A man to whom God hath giuen riches, wealth and haue, ſo that he warrth nothing for his foule: of all that he deſireth; yet God giueth him not power to encreaſe, but a ſtraight catche: This is vanity, and is an euill ſeaſe.

3 ¶ If a man beget an hundred children, and liue many yeeres, ſo that the joye of his yeeres be many, and his foule be not filled with good, and alſo that he ſee no buriall, ſay, that an vniuely birth is better then he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in deſolation, and his name ſhall be couered with darkneſſe.

5 Moreover, he hath not ſcene the Sonne, nor know any thing: he hath more reſt then the other.

6 ¶ Yet thou ſhouldeſt haue a thouſand yeeres twice to ſee, yet hath he come to good: Doe not all goe to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet he ſappreze it not: filled.

8 For what hath the wife more then the foole? what hath the poore, that knoweth to walke before the King?

9 ¶ Better is the ſight of the eyes, than the wandering of the deſire: this is alſo vanity and vexation of heart.

10 That which hath bene, is named already, and it is knowne that it is man: neither may he content himſelfe, that it mightier than he.

11 ¶ Surely there be many things that increaſe vanity, what is man the better?

12 For what knoweth what is good for man in the life, & all the dayes of his vaine life, which hee ſpendeth as ¶ a ſhadow? but who can tell a man what ſhall be after him vnder the Sonne?

CHAP. VII.

1 Remedies againſt vanity, are a good name, 2 mortification, 3 patience, 4 Wiſdom. 5 The difficulty of wiſdom.

1 A good name is better then precious ointment, & the day of death then the day of ones birth.

2 ¶ It is better to goe to the houſe of mourning, then to goe to the houſe of feaſting: for that is the end of all men, & the laſing will lay vs to his heart.

3 ¶ Sorrow is better then laughter: for by the ſadnes of the countenance, the heart is made better. 4 The heart of the wife is in the houſe of mourning: but the heart of fool: is in the houſe of mirth.

5 ¶ It is better to heare the rebuke of the wife, then for a man to heare the ſong of fooler.

6 For as the cracking of thornes vnder a pot, ſo is the laughter of the fool: this alſo is vanity.

7 ¶ Surely oppreſſion maketh a wife man mad: and a gift deſtroyeth the heart.

8 Better is the end of a thing, then the beginning thereof: and the patient in ſpirit is better then the proud in ſpirit.

9 ¶ Be not haſty in thy ſpirit to be angry: for anger reſteth in the buſome of fooler.

10 Say not thou, What is the cauſe that the former dayes were better then theſe? for thou doſt not remember wiſely comparing this,

11 ¶ Wiſedome is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that ſee the Sonne.

12 For wiſedome is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wiſedome giueth life to them that haue it.

13 ¶ Conſider the worke of God: for who can make that ſtraight which he hath made crooked?

14 In the day of prosperity hee is joyfull, but in the day of aduerſity conſider: God alſo hath ſet the one our againſt the other, to the end that man ſhould find nothing after him.

15 All things come I ſee: in the dayes of my vanity: there is a iuſt man that perifeth in his righteousneſſe, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedneſſe.

16 Be not righteous overmuch, neither make thy ſelfe ouerwiſe: why ſhouldeſt thou deſtroy thy ſelfe?

17 Be not ouer much wicked, neither be thou fooliſh: why ſhouldeſt thou die before thy time?

18 It is good that thou ſhouldeſt take hold of this, yet alſo from this withhold: not thinke hard; for he that feareth God ſhall come forth of them all.

19 ¶ Wiſedome ſtrengtheneth the wife more then ten mighty men which are in the city.

20 ¶ For there is not a iuſt man vpon earth, that doeth good and ſinneth not.

21 Alſo take heed vnto all words that are ſpoken, leſt thou leaſe thy ſeruant care thee.

22 For often times alſo thine owne heart knoweth that thou thy ſelfe like wiſe haſt caſted others.

23 ¶ All this haue I proved by wiſedome, I ſaid, I will be wiſe, but it was far from me.

24 That which is farre off, and exceeding deepe, who can finde it out?

25 ¶ I ſupplied my heart to know, and to ſearch, and to ſerke out wiſedome, and the reaſon of things: and to know the wickedneſſe of folly, euen of fooliſhneſſe and madneſſe.

26 ¶ And I finde more bitter then death, the woman whoſe heart is ſure and nere, and her hands are bands: ¶ whoſe pleaſeth God, ſhall eſcape from her, but the ſinner ſhall be taken by her.

27 Behold, this haue I found (ſaith the Precher) ¶ counting one by one to find out the account:

28 Which way my ſoule ſeeketh, but I finde not: one way among a thouſand haue I found, but a woman among all thoſe haue I not found.

29 ¶ See, this ſeely haue I found, that God hath made man vpright: but they haue ſought out many iniquities.

CHAP. VIII.

1 King is greatly to be reſpected. 2 The diuine providence is to be obſerued. 3 It is better with the poore in aduerſity, then with the wicked in proſperity. 4 The worke of God is unſearchable.

1 ¶ Who is as the wife man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? ¶ a mans wiſedome maketh his face to ſhine, and ¶ the boldneſſe of his face ſhall be changed.

2 I counſel thee to keepe the Kings commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

3 Be not laſty to goe out of his ſight: ſtand not in an euill thing, for hee doeth whatſoever pleaſeth him.

4 Where the word of a King is, there is power: and who may ſay vnto him, What doeth thou?

5 ¶ Whoſe keepeth the Commandement, ¶ ſhall ſee ſerie no euill thing: and a wiſemens heart differeth both time and iudgement.

6 ¶ Becauſe to euery purpoſe there is time and iudgement: therefore the miſtry of man is great vpon him.

7 For he knoweth not that which shall be : for who can tell him when it shall be ?

8 There is no man that hath power over the spirit, to retain the spirit ; neither hath he power in the day of death : and there is no discharge in that warre, neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

9 All this have I seene, and applied my heart vnto every worke that is done vnder the Sunne : there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his owne hurt.

10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city, where they had so done this : also vanity.

11 Because sentence against an euill worke is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to doe euill.

12 Though a sinner doe euill an hundred times, and his dayes be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that feare God, which feare before him.

13 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his dayes, which are as a shadow, because he feareth not before God.

14 There is a vanity which is done vpon the earth, that there be iust men, vnto whom it happeneth according to the worke of the wicked, againe there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the worke of the righteous ; I said, that this also is vanity.

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing vnder the Sunne, then to eat and to drinke, and to be merry : for that shall abide with him of his labour the dayes of his life, which God giueth him vnder the Sunne.

16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the businesse that is done vpon the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleepe with his eyes.)

17 Then I beheld all the worke of God, that a man cannot find out the worke that is done vnder the Sunne : because though a man labour to seeke it out, yet further, though a wise man thinke to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

CHAP. IX.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 2 There is a necessity of death vnto men. 3 Comfort is in all their perious in this life. 4 Gods prouidence ruleth ouer all. 5 Wisdom is better then strength.

For all this I considered in mine heart, euen to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their workes, are in the hand of God : no man can ouerth either loue or hatred by all that is before them.

2 All things come alike to all : there is one euen to the righteous, and to the wicked, to the good, and to the cleane, and to the vnclEAN, to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not : as is the good, so is the sinner ; and he that sweareth, as he that seareth an oath.

3 This is an euill among all things that are done vnder the Sunne, that there is one euen vnto all : yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of euill, and madness is in their heart while they liue, and alter that they goe to the dead.

4 For to him y^e is ioynd to all the liuing, there is hope : for a liuing dog is better then a dead lion.

5 For the liuing know that they shall die : but the dead know not any thing, neither haue they any more a reward, for y^e memory of them is forgotten. 6 The wise see long, and their hatred, and their enuy is now perished, neither haue they any more a portion for euill in any thing that is done vnder y^e Sunne.

7 Goe thy way, eate thy bread with ioy, and drinke thy wine with a merry heart, for God now accepteth thy workes.

8 Let thy garments be alwayes white, and let thy head lacke no ointment.

9 Live ioyfully with the wife whom thou lovest, all the dayes of thine life of thy vanity, which he hath giuen thee vnder the Sunne, all the dayes of thy vanity : for this is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest vnder the Sunne.

10 Whatsoeuer thy hand findeth to doe, doe it with thy might : for there is no worke, nor deuit, nor knowledge, nor wisdom in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 I returned, and saw vnder the Sunne, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battell to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of vnderstanding, nor yet fauour to men of skill, but time and chance haue preuayled to them all.

12 For man also knoweth not his time, as the fishes that are taken in an euill net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare ; so are the sons of men snared in an euill time, when it taketh suddenly vpon them.

13 This wisdom haue I seene also vnder the Sunne, and it seemed great vnto me.

14 There was a little city, and few men within it ; and there came a great King against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarkes against it :

15 Now there was found in it, a poore wise man ; and he by his wisdom deliuered the city : yet no man remembered that same poore man.

16 When I said, Wisdom is better then strength, and the words of the wise are heard in quiet, and the words of the foolish are not heard.

17 The words of wise men are heard in quiet, more then the cry of him that rasketh among foolkes.

18 Wisdom is better then weapon of warre, but one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAP. X.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly. 2 of riot, 3 of foolishnesse, 4 of money. 5 of mens thoughts of Kings ought to be restrained.

1 Dearth causes the visitation of the Apothecary to send forth a stinking fauour : so doeth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

2 A wise mans heart is at his right hand : but a foolkes heart at his left.

3 Yea also, when he that is a foole walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he lieth to every one, that he is a foole.

4 If the spirit of y^e ruler rise vp against thee, leave not thy place, for yeeking pacifieth great offences.

5 There is an euill which I haue seene vnder the Sunne, as an error which proceedeth from y^e ruler.

6 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

7 I haue seene seruants vpon horses, and Princes walking as seruants vpon the earth.

8 He that diggeth a pit, shall fall into it, and whose heareth an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

9 Whoso remoueth stones, shall be hurt therewith : and he that cleaueth wood, shall be endangered thereby.

10 If the yron be blunt, and he doe not whet the edge, then must hee put to more strength ; but wisdom is profitable to direct.

11 Surely the serpent will bite without enuincement, and y^e adder is no better.

7. Or euer the silver cords be loosed, or the golden bow be broken...

8. Then shall the dust returne to the earth as it was: & the spirit shall returne to God...

9. And I memento, because the Preacher was wise: he still taught the people knowledge...

10. The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written...

11. The words of the wife are as goads, and as sales fastened by the masters of assemblies...

12. And further by this say son, he admonished: of making many books there is no end...

13. Let vs heare the conclusion of the whole matter: Feare God, and keepe his Commandments...

14. For God shall bring every work into judgement, with every secret thing...

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

CHAP. I.

1. The Churches love unto Christ, & he confesseth her deformity, & prayeth to be directed to his flockes...

2. Let him kisse mee with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better then wine.

3. Because of the favour of thy good ornaments, thy name is as oymment poured forth...

4. Draw me, we will run after thee: the King & John hath brought me into his chambers...

5. I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Cedar...

6. Look not upon me because I am black, because the Sun hath looked upon me...

keeper of the vineyards, but mine owne vineyard have I not kept,

7 Tell me O thou whom my soule loneth where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

8 ¶ If thou know not O thou fairest among women go thy way forth by the footstaps of the sheepe, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds tents.

9 I have compared thee, O my loue, to a company of horses in Pharaohs charets.

10 Thy cheekes are comely with rowes of Jewels, thy necke with chaines of gold.

11 Wee will make thee borders of gold, with fudds of silver.

12 ¶ While the King sitteth at his table, my Spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

13 A bundle of myrrhe is my wellbeloved unto me, he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

14 My beloved is as to me as a cluster of Campfire in the vineyards of Engedi,

15 Behold, thou art faire, my loue; behold, thou art faire, thou hast done eyes, 16 ¶ Behold, thou art faire, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is Greene.

17 The beames of our house are Cedar, and our rafters are Firre.

CHAP. II

1 The mutual loue of Christ and his Church. 2 The hope, 10 and calling of the Church. 14 Christs care of the Church. 16 The profession of the Church, her faith and hope.

¶ As the rose of Sharon, and the lilly of the valleys.

2 As the lilly among thornes, so is my loue among the daughters.

3 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the soune. I sat down vnder his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my tast.

4 He brought me to the banquetting house, and his house over me was loue.

5 Stay me with figons; comfort me with apples, for I am sicke of loue.

6 His left hand is vnder my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 ¶ I charge you, O ye daughters of Ierusalem, by the Roses, and by the Hyndes of the field, that ye stirre not vp, nor awake my loue till he please.

8 ¶ The voyce of my beloved! behold! he cometh leaping vpon the mountains skipping vpon the hills.

9 ¶ My beloved is like a Roe, or a young Hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, hee looketh forth at the window, & shewing himselfe thorow the lattise.

10 My beloved spake, and said vnto me, Rise vp my loue, my faire one, and come away.

11 For toe, the winter is past, the raine is ouer, and gone.

12 The flowers appeare on the earth, the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voyce of the turtle is heard in the land.

13 The fig tree putteth forth her Greene figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise my loue, my faire one, and come away.

14 ¶ O my delite that art in the clefts of the rocke, in the secret places of the flaires: let me see thy countenance, let me heare thy voyce, for sweet is thy voyce, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take vs the foxes, the little foxes that spoyle the vine: for when shall we have tender grapes.

16 ¶ My beloved is mine, and I am his: hee is my delight as the Lillies.

17 ¶ Vntill the day breake, and the shadows flee away: take me my beloved, and be thou like a Roe, or a young Hart, vpon the mountains of Bether.

CHAP. III

1 The Church her light and victory in temptations. 2 The Church glorioth in Christ.

BY night on my bed I thought him when my soule loneth: I thought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now and goe about the city in the streets, and in the broad wayes I will seeke him whom my soule loneth: I thought him, but I found him not.

3 The watchmen that goe about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soule loneth?

4 It was but a litle that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soule loneth: I held him, and would not let him goe, vntill I had brought him into my mothers house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 ¶ I charge you, O ye daughters of Ierusalem, by the Roses and by the Hynds of the field: that ye stirre not vp, nor awake my Loue till he please.

6 ¶ Who is this that cometh, our of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed w myrrhe & frankincense, with all poucers of the merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is Solomons chamber: e valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel:

8 They all hold swords, being expert in warre: every man hath his sword vpon his thigh, because of feare in the night.

9 King Solomon made himselfe a charett of the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made the pillars thereof of silver: the bottom thereof of gold: the covering of it of purple: the middle thereof being paved with loue, for the daughters of Ierusalem.

11 Goe forth, O ye daughters of Zion: & behold King Solomon, with the crowne wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAP. IIII

1 Christ setteth forth the Graces of the Church. 8 He sheweth his love to her. 16 The Church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

Behold, thou art faire, my loue, behold, thou art faire, thou hast done eyes vnto thy lockes: thy hair is as a flucke of Goats, that appeare from mount Gilead.

2 Thy teeth are like a flocke of sheepe that are shorn aboute, which come vp from the washing: whereof every one hath twins, and none is barren among them.

3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy lockes.

4 Thy necke is like the tower of David, builded for an armoury, wherein there hang a thousand bucklers, all uicels of mightynes.

5 ¶ Thy two breasts are like two young Roes, that are twins, which feede among the lillies.

6 ¶ Vntill the day breake, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountains of myrrhe, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 ¶ Thou art all faire my loue, there is no spot in thee.

8 ¶ Come with me from Lebanon (my spouse) with me from Lebanon: looke thoue from the top of Aman, from the top of Shenir, & Hermon, from the tops that are from the mountains of the Leopards.

10 How faire is thy love, my sister, my spouse: how much better is thy love then wine: and the smell of thine ornaments: on all spices!

11 Thy lips, O my spouse: drop as the hony comb, hony and in like are vnder thy tongue, & the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

12 A garden is thy enclosed is my sister, my spouse: a spring that is a fountain sealed.

13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranets, with pleasant fruits, Camphire with Spikenard, 14 Spikenard, and Saffron, Calamint, and Cyanion, with all trees of Frankincense, Myrrhe, and Aloes, with all the chief spices.

15 A fontaine of gardens, a well of living waters, and freames from Lebanon, 16 Awake, O North wind, and come thou South, blow vpon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out: let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasurable fruits.

CHAPTER V.

1 Christ awaketh the Church with his calling, 2 The Church hauing made of Christs longyn like of love, 3 A description of Christs by his graces.

I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse, I have gathered my myrrhe with my spice, I have eaten my hony combe with my hony, I have drunk my wine with my walke: eat, O friends, drinke, I yea, drinke abundantly, O beloved!

2 I sleepe, but my heart awaketh, it is the voyce of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my watchtowre, for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat, how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet, how shall I desire them?

4 My beloved putt in his hand by the hole of the doore, and my senses were moved for him.

5 I rose vp to open to my beloved, and my hands dropped with myrrhe: my fingers were sweet smelling myrrhe upon the handes of the locke.

6 I opened to my beloved, but my beloved had withdrawn himselfe, & was going: my soule failed when hee spake: I sought him, but I could not finde him: I called him, but hee gave me no answer.

7 The watchmen that went about the city, found me, they smote me, they wounded me, the keepers of the wallesooke away my walle from me.

8 I charge you, O daughters of Ierusalem, if yee find my beloved that yee tell him, that I am sicke of love.

9 What is thy beloved more then another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more then another beloved, that thou dost so charge vs?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, † the chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushie, and blacke as a Rauen.

12 His eyes are as the eyes of doves, by the rimers of water, washed with milk, and † fishie.

13 His cheekes are as a bed of spices, as † sweete flowres: his lips like lillies, dropping sweet smelling myrrhe.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the Be-pill. His belly is as bright Iuory, enclaud with Saffron.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set vpon sockets of fine gold, his countenance is as Lebanon, exceeding as the Cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet, yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Ierusalem.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The Church professeth her faith in Chrif, 2 Chrif sheweth the graces of the Church, 3 and bidde love towards her.

Whether is thy beloved gone? O thou fairest among women, whether is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seeke him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone downe into his garden, to the bed of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lillies.

3 I am my beloveds, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lillies.

4 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Ierusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

5 Turne away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flocke of goats that appeare from Gilad.

6 Thy teeth are as a flocke of sheep which goe vp from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

7 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy Temples within thy lockes.

8 There are threescore Queene, and fourscore concubines, and virgines without number.

9 My dove, my undefiled is but one: she is the only one of her mother, she is the choyce one of her that bore her: The daughters saw her and blessed her, praye the Queene and the concubines, and they praised her.

10 Who is she that looketh forth, as the morning: pure as the Moone, cleare as the Sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

11 I went downe into the garden of nuts, to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranets budded.

12 Orner I was aware: my soule made mee like the charrets of Amminadab.

13 Returne, returne, O Sulamite: returne, returne, that we may looke vpon thee: what will yee see in the Sulamite? as if were the company of two armies.

CHAPTER VII.

1 A further description of the Church her graces, 2 The Church professeth her faith and desire.

How beautiful are thy feet with shooes, O Princes daughter? the ioynts of thy thighs are like Iewels, the worke of the hands of a cunning workeman.

2 Thy navel is like a round goblet which waueth not † liquor: thy belly is like an heape of wheat, set about with lillies.

3 Thy two breasts are like two young Roes that are twins.

4 Thy necke is as a tower of Iuory: thine eyes like the fish-poolles in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon, which looketh toward Damaskus.

5 Thine head vpon thee is like Carmel, and the haire of thine head like purple: the King is held in the galleries.

6 How faire, and how pleasant art thou, O lone, for delights!

7 Thus thy stature is like to a palme tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

8 I said, I will goe vp to the palme tree, I will take hold of the boughes thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples.

12 Let vs get vp early to the vineyards, let vs see

1 The loue of the Church to Christ. 2 The vnto-merry of loue. 3 The calling of the Gentiles. 24
The Church preys for Christ comming.

O That thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother, when I should find thee without, I would kisse thee, yet if I should not be despised.

1 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mothers house, who would instruct me: I would caue thee to drinke of spiced wine of the iuice of my pomegranate.

2 His left hand should be vnder my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

3 I charge you, O daughters of Ierusalem, that ye stir not vp, nor awake my loue vntill he please.

THE BOOKE OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Iudah for her rebellion, ¶ Hee lamenteth her iudgements. 10 Hee vphold-eth her whole seruice. 16 Hee rebueth her repentance, with promises and threatenings. 21 Reuailing their wickedness, hee denounceth Gods iudgements. 25 Hee promyseth grace, 28 and threat-neth destruction to the wicked.

¶ E vision of Isaiah the sonne of Am-oz which he saw concerning Iudah, and Ierusalem, in the daies of Vzziah, Iothan, Ahaz, and Mizekiab, Kings of Iudah.

1 Heare, O heaunes, and giue eare, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken: I haue nourished & brought vp children, and they haue rebelled against me.

2 The one knoweth his owner, and the other his masters cribe: but littell doth man know, my people doeth not consider.

3 Ah full nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of enill doers, children that are corrupt: they haue forsaken the LORD, they haue provoked the holy One of Israel vnto anger, they are y^e gone away backward.
4 ¶ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will y^e resack more and more: the whole head is sicke, and the whole heart faint.

5 From the sole of the foot, euen vnto the head there is no soundness in it, but wounds & bruises, and purifying sores, they haue not been closed, neither bound vp, neither mollified with ointment.

6 Your countrey is a desolation, your cities are desert with fire: your land strangers denoure it in your presence, and it is desolate, y^e as quarters vnto strangers.

7 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage

¶ Who is this that cometh vp from the wil-dernes, leaning vpon her beloved? I raised thee vp vnder the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee fourth, there she brought thee fourth, that bare thee.

¶ Set me as a seale vpon thine heart, as a seale vpon thine arme: for loue is strong as death, insolence is y^e cruel: as the grauecake is the thirst thereof, which hath a most vehement flame.
¶ Many waters cannot quench loue, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all substance of his house for loue, it would vtrly be counted as nothing.

¶ We haue a little sister, and shee hath no breasts: what shall we doe for our sister, in the day when she shall be spoken for?

¶ If she be a wall, we will build vpon her a palace of silver: and if she be a doore, we will enclose her with boards of Cedar.
¶ I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found y^e fauour.

¶ Solomon had a vineyard at Beth-hamon: he let out the vineyard vnto keepers: euery one for the fruit thereof, was to bring a thominie peece of silver.
¶ My vineyard which is mine, is before me: thou (O Solomon) must haue a thousand, and those that keepe the fruit thereof, two hundred.

¶ Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: canst thou not heare it.

¶ Make haste my beloved, & be thou like to a Mall
Koe, or to a young Hart vpon y^e mountains of spices.

in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

¶ Except the LORD of hosts had left vnto vs a very small remnant, we should haue bin as Sodom, and we should haue bene like vnto Gomorrah.

¶ Heare the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom: Giue eare vnto the Law of our GOD, yee people of Gomorrah.

¶ To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices vnto me, saith the LORD? I am full of the burnt offerings of rammes, and the fat of fed beasts, and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of y^e hee goates.

¶ When ye come to y^e appeare before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

¶ Bring no more vaine oblations, incense is an abomination vnto me: the new Moones and Sabbaths, the calling of assemblies I cannot away with,
if it y^e iniquity, euen the solemn meeting.

¶ Your new Moones, and your appointed feasts my soule hateth: they are a trouble vnto me, I am weary to beare them.

¶ And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye y^e make many prayers, I will not heare: your hands are full of blood.

¶ Waite ye, make ye cleane, put away the euill of your doings: from before mine eyes, cease ye to doe euill.

¶ Learn to doe well, seek indigence: ye relieue the oppressed, iudge the fatherlesse, plead for y^e widow.

¶ Come now and let vs reason together, saith the LORD: though your sinnes be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: though they be red like crimson, they shall be as small.

¶ If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eate the good of the land.

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be destroyed with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 How is the faithful city become an harlot!
it was full of iudgement, righteousness lodged in it, but now murderers.

22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixt with water.

23 Thy Princes are rebellious, and companions of the worst: every one bouch gifts, and followeth after reward: they iudge not the fatherlesse, neither doth the cause of the widow come vnto them.

24 Therefore sith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel; Ah, I will ease mee of mine aduersaries, and avenge mee of mine enemies,

25 And I will turne my hand vpon thee, and I will purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy sinne.

26 And I will restore thy iudgements at the first, and thy Counsellors as at the beginning: alter-ward thou shalt bee called the City of righteous-nesse, the faithfull City.

27 Zion shall be redeemed with iudgement, and her countres with righteousness.

28 And the iustification of the transgressors, and of the sinners shall bee together: and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

29 For they shall be ashamed of the oakes which ye haue desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens, that ye haue chosen.

30 For ye shall be as an oake whose leafe fade-th, and as a garden that hath no water.

31 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a sparke, and they shall both burne together, and none shall quench them.

CHAP. III.

1 Isaiah prophesith the coming of Christs Kingdome, & Wickednesse as the cause of Gods forsaking, to the rebirth to haue, because of the powerfull effills of Gods Maiesty,

The word that Isaiah the sonne of Amos saw, concerning Iudah and Ierusalem.

2 And it shall come to passe in the last dayes, that the mountain of the LORDS house shall bee established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted aboue the hills; and all nations shall flow vnto it.

3 And many people shall goe and say, Come ye and let vs goe vp to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Iacob, and he will teach vs of his wayes, and we will walke in his pathes: for out of Zion shall goe forth the Law, and the word of the LORD from Ierusalem.

4 And he shall iudge among nations, and shall rebuke many people: they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their speares into pruning hookes: nation shall not lift vp sword against nation, neither shall they learne warre any more.

5 O house of Iacob, come ye, and let vs walke
in the light of the LORD.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people, the house of Iacob: because they are reprobated from the East, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please them themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures: their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.

8 Their land also is full of idols: they worship the worke of their owne hands, that which their owne fingers haue made.

9 And the meane man boweth downe, and the great man humblyeth himselfe; therefore forgine them not.

10 Enter into the rocke, and hide thee in the dust, for feare of the LORD, and for the glory of his Maiesty.

11 The lofty lookes of man shall be humbled, & the haughtinesse of man shall bee bowed downe:
and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall bee vpon every one that is proud and lofty, and vpon every one that is lifted vp, and he shall be broght lowe:

13 And vpon all the Cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted vp, and vpon all the oakes of Bashan,

14 And vpon all the high mountains, and vpon all the hills that are lifted vp,

15 And vpon every high tower, and vpon every fenced wall,

16 And vpon all the ships of Tarshish, and vpon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftynesse of man shall be bowed downe, & the haughtinesse of man shall be made lowe:
and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And they shall goe into the holes of the rockes, and into the caves of the earth, for feare of the LORD, and for the glory of his Maiesty:

19 when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver & his idols of gold, which they made each one for himselfe to worship, to the Moles, & to the Bats, and into the tops of the ragged rockes, and into the clefts of the rockes, and into the tops of the ragged rockes, for feare of the LORD, and for the glory of his Maiesty: when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

21 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

CHAP. III.

1 The great confusion which cometh by the impudency of the people. 2 The oppression and courtesie of the rulers. 3 The iudgements which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR behold, the LORD of hosts doeth
I take away from Ierusalem, and from Iudah, the stay and the staffe, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man, & the man of war, the ledge, and the Prophete, and the prudent, and the ancient.

3 The captaine of fifty, and the honourable man, and the Counsellor, and the cunning Atticker, and the eloquent Orator.

4 And I will giue children to be their Princes, and babes shall rule ouer them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behaue himselfe proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When a man shall take hold of his brother, of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing be thou our Ruler, and let this raine be vnder thy hand:

7 In that day I shall be sworne, saying, I will not be an healer: for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people, the house.

8 For Ierusalem is ruined, and Iudah is fallen:
because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, so provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 The shew of their countenances doeth witness against them, and they declare their sinne: so doth they hide it not: woe vnto their iouale, for they haue rewarded euill vnto them selves.

holy one of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it.

20 ¶ Wee vnto them that call euill good, and good euill, that put darknesse for light, and light for darknesse, that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter.

21 ¶ Wee vnto them that are wile in their own eyes, and prudent in their owne sight.

22 ¶ Wee vnto them that are magyke to drinke wine, and mea of strength to mingle strong drink.

23 Which will be the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousnesse of the righteous from him.

24 Therefore as the tree denoueth the stubble, and the floure consumeth the chaffe, so their roote shall be rottenne, and their blossome shall geue vp as duft because they haue cast away the Law of the LoRD of hostes, and despised the word of the holy One of Israel.

25 Therefore is the anger of the LoRD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them, and the hills did tremble, and their carraiges were broken in the middle of the streets: for all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

26 ¶ And he will lift vp an ensigne to the nations from farre, and will haue vnto them from the end of the earth: and behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.

27 None shall be weary, nor stumbe amongst them, none shall slumber nor sleepe, neither shall the girdle of their bowes be loosd, nor the lance of their armes broken.

28 Whole arrowes are sharpe, & all their bowes bent, their horses bowes shall be counted like flint, and their whelles like a whirlewind.

29 Their roaring shall be like a lyon, they shall roare like young lions, yea, they shall roare and lay hold on the prey, and shall carry it away late, and none shall ouercome them.

30 And so that they they shall roare against them like the roaring of the Sea: and if one looke vnto the land, because of darknesse and shadow, and the light is darkened in the hauiens thereof.

CHAP. VI.

1 ¶ I beheld a vision of the LoRD in his glory, & he spake vnto me, saying, I haue comforted you for your message, & he sheweth the obduracy of the people vnto their desolation. 2 ¶ A seaman shall be iudged.

3 ¶ In the yere that King Vzziah died, I saw also the LoRD sitting vpon a throne, high and lifted vp, and his traine filled the Temple.

4 About it stood the Seraphims: each one had six winges: with twaine he covered his face, & with twaine he covered his feet, and with twaine he did flye.

5 And one cryed vnto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LoRD of hostes, & the whole earth is full of his glory.

6 And the posts of the door were moued at the voyce of him that cryed, and the house was filled with smoke.

7 ¶ Then said I, Woe is me, for I am vndone, because I am a man of vncleane lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of vncleane lips: for mine eyes haue seene the King, the LoRD of hostes.

8 ¶ Then saw one of the Seraphims vnto me, & thrawing a live coale in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the Altar.

9 And he laid it vpon my mouth, and said, See, this hath touched thy lips, and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sinne purged,

8 Also heard the voyce of the LoRD, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will goe for vs? Then I said, I haue am I, send me.

9 ¶ And he said, goe and tell this people, Heare ye indeed, but vnderstand not: & see ye indeed, but perceiue not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their eares heauie, & that their eyes, least they see with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their heart, & come, and be healed.

11 Then said I, LoRD, how long? And he answered, Vntill the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate.

12 And the LoRD haue removed men far away, & there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 ¶ But yett in it shall be a tenth, & it shall returne, and it shall be eaten as a Tyle-tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaues: so the holy Ierusalem shall be the habitation thereof.

14 ¶ Or, when it is returned, and hath become brewdry, & stocke, & flammes.

CHAP. VII.

1 ¶ Ahas bring troubled with feare of Rezin and Pekah, is comforted by Isaiab. 2 ¶ Ahas having liberty to chuse a signe, and refusing it, hath for a signe, Christs promise. 3 ¶ His iudgement is prophesied to come by Affria.

¶ And it came to passe in the dayes of Ahas the son of Iotham, the son of Ozias King of Iudah, that Rezin the King of Syria, and Pekah the sonne of Reman the King of Israel, went vp towards Ierusalem, to war against it, but could not preuaile against it.

2 And it was told the house of Dauid, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim: and his heart was moued, and the heart of his people as the trees of the wood are moued with the wind.

3 Then said the LoRD vnto Isaiab, Goe forth now to meet Ahas, thou and Isaiab, & Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of the brooke, of the upper pool, in the high way of the fullers field.

4 And say vnto him, Take heed and be quiet: Feare not, for neither be I comforted, for the twa taires of these smoking chibranes, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the sonne of Reman.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Reman, haue taken euill counsell against thee, saying,

6 Let vs goe against Iudah, and let vs make a breach therein for vs, and let a King in the midst of it, even the sonne of Tabeal.

7 Thus saith the LoRD God, it shall not stand: neither shall it come to passe.

8 For the head of Syria is, Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin, and within three score and five yeres shall Ephraim be broken, & that is be vnto a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliahs son: & if ye will not beleue, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ Moreover the LoRD spake againe vnto Ahas, saying,

11 Alie ther a signe of the LoRD thy God? I will it either in the depth, or in the height above.

12 But Ahas said, I will not doe, neither will I tempt the LoRD.

13 And he said, Heare ye now, O house of Dauid, is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the LoRD himselfe shall giue you a signe.

16 Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a sonne, and ſhall call his name Immanuel.
17 Butter and honey ſhall he eat, that he may know to refuse the euill and chuse the good.
18 For before the child ſhall know to refuse the euill, and chuse the good, the land that thou abhorrest ſhall be forsaken of both her kings.

19 ¶ The LORD shall bring vpon thee, and vpon thy people, and vpon thy fathers house, dayes that haue not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Iudah, saith the King of Assyria.

20 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall hide for the Flie that is in the uttermost part of the riuers of Egypt, and for the Bee that is in the land of Assyria.

21 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and vpon all thornes, and vpon all bushes.

22 In the same day shall the Lord shine with a raser that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the King of Assyria, the head and the haire of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

23 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheepe.

24 And it shall come to passe, for the abundance of milke that they shall giue, he shall care better: for butter and honey shall eury one eat that is left in the land.

25 And it shall come to passe in that day, that euery place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand bluerings, it shall euen be for briars and thornes.

26 With arrowe and with bowes shall men come thither: because all the land shall become briars and thornes.

27 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattocke, there shall not come thither the teare of briars and thornes: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattell.

CHAP. VIII.

1 In Ma-her-shal-haish-baz, he prophesied, that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria: & Iacob likewise for their infidelity. Gods iudgements shall be terrible. 2 Comfort shall bee to them that feare God. 3 Great afflictions to Idolaters.

Moreouer, the LORD said vnto me, Take thee a great roule, and write in it with a mans pen, concerning Ma-her-shal-haish-baz.

2 And I rooke vnto me faithfull witnesses to record, Vriah the Priest, and Zechariah the sonne of Bibeiah.

3 And I went vnto the Prophetsse, and shee conceived and bare a sonne, then said the LORD to me, Call his name Ma-her-shal-haish-baz.

4 For before the child shall haue knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the Tribes of Dan, Iuda, and the Royall of Samaria shall be taken away before the King of Assyria.

5 ¶ The LORD spake also vnto me saying

6 For so much as this people refuse to hearken the waters of Shiloah that goe softly, and reioyce in Rezin, and Remaliahs house:

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth vpon them the waters of the river, strong, and many, euen the King of Assyria and all his glory: and he shall come vp ouer all his channells, and goe ouer all his bankes.

8 And hee shall passe thorow Iudah, he shall ouerflow and goe ouer: he shall reach euen to the secke: and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

9 ¶ Associate your selues, O ye people of ye same countries: gird your selues, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird your selues, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

10 Take counsell together, and it shall come to nought: speake the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with vs.

11 ¶ For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me, that I should not walke in the way of this people, saying, 12 Say ye not, A confederacy to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither feare ye their feare, nor be afraid.

13 Sanctifie the LORD of hosts himselfe, and let him be your feare, and let him be your dread.

14 And he shall be for a Sanctuary; but for a Stone of stumbling, and for a rocke of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin, and for a snare to the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

15 And many among them shall stumble, and shall fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

16 Bind vp the Testimony, seale the law among my Disciples.

17 And I will write vpon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Iacob, and I will looke for him.

18 Behold, I, and the children whom the LORD hath giuen me, are for signes, and for wonders in Israel: from the LORD of hosts which dwelleth in mount Zion.

19 ¶ And when they shall say vnto you, Seek vnto them that haue familiar spirits, and vnto wizards that peepe and their mutter: should not a people seeke vnto their God? for the lining to the dead?

20 ¶ To the Law and to the Testimony: if they speake not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

21 And they shall passe thorow it, hardly because they are hungry: and it shall come to passe, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their King, and their God, and looke upward.

22 And they shall looke vnto the earth: and behold trouble and darkenesse, dimnesse of anguish: and they shall be driuen to darkenesse.

CHAP. IX.

1 But ioy shall be in the midst of afflictions by the Kingdoms and birth of Christ, & the iudgements vpon Israel for their pride: for their impietie, & for their impentencie.

Nesthethelie, the dimnesse shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first hee lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun, and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grieuously afflict her by the way of the Sea, beyond Iordan in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkenesse, haue seene a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, vpon them hath the light shined.

3 Thou hast multiplied the Nation, and hast not increased the ioy: they ioy before thee, according to the ioy in harueth, and as men reioyce when they diuide the spoyle.

4 ¶ For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staffe of his shoulder, and the rod of his oppressour, as in the day of Midian.

5 ¶ For eury battell of the warrior is with vaine confidence voyde, and garments rolled in blood: &

19. And shall lift up his staff against thee; after the manner of ^{the} Egypt.
 20 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.
 21 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him, according to the slaughter of ^{the} Midian at the rock Oreb; and his rod shall be upon the Sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of ^{the} Egypt.
 22 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.
 23 He is come to Aith, he is justified to Migron: at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages.
 24 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba, Ramah is afraid, Gibeah of Saul is fled.
 25 Lift up the voice, O daughter of Gallim: stand it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.
 26 Madmah is removed, the inhabitants of Gebin gather themselves to flee.
 27 As yet shall it remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his rod against the mount of the daughter of Zion, in the hill of Jerusalem.
 28 Behold the Lord, the LORD of hosts shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewen downe, and the haughty shall be humbled.
 29 And hee shall cut downe the thickets of the forest, and with yron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

CHAP. XI.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocations of the Gentiles.
 1 All these shall come forth a rod out of the stump of ^{the} Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots.
 2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him: the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge, and of the feare of the LORD.
 3 And shall make him of ^{the} quicke understanding in the feare of the LORD, and he shallUDGE after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his eares.
 4 But with righteousness shall he iudge the poore, and reprove with equity, for the meane of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he lay the wicked.
 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loines, and faithfulness the girdle of his reines.
 6 The wolfe also shall dwell with the lambe, and the leopard shall lie downe with the kid: and the calfe, and the young Ioue, and the falling together, and a little child shall lead them.
 7 And the cow and the beere shall feed, their young ones shall lie downe together: and the lion shall eat straw like the oxe.
 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the Aspe, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice den.
 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountaine: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the Sea.
 10 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensigne of the people: to it shall the Gentiles seeke, and his rest shall be glorious.
 11 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall be hid againe the second time, to recober the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, & from Patros and from Cath, and from Elam, and from Sinar, and from Hamath, and from the Islands of the Sea.

 12 And he shall set up an ensigne for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Iudah from the four corners of the earth.
 13 The cruell also of Ephraim shall depart, & the armyes of Iudah shall be cut off: the king shall not come to Iudah, and Iudah shall not vexe Ephraim.
 14 But they shall be upon the shoulder of the Philistines toward the West, they shall fight with the East together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon shall obey them.
 15 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian Sea, and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the lower streames, and make men goe amer ^{the} dry shod.
 16 And there shall be an high way for the remnant of his people, which shall be left from Assyria: like as it was to Israel, in the day that he came up out of the land of ^{the} Egypt.

CHAP. XII.

1 A prophesie touching the fruitfullnes of the mercies of God.
 2 And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wilt angry with me, thine anger is turned away, & thou comfortest me.
 3 Because God is my salvation: I will trust, and will not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength, and my Song, he also is become my salvation.
 4 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.
 5 And in that day shall ye say, Praise ^{the} LORD, I call upon his Name, declare his things among the people, make mention that his Name is exalted.
 6 Sing unto the LORD: for he hath done excellent things: this is knowne in all the earth.
 7 Cry out, & shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

CHAP. XIII.

1 God mulseth the armie of his wrath, & he threateneth to destroy Babylon by the Medes. 19 The desolation of Babylon.
 2 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amos did see.
 3 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountaine, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may goe into the gates of the Nobles.
 4 I have comforted many fastidious ones: I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoyce in my highnes.
 5 The noise of a multitude in the mountaine, like as of a great people: a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mulseth the horse of the burrell.
 6 They come from a far country, from the end of heauen, even the LORD, and the weapon of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.
 7 Howle ye, for the day of the LORD is at hand: it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.
 8 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man heart shall melt.
 9 And they shall be afraid: paine, and sorrowes shall take hold of them, they shall be in paine, as a woman that travaileth: they shall bee amazed, as thou art amazed, they shall be as a woman that travaileth.
 10 Behold the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both both with wrath & fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: & he shall destroy y^e sinners thereof out of it.

10 For the stars of heaven, and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the Sunne shall be darkened in his going forth, and the Moone shall not cause her light to shine.

11 And I will punish the world for their euill, and the wicked for their iniquity, and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtynesse of the terrible.

12 I will make a man more precious then fine gold: euen a man then the golden wedge of Ophir.

13 Therefore I will shake y^e heavens and the earth shall remouen out of her place in the wrath of the Lord of hostes, and in the day of his fierce anger.

14 And it shall be as the chafed Reo, and as a sheepe that no man taketh vpon they shall enery man turne to his owne people, and flee euery one into his owne land.

15 Euerie one that is found, shall bee thrust thorow, and euery one that is ioyued vnto them shall fall by the sword.

16 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes, their houes shall be spoyed, and their wiues roushed.

17 Behold, I will stirre vp the Medes against thee, which shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall haue delight in it.

18 Therefore also shall dash the young men to pieces, and they shall haue no pity on the fruit of the wombe; their eyes shall not spare children.

19 ¶ And Babylon the glory of Kingdomes, the beauty of the Chaldees excellency shall be as when God ouerthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

20 It shall neuer be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation, neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there, neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

21 Buc y^e wild beasts of the desert shall lie there, and their howles shall be full of y^e dolefull creatures, and Owies shall dwell there, and Scarpes shall dwel there.

22 And the wild y^e beasts of the land shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasure palace: and her time is sore to come, and her dayes shall not be prolonged.

CHAP. XIII.

The destruction of the nation of Israel, & their triumphant insultation over Babel. Gods purpose against Affria. Palestina is sheweth.

1 For the Lord will haue mercy on Iacob, and will yet shew Israel, and set them in their owne land: and the strangers shall be ioyued with them, and they shall cleare to the house of Iacob.

2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the Lord, for seruants and hand-maides: and they shall take them captiues, y^e whose countries they were, and they shall rule ouer their oppressors.

3 And it shall come to passe, in the day that the Lord shall giue thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy feare, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serue,

4 ¶ That thou shalt take vp this y^e promise against the King of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased? the golden city ceased? 5 The Lord hath broken the staffe of the wicked, and the scepter of the rulers.

6 He who smote the people in wrath with y^e conspauill stroke: he that ruled the nations in anger, is perished, and was hindered.

7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they breake forth into singing.

8 Yea the firre trees reioyce at thee, and the Cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid downe, no seller is come vp against vs.

9 ¶ Hell from beneath is moued for thee, to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth vp the dead for thee, euen all the chief ones of the earth: it hath caised vp from their thrones, all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall speake, and say vnto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? Art thou become like vnto vs?

11 Thy pompe is brought downe to the ground, and the noise of thy viols: the worne is vnder thee, and the wormes couer thee.

12 How art thou fallen from heauen, O Lucifer sonne of the morning? how art thou cut downe to the ground, which didst weaken the nations?

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heauen, I will exalt my throne aboue the stars of God: I will sit also vpon the mount of the Congregation in the sides of the North.

14 I will ascend aboue the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

15 Yet thou shalt be brought downe to hell, to the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee, shall narrowly looke vpon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, y^e did shake kingdomes?

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof, y^e that opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the Kings of the nations, euen all of them lie in glory, eueny one in his owne house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy graue, like an abominable branch: and as the raiment of thine that are flaine, thrust throw with a sword, that goe downe to the stouey of the pit, as a carcasse troden vnder feet.

20 Thou shalt not be ioyued with them in buriall, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of euill doers shall neuer be renowred.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children, for the iniquity of their fathers, that they doe not rise, nor possesse the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise vp against them, saith the Lord of hostes, and cut off from Babylon the name and remnant, and soane, and nephew, saith the Lord.

23 I will also make it a possession for the bitterne, and pooles of water; and I will sweepe it with the brimstone of destruction, saith the Lord of hostes.

24 ¶ The Lord of hostes hath sworn, saying, Surely, as I haue thought, so shall it come to passe, and as I haue purposed, so shall it stand:

25 That I will breake the Assyrian in my land, and vpon my mountains tread him vnder foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed vpon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out vpon all the nations.

27 For the Lord of hostes hath purposed, and who shall disannull it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turne it backe?

28 In the yeare that King Abaz died, was this burden.

the needy shall lie down in safety, and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall say thy remnant.
31 Howle, O gaze, cry, O city, thou whole Palestina art distressed, for there shall come from the North a smoke, and knowe shall alone in his appointed times.

of the nation that the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

CHAPTER XV.

The lamentable state of Moab.
The burden of Moab: because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and I brought to silence, because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence:
1 He is gone up to Baith, and to Dibon, the high places, weeping Moab shall howle out Nebo, and ower Medeba, on all their heads shall be baldnesse, and every beard cut off.
2 In their rivers they shall gird themselves with sacks of chace: ou he tops of their houses, and in their fences every one shall howle, weeping abundantly.
3 And Habbon shall cry, and Eleah: their voyses shall he heard even unto Iahaz: therefore the armes founders of Moab shall cry out, his life shall be grievous unto him, 4 My heart shall cry out for Moab, his fugitives shall see unto Zoan, as a heifer of three yeres old; for by the mounting up of Zabith, with weeping shall they see it up: for in the way of Horo-naim, they shall raise up a cry of destruction.
5 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate for the hay is withered away, the graze faileth, there is no greene thing.
6 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brooke of the willows.
7 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab: the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof vnto Beer-Elim.
8 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood:
for I will bring more vpon Dimon, I yons vpon him that escapeth of Moab, and vpon the remnant of the land.

CHAPTER XVI.

Moab is exhorted to yield obedience to Christs Kingdome, Moab is rebuked for her pride, the Prophecies are set forth: To the indignation of Moab
1 And ye the lame to the ruler of the land, from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.
2 For it shall be that as a wandering bird I call out of the nest: so the daughters of Moab shall be as the fowles of Arnon.
3 Take counsell, execute judgement, make thy shadow as the night in the middelt of the noons day: hide the one cast, bewray not him that wondereth.
4 Let mine one cast dwell with thee, Moab, be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler:
for the extortioener is as an end, the spoiles ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.
5 And in mercy shall the throne be established, and he shall sit vpon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, in judging, and seeking judgement, and having righteousnesse.
6 We have heard of the pride of Moab (he is very proud) once of his haughty place, and his pride, and his wrath, but his lies shall not be so.

7 Therefore shall Moab howle for Moab, every one shall howle: for the foundations of Kirhate-feth shall be in mourning, surely they are stricken.
8 For the helms of Hethion languish, and the vine of Sibmah, the lords of the heathen have broken downe the principall plants thereof, they are come euen vnto Iahaz, they wandered through the wildernes, the branches are stretched out, they are gone out to the sea.
9 Therefore I will bewaile with the weeping of Iazer, the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my teares, O Hethion, and Eleah: for the thou-ing for thy Summer fruits, and for thy husbandry is fallen.
10 And gladnes is taken away, and ioy out of the plentyfull field, and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses: I have made their vintage-shouting to cease.
11 Wherefore my howells shall sound like an harpe for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirhate-feth:
12 And it shall come to passe, when it is seene that Moab is weary on the Iug's place, that he shall come to his Sanctuary to praye: but he shall not preuaile.
13 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.
14 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying,
Within three yeres, as the yeres of an hiring, and the glory of Moab shall be cutten off, with all that great multitude: and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

CHAPTER XVII.

Syria and Israel are threatened, Armenia shall forsake idolatry, the rest shall be plagued for their impiety: is the war of Israels enemies.
The burden of Damascus: Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heape.
1 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks which shall lie downe, and none shall make them afraid.
2 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim;
and the kingdome from Damascus, and the remannt of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of Hosts.
3 And in that day it shall come to passe, that the glory of Iacob shall be made thine, and the stone of his Beth shall waxe Iane.
4 And it shall be as when the harvest man gathereth the come, and tcepth the eares with his arme, and it shall be as he that gathereth eares in the valley of Rephaim.
5 (Yet gleaning-grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an Olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough: soure of one in the eucmost fruitfull branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.
6 At that day shall a man looke to his Maker, and his eyes shall haue respect to the holy One of Israel.
7 And he shall not looke to the alters, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers haue made, either the grooves, or the images.
8 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch which they left, because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.
9 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy saluation, and hast not been mindfull of the rocke of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips.

11 In the day shalt thou make thy plaine to grow and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be 7 heape in the day of griefe, and of desperate sorrow.

12 ¶ Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the sea, and to the rubbing of nations, that make a rubbing like the rushing of mighty waters.

13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall see their end, and shall be chaled as the chaffe of the mountains before the wind, and like a proling thing before the whirlwind.

14 And behold, at evening time trouble, and before the morning he is not: this is the portion of them that spoile vs, & the lot of them that rob vs.

C H A P. XVIII.

1 God in care of his people will destroy the Ethiopians:
An asse shall grow to the Church.

W Oe to the land flouding with waters, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

1 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of gold: upon the waters, saying, Go ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto, a nation meted out, and troden downe, whose land the rivers have spoiled.

2 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he listeth up an ensigne on the mountains, and when he bloweth a trumpet, heare ye.

3 For so the LORD said vnto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a cleare heart upon herbes, and like a cloud of dew in the heart of harvest.

4 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sower grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hookes, and take away, and cut downe the branches.

5 They shall be left together vnto the foules of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the foules shall summer vpon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter vpon them.

6 ¶ In that time shall the prey be brought vnto the LORD of hostes, of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out, and troden vnder foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the Name of the LORD of hostes, the mount Zion.

C H A P. XIX.

1 The confusion of Egypt, 11 The foolishnesse of their Princes. 12 The calling of Egypt to the Church.

13 The courtour of Egypt, Assyria, and Israel.
14 The burden of Egypt: Behold, the LORD sideth vpon a swit cloud, and shall come into Egypt, and the idols of Egypt shall be moued at his presence:
the heart of Egypt shall sick in the midst of it.

15 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: they shall fight every one against his brother, every one against his neighbour, citie against citie, kingdom against kingdom.

16 And the spirit of Egypt shall faile in the midst thereof, and I will destroy the counsell thereof: and they shall seeke to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that haue familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

17 And the Egyptians will I giue ouer into the hand of a cruell lord, and a fierce King shall rule ouer them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hostes.

18 And the water shall faile from the sea, and the river shall be walked and dried vp.

19 And they shall curse the rivers for water, and the brookes of defence shall be emptied, and dried vp: the reeds and flags shall wither.

20 The paper reeds by the brooke, by the mouth of the brooke, and every thing sower by the brooke shall wither, be driuen away, and be no more.

21 The fishers also shall sorrow, as at they then cast angle into the brookes, shall lament, and they that spread nettes upon the waters, shall languish.

22 Moreover, they that worke in fine flaxe, and they that wane net-workes, shall be confounded.

23 And they shall be broken in the purpose thereof, all their nettes floues and ponds: for fishing.

24 Surely the Princes of Zoon are fooles, the counsell of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye vnto Pharaoh, I am the sonne of the wife, the sonne of ancient Kings?

25 Where are they? where are they which said and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hostes hath purposed vnto Egypt.

26 The Princes of Zoon are become fooles: the Princes of Noph are deceiued, they haue also seduced Egypt, as they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

27 The LORD hath mingled a penerse spirit in the midst thereof: and they haue caused Egypt to erre in every worke thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

28 Neither shall there be any worke for Egypt, which the head or taile, branch or rush may doe.

29 In that day shall Egypt be like vnto women, and it shall bee afraid, and feare, because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hostes, which he shaketh ouer it.

30 And the land of Iudah shall be a terrour vnto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himselfe, because of the counsell of the LORD of hostes, which hath determined against it.

31 ¶ In that day shall fine critics in the land of Egypt speake their language of Canaan, and sweare to the LORD of hostes: one shall be called the city of destruction.

32 In that day shall there be an Altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

33 And it shall be for a signe and for a witnesse vnto the LORD of hostes in the land of Egypt, for they shall cry vnto the LORD because of the oppressions, and he shall send them a Saviour, and a great One, and he shall deliuer them.

34 And the LORD shall be knowne to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall doe sacrifice and oblation, as they shall vow a vow vnto the LORD, and performe it.

35 And the LORD shall smite Egypt, hee shall smite and heale it, and they shall returne againe to the LORD, and he shall be entreated of them, and shall heale them.

36 ¶ In that day shall there be a high way betwixt Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serue with the Assyrians.

37 In that day shall Israel bee the third with Egypt, and with Assyria, as a blessing in the midst of the land:

38 Whom the LORD of hostes shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

C H A P. XX.

1 Type representing the shameful captivity of Egypt and Ethiopia.

IN the year that Tyrus came to Ashdod (when Sargon the King of Assyria beat him) and fought against Ashdod, and took it :

2 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the sonne of Amos, saying, Goe and loose the sackcloth from thy loynes, and put off thy shoe from thy foot : and he did so, walking naked, and bare foot.

3 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and bare-foot three yeeres, for a signe and wonder vpon Egypt, and vpon Ethiopia :

4 So shall the King of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captiues, yong and old, naked and bare-foot, euen with their buttocks vncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

5 And thy shall be afraid, and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

6 And the inhabitant of this Isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation whither we see for helpe, to bee deliuered from the King of Assyria : and how shall we escape ?

1 The Prophet denouncing the captivity of his people, (such is a vision the fall of Babylon by the Medes and Persians. 11 Edom scorning the Prophet, is moued to repentance. 13 The first sinne of Arabias calamity.

THE burden of the desert of the sea. At which le- winds in the South passe thorow, so it cometh from the desert from a terrible land.

2 A terrible vision is declared vnto me. The treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth : Go vp, O Elam, to Besuge, O Media : all the fighting thereof haue I banded to cease.

3 Therefore are my loines filled with paine, pangs haue taken hold vpon mee, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth : I was bowed downe at the hearing of it, I was dismayed at the seeing of it.

4 My heart pained, fearefulnesse awrighted me : the night of my pleasure hath bee turned into feare vnto me.

5 Prepare the table, watch in the watch tower, ear, driueth : arise ye princes, and smite the shield.

6 For thus hath the LORD said vnto me, Go see a watchman, let him declare what hee seeth.

7 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels ; and hee hearkened diligently with much heed.

8 And he cried, A I yon, my lord, I stand continually vpon the watch-tower in the day time, and I am set in my ward all whole night.

9 And behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen : and hee answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and all the grauen images of her gods he hath broken vnto ground.

10 O my sheathing, and the corner of my shooes : that which I haue heard of the LORD of hostes : the God of Israel, haue I declared vnto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Danak. He calleth to me out of Scir, W watchman, what of the night watchman, what of the night ?

12 The watchman said, the morning cometh, and also the night : if ye will enquire, enquire ye : returne, come.

13 ¶ The burden vpon Arabia. In the Forrest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye traunling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water vnto him that was thirstie, they presented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from the sword, from the drawne sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grimour of warre.

16 For thus hath the LORD said vnto me, Within a yeere, according to the yeeres of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall faile.

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar shall be diminished ; for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

C H A P. XXII.

1 The Prophet denouncing the invasion of Iury by the Persians. 8 He reprooueth their humane wisdom and worldly top. 15 He prophesieth Sionns depriuation : 20 and Ekhams prefiguring the Kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone vp to the house tops ?

2 Thou that art full of flirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city : thy flaine men are not blame with the sword, nor dead in battell.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers : all that are found in thee, are bound together, which haue fled from terre.

4 Therefore said I, I looke away from me, I will weep bitterly, labour : not for comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading downe, and of perplexity, by the LORD God of hosts in the valley of vision, in being about the walls, and of crying to the mountaynes.

6 And Elam bare the quiner with charres of men, and horsemen, and hit vnto our shield.

7 And it shall come to passe that by a channell valleys shall be full of charres, and the horsemen shall set themselves in aray at the gate.

8 ¶ And hee discouraged the courser of Indah, and thou shalt looke in that day to the armour of the house of the Forrest.

9 Yee haue feared also the breaches of the city of Damid, that they are many, and ye gathered together the waters of the lower poole.

10 And yee haue numbered the houses of Ierusalem, and the houses haue ye broken downe to feede the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch betweene the two walls, for the water of the old poole : but yee haue not looked vnto the maker thereof, neither had respect vnto him that fastned it long agoe.

12 And in that day shall the LORD God of hostes call to weeping and to mourning, and to baldnesse, and to girding with sackcloth.

13 And behold, Ioy and gladnesse, strong oxen, and killing sheepe, eating flesh, and drinking wine, let vs eat and drinke : for to morrow we shall die.

14 And it was revealed in mine eares by the LORD of hostes : surely this iniquity shall not bee covered from you, till yee die, saith the LORD God of hostes.

15 ¶ I haue said the LORD God of hostes, Goe get thee vnto this creatur, euen vnto Shebas, which is ouer the house, and say, 16 What hast thou here, & whom hast thou here, that thou hast heere thee out a sepulchre here, as he that beweth him out a sepulchre on high, and findeth that graue an habitation for himselfe in a socket ?

17 Behold, if the LORD will carry thee away with a feyghty captiue, and will surely come there.

18 He will surely violently turne and toss thee like a ball into a large countrey : there shalt thou die, and there the charres of thy glory shall bee the shame of thy lords house.

19 And I will drive thee from thy nation, and from thy place shall he pull thee downe.

20 ¶ And it shall come to passe in that day, that I will call my servant Eiaikin the son of Hiluiah: 21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand, and he shall bee a father to the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and to the house of Iudah.

22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder: so he shall open, and none shall shut, and he shall shut, and none shall open.

23 And I will fashion him as a nail in a sure place, and he shall be for a glorious throne to his fathers house.

24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his fathers house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity: from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

25 In that day, saith the LORD of hostes, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut downe, and fall: and the burden that was upon it, shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The miserable overthrow of Tyre. 2 Their unhappy returns.

THE burthen of Tyre, Howle yet ships of Tarshish, for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, nor entering in: from the land of Chittim it is reached to them.

2 Be ye still ye inhabitants of the Ile, thou whom the merchants of Zidon that passe over the Sea, have replenished.

3 And by great waters the sted of Sihor, the haven of the fines is her returne, and she is a mart of nations.

4 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon; for the Sea hath spoken, even the strength of the Sea, saying, I trauell not, nor bring forth children, neither doe I nourish vp young men, nor ring vp virgines.

5 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

6 Passe ye over to Tarshish, howle ye inhabitants of the Ile.

7 Is this your glorious city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her owne fate shall carry her far off to sojourne.

8 Who hath taken this counsell against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are Princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

9 The LORD of hostes hath purposed it, to staine the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

10 Passe thoure thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no more strength.

11 He stretched out his hand over the Sea, hee shooke the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

12 And hee said, Thou shalt no more reioyce, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon; arise, passe over to Chittim, there also shalt thou haue no rest.

13 Behold the land of the Caldeas: this people was not till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set vp the towers thereof, they raised vp the palaces thereof, and hee brought it to mine.

14 Howle ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

15 And it shall come to passe in that day, that

Tyre shall be forgotten seventy yeeres, according to the dayes of one King: after the end of seventy yeeres shall Tyre sing as a harlot.

16 Take an harpe, goe about the city, thou harlot that hast become forgotten, make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

17 ¶ And it shall come to passe, after the end of seventy yeeres, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turne to her hire, and shall consume Ierusalem with all the kingdomes of the world, upon the face of the earth.

18 And her merchandise, and her hire shall be holiesse to the LORD: it shall not be treasured, nor laid vp: for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD to care sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 The dolefull iudgements of God upon the land. 2 A righteous shall iustly praise him, 16 God in his iudgements shall aduance his kingdome.

BEHOLD the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it wast, and turneth it upside downe, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

2 And it shall be as with the people, so with the Priest, as with the seruant, so with his master, as with the maid, so with her mistress, as with the buyer, so with the seller, as with the lender, so with the borrower, as with the taker of vsury, so with the giver of viory to him.

3 The land shall be utterly spoiled, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

4 The earth mouereth and sadeth away, the world languished and sadeth away, the haughty people of the earth doe languish.

5 The earth also is desiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they haue transgressed the Lawes, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting Cōuenant.

6 Therefore hath the curse deuoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.

7 The new wine mourneth, the vine languished the merry hearted doe sigh.

8 The mirth of dances ceaseth, the noise of them that reioyce, ceaseth, the joy of the harpe ceaseth.

9 They shall not drink wine with a song: strong drinke shall be bitter to them that drinke it.

10 The city of confusion is broken downe: every house is shut vp; that no man may come in.

11 There is a crying for wine in the streets, all ioy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.

12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is shutt in with destruction.

13 ¶ When thus it shall be in the middle of the land, among the people: there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleewing grapes when the vintage is done.

14 They shall lift vp their voyce, they shall sing for the mercie of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the Sea.

15 Wherefore glorifie ye the LORD in the skyes, own the Name of the LORD God of Israel in the Isles of the sea.

16 ¶ From the uttermost part of the earth haue we heard songs: glory to the righteous: but I said, Ioy leasse me, my leanness, woe came me, the treacherous dealers haue dealt treacherously, yea y treacherous dealers haue dealt verry treacherously.

17 Feare, and the pit, and the snare are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

18 And it shall come to passe, that he who fleeth from

CHAP. XXV.

1 The Prophet propheth God for his indignities, 6 for his ſauiug benefiſts, 9 and for his willourous ſaluation.

O LORD, thou art my God, I will exalt thee: I will reſtifie thy Name, for thou haſt done wonderfull things: thy counſels of old are faithfulle and true.

2 For thou haſt made of a city, an heape of a defenceleſſe: a ruine: a piſta e of ſtrangers, to be no city, it ſhall neuer be built.

3 Therefore ſhall the ſtrong people gloriſie thee, the city of the terrible nations ſhall feare thee.

4 For thou haſt bene a ſtrength to the poore, a ſtrength to the needy in his diſtreſſe, a refuge from the ſtorme, a ſhadow from the heat, when the blaſt of the terrible ones is as a ſtorme againſt the wall.

5 Thou ſhalt bring downe the noiſe of ſtrangers as the heat in a dry place, euen the heat with the ſhadow of a cloud, the branch of the terrible ones ſhall be brought low.

6 ¶ And in this mountaine ſhall the LORD of hoſtes make vnto all people a feaſt of fat things, a feaſt of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

7 And he will ¶ deſtroy in this mountaine the face of the coſtaring ¶ call vnto all people, and the vaine that is ſpreading ouer all nations.

8 He will diſwallow vp death in victory, and the LORD God will * wipe away teares from off all faces, and the rebuke of his people ſhall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath ſpoken it.

9 ¶ And it ſhall be ſaid in that day, Lo, this is our God, we haue waited for him, and he will ſaue vs: This is the LORD, we haue waited for him, we will be glad, and rayoyce in his ſaluation.

10 For in this mountaine ſhall the hand of the LORD reſt, and Moab ſhall be ¶ troden downe vnder him, euen as ſtraw is ¶ troden downe vnder dungkil.

11 And hee ſhall ſpread forth his hands in the mids of them, as he that ſwimmeth, ſpreadeth forth his hands to ſwim: and he ſhall bring downe their pride together, with the ſpoiles of their hands.

12 And the forteſſe of the high fort of toy wals ſhall be brought downe, lay low, and bring to the ground, euen to the duſt.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 A ſong inciting to confidence in God, 3 for his indignities, 12 and for his fauour to his people by his rebukes vnto them that are on God.

In that day ſhall this ſong bee ſung in the land of Iudah; We haue a ſtrong city, ſaluation will God appoint for wals and bulwarkes.

2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the ¶ truth may enter in.

3 Thou wilt keep ſhem in ¶ perfect peace, ¶ wiſe ¶ mind is ſtaied on thee, becauſe hee trueth is thee.

4 Truſt ye in the LORD for euer: for in the LORD YEHOVAH is ¶ euerlaſting ſtrength.

5 ¶ For hee bringeth downe them that dwell on high, hee luyeth they be laied if low, hee layeth it low, euen to the ground, hee bringeth it euen to the duſt.

6 The foot ſhall tread it downe, euen the feet of the poore, and the ſteps of the needy.

7 The way of the iuſt is ¶ vprightneſſe, thou moſt vpright, doeſt weigh the path of the iuſt.

8 Yeſ, in the way of thy iudgements, O LORD, haue we waited for thee; the deſire of our ſoule is to thy Name, and to the remembrance of thee.

9 With my ſoule haue I deſired thee in the night yeſ, with my ſpirit within me will I ſeek thee early; for when thy iudgements are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learne rightconſeſſe.

10 Let fauour be ſtewed to the wicked, yet will hee not learne rightconſeſſe: in the land of vprightneſſe will hee deale vainly, and will not behold the miſtice of the LORD.

11 LORD, when thy hand is lifted vp, they will not ſee it: but they ſhall ſee, and ſee aſhamed for their enuy ¶ at the people, yet, the fir of thine enemies ſhall deuoure them.

12 ¶ LORD, thou wilt ordaine peace for vs: for thou alſo haſt wrought all our works ¶ in vs.

13 O LORD our God, other lords beſide thee haue had dominion ouer vs: but by thee onely will we make mention of thy Name.

14 They are dead, they ſhall not liue; they are decayed, they ſhall not riſe: therefore haſt thou viſited and deſtroyed them, and made all their memory to periſh.

15 Thou haſt increaſed the nation, O LORD: thou haſt increaſed the nation, thou art glorified: thou haſt remoued it far, ¶ vnto al the ends of the earth.

16 LORD, in trouble haue they viſited thee: they ¶ powdered out a ¶ prayer when thy chafening was ¶ vpon them.

17 Like as a woman with child ſhee draweth nere the time of her deliuey is in paine, and cryeth out in her pangs: ſo haue we bene in thy fight O LORD.

18 We haue bene with child, we haue bene in paine, we haue as it were brought forth windes, wee haue not wrought any deliuerance in the earth, neither haue the inhabitants of the world fallen.

19 Thy dead men ſhall liue, together with my dead body ſhall they ariſe; awake and ſing, ye that dwell in duſt: for thy dew is as the dew of herbes, and the earth ſhall caſt out the dead.

20 ¶ Come my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and ſhut thy doores about thee: hide thy ſelfe as it were for a little moment, vntill the indignation be ouer paſt.

21 For behold, the LORD * croaſeth out of his place to puniſh the inhabitants of the earth, for their iniquity: the earth alſo ſhall diſcloſe her ¶ blood, and ſhall no more couer her ſinners.

2 In that day sing ye unto her : A vineyard of red wine.

3 I the LORD doe keepe it; I will water it enery moment : least any hurt it, I will keepe it night and day.

4 Fury is not in me : who would set the briers and thornes against me in battell ? I would I goe throw them, I would burne them together.

5 Or let him take hold of my strength, then hee may make peace with me, and he shall make peace with me.

6 He shall cause them that come of Iacob, to take root : Israel shall blossom and budde, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

7 ¶ Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him ? or is he slaine according to the slaughter of them that are slaine by him ?

8 In measure when it shooerch forth, thou wilt debate with it : as he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the East wind.

9 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Iacob bee purged, and this is all the fruit, to take away his sin : when hee maketh all the stones of the Altar as chalkstone, that are beaten in powder, the grones and fummerge shall not stand vp.

10 Yet the defenced city shall bee desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness : there shall the calfe feed, and there shall hee lie downe, and consume the branches thereof.

11 When the boughes thereof are withered, they shall bee broken off : the women come and set them on fire : for it is a people of no understanding : therefore hee that formed them will not haue mercy on them, & he that formed them, will shew them no fauour.

12 ¶ And it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channell of the riuer vnto the streame of Egypt, and ye shall bee gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

13 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blowne, & they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, & shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Ierusalem.

6 And for a spirit of Iudgements to him that setteth in Iudgement, and for strength to them that turne the battell to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also haue erred through wine, and through strong drinke are out of the way : the Priest and the Prophet haue erred through strong drinke, they are swallowed vp of wine : they are out of the way through strong drinke, they erre like vision, they stumble in Iudgement.

8 For all tables are full of vomit, and filthines, so that there is no place cleau.

9 ¶ Whom shall hee teach knowledge, and whom shall hee make to vnderstand of doctrine, them that are weaned from the milke, and drawne from the breasts.

10 For precept I haue vs vpon precept, precept vpon precept : line vpon line, line vpon line, heare a litle, and there a litle.

11 For with a summing lippes, and another tongue I will hee speake to this people.

12 To whom hee said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest, and this is the refreshing, yet they would not heare.

13 But the word of the LORD was vnto them, precept vpon precept, precept vpon precept, line vpon line, line vpon line, heare a litle and there a litle : that they might goe and fall backward, and be broken, and strayed and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore heare the word of the LORD ye scornfull men that rule this people which is in Ierusalem.

15 Because ye haue said, We haue made a covenant with death, and with hell are wee at agreement, when the ouerflowing scourge shall thowre, it shall not come vnto vs : for we haue made lies our refuge, and vnder fallshood haue wee hid our selues.

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation, a stone, a cryed stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation : he that beloneth shall not make haste.

17 Iudgement also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet : and the haile shall sweepe away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall ouerflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannuled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand : when the ouerflowing scourge shall passe throw, then ye shall be broken downe by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth, it shall take you : for morning by morning shall it passe ouer, by day and by night, and it shall be a vexation, one by one vnder it, and the report.

20 For the bedde is shorter, then that a man can stretch himselfe on it : and the covering narrower then that hee can wrap himselfe in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise vp as in mount Perazim, he shall be wrath as in the valley of Gibeon, that hee may doe his worke, his strange worke, and bring to passe his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, least your bands be made strong : for I haue heard from the LORD GOD of hosts a consumption cuen determined vpon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Giue ye care, and heare my voyce, hearken, and heare my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow, doth hee open and break the clods of his ground ?

25 When hee hath made plaine the face thereof, doth hee not cast abroad the sitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principall wheat, and the appointed barley, and the syc in their place ?

Woe to Ariel, to Ariel the city where David dwelt: add ye yeere to yeere, let them kill sacrifices.
 2 Yet I will distresse Ariel, & there shall be hea-timent and sorrow, and it shall vnto me as Ariel.
 3 And I will campe against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.
 4 And thou shalt be brought downe, and shalt speake out of the ground, and thy speech shall bee low out of the dnt, and thy voyce shall be as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground; and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.
 5 Moreover, the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaffe that passeth away, yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.
 6 Thou shalt be visited of LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, & great noise, with storme & tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.
 7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distresser, shall be as a dreame of a night vision.
 8 It shall men be as when a hungry man dreameth, and behold he eateth; and he awaketh, and his soule is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and behold he drinketh; or he awaketh, and behold, he is faint, and his soule hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.
 9 Stay your selves and wonder, I cry yee out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine,
 they stagger, but not with strong dring.
 10 For the LORD hath powred out upon you the spirit of sleepe, and hath closed your eyes, the Prophets and your Rulers, the Seers hath he covered.
 11 And the vision of all is become vnto you as the words of a booke that is sealed, which men declure to one that is learned, saying, Reade this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot, for it is sealed.
 12 And the booke is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Reade this, I pray thee: and he saith,
 I am not learned.
 13 Wherefore the Lord said, For as much as this people draw nere me with their mouth, and with their liye doe not honor me, but haue remoued their heart far from me, and their desire towards me is aught by the pretence of men:
 14 Therefore behold, I will procure to doe a maruilion, worke among this people, euen a mar-uilion, and they shall not knowe it, and they shall say, Wee haue not seen it, and they shall say, Wee haue not heard it, for their heart is not right, and they are not willing to be instructed.

15 Woe vnto them that seeke deepe to hide their counsell from the LORD, and their workes are in the darke, and they say, Who seeth vs? and who knoweth vs?
 16 Surely your turnings of thing upside downe, shall bee esteemed as the potters clay: for shall the worke say of him that made it, Hee made mee not? or shall the thing framed, say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?
 17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Iehonan shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruit-full field shall be esteemed as a forest?
 18 And in that day shall the deaf heare the words of the booke, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscuritie, and out of darke nesse.
 19 The mecke also shall increase their say in the LORD, and the pious among men shall cry out in the holy One of Israel.
 20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the corner is contemned, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off.
 21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turne aside the iust for a thing of naught.
 22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham concerning the house of Isaac:
 Iacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now waxe pale.
 23 But when he seeth his children the worke of mine hand, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my Name, and sanctifie the holy One of Iacob, and shall knowe the God of Israel.
 24 They also that erred in spirit, shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learne doctrine.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Prophet sheweth that the people for their confidence in Egypt, & contempt of Gods word, 26 Gods mercie towards his Church, 27 Gods wrath, and the peoples joy in the destruction of Assyria.

Woe to the rebellious children saith the LORD, that take counsell, but not of me, and that cover with a covering, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sinne to sinne:
 2 That walke to goe downe into Egypt (and haue not said at my mouth) to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt.
 3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt, your confusion.
 4 For his Princes were at Zoan, and his Amba-sadours came to Hane.
 5 They were all ashamed of a people, that could not profit them, nor be an helpe nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproch.
 6 The burden of the beasts of the South: the land of trouble & anguish, from whence come the yong & old Iun, the viper & the scorpion, they will carry their riches vpon the shoulders of yong asses, and their treasures vpon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.
 7 For the Egyptians shall helpe in vaine, and to no purpose: therefore haue I cryed I concerning this: their strength is to sit still.
 8 Now goe, write it before them in a table, & note it in a booke, that it may be for the time to come for eur and eue:
 9 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not heare the Law of the LORD 10 Which say to the Seers, See not, and to the Prophets, Prophesie not vnto vs: for we will speake

speake vnto vs smooth things, prophetic deceit.

11 Get yee out of the way, turne aside out of the path: cause the holy One of Israel to cease from before vs.

12 Wherefore, thus saith the holy One of Israel: Because ye despise this word, and trust in y^e oppression and pernic fenesse, and stay thereon :

13 Therefore, this iniquitie shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

14 And he shall brake it as the breaking of the potters y^e vessel, that is broken in peices, he shall not spare ; so that: there shall not be found in the building of it, a heard to take fire from the hearth, or to take vnto it out of the pit.

15 For thus saith the Lord God, the holy One of Israel, in returning and rest shall ye be feared, in quietnesse and in confidence shall be your strength, and ye would not.

16 But ye said, No, for we will slee vpon horses, therefore shall yee slee. And wee will ride vpon the swift, therefore shall they that pursue yee be swift.

17 One thousand shall slee at the rebuke of one : at the rebuke of five shall yee slee, till yee be left as a beacon vpon the top of a mountaine, and as an ensigne on an hill.

18 ¶ And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious vnto you, and therefore will hee be exalted, that he may haue mercy vpon you : for the LORD is a God of iudgement. * Blessed are all they that wait for him.

19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Ierusalem : thou shalt weepe no more : he will be very gracious vnto thee at the voyce of thy cry : when he shall heare it, he will answer thee.

20 And though the Lord giue you the bread of aduersity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be renouced into a corner any more: but thine eyes shall for thy teachers.

21 And thine eares shall heare a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walke ye in it, when ye turne to the right hand, & when ye turne to y^e left.

22 Ye shall dislike also the covering of y^e y^e green images of silver, and the ornament of dry molten images of gold : thou shalt cast them away as a menisourous cloth, thou shalt say vnto it, Get thee hence.

23 They shall beginne the rains of thy seed that thou shalt sow the ground withall : & bread of the increase of the eare, & it shall be fat and plenteous : as that day shall thy cattell feed in large pastures.

24 The oxen likewise and the young after that eare the ground, shall eat cleane provender which hath bene winnowed with the flouell, and with the lame.

25 And there shall be vpon every high mountaine, and vpon every high hill, rivers and streames of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the eouers fall.

26 Moreover, the light of the Morne shall be as the light of the Sunne, and the light of the Sunne shall be seuen fold, as the light of seuen dayes, in the day that the LORD bideh v^p the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

27 ¶ Behold, the Name of the LORD cometh from Ierze, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy : his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a denouncing fire.

28 And his breath as an ouerblowing fire, shall reach to the middest of the wecke, to sift the nations with the siue of vanity : and there shall be a bridle in the lower of the people, causing them to erre.

29 Ye shall haue a song in the night, when a holy solemnity is kept, and gladnesse of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into y^e mountaine of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

30 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voyce to be heard, and shall shew the lightning downe of his arme, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a denouncing fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

31 For through the voyce of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten downe, which leueth with a rod.

32 And in every place where the grounded staffe shall passe, which the LORD shall lay vpon him, it shall be with turrets and harpes : and in battels of shaking will he fight with it.

33 For Topnet is ordained for old y^e yea, for the king it is prepared, he hath made it deepe or large the pile thereof is fire and much wood, the breath of y^e LORD like a streame of brimstone doth kindle it.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Prophet saith the cursed foyle in saying to Egypt, I forsaking of Gods II exhorteth to conversion. II He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

W^O to them that goe downe to Egypt for helpe, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many, and in horsemen, because they are very strong : but they looke not vnto the holy One of Israel, neither speke the LORD.

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring euill, and will not call backe his wordes : but will arise against the heuif of the euill doers, and against the helpe of them that worke iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God, and their horses flesh, and not spirit : when the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall downe, and they all shall faile together.

4 For thus hath the LORD spoken vnto me, Like as the lyon, and the young lyon, roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds, is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voyce, nor abate himselfe for the noise of them : so shall the LORD of hostes come downe to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Ierusalem, defending also, he will defend it, and passing ouer he will preserve it.

6 ¶ Turne ye vnto him, from whom the children of Israel, haue deeply reuolted.

7 For in that day, every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your owne hands haue made vnto you for a sinne.

8 ¶ Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man : & the sword, not of a meane man shall denoure him : but he shall fall from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

9 And he shall pisse ouer to his strong hold for feare, and his Princes shall be afraid of the ensigne, (saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Ierusalem.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 The blessings of Christs kingdom, & Desolation is foretold, II Desolation is promised to succeed.

Behold, a King shall reigne in righteousness, and Princes shall rule in iudgement.

2 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest : as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

3 And the eyes of them that see, shall not be dim, and the eares of them that heare, shall hearken,

And the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their hoste shall fall downe as the leafe falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.

For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come downe vpon Idumea, and vpon the people of my curse to iudgement.

The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with farnelle, and with the blood of lamies, and goats, with the fat of the kidneies of rams: for the LORD both a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

And the Unicorne shall come downe with them, and the bullockes with the bulles: and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with farnelle.

For it is the day of the LORDS vengeance, and the yeere of recompence for the controuersie of Zion.

And the streames thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

It shall not be quenched night nor day, the smoke thereof shall goe vp for ever, from generation to generation, it shall lie waste, none shall passe thorow it for ever and euer.

The Cormorant and the Bitterne shall possesse it, the Owle also and the Raven shall dwell in it, and hee shall stretch out vpon it the line of confusion, and the bond of emptinesse.

They that call the Nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her Princes shall be nothing.

And thurmes shall come vp in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall bee so habitation of dragons, and a court for owles.

The wilde beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wilde beasts of the land, and the Sayre thalliey to his fellow, the Shrike-owle also shall rest there, and find for her selfe a place of rest.

There shall the great owle make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather vnder her shadow: there shall the Vulture also be gathered everyone with her mate.

Seeke ye out of the booke of the LORD, and read: none of these shall faile, none shall want her mate: for my mouth, it hath commanded; and his spirit, it hath gathered them.

And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath diuided it vnto them by line: they shall possesse it for ever; from generation to generation, shall they dwell therein.

CHAP. XXXV.

The joyfull flourishing of Christs Kingdom. The weak are encouraged by the vertues and principles of the Gospel.

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them: and the desert shall reioyce and blossom as the rose.

It shall blossom abundantly, and reioyce even with ioy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall bee giuen vnto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirme the feeble knees.

Say to them that are of a fearefull heart, Be strong, feare not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence, he will reuenge and take you.

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the eares of the deafe shall be vnsuppled.

Then shall the lame man leape as an Hart, and the tongue of the drabe sing for in the wilderness shall waters breake out, & streames in the desert.

And the parched ground shall become a ponde, and the thirly land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons where each lay, shall be a grass, with reeds and rushes.

And an high way shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called, The way of holinesse, the vnchane shall not passe over it, but it shall be for the chiefe way-faring men, though fooles, that not erre therein.

No lyon shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall goe vp thereon, it shall not be found there: but the redeemed shall walke there.

And the ransomed of the LORD shall returne, and come to Zion with songs, and euerslasting ioy vpon their heads: they shall obtaine ioy and gladnesse, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Ioh. 7. 38. For a course for reeds, &c. | Or, for be with them. | Chap. 32. 11.

CHAP. XXXVI.

Sennacherib inuadeth Iudah. Rabshakesh sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasion, seduceth the people to revolt. His words are said to Hezekiah.

Now it came to passe in the fourteenth yeere of King Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria, came vp against all the defenced cities of Iudah, and tooke them.

And the King of Assyria sent Rabshakesh from Lachish to Ierusalem, vnto King Hezekiah, with a great army: and he stood by the conduit of the vpper pool, in the high way of the Fullers field.

Then came forth vnto him, Eliakim, Hilkiahs sonne, which was ouer the house; and Sheban the scribe, and Ioah, Asaphs sonne the Recorder.

And Rabshakesh said vnto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great King, the King of Assyria: What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

I say (sayest thou) (but they are but of vaine words) I haue counsell and strength for warre: Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

Loe, thou trustest in the staffe of this broken reed, on Egypt, whereon if a man leane, it will goe into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh King of Egypt to all that trust in him.

But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: Is it not hee whose high places and whose Altars Hezekiah hath taken away, & said to Iudah, & to Ierusalem, Ye shal worship before this altar?

Now therefore giue I pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will giue thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders vpon them.

How then wilt thou turne away the face of our Captaine of the least of my masters seruaunts; and put thy trust on Egypt, for charrets and for horsemen?

And am I now come vp without the LORD against this land to destroy it? The LORD said vnto me, Goe vp against this land and destroy it.

Then said Eliakim, and Sheban, and Ioah, vnto Rabshakesh, Speake I pray thee, vnto thy seruants in the Syrian language, for we vnderstand it: and speake not vnto vs in the lower language, in the eares of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, What my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their owne dung, and drinke their owne peepe with you?

13 ¶ Then Rabshakeh stood and cryed with a loud voice in the Iewes language, and said, Heare ye the words of the great King, the King of Assyria, 14 Thus saith the King; Let not Hezekiah deliuer you, for he shall not be able to deliuer you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, (saying, The LORD will surely deliuer vs: this city shall not be deliuered into the hand of the King of Assyria.)

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the King of Assyria, ¶ Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and eat ye eary one of his vine, and eary one of his figtree, and drinke ye eary one the waters of his owne cistern:

17 Vntill I come and take you away to a land like your owne land; a land of corne and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

18 Beware lest Hezekiah perswade you; saying, The LORD will deliuer vs. Hath any of the gods of the nations deliuered his land out of the hand of the King of Assyria?

19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharuaim? and haue they deliuered Samaria out of my hand?

20 Who are they amongst all the gods of these lands, that haue deliuered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliuer Ierusalem out of my hand?

21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the Kings commandement was, saying, Answer him not.

22 ¶ Then came Eliakim the sonne of Hilkiah, that was ouer the household, and Shebna the Scribe, and Iosh the sonne of Afaph the Recorder, to Hezekiah, with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

1 Hezekiah mourning, sendeth to Isaiah to pray for them: 4 Isaiah comforteth them: 8 Sennacherib's gods to incurre Tishbakh's sendeth a blasphemous letter to Hezekiah: 14 Hezekiah's prayer. 21 Isaiah his prophesy of the pride and destruction of Sennacherib, and the good of Zion: 26 An Angel slayeth the Assyrians: 31 Sennacherib is slaine at Ninue by his owne sword.

¶ And it came to passe when King Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himselfe with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim who was ouer the household, and Shebna the Scribe, and the Elders of the Priests covered with sackcloth, vnto Isaiah the Prophet the sonne of Amoz.

3 And they said vnto him, thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble and of rebuke, and of blasphemy, for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring fourth.

4 It may be the LORD thy God will heare the words of Rabshakeh, whom the King of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the liuing God, and will reproc the words which the Lord thy God hath heard: wherefore lift vp thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

5 So the seruants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 ¶ And Isaiah said vnto them; Thus shall ye say vnto your master, Thus saith the LORD, He not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, where-with the seruants of the King of Assyria hath blasphemed me.

7 Behold, I will I send a blast vpon him, and he shall heare a ramone, and retnre to his owne land, and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his owne land.

8 ¶ So Rabshakeh returned and found the King of Assyria warring against Libnah: for hee had heard that he was departed from Iachin.

9 And hee heard say concerning Tishbakh King of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make warre with thee: and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying;

10 Thus shall ye speake to Hezekiah King of Iudah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceiue thee, saying, Ierusalem shall not be giuen into the hand of the King of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the Kings of Assyria haue done to all lands, by destroying them utterly, and that thou be deliuered?

12 Haue the gods of the nation deliuered them, which my fathers haue destroyed, as Gozan, and Hiran, and Rzepah, and the children of Eden which were in Telsassar?

13 Where is the King of Hamath, and the King of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Irah?

14 ¶ And Hezekiah receiued the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it, and Hezekiah went vp vnto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed vnto the LORD, saying, 16 O LORD of hostes, God of Israel, that dwellest betweene the Cherubims; thou art the God, thou chos alone, of all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.

17 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and heare, Open thine eyes, O LORD, and see, and heare all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the liuing God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the Kings of Assyria haue laid waste all the nations and their countreys;

19 And haue cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the worke of mens hands, wood and stone: therefore they haue destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, doe vs from his hand, that all the kingdomes of the earth may know, that thou art the LORD, euen thou onely.

21 ¶ Then Isaiah the sonne of Amoz sent vnto Hezekiah, saying; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to mee against Sennacherib King of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him: The Virgin, the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Ierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes on high? euen against the holy One of Israel.

24 ¶ By thy seruants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my charrettes am I come vp to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and I will cut downe the tall Cedars thereof, and the choice fere trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the \dagger besieged places.

26 \dagger Hast thou not heard long agoe, how I have done it, and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to passe, that thou shouldst be to lay waste deserted cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were \dagger of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grasse of the field, and as the greene herbe, as the grasse on the houle tops, and as corne blasted before it be growne vp.

28 But I know thy \dagger abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and the rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine eare, therefore will I put my hooke in thy nose, & my bridle in thy lips, & I will tume thee backe by the way by which thou camest.

30 And this shall be a signe vnto thee, Ye shall see this yeere, such as growth of the fesse: and the second yeere that which springeth of the same: and in the third yeere you ye and reape, and plant vineyards, and eate the fruit thereof.

31 And the \dagger remnant that is escaped of the house of Iudah, shall agayne take root downward, and beare fruit upward.

32 For out of Ierusalem shall go forth a remnant, and \dagger they that escape out of mount Zion: the \dagger zeale of the LORD of hostes shall doe this.

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the King of Assyria, Hee shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a banke against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he returne, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For I will \dagger defend this city to save it, for mine owne sake, and for my seruants Davids sake.

36 Then the \dagger Angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the campe of the Assyrians an hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 \dagger So Sennacherib King of Assyria, departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Ninueh.

38 And it came to passe, as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god: that Adramelch and Sharzer his sons smote him with the sword, and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Sardanapalus his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Hezekiah hauing received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened: 2 The Sun goeth six degrees backward for a signe of that promise. 3 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those dayes was Hezekiah sicke vnto death, and Iiahah the Prophet the sonne of Amoz came vnto him, and said vnto him, Thus saith the LORD, \dagger Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed vnto the LORD.

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I haue walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and haue done that which is good in thy sight: and Hezekiah wept \dagger sore.

4 \dagger Then came the word of the LORD vnto Iiahah, saying,

5 Goe and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I haue heard thy prayer, I haue seene thy teares: behold, I will adde vnto thy dayes fifteen yeeres:

6 And I will deliuer thee and this city out of the hand of \dagger king of Assyria: and I will defend this city. 7 And this shall be a signe vnto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will doe this thing that hee hath spoken.

8 Behold I will bring againe the shadow of the degrees which is gone downe in the \dagger Sun diall of Ahaz ten degrees backward: So the Sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone downe, 9 \dagger The writing of Hezekiah king of Iudah, when he had been sicke, & was recovered of his sickness: 10 I said in the cutting off of my dayes, I shall goe to the gates of the graue: I am deprined of the residue of my yeeres.

11 I said, I shall not see the LORD: when the LORD is in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me: as shepherds tent: I have cut off like a weeder my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day euen to night, will I make an end of me.

13 I reckoned till morning, that as a lyon, so will hee breake all my bones: from day euen to night will I weene make an end of me.

14 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did moune as a doec: mine eyes were looking vpward: O LORD, I am oppressed, vnder take for me.

15 What shall I say? hee hath broken spoken vnto me, and himselfe hath done it: I shall goe softly, all my yeeres in the bitterness of my soule.

16 O LORD by these things my heart is cut, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so will thou recover me, and make me to live.

17 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soule, distressed it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sinnes behind thy backe.

18 For the grave cannot praise thee, death cannot celebrate thee: they that goe downe into the pit, cannot hope for thy truth.

19 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I doe this day: the father to the children, shall make known thy truth.

20 The LORD was ready to saue mee: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments, all the dayes of our life, in the house of the LORD.

21 For Iiahah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister vpon the boyle, and he shall recover.

22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the signe that I shall goe vp to the house of the LORD? CHAP. XXXIX.

1 Merodach-Baladan sending to visit Hezekiah, because of the wonder, hath notice of his treasures; 2 Iiahah vnderstanding thereof, secretly hid the Kings treasures.

A \dagger That name Merodach-Baladan the sonne of a Babylon King of Babylon, sent letters, and a present to Hezekiah: for hee had heard that hee had bene sicke, and was recovered.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, & the gold, and the spices, & the precious oylment, and all the house of his armour, & all \dagger was found in his treasures, there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them.

3 \dagger Then came Iiahah the Prophet vnto King Hezekiah, and said vnto him, What said these men? and from whence came they vnto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a farre country vnto me, euen from Babylon.

4 Then said hee, What haue they seene in thine house? and Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house.

house have they seen? there is nothing knowing any treasures that I have not shewed them.

3 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, heare the word of the LORD of hostes.

4 Behold the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid vp in store vntill this day, shall be carryed to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

5 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away: & they shall be Eunuchs in the palace of the King of Babylon.

6 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken: the said moreover, for there shall be peace & truth in my daies.

CHAP. XL.

1 The promulgation of the Gospel. 2 The preaching of John Baptis. 3 The preaching of the Apostles. 4 The Prophet, by the omnipotency of God, and his incomparable, & comfortable the people.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

2 Speake ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry vnto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath retained of the LORDS hand double for all her sin.

3 The voice of him that cryeth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a high way for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, & the rough places plain.

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And hee said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.

7 The grass withered, the flower faded: because the Spirit of the LORD bloweth vpon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower faded: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee vp into the high mountain: O Ierusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift vp thy voice with strength: lift it vp; be not afraid: say vnto the cities of Iudah, behold your God.

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come forth strong hand, and his arme shall rule for him: Behold, his reward is with him, and his worke before him.

11 He shall feed his focke like a shepheard: he shall gather the lambs with his arme, and carry them in his bosome, and shall gently leade those that are with young.

12 Who hath measured the waters in the bowle of his hand? and meted out heauen with the spanne, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a ballance?

13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor, hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsell, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of Iudgement: and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of vnderstanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the ballance: behold, hee taketh vp the yles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burne, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing, & they are counted to him lesse then nothing, and vanity.

18 O to whom then will ye liken God? or what likenesse will ye compare vnto him?

19 The workeman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it out with gold, and casteth silver chaine.

20 He that is so impowerised that he hath no oblation, chooseth a tree that will not rot: he seeketh vnto him a cunning workeman, to prepare a graven image that shall not be moued.

21 Haue ye not knowen? haue ye not heard? hath it not bene told you from the beginning? haue ye not vnderstood from the foundations of the earth?

22 It is hee that sitteth vpon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers, that stretcheth out the heauens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth the Princes to nothing; hee maketh the Iudges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planned, yea, they shall not be sown, yea, their stocke shall not take root in the earth: and hee shall also blow vpon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlewind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equall saith the holy One?

26 Lift vp your eyes on high, and behold, who hath created these things, that bringeth out their hosts by number, he calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power, nor one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Iacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my iudgement is passed ouer from my God?

28 Hast thou not knowen? hast thou not heard, that the exulting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth faileth not, neither is weary?

29 There is no searching of his vnderstanding: hee hath power to the faint, and to them that haue no might, he increaseth strength.

30 Euen the yowells shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall.

31 But they that wait vpon the LORD, shall renew their strength: they shall mount vp with wings: as Eagles they shall run, and not be weary, and they shall walke, and not faile.

CHAP. XLII.

1 God expostulath with his people about his mercies to the Church, & about his promises, & about the vanity of idoles.

2 Hee silence before mee, O Iudges, and let the people come: shew strength: let them come apace, then let them speake: let them come apace together to iudgement.

3 Who raised vp the righteous man from the East, called him to his feet, gaue the nations before him, and made him ruler ouer Kings? he gaue them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

4 He persecuted them, and passed safely, euen by the way, that he had not gone with his feet.

5 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, & the first, and with the last, I am here.

6 I be the first saw it, and feared, & the ends of the earth were afraid, drew nere, and came.

7 They helped every one his neighbour, and every one said to his brother, he of good courage.

and he that smelleth with the hammer, I thin that smote the anvil, I sayng, It is ready for the for-ring: and he fastned it with nailles, that it should not be moured.

8 But thou Israel, art my servant, Iacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

9 Thus whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chiefs men thereof, and said vnto thee, Thou art my servant, I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ Feare thou not for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee, yea, I will helpe thee, yea, I will vpbold thee with the right hand of my righteousnes.

11 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee, shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing, and they that strive with thee, shall perish.

12 Thou shalt seeke them, and shalt not finde them, and they that contended with thee, they that warre against thee, shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

13 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying vnto thee, Feare not, I will helpe thee.

14 Feare not thou worne Iacob, and ye [men of Israel]: I will helpe thee, saith the LORD, and thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel.

15 Behold, I will make thee a new sharpe thred-ding instrument hauing teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountzines, and beate them small, and shalt make the hills as chaffe.

16 Thou shalt loose them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt reioyce in the LORD, and shalt glory in the holy One of Israel.

17 When the poore and needy seeke water, and there is none, and there tongue faileth for thirst, I the Lord will heare them, and the God of Israel will not forsake them:

18 I will open rivers in high places, and fountaines in the midst of the valleyes: I will make the wilderneesse a poole of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will plant in the wilderneesse the Cedar, the Shittah tree, and the Myrtle, and the Oyle tree: I will set in the desert the Firre tree, and the Pine, and the Boxe tree together:

20 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done thus, and the holy One of Israel hath created it.

21 ¶ Produce your cause, saith the LORD, bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Iacob.

22 Let them bring shewes forth, and shew vs what shall happen: let them shew the former things what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them, or declare vs things for to come:

23 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, doe good or doe euill, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

24 Behold, ye are [of nothing, and your works [of nought: an abiquination is of this chooseth you.

25 I have raised vp one from the North, and [he shall come: from the rising of the Sun shall he call vpon my Name, and he shall come vpon Princes, as vpon mo: ter, and as the potter treadeth clay.

26 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and before time, that we may say,
He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

27 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them, and I will giue to Ierusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

28 For I beheld, and there was no man entre-mought them, and there was no counsellor, that when I asked of them, could answer a word.

29 Behold, they are all vanity, their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

CHAP. XLII.

1 The office of Christ graued with mortification and constancy. 5 Gods promise vnto him. 10 His exhortation to praise God for his Gospel. 17 He reproacheth the people of incredulity.

Behold my servant whom I vpbold, mine elect, in whom my soule delighteth: I haue put my spirit vpon him, he shall bring forth iudgment to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift vp, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

3 A bruised reed shall he not breake; and the smoking flaxe shall he not quench; hee shall bring forth iudgement vnto truth.

4 He shall not faile, nor be discouraged, till he haue set iudgement in the earth, and the yles shall wait for his Lawe.

5 Thus saith God the LORD, hee that created the heauens, and stretched them out, he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it, he that giueth breath vnto the people vpon it, and spirit to them that walke therein:

6 I the LORD haue called thee in righteousnesse, and will hold thine hand, and will keepe thee, and giue thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles:

7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in dark-nesse, out of the prison house.

8 I am the LORD, that is my Name, and my glory will I not giue to another, neither my praise to grauen images.

9 Behold, the former things are come to passe, and new things doe I declare: before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

10 Sing vnto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth: yea, that goe downe to the sea, and all that is therein, the yles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 Let the wilderneesse, and the cities thereof lift vp their voyces, the villages that Kedar doeth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rocke sing, let them shout from the top of the mountzines.

12 Let them giue glory vnto the LORD, and declare his praise in the ylands.

13 The LORD shall goe forth as a mighty man, hee shall stirre vp ieaousie like a man of warre:
hee shall cry, yea, roare, hee shall preuaile against his enemies.

14 I haue long time holden my peace, I haue become still, and restrained my selfe: now will I cry like a traunseling woman, I will destroy, and I will deuour as once.

15 I will make waste mountzines and hillcs, and dry vp all their herbes, and I will make the riuers ylands, and I will dry vp the pooles.

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not, I will lead them in paths that they haue not knowen, I will make darknesse light before them, and crooked things I will straighte. These things will
I will doe vnto them, and not forsake them.

27 ¶ They shall be turned backe, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in men images, that say to the molten images, Ye were our gods.

28 Heare ye deafe, and looke ye blind, that yet may see.

29 Who is blind, but my seruant? or deafe, as my sellenger that I sent? who is blind as hee that is perfed, and blind as the LORDS seruant?

30 Seeing many things, but thou obseruest not:
opening the eares, but he heareth not.

31 The LORD is well pleased for his righteous-nesse sake, he will magnifie the Law, and make it honourable.

32 But this is a people robbed and spoiled, ¶ they are all of them inured in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none deliue-reth, ¶ for a spoile, and none saith, Refrere.

33 Who among you will giue eare to this? who will hearken, and heare ¶ for the rigne to come?

34 Who gaue Iacob for a spoile, and Israel to the robbers? Did not the LORD. be, against whom we have sinned? For they would not walke in his wayes, neither were they obedient vnto his Law.

35 Therefore he hath powred vpon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battell: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not, and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The Lord comforteth the Church with his promises. 2 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency. 3 He foretelleth shew the destrution of Babilon: 13 and his wonderfull deliue-rance of his people. 22 He representeth the people as insensable.

¶ But now, thus saith the LORD that created thee,
O Iacob, and hee that formed thee, O Israel:
Feare not, for I haue redeemed thee, I haue called thee by thy name, thou art mine.

2 When thou passest thorow the waters, I will be with thee, and throw the riuers, they shall not ouerflow thee: when thou walkest thorow the fire, thou shalt not be burnt; neither shall the flame kindle vpon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the holy One of Israel, thy Saviour; I gaue Egypte for thy rauome, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.

4 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast become honourable, and I haue loved thee: therefore will I giue men for thee, and people for thy life.

5 Feare not, for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the East, and gather thee from the West:

6 I will say to the North, Giue vp; and to the South, Keepe not backe: bring my seed from farre, and my daughters from the ends of the earth:

7 Euen euery one that is called by my Name: for I haue created him for my glory; I haue forwarded him, yea, I haue made him.

8 ¶ Being forth the blind people that haue eyes, and the deafe that haue eares.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: ¶ who among them can declare this, and shew vs former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them heare, and say, It is truth.

10 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my seruant whom I haue chosen; that yet may know and beleeme, and vnderstand that I am he: ¶ before me there was ¶ no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

¶ For I, euen I ¶ am the LORD, and besides me there is no Saviour.

¶ I haue declared, and haue saved, and I haue shewed, when there was no strange god among you:

therefore see ye my witnesses, saith the LORD:
that I am God.

11 Yea, before the day was, I am he, and there is none that can deliuer out of my hand: I will worke, and who shall ¶ let it?

12 ¶ Thus saith the LORD your Redeemer, the holy One of Israel: for your sake I haue sent to Babylon, and haue brought downe all their towers, and the Cedars, whose cry is in the ships.

13 I am the LORD your holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.

14 Thus saith the LORD which ¶ maketh a way in the sea, and ¶ a path in the mighty waters:

15 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power: They shall lie downe together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as towne.

16 ¶ Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

17 Behold, I will doe a new thing: now it shall spring forth, shall ye not know it? I will euen make a way in the wilderness, and riuers in the desert.

18 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons, and the owles, because I giue waters in the wilderness, ¶ and riuers in the desert, to giue drinke to my people, my chosen.

19 ¶ This people haue I formed for my selfe, they shall shew forth my praise.

20 ¶ But thou hast not called vpon me, O Iacob, but thou hast bene weary of me, O Israel.

21 Thou hast not brought me the ¶ small cattle of thy burnt offerings, neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices: I haue not caused thee to serue with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

22 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou ¶ filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serue with thy sin: thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

23 I, euen I, am he that ¶ blotte out thy transgressions for mine owne sake, and will not remember thy sinnes.

24 Put me in remembrance: let vs pleade together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified:

25 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy ¶ teachers haue transgressed against me.

26 Therefore I haue profaned the ¶ Princes of the Sanctuary, and haue giuen Iacob to the curie, and Israel to reproaches.

CHAP. XLIIII.

1 God comforteth the Church with his promises.
2 The vanities of idoles, y and folly of Idole-makers. 21 He exhorteth to praise God for his redemption and omnipotency.

¶ Yet now heare, O Iacob my seruant, and Israel whom I haue chosen.

1 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and forwarded thee from the wombe, which will helpe thee:
Feare not, O Iacob my seruant, and thou Iesurun whom I haue chosen.

2 For I will ¶ poure water vpon him that is thirsty, and floods vpon the dry ground: I will pouere my Spirit vpon thy seed, and my blessing vpon thine offspring.

3 And they shall spring vp as among the graffe, as willowes by the water-courses.

4 One shall say, I am the LORD: and another shall call himselfe by the name of Iacob: and another shall subscribe with his hand vnto the LORD, and surname himselfe by the name of Israel.

5 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his Redeemer the LORD of hostes, * I am the first, and I am the last, and besides me there is no God.

7 And who as, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come? let them shew vnto them.

8 Feare ye not, neither be afraid: haue not I told thee from that time, and haue declared it? yee are, even my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yea, * there is no God, I know not any.

9 ¶ They that make a graven image, are all of their vanity, and their ydelous things shall not profite, and they are their owne witnesses, * they see not, nor know, that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image, that is profitable for nothing?

11 Behold, all his fellowses shall be ashamed, and the workmen, they are of mee: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yee: they shall feare, and they shall be ashamed together.

12 ¶ The Smith with the tongs both worketh in the coales, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his armes; yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth, he driaketh no water, and is faint.

13 The Carpenter stretcheth out his rule, he marketh it out with the line, he squarh it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compasse, and maketh it after the figure of a man, that it may resemble the beauty of a man, that it may resemble in the house.

14 He heweth him down Cedars, and taketh the Cypress, and the Oake, which be strengthens for himselfe among the trees of the forest: he planteth an Ash, and the raine doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man to burne: for he will take thereof, and warme himselfe: yea, hee kindleth, and baketh bread, yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it: he maketh it a graven image, and falleth downe thereon.

16 He burneth part thereof in the fire with part thereof he eateth flesh: he rosteth rait, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himselfe, and saith, Ah! I am warme, I haue scene the fire:

17 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth downe vnto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth vnto it, and saith, Deliver me, for thou art my god.

18 They haue not knowen, nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see, and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

19 And againe considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, What is burnt part of it in the fire; yea also, I haue baked bread vpon y coales thereof: I haue roasted flesh, & eaten it: & shall I make y residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall downe to y shooke of a tree?

20 He seetheth of ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that hee cannot deliuer his soule, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

21 ¶ Remember these (O Iacob & Israel) for thou art my seruant, I haue formed thee: thou art my seruant, O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

22 I haue blowed out as a thicke cloud thy transgressions, and as a cloud, thy sinnes: returne vnto mee, for I haue redeemed thee.

23 Sing O ye heauens; for the LORD hath done it: shoue ye lower parts of the earth: breake forth into singing, ye mountines, O Ierusalem and every one that therein is: for the LORD hath redeemed Iacob, and glorified himselfe in Israel.

24 Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, and he that formed thee from the wombe, I am the LORD that maketh all things, that stretcheth forth the heavens above, that spreadeth abroad the earth by my selfe.

25 That frustrateh the tokens of the heuens, and maketh diuiners mad, like turneb-wisemen backward, and maketh their knowledges foolish.

26 That confirmeth the word of his seruants, and performeth the counsell of his messengers: that saith to Ierusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited, and to the cities of Iudah, Ye shall be build, and I will raise vp the decayed places thereof.

27 Thus saith to the depp, Be dry, and I will dry vp thy riuers.

28 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepheard, and shall performe all my pleasure, even saying to Ierusalem, * Thou shalt be build, and to the Temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

C H A P. X L V.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his seruants sake, & by his omnipotency he challengeth obedience, so he commandeth the idoles of vanity, by his saving power.

¶ Thus saith the LORD, by his saving power, who with right hand I haue holden, to subdue nations before him: and I will loose the loynes of Kings, to open before him the two leaved gates, and the gates shall not be shut.

2 I will goe before thee, and make the crooked places straight, I will breake in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the barres of yron.

3 And I will giue thee the treasures of darkness, and hidde riches of secret places, that thou mayest know, that I the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

4 For Iacob my seruants sake, and Israel mine elect, I haue euen called thee by thy name: I haue surnamed thee, though thou hast not knowen me.

5 ¶ I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God besides me: I girded thee, though thou hast not knowen me.

6 That they may know from the rising of the Sun, and from the West, that there is none besides me, I am the LORD, and there is none else.

7 I forme the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create euill, I the LORD doe all these things.

8 Drop downe ye heauens from aboue, and let the flies pouere downe righteously: let the earth open, and let them bring forth saluation, and let righteousnesse spring vp together: I the LORD haue created it.

9 Woe vnto him that strineth with his Maker: Let the postheard strine with the postherds of the earth: * shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What hast thou done? or thy worke, hee hath no hands?

10 Woe vnto him that saith to his father, What begettst thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

11 Thus saith the LORD, the holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Alie me of things to come concerning my seruants, and concerning the worke of my hands command ye me.

12 I haue made the earth, and created man vpon it, euen my hands haue stretched out the heauens, and all their hoste haue I commanded.

13 I haue raised him vp in righteousnesse, and I will direct all his wayes: he shall build my strength, and he shall let goe my captiues, nor for price, nor reward, saith the LORD of hostes.

14 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia, & of the Sabaeans, euen the figure shall come ouer vnto thee, and they shall be thine.

thine, they shall come after thee, in chains they shall come next, & they shall fall downe vnto thee: they shall make supplication vnto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee, & there is none else, there is no god.

27 Verily thou art a God that hidest thy selfe, O God of Israel the Saviour.

28 They shall be ashamed and also confounded all of them: they shall goe to confusion together that are makers of idoles.

29 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting saluation; ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

30 For thus saith the LORD that created the heauen, God himselfe that formed the earth, and made it, he hath established it, he created it not in vaine, he formed it to be inhabited, I am the LORD and there is none else.

31 I haue not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not vnto the seede of Iacob, Seek ye me in vaine: I the LORD speake righteousnesse, I declare things that are right.

32 Assemble your selues, and come: draw neere together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they haue no knowledge that ser vp the wood of their graven image, and pray vnto a god that cannot save.

33 Tell ye, and bring them neere, yea, let them take counsell together, who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? I haue not I the LORD? & there is no God else beside me, a iust God, and a Saviour, there is none beside me.

34 Looker vnto mee, and be ye sated all the ends of the earth: for I am God, there is none else.

35 I haue sworn by my selfe; the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousnesse, and shall not returne, that vnto me enemyes knee shall bow, enemy tongue shall sweare.

36 Surely, shall one say, In the LORD haue I righteousnesse and strength: euen to him shall men come, and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

37 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be iustified, and shall glory.

CHAP. XLV

The idols of Babilon could not save themselves: God saueh his people to the end; idols are not comparable to God for power, or presens saluation.

1 Bowe downe, Nebo stoupeh, their idoles were vpon the beaues, and vpon the cattel, your carriages were heavy loaden, they are a burden to the weary beast.

2 They stoupe, they bow downe together, they could not deliuer the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

3 Hearken vnto me, O house of Iacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by mee, from the belly, which are carried from the wombe.

4 And euen to your old age I am hee, and euen to hoare haire will carry you: I haue made, and I will beare, euen I will carry, and will deliuer you.

5 To whom will ye liken mee, and make me equall, and compare me, that we may be like?

6 They lauish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the ballance, and hire a goldsmith, & he maketh it a god: they fall downe, yea, they worship.

7 They beare him vpon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry vnto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

8 Remember this, and shew your selues men:

bring it againe to mind, O ye transgressours.

9 Remember the former things of old, for I am God, and there is none else, I am God, and there is none like mee,

10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsell shall stand, and I will doe all my pleasure:

11 Calling a rauenous bird from the East, & the man that executeth my counsell from a faire country, yea, I haue spoken it, I will also bring it to passe, I haue purposed it, I will also doe it.

12 Hearken vnto mee, ye stout hearted, that are farre from righteousnesse.

13 I bring neere my righteousnesse: it shall not be farre off, and my saluation shall not carry, and I will place saluation in Zion for Israel my glory.

CHAP. XLVII

Gods iudgements vpon Babilon and Caldea, & for their vniuersitates, & for the multitude of their idols, shall be vniuersally.

1 Come downe and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babilon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Caldeas: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

2 Take the millstones and grind meale, vncover thy locks, make bare the leg: vncover the thigh, passe ouer the riuers.

3 Thy nakednesse shall be vncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seene: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

4 As for one Redeemer, the LORD of hostes is his Name, the holy One of Israel.

5 Sit thou in silence, O virgin daughter of the Caldeas: for thou shalt no more be called the Lady of kingdoms.

6 I was wroth with my people, I haue polluted mine inheritance, and giuen them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy, vpon the ancient haik thou veryheauily laid the yoke.

7 And thou saidst, I shall be a Lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

8 Therefore heare now this, thou that art giuen to pleasures, that dwellest carelesly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me, I shall not be as a widow, neither shall I know the losse of children.

9 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day: the losse of children, and widowhood: they shall come vpon thee in their perfection, for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickednesse: Thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath peruerced thee, and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else besides me.

11 Therefore shall euill come vpon thee, thou shalt not know from whom it riseth: and mischief shall fall vpon thee, thou shalt not be able to put it off; and desolation shall come vpon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth, if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest preuaile.

13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels: let now the Astrologers, the Star-gazers, & the monthly Propagicators stand vp, and let them see howe these things that shall come vpon thee.

13 Behold, they shall be as stubble: the firm shall burne them, they shall not deliuer: & consciences from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coale in warme at fire to sit before it.

14 Thus shall they be vnto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants from thy youth, they shall weaue euery one to his quazter: none shall save thee.

CHAP. XLVIII.

1 God to cōuince the people of their foreknown abhynce, revealed his prophetes: 9 He sauenth them for his owne sake. 12 He exhorted them to obedience, because of his power and prouidence. 16 He lamenteth their backwardnes. 20 His powerfull deliuereth his out of Babylon.

1 Hear ye this, O hautes of Iacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Iudah, which sware by the Name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in right conscience.

2 For they call themselves of the holy city, and say themselves vpon the God of Irah, the LORD of hottis is his Name.

3 In me declared the former things from the beginning, and they went fourth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to passe.

4 Because I knew that thou art y obstinate, and thy necke is an yron snaw, and thy brow braffe.

5 I have men from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to passe, I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldst say, mine idle hath done it, and my grauen image, and my molten image hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this, and will not ye declare it? I haue shewed thee new things from this time, euen hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning, euen before the day when thou heardest them not, lest thou shouldst say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not, yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine eare was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldst deale very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the wombe.

9 For my Names sake will I deferre mine anger, and for my mercie will I restraue for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, I haue refined thee, but not with silver: I haue chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.

11 For mine owne sake, euen for mine owne sake will I doe it: for how should my Name be polluted? and I will not cut my glory vnto another.

12 I hearken vnto me, O Iacob, and Israel, my called, I am he, I am the first, I also am the last.

13 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, & my right hand hath spanned the heauens: when I call vnto them, they stand vp together.

14 All ye assemble your selues, and heare: which of among them hath declared these things? the LORD or of some loued him: he will doe his pleasure on Babylon, and his arme shall be on the Caldeans.

15 I, euen I haue spoken, yea, I haue called him: I haue brought him, and hee shall make his way prosperous.

16 Come ye neere vnto mee, heare ye this, I haue not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I, and now the LORD God, and his Spirit hath sent me.

17 Thus saith the LORD thy Redeemer, the holy One of Israel, I am the LORD thy God, which teacheth thee to profic, which leadeth thee by any way that thou shouldst goe.

18 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandements: I then had thy peace: because as a riuier, so should thy righteousness be as the waters of the Sea.

19 Thy feet also had bene as the feet of a Stee, and thy off-spring of stony bowels like the grauell thereof: his name should not haue bene cut off, nor destroyed from before me.

20 Goe ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Caldeans with a voyce of singing, declare ye, tell this, vtter it euen to the end of the earth, say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his seruant Iacob.

21 And they thirsted not when he led them thro the desert: he caused the waters to flow out of the rocke for them: he clave the rocke also, and the waters gushed out.

22 There is no peace, saith the LORD, vnto the wicked.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Christ being sent to the Jewes, complaineth of them. 5 Hee is sent to the Gentiles with graces promised: 12 Gods love is perpetual to his Church. 24 The powerfull deliuerance out of captivity.

1 Listen, O Ier, vnto me, and hearken, ye people from Ierre. The LORD hath called me from the wombe, from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And hee hath made my mouth like a sharped sword, in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft: in his quiers hath he hid mee.

3 And said vnto me, Thou art my seruant, O Ier, in whom I will be glorified.

4 Then I said, I haue laboured in vaine, I haue spent my strength for nought, and in vaine, yet shall my iudgement be with the LORD, and my worke with my God.

5 And now saith the LORD that formed mee from the wombe, to be his seruant, to bring Iacob againe to him: though Israel be y not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

6 And hee said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my seruant to raise vp the tribes of Iacob, and to restore the y preferred of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to y Gentiles, that thou mayst be my saluation vnto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a seruant of Rulers; Kings shall see and arise, Princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the oiy One of Israel, and he shall chuse thee.

8 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time haue I heard thee, and in a day of saluation haue I helped thee: and I will preferre thee, and give thee for a Cōuenant of the people: to establish the earth, to cause to inherite the desolate heritages.

9 That thou maist say to the prisoners: Gods fourth: to them that are in darkenesse, show your selues: they shall see high in the waies, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

10 They shall not hunger nor thirst, neither shall the heat, nor Sunne smite them: for hee that hath mercy on them, shall leade them, euen by the Springs of water shall he guide them.

11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my high wayes shall be exalted:

12 Behold, this shall come from Ier, and Ier shall 12 ¶ Sing O heaven, and be ioyfull O earth, and breake forth into singing, O mountains: for God hath comforted his people, and will haue mercy vpon his afflicted.

13 But Zion said, the LORD hath forsaken mee, and my LORD hath forgotten me.

14 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not haue compassion on the foster of her wombe? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

15 Behold, I haue graven thee vpon the palmes of my hand: thy walls are continually before me.

16 Thy children shall make haite, thy destroyers, and they that made thee waste, shall goe forth of thee.

17 ¶ Lift vp thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee: as I line (saith the LORD, thou shalt surely chide thee with them all, as with an ornament, and binde them on thee as a bride cloth.

18 For thy waste, and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction shall euen now be too narrow, by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee vp shall be farre away.

19 The children which thou shalt haue, after thou hast lost the other, shall say againe in thine eares, the place is too straight for me, giue place to mee that I may dwell.

20 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I haue lost my children, and am desolate, a captiue, and a remouing, and stand alone who hath brought vp these? Behold, I was left alone, these where had they bene?

21 Thus saith the LORD GOD, Behold, I will lift vp mine hand to the Gentiles, and set vp my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy finnes in their tresses: and thy daughters shall be carried vpon their shoulders.

22 And Kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their Queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bowe downe to thee with their face towards the earth, and like vp the dust of thy feet, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

23 ¶ Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the Lawfull captiue deliuered?

24 But thus saith the LORD, Euen the captiues of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be deliuered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

25 And I will keepe them that oppresse thee with their owne flesh, and they shall be drunken with their owne blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Iacob.

CHAP. L.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jewes is not to be imputed to him by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that which 7 and by his confidence in this assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in our sinnes.

¶ Thus saith the LORD, where is the bill of your mothers disurcement, whom I haue put away? or which of my creditors it is to whom I haue sold you? Behold, for your iniquities haue you sold your sinnes, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand sheweth at all, that it cannot redeme? or haue I no power to deliuer? Behold, as my rebuke I dry vp the Sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blacknesse, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The LORD GOD hath giuen mee the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speake a word in season to him that is weary: he waketh morning by morning, hee waketh mine eare to heare as the learned.

5 ¶ The LORD GOD hath opened mine eare, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backe.

6 ¶ I gaue my backe to the smiters, and my cheekes to them that plucked off the haire: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 ¶ For the LORD GOD will helpe me, therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore haue I set my face like a flint; and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 ¶ He it needs that iustifieth me, who will contend with me? let vs stand together: who is mine aduersary? let him come nere to me.

9 Behold, the LORD GOD will helpe me, who is he that shall condemne? Lo, they all shall waxe old as a garment: the moth shall eate them vp.

10 ¶ Who is among you that searcheth the LORD, that obeyeth the voyce of his seruants, that waketh in darkenesse, and hath no light? let him trust in the Name of the LORD, and they vpon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kinde a fire, that compassie your sinnes about with sparkes: walke in the light of your fire, and in the sparkes that ye haue kindled.

12 This shall ye haue of mine hand, ye shall lie downe in sorrow.

CHAP. LL.

1 An exhortation after the passage of Abrahams trust in Christ, by reason of his comfortable promises, 4 of his righteous saluacion, 7 and mans mortality, 9 Christ by his sacrificed arme defendeth him from the feare of man. 17 It is bewailed the afflictions of Ierusalem, 21 and promysed deliuerance.

¶ Hearken to me ye that follow after righteousnesse, ye that feare the LORD: looke vnto the rocke whence ye are hewen, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

2 Looke vnto Abraham your father, and vnto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

3 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: hee will comfort all her waste places, and hee will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD: they and gladnesse shall be toward therein, thanksgiving and the voyce of melody.

4 ¶ Hearken vnto me, my people, and giue eare vnto me, O my nation, for a Law shall proceed from me, and I will make my iudgement to rest for a light of the people.

5 My righteousnesse is nether: my saluation is gone forth, and mine armes shall iudge the people: the fles shall wait vpon mee, and on mine arme shall they trust.

6 Lift vp your eyes to the heavens, and looke vpon the earth beneath: for the heauens shall waxe away like smoke, and the earth shall waxe old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my saluation shall be for euer, and my righteousnesse shall not be abolished.

7 ¶ Hearken vnto me, ye that know righteousnesse, the people in whose heart is my Law: ¶ Feare ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worme shall eat them like wooll: but my righteousnesse shall be for ever, and my falvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ Awake, awake, put on strength, O arme of the L O R D, awake as in the ancient dayes, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

10 Art thou not it which hath dried the Sea, the waters of the great deepe, that hath made the depthes of the Sea a way for the ransomed to passe over?

11 Therefore the redeemed of the L O R D shall *returne and come with singing vnto Zion, and euertlasting ioy shall be vpon their *head: they shall obtaine gladnesse and ioy, and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

12 I, saies I and he that comforteth you, who art thou that thou shouldst be afraid * of a man that shall die, and of the sonne of man which shall be made as *grasse?

13 And forgettest the LORD thy Maker, that hath stretched forth the heauens and laid the foundations of the earth? and hast feared continually every day, because of the fury of the oppressour, as if he [were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressour?

14 The angrie exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should faile.

15 But I saies the LORD thy God, that * divided the Sea, whose waues roared: the LORD of hostes is his Name.

16 And I have put my words * in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heauen, & lay the foundations of the earth, and say vnto Zion, Thou art my people.

17 ¶ * Awake, awake, stand vp, O Ierusalem, which hast drunke at the hand of the L O R D the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wringst them out.

18 There is none to succour her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth: neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sonnes that she hath brought vp.

19 * These two things are come vnto thee, who shall be forrey for thee? desolation, and * destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 Thy souldiers sinned, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net, they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuker of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore heare now this, thou afflicted and drunken, but not with wine.

22 Thus saith thy Lord, the LORD and thy God, that pleadeth the cause of his people, behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, saies the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drinke it againe.

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee: which haue said to thy soule, Bow downe that wee may see our: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street to them that went ouer.

CHAP. LIJ.

1 Christ's founders by the Church to be his free redemption, 7 to receive the members thereof. 9 He say as the power thereof, 11 and to free themselves from bondage. 12 Christ's kingdom shall be established.

A Wake, awake, put on thy strength, O Zion, a put on thy beautifull garment, O Ierusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised & the violence. 1 Shake thy selfe from the dust: arise, and sit downe, O Ierusalem: loose thy selfe from the bands of thy necke, O captiue daughter of Zion.

2 For thus saith the LORD, Ye haue sold your selues for nought: and ye shall be redeemed without money.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went downe egipt into * Egypt to sojourne there, and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

4 Now therefore what haue I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that take ouer them, make them to howle, saith the LORD, and my Name continually euery day is * blasphemed.

5 Therefore my people shall know my Name: therefore shall they know in that day, that I am he that doth speake. Behold, it is I.

6 ¶ How beautifull vpon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth saluation, that saith vnto Zion, Thy God trippeth?

7 Thy watchmen shall liue vp the voice, with the voyce together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye when the LORD shall bring againe Zion.

8 Breake forth into ioy, sing together, ye worship places of Ierusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Ierusalem.

9 The LORD hath made bare his holy arme in the eyes of all the nations, and * all the ends of the earth shall for the saluation of one God.

10 ¶ Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no vncleane thing: goe ye out of the midst of her: be ye cleane that beere the vessels of the LORD.

11 For ye shall not goe out with hast, nor goe by flight: for the LORD will goe before you: and the God of Israel shall be your reuerend.

12 ¶ Behold, my seruant shall I declare prudently, he shall be exalted, and exalted, and be very high.

13 As many were shamed at thee, (his *virgin was so married more then any man, and his forme more then the sonnes of men:)

14 So shall he feare: make many nations, the Kings shall shut their mouthes at him; for that * which had not bene told them, shall they see, and that which they had not heard, shall they consider.

1 The Prophet's complaining of incredulity, necesseth the scandal of the crosses, & by the benefit of his passion, 10 and the good success thereof.

Who hath beleened our [report? and to whom is the arme of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow vp before him as a tender plant, and as a rooe out of a dry ground, he hath no forme nor comeliness: and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him, there is no beaury that we should desire him, 3 He is despised and ridiculed of men, a man of sorowes, and acquainted with griefe: and [we hid as it were our faces from him, he was despised and we esteemed him not.

4 ¶ Surely he hath borne our griefes, and carried our sorowes: yet we did esteeme him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was * wounded for our transgressions, as a hiding of faces, from him or from us. * * * * *

as a hiding of faces, from him or from us. * * * * *

he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheepe have gone astray; wee have turned every one to his owne way, and the LORD hath laid upon him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lambe to the slaughter, and as a sheepe before her shearcers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison, and from iudgement: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living, for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death, because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him: he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soule an offering for sinne, hee shall see his seed, hee shall prolong his dayes, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soule, and shall be satisfied by his knowledge, shall sty righteous against infinite many: for he shall beare their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and hee shall divide the spoile with the strong because he hath poured out his soule unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressours, and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressours.

1 The Prophet for the comfort of the Gentiles propheseth the amplitude of their Church, at their safety, 6 Their certaine deliverance out of affliction, 11 Their faire edification, 15 and their sure preservation.

1 Isaiah O barren, thou that diddest not beare: break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travell with child: for more are the children of the desolate, then the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth y curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy coards, and strengthen thy stakes.

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; & thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Feare not, for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded, for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy maker is thine husband (the LORD of hosts is his Name): & thy Redeemer the holy one of Israel, the God of thy whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken, and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, whom thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee, but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 So a little wrath I hid my face from thee, for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn by the waters of Noah, should I more ever cur the earth: so have I sworn that I would not be wrath with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, & the hills be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the Covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD, that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, comforted with compassion, comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with turquoise colours, and lay thy foundations with Saphires.

12 And I will make thy windowes of Agates, and thy gates of Carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD, and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shall thou be established: thou shalt be farre from oppression, for thou shalt not feare; and from terror, for it shall not come ather thee.

15 Behold they shall surely gather together, but not by marriage: neither shall they gather together against thee, shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coales in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his worke, and I have created the walker to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper: and every tongue that shall rise against thee in iudgment, thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me saith the LORD.

1 The Prophet with the promises of Christ, saith to faith, 5 and to repentance. 8 The happy fruites of charity that beleeve.

1 Isaiah O, ye every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and be that hath no money, come ye, buy and eat, yea, come, buy wine and milke without money, and without price.

2 Wherefore doe ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? be weary diligently unto me, and eate ye that which is good, and let your soule delight it selfe in fatnesse.

3 Incline your eare, and come unto me: heare, and your soule shall live, and I will make an everlasting Covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee, shall run unto thee, because of the LORD thy God, & for the holy One of Israel, for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD, while he is neere, call ye upon him while he is neere.

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the righteous man his thoughts: and let him returne unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him: and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your waies my waies, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher then the earth, so are my waies higher then your waies, and my thoughts then your thoughts.

10 For as the raine commeth downe, & the snow from heauen, & returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, & maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater.

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not returne unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I send it.

12 For ye shall goe out with joy, and be led forth with peace, the mountains, & the hills shall break forth forth before you into fusing: and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

17 In stead of the thorne shall come vp the firre-tree: & in stead of the brier shall come vp the myrtle tree, and it shall bee to the LORD for a Name, for an everlasting signe that shall not be cut off.

1 The Prophet exhorteth to justification: 2 He promyseth it shall be generall, without respect of persons. 3 He enuermeth against him that watcheth.

Thus saith the LORD, Keepe ye judgement, and doe iustice: for my saluation is nere to come, and my righteousnesse to be reucaled.

2 Blessed is the man that dotheth, and the souer of man that saileth hold on it: that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any euill.

3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath ioined himselfe to the LORD, speake, saying, The LORD hath vntuly separated me from his people: neither let the Eugeuch say, behold, I saw a dry stre.

4 For thus saith the LORD vnto the Eunuch, that keepes my Sabbaths, and doeth the things that please me, and taketh hold of my Couenant.

5 Euen vnto them will I gaue in mine house, and within my walls a place, and a name better then of Simes and of daughters: I will giue them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger that ioyne themselves to the LORD, to serue him, and to loue the Name of the LORD, to be his seruants, every one that keepeth the Sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my Couenant:

7 Euen them will I bring to my holy mountaine, and make them ioyfull in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings, and their sacrifices shall be accepted vpon mine Altar: for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The LORD-God which gathereth the outcasts of Israel, saith, Yet will I gather others to him, & beside these that are gathered vnto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to deuoure, and all ye beasts of the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumbe dogs, they cannot barked: sleeping, lying downe, louing to slumber.

11 Yea, they are like greely dogs, which can neuer haue enough, and they are shepherds that cannot vnderstand: they all looke to their owne way, every one for his gaine, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and wee will fill our felnes with strong drinke, and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

C H A P. L V I I.

1 The blessed death of the righteous: 2 God reproveth the Lewes for their whorish idolatry. 3 He exhorteth the Lewes to repentance.

The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and mercifull men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the euill to euer.

2 Hee shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his vprightnesse.

3 But draw neere hither, ye sonnes of the fornicarie, the seed of the adulterer, and the whore.

4 Against whom doe ye sport your selues? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? or ye are not children of iniquitie, and a seed of falshood?

5 Inflaming your selues with idoles, vnder every greene tree, saying the children in the valleys vnder the clift of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the streame is thy portion: they thy, are thy lot: curst to them hast thou powred a drinke offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these? 7 Vpon a lofty and high mountaine hath thy bed: euen thither wenchest thou vnto other sacrifices. 8 Behind the doores also and the posts hast thou set vp thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thy selfe to leaue me, and art gone vp: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and I made a Couenant with them that succeed thy bed: where thou sweest it.

9 And if thou wenchest to the King with ornament, and thine increase thy perfumes, and dost send thy messengers farre off, and dost debate thy selfe euen vnto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the grace of thy way, yet sleepest thou not, There is no hope: Thou hast found the life of thine hand: therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou bene afraid, or feared, that thou hast led, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace euen of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy workes, for they shall not profit thee.

13 When thou cryest, let thy companies deliuer thee: but the wind shall carry them all away: vanity shall take them, but he that putteth his trust in me, shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountaine.

14 And shall say, * Cast ye vp, cast ye vp: prepare the way, take vp the stumbling blocke out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternitie, whose Name is holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit: to reuilde the spirit of the humble, & to reuilde the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for euer, neither will I be alwayes wroth: for the spirit should faile before me, and the soules which I haue made.

17 For the iniquitie of his conscience was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on forwardly in the way of his heart.

18 I haue seene his wayes, and will heale him: I will leade him also, and restore comforts vnto him, and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips: peace, peace to him that is farre off, and to him that is neere, saith the LORD, and I will heale him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast vp mire and dirt.

21 * There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

C H A P. L V I I I.

1 The Prophet leuius, first to reprove hypocrites & exprophet a counterfeite fast and a true. 2 Hee declareth what promises are due vnto godlynesse, 3 and to the keeping of the Sabbath.

Crye a loud, spare no, lift vp thy voyce like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of iacob their sinnes:

2 Yet they heeke me daily, and delight to know my voice, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsooke not the ordinance of their God: they aske of me the ordinances of iustice: they take delight in approaching to God.

3 Wherefore haue we failed, say they, and thou seest not: wherefore haue we sinned, and thou takest no knowledge? behold, in your day of your fast you had pleasure, and exact all your labours:

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickednesse, ye shall not fast,

For I have not offered a drinke offering, nor have I offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these? 7 Vpon a lofty and high mountaine hath thy bed: euen thither wenchest thou vnto other sacrifices. 8 Behind the doores also and the posts hast thou set vp thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thy selfe to leaue me, and art gone vp: thou hast enlarged thy bed, and I made a Couenant with them that succeed thy bed: where thou sweest it. 9 And if thou wenchest to the King with ornament, and thine increase thy perfumes, and dost send thy messengers farre off, and dost debate thy selfe euen vnto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the grace of thy way, yet sleepest thou not, There is no hope: Thou hast found the life of thine hand: therefore thou wast not grieved.

17 For the iniquitie of his conscience was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on forwardly in the way of his heart.

21 * There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

Yet they heeke me daily, and delight to know my voice, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsooke not the ordinance of their God: they aske of me the ordinances of iustice: they take delight in approaching to God. 3 Wherefore haue we failed, say they, and thou seest not: wherefore haue we sinned, and thou takest no knowledge? behold, in your day of your fast you had pleasure, and exact all your labours: 4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickednesse, ye shall not fast, 23 yet doe this day, to make your joyes to be heard on high.

1 Is it such a fall that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soule? is it to bow downe his head as a bulke, and to spread sackcloth and ashes vnder him? will thou call this a fall, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fall that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickednesse, to vndoe the heauy burdenes, and to let the oppressed goe free; and that ye breake every yoke.

7 Is it not to deale thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poore that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him, and that thou hide not thy selfe from thine owne flesh?

8 ¶ Then shall thy light breake forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousnesse shall goe before thee, the glory of the LORD shall be thy reuerend.

9 Thou shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am: if thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soule to the hungry, and satisfie the afflicted soule: then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darknesse be as y noune day.

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfie thy soule in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt bee like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fill no.

12 And they that shall be of thee, shall build the olde waile places, which shall raise up the foundations of many generations: and thou shalt be called the reparer of the breach, the restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If thou turne away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable, and shall honour him, not doiug thine owne wiles, nor finding thine owne pleasure, nor speaking thine owne wile.

14 Then shall thou delight thy selfe in the LORD, and I will cause thee to ride vpon the high places of the earth, and feede thee with the heritage of Iacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

1 The desirable nature of siene. 2 The finnes of the Jewes. 3 Calkenay is for siene. 15 Saluation is onely of God. 20 The Covenants of the Redeemer.

Behold, the LORDS hand is not shortened, that he cannot saue, neither his care heauy that he cannot heare:

2 But your iniquities haue separated betweene you and your God, and your finnes haue hid his face from you, that he will neither hee.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity, your lips haue spoken lye, your tongue hath murdered penuriosenesse.

4 None calleth for iustice, nor any pleadeth for truel: they trust in vanity, and speake lye, they conuince mischiefe, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice egges, and weane the spiders web: he that eateth of their egges dieth, and that which is crushed, breaketh out into a Viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they couer themselves with their workes, their workes are workes of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet runne to euill, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughtes of iniquity, waiting and destruction are in their pathes.

8 The way of peace they know not, and there is no iudgement in their going: they haue made them crooked paths, whose soeuer goeth therein, shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is iudgement farre from vs, neither doth iustice ouertake vs: wee wait for light, but behold obscurity, for brightnesse, but we walke in darknesse.

10 Wee grope for the wall like the blinde, and wee grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night, we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 Wee reare all like beares, and manure sore like dones: we looke for iudgement, but there is none; for saluation, but it is farre off from vs.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sinnes testify against vs; for our transgressions are with vs, and as for our iniquities, we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and twoull, concealing and vttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And iudgement is turned away backward, and iustice standeth a farre off: for traueth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth is fallen, and he that departeth from euill, hath made himselfe a prey, and the LORD saw it, and it displeaseth him that there was no iudgement.

16 ¶ And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no mercifullour. Therefore his arme brought saluation vnto him, and his righteousnesse sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness like a breastplate, and an helmet of saluation vpon his head: and hee put on the garments of vengeance for cloathing, and was clad with zeale as a cloake.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly hee will repay fury to his aduersaries, recompence he will pay to the vlande he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they feare the Name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the Sun: when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the spirit of the LORD shall lift vp a standard against him.

20 ¶ And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and vnto them that turne from transgression in Iacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is vpon thee, and my words which I haue put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seede, nor out of the mouth of thy seeds seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth, and for ever.

Alie, I thinke, for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen vpon thee.

2 For behold, the darknesse shall couer the earth, and grosse darknesse the people, but the LORD shall arise vpon thee, and his glory shall be seene vpon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and Kings to the brightnesse of thy rising.

4 Lift vp thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sonnes shall come from farre, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then shalt thou see, & flow together, and thine heart shall scare and bee enlarged, because the abundance of the Sea shall be converted vnto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come vnto thee.

6 The multitude of Camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah: all they from Sheba shall come, they shall bring gold & incense, and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall bee gathered together vnto thee: the rams of Nebioth shall minister vnto thee: they shall come vp with acceptance on mine Altar, & I will glorifie the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that sit as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the lies shall waite for me, & the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sonnes from farre, their silver and their gold with them, vnto the Name of the LORD thy God, and to the holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sonnes of strangers shall hold vp thy wailles, and their Kings shall minister vnto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my fauour haue I mercy had on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually, they shall not be shut day nor night, that men may bring vnto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their Kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdome that will not serue thee, shall perish, yea these nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come vnto thee, the Firre-tree, the Pine-tree, and the Box together, to beautifie the place of my Sanctuary, and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The fons also of them that afflicted thee, shall come bending vnto thee, and all they that despised thee, shall bow themselves downe at the soles of thy feet, and they shall call thee the citie of the LORD, the Zion of the holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast bene forsaken and hated, so that no man went thorow thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Then shalt alke sucke the milke of the Gentiles, and shalt sucke the brest of Kings, and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour, and thy Redeemer, the mighty one of Iacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for yron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, & for houses yron: I will also make thine officers peace, and thine exaltors righteousnesse.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders: but thou shalt call thy walls saluation, and thy gates prayse.

19 The Sun shall no more thy light by day, neither for brightness shall the Moone giue light vnto thee: but the LORD shall be vnto thee: an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy Sonne shall no more pee downe, neither shall thy Moone withdraw it selfe: for the LORD shall bee thine everlasting light, and the dayes of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be righteous, they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the worke of my hands that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will haften it in his time.

CHAP. LXXI.

The office of a bridd & the former desceit, and the spirit of the Lord GOD is vpon mee, because the LORD hath anoynted me to preach good tidings vnto the meake, hee hath sent me to bind vp the broken hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captiues, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

2 To proclaime the acceptable yeere of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourne:

3 To appoynt vnto them that residue in Zion, to giue vnto them beauty for ashes, the oyle of ioy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heauinesse, that they might bee called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that haue not bee glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wailes, they shall raise vp the former desolations, & they shall repaire the wail cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the fons of the alien shall be your plow men and your vine-dressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eate the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast your selues.

7 For your shame you shall haue double: and for confusion they shall reioyce in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: euertlasting ioy shall be vnto them.

8 For I the LORD loue iudgement, I hate robbery for burnt offering, and I will direct their worke in truth, and I will make an euertlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall bee knowne among the Gentiles, and their off-spring among the people: All that see them, shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed whom the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly reioyce in the LORD, my soule shall bee ioyfull in my God: for hee hath clothed me with the garments of saluation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroome decketh himselfe with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herselfe with her iewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sowne in it to spring forth: so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAP. LXXII.

The fervent desire of the Prophet to confirme the Church in Gods promises, & the office of the ministers, (vnto which they are incited) in preaching the Gospel, 10 And preparing the people secretly.

For Zions sake will I not hold my peace, and for Ierusalem sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof goe forth as brightness, and the saluation thereof as a lampe that burneth:

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, & all kings thy glory, & thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also bee a crowne of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royall diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed, Forsaken, neither shall thy land any more be termed, Desolate: but thou shalt be called, Hephzi-bah, and thy land shall be called, Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marryeth a virgin, so shall thy fons marry thee: and as the bridegroome reioyceth ouer the bride, so shall thy God reioyce ouer thee.

6 I haue set watchmen vpon thy wailles, O Ierusalem.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arme of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy come to be made for thine enemies, and the sonnes of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it, shall eate it, and praise the LORD, and they that have brought it together, shall drinke it in the courts of my holines.

CHAP. LXIII

1 What his victory over his enemies, 2 what his mercy towards his Church, 3 In his iust wrath hee remembereth his free mercy, 4 The Church in their prayer, 5 and complaints, profess their faith.

W^Ho is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments made of Bozrah? this that is in his apperell, travelling in the prettynesse of his strength? that speaks in righteousness, might & faue.

1 Wherefore* or thou red in thine apperell, & thy garments like him that treadeth in y^e wine-press? 2 I have trodeth the wine-press alone, and of the people there was none with me; for I will tread them in mine anger, and will trample them in my fury, and their blood shall be sprinkled vpon my garments, and I will staine y^e my raiment.

3 For the * day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the yere of my redemption is come.

4 And I looked, and there was none to helpe: and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine owne * arme brought saluation vnto me, and my fury, it vpheld mee.

5 And I will tread downe the people in mine anger, and make them drinke in my fury, and I will bring downe their strength to the earth.

6 ¶ I will mentioe in the louing kindnesse of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on vs, and the great goodnesse toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them, according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his louing kindnesse.

7 For hee said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: So he was their Saviour.

8 In all their affliction hee was afflicted, and the Angel of his presence saued them: in his loue and in his pity hee redeemed them, and he bare them, and carried them all the dayes of old.

9 ¶ But they * rebelled and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

10 Then hee remembered the dayes of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is hee that * brought them vp out of the Sea, with the shepheard of his flocke? Where is hee that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses, with his glorious arme; * dividing the waters before them, to make himselfe an euertlasting Name?

13 That led them thorow the deepe as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth downe into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD raised him to rest: so didst thou leade thy people, to make thy selfe a glorious Name.

15 ¶ * Looke downe from heauen, and beholde from the habitation of thy holines, and of thy glory: where is thy zeale and thy strenght, in thy founding of thy bowels, and of thy mercies towards mee? are they restrained?

16 Doubtlesse thou art our Father, though Abraham be ignorant of vs, and Isaac acknowledge vs not: thou, O LORD, art our Father, & our Reuener, thy Name is from euertlasting.

17 ¶ O LORD, Why hast thou made vs to erre from thy waies? and hardened our heart from thy feare? Returne for thy seruants sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holinesse haue possessed a but a litle while: our aduersaries haue trode downe thy sanctuary.

19 We are strangers, whose neuer barest rule ouer them; & they were not called by thy Name.

CHAP. LXIII

1 The Church prayeth for the mitigation of Gods power: 2 Celebrating Gods mercy: 3 in maketh good feoffers of euen naturall corruptions: 4 In complaint of their affliction.

O^H that thou wouldst rent the heauens, that thou wouldst come downe, that the mountains might flowe downe at thy presence,

1 As when * the melting fire burneth, the fire caughth the waters to voyle, so make thy Name knowne to thine aduersaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence.

2 When thou diddest terrible things, where we looked not for, thou camest downe, the mountains bowed downe at thy presence.

3 For since the beginning of the world, * men haue not heard, nor perceived by the eare, neither hath the eye seene, O God, besides thee, what hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

4 ¶ Thou shalt be beheld in thy wrath, and woe, with righteousness, those that remember thee in thy waies: behold, thou art worthy for we haue sinned in thine is continuance, and we shall be found.

5 But we are all as vnckeane thing, and all our righteousnessees are as filthy ragges, and we all doe * fade as a leaue, and our iniquities like the wind, haue taken vs away.

6 And there is none that alleds vpon thy Name, that shal erre vp himselfe to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from vs, and hast * confounded vs because of our iniquities.

7 But now, O LORD, thou art our Father: wee are the clay, and thou our potter, and we are the worke of thine hand.

8 ¶ Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for cure: behold, see wee beleeue thee, we are all thy people.

9 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Ierusalem a desolation.

10 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers prayed of thee, is burnt vp with fire, and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

11 Wilt thou restrain thy selfe for these things O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and silit vs very sore?

CHAP. LXX.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 2 The lawes for their incredulity, idolatry, and hypocrisie, are revealed. 3 A remnant shall be saved. 11 Judgements on the wicked, and blessings on the guilty. 17 The blessed state of the new Jerusalem.

I am thought of: thou that albed not for mee: I am found of those that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my Name.

I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their owne thoughts:

A people that pronoketh me to anger continually to my face, that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon Altars of brick:

Which remaine among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swines flesh; and which of abominable things is in their vessels:

Which say, Stand by thy selfe, come not neere to me; for I am holier than thou: these are a furrour to my face, I will not see them: neither hearken I unto their voice.

Behold, it is written before me: I will not keepe silence, but will recompense, euen recompense into their bosome,

Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together (saith the LORD) which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed upon my Name: therefore will I visit them their former works into their bosome.

Thus saith the LORD, As this new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my seruants sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherite it; and my seruants shall dwell there.

And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

But ye say they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that I tremble, and thinke, I will not see: and offering upon the high: I will not see.

Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all how downe to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer, when I spake, ye did not heare, but have did call before mine eyes, and did not see: wherein I delighted not.

Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, my seruants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my seruants shall drinke, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my seruants shall reioyce, but ye shall be ashamed.

Behold, my seruants shall sing for ioy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howle for vexation of spirit.

And ye shall haue your name for a curse vnto my chosen: for the Lord God shall say thee, and call his seruants by another name:

That hee who blesteth himselfe in the earth, shall blesteth himselfe in the God of truth; and hee that sweareth in the earth, shall sweare by the God of truth, because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

For behold, I create a new heauen, and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembred, nor come into mind.

But for you glad and reioyce for euer in that which I create: for behold, I create Jerusalem a reioicing, and her people a ioy.

19 And I will reioyce in Jerusalem, and say in my people, and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

These shall be no more thence an infane of dayes, nor an old man that hath not filled his daies: for the child shall die an hundred yeeres old: their siner being an hundred yeeres old shall be accounted.

And they shall build houses & inhabit them: & they shall plant vineyards, & eat the fruit of them.

They shall not build, and another inhabit: they shall not plant, and another eat; for at the dayes of a tree are the dayes of my people, & mine elect shall long enjoy the worke of their hands.

They shall not labour in vaine, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

And it shall come to passe, that before they call, I will answer, and while they are yet speaking, I will heare.

The wolfe & the lambe shall feed together, and the lyon shall eat straw like the bullocke, and dust shall be the serpents meat, They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountaine, saith the LORD.

CHAP. LXXI.

The glorious God will be served in humble silence. He comforteth the humble wit: the marvellous generation, and with the gracious benefits of the Church. Gods severall judgements against the wicked. The Gentiles had bene a holy Church, and for the damnation of the wicked.

Thus saith the LORD, The heauen is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build vnto me? and where is the place of my rest?

For all these things hath my hand made, and all these things have bene, saith the LORD: but this man will I looke, man to him that is poore and of a covetise spirit, and trembleth at my word.

He that killeth an ox, as if he slay a man: he that sacrificeth a lambe, as if he offer a dogge: he that offereth an oblation, as if he offer the finest blood: he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol: yet they have chosen their own wayes, and their soule delighteth in their abominations.

I also will chuse their delusions, and will bring their feares upon them: because when I called, none did answer: when I spake, they did not heare: but they did call before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

Hearre the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word: your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my Names sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but hee shall appeare to your ioy, and they shall be ashamed.

A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the Temple, a voice of the LORD, that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

Before shee was travailed, shee brought forth: before her paine came, she was delivered of a man-child.

Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seene such things? shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day, or shall a nation be borne at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, shee brought forth her children.

Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth, saith the LORD? shall I cause to bring forth, and shall hee wombe, saith the God?

Reioyce ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: reioyce for ioy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

That ye say sister, and bee satisfied with the breasts benefits of her consolations: that ye may milke out & be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye say, ye shall be * borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you: and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: & the hand of the LORD shall be knowne toward his servants, and his indignation towards his enemies.

15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire, & with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword, will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctifie themselves, and purifie themselves in the gardens, & behind one tree in the midst, eating swines flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come that I will gather all nations, and tongues, and they shall come and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them, unto the nations, to Tyrus, to Phoenicia, and to the islands, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Tann, to the Isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory, and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD, out of all nations, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, (saith the LORD,) as the children of Israel bring an offering in a cleane vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And they shall take of them for * Priests, and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as * the new heavens, and the new earth which I will make, shall remaine before me (saith the LORD,) so shall your seed and your name remaine.

23 And it shall come to passe, that if from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall goe forth, and looke upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their * worne shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched, and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

CHAPTER I.

1 The time, and the calling of Jeremiah. He his propheticall visions of an Almond tree, and a seething pot: 12 His heavy message against Judah, 17 God monereth him with his promise of assistance.

18 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilki-ah, of the Priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

2 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amos, King of Judah, in the thirteenth yeere of his reigne.

3 It came also in the dayes of Jehoiaquin the son of Josiah King of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh yeere of Zedekiah the son of Josiah King of Judah: unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

4 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Before I * formed thee in the belly, I knew thee, and before thou camest forth out of the wombe, I * sanctified thee: and I * ordained thee a Prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I, Ah * Lord GOD, behold, I cannot speak, for I am a child.

7 * But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee, thou shalt speak.

8 * Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee: to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and * touched my mouth, and the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have * put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee over the nation, and over the kingdome, to * root out, and to pull downe, and to destroy, and to throw downe, to build, and to plant.

11 * Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto mee, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an Almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seene: for I will bestow my word to performe it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me, the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot, and the face thereof was * toward the North.

14 Then the LORD said unto mee, Out of the North an euill * shall breake forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For loe, I will * call all the families of the kingdome of the North, saith the LORD, and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walles thereof round about, and against all the cities of Iudah.

16 And I will utter my iudgements against them touching all their wickednesse, who have forsaken me, and have burnt incense vnto other gods, and worshipped the works of their owne hands.

17 * For thou shalt see a gard vpon thy loynes, and arise and speake vnto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I * confound thee before them.

18 For behold, I have made thee this day * a defence city, and an yron pillar, and a brazen walle against the whole land, against the Kings of Iudah, against the Princes thereof, against the Priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee, but they shall not preuaile against thee: for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER II.

1 God haue showed his former kindeesse, profitable with the Ieruzs, their captiuee results, beyond any example. 14 They are the causes of their owne calamities. 20 The sinnes of Iudah. 31 Her confusance is revealed.

Morrower, the word of the LORD came to me saying,

1 Goe, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wast after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

2 Isracel was holiness unto the LORD, and the first fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend, euill shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

3 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel.

4 Thus saith the LORD; What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone farre from me, and haue walked after vanity, and are become vaine?

5 Neither said they, Where is the LORD, that brought vs vp out of the land of Egypt? that led vs thorow the wilderness, thowow a land of deserts and of pits, thowow a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, thowow a land that no man passed thorow, and where no man dwelt.

6 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof, and the goodnesse thereof, but when ye entered, ye despised my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

7 The priests said not, where is the LORD? and they that handle the Law, know me not: the Pastours also transgressed against me, and the Prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

8 Wheretore, I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your childrens children, will I plead.

9 For passe I ouer the yler of Chittim, and see and send vnto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

10 Hath a nation changed their gods, which yet no gods? but my people haue changed their glory, for that which doth not profit.

11 Be astonished, O ye heathens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

12 For my people haue committed two euils: they haue forsaken me, our fountain of liuing waters, and haued them: our Cisternes, broken Cisternes, that can hold no water.

13 Is it Israel a fernuise? is hee a home-borne plant? why is he spoiled?

14 The young lions roared vpon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste; his skies are thine without inhabitant.

15 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes haue broken the crowne of thy head.

16 Hast thou not procured this vnto thy selfe, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

17 And now, what hast thou to doe in the way of Egypt, to drinke the waters of Sijer? Or what hast thou to doe in the way of Assyria, to drinke the waters of the riuer?

18 Thine owne wickednesse shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see, that it is an euill thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my feare is not in thee, saith the LORD GOD of hostes.

19 For of old time I haue broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands, and thou saidst, I will not be brought into subiection: when euery high hill, and vnder euery greene tree thou wandrest, playing the harlot.

20 Yet I had multiplied thee a vnicorne vine, wholly a right seed: How then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine vnto me?

21 For though thou wash thee with nitre and take thee much sope, yet thine iniquitie is marked before me, saith the LORD GOD.

22 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I haue not gone after Baalim? for thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done; thou art a swift Dremedary, trauesing her waies.

23 A wild she feild to the wilderness, she stretcheth vp the wind at her pleasure, in her occasion who can thoue her away? all they that seeke her will not seeay themselves, in her mouth they shall finde her.

24 Withhold thy foot from being vntoed, and thy throte from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope. No, for I haue loued strangers, and after them will I goe.

25 As the these is aflamed when he is found: so is the house of Israel aflamed, they, their Kings, their Priests, and their Priests, and their Prophets.

26 Saying to a sheeke; Thou art my father, and to a stone; Thou hast brought me forth: for they haue turned their backs vnto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble, they will say, Assist, and saue vs.

27 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can saue thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Iudah.

28 Wheretore will me please with mee? ye all haue transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

29 In vaine haue I smitten your children, they receiued no correction: your owne sword hath deuoured your Prophets, like a destroying lyon.

30 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD: I haue bene a wilderness vnto Israel: a land of darkness: wherefore say my people; We are Lords, we will come no more vnto thee.

31 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people haue forgotten me dayes without number.

32 Why trimmedst thou thy way to seeke loue? therefore hast thou taught the wicked ones thy wayes.

33 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the soules of the poore innocents: I haue not found it by secret search, but vpon all these.

34 Yet thou saidst, Because I am innocēt, surely his anger shall turne from me: behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I haue not sinned.

35 Why goddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

36 Yea thou shalt goe forth from him, and thine hands vpon thine head: for the LORD hath reuenged thy confidence, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

CHAP. III

1 Gods great mercy in Iudahs wile whereof come 6 Iudah is worse then Israel. 2 The promises of the Gospel to the penitent as Israel repented called by God, maketh a solemn confession of their sinnes.

They say, If a man put away his wife, and she shall goe from him, and become another mans, shall hee returne vnto her againe? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many houses, yet returne againe vnto me, saith the LORD.

2 Lift vp thine eyes vnto the high places, and see where thou hast not bene lyen with: in the wayes hast thou late for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness, and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredomes, and with thy wickednesse.

3 Theretore will thy whores be angry withholden, and there shall be no later raise, and thou shalt Chap. 17. haddeth a * whorers forehead, thou refuseth to be ashamed.

4 Will thou not from this time cry vnto mee, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

5 Will he reuerse his anger for euer? will he keepe it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done euill things as thou couldest.

6 ¶ The L O R D said also vnto me in the dayes of Iosiah King, Hast thou seene that which backsliding Israel hath done? There is * gone vp vpon euery high mountaine, and vnder euery greene tree, and there hath played the harlot.

7 And I said after she had done all these things: Turne thou vnto me: but she returned not, and her treacherous sister Iudah saw it.

8 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery, I had put her away, and given her a bill of diuorce: yet her treacherous sister Iudah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to passe, thowgh the lightnesse of her whoredome, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with flowers and with flockes:

10 And yet for all this, her treacherous sister Iudah hath not turned vnto me with her whole heart, but * fliedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said vnto me, The backsliding Israel hath iustified her selfe more then treacherous Iudah.

12 ¶ Goe and proclaim thes words toward the North, and say, Returne thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD, and I will not cause mine anger to fall vpon you for I am mercifull, saith the LORD, and I will not keepe anger for euer.

13 Ouely acknowledge thine iniquity that thou hast transgressed against the L O R D thy God, and hast scattered thy waies to the strangers vnder euery greene tree, and yet haue not obeyed any voyce, saith the LORD.

14 Turne, O backsliding children, saith the LORD, for I am married vnto you: and I will take you one of a cite, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

15 And I will giue you * Pastors according to mine heart, which shall feede you with knowledge and vnderstanding.

16 And it shall come to passe when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those dayes, saith the LORD, they shall say no more: Theaerke of the Covenent of the LORD: neither shall they come to minde, neither shall they remember it, neither shall they visit it, neither shall I shew her done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Ierusalem, The Throne of the LORD, and all the nations shall be gathered vnto it, to the Name of the LORD, to Ierusalem: neither shall they walke any more after the imagination of their euill heart.

18 In those dayes the house of Iudah shall walke with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the North, to the land that I haue: I giuen for an inheritance vnto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and giue thee a * pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the houses of nations? and I said: Thou shalt call me, My father, and shalt not turne away from me.

20 ¶ Surely, as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so haue you deare treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard vp in the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel, for they haue peruerced their way, and they haue forgotten the LORD their God.

22 ¶ Returne ye backsliding children, and I will heale your backslidings: Behold, wee come vnto thee, for thou art the LORD our God.

23 Truly in vaine is saluation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountaines: truly in the LORD our God is the saluation of Israel.

24 For shame hath denuded the labour of our fathers from our youth: their flocks and their herds their fowles and their lingsheere.

25 Wee lie downe in shame, and our confusion conuerth vs: for we haue sinned against the LORD our God, yea our fathers from our youth euen vnto this day, and haue not obeyed the voyce of the LORD our God.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise: 2 He exhorteth Iudah to repentance by fearefull iudgements. 19 A precious lamentation for the miseries of Iudah. ¶ If thou wilt returne, O Israel, saith the LORD, I will returne vnto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shall thou not returne.

2 And thou shalt sweare, the LORD iureth, in Truth, in Iudgement, and in Righteousnesse, and the nations shall blesse themselves in him, and in him shall they * glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Iudah and Ierusalem, Breake vp your fallow ground, and sow no: among thornes.

4 Circumcise your hearts to the LORD, and take away the foreskin of your heart, ye men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem, lest my fury come forth like fire, and burne this moste euill quenche it, because of the ouill of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Iudah, and Ierusalem, saith the LORD, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble your selves, and let vs goe into the defended cities.

6 Set vp the standards toward Zion: I retire, say not; for I will bring euill from the North, and a great * destruction.

7 The lion is come vp from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles from his wig: he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate, and the cities shall be laid waste without an inhabitant.

8 For this * gird you with sackcloth, lament and howle: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned backe from vs.

9 And it shall come to passe at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the King shall perish, and the heart of the Princes: and the priests shall be astonished, and the Prophets shall wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, surely thou hast greatly deceiued this people and Ierusalem, saying, Ye shall haue peace, whereas the sword reacheth vnto the soule.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people, and to Ierusalem, A dry winde of the high places in the wilderness, toward the daughter of my people, not to sence, nor to cleanse.

12 Euen ¶ a full winde from those places shall come vnto me: now also will I giue sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come vp as clouds, and his chariots shall be as whirlwindes: his horses are swifter then Eagles; woe vnto vs, for we are spoiled.

14 O Ierusalem, * woe thine heart from wickednesse, that thou mayest be feared, how long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

13 For a voice declareth * froth Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

14 Make ye mention to the nations, behold, publish against Ierusalem, s^har waters come from a farre country, and give out their voice against the cities of Iudah.

15 As keepers of a field are they against her about about, because three hath become rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

16 * Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee: this is thy wickednesse, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

17 ¶ My * bowels, my bowels, I am pained at my very heart: * my heart maketh a noise in me, I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soule, the sound of the trumpet, the alarme of war.

18 Destruction upon destruction is cried, for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

19 How long shall I see the standard, and heare the sound of the trumpet?

20 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are foolish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to doe evil, but to doe good they have no knowledge.

21 ¶ Behold the earth, and loe, it was without forme and void: and the heauens, and they had no light.

22 I beheld the mountains, and loe, they trembled, and all the hill moued shak.

23 I beheld, and loe, there was no man, and all the birds of the heauens were fled.

24 I beheld, and loe, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken downe at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

25 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate: * yet will I not make a full end.

26 For this shall the earth mourne, and the heauens shal be blacke: because I haue spoken it, I haue purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turne backe from it.

27 The whole stile shall see for the noise of the horsemen, and bowmen they shall go into thickets, and climbe vp vpon the rockes: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

28 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou doe? though thou clothe thy selfe with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rushest thy face with painting, in vaine shalt thou make thy selfe faire, thy fowlers will despise thee, they will secke thy life.

29 For I haue heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth her selfe, that spreadeth her hand, saying: Woe is me now, for my soule is wearied, because of murderers.

C H A P. V.

The iudgements of God vpon the Iewes, for their power, iustly, 7 for their adultery, 10 for their impiety, 19 for their contempt of Gods, 25 and for their great corruption in the ciuill state, 30 and Ecclesiasticall.

R Va ye to and fro thowow the streets of Ierusalem, and see now, and know, and seeke in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that exceceth iudgement, that seeketh the truth, and I will pardon it.

2 And though they say, The LORD hath surely

3 O LORD, we see thin things vpon the earth: thou hast forsaken them, but they haue not forsaken thee: thou hast forsaken them, but they haue refused to receiue correction: they haue made their faces harder then a rocke, they haue refused to returne.

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poore, they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the iudgement of their God.

5 I will get me vnto the great men, and will speake vnto them, for they haue knowen the way of the LORD, and the iudgement of their God: but these haue altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore I vnto one of the farrest shall say them, and a wolfe of the kennings shall spoile them, a leopard shall watch out their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be taken in snare, because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

7 ¶ How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children haue forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troopes in the harlots houses.

8 ¶ They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour wife.

9 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD, and shall not my soule be incensed on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ Get ye vp vpon her walles and destroy, but make not a full end: take away her battlements, for they are not the LORDS.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Iudah haue deak very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 They haue belyed the LORD, and said, It is not he, neither shall euill euill come vpon vs, neither shall we see sword nor famine.

13 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it bee done vnto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, because ye speake this word, behold I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall deuoure them.

15 Loe, I will bring a * nation vpon thee from farre, O house of Israel saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And they shall eat vp thine * harvest, and thy bread, which thy sonnes and thy daughters should eat: they shall cate vp thy flockes and thy herds, they shall eat vp thy vines and thy figgetrees: they shall imposterish the fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless, in these dayes, saith the LORD, I * will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to passe, when ye shall say, * Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things vnto vs? then shall thou answer them, Like as ye haue forsaken me, and serued strange gods in your land, so shall yee serue strangers in a land, that is not yours.

20 Declare this in the house of Iacob, and publish it in Iudah, saying, 21 Heare now this, O * foolish people, and without understanding, which haue eyes and see not, which haue eares and heare not.

22 Heare ye yet me, saith the LORD: I will be mercifull treble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the Sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot passe it, and though the waves thereof come themselves, yet can they not prevaile, though they roare, yet can they not passe ouer it: 23 But this people hath a revolting, and a rebellous heart: they are revolted, and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let vs now feare the LORD our God that giveth raine, both the former and the latter in his season: he reſeruethe water vs the appointed weekes of the harvest.

25 Your inquiries have turned away these things, and your finnes have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay waite as he that setteth snares, they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of doctour, therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yes, they overſpaffe the deeds of the wicked, they iudge not the cause, the cause of the fatherlesse, yet they prosper: & the right of the needy doe they not iudge.

29 Shall I not visite for these things, saith the LORD? shall not my soule bee avenged on such a nation as this?

30 For a wonderfull and horrible thing is committed in the land.

31 The Prophets propheticke falſly, and the Priests beare rule by their meanes, and my people know so how it is: and what will ye doe in the end thereof?

CHAPTER VI

The enemies sent against Judah, & encourage themselves: 6 God setteth them on worke because of their sin: 9 The Prophet lamenteth the iudgements of God, because of their sinnes. 18 Hee proclaimeth Gods wrath. 26 He calleth the people to weene for the iudgement on their sinnes.

O ye children of Benjamin, gather your selves to the out of the middelt of Ierusalem, and blow the trumpet in Iekos: and set vp a signe of fire in Beth-lecechem: for euill appeareth out of the North, and great destruction.

I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.

The shepherds with their flockes shall come vnto her: they shall pitch their tents against her round about: they shall feed every one in his place.

Prepare ye war against her, saith the LORD, & let vs goe vp at noon: wee vnto vs, for the day goeth away, for the shadowes of the evening are stretched out.

Arise and let vs goe by night, and let vs destroy her palaces.

For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye downe trees, and sett a moue against Ierusalem: this is the city to be visited, the wholly oppression in the midst of her.

As a fountain catcheth out her waters, so she catcheth out her wickednesse: violence and spoile is heard in her, before mee continually is grieue and wounds.

Be thou instructed, O Ierusalem, lest my soule depart from thee: lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thorowly glean the remnant of Ierusalem as a vine: come hither thine hand, as a grape-gatherer into the busses.

To whom shall I speake and give warning, that they may heare? behold, they are all estranged.

and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is vnto them a reproach: they haue no delight in it.

Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD: I am weary with holding in: I will powre it out vpon the children abroad, and vpon the assembly of young men together: for euery the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of dayes.

And their houses shall be turned vnto others, with their fields and wines together: for I will stretch out my hand vpon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

For from the least of them, euery vnto the greatest of them, euery one is giuen to euery mans hand, and from the Prophet, euery vnto the Priest, euery one doleth fall.

They haue healed also the hart of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace, when there is no peace.

Were they not ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visite them, they shall be cast downe, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD, stand ye in the wayes, and see and see for the old paths, where is the good way, and walke therein, and ye shall find rest for your soules: but they said, We will not walke therein.

Also I set watchmen ouer you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet: but they say, We will not hearken.

Therefore heare ye nations, and know, O Congregation, what is among them.

Hear, O earth, behold, I will bring euill vpon this people, euery the fruit of their thoughts, because they haue not hearkened vnto my words, nor to my law, but reioiced in it.

To what purpose cometh therrero me incense from Saba? and the sweet cane from a faire country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet vnto me.

Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumbling blockes before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall vpon them: the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the North country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sisters of the earth.

They shall lay hold on bow and ſpeare: they are cruell, and haue no mercy: their voices roareth like the Sea, and they ride vpon horses, set in aray as men for warre against thee, O daughter of Zion.

We haue heard the fame thereof, our hands were feeble, anguish hath taken hold of vs, and paine as of a woman in travail.

Goe not forth into the field, nor walke by the way: for the sword of the enemy, and feare is on euery side.

O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thy selfe in ashes, make thee mourning as for an only sonne, most bitter lamentation: for the spoyler shall suddenly come vpon vs.

I haue set thee for a tower, and a fortress among my people: that thou mayest know and try their way.

They are all grieuous reuoluers, walking with slanders: they are craftie and yron, they are all estranged.

The bellows and heat, the lead is consumed

30 * [Reprobate filior shall men call them, because the LORD hath reioiced them.

CHAP. VII.

1 Jeremiah is sent to call for true repentance, to present the Levies captivity. 2 He rebuketh their vaine confidence, 12 by the example of Sibiloh. 17 He threateth them for their idolatry. 21 He rebuketh the sacrifices of the disobedient. 29 He exhorteth to mourn for their abominations in Tophet, 32 and the iudgements for the same.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Stand in the gate of the LORDS house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Indah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel: Amend your waies and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD: the Temple of the LORD are these.

5 For if ye thoroughly amend your waies, and your doings, if ye thoroughly execute iudgement betweene a man and his neighbour:

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherlesse and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walke after other gods to your hurt:

7 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place in the land that I gave to your Fathers, for ever, and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steale, murder, and commit adultery and swear falsly, and burne incense unto Baal, and walke after other gods whom ye know not?

10 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my Name and say, We are deliuered to doe all these abominations?

11 Is * this house, which is called by my Name, become a * den of robbers in your eyes? behold, euē I haue seene it, saith the LORD.

12 But goe ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my Name at the first, and see * what I did to it: for the wickednesse of my people Israel.

13 And now because ye haue done all these workes, saith the LORD, and I spake vnto you rising vp early, and speaking, but ye heard not; and I * called you, but ye answered not?

14 Therefore will I doe vnto this house, which is called by my Name, wherein ye trust, and vnto the place which I gave to you, and to your Fathers, as I haue done to * Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I haue cast out all your brethren, euen the whole seed of Ephraim.

16 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift vp cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me, for I will not heare thee.

17 ¶ Seek thou not what they doe in the cities of Indah, and in the streets of Ierusalem?

18 * The children gather wood, and the Fathers kinde the fire, and the women kneade their dough to make cakes to the * Queen of heauen, and to poure out drinke offerings vnto other gods, that they may prouoke me to anger.

19 Doe they prouoke mee to anger, saith the LORD? doe they not prouoke themselves to the confusion of their owne faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, mine anger, and my fury shall be poured out vpon this place, vpon man and vpon beast, and vpon the trees of the field, and vpon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burne, and shall not be quenched.

21 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, * Put your burnt offerings vnto your sacrifices, and eat the flesh.

22 For I spake not vnto your Fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices.

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voyce, * and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walke ye in all the waies that I haue commanded you, that it may be well vnto you.

24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their care, but walked in the counsell, and in the imagination of their euill heart, and went backward and not forward.

25 Since the day that your Fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt, vnto this day, I haue euen * sent vnto you all my seruants the Prophets, daily rising vp early, and sending them.

26 Yet they hearkened not vnto me, nor inclined their care, but * hardened their necke, they did worse then their Fathers.

27 Therefore thus saith the LORD: I will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call vnto them, but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say vnto them; this is a nation that obeyeth not the voyce of the LORD their God, nor receiueth * correction; truth is perished, and is farre off from their mouth.

29 ¶ Cut off thine haire, O Ierusalem, and call it mourning, and take vp a lamentation on high places, for the LORD hath reioiced and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Indah haue done euill in my sight, saith the LORD: they haue set their abominations in the house, which is called by my Name to pollute it.

31 And they haue built the * high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, to burne their sonnes and their daughters in the fire which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

32 ¶ Therefore behold, the dayes * come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the * carcasses of this people shall be meat for the fowles of the heauen, and for the beasts of the earth, and none shall say them away.

34 Then will I cause to cease from the * cities of Indah, and from the streets of Ierusalem, the voyce of mirth, and the voyce of gladnes, the voyce of the bridegroom, and the voyce of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The calamity of the Lewes, both dead & aliuē. 4 He upbraideth their foolish and shamelesse impiety. 12 He foretelt their grieuous iudgement, 18 and bewyleth their desperate heart.

At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring A how the bones of the Kings of Indah, and the bones of his Princes, and the bones of the Priests, and the bones of the Prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Ierusalem out of their graues.

1 And they shall spread them before the Sun, & the Moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped, they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

2 And death shall be chosen rather then life, by all the residue of them that remaine of this cruel family, which remaine to all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

3 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turne away, and not returne?

4 Why then is this people of Ierusalem slidden backe by a perpetuall backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to returne.

5 I hearkened, and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickednesse, saying, What have I done? euey one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the barrell.

6 Yea, the * Starke in the heauen knoweth her appointed times, and the Turtle, and the Crane, and the Swallow obserue the time of their coming, but my people know not the iudgement of the LORD.

7 How doe ye say, We are wise, and the Law of the LORD is with vs? For, certainly in vaine made he it, the pen of the Scribes is in vaine.

8 The * wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: because they haue rejected the word of the LORD, and what wisdom is in them?

9 Therefore will I giue their wisdom vnto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for euey one from the least euen vnto the greatest, is giuen to conuulsione, from the Prophet, euen vnto the Priest, * euey one dealeth falsly.

10 For they haue * healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, * Peace, peace, when there is no peace.

11 Were they * ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blash: therefore shall they fall among them that fall, in the time of their visitation they shall be cast downe, saith the LORD.

12 ¶ I will surely consume them, saith the LORD, there shall be no grapes * on the vine, nor figs on the * figtree, and the leafe shall fade, and the things that I haue giuen them, shall passe away from them.

13 Why doe we sit still? assemble your selues, and let vs enter into the defenced cities, and let vs be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put vs to silence, and giuen vs * weapons of * gall to drinke, because we haue sined against the LORD.

14 We * looked for peace, but no good cometh: and for a time of health, and behold trouble.

15 The shouting of his bowes was heard from * Dan, the whole land trembled at the sound of the shouting of his strong ones, for they are come, and haue denoued the land, and * all that is in it, the city, and those that dwell therein.

16 For behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices among you, which will not be * charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

17 ¶ When I would comfort my selfe against sorrow, my heart is faint * in me.

18 Behold, the voyce of the cry of the daughter of my people, because of them that dwell in a far country: * is not the LORD in Zion? is not her King in her? why haue they provoked me to anger with their grasse heaves, and with strange words?

19 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

20 For the hurt of the daughter of my people: I hurt, I am blacke: * shrouthment hath taken hold on mee.

21 Is there no * balm in Gilead? is there no Physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people? * reconored?

C H A P. IX.

1 Ieremiah lamenteth the Iewes for their manifold sinnes, 9 and for their wickednesse. 12 Diuidence in the cause of their bitter calamity. 15 Reuerent to manure for their demerits, 20 and to trust not in themselves, but in God: He also curseth both Iewes and Gentiles.

2 ¶ That my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of teares, that I might weepe day & night, for ylline of the daughter of my people.

3 ¶ That I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men, that I might leaue my people, and goe from them: for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

4 And they bent their countenances like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth vpon the earth: for they proceede from euill to euill, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

5 Take ye heede euey one of his * neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for euery brother will stealely suppland, and euery neighbour will walke with floures.

6 And they will * deceiue euey one his neighbour, and will not speake the truth: they haue taught their tongue to speake lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

7 Thine habitation is in the middle: I decrie, through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

8 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will smite them, and try them: how shall I doe for the daughter of my people?

9 Their * tongue is as an arrow shot out, it speaketh * deceit: one speaketh * peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but * in heart he layeth * his wait.

10 ¶ Shall I not visit them for these things, saith the LORD? shall not my soule be aunged on such a nation as this?

11 For the mountains will I take vp a weeping, and walling: and for the * habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are * burnt vp, so that no one can passe through them, neither can man heare the voyce of the cattell, * both the foule of the heauens, & the beasts: for they are gone.

12 And I will make Ierusalem heapes, and a den of dragons, and I will make the causes of Iudah * desolate, without an inhabitant.

13 ¶ Who is the wise man that may vnderstand this? and who is hee to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perilleth, and is burne vp like a wilderness that none passeth through?

14 And the LORD saith, because they haue forsaken my Law which I set before them, and haue not obeyed my voyce, neither walked therein:

15 But haue walked after the * imagination of their owne heart, and after Babilon, which their fathers taught them:

16 Therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, euen this people * with wormewood, and giue them waer of gall to drinke.

17 I will * scatter them also among the heathen, whom whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come, and send for cunning women, that they may come.

18 And let them make haire, and take vp a wailling for vs, that our eies may runne downe with teares, and our eies-licke shall out with waters.

19 For a voice of wailling is heard out of Zion, How are we spoyled? we are greatly confounded, because wee have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast vs out.

20 Yet heare the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your eare receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailling, and euerie one her neighbour lamentation.

21 For death is come vpon our windowes, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speake, thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dong vpon the open field, and as the hand shall after the harrowe-time, and none shall gather them.

23 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches.

24 But let him that glorieth, glory in this, that hee vnderstandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD, which exercise lovingkindnesse, iudgement, and righteousnesse in the earth, for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised, with the vncircumcised.

26 Egypt, and Iudah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the vntowled corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are vncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are vncircumcised in the heart.

CHAP. X.

1 The vncircumcised comparison of God and idoles, 17 The idols compared to flies from the calamity to come: 19 Hee lamenteth the spoile of the Tabernacle by foolish Passours. 23 He maketh an humble supplication.

Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh vnto you, O house of Israel.

2 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signes of heauen, for the heathen are dismayed at them.

3 For the f customers of the people are valuer for one cutteth a tree out of the forest (the worke of the hands of the workeman) with the axe.

4 They decke it with siluer and with gold: they fasten it with nails, and with hammer, that it moue not.

5 They are as the palme tree, but speake not: they must neede be borne, because they cannot goe: be not afraid of them, for they cannot doe euill, neither shall it be in them to doe good.

6 Forasmuch as there is nowe like vnto thee, O LORD, thou art great, and thy Name is great in might.

7 Who would not feare thee, O King of nations? for I to thee doth it appertaine: forasmuch as among all the wife men of the nations, and in all their kingdome, there is none like vnto thee.

8 But they are f together brutish and foolish: the stocke is a doctrine of vanities.

9 Siluer spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the worke of the workeman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the worke of cunning men.

10 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say vnto them, The gods that haue not made the heauens and the earth, shall perish from the earth, and from vnder their beaues.

12 Hee hath made the earth by his power, hee hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heauens by his discretion.

13 When hee uttereth his voyce, there is multitude of waters in the heauen, and hee causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth, hee maketh lightnings with raine, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

14 Euerie man is brutish in his knowledge, euerie founder is confounded by the grauen image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the worke of error: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Iacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his Name.

17 Gather vp thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the forreigne.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distresse them, that they may find it so.

19 Woe is me for my hurt, my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a griefe, and I must beare it.

20 My Tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set vp my curtaine.

21 For the Passours are become brutish, and haue not fought: the LORD therefore they shall not prosper, and all their strength shall be scattered.

22 Behold, the noise of f beate is come, & a great commotion out of the North-countrie, to make the cities of Iudah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himselfe; it is not in man that walketh, to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with iudgement, not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 Powere out thy fury vpon the heathen that know thee not, and vpon the families that call not on thy Name; for they haue eaten vp Iacob, and deuoured him, and consumed him, and haue made his habitation desolate.

2 Heare ye the words of this Covenant, which I made with the men of Iudah, and so the inhabitants of Ierusalem, Hebr. Amos 6. Then the LORD said unto me, P. o. o. l. d. i. m. e. all these words in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this Covenant, and doe them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early, and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ears: but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this Covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Iudah, and among the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to heare my words: and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah, have broken my Covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape, and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem gree, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense, but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

13 For according to the number of thy cities, were thy gods, O Iudah, and according to the number of the streets of Ierusalem have ye set up altars to that I should call them, and say, I will come to them, and I will be unto them.

14 Therefore I pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry, or prayer for them: for I will not heare them in the time that they cry unto mee for their trouble.

15 What hath my beloved done in mine house, seeing she hath wrought falsehood with many, and the holy flesh is passed from face: when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, faire, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult: hee hath broken fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hostes that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel, and of the house of Iudah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger, in offering incense unto Baal.

18 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of them, and I know it, then thou shewest it me that I was like a tree.

19 But I was like a lime tree, or an oxe that is brought to the slaughter, and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy thee, as we do the tree, with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be as more remembrance.

20 But O LORD of hostes, that iudgest righteously, that triest the reins, and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them, for unto thee have I returned, O LORD, in my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the man of Anathoth, that seeketh by lie, saying, Prophecy in the name of the LORD, that thou doest not by our heart:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hostes, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword, their houses, and their daughters shall die by famine.

23 And there shall be no remnant of them, for I will bring euill upon the men of Anathoth, even the yere of their visitation.

CHAPTER XII.

1 I Jeremiah complaining of the wicked prosperity of such as trust in their own strength, and despise the word of the LORD, and are punished by him.

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: & they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art secure in their month, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, knowest mine heart: thou hast seen mee, and thine ear is towards mee: pull them out like sleeper in the slaughter, and prepare thine bow for the day of thine ire.

4 How long shall the iniquity increase, and the hatred of many shall wax, for the wickedness of the LORD: that shall they in these days are come, and the LORD shall be made known, he shall not see our labours.

5 If thou hast sin with the four men, and they have sworn of thee, then thou shalt not contend with them: and in the land of peace, wherein thou dwellest, they covered thee, then how wilt thou be able to stand?

6 For thou hast broken, and art whole of thy father, even they have diale traders: thy with thine eyes, if they have called a multitude after thee: because thou hast not, though they speak false words unto thee.

7 I have professed mine house: I have left mine heritage: I have given it the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemy.

8 Mine heritage is unto mee as a lion in the barrenness: it crieth out against me, therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird: the birds round about are against her, come ye, assemble ye, all the beasts of the field, come to denounce.

10 Many pillars have destroyed my vineyard, they have broken my portion under foot: they have made my pleasant position a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate, it mourneth unto me, the whole land is made desolate, because no man heareth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall desoure from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thornes: they have put themselves to paine, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your remembrance, because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 Thus saith the LORD against all mine euill neighbours that touch the inheritance, which I have caused my people Israel to inherit, Behold, I will plucke them out of their land, and plucke out the house of Iudah from among them.

C H A P. XIII.

In the type of a linnen girdle hidden at Euphrates, God prophesie of the destruction of his people, 12 Under the parable of the battell filled with wine, he sheweth their drunkenness in misery. 15 He exhorteth to prevent their future iudgements. 23 He sheweth their obprobriations as the cause thereof.

Thus saith the LORD vnto mee, Arise, and get thee a linnen girdle, and put it vpon thy loines, and put it not in water.

2 So I got a girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loines.

3 And the word of the LORD came vnto mee the second time, saying,

4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is vpon the loines, and arise, goe to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rocke.

5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And it came to passe after many dayes, that the LORD said vnto me, Arise, goe to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.

7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it, and beheld, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.

8 Then the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

9 Thus saith the LORD, after this manner will I marre the empire of Iuda, and the great pride of Ierusalem.

10 Thus saith the LORD, which heare my words, which walke in the imagination of their heart, and walke after other gods, to serue them, and to worship them, shall censure as this girdle, which is good for nothing.

11 For as the girdle cleaueth to the loines of a man, so have I caused to cleaue vnto me the whole house of Iuda, and the whole house of Iudah, saith the LORD, that they might bee vnto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not heare.

12 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto them this word, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every house shall be filled with wine, and they shall say vnto their Deu, we not reuincely know, that every house shall be filled with wine?

13 Then shall they say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, with the Knewel that sit vpon Dauides throne, and on the thrones, and like vnto vs, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, with drunkennesse.

14 And I will dash them y^e against another, as the waters and the sources together, thus saith the LORD, I will not pity, nor spare, nor haue mercy, I will destroy them.

15 Therefore vs, and giue eare, be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

16 The glory to the LORD your God, before hee came: and kneele, and before your eyes shall be vpon the darke mountains, and while ye looke for light, he turne it into the shadow of death, and make it grosse darkness.

17 But if ye will not heare it, my soule shall weepe in secret places, for your pride, and my name shall weepe sore, and run downe with teares, because the LORDS stocke is carried away captiue.

18 Say vnto the King, and to the Queene, Humble your ioules: sit downe, for your principallities shall come downe, as the crownes of your glory.

19 The cities of the South shall be shut vp, & none shall open them, Iudah shall be carried away captiue all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captiue.

20 Lift vp your eyes, and behold them that come from the North, where is the stocke that was giuen thee, thy beautiful stocke?

21 What wilt thou say, when he shall punish thee, (for thou hast taught them to be captiues, and as chief ouer thee) shall not sorrowes take thee as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things vpon me? for the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels are made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin? or the Leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to doe euill.

24 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble, that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD, because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts vpon thy face, that thy shame may appeare.

27 I haue seen thine adulteries, and thy neighborings, the lewdnesse of thy whoredome, and thine obprobriations on the hills in the fields: and vnto thee, O Ierusalem, wilt thou not be made cleane? when shall it come to pass?

The grievous forme, 7 contented Jeremiah to pray. 10 The Lord will not be intreated for the people. 12 Ijmo Prophets are no excuse for them. 17 Jeremiah is intreated to complaine for them.

The word of the LORD that came to Ieremiah concerning the death.

1 Iuda in mourning, and the gates thereof languish, they are blacke vnto the ground, and the cry of Ierusalem is gone vp.

2 And their noses haue sent their little ones to the waters, they came to the pits, and found no water, they returned with the vessels empty: they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

3 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no raine in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads,

4 Yea, the Hinde also calured in the field, and forsooke it, because there was no grasse.

5 And the wild Asses did stand in the high places, they fasted: vpon the wind like dragons: their eyes did faile, because there was no grasse.

6 O LORD, though our iniquities testifye against vs, do thou rise for thy Names sake, for our backslidings are many, we haue sinned against thee.

7 O the hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldst thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

8 Why shouldst thou be as a man astonished, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of vs, and we are called by thy Name, leaue vs not.

11 ¶ When they fall, I will not heare their cry, and when they offer burnt offering, and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 ¶ Then said I, Ah LORD GOD, Behold, the Prophets say vnto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall yee haue famine, but I will giue you assured peace in this place.

13 ¶ Then the LORD said vnto me, The Prophets prophesie lies in my Name, I sent them not, neither haue I commanded them, neither spake vnto them: they prophesie vnto you a false vision, and diuination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

14 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the Prophets that prophesie in my Name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword, and famine shall not be in this land, By sword and famine shall those Prophets be consumed.

15 And the people to whom they prophesie, shall bee cast out in the streets of Ierusalem, because of the famine, and the sword, and they shall haue none to bury them, their wives, nor their finnes, nor their daughters: for I will power their wickednesse vpon them.

16 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word vnto them, Let mine eyes run downe with teares night and day, and let them not cease, for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

17 If I goe forth into the field, then beholde the flame with the sword; and if I enter into the city, then beholde them that are sick with famine; yea, both the Prophet and the Priest, I goe about into a land that they know not.

The utter rejection, and manifold indignities of the Levites. To Ieremias complaining of their flight, vnto which a promise for times to come is shewing for them. He prayeth, and receiveth a gracious promise.

¶ Then said the LORD vnto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before mee, yet my minde could not be toward this people, cast them out of my sight, and let them goe forth. 2 And it shall come to passe, at they say vnto thee, Whether shall we goe forth? Then thou shalt tell them; Thus saith the LORD, Such as are for death, to death; & such as are for the sword, to the sword; & such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And I will appoint ouer them foure kings, saith the LORD, the sword to slay, and the way to teare, and the foules of the heauen, and the beasts of the earth to deuoure and destroy.

4 And I will cause them to see remoued into all kingdomes of the earth, because of Manasseh the foune of Hezekiah King of Iudah, for that which he did in Ierusalem.

5 For who shall haue pity vpon thee, O Ierusalem? or who shall be mercifull vnto thee? or who shall goe aside to thee how thou doest?

6 ¶ Then hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee, I am weary with repeating.

7 And I will fanne them with a fauue in the gates of the land: I will bereaue them of their children, I will destroy my people, saith they returne not from their wayes.

8 Their widowes are increased to me about the fount of the Seas: I haue brought vpon them, against the mother of the young men, a spoiler at noone day: I haue caused him to fall vpon a iudiciall, and terrors vpon the city.

9 She that hath borne Ieues, languisheth: she hath giuen vp the ghost: her Sunne is gone downe while it was yet day: she hath bene ashamed and confounded, and the residue of them will I deliuer to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

10 ¶ Wee is my mother, that thou hast borne me a man in thine, and a man of contention to the whole earth: I haue number lesse on virgins, nor men haue lent to me on vsury, yet eury one of them doeth with me.

11 The LORD said, Verely it shall be well with thy remaing, verely I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of euill, and in the time of affliction.

12 Shall iron breake the Northern iron, and the Steele?

13 Thy substance, and thy treasures will I giue to the spoiler without price, and shalt for all thy finnes, euen in all thy borders.

14 And I will make thee to passe vnto thine enemies, into a land which thou knowest not: for a newe is kindled in mine anger, which shall burne vpon you.

15 ¶ O LORD, thou knowest, remember me, and visite me, and reuenge mee of my persecutors, take me not away in thy long-suffering: know that for thy sake I haue suffered rebuke.

16 Thy words were found, and I did eat them, and thy word was vnto mee, the joy and reioycing of mine heart: for I am called by thy Name, O LORD God of hosts.

17 I fate not in the assembly of the mockers, nor reioyced: I fate alone, cause of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

18 Why is my paine perpetual? and my wound incurable, which I can not be healed? why then be altogether vnto me as a liar, and as waters that I drinke?

19 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou returne againe will I bring thee againe, and thou shalt stand before mee: & if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let the stone returne vnto thee, but returne not thou vnto them.

20 And I will make thee vnto this people, a fenced brazen wall: they shall fight against thee, but they shall not preuaile against thee, for I am with thee, to saue thee, & to deliuer thee, saith the LORD.

28 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will raise thee out of the hand of the terrible.

C H A P. XVI

1 The Prophet under the types of abstaining from marriage, from houses of mourning and fasting, forsaketh the new yoke of the lawes, 2 because they were worse then their fathers, 3 Their returne from captivity shall be stranger then their deliverance out of Egypte. 4 God will doubly recompense their idolatry.

The word of the LORD came also unto mee, saying,

2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sonnes nor daughters in this place.

3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons, and concerning the daughters that are borne in this place, & concerning their mothers they bare them, and concerning their fathers they begot them in this land:

4 They shall die of grievous deaths, they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried: but they shall bee as dung upon the face of the earth, and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine, and their carcasses shall be meat for the fowles of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

5 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither goe to lament nor bemoane them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, ones loving kinde and mercies.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor see themselves, nor make themselves bold for them.

7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning to comfort them for the dead, neither shall men give them the cup of consolation or drinke for their father, or for their mother.

8 Thou shalt not go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drinke.

9 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, in your eyes, and in your dayes, the voyce of mirth, and the voyce of gladnesse, the voyce of the bridegroom, and the voyce of the bride.

10 And it shall come to passe, when thou shalt show this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee: Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this against this people vs? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sone that we have committed against the LORD our God?

11 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken mee, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have sequestered them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken mee, and have not kept my Law:

12 And ye have done worse then your fathers: for behold, ye walke every one after his own imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto mee.)

13 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, whither ye, nor your fathers, and there shall ye serve other gods day and night, where I will not see you any more.

14 Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD lieth, that brought vp the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt:

15 But the LORD lieth, that brought vp the children of Israel from the land of the North, and from all the lands whether he had driven them: and I will bring them againe into their land, that they may see their fathers.

26 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them, and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

17 For mine eyes are upon all their waies: they are not hid from my face, neither is there iniquity hid from mine eyes.

18 And seek I will recompense their iniquity, and their sin double, because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcasses of their detestable & abominable things.

19 O LORD my strength and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction: the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say: surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make Gods unto himselfe, and they shall be no Gods?

21 Therefore behold, I will this once cause them to know: I will cause them to know mine hand and my might, and they shall know that my Name is the LORD.

1 The captivity of Iudah for her sin. 2 Trust in man is cursed, 3 in God, is blessed. 4 The deceitfull heart cannot seeke Gods. 5 The salvation of God. 6 The Prophet opposeth the mockers of his Prophecies. 7 He is sent to rebuke the covetous in halloving the substance.

The sines of Iudah is a diamond, which is tyron, and with the stone is a diamond: it is grauen upon the table of their heart, and upon chearons of your altars:

2 Whilste their children remember their altars, and their grones by the greene trees vpon the high hills.

3 O my mountain, in the field, I will give thy substance, and all thy treasures to spoil, and thy high places for their thorough way all thy borders.

4 And thou shalt cease thy selfe shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee, and I will cause thee to see them enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have killed a free in mine anger, which shall burne for ever.

5 Thus saith the LORD, Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arme, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

6 For he shall bee like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land, and not inhabited.

7 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and will hope the LORD is.

8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that breedeth out her roots by the riar, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leafe shall be greene, and shall not be carefull in the yeere of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

9 The heart is deceitfull about all things, and desperately wicked, who can know it?

10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, such to give euery man according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not: so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his dayes, and at his end shall be a foole.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our Sanctuary.

13 O LORD the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. 14 H. Ale me, O LORD, and I shall be healed: I am me, and I shall be healed: for thou art my praise.

15 W R. B. 'd. they say unto mee, * Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for mee, I have not heeded from being a pastor to follow thee, neither have I desired the wofull day, thou knowest: that which came out of my lips, was right before thee.

17 N Be not a terror unto mee, thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 * Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and let them destroy them: double destruction.

19 Q Thus said the LORD unto mee, Goe, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the Kings of Iudah come in, and by the which they go out, & in all the gates of Ierusalem.

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye Kings of Iudah, and all Iudah, and all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, enter in by these gates.

21 Thus said the LORD: * Take heed to your selves, and beare no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Ierusalem.

22 Neither carry you a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day, neither doe ye any worke, but hallow ye the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ears, but made their necke stiffe, that they might not heare, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to passe, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, I will bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but hallow the Sabbath day, so do no worke therein.

25 * Then shall they enter into the gates of this city Kings and Princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in charret and on horses, they and their Princes the men of Iudah and the inhabitants of Ierusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Iudah, and from the places about Ierusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the place, and from the mountains, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if you will not hearken unto me to hallow the Sabbath day, and not to beare a burden, even entering in at the gates of Ierusalem on the Sabbath day: then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall consume the palaces of Ierusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

CHAPTER XVIII.

Under the type of a potter a sword Gods absolute power in disposing of nations, is twicement threatened to Judah for her strange worke, 18 Jeremiah prophes against her conspirators.

The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

1 Arise, and goe downe to the potters house, and there I will cause thee to heare my words,

2 Then I went downe to the potters house, and beheld, he was wrought a worke on the wheelles,

3 And the vessel that he made of clay, was marred in the hand of the potter: so hee made it againe another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

4 Then the word of the LORD came to mee, saying

5 O house of Iudah, * cannot I doe with you as this potter, saith the LORD? he hold, as the clay is in the potters hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Irah.

6 As what nation I shall speake concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdome, to * placke it, and to pull downe, and to destroy it.

7 If that nation against whom I have pronounced, turne from their evil, * I will repent of the evil that I thought to doe unto them.

8 And * what nation I shall speake concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdome, to build and to plant it;

9 If it doe evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good which I said I would bestow upon them.

10 Now therefore, thus saith the LORD, the God of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem, saying: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Irah, I have an evil against you: and devise a device against you: * returne ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

11 And they said, There is no hope but we will walke after our owne devices, and we will carry one docthe imagination of his evil heart.

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Irah, who hath hated such things? The Virgin of Irael hath done a very horrible thing.

13 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon, which cometh from the stocke of the fild? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place, be forgotten?

14 Because my people hath * forgotten me, they have burnt incense to vanity, and have whored away their hearts: therefore shall I be angry with them, and will not cast up, and will not make their land * desolate, and my perpetuall burning: I will carry one that afflicteth by shall be afflicted, and woe by head.

15 I will scatter them as with an East wind before the enemy; I will shew them the backe, and not the face in the day of their calamity.

16 Thus said they, Come, and let vs devise devices against Jeremiah: * for the Law shall not perish from the Priest, nor come to nought, we will cover the word from the Prophet, Come, and let vs smite him with the tongue, and let vs use a gine heed to any of his words.

17 Thus heard to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that conspired with me.

18 Shall I still be regarded as good? for they have digged a pit for my foule: remember that I stood before thee to speake good for them, and to turne away thy wrath from them.

19 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and let them die by the sword, and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows, and let their men be put to death, let their young men be slaine by the sword in battell.

20 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troupe suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid mines for my feet.

21 Yet LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me: for they will not forsake me: their iniquity, neither shall they cease from their fight, but let them be overthrowne before thee, O LORD, with them in the time of thine anger.

Thus saith the LORD, God and gēt a potters earthen hottell, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the Priests.

2 And gōe forth vnto the valley of the sonne of Hinnon, which is by the entry of the East gate, and proclaime there the words that I shall tell thee.

3 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem: Thus saith the LORD God of hostes, the God of Israel, hold, I will bring euill vpon this place, the which whoso- euer heareth, his eares shall tingle.

4 Because they haue despised me, and haue estranged this place, and haue borne in euill in vnto other gods, whom our her they, nor their fathers haue knowen, nor the Kings of Iudah, and haue filled this place with the blood of innocents.

5 They haue built altars in the high places of Baal, to burne therein sacrifices with fire, for burnt offerings vnto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind.

6 Therefore beholde, the daye come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnon, but the valley of slaughter.

7 And I will make void the counsell of Iudah and Ierusalem in this place, and I will cause them to fall by the sword by their enemies, and I will lay the hands of them that take their lines, and their carcasses will I cause to be cast into the Potters of the heauen, and for the rest of the curty.

8 And I will make this my habitation, and an hiding: every one that pisseth therein, shall be afflicted and hisse, because of all the plagues thereof.

9 And I will cause them to ride the flesh of their sones, and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eate euery one the flesh of his friend in the siege, and that which wherewith their enemies and they that take their hottell, I will eate them.

10 Thus shall they breake the bottle in the sight of the men that pisseth therein.

11 And shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Euen so will I breake this people in this city, as when a bottle is broken, and the pieces thereof shall be made whole againe, and they shall busy them in Tophet: there shall be no place to bury.

12 Thus will I doe vnto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and they shall make their city as Tophet.

13 And the houses of Ierusalem, and the houses of the kings of Iudah shall be defiled, as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses vpon which I protest they haue borne incense vnto all the hostes of heauen, and haue powred out drinke offerings vnto other gods.

14 Thus came Ieremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesie, and he stood in the court of the LORDS house, and said to all the people, 15 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring vpon this city, and vpon all her towncs, all the euill that I haue pronounced against it, because they haue hardened their eares, that they might not heare my words.

CHAP. XX.

1 Pathur saying Ieremiah, receiued a new name and fearful doome. 2 To enuie complainers of conuices, 3 of treachery, 4 and of his birth.

Now Pathur the sonne of Imner the Priest, who was also the gouernour in the hoate of the LORD, heard that Ieremias prophesied these things.

3 Then Pathur smote Ieremias the Prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to passe on the morrow, that Pathur brought forth Ieremias out of the stocks. Then said Ieremias vnto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pathur, but Magor-misabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terrour to thy selfe, and to all thy friends, and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it, and I will give all Iudah into the hand of the King of Babylon, and he shall carry them captiue into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover, I will deliuer all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the Kings of Iudah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoile them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou Pathur, and all that dwell in thine house, shall goe into captiue, and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends to whom thou hast prophesied liars.

7 O LORD, thou hast deceiued me, and I was deceiued, thou art stronger then I, and hast pre- uailed: I am in derision daily, euery one mocketh mee.

8 For since I spake, I cryed out, I cryed violence and spoyle: because the word of the LORD was made a reproch vnto me, and a derision daily.

9 Then I said, I will not in the mention of him nor speake any more in his Name. But his word was in mine eare, as a burning fire that was in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not sleepe.

10 For I heard the dumyng of many, scarce on euery side. Report, say they, and we will report it: for all my families were halting, saying, Peraduenture, he will be iustified: and we shall praise the against him, and we shall take our reuenge on him.

11 But the LORD is with me, as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecuters shall stumble, and they shall not preuaile: they shall be greatly ashamed, for they shall not prosper, their euill- lling contention shall neuer be forgotten.

12 Bless O LORD of hostes, that tryest the righteous, and testest the reins and the heart, let mee see thy vengeance on them: for vnto thee haue I opened my cause.

13 Sing vnto the LORD, praise yee the LORD: for hee hath deliuered the soule of the poore from the hand of euill doers.

14 Cursed be the day wherein I was borne: let not the day wherein my mother bare me, be blessed.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is borne vnto thee, making him very glad.

16 And let that man bee as the cities which the LORD overthroweth and reuerteth: and let him heare the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noonetide.

17 Because he slew me not from the wombe: as that my mother might haue breene my graue, and her wombe to be alwayes great with me.

18 Wherefore came I forth out of the wombe to see labour and sorrow, that my dayes should be consumed with throughe?

with a hard siege, and miserable captivity. 8 Hee commeth to the people to fall to the Caldeans, 11 and upbraids the kings house.

The word which came vnto Jeremiah the LORD, when King Zedekiah came vnto him Pashur, the Sonne of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the Sonne of Maathiah the Priest, saying,

1 Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for vs (for Nebuchad-rezzar King of Babylon maketh warre against vs) if so bee that the LORD will deale with vs according to all his wondrous workes, that he may geue vs from vs.

2 ¶ Then said Jeremiah vnto them; Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah;

3 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I will turne backe the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the King of Babylon, and against the Caldeans, which besedge you withoute the walles, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

4 And I my selfe will fight against you with an out-stretched hand, and with a strong arme, euen in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

5 And I will smite the inhabitants of this citie, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

6 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliuer Zedekiah King of Iudah, and his seruants, and the people, as: such as are left in this citie, from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar King of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of tho' that seeke their life, and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword: hee shall not spare them, neither haue pity, nor haue mercy.

7 ¶ And vnto this people thou shalt say; Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

8 He that abideth in this city, shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out and falleth to the Caldeans, that besedge you, he shall liue, and his life shall bee vnto him as for a prey.

9 For I haue set my face against this city, for euill, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be giuen into the hand of the King of Babylon, and he shall burne it with fire.

10 ¶ And touching the house of the King of Iudah, say, Heare ye the word of the LORD.

11 Oh house of Dauid, Thus saith the LORD; ¶ Execute iudgement in the morning, and deliuer him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury goe out like fire, and burne, that none can quench it, because of the euill of your doings.

12 Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rocke of the plaine, saith the LORD, which say, Who shall come downe against vs? or who shall enter into our habitations?

13 But I will punish you, according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kinde a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall deuoure all things round about it.

CHAP. XXII.

¶ Hee exhorts to repentance with promises and threats. 10 The iudgement of Shalman, 15 of Ierohkim, 20 and of Canah.

Thus saith the LORD, Go downe to the house of the king of Iudah, and speake there this word, And say, Heare the word of the LORD, O king of Iudah, that sitteth vpon the throne of Dauid, thou and thy seruants, and thy people that enter in by these gates.

3 Thus saith the LORD, Execute ye iudgement and righteousnes, & deliuer the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, and doe no wrong, doe no violence to the stranger, the fatherlesse, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For if ye doe this thing indeed, I the LORD shall there enter in by the gates of this house, Kings sitting vpon the throne of Dauid, riding in charrets, and on horses, he, and his seruants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not heare these words, I sweare by my selfe, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD vnto the Kings house of Iudah, Thou art Gilead vnto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, euery one with his weapon, and they shall cut downe thy choice Cedars, and call them into the sea.

8 And many nations shall passe by this city, and they shall say euery man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus vnto this great city?

9 Then they shall answer, Because they haue forsaken the Covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and serued them.

10 ¶ Weepe ye not for the dead, neither bewaile him, but weepe sore for him that goeth away: for he shall returne no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching Shalman the sonne of Iosiah king of Iudah, which reigned in stead of Iosiah his father, which went forth out of this place, he shall not returne thither any more.

12 But he shall die in the place whither they haue led him captive, and shall see his land no more.

13 ¶ Woe vnto him that buildeth his house by vanitie, and his chamber by wrong: that veth his neighbours seruice without wages, and giueth him not for his worke.

14 Thus saith the LORD, I will build me a wide house, and I large chambers, and I will cutt him out windows, and it is filled with Cedar, and painted with Vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reigne, because thou clost thy selfe in Cedar? did not thy father eat and drinke, and do iudgement, & iustice, or thus it was well with him?

16 He iudged the cause of the poor, and needy, then it was well with him: was not this to know me, saith the LORD?

17 But thine eyes and thine heart are not, but see thy covetousnesse, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence to doe it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Ierohkim the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother, or ah sister: they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah Lord, or ah his glory.

19 He shall be buried with the buriall of an asse, drawne & cast forth beyond the gates of Ierusalem.

20 ¶ Goe vp to Lebanon and cry, and lift vp thy voyce in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy towers are destroyed.

21 I spake vnto thee in thy prosperitie, but thou saidst, I will not heare: this hath bene thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyest not my voyce.

22 The wind shall raise vp all thy passages, and thy towers shall goe into captivity, surely these shall thou be ashamed, and confounded for all thy wickednesse.

23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, I maketh thy nest in the Cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when paine come vpon thee, the paine as of a woman in travail?

24 As I live ſaith the LORD, though Coniah the ſon of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the ſignet vpon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence.

25 And I will give thee into the hand of them that ſeek thy life, and into the hand of ſuch whole face thou feareſt, even into ſuch hand of Nebuchad-rezar King of Babilon, & into the hand of the Caldeans.

26 And I will caſt thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where yet were not borne, and there ſhall ye die.

27 But to the land wherunto they ſhall deſire to returne, whether ſhall they not returne.

28 Is this man Coniah a deſcripſed broken idol? is he a veſſell wherein is no pleaſure? wherefore are they caſt out, he and his ſeed, and are caſt into a land which they know not?

29 O earth, earth, earth, heare the word of the LORD.

30 Thus ſaith the LORD, Write yet this man conſcience, a man that ſhall not proſper in his dayes: for no man of his ſeed ſhall proſper, ſitting vpon the throne of David, & ruling any more in Iudah.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 He propheth a reſtauration of the ſcattered ſheepe. Ch. vii. ſhall ſee out ſea them. 9. Agaiſt falſe prophets. 33. Mockers of the true Prophet.

W Oe * be vnto the paſſours that deſtroy and ſpoyle the ſheepe of my paſture, ſaith the LORD.

2 Therefore, thus ſaith the LORD God of Iſrael, againſt the paſſours that feed my people, Ye haue ſcattered my ſheepe, & driue them away, & haue not viſited them, behold, I will viſit vpon you the euill of your doings, ſaith the LORD.

3 And I will gather the remnant of my ſheepe, out of all countries whither I haue driuen them, and will bring them againe to their foldes, and they ſhall be fruitfull and increaſe.

4 And I will ſet vp * Shepherds ouer them, which ſhall feed them, and they ſhall feare no more, nor bee dismayed, neither ſhall they bee lacking, ſaith the LORD.

5 Behold, * the dayes come, ſaith the LORD, that I will raiſe vnto David a righteous Branch, and a King ſhall reigne and proſper, and ſhall execute iudgement and iuſtice in the earth.

6 * In his dayes Iudah ſhall be ſaned, and Iſrael ſhall dwell ſafely; and this is his Name whereby hee ſhall be called; † THE LORD OVR RIGHTEOUSNES.

7 Therefore, behold, * the dayes come, ſaith the LORD, that they ſhall no more ſay, The LORD lieth, which brought vp the children of Iſrael out of the land of Egypt:

8 But, The LORD lieth, which brought vp and which led the ſeed of the houſe of Iſrael out of the North country, and from all countries whither I haue driuen them, and they ſhall dwell in their owne land.

9 Mine heart within me is broken, becauſe of the Prophets, all my bones ſhake: I am like a drunken man (and like a man whom wine hath overcome) becauſe of the LORD, and becauſe of the words of his holineſſe.

10 For the land is full of adulterers, for becauſe of ſwearing the land mourneth: the pleaſant places of the wilderneſſe are dried vp, and their courſe is euill, and their force is not right.

11 For both Prophet and Priſt are prophane, ſaith the LORD, in my houſe haue I found their wickedneſſe, ſaith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way ſhall become them as ſlippery wayes in the darkneſſe: they ſhall be driuen on and fall therein: for I will bring euill vpon them, even the yeere of their viſitation, ſaith the LORD.

13 And I haue ſeene ſilly in the Prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and cauſed my people Iſrael to erre.

14 I haue ſeene alſo in the Prophets of Ieruſalem ſuch a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walke in lies: they ſtrengthen alſo the hands of euill doers, that ſome death returne from his wickedneſſe: they are all of them vnto me as * Sodome, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore, thus ſaith the LORD of hoſtes, concerning the Prophets, Behold, I will feed them with wormewood, and make them drinke the water of gall: for from the prophets of Ieruſalem is profaneſſe gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus ſaith the LORD of hoſtes, Hearken not vnto the words of the prophets that prophete vnto you: they make you vaine: they ſpeake a viſion of their owne heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They ſay ſtill vnto them that deſpiſe me, The LORD hath ſaid, Ye ſhall haue peace: and they ſay vnto every one that walketh after the imagination of his owne heart, No euill ſhall come vpon you.

18 For who hath ſtood in the ſynne of the LORD, and hath perceiued and heard his word? who hath marked his word and heard it?

19 Behold, a * whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, & a grievous whirlwind, it ſhall fall grievouſly vpon the head of the wicked.

20 The * anger of the LORD ſhall not returne vntill he haue executed, and till he haue performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter dayes yet ſhall he conſider it perfectly.

21 * I haue not ſeene theſe prophets, yet they can: I haue not ſpoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had ſtood in my counſell, and had cauſed my people to heare my words, then they ſhould haue turned them from their euill way, and from the euill of their doings.

23 * As I a God at hand, ſaith the LORD, and not a God afarre off?

24 Can any * hide himſelfe in ſecret places, that I ſhall not ſee him, ſaith the LORD? doe not I fill heauen and earth, ſaith the LORD?

25 I haue heard what the prophets ſaid, that prophetic lieth in my Name, ſaying, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed.

26 How long ſhall this bee in the heart of the prophets that prophetic lie? yet, they are prophets of the deccent of their owne heart:

27 Which thinke to can * my people to * forget my Name by their reueries, which they tell every man to his neighbour: as their fathers haue forgotten my Name for Baal.

28 The prophet ſayeth, I haue dreamed, I haue dreamed, and he that ſaith my word, let him ſpeake my word faithfully: What is the chaffe to the wheat, ſaith the LORD?

29 Is not my word like as a fire, ſaith the LORD? and like a hammer ſhall he breake the rocke in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, * I am againſt the prophets, ſaith the LORD, that ſwale my word every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am againſt the Prophets, ſaith the LORD, that ſay, we haue conſpired, and lay, he ſaith.

32 Behold, I am againſt them that prophetic falſe dreames, ſaith the LORD, and do all them, & cauſe their my people to erre by their lies, and by their light con-ness, yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not praise this people at all, saith the LORD.

27 ¶ And when this people, or the Prophet, or a Priest shall aske thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? Thou shalt then say vnto them, What burden? I will euen forsake you, saith the LORD.

28 And so for the Prophet, and the Priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will euen punish that man and his house.

29 Thus shall ye say eury one to his neighbour, and eury one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and what hath the LORD spoken?

30 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for eury mans word shall bee his burden: for ye haue perturbed the words of the liuing God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

31 Thus shalt thou say to the Prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and what hath the LORD spoken?

32 But thou say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD, Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I haue sent vnto you, saying, ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD:

33 Therefore behold, I euen I will utterly forget you, & I will forsake you, and the city which I gave you, and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence.

34 And I will bring an euillasting reproach vpon you, and a perpetuall shame which shall not be forgotten.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Vnder the type of good and bad figs, & he foretewch the restoration of them that were in captivity, & of the desolation of Techem & the rest.

The LORD shewed me, and beheld two baskets of figges, were set before the Temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon had carried away captiue Iecooniah the sonne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, and the Princes of Iudah, with the Carpenters and Smiths from Ierusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very goodes figs, euen like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, for they were in bud.

3 Then said the LORD vnto mee: What seest thou Ieremiah? and I said, I see the good figs, very good: and the euill, very euill; that cannot be eaten they are so euill.

4 ¶ And againe the word of the LORD came vnto mee, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Like the good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captiue of Iudah, whom I saw sent out of this place into the land of the Caldeans for their good.

6 For I will set mine eyes vpon them for good, and I will bring them againe to this land, and I will build them, and not pull them downe, and I will plant the myrtle tree vnto them.

7 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall returne vnto me with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as for the euill figs, which cannot be eaten they are so euill; (Surely thus saith the LORD) so will I giue Zedekiah the King of Iudah, and his Princes, & the residue of Ierusalem that remaine in this land, & them that dwell in the land of Egypt.

9 And I will deliuer them, that they be removed into all the kingdomes of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproch, and a proberbe, a raim, and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave vnto them, & to their fathers.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Ieremiah reproacheth the Iewes disobedience to the Prophets, & foretewcheth the twenty yeeres captivity, & after that the destruction of Babilon. 25 Vnder the type of a cup of wine, he foretewcheth the desolation of all nations. 34 The howling of the shepherds.

The word that came to Ieremiah concerning all the people of Iudah, in the fourth yere of Iehoiakim the sonne of Iosiah king of Iudah, that was the first yere of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

2 The which Ieremiah the Prophet spake vnto all the people of Iudah, and to all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, saying;

3 From the thirteenth yere of Iosiah the son of Amon king of Iudah, euen vnto this day (that is the force and twentys yere) the word of the LORD hath come vnto me, and I haue spoken vnto you rising early and speaking, but ye haue not hearkened.

4 And the LORD hath sent vnto you all his seruants the Prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye haue not hearkened, nor inclined your eare to heare.

5 They said, Turne yet againe now eury one from his euill way, & from the euill of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath giuen vnto you, and to your fathers for euer as a curse.

6 And go not after other gods to serue them, and to worship them, and provoke mee not to anger with the workes of your hands, and I will doe you no hurt.

7 Yet ye haue not hearkened vnto me, saith the LORD, that ye might provoke mee to anger with the workes of your hands to your owne hurt.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Because ye haue not heard my words:

9 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the North, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon my seruant, & all bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all the cities round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, & perpetuall desolations.

10 Moreover, I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voyce of gladnesse, the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, the found of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment, and these nations shall serue the King of Babylon seuen yeres.

12 ¶ And it shall come to passe, when twenty yeres are accomplished, that I will punish the King of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Caldeans, and will make it perpetuall desolations.

13 And I will bring vpon that land all my words which I haue pronounced against it, & all that is written in this booke, which Ieremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For many nations and great Kinges shall serue themselves of them, & they shall recompent them according to their deeds, and according to the workes of their owne hands.

15 ¶ For thus saith the LORD God of Israel vnto me, Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and craue all the nations to whom I send thee, to drinke it.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORDS hand, and made all the nations to drinke, vnto whom the LORD had sent me :

18 To Jerusalem, and the cities of Iudah, and the Kings thereof, and the Princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse (as it is to this day) :

19 Pharaoh King of Egypt, and his servants, and his Princes, and all his people :

20 An all the mingled people, and all the Kings of the land of Vt, and all the Kings of the Land of the Philistines, and Aethiopia, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Aethiopia :

21 * Edom, and * Moab, and the children of * Ammon :

22 An all the Kings of * Tyre, and all the Kings of Zidon, and the Kings of the Iles which are beyond the * Sea :

23 * Arabia, and * Tema, and * Dum, and all the cities in the utmost corners :

24 An all the Kings of Arabia, and all the Kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert :

25 An all the Kings of * Zuz, and all the Kings of * Elam, and all the Kings of the Medes :

26 An all the Kings of the North, and nere our with us, and all the Kingdomes of the world, which are vpon the face of the earth, and the King of Suetheon shall decline after them.

27 Therefore thou that lay vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel: Drinke ye and be drunken, & speake, and fall, and rife no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

28 And it shall be, if they reuente to take the cup at thine hand, O drinke, thou shalt thou say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Ye shall certainly drinke.

29 For hee, I begin to bring euill on the * city which is called by my Name, and I will not be victor toward the * city that shall not be punished: for I will sell her a sword vpon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hostes.

30 Therefore prophesie thou against them all thus, saith the LORD of hostes, The LORD shall * roare from an high, and utter his voyce from his holy habitation, hee shall mightily roare vpon his holy habitation, hee shall rigne a storme, as they that tread vpon the * poples, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

31 And euill shall come euen to the cauls of the earth, for the LORD shall a couer one, he will hide the nations, he will plead with all flesh: he will give them that are wounded to the sword, saith the LORD.

32 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Behold, I will send euill forth from nation to nation, & a great whirlwind shall be raised vpon the coast of the earth.

33 And the flame of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth euen vnto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gather they together, they shall be done vpon the ground.

34 * Howle ye for heards, and cry, as I will show you, they shall be as the price, pall of the sheepe for the dayes of your slaughter, and of your destructions are accomplished, and ye shall fall like a pinnace vessel.

35 And if the shepherds shall haue no way to flee, nor the principall of the sheepe to escape.

36 A voyce of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principall of the flocke shall be heard, for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

37 And the grateable habitations are cut downe because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

38 He hath forsaken his den, as the Lion: for their land is * desolate, because of the fiercenesse of the oppressour, and because of his fierce anger.

CHAP. XXV.

Jeremiah by promises and threatenings, exhorteth to repentance, Hee is therefore appointed, 10 and arraigned, 11 His apostolic, 16 Hee is gnu in iudgment, 17 the example of Mizab, 20 and of Vryah, 24 and by the way of Aethiopia.

IN the beginning of the reigne of Ichoiakim the sonne of Iuiab King of Iudah, came this word from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, Stand in the court of the LORDS house, and speake vnto all the cities of Iudah, which come to worship in the LORDS house, all the words that I command thee to speake vnto them: * I will not be a word,

3 If so be they will hearken, and turne every man from his euill way, that I may * repent me of the euill which I purpose to doe vnto them, because of the euill of their doings.

4 And thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD, If ye will not hearken to me, to walke in my law which I haue set before you,

5 To hearken to the words of my seruants the Prophets, whom I sent vnto you, both rising vp early, and sending them, (and ye haue not hearkned)

6 Then will I make this house like * Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

7 So the Priests, and the Prophets, and all the people heard the word which the LORD spake in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to passe, when Ieremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speake vnto all the people, that the Priests and the Prophets, and all the people took him, saying: Thou shalt surely die.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the Name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? and all the people were gathered against Ieremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the Princes of Iudah heard these things, when they came vp from the Kings house vnto the house of the LORD, and sate vnto the entry of the new gate of the LORDS house

11 Then spake the Priests and the Prophets vnto the Princes, and to all the people, saying, ¶ Tals man is worthy to die, for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye haue heard with your eares.

12 ¶ Then spake Ieremiah vnto all the Princes, and to all the people, saying, The LORD hath sent me to prophesie against this city, and against this city, all the words that ye haue heard.

13 Therefore now * amend your way, and your doings, and obey the voyce of the LORD your God: and the LORD will * repent him of the euill that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: doe with me as ye see with good and mee vnto you.

15 But know ye for cert time, that if ye pay me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood vpon your selues, and vpon this city, & vpon the inhabitants thereof, because of a euill which the LORD hath done vnto you, to speake all these words in your eares.

16 ¶ Then said the Princes, and all the people vnto the Priests, and to the Prophets, This man is not worthy to die, for he hath spoken to vs in the Name of the LORD our God.

17 Then

17 Thea

17 Then rose vp certaine of 3 Elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying:

18 "Micah the Morastite prophesied in the dayes of Hezekiah King of Iudah, and spake to all the people of Iudah, saying: Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Ierusalem shall become heapes, and the mountaine of the house, the high places of a forreth.

19 Did Hezekiah King of Iudah, and all Iudah, put him at all to death? did he not feare the LORD, and brought \dagger the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the euill which he had pronounced against them? thus might we procure great euill against our ioules.

20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the Name of the LORD, Vrijah the son of She-mariah of Kirjath-earim, who prophesied against this city, and against this land, according to all the words of Ieremias.

21 And when Iobaiakim the King, with all his mighty men, & all the princes heard his words, the King fought to put him to death, but when Vrijah heard it, he was afraid, & fled, & went into Egypt.

22 And Iobaiakim the King sent men into Egypt, & namely, Elnathan the son of Achob, and certaine men with him into Egypt.

23 And they set forth Vrijah out of Egypt, and brought him vnto Iobaiakim the King, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graues of the \dagger common people.

24 Nevertheless, the band of Aiskam the sonne of Shaphan was with Ieremias, that they should not giue him into the hand of the people, to put him to death.

CHAP. XXVII

1 Under the type of bands and yokes, he prophesies the subduing of the neighbour Kinges vnto Nebuchadnezzer. 2 Hee exhorteth them to yeeld, and not to beleeue the false prophesie. 12 The like he doth to Zedekiah. 19 Hee foretelleth the remanent of the vessels shall be carried to Babilon, and there continue until the day of visitation.

IN the beginning of the reigne of Ieremias the sonne of Iosiah King of Iudah, came this word vnto Ieremias from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD to me, Make thee bands and yokes, and put them vpon thy necke.

3 And send them to the King of Iudah, and to the King of Moab, and to the King of the Ammonites, and to the King of Tyrus, and to the King of Edom, by the hand of the messengers, which come to Ierusalem vnto Zedekiah King of Iudah.

4 And commaund them to say vnto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say vnto your Masters;

5 I haue made the earth, the man and the beast that are vpon the ground, by my great power, and by my out stretched arme, and haue giuen it vnto whom it seemed meet vnto me.

6 And now haue I giuen all these lands into the hand of Nebuchad-nezzar, the King of Babilon, my seruant, and the beasts of the field haue I giuen him also to serue him.

7 And all nations shall serue him, and his son, and his sons sonne, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great Kinges shall serue themselves of him.

8 And it shall come to passe, that the nation and kingdom which will not serue the same Nebuchad-nezzar the King of Babilon, and that will not put their necke vnder the yoke of the King of Babilon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I haue consumed them by his hand.

9 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your \dagger dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your soothsayers, which speake vnto you, saying, Ye shall not serue the King of Babilon.

10 For they prophesie a lie vnto you, to remove you farre from your land, and that I should deuide you out, and ye should perish.

11 But the nations that bring their neck vnder the yoke of the King of Babilon, & let their hand, those will I let remaine still in their own land, saith the LORD, and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

12 ¶ I spake also to Zedekiah King of Iudah, according to all these words, saying, Bring your neckes vnder the yoke of the King of Babilon, and serue him and his people, and liue.

13 Why will ye die thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation, that will not serue the King of Babilon?

14 Therefore hearken not vnto the words of the prophets, that speake vnto you, saying, Ye shall not serue the King of Babilon: for they prophesie a lie vnto you.

15 For I haue not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesie \dagger a lie in my Name, that I might driue you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesie vnto you.

16 Also I spake to the Priests, and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hearken not to the words of your prophets, that prophesie vnto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORDS house shall now shortly be brought againe from Babilon, for they prophesie a lie vnto you.

17 Hearken not vnto them; for the King of Babilon, and I: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

18 But if they be Prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hostes, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the King of Iudah, and at Cusiain, goe not to Babilon.

19 ¶ For thus saith the LORD of hostes, concerning the pillars, and concerning the Sea, and concerning the baires, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remaine in this city,

20 Which Nebuchadnezzer King of Babilon took not, when hee carried away Ieremias the son of Iobaiakim king of Iudah, from Ierusalem to Babilon, and all the nobles of Iudah and Ierusalem;

21 Ye shall say, saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remaine in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the King of Iudah, and of Ierusalem;

22 They shall be carried to Babilon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD: then will I bring them vp, and restore them to this place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Hananiah prophesies falsely the returne of the vessels, and of Ieremias. 2 Ieremias witnesseth it to be true, sheweth that the euill will declare who are true Prophets. 10 Hananiah breaketh Ieremias yoke. 12 Ieremias telleth of his yron yoke, 13 and foretelleth Hananiahs death.

AND it came to passe the same yeere in 7 beginning of 7 reigne of Zedekiah King of Iudah, in the fourth yeere, and in 7 fifth moneth saith Hananiah the son of Azur the Prophet, which was of Gibeon, (saith spake vnto mee in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the Priests, & of all the people, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, saying: I haue broken the yoke of the King of Babylon.

2 Within two full yeeres will I bring againe into this place, all the vessels of the LORDS house, & Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon.

3 And I will bring againe to this place, Iecoziah the sonne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, with all the captiues of Iudah that went into Babylon, saith the LORD, for I will breake the yoke of the King of Babylon.

4 Then the Prophet Ieremiah said vnto the Prophet Hananiah in the presence of the Priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

5 Euen the Prophet Ieremiah said, Amen: the LORD doe so, the LORD performe the words which thou hast prophesied, to bring againe the vessels of the LORDS house, and all that is carried away captiue from Babylon into this place.

6 Neuertheless, heare thou now this word that I speake in thine eares, and in the eares of all the people.

7 The Prophets that haue bene before me, and breake the old, prophesied both against many countreys, and against great kingdomes, of warre, and of euill, and of pestilence.

8 The Prophet which prophesied of peace, when the word of the Prophet that came to passe, then shall the Propet be knowen that the LORD hath truly sent him.

9 Then Hananiah the Prophet broke the yoke from off the Prophet Ieremiahs necke, and brake it.

10 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Euen so will I breake the yoke of Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon from the necke of all nations, within the space of two full yeeres: and the Prophet Ieremiah went his way.

11 Then the word of the LORD came vnto Ieremiah the Prophet, (after that Hananiah the Prophet had broken the yoke from off the necke of the Prophet Ieremiah) saying, 12 Goe, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Thou hast broken the yokes of wood, but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

13 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, I haue put a yoke of iron vpon the necke of all these nations, that they may serue Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon, and they shall serue him, and I haue giuen him the castles of the field also.

14 Then said the Prophet Ieremiah vnto Hananiah the Prophet, heare now Hananiah: The LORD hath not sent thee, but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this yeere thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

16 So Hananiah the Prophet died the same yeere, in the seventh moneth.

C H A P. X X I X.

1 Ieremiah sendeth a letter to the captiues in Babylon, to be quiet there, & not to believe the dreames of their Prophets, to and that they shall returne with grace, after seventy yeeres. 25 He sheweth the destruction of the vest for their disobedience, 26 He sheweth the sorrowfull end of Ahab and Zedekiah, two being Prophets. 24 Seruaiah writeth a letter against Ieremiah. 30 Ieremiah readeth his doome.

Now these are the words of the letter that Ieremiah the Prophet sent from Ierusalem vnto the residue of the Elders which were carried away captiues, & to the Priests, and to the Prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchad-nezzar had carried away captiue from Ierusalem to Babylon.

1 (After that Iecoziah the King, and the Queene, and the Eunuches, the Princes of Iudah and Ierusalem, and the carpenters, and the smithes were departed from Ierusalem)

2 By the hand of Elafah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the sonne of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah King of Iudah sent vnto Babylon to Nebuchad-nezzar King of Babylon, saying,

3 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel vnto all that are carried away captiues, whom I haue caused to bee carried away from Ierusalem vnto Babylon.

4 Build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, and eate the fruite of their.

5 Take ye wives, and beget sonnes and daughters, and take wives for your sonnes, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may beare sonnes and daughters, that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

6 And seeke the peace of the city whither I haue caused you to be carried away captiues, and pray vnto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye haue peace.

7 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, Let not your Prophets, & your diuiners that be in the micht of you, deceiue you, neither hearken to your dreames which ye cause to be dreamed.

8 For they prophesie falsely vnto you in my Name: I haue not sent them, saith the LORD.

9 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy yeeres be accomplished at Babylon, I will visit you, and performe my good word towards you, in causing you to returne to this place.

10 For I know the thoughts that I thinke towards you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of euill, to geue you an expected end.

11 Then shall ye call vpon me, and ye shall go and pray vnto me, and I will hearken vnto you.

12 And ye shall sacke me, and haue me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

13 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD, and I will turne away your captiuitie, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I haue drauen you, saith the LORD, and I will bring you againe into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captiue.

14 Because ye haue said, The LORD hath raised vs vp Prophets in Babylon;

15 Know that thus saith the LORD, of the King that sitteth vpon the throne of Dauid, and of all the people that dwellecth in the city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captiuitie:

16 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Behold, I will send vpon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so euill.

17 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliuer them to be remooued into all the kingdomes of the earth, & to be a curse, and an abomination, and a hissing, and a reproach among all the nations whither I haue drauen them.

21 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, whom I have sent from Ierusalem to Babylon.

22 And of them shall be taken vp a curse by all the captivity of Iudah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah, and like Ahab, whom the King of Babilon rosted in the fire.

23 Because they have committed willany in Ierach, and have committed adakery with their neighbours wives, and have spoken lying words in my Name, which I have not enuoiued them, even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

28 For the first he sent vnto vs in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long, build ye houses, and dwell in them, and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29 And Zephaniah the Priest read this letter in the eares of Ieremiah the Prophet.

30 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD vnto Ieremiah, saying,

31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Schemish, the Nehelamite, because that Schemish hath prophesied vnto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will punish Schemish, the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will doe for my people, saith the LORD. ¶ Because he hath taught rebellion against me, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

1 God breatheth Ieremiah the returne of the Iewes.

2 After their want they shall haue delinrance.

3 He comforteth Iacob. 4 The residue shall be gracious. 5 Wrath shall fall on the wicked.

THE word that came to Ieremiah from the LORD, saying,

1 Thus speakech the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I haue spoken vnto thee, in a booke.

2 For hee, the eyes come, saith the LORD, these I will bring against the captivity of my people Ierach and Ierach, saith the LORD, and I will cause them to returne to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possesse it.

3 ¶ And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Ierach, and concerning Iudah.

4 For thus saith the LORD, We haue heard a voyer of trembling, I of feare, and not of peace.

5 Alke ye now, and see whether I am doct as I traell with child: wherefore doe I see every man with his hands on his loines, as a woman in paine, and all faces turned into palenesse?

6 Alas, saye that day is great, for that none is like it: it is euen the time of Iacobs trouble; but hee shall be saved out of it.

7 For it shall come to passe in that day, that the LORD of hostes, that I will breake his yoke from off thy necke, and will burst thy bonds, and thou shalt not more be the seruant of him.

8 But they shall serue the LORD their God, and Dauid their King, whom I will raise vp vnto them.

9 The elder feare thou not, O my seruant Iacob, saith the LORD, neither be dismayed, O Ierach, for loe, I will come there from Ierach, and I shall returne and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make Iacob afraid.

10 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a hill out of all mine enemies, yet I haue cattered thee, yet I will not make a hill out of thee, but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether vnpunished.

11 For thus saith the LORD, Thy yokes are innumerable, and thy seruants grievous.

12 There is none to plead the cause, that thou mayest be bound vp: there is no healing medicine.

13 All thy louers haue forgotten thee, they seek thee no more, because thou hast forsaken them, and thou hast wounded an enemy, with a shalliment of a cruell one for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sinnes were increased.

14 Why? expectation for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable, for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sinnes were increased, thou hast gone these things vnto thee.

15 Therefore, all they that curse thee, shall be discouraged, and all thine adversaries, every one of them shall go into captivity: and they that spoile thee, shall be a spoyle, and all that prey vpon thee, will prey vpon thee.

16 For I will restore health vnto thee, and I will heale thee of thy wound, saith the LORD: but hee shall call thee an outcast, saying, This was I, whom no man seeketh.

17 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring againe the captivity of Iacobs tent, and I will returne on us, we will dwell in our land, and I will be builded vpon our wayes, and the pious shall remaine after the manner thereof.

Or, 10.

18 And out of them will I raise vp a righteous man, and hee shall be the voyce of them that saye merrie me: I will multiply them, and they shall not be reduced: I will also glouise them, and they shall not be reduced.

19 ¶ I will chide them as I chide an outcast, and their congregation shall be abolished before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

20 And their bulke shall be of themselves, and their gouernour shall be of them, and I will cause them to be as Iacob, and I shall approach vnto me, for who is this that is called by heere to some one, who meaneth Iacob? your God.

21 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

22 Behold, the whirlwinde of the LORD shall goch forth with fury, a continuing whirlwinde.

wind, it shall fall with paine vpon the head of the wiched.

24 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not returne, vntill he haue done it, and vntill he haue performed the intents of his heart: in the latter dayes ye shall consider it.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1 The restoration of Israel. 10 The publication thereof. 15 Rahel mourning, is comforted. 18 Ephraim repenting, is brought home againe. 22 Christ is promised. 27 His care ouer the Church. 31 His new Covenant. 35 The stability, 38 and amplitude of the Church.

AT the same time, saith the LORD, will I bee the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

2 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword, I found grace in the wilderness, euen Israel when I went to cause him to rest.

3 The LORD hath appeared to me of old vnto me, saying, Yea, I haue loued thee with an everlasting loue: therefore I with loving kindnesse haue I drawne thee.

4 Againe, I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel, thou shalt againe be adorned with thy * tabernacles, and shalt goe forth in the dances of them that make merry.

5 Thou shalt set plant vines vpon the mountaynes of Samaria, the planters shall plant, and shall * eat * the * fruit * thereof as common things.

6 For these shall bee a day that the watchmen vpon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let vs go vnto Zion vnto the LORD our God.

7 For thus saith the LORD, Sing with gladnesse for Iacob, and shout among the chiefe of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD saue thy people, the remnant of Israel.

8 Behold, I will bring them from the North country, and gather them from the coastes of the earth, and with them the blinde and the lame, the woman with child, and she that travaileth with child together, a grece company shall returne thither.

9 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I leade them: will cause them to walke by the rivers of waters, in a straight way will euery they shall go. I will be a father to the fatherles, and Ephraim is my * first borne.

10 O heare the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the eies afar off, and say, Hee that scattered Israel will gather him, and keepe him as a shepherde doeth his flocke.

11 For the LORD hath redeemed Iacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

12 Therefore they shall reioyce and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodnesse of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oyle, and for the young of the Rock, and of the herd: and their soules shall bee as a * watered garden, and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

13 They shall be as the virgins reioyces in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turne their mourning into ioy, and will comforte them, and make them reioyce from their sorrow.

14 And I will satiate the soules of the Priests with fatnesse, and my people shall be satisfied with goodnesse, saith the LORD.

15 O Tensheth the LORD, * A voyce was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rahel weeping for her children, refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Refraine thy voyce from weeping, and wipe away thine eyes from teares: for thy worke shall be rewarded, saith the LORD, and thy shall come againe from the land of the enemy.

17 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come againe to their owne border.

18 I I haue surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himselfe thus, Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised: as a bullocke vnaccustomed to the yoke: turne thou mee, and I shall be turned: Thou art the LORD my God.

19 Surely * after that I was turned, I repented: and after that I was instructed, I smote vpon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, euen confounded, because I did beare the reproach of my youth.

20 O Ephraim my deare sonne? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I doe earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him: I will surely haue mercy vpon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee vp way-markes: make thee high heapes: let thine heart toward the high-way, such the way * which thou wentest: turne againe, O virgine of Israel, turne againe to thine city.

22 How long wilt thou goe about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall compass a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, As yet they shall see this speech in the land of Iudah, and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring againe their captivity, The LORD blesse thee, O habitation of Iustice, and mountaine of holinesse.

24 And there shall dwell in Iudah it selfe, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that goe forth with flockes.

25 For I haue sarked the weery soule, and I haue replenished euery sorrowfull soule.

26 Vpon this I awaked, and beheld, and my sleep was sweete vnto me.

27 Behold, the dayes come saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah with the seed of man, & with the seed of best.

28 And it shall come to passe, that like as I haue watched ouer them, to plucke vp, and to breake downe, and to throw downe, and to destroy, and to afflict: so will I watch ouer them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those dayes they shall say no more, The fathers haue eaten a sowre grape, and the childrens teeth are set on edge.

30 But euery one shall die for his owne iniquity, euery man that eateth the sowre grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new Covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Iudah.

32 Not according to the Covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I tooke them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, which my Covenant they brake, although I was an husband vnto them, saith the LORD.

33 But this shall be the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those dayes, I will put my Law in their inward parts, and write it in their heartes, and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them vnto the greatest of them, saith the LORD.

25 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, * which giveth the Sunne for a light by day, and the ordinances of the Moon, and of the Stars for a light by night, which divideth * the Sea when the waves thereof roare, the LORD of hosts is his Name.

26 * If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

27 Thus saith the LORD, * heaven above can be measured, & the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel, for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

28 ¶ Behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be builded the LORD, from the tower of Hananeel, unto the gate of the corner.

29 And the measuring line shall yet give fourth our against it, upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Gath.

30 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brooke of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse-gate towards the East, shall be holy unto the LORD, it shall not be plucked up, nor shall there downe any more for ever.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jeremiah being imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hananeels field. 13 Baruch must preserve the evidences, as tokens of the people's returne. 16 Jeremiah in his prayer commendeth to God: 26 God confirmeth the captivity for seven years, 36 and promiseth a gracious returne.

I The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, in the tenth yeere of Zedekiah King of Iudah, which was the eighteenth yeere of Nebuchad-rezzar.

1 For then the King of Babylos army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the Prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the King of Iudahs house.

2 For Zedekiah King of Iudah had shut him up saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesie, and say, Thus saith the LORD, * Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the King of Babylon, and hee shall take it?

3 And Zedekiah King of Iudahs that not escape out of the hand of the Caldeans but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speake with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes.

4 And hee shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall hee see her vncill I visite him, saith the LORD: though yete light with the Caldeans, yete shall not prosper.

5 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me saying,

6 Behold, Hananeel the son of Salluim thine vncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy hee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is mine to buy it.

7 So Hananeel mine vncle came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth which is in the countie of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is mine, and the redemption is mine, buy it for thy sake. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

8 And I bought the field of Hananeel my vncles sonne: and I gave him the money, even I denunciate the fields of Iudah.

9 And I subscribed the evidences, and sealed it, and tooke two witnesses, and weighed him the money in the ballances.

10 So I tooke the evidences of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custome, and that which was open.

11 And I gave the evidences of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the sonne of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hananeel mine vncles sonne, and in the presence of the witnesses, that hee might put the booke of the purchase, before all the Iewes that were in the court of the prison.

12 ¶ And I charged Baruch before them, saying, 13 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Take these evidences, this evidences of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidences which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many dayes.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Houses, and fields, and vineyards shall be possessed againe in this land.

15 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidences of the purchase unto Baruch the sonne of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, 16 Ah I Lord God, behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power, and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee.

17 Thou art well * loving kindnesse unto thousands, and recompenseth the iniquity of the fathers into the bosome of their children after them: the great, the mighty God, the LORD of hosts is his Name.

18 Great in counsell, and mighty in worke: thine eyes are open upon all the wayes of the sons of men, to give every one according to his wayes, and according to the fruit of his doings.

19 Which hast set signes and wonders in the land of Egypt, thou hast made a name in Israel, and amongst other men, and hast made thee a name as at this day.

20 And hast brought forth thy people in a chariot out of the land of Egypt, with signes, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arme, and with great terror.

21 And hast given them this land which thou didst sweare to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milke and hony.

22 And they came in as thou hast said, but they obeyed not thy voyce, neither walked in thy Law, they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evill to come upon them.

23 Behold the mountains, they are come unto the city to take it, and the city is given into the hand of the Caldeans that fight against it, and of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence, and what thou hast spoken is come to passe, and be hold thou hast said so.

24 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord God, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses: for the city is given unto the hand of the Caldeans.

25 ¶ And I answered the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, 26 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for mee?

27 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Caldeans, and in the hand of Nebuchad-rezzar King of Babylon, and he shall take it.

28 And the Caldeans shall fight against this city, they shall come and set fire upon this city, & burne it with the houses: & upon walled cities they have offered increase unto Baal, and poured out drinke offerings unto other gods to provoke me to anger.

30 For the children of Israel, and the children of Judah, have onely done euill before me from their youth: for the children of Israel haue onely provoked mee to anger with the worke of their hands, saith the LORD.

31 For this city hath bene to me as if a provoc-tion of mine anger, and of my fury, from the day that they built it, even unto this day, that I should renewe it from before my face:

32 Because of all the euill of the children of Israel, and of the children of Judah, which they haue done to provoke mee to anger, they, their Kings, their Priests, their Prophets, and their men of Judah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem.

33 And they haue turned vnto me the backe and not the face, though I taught them rising vp carely, and teaching them, yet they haue not hear-ened to receive instruction.

34 But they for their abominations in the house (which is called by my Name) to defile it.

35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the sonne of Hinnom, to cause their foules and their daughters to passe thorow the fire vnto Molech, which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should doe this abomination, to cause Iudah to sinne.

36 And now therefore, thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be deliuered into the hand of the King of Babylon, by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:

37 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I haue driuen them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath, and I will bring them againe vnto this place: and I will make them to dwell safely.

38 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

39 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may feare mee for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them.

40 And I will make an everlasting Covenent with them, that I will not come away from them, to doe them good: but I will put my feare in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, I will reioyce over them to doe them good, and I will plant them in this land: I assuredly with my whole heart, and with my whole soule.

42 For thus saith the LORD, like as I haue brought all this great euill vpon this people, so will I bring vpon them all the good that I haue promised them.

43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast, it is giuen into the hand of Caldees.

44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe euidences, and seale them, and take witness in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Ierusalem, and in the cities of Iudah, and in the cities of the mountaine, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the South: for I will caue their captivity: or returne, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXIII

God promisseth to the captiue a gracious returne: 1 A reformed state: 12 A reformed government: 13 Christ the branch of righteousness: 17
A continuance of kingship and Priesthood: 20
And a stability of a blessed seed.

1 MOORE, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying, the second time, & while mee was yet that ye in the court of the prison, saying, 2 Thus saith the LORD, the Maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to stablish it, the LORD is his Name:

3 Call vnto mee, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the Kings of Iudah, which are throwne downe by the mountains, and by the sword:
5 They came to fight with the Caldeans, but it is to kill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I haue slaine in mine anger, and in my fury, and for all whose wickednesse, I haue hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will renewe vnto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And I will change the captivity of Iudah, and the captivity of Israel to courage, and will build them as at the first.

8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they haue sinned against me, and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they haue sinned, and whereby they haue transgressed against me.

9 And it shall be to me a name of ioy, a praise, and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall heare all the good that I do vnto them, and they shall feare & tremble for all the goodnesse and for all the prosperity that I procure vnto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD, Againe there shall be heard in this place (which ye say shall be desolate, without man, and without beast, even in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem, that are desolate without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast.)

11 The voice of ioy, and the voice of gladnesse, the voyce of the bridegroom, and the voyce of the bride, the voyce of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hostes, for the LORD is good, for his mercy endureth for ever, and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD: for I will avenge to returne the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Againe in this place which is desolate without man, and without beast, and in all the cities thereof shall be an habitation of shepherds, casting their flocks to lie downe.

13 In the cities of the mountaine, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Ierusalem, and in the cities of Iudah, shall the flocks passe againe vnder the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 Behold the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will performe that good thing which I haue promised vnto the house of Israel, and to the house of Iudah.

15 In those dayes, and at that time will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow vp vnto Dauid, and he shall exercise iudgement and righte-ousnesse in the land.

16 In those dayes shall Iudah be saved, and Ierusalem shall dwell safely, & this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.

17 For thus saith the LORD: David shall never want a man to sit vpon the throne of the house of Israel.

18 Neither shall the Priest, the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to doe sacrifice continually.

19 ¶ And this word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

20 Thus saith the LORD, *If you can breake my Covenant of the day, and my Covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season:

21 Then may also my Covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a house to reigne vpon his throne; and with the Levites the Priests my Ministers.

22 As * the bott of heauen cannot be measured, neither the fund of the Sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister vnto me.

23 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

24 Consider thou not what this people haue spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen for him selfe, hath euill cast them off? Thus they haue despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

25 Thus saith the LORD, If my Covenant be not with day and night, and if I haue not appointed the ordinances of heauen and earth:

26 Then will I cast away the seed of Iacob and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers ouer the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob: for I will cause their captivity to returne, and haue mercy on them.

C H A P. XXXIII

1 Jeremiah prophesie of the captivity of Zedekiah and the city. 3 The Princes and the people hauing dismissed their bond seruants, contrary to the command of God, reassembled them. 12 Jeremiah fir their disobedience, smeth them and Zedekiah into the hands of their enemies.

The word which came vnto Jeremiah from the LORD, (* when Nebuchad-nassar King of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth, of his domination, and all the people which he sought against Ierusalem, and against all the cities thereof,) saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Goe and speake to Zedekiah King of Iudah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the King of Babylon, and he shall burne it with fire.

3 And then shalt not escape, out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and deliuered into his hand, and thine eyes shall behold the citie of the King of Babylon, and thou shalt speake with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt goe to Babylon.

4 To heare the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah King of Iudah: Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

5 For thou shalt die in peace, and with the burnings of thy fathers the former Kings which were before thee, so shalt they burie downe for thee, and they will lament thee, saying, Ah Lord: for I haue pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

6 Then Jeremiah the Prophet spake all these words vnto Zedekiah King of Iudah in Ierusalem:

7 When the King of Babylons army sought against Ierusalem, and against all the cities of Iudah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for such distressed cities remained, of the cities of Iudah.

8 ¶ Thus was the word that came vnto Jeremiah, from the LORD, after that the King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Ierusalem, to proclaim Liberty vnto them.

9 That euery man might haue his bond seruant and euery man his maid seruant, being an Hebrew, or an Hebrewesse, goe free, that none should serue himselfe of them, save only of a few his brether.

10 Now when all the Princes, and all the people which had entred into the Covenant, heard that euery one should let his man seruant, and euery one his maid seruant goe free, that none should serue themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them goe.

11 But afterwards they turned, and caused the seruants, and the hand maides, whom they had let goe free, to returne, and brought them into subjection for seruants, and for hand maides.

12 ¶ Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

13 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, I made a covenant with your fathers, in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond men, saying,

14 At the end of * seven yeres, let ye goe euery man his brether, an Hebrew, which hath been sold vnto thee: & when he hath serued thee six yeres, thou shalt let him goe free frō thee, but your fathers hearkened not vnto me, neither inclined their eares.

15 And ye were † now turned, & had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty euery man to his neighbour, and ye had made a covenant before me in the house, ‡ which is called by my Name;

16 But ye turned and polluted my Name, and caused euery man his seruant, and euery man his hand-maid, whom yet had set at liberty, at their pleasure, to returne: & brought them into subjection to be vnto you for seruants, & for hand maides.

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Ye haue not hearkened vnto mee, in proclaiming liberty euery one to his brether, and euery man to his neighbour, behold, I will make a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine, and I will make you † to be ‡ remsoued, into all the kingdoms of the earth.

18 And I will give the men that haue transgressed my Covenant, which haue not performed the words of the euentment which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twaine, and passed betwene the parts thereof,

19 The Princes of Iudah, and the Princes of Ierusalem, the Eunuques, and the Priests, and all the people of the land, which passed betwene the parts of the calf, 20 I will euergive them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and their dead shall be distributed for meat vnto the foules of the heauen, & to the beasts of the earth.

21 And Zedekiah King of Iudah, and his Princes will I give in to the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the King of Babylons army which are gone vp from you.

22 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, I will cause them to returne to this city, and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burne it with fire, and I will make the cities of Iudah a desolation without an inhabitant.

the LORD into one of the chambers, and gave them wine to drinke.

2 Then I toke Iezabab the soune of Ieremias, the soune of Habaziniah and his brethren, and all his sounes, and the whole house of the Rechabites:

3 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the soune of Hanan, the son of Igialiah a man of God, which was by the chamber of the Princes, which was above the chamber of Maasiah the soune of Shallum, the keeper of the doore.

4 And I set before the founnes of the house of the Rechabites, pors full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drinke ye wine.

5 But they said, We will drinke no wine: for Ioadab the soune of Rechab our father commanded vs saying, Ye shall drinke no wine, neither ye nor your founnes for ever.

6 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all ydure daies ye shall dwell in tents, that ye may live many daies in the land where ye be strangers.

7 Thus have wee obeyed the voyce of Ioadab the soune of Rechab our father, in all that he hath charged vs, to drinke no wise all our daies, we, our wives, our founnes, nor our daughters:

8 Nor to build houses for vs to dwell in, neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor feed,

9 But we have dwelt in tents, and haue obeyed, and done according to all that Ioadab our father commanded vs.

10 But it came to passe when Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon came vp into the land, that wee said, Come, and let vs goe to Ierusalem for feare of the army of the Caldeans, and for feare of the army of the Syrians: So we dwell at Ierusalem.

11 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD vnto Ieremias, saying,

12 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, Goe, and tell the men of Iudah, and inhabitants of Ierusalem, Will ye not heare instruction to hearken to my words, saith the LORD?

13 The words of Ioadab the soune of Rechab, that he commanded his soune, not to drinke wine, are performed for vs this day: they drinke none, but obey their fathers commandement, good standing: I haue spoken vnto you rising early, and speaking: but ye hearkened not vnto mee.

14 I haue sent vnto you all my seruants the Prophets rising vp early, and charging them, saying, Returne ye now every man from his euill way, & amend your doings, & doe not after other gods: & serue them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I haue giuen to you, and to your fathers: but ye haue not in Iudah your care, nor hearkened vnto mee.

15 Because the founnes of Ioadab, the soune of Rechab haue performed the commandement of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened vnto mee.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hostes, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring vpon Iudah and vpon all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, all the euill that I haue pronounced against them; because I haue spoken vnto them, but they haue not heard, and I haue called vnto them, but they haue not answered.

17 ¶ An Ieremias said vnto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, Because ye haue obeyed the commandement of Ioadab your father, and heepe all his precepts, and done according vnto all that he hath commanded you:

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, Ioadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 Ieremias casteth a roule to write his prophesie, and writeth it to read it. 2 The Princes hearing the voice of Ieremias, send Iehoiakim to fetch the roule: & read it. 3 They will burne a little benefitt of Ieremias, to the King: but Ieremias being caught thereof, brings downe of it, and layeth it in the cistern. 4 Ieremias denounceth his iudgement: 5 Baruch writeth a new copie.

¶ No it came to passe in the fourth yeere of Iehoiakim the son of Iosiah King of Iudah, that this word came vnto Ieremias from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee a roule of a booke, and write therein all the words that I haue spoken vnto thee against Iudah, and against Iudah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake vnto thee, from the dayes of Iosiah euen vnto this day.

3 It may be that the house of Iudah will heare all the euill which I purpose to do vnto them, that they may returne every man from his euill way that I may forgiue their iniquity and their sinne.

4 Their Ieremias called Baruch the soune of Neriah, and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Ieremias, all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken vnto him; vpon a roule of a booke.

5 And Ieremias commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut vp, I cannot goe into the house of the LORD.

6 Therefore goe thou and reade in the roule, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the eares of the people, in the LORDS house vpon the fasting day: and also thou shalt reade them in the eares of all Iudah that comie out of their cities.

7 It may be, that they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will returne every man from his euill way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Ieremias the Prophet commanded him, reading in the booke the words of the LORD, in the LORDS house.

9 And it came to passe in the fifth yeere of Iehoiakim the soune of Iosiah King of Iudah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD by all the people in Ierusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Iudah vnto Ierusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the booke the words of Ieremias in the house of the LORD, in a chamber of Gemariah the soune of Shaphan the Scribe, in the higher court, at the entrance of the way gate of the LORDS house, in the eares of all the people.

11 ¶ When Gemariah the soune of Gemariah the soune of Shaphan had heard out of the booke, all the words of the LORD.

12 Then he wente downe into the Kings house into the Scribes chamber, and loe, all the Princes were there, new Elthama the Scribe, and Delaiah the soune of Sheumai, and Bluzhan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the soune of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the soune of Hauiiah, and all the Princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared vnto them all the words that hee had heard, when Baruch read the booke in the eares of the people.

14 Therefore all the Princes sent Iehudi the son of Bethnephthai, the soune of Selemiah, the soune of Calai vnto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roule wherein thou hast read in the eares of the people, and come. So Baruch the sonne of Nechiah took the roule in his hand, and came to them.

17 And they said unto him, Sit down now, & read it in our eares. So Baruch read it in their eares.

18 Now it came to passe, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said vnto Baruch, We will surely tell the King of all these words.

19 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell vs now how diddest thou write all these words at his mouth?

20 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words vnto mee with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the booke.

21 Then said the Princes vnto Baruch, Goe hide thee, thou and Jeremiah, and let no man know where ye be.

22 ¶ And they went in to the King into the court, but they laid vp the roule in the chamber of Elishama the Scribe, and told all the words in the eares of the King.

23 So the king sent Iehudi to fetch the roule, and heooke it out of Elishama the Scribes chamber, and Iehudi read it in the eares of the king, & in the eares of all the Princes which stood beside the king.

24 Now the king sat in the winter house in the ninth month, and there was a fire on the hearth, burning before him.

25 And it came to passe, when Iehudi had read three or foure leues, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roule was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

26 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the King nor any of his seruants that heard all these words.

27 Nevertheless, Elnathan, and Delaiah, and Gemariah had made intercession to the King, that he would not burne the roule: but he would not heare them.

28 But the king commanded Ierahmeel the son of Hammolech, and Seraiah the sonne of Azriel, and Shebinniah the sonne of Abdeel, to take Baruch the Scribe, and Jeremiah the Prophet: but the LORD hid them.

29 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burnt the roule, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

30 Take thee againe another roule, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roule, which Iehoiakim the king of Iudah hath burnt.

31 And thou shalt say to Iehoiakim King of Iudah, Thus saith the LORD. Thou hast burnt this roule, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The King of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man, and beast?

32 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Iehoiakim, King of Iudah, he shall have none to sit vpon the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

33 And I will punish him and his seed, and his seruants, for their iniquities, and I will bring vpon them, and vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and vpon the men of Iudah, all the euill that I haue pronounced against them, but they hearkened not.

34 ¶ Thenooke Ieremiah another roule, and gave it to Baruch the Scribe, the sonne of Nechiah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Ieremiah, all the words of the booke which Iehoiakim King of Iudah had burnt in the fire, and there were added besides vnto them, many like words.

CHAP. XXXVII.

The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Caldeans, King Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. ¶ Jeremiah propheseth the Caldeans certaine returne and victory. ¶ He is taken for a fugitive, beaten and put in prison. ¶ He afflicteth Zedekiah of the captiuitie. ¶ Entreatiug for his libertie, he obtaiueth some fauour.

ANd king Zedekiah the son of Iosiah reigned in Ierusalem the sonne of Iehoiakim, whom Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon made King in the land of Iudah.

2 But neither he, nor his seruants, nor the people of the land, did hearken vnto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the Prophet Ieremiah.

3 And Zedekiah the King, sent Iehucal the sonne of Shebinniah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the Priest, to the Prophet Ieremiah, saying, Pray now vnto the LORD our God for vs.

4 Now Ieremiah came in, and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then Pharaohs army was come south out of Egypt: and when the Caldeans that besieged Ierusalem, heard tidings of them, they departed from Ierusalem.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD vnto the Prophet Ieremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the King of Iudah, that send you vnto me to enquire of me, Shebne, Pharaohs army which is come forth to helpe you, shall returne to Egypt into their owne land.

8 And the Caldeans shall come againe and fight against this city, and take it and burne it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD, Deceiue not your selves, saying, The Caldeans shall surely depart from vs, for they shall not depart.

10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Caldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise vp every man in his tent, and burne that cite with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to passe that when the army of the Caldeans was broken vp from Ierusalem for space of Pharaohs army, 12 Then Ieremiah went forth out of Ierusalem, to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himselfe thence in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captaine of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelumiah, the sonne of Hananiah, and heooke Ieremiah the Prophet, saying, Thou shalt not go to the Caldeans.

14 Then said Ieremiah, If it be false, I fall not away to the Caldeans: but he hearkened not to Ieremiah: so Irijahooke Ieremiah, and brought him to the Princes.

15 Wherefore the Princes were wroth with Ieremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison, in the house of Ionathan the Scribe, for they had made that the prison.

16 ¶ When Ieremiah was entred into the dungeons, and into the cabins, and Ieremiah had remained there many dayes.

17 Then Zedekiah the King sent andooke him out, and the King asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Ieremiah said, There is: for said he, Thou shalt be deliuered into the hand of the King of Babylon.

18 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto King Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee or against the servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison ?

19 Where art now your prophets, which prophesied unto you, saying, The King of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land ?

20 Therefore hence now, I pray thee, O my lord the king, for my supplications, I pray thee, be accepted before thee, that thou cause mee not to returne to the house of Iouathan the Scribe, least I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the King commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers doore, untill all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Jeremiah by a false suggestion is put into the dungeon of Malchiah. 2 Ebedmelech by fast getteth him some enlargement. 3 Upon secret conference he counsaileth the King by yielding to save his life. 4 By the kings mistrust he is committed to the conference from the Princes.

Then Shephaniah the sonne of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pasfar, and Iucal the son of Shelumiah, and Pasfar, the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

1 Thus saith the LORD, * He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence ; but he that goeth forth to the Caldians, shall live : for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

2 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the King of Babylons army, which shall take it.

3 Therefore the Princes said unto the King, We beseech thee let this man be put to death : for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of warre that remaine in the city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them, for this man seeketh not the \bar{f} welfare of this people, but the hurt.

4 Then Zedekiah the King said, Behold, he is in your hand, for the King is not he that can doe any thing against you.

5 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah, the son of Hanamelech that was in the court of the prison : and they let downe Jeremiah with cords : and in the dungeon there was no water but mire : so Jeremiah suncke in the mire.

6 Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, one of the Eunuches which was in the Kings house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon, \bar{f} the King then sitting in the gate of Benjamin.)

7 Ebedmelech went forth out of the Kings house, and I spake to the King, saying,

8 My lord the King, these men have done euill in all that they have done to Jeremiah the Prophet, whom they haue cast into the dungeon, and \bar{f} he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is, for there is no more bread in the city.

9 Thus the King commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men \bar{f} with thee, and take vp Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon before he die.

10 So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king vnder the treaury, and took thence old cast cloues, and old rotten ropes, and let them downe by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

11 And Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, put now these old cast cloues, and rotten ropes vnder thine arme-holes vnder the soles. And Jeremiah did so.

12 So they drew vp Jeremiah with cords, and took him vp out of the dungeon, and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

13 Then Zedekiah the King sent, and took Jeremiah the Prophet vnto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD, and the king said vnto Jeremiah, I will altheate a thing, hide nothing from me.

14 Then Jeremiah said vnto Zedekiah, If I declare it vnto thee, wilt thou not surely put mee to death ? and if I give thee counsell, wilt thou not hearken vnto me ?

15 So the King sware secretly vnto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD Iurth that made vs the soule, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek to thy life.

16 Then said Jeremiah vnto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts the God of Israel, if thou wilt assuredly goe forth vnto the King of Babylons Princes, then thy soule shall live, and this city shall not be burnt with fire, and thou shalt live and chine house.

17 But if thou wilt not goe forth to the King of Babylons Princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Caldians, and they shall burne it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

18 And Zedekiah the King said vnto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Iewes that are fallen to the Caldians, lest they deliuer me into their hand, and they mocke me.

19 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliuer thee, obey, I beseech thee, the voyce of the LORD, which I speake vnto thee, so it shall be well vnto thee, and thy soule shall live.

20 But if thou refuse to goe forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me.

21 And behold all the women that are left in the King of Iudahs house, shall be brought forth to the King of Babylons Princes, and those women shall say, \bar{f} Thy friends haue set thee on, and haue prevailed against thee : thy feet are sunke in the mire, and they are turned away backe.

22 So they shall bring out all thy wives, and thy children to the Caldians, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the King of Babylon : and \bar{f} thou shalt saie this city to be burnt with fire.

23 Then said Zedekiah vnto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

24 But if the Princes heare that I haue talked with thee, and they come vnto thee, \bar{f} say vnto thee, Declare vnto vs now what thou hast said vnto the King, hide it not from vs, and we will not put thee to death : al so what the King said vnto thee ?

25 Then thou shalt say vnto them, I presented my supplication before the king, he would not cunle me to returne to Iouathan house to die there.

26 Thus came all the princes vnto Jeremiah, and asked him, and he told them according to all the words that the King had commanded : so \bar{f} they left off speaking with him, for the matter was not perceived.

27 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison, untill the day that Ierusalem was taken, and hee was there when Ierusalem was taken.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Jerusalem is taken: & Zedekiah is made blind & sent to Babylon: & the city razed: & the people captivated: & Nebuchadrezzar charge for the good voyage: of Jeremiah: & Gods promise to Ebedmelech.

2 Kings 24. 1. In the ninth yeere: Zedekiah King of Iudah, was in the tenth month: camp Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon, and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

3 And in the eleventh yeere of Zedekiah in the fourth month, the fifth day of the month, the city was broken vp.

4 And all the Princes of the King of Babylon came in, and sate in the middle gate, were Nergal-Sarsezar, Samsar-Nebo Sarsechim, Rabaris, Nergal-Sarsezar, Rabmag, with all the residue of the Princes of the King of Babylon.

5 And it came to passe, that when Zedekiah the King of Iudah saw them, all the men of war, that they fled, & went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls, & he went out the way of the plaine.

6 But the Caldeans army pursued after them, and ouertook Zedekiah in the plaines of Iericho, & when they had taken him, they brought him vp to Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon, to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave iudgement vpon him.

7 Then the King of Babylon slew the sonnes of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the King of Babylon slew all the nobles of Iudah.

8 Moreover, hee put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains to carry him to Babylon.

9 And the Caldeans burnt the Kings house, and the houses of the people with fire, and brake downe the walls of Ierusalem.

10 Then Nebuzardan the captaine of the guard, carried away captiue into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

11 But Nebuzardan the captaine of the guard, left of the pouer of the people, which had nothing in the land of Iudah, and gave them vineyards and holds: & at the same time.

12 Now Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon, gaue charge concerning Jeremiah to Nabuzardan the captaine of the guard, saying, 13 Take him, and looke thou well to him, and doe him no harme, but doe vnto him euen as he shall say vnto thee.

14 So Nebuzardan the captaine of the guard sent, and Nebuchadrezzar, Rabaris, and Nergal-Sarsezar, Rabmag, and all the King of Babylon's Princes:

15 Euen they sent and tooke Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, & committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, & he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

16 Now the word of the LORD came vnto Jeremiah, while he was shut vp in the court of the prison, saying,

17 Goe and speake to Ebedmelech the Chieppian, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Iudah, Behold, I will bring my words vpon this city for euill, and not for good, and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

18 But I will deliuer thee in that day, saith the LORD, and thou shalt not be giuen into the hand of the man, of whom thou art afraid.

19 For I will surely deliuer thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword: but thy life shall be for a prey vnto thee, because thou hast put thy trust in mee, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XL.

1 Jeremiah being set free by Nebuzardan goeth to Gedaliah: 2 The dispersed Iewes prepare vnto him, 3 Johanan remouing Ishmaels conspiracy vnas taken.

The word is come to Jeremiah from the LORD after that: Nebuzardan the captaine of the guard had let him goe from Ramath, when he had taken him being bound in chains, among all other were carried away captiue of Ierusalem & Iudah which were carried away captiue vnto Babylon.

2 And the captaine of the guard tookes Jeremiah, and said vnto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this euill vpon this place.

3 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said: because ye haue feared against the LORD, and haue not obeyed his voyce, therefore this thing is come vpon you.

4 And now behold, I looke thee this day from the chains: & were vpon thine hand, if it seeme good vnto thee to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will looke well vnto thee: but if it seeme ill vnto thee to come with me into Babylon, for I will hold, all the land is before thee, whether it seeme good and convenient for thee to goe, thither goe.

5 Now while he was not yet going backe, or forth, Goe backe also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the King of Babylon hath made gouernour ouer all the cities of Iudah, and dwell with him among the people: or goe where-soeuer it seemeth convenient vnto thee to goe. So the captaine of the guard gaue him victuals, and a reward, and let him goe.

6 Then went Jeremiah vnto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.

7 Now when all the captaines of the forces, which were in the fields, euen they and their men, heard that the King of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam gouernour in the land, and had committed vnto him, men and women, and children, and of the poore of the land, of them that were not carried away captiue to Babylon.

8 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, euen Ishaai the son of Netanuah, and Ionanan, and Ionathab the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai, the Netophathite, and Irtanah the son of a Machathite, they and their men.

9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore vnto them and to their men, saying, Feare not to serue the Caldeans: dwell in the land, and serue the King of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serue the Caldeans, which will come vnto vs: but ye gether ye wine, and summer fruits, and oyle, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities, that ye haue taken.

11 Likewise when all the Iewes that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countreys, heard that the King of Babylon had left a remnant of Iudah, and that he had set for other them, Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the sonne of Shaphan:

12 Euen all the Iewes returned out of all places, whether they were driven, and sent to the land of Iudah to Gedaliah vnto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

13 Moreover, Iohanan the son of Kareah, and all the captaines of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 14 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the King of the Ammonites hath sent Gedaliah the son of Netaniah to stay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikim beloved thee not.

15 Then Iohanan the sonne of Kareah, spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let us goe, I pray thee, and I will say Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah, and no man shall know it. Wherefore should hee slay thee, that all the Jewes which are gathered vnto thee, should bee scattered, and the remnant in Iudah perish?

16 But Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikim said vnto Johanan the sonne of Kareah, Thou shalt not doe this thing, for thou speakest falsly of Ithmael.

C H A P. X I I I.

1 Ithmael treacherously killeth Gedaliah and his company, purposeth with the residue to flee vnto the Ammonites. 11 Johanan recovereth the captives, and sendeth to flourish into Egypt.

NOW it came to passe in the seventh month, that Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah the son of Elihiamaah, of the seed royall, and the Princes of the King, with ten men with him, came vnto Gedaliah the son of Ahikim at Mizpah, and there they did eate bread together in Mizpah.

2 Then arose Ithmael the son of Netaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikim the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him whom the King of Babylon had made Governour over the land.

3 Ithmael also slew all the Iewes that were with him, with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Caldeans, that were found there, and the men of warre.

4 And it came to passe, the second day after hee had slaine Gedaliah, and no man knew it.

5 That there came certaine men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having on them filthes, with offerings, and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

6 And Ithmael the son of Netaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all a long as he went: & it came to passe as he met them, he said vnto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikim.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ithmael the son of Netaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, hee and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them, that fled vnto Ithmael, Slay vs not, for wec have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of taryk, and of oyle, and of honey: so hee forbore, and slew them not among their brethren.

9 Now the pit wherein Ithmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, (whom hee had slaine because of Gedaliah) was it, which Aia the king had made for feare of Baalis king of Mizael, and Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah filled it with them that were slaine.

10 Then Ithmael carried away captiue all the residue of the people, that were in Mizpah, even the Kings daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captiue of the guards, had committed to Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikim, and Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah carried them away captiue, and departed to goe vnto the Ammonites.

11 That when Johanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces that were with him, heard of all the euill that Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah had done, 12 Then theyooke all the men, and went to fight with Ithmael the son of Netaniah, and slaine him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

13 Now it came to passe, that when all the people which were with Ithmael, saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces, that were with him, then they were glad.

14 So all the people, that Ithmael had carried a way captiue from Mizpah, cast about and returned, and went vnto Johanan the sonne of Kareah.

15 But Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

16 Then tooke Johanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom hee had recovered from Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah, from Mizpah, (after that hee had slaine Gedaliah the son of Ahikim) Iewes mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the Eunuchs whom hee had brought againe from Gibeon.

17 And they departed and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to goe to enter into Egypt.

18 Because of the Caldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ithmael the sonne of Netaniah had slaine Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikim, whom the King of Babylon made governour in the land.

C H A P. X I I I.

1 Johanan desireth Ieremias to enquire of God, promising obedience to his will. 7 Ieremias answereth him of safetie in Iuda, 11 and destruction in Egypt. 19 He reprooveth their hypocricie in requiring of the Lord that which they meane not.

THEN all the captiues of the forces, and Johanan the sonne of Kareah, and Iezabiah the sonne of Hothaiah, and all the people from the least euen vnto the greatest, came neere,

2 And said vnto Ieremias the Prophet, Let vs beseech thee, our supplication bee accepted before thee, and pray for vs vnto the LORD thy God, for all this remnant (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes doe behold vs.)

3 That the LORD thy God may shew vs the way wherein we may walk, & the thing that we may doe.

4 Then Ieremias the Prophet said vnto them, I haue heard you, behold, I will pray vnto the LORD your God, according to your words, and it shall come to passe, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it vnto you: I will keepe nothing backe from you.

5 Then they said to Ieremias, The LORD be true and faithfull witness betwene vs, if we doe not euen according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to vs.

6 Whether it be good, or whether it be euill, we will obey the voyce of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee, that it may bee well with vs, when we obey the voyce of the LORD our God.

7 And it came to passe after ten dayes, that the word of the LORD came vnto Ieremias.

8 Then called hee Johanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces, which were with him, and all the people from the least, euen to the greatest,

9 And said vnto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, vnto whom ye haue sent me presēt your supplication before him:

10 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you downe, and I will plant you, and not plucke you vp: for I repent me of the euill that I haue done vnto you.

For, let our supplication fall before thee.

11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid, be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

12 And I will show mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you; and cause you to returne to your owne land.

13 ¶ But if ye say, Wee will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voyce of the LORD your God

14 Saying, No, but we will goe into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no warre, nor heare the sound of a trumpet, nor have hunger of bread, and there will we dwell:

15 (And now therefore heare the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Iudah, Thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, & go to sojourn there:)

16 Then it shall come to passe, that the sword which ye feared shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the tamie wherof ye were afraid, ¶ shall follow. (lo & after you in Egypt, and there ye shall die.

17 ¶ So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to goe into Egypt to sojourn there, they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, and none of them shall remaine or escape from the euill that I will bring vpon them:

18 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, As mine anger and my fury hath bene powred fourth vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem; so shall my fury be powred fourth vpon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach, and ye shall see this pla- ce no more.

19 ¶ The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Iudah, Goe ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I haue ¶ admonished you this day.

20 For ye ¶ dissembled in your hearts when ye sent me vnto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for vs vnto the LORD our God, and according vnto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare vnto vs, and we will doe it.

21 And now I haue this day declared it to you, but ye haue not obeyed the voyce of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me vnto you.

22 Now therefore know certainly, that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to goe: and to sojourn.

CHAP. XIII.

1. Iobanan discrediting Ieremiahs prophesie, carrieth Ieremiah and others into Egypt. 2. Ieremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt, by the Chaldeans.

AND it came to passe, that when Ieremiah had made an end of speaking vnto all the people, all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him vnto them, euen all these words:

1 Then spake Azariah the son of Hothaiah, and Iobanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying vnto Ieremiah, Thou speakest falsly: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Goe not into Egypt to sojourn, there.

2 But Baruch the son of Neriah, seetheth thee an assaile vs, for to deliuer vs into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put vs to death, and carry vs away captiues into Babylon.

3 So Iobanan the sonne of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces, & all the people obeyed not the voyce of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Iudah

4 But Iobanan the son of Kareah, and all the captiues of the forces,ooke all the remnant of Iudah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had bin drinen, to dwell in the land of Iudah.

5 Summen, and women, and children, and the kings daughters, and euery person that Nebuzardan the captaine of the guard had leit with Godolish the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Ieremiah the Prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

6 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voyce of the LORD, thus came they euen to Tahpanes.

7 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD vnto Ieremish in Tahpanes, saying,

8 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the day in the brike-hill, which is at the entry of Pharaohs house in Tahpanes, in the sight of the men of Iudah:

9 And say vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, I will send and take Nebuchad-rezzai the king of Babylon my seruant, and will set his throne vpon these stones that I haue hid, and he shall spread his royall poultice ouer them.

10 And when he commeth, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliuer such as are his death, and such as are for captiuitie, and such as are for the sword, to the sword.

11 And I will handle the gods of Egypt, and he shall burne them, and carry them away captiues, & he shall say vnto the gods of Egypt, as at the pherous put vnto his grea-mer, and he shall goe forth from thence on his grea-mer, and he shall breake the stone of the grise of the houses, that is in the land of Egypt, vnto the houses of the gods of the Egypt: as he will breake with the.

CHAP. XIII.

1. Ieremiah expresseth the desolation of Iudah for their idolatry. 2. He prophesieth their destruction who commit idolatry in Egypt. 3. The desolation of the land, so Ieremiah threateneth them for the same. 4. And for a figure prophesieth the destruction of Egypt.

THE word that came to Ieremiah, concerning all the Ieremies which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, at Tahpanes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

1 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, Ye haue seene all the euill that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, and vpon all the cities of Iudah: and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein.

2 Because of their wickednes, which they haue committed to provoke mee to anger, in that they went to burne incense, and to serue other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor your Fathers.

3 Howbeit I sent vnto you all my seruants the Prophet, rising early, and sending them, saying, Oh doe not this abominable thing this ha.

4 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their eare to cease from their wickednes, to burne incense vnto other gods.

5 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was powred fourth, and was kindled in the cities of Iudah, and in the streets of Ierusalem, and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

6 Therefore now, thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, the God of Irael, Why refore committe ye this great euill against your soules, to cut off from you men and women, child and suckling, out of the land, to leaue you none to remaine.

7 In that ye provoke mee vnto wrath with the workers of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whether ye be going to dwell, that ye might cut your selves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my Law, nor in my Statutes that I set before you, and before your fathers.

11 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will set my face against you for euill, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed and fall in the land of Egypt: they shall even be consumed by the sword, and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword, and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remaine, that they should returne into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to returne to dwell there: for none shall returne, but such as shall escape.

15 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burnt incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwell in the land of Egypt in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly doe whatsoever thing we shall hear out of our own mouth, to burne incense unto the Queen of heauen, and to powre out drinke offerings, unto her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our Kings and our Princes in the cities of Judah; and in the streets of Jerusalem: for when we burnt incense, and were well, and saw no euill.

18 But since we let off to burne incense unto the Queen of heauen, and to powre out drinke offerings, unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword, & by the famine.

19 And when we burnt incense to the Queen of heauen, and powred out drinke offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and powre out drinke offerings unto her without our men?

20 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people, which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The men, that ye burne in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and I came it into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer beare because of the evil of your doings, and because of the iniquities which ye have committed: therefore is your land a desolation, & an astonishment, and a curse without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burnt incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD; nor walked in his Law, nor in his Statutes, nor in his Testimonies: therefore this euill is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover, Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Heare the word of the LORD all Judah, that are in the land of Egypt.

25 Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, Wee will surely performe our vowes, that we have vowed, to burne incense to the Queen of heauen, and to powre out drinke offerings unto her; yet will I surely accomplish your vowes, and surely performe your vowes.

26 Therefore heare ye the word of the LORD all Judah, that dwell in the land of Egypt, behold, I have sworn by my great Name, saith the LORD, that my Name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah, in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord God lieth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for euill, and not for good, and all the men of Judah, that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword, and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword, shall require out of the land of Egypt, into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, & mine or theirs.

29 And this shall be a signe unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for euill.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra King of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seeke his life, as I gave Zedekiah King of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon his enemy, and that sought his life.

CHAP. XLV.

1 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto Baruch the scribe, saying,

2 The word that Jeremiah the Prophet spake unto Baruch the scribe of Nehiah, when he had written these words in a booke at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth yeere of Ihoiakim the sonne of Iosiah, King of Judah, saying,

3 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel unto thee, O Baruch;

4 Thou diddest say, Wee is mee now, for the LORD hath added grieue to my sorrow, I feared in my fighting, and I fear no rest.

5 For thus saith the LORD thy God, The LORD saith thus, Behold, that which I have built, will I breake downe, and that which I have planted I will plucke vp, even this whole land:

6 And I will seek out great things for the sinner, for behold I will bring euill upon all flesh, saith the LORD, but thy life will I give unto thee: for a pray in all places whither thou goest.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Jeremiah prophesied the overthrow of Pharaohs army at Euphrates: 2; and the conquest of Egypt by Nebuchadrezzar. 27 He comforteth Baruch in his affliction.

The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the Prophet, against the Gentiles.

2 Against

2 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaoh, Necho, King of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Iehoukiah the son of Josiah King of Iudah.

3 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw nether to be all.

4 Harness the horses, and get ye ye harness, and stand to with your helmets, touchish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

5 Wherefore shall I seee them dismayed, and turned away backe? and their mighty ones are of breuen du-won, and are of flint apace, and looke out backe for feare was round about, saith the LORD.

6 Let not the will bee away, nor the mighty man shayer; they shall flumble and fall toward the North, by the river Euphrates.

7 Why is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moored as the rivers?

8 Egypt rise: up like a flood, and his waters are moored like the rivers, and he saith, I will goe up, and will cover the earth, I will destroy the city, and the inhabitants thereof.

9 Come ye ye horses, and rage ye charrets, and let the mighty men come forth, the Ethiopians, and the Libyans that handle the shield, and the Hythians that handle the bow.

10 For this is the day of the Lord God of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour; and it shall be facinate and made cruell with their blood: for the Lord God of hosts hath a sacrifice in the North country by the river Euphrates.

11 Goe ye up into Gilead, and take balm, o virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vaine shalt thou vie many medicines: for thou shalt not be cured.

12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the naughty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 It is the word that the LORD spake to Ieremias the Egyptian, how Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon should come and sitte the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph, and in Tanis: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 For he made many to fall, yet, one fell upon another, and they say, Arise, and let vs goe againe to our owne peopls, and to the land of our nativity from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry aye, Pharaoh King of Egypt is his a noise, he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose Name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as I live, I am among you, as I am by the Sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, for thou shalt goe into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very faire heiler, her destruction cometh, it cometh out of the North.

21 Also her ised men are in the midst of her, like facied bullocks; for they also are turned backe, and are fled away together; they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The wayes thereof shall goe like a serpent, for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hevers of wood.

23 They shall cut downe her forrest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are unnumberable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded, shee shall delivred into the hand of the people of the North.

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel saith, Behold, I will punish the multitude of Mo, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings, even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him.

26 And I will delivher them into the hand of those that seeke their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants, and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 But feare not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity, and Jacob shall returne, and be in rest, and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Feare thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD, for I am with thee, for I will make a full end of all the nations whether I have dring thee, but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure, yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

CHAP. XLVII.

The definition of the Philistines. The word of the LORD that came to Ieremias the Prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

1 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, your waters rise up out of the North, and shall be as overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and fall that is therein, the city, them that dwell therein, then shall they cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howle.

2 As the noise of the stamping of the hooves of his strong horses, as the rushing of his charrets, and as the rumbling of his wheeles, soe the fathers shall not look back to their children for feckles of hands.

3 Because of the day that cometh to spoile all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoile the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

4 Balastie is come upon Gaza: Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley; how long will thou cur thy telle?

5 O thou fenced of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? for yet thy walls are in thy scabbard, rest and be still.

6 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the Sea floore? there hath he appointed it.

CHAP. XLVIII.

The judgement of Moab, for their pride, for their swiftness, for their small confidence, for their contempt of God and his people.

1 The rebellion of Moab. Against Moab, wasteth the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Wo vnto Neco, for it is spoiled, Kirjathaim is confounded and taken, Migdal is confounded and dismayed.

2 There shall be no more praise of Moab, because they have denied euill against it, come and let vs cut it off from being a nation, also thou shalt be cut downe, O Madmen, for sword shall pierce thee.

3 A voice of crying shall be from Hecoman, spoiling and great destruction.

4 Moab is destroyed, her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

9. Give wings vnto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate without any to dwell therein.

backe his sword from blood.

11. \dagger Moab hath bene at ease from his youth, and he hath fasted on his livers, and hee hath not bene

12. Therefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will send vnto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his the spoiler of Moab shall come vpon thee, and hee shall destroy thy strong holds.

and say, What is done?

20. Moab is confounded, for it is broken downe:

is spoiled.

and vpon Beth-meon.

24. And vpon Kir-iath, and vpon Buzrah, and vpon

25. The horse of Moab is cut off, and his arme is broken, saith the LORD.

26. \dagger Make ye rebui drunken: for hee magnified

33. And \dagger ioy and gladnesse is taken from the

40. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, he shall flee

41. Keriath is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, & the mighty mens hearts in Moab at that euen vpon Moab, the yeere of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45. They that fled, stood vnder the shadow of Hebbon, because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Hebbon, and a flame from the ous ones.

46. Wee bee vnto thee, O Moab, the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken \dagger captives, and thy daughters captiues.

47. Yet will I bring againe the captiues of Moab, in the latter dayes, saith the LORD. Thus saith the iudgement of Moab.

1. Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD, Hath Israel no foes? hath he no heirs? Why then doth their king inherit? Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2. Therefore behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of warre to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites, and it shall be a joyful escape, and her daughters shall be burnt with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3. Howle, O Hethron, for Ai is spoiled: cry ye daughters of Rabbah: yea ye with sackloth: for me, and I run to and fro by the bridges, for their King shall go into captivity, and his Princes and his Princes together.

4. Wherefore grieve thou in the valleys, thy singing valley, O backsliding daughter: that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5. Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord God of hosts, from all those that be about thee, and yet shall hee drinck out every man right forth, and none shall gather vp him that wandereth.

6. And afterward I will bring againe the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

7. Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts, He will come no more in Teman: he will be perished from the prudent: in their wisdom he vanished.

8. Flee ye, if I come backe, dwell deepe, O inhabitants of Dedan: for I will bring the calamity of Edom vpon him, the time that I will visite him.

9. If grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleanings grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy: all they have enough.

10. But I haue made Edom bare, I haue vncovered his secret places, and hee shall not be able to hide himselfe: his field is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

11. Leave thy fatherly children, I will preferre them aliué, and let thy widowes trust in me.

12. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, they whose iudgement was not to drinke of the cup, haue drunkenly drunken, and say thou hee that taketh together goe unpunished: thou shalt not goe unpunished, but thou shalt surely drinke of it.

13. For I haue sworne by my selfe, saith the LORD, that Bashan shall become a desolation, a reproch, a waste, and a carle, and all the cities thereof shall be perpetually waste.

14. I haue heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent vnto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her: and rise vp to the battell.

15. For loe, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.

16. Thy rebelliousness hath decreed thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rocks, that holdest the height of the hills: though thou shouldst make thy nest as high as the Eagle, I will bring thee downe from thence, saith the LORD.

17. Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.

18. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD: no man shall abide there, neither shall a foame of man dwell in it.

19. Behold hee shall come up like a Lyon from the swelling of Jordan, against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him runne away from his land, who is a chosen man: say I may appoint one her? for who is like mee? and who will appoint mee the time? who is that shepherde that will stand before mee?

20. Therefore heare the counsell of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom, & his purposes: that he hath purposed against finish it out of I Temo, surely the lead of the Rock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.

21. The earth is mooued at the noise of their fall: at the cry, the noise thereof was heard in the Red Sea.

22. Behold, he shall come vp and sit as the Eagle, and spread his wings ouer Basrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

23. Concerning Damascus, Hamath is confounded, and Arpad, for they haue heard euill tidings, they are faint-hearted, there is sorrow on the Sea, it cannot be quiet.

24. Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth her selfe to flee, and she is harsh seized on her: anguish and sorrows haue taken her as a woman in trauell.

25. How is the city of praise now left, the city of my toy?

26. Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of warre shall be cut off that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

27. And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad.

28. Concerning Kedar, and concerning the Kingdome of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD: Arise ye, goe ye to Kedar, and spoile the men of the East.

29. Their tents and their flocks shall they take away, they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camel, and they shall cry vnto them, Feare it on euery side.

30. Flee, get you far off, dwell deepe, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD: for Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon hath taken counsell against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

31. Arise, get ye vp vnto the wealthy nation that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which haue sciber gates nor barres, which dwell alone.

32. And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their camels a spoile, and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners, and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

33. And Hazer shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any foame of man dwell in it.

34. The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the Prophet, against Ekron, in the beginning of the reigne of Zedekiah King of Iudah, saying,

35. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will breake the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

36. And vpon Elam, will I bring the foure winds from the foure quarters of heauen, and will scatter them towards all those winds, and there shall be no nation whicher the omens of Elam shall not come.

37. For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring euill vpon them, euen my fierce anger, saith the LORD, and I will send the sword after them, till I haue consumed them.

38. And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the Princes, saith the LORD.

39. But it shall come to passe in the latter dayes, that I will bring againe the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

C H A P. I.

1. 2. 21. 25. The judgement of Babylon. & 17.

The redemption of Israel.

The word that the LORD spake against Babylon, and against the land of the Caldeans: & by Jeremiah the Prophet.

1 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard, publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces, her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

2 For out of the North there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart both man and beast.

3 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, The children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall goe and seeke the LORD their God.

4 They shall sitte the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let vs joyne our selues to the LORD in a perpetuall Covenant, whose shall not be forgotten.

5 My people hath bene lost sheepe: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away as the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place.

6 All that found them have denoted them, and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of Justice, even the LORD, the hope of their Fathers.

7 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and goe forth out of the land of the Caldeans, and be as the hee-goates before the Sockes.

8 For I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon, an assembly of great nations from the North country, and they shall see themselves in aray against her, from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man, none shall returne in vaine.

9 And Caldea shall be a spoile: all that spoile her, shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

10 Because ye were glad, because ye reioyced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat, as the heifer at grass, and bellow is bulke.

11 Your mother shall be sore confounded, she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the wilderness of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

12 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate, every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hisse at all her plagues.

13 Put your selces in aray against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

14 Shoot against her round about: she hath givens her hand: her foundations are filled, her walls are thrown downe: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance vpon her: as she hath done, doe thus her.

15 Cut off the lower from Babylon, and him shee that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for feare of the oppressing sword, they shall take every one to his owne land, and they shall slee every one to his owne land.

16 Israel is a scattered sheepe, the lions have deuoured him away: first the King of Assyria hath deuoured him, and last this Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon hath broken his bones.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hostes the God of Israel, Behold, I will punish the King of Babylon, and his land, as I have punished the King of Assyria.

19 And I will bring Israel againe to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bastran, and his oule shall be satisfied vpon mount Ephraim, and Gilead.

20 In those dayes, and in that time, saith the LORD, The iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none: and the sin of Iudah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reterne.

21 I will goe up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste, and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and doe according to all that I have commanded thee.

22 A found of battell is in the land, and of great destruction.

23 How is the hammer of the whole earth increased and broken? how is Babylon becoming a desolation among the nations?

24 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art as if taken, O Babylon: and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

25 The LORD hath opened his armory, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the worke of the Lord GOD of hostes, in the land of the Caldeans.

26 Come against her from the utmost border, open her store-houses: I will lift her up as heapes, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

27 Slay all her bullocks: let them goe downe to the slaughter: woe vnto them for their day is ended, come, the time of their visitation.

28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his Temple.

29 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, campe against it round about, let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her worke: according to all that she hath done, doe vnto her: for she hath bene proud against the LORD, against the holy One of Israel.

30 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

31 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hostes: for thy day is come, the time that I will visite thee.

32 And the most proud shall stumble, and fall, and none shall lift him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall deuoure all round about him.

33 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, the children of Israel, and the children of Iudah were oppressed together, and all that tooke them captiues, held them fast, they refused to let them goe.

34 Their Redeemer a strong, the LORD of hostes is his Name, he shall throughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

35 A sword is vpon the Caldeans, saith the LORD, and vpon the inhabitants of Babylon, and vpon her Princes, and vpon her wise men.

36 A sword is vpon the Iudians, and they shall die, a sword is vpon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed.

37 A sword is vpon their horses, and vpon their chariots, chawen, and vpon all the mingled people, that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as waters: a sword is vpon her treasures, and they shall be robbed.

38 A drought is vpon her waters, and they shall be dried vp: for it is the hand of graua images, and they are mad vpon their idoles.

39 Therefore the wild beast of the desert, with the wild beasts of the Islands shall dwell there, and the owles shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for euert neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

40 As God overthrew So home and Gemoorah, and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD: so shall no man abide there, neither shall any soune of man dwell therein.

41 Behold, a people shall come from the North, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised vp from the coasts of the earth.

42 They shall hold the bow and the lance, they are cruell, and will not shew mercy: their voyce shall roare like the Sea, and they shall ride vpon horses, one one put in aray like a man to the battell against ther, O daughter of Babylon.

43 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: strength toke hold of him, and pangs, as of a woman to travell.

44 Behold, he shall come vp like a lion from the swelling of Jordan, vnto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man that I may appoint ouer her? for who is like mee, and who will appoint me the time? and who is that they heare that will stand before mee?

45 Therefore heare ye the counsell of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon, and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Caldeans: surely the least of the rocke shall draw them out: surely hee shall make their habitation desolate with them.

46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon, the earth is moued, and the cry is heard among the nations.

CHAPTER

The severer iudgements of God against Babylon in verses of Iherem. 5. Ieremias deliuereth the book of this prophesie to Sernaius to be cast into the fire, as token of the perpetuall burning of Babylon.

1 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will raise vp against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the confidence of them that rise vp against mee, a destroying wind;

2 And will send vnto Babylon banners that shall frame her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

3 Against him that bencheth, let the archers bend his bow; and against him that lieth himselfe vp in his brigandine; and spare ye not her young men, destroye vtterly all her hoste.

4 Thus the flame shall fall in the land of the Caldeans; and they that are therein shorow in her streets.

5 For Israel hath not bene forsaken, nor Iudah of his God, of the LORD of hostes; though their land was filled with sune against the body One of Israel.

6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliuer euery man his soule: be not one of is her iniuriy: for this is the time of the LORDS vengeance, hee will render vnto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORDS hand, that made all the earth drunke: the nations have drunken of her wine, therefore the nations are mad.

8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howle for her, take baine for her paine, if so bee shee may be healed.

9 We would haue healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let vs goe euery one into his owne countrey, for her iudgement reacheth vnto heauen; and is lifted vp euen to the skies.

10 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come and let vs declare in Zion the worke of the LORD our God.

11 Make ye bright the arrows: & gather the shields: the LORD hath raised vp the spirits of the Kings of the Medes: for his deuice is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his Temple.

12 See ye the standard, vpon the walles of Babylon, make the watch strong: set vp the watchmen; prepare ye the ambushes: for the LORD hath both deuised and done that which hee spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 O thou that dwellest vpon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy countenance.

14 The LORD of hostes hath sworn by himselfe, Surely, I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers: and they shall lift vp a shout against thee.

15 Hee hath made the earth by his power; he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heauen by his vnderstanding.

16 When hee vttereth his voice, sheweth a multitude of waters in the heauen, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; hee maketh lightnings with raine, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man is ignorant by his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the golden image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the worke of error: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Iacob is not like them, for hee is the former of all things, and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hostes is his Name.

20 I am as yet my battellaxe, and weapons of warre: for I will thin will I breake in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms.

21 And with thee will I breake in pieces the bulke and his sides, and with thee will I breake in pieces the chaire and his rider.

22 With thee also will I breake in pieces man and woman, and with thee will I breake in pieces old and young, and with thee will I breake in pieces the young man and the maid.

23 I will also breake in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flocke, and with thee will I breake in pieces the husbandman, & his yoke of oxen, & with thee will I breake in pieces capraines and raleys.

24 And I will tread vnto Babylon, and to all the inhabitants of Caldea, all their euill that they haue done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountaine, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth, and I will stretch out my hand vpon thee, and will bring thee downe from the rockes: and will make thee a bare mountaine.

26 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundation, but thou shalt be desolate for euer, saith the LORD.

27 Thy stones shall be made for stones of stumbling, and thy foundations shall be made for stones of stumbling.

... against her: together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Adhathath: appoint a despise against her: make her horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.

28 Prepare against her the nations, with the Kings of the Medes, the Captaines thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominions.

29 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.

30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight: they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed, they became as women: they have burnt their dwelling places: her barres are broken.

31 One Post shall run to meet another, and one Messenger to meet another, to shew the King of Babylon that his city is taken at our end.

32 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burnt with fire, and the wren of waters are affrighted.

33 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor. It is time to thresh her: yee a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.

34 Nebuchadnezzar the King of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me: he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

35 The violence done to me, and to my flesh, be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitants of Zion say, and my blood upon the inhabitants of Caldes, shall Jerusalem say.

36 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee, and I will dry up her Sea, and make her springs dry.

37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for dragons, an astonishment, and as hissing without an inhabitant.

38 They shall roar together like lions, they shall yell as lions whelpes.

39 So their house I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may reioyce, and singe a perpetuall Deeme, and not wake, saith the LORD.

40 I will bring them downe like lambs to the slaughter, like rames with hee-goats.

41 How is Shebath taken, and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised? how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations?

42 The Sea's come up upon Babylon, she is covered with the multitude of the waues thereof.

43 Her cities are a desolation, a dry Land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any soune of man passe thereby.

44 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up, and the nations shall not flow together any more vnto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

45 My people, goe ye out of the middest of her, and deliuct ye every man his soule from the fierce anger of the LORD.

46 And let your heart frize, and ye feare for the rumour that shalbe heard in the lands: a rumour shall come come one yere, and after that in another yere shall come a rumour and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

47 Therefore behold, the dayes come, that I will doe iudgement upon the graven images of Babylon, and her whole land shall be consumed, and all her houses shall fall in the midst of her.

48 Then the heauen and the earth, and all that therein shall sing for Babylon for the spoilers shall come vnto her from the North, saith the LORD.

49 As Babylon hath caused the shame of Israel, so shall Babylon shall fall the shame of all the earth.

50 Yee that have escaped the sword, goe away stand not still: remember the LORD afar-off, and let Ierusalem come into your mind.

51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproch, shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the Sanctuaries of the LORDS house.

52 Wherefore behold, the dayes come, saith the LORD, that I will doe iudgement vpon her graven images, and throw all her land the wounded shall groane.

53 Though Babylon should mount vp to heauen, and though she should fortifie the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come vnto her, saith the LORD.

54 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Caldeans.

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice, when her waues doe roare like great waters, a noyse of their voice is stilled.

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, and upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bowes is broken, for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 And I will make sturke her Princes, and her wisemen, her Captaines, and her Rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleepe a perpetuall sleepe, and not wake, saith the King, whose Name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burnt with fire, and the people shall labour in vain, and the folke in the fire, and they shall be weary.

59 The word which Ieremish the Prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Masbiah, when he went with Zedekiah the King of Iudah into Babylon, in the fourth yere of his reigne: and this Seraiah was a quiet Prince.

60 So Ieremish wrote in a booke all the euill that should come vpon Babylon, euen all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Ieremish said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt reade all these words, 62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remaine in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be a desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be when thou hast made an end of reading this booke, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates.

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the euill that I will bring vpon her: and they shall be weary. Thus saith the words of Ieremish.

1. Ezechiah was 40 years and seventy years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and his mother's name was Shimeah, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2. And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord God, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3. For through the anger of the Lord it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till hee had cast them from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the King of Babylon.

4. And it came to pass in the 4th year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon came, he, and all his army against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forties against it round about.

5. So the citie was besieged unto the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

6. And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the citie, that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7. Then the city was broken up, and all the men of warre fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate, betweene the two walls, which was by the Kings garden, (now the Caldeans were by the city round about) and they went by the way of the plain.

8. For the army of the Caldeans pursued after the King, and overtook Zedekiah in the plaines of Jericho, and all his army was scattered from him.

9. Then they took the King, and carried him up unto the King of Babylon to Riblah, in the land of Hamath: where he gave judgement upon him.

10. And the King of Babylon slew the soulders of Zedekiah before his eyes: hee slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

11. Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and the King of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

12. And in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, (which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchad-rezaz King of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, which served the King of Babylon, into Jerusalem.

13. And burnt the house of the Lord, and the Kings house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men burnt he with fire.

14. And all the army of the Caldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake downe all the walles of Jerusalem round about.

15. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certaine of the poore of the remnant, the residue of the people that remained in Jerusalem, and those that fell away, that fell to the King of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, left remnant of the poore of the land for vine-dressers, and for husbandmen.

17. Also the 4 pillars of brass that were in the house of the Lord, and the basins, and the brasen Sea that was in the house of the Lord, the Caldeans brake, and carried all the brasse of them to Babylon.

18. The caldrons also, and the 4 shovels, and the furnaces, and the 4 bowles, and the spoones, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

19. And the basons, and the 4 fire panes, and the bowles, and the caldrons, and the candlestickes, and the spoones, and the cups, that which was of gold 20 gold, and that which was of silver, 20 silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20. The two pillars, one Sea, and twelve brasen bailes that were under the basen, which King Solomon had made in the house of the Lord: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.

21. And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a fillet of two line cubites did compass it, and the thickness thereof was foure fingers, it was hollow.

22. And a chapter of brass was upon it, and the height of one chapter was five cubites, with networke and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass: the second pillar also, and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23. And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side, and all the pomegranates, upon the networke, were an hundred round about.

24. And the captain of the guard took Seraiab the chief Priest, and Zephaniah the second Priest, and the three keepers of the 3 doore.

25. Hee took also out of the citie in Ennosh, which had the charge of the men of war, and seven men of them that were seere the Kings person, which were found in the city, and the principall Scribe of the hoste, who numbered the people of the land, and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26. So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the King of Babylon to Riblah.

27. And the King of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah, in the land of Hamath: thus Judah was carried away captive out of his owne land.

28. This is the people whom Nebuchad-rezaz carried away captive in the seventh year, 7000 thousand Iewes, and three and twenty.

29. In the eighteenth year of Nebuchad-rezaz, he carried away captive from Jerusalem, eight hundred thirty and two 3 persons.

30. In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchad-rezaz, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Iewes, foure hundred forty and six persons: all the persons were seate thousand and five hundred.

31. And it came to pass, in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Iehoiakin King of Iudah, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that Evilmerodach King of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Iehoiakin King of Iudah, and brought him forth out of prison.

32. And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the Kings that were with him in Babylon,

33. And changed his prison garments: and hee did continually eat bread before him all the dayes of his life.

34. And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the King of Babylon: 3000 day a portion, until the day of his death, all the dayes of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 The miserable estate of Jerusalem by reason of her sin. 2 She complaineth of her griefs, and confesseth Gods judgments to be righteous.

Low hath the citie in salgary, that was full of people? how is shee become as a widow? shee that was great among the nations, and Princesse among the Promoted, how is shee become tributary?

2 She weepeth sore in the night and her teares are on her cheekes: among all her lovers, shee hath none to comfort her, all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Iudah is gone into captivity, because of affliction, and because of great servitude: shee dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest; all her persecutors overtake her betweene the straits.

4 The wayes of Zion doe mourne, because upon come to the solemne Feasts: all her gates are desolate; her Priests sigh: her virgins are afflicted, and she is bittermede.

5 Her aduaries are the chiefs, her enemies profser: for the LORD hath afflicted her; for the multitude of her transgressions, her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her Priests are become like Harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembered in the dayes of affliction, and of her miseries, all her pleasant things that she had in the dayes of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and shee did help her, the aduaries saw her, and did mocke at her Sabbaths.

8 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned, therefore shee is removed: all that honoured her, despise her, because they have seene her nakednes: yea, shee fighteth and stretcheth backward.

9 Her sithnesse is in her skirts, she remembereth not her last end: therefore she came downe woudfully: she had no comforter. O Lord, behold my affliction: for the enemies hath magnified himselfe.

10 The aduaries hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for shee hath seene that the heathen entered into her Sanctuary, whom shee diddest command, that they should not enter into thy Congregation.

11 All her people sigh, they seek bread, they have giuen their pleasant things for meat to relieue the foules feer, O Lord, and consider: for I am become vile.

12 ¶ Is it nothing to you, all ye that passe by? behold & see, if there be any sorrow like vnto my sorrow, which is done vnto me, wherewith LORD hath afflicted me, in the dayes of his fierce anger.

13 From above hath hee sent fire into my bonnet, and it became as against them: hee hath spread a net for my feet, hee hath turned me backe: hee hath made me desolate, and since all the day.

14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and compe vp upon my neck: hee hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath declinred me into their hands, from before I am able to rise vp.

15 The LORD hath troden vnder foot all my mighty men in the middelt of me: hee hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men. The LORD hath troden in the virgin, the daughter of Iudah, as in a wine-press.

16 For these things I weepe, mine eye mine eye runneth downe with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soule, is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy persecuted.

17 Zion spreadeth fourth her hands, and saith: is there one to comfort her: the LORD hath conspired concealing Iacob, that his aduersaries should be round about him: Jerusalem, is as a forsaken woman among them.

18 ¶ The LORD is righteous, for I have rebelled against his commandment: heare, I pray you, all people: and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

19 I called for my lovers, but they despised me: my Priests and mine Elders gave up the ghost in the citie, while they sought their meat to relieve their foules.

20 Behold, O LORD, for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled: mine heart is turned within me, for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaueth, at home there is as death.

21 They have heard that I sigh, there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble, they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like vnto me.

22 Let all their wickednesse come before thee: and doe vnto them, as thou hast done vnto me for all my transgressions: for my light is many, and my heart is faint.

CHAP. II.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the misery of Jerusalem 2 He complaineth thereof to God.

Low hath the Lord covered the daughter of IZION with a cloud in his anger, and cast downe from heauen vnto the earth, the beauty of Irael, and remembered not his footstooke in the day of his anger?

2 The Lord hath swallowed vp all the habitations of Iacob, & hath not leaue: hee hath throwne downe in his wrath the strong hold of the daughter of Iudah: hee hath brought downe to the ground: hee hath polluted the kingdome, and the Prince thereof.

3 Hee hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horns of Irael: hee hath drawne backe his right hand from before the enemy, & hee hath burned against Iacob like a flaming fire, which demouseth round about.

4 Hee hath bent his bow like an enemy, & hee stood with his right hand as an aduersary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye, in the Tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: hee poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord was an enemy: hee hath swallowed vp Irael, hee hath swallowed vp all her palaces: hee hath destroyed his strong holds, & hath inhaled in the daughter of Iudah mourning & lamentation.

6 And hee hath violently taken away his Tabernacle, as if it were of a garden, hee hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath called the solemne Feasts and Sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger, the King and the Priest.

7 The Lord hath cast off his Altar: he hath abhorred his Sanctuary, he hath given vp into the hand of the enemy the wall of her palaces: they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

8 The Lord hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line: he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore hee made the rampart and the wall to lament: they languished together.

9 Her gates are sunke into the ground: he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her Kings and her Princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more, hee Prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

10 The Elders of the daughter of Zion sit vpon the ground, and keepe silence: they haue cast vp dust vpon their heads: they haue girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgines of Ierusalem hang downe their heads to the ground.

11 Mine eyes doe faile with teares: my bowels are troubled: my liver is powred vpon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people: because the children and the sucklings] swoone in the streets of the city.

12 They say to their mothers, Where is corne and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soules was powred out into their mothers bosome.

13 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Ierusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the Sea: who can heale thee?

14 Thy Prophets haue seene vaine and foolish things for thee, and they haue not discovered thine iniquity, so came away thy captivity: but none seene for thee false burdens, and causes of banishment.

15 All that passe by, clap their hands at thee: they hiss and wagge their head at the daughter of Ierusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call the perfection of beauty, the ioy of the whole earth?

16 All thine enemies haue opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We haue swallowed her vp: certainly this is the day that wee looked for, wee haue found, wee haue seene it.

17 The LORD hath done that which he had demised: he hath fulfilled his word: that he had commanded in the dayes of old: hee hath throwne downe, and hath not pitied: and hee hath caused thine enemy to reioyce ouer thee, hee hath set vp the horn of thine aduersaries.

18 Their heart cryed vnto the Lord, * O wall of the daughter of Zion, let teares runne downe like a riuier, day and night: giue thy selfe no rest, let not the apple of thine eyes cease.

19 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches, poure out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift vp thine hands towards him, for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

20 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this: shall the women eate their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the Priest and the Prophet bee blame in the Sanctuary of the Lord?

21 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are scarce by the sword: thou hast slaine them in the day of thy anger: thou hast killed, and not pitied.

22 Thou hast called, as in a solemn day my tears sound about, so that in the day of the LORDS anger, none escaped nor remained: those that I haue forsaken and brought vp, hath mine enemy consumed.

CHAP. III.

1 The faithfull bewaile their calamities. 22 By the mercies of God they nourish their hope. 37 They acknowledge Gods iustice. 55 They pray for deliuerance, 64 and vengeance on their enemies.

I Am the man that hath seene affliction by the rod of his wrath.

1 He hath led me, and brought mee into darkness, but not into light.

2 Surely against me is he turned, hee curseth his hand against me all the day.

3 My flesh and my bone hath he made old, his hand hath broken my bones.

4 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and crewell.

5 He hath set me in darke places, as they that be dead of old.

6 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chaine heavy.

7 Also when I cry, and thout, hee smuttech on my prayer.

8 He hath enclosed my wayes with hewen stones: he hath made my pathes crooked.

9 He was vnto me as a Beare lying in wait, and as a Lion in secret places.

10 He hath turned aside my wayes, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

11 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

12 He hath caused the arrows of his quier to enter into my reins.

13 I was a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

14 He hath filled mee with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormewood.

15 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

16 And thou hast remooued my soule farre off from peace: I forgot prosperity.

17 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

18 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormewood and the gall.

19 My soule hath shewen still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

20 This I recall to my mind, therefore haue I hope.

21 It is of the LORDS mercies that wee are not consumed, because his compassions faile not.

22 They are new euery morning: great is thy faithfullnesse.

23 The LORD is my portion, saith my soule, therefore will I hope in him.

24 The LORD is good vnto them that wait for him, to the soule that seeketh him.

25 It is good that a man should both hope, and quietly wait for the saluation of the LORD.

26 It is good for a man that hee beare the yoke in his youth.

27 Hee fixeth alone, and keepeth silence, because he hath made it vpon him.

28 He putteth his mouth in the dust, if so hee had there may be hope.

29 Hee giueth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.

30 For the LORD will not cast off for euer.

31 But though hee cause griefe, yet will hee haue compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.

37 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

38 To crush vnder his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

39 To rurne aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 40 To subuert a man in his cause, the Lord approacheth not.

41 ¶ Who is he that saith, and it cometh to passe, when the Lord commandeth: is not he?

42 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not euill and good.

43 Wherefore dooth a liuing man complain, a man for the punishment of his finnes?

44 Let vs feare, and try our wayes, and turne againe to the LORD.

45 Let vs lift vp our heart with our hands vnto God in the heauens.

46 We haue transgressed, and haue rebelled, thou hast not pardon'd.

47 Thou hast couched with anger, and persecuted vs: thou hast stampt, thou hast not pitied.

48 Thou hast couered thy selfe with a cloud, that our prayer should not passe throughe.

49 Thou hast made vs as the * out-couring and refuse in the midst of the people.

50 All our enemies haue opened their mouthes against vs.

51 Feare and a snare is come vpon vs, destruction and destruction.

52 Mine eye runneth down with riuers of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

53 Mine eye travaileth day and night, without any intermission:

54 Till the LORD looke downe, and behold from heauen.

55 Mine eye affecteth mine heart, because of all the daughters of my cry.

56 Mine enemies chafed mee sore like a bird without cawie.

57 They haue cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone vpon me.

58 Waters flowed ouer mine head, then I said, I am cut off.

59 ¶ I called vpon thy Name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

60 Thou hast heard my voyce, hide not thine care at my breathing at my cry.

61 Thou drewst neere in the day that I called vpon thee: Thou hast, Feare not.

62 O Lord, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soule, thou hast redeemed my life.

63 O LORD, thou hast seene my wrong, iudge thou my cause.

64 Thou hast seene all their vengeance; and all their imaginings against me:

65 Thou hast heard their reproch, O LORD, and all their imaginings against me:

66 The lips of those that rose vp against mee, and their drunke against mee all the day.

67 Behold their sitting downe, and their rising vp: I saw their misdoings.

68 ¶ Render vnto them a recompence, O LORD according to the worke of their hands.

69 Giue them sorrow of heart, thy curse vnto all of them.

70 Persecute and destroy them in anger; from vnder the * heauens of the LORD.

CHAP. IIII.

¶ Zion bewaileth her pitifull estate. 12 The conspicious her finnes: 21 Edom is shamed: 25 Zion is comforted.

How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the furnace of the Sanctuary are powdered out in the top of every street.

2 The precious stones of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the worke of the hands of the potter!

3 Euen she that is a mother of the bredd, they giue sucke to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruell, like the estriges in the wilderness.

4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaueth in the roofe of his mouth for thirst: the young children aske bread, as when man breaketh in vnto them.

5 They that had feed delicately, are desolate in the streets: they that were brought vp in scarlet, embrace dungheils.

6 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people, is greater then the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was * conueniently named as in a moment, and no hand layed on her.

7 Her Nazarites were purer then snow, they were whiter then milke, they were more ruddy in body then rubies, their polishing was of Saphire.

8 Their visage is * blacker then a coale: they are not knowen in the streets: their skin cleaueth to their bones: it is withered, it is become like a stick.

9 They that be slaine with the sword, are better then they that bee slaine with hunger: for these * pine away, stricken thorow for want of the iustice of the field.

10 The hands of the pitifull women haue * sicken their owne children, they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD hath accomplished his fury, he hath powred out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath consumed the foundations thereof.

12 The Kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world would not haue beleeued, that the aduersary and the enemy should haue entred into the gates of Ierusalem.

13 ¶ For the finnes of her Prophets, and the iniquities of her Priests that haue shed the blood of the iust in the midst of her:

14 They haue wandred or blinde men in the streets, they haue polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

15 They cryed vnto them; Depart ye, it is vncleane, depart depart, touch not, when they fled away and wandred: they said among the heathen, They shall no more sit vpon these.

16 The anger of the LORD hath diuided them, he will no more regard them, they respected not the persons of the Priests, they s'foured not the Elders.

17 As for vs, our eyes as yet failed for our vaine helpe: in our watching we haue watched for a nation that could not saue vs.

18 They hunt our steps that wee cannot goe in out streets: our end is neere, our dayes are numbered, for our end is come.

19 Our persecuters are swifter then the Eagles of the heauen: they pursued vs vpon the mountains, they laid wait for vs in the wilderness.

20 The * breath of our nostrils, the appointed of the LORD was taken in their paw, of which we said, Vnder his shadow we shall liue among the heathen.

21 ¶ Reioyce and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of vs, the say also shall passe through vnto thee: thou shalt bee drunken, and shalt make thy selfe naked.

22 ¶ The punishment of thine iniquity is so accomplished, complished, O daughter of Zion, he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Babylon, he will discover thy times:

C H A P. V.

A faithful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon vs: Consider, and behold our reproach.

1 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

2 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

3 We have drunken our water for money, our wood is sold unto vs.

4 Our necks are under persecution: wee labour and heare no rest.

5 Wee have giuen the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

6 Our fathers have sinned, and we are not, and we haue borne their iniquities.

7 Seruants haue ruled ouer vs: there is none that doeth deliver vs out of their hand.

8 Wee gate our bread with the spill of our lines, because of the sword of the wilderness.

9 Our skins were blacke like an ouen, because of the terrible famine.

10 They visited the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Iudah.

11 Princes are hanged vp by their hand: the faces of Elders were not honoured.

12 They tooke the young men to grinde, and the children fell vnder the wood.

13 The Elders haue crept from the gate, the young men from their mischief.

14 The joy of our heart is ceased, our dance is turned into mourning.

15 The crowne is fallen from our head: wee weep vs, that we haue sinned.

16 For this our heart is faint, for these things our eyes are dimme.

17 Because of the mountaine of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walke vpon it.

18 Thou, O LORD, remainest for euer: thy throne from generation to generation.

19 Wherefore doest thou forget vs for euer, and forsake vs: so long time?

20 Turne thou vs vnto thee, O LORD, and wee shall be turned: renew our dayes as of old.

21 But thou hast utterly rejected vs: thou art very wroth against vs.

THE BOOKE OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

C H A P. I.

1 The time of Ezekiels prophesie at Chelbar. 4 His vision of foure Cherubims: 15 Of the foure wheeles, 26 and of the glory of God.

NOW it came to passe in the thirtieth yeere, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, (as I was among the captiues by the riuer of Chebar) that the heauens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

2 In the fifth day of the month, (which was the fifth yeere of King Iehoiakims captivity.)

3 The word of the LORD came expressly vnto Ezekiel the Priest, the sonne of Buzi, in the land of the Caldians, by the riuer Chebar, and the hand of the Lord was there vpon him.

4 And I looked, and behold a whirle-winde came out of the North, a great cloud, and a fire in folding it selfe, and a brightnesse was about it, and out of the middle thereof, as the colour of amber, out of the middle of the fire.

5 Also out of the middle thereof came the likeness of foure liuing creatures, and this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.

6 And euery one had foure faces, and euery one had foure wings.

7 And their feet were straight feet, & the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calves foot, and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

8 And they had the hands of a man vnder their wings on their foure sides, and they foure had their faces and their wings.

9 Their wings were ioined one to another, they turned not when they went: they went euery one straight forward.

10 As for the likeness of their faces, they foure had the face of a man, & the face of a lyon on the right side, & they foure had the face of an ox on the left side, they foure also had the face of an eagle.

11 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward, two wings of euery one were ioined one to another, & two covered their bodies.

12 And they went euery one straight forward, whether the Spirit was to goe, they went: and they turned not when they went.

13 As for the likeness of the liuing creatures, their appearance was like burning coales of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went vp and downe among the liuing creatures, and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

14 And the liuing creatures ran, and returned: as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I beheld the liuing creatures, behold, one wheele vpon the earth by the liuing creatures, with his foure faces.

16 The appearance of the wheeles, and their worke was like vnto the colour of a Berill: and they foure had one likeness, and their appearance, and their worke was as it were a wheele in the middle of a wheele.

17 When they went, they went vpon their foure sides: and they returned not when they went.

18 As for their rings, they were so high, that they were as walls, and their rings were full of eyes round about them foure.

19 And when the liuing creatures went, the wheeles went by them: and when the liuing creatures were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lifted vp.

20 Whether soeuer the Spirit was to goe, they went, whether was their Spirit to goe, & the wheeles were lifted vp ouer against them: for the Spirit of the liuing creature was in the wheeles.

21 When those went, these went: and when those stood, these stood: and when those were lifted vp from the earth, the wheeles were lifted vp ouer against them: for the Spirit of the liuing creature was in the wheeles.

22 And the likeness of the firmament vpon the heads of the liuing creature, was as the colour of the terrible crysall, stretched forth ouer their heads aboue.

23 And vnder the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward thother, euery one had two which covered on this side, and entry one had two which covered on that side their bodies.

24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, & voice of speech, as the noise of an hollow when they flood they let downe their wings.

25 And there was a voyce from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let downe their wings.

26 ¶ And above the firmament that was over their heads, was the likenesse of a throne, as the appearance of a Saphir stone, and upon the likenes of the throne, was the likenesse as the appearance of a man about vpon it.

27 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it: from the appearance of his loynes enen upward, and from the appearance of his loynes cum downward: I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightnesse round about.

28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of raine, so was the appearance of the brightnesse round about. This was the appearance of the likenesse of the glory of the LORD:
and when I saw it, I fell vpon my face, and I heard a voyce of one that spake.

¶ Ezekiels commission. 6 His vnterruption. 9 The rule of his heauie prophete.

And he said vnto me, Sonne of man, stand vpon thy feet, and I will speake vnto thee:

1 And the Spirit entred into me, when he spake vnto me, and let mee vpon my feet, that I heard him that spake vnto me:

2 And hee said vnto me, Sonne of man, I send thee to the children of Israel: to a rebellious & nation, that hath rebelled against me: they & their kings haue transgressed against me, enen vnto this very day.

3 For they are ¶ impudent children, and stiff-hearted: I doe send thee vnto them, and thou shalt say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord God.

4 And say, whether they will heare, or whether they will forbear: (for they are a rebellious house) yet shall know that their hath bene a Prophet among them.

5 ¶ And thou son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though I breya and thornes bee with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

6 And thou shalt speake my words vnto them, whether they will heare, or whether they will forbear, or they are most ¶ rebellious.

7 But thou son of man, heare what I say vnto thee, Bee not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and seee that I giue thee.

8 ¶ And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent vnto me, and loe, a roale of a booke was therein:
and hee spread it before me, and it was written within and without, and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and wee-

CHAP. IJ.

1 Ezekiel eateth the roale. 4 God enuoyeth him. 15 God sheweth him the rule of prophete. 22
God breatheth and openeth the Prophets mouth.

¶ Orpheit, he said vnto me, Sonne of man, take this roale, and eate it: and thou shalt speake vnto the house of Israel.

2 ¶ And I opened my mouth, and hee caused me to eate that roale.

3 And hee said vnto me, Sonne of man, take thy belly to eate, and fill thy bowels with this roale that I giue thee. Then did I eate it, and it was as my mouth as honey for sweetnesse.

4 ¶ And hee said vnto me, Son of man, Get thee vnto the house of Israel, and speake with my words vnto them.

5 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel.

6 Nor to many people of a strange speech, and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not vnderstand: I surely had sent thee to them, they would haue hearkned vnto thee.

7 But the house of Israel will not hearken vnto thee, for they will not hearken vnto me: for all the house of Israel are ¶ impudent and hard hearted.

8 Behold, I haue made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

9 As an Adamant harder then flintstones I made thy forehead, I feare them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

10 Moreover, hee said vnto me, Sonne of man, all my words that I shall speake vnto thee, write in thine heart, and heare with thine eares.

11 And goe, get thee to them of the captivity, vnto thy people, and speake vnto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord God, whether they will heare, or whether they will forbear.

12 Then the spirit tooke me vp, and I heard behind me a voyce of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

13 I heard also the noise of the wings of the lying creatures that ¶ touched one another, and the noise of the wheels ouer against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

14 So the Spirit lifted me vp, & tooke me away, and I went in ¶ bitterness, in the finesse of my spirit, but the hand of the LORD was strong vpon me.

15 ¶ Then I came to them of the captivity at Telabib, that dw. k. by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained their astonished, among them seuen dayes.

16 And it came to passe, at the end of seuen dayes, that the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

17 ¶ Son of man I haue made thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore heare the word at my mouth, and giue them warning from me.

18 When I say vnto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die, and thou giuest him not warning, nor speak-est to warne the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life: the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will require at thine hand.

19 Yet if thou warne the wicked, and hee turne not from his wickednes, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but thou hast deliuered thy soule.

20 Againe, when a ¶ righteous man doeth turning from his righteousnesse, and committeth iniquity, and I lay a stumbling blocke before him, he shall die:
because thou hast not giuen him warning, hee shall die in his sinne, and his righteousnesse which hee hath done, shall not be remembered: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

21 Nevertheless, if thou warne the righteous man that the righteous sinne not, and hee doth not sinne, he shall surely liue, because he is warned, altho thou hast deliuered thy soule.

22 ¶ And the hand of the LORD was there vpon me, and hee said vnto me, Rise, get thee vnto the glaine, and I will there talke with thee.

C H A P. III.

1 Under the type of a siege, is shewed the time from the desolation of Ieroboaam to the captivity. 2 By the proudfness of the siege, is shewed the hardness of the famine.

Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and portray upon it the city, Ierusalem.

2 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it: let the camps also be against it, and let battering rammes against it round about.

3 Moreover, take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city, and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it: this shall be a siege to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days, that thou shalt lie upon it, thou shalt bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the yeeres of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days. * 50 shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie againe on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Iudah for: y days: I have appointed thee for each day for a yeere.

7 Therefore thou shalt say for thy face toward the siege of Ierusalem, and thinke arme shalt be unconquered, and thou shalt prophesie against it.

8 And behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turne thee from the one side to another, till thou hast ended the dayes of thy siege.

9 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and miller, and flitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the dayes that thou shalt lie upon thy side: three hundred and ninety shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And the meate which thou shalt eat shalt be by weight twenty shekels a day; from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 Thou shalt drinke also water by measure: for the part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drinke.

12 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man in their sight.

13 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the distribution of Ierusalem be: their defiled bread seeing the defilement, whether I will shew them.

14 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, behold my soule hath not been polluted: for from my youth up, I was till now, have I not eaten of that which dieth of it selfe, or is come in pieces, neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

15 Then he said unto me, Loe, I have given thee cowes dung for mans dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

16 Moreover, he said unto me, Sons of man, behold, I will breake the staffe of bread in Ierusalem, and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care, and they shall drinke water by measure, and with astonishment.

17 That they may want bread and water, and be agonized one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

C H A P. V.

1 Under the type of haire, is shewed the judgement of Ierusalem for their rebellion, 12 by famine, sword, and dispersion.

And thou son of man, take thee a sharpe knife, take thee a barbers razor, and cause it to passe upon thine head, and upon thy beard: then take the balances to weigh, and divide the haire.

2 Thou shalt beare with thee a third part in the middle of the city, when 3 dayes of the siege are fulfilled, & thou shalt take a third part, & smite about it with a knife, & a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them.

3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and binde them in thy skirts.

4 Then take of them againe, and cast them into the middle of the fire, and beare them in the fire: for therof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD, This is Ierusalem: I have set it in the middle of the nations, and countries: but she is round about her.

6 And she hath changed my judgments into wickednesse more then the nations, & my statutes, more then the countries: but she is round about her: for they have refused my judgments, and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye multiplied more then the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I even I am against thee, and will execute judgments in the middle of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will doe in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not doe any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the middle of thee, & the sons shall eat their fathers, and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore as I have said, saith the Lord GOD, Surely because thou hast despised my Sanctuary, with all thine detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee, neither shall any eye see thee, neither will I be any pity.

12 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee: and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will be angry with thy eyes, and will be angry upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken in my zeale, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that passe by.

15 So it shall be as a reproach, and a taunt, an instruction, and an abomination unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger, and in fury, and in furious rebukes: I the LORD have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread.

17 So will I send upon you famine, and a cruel beast, and they shall become thee, and pestilence, and blood shall passe thorough thee, & I will bring the sword upon thee: I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAP. VI.

1 The judgement of Israel for their idolatry. 2 A remnant shall be blessed. 11 The faithful are exalted to lament their calamities.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Some of man set the face towards the mountains of Israel, and prophesie against them.

3 And say: Ye mountaines of Israel, heare the word of the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountaines and to the hills, to the riners and to the valleys, Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places,

4 And your Altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your stone oien before your idoles.

5 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idoles, and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

6 In all your dwelling places the rines shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate, that your altars may be laid waste, and made desolate, and your idoles may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

7 And the flaine shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

8 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape of sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

9 And they that escape of you, shall remember me among the nations, whether they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes which see a whoring after their idoles: and they shall loath themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

10 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vaine, that I would do this evil unto them.

11 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas, for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel: for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

12 For that is far off shall die of the pestilence, and he that is neere shall fall by the sword, and he that remaineth and is besieged, shall die by the famine, thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

13 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idoles round about their altars, upon every high hill in all the tops of the mountaines, and under every greene tree, and under every thicke oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idoles.

14 So will I stretch out mine hand upon them, and make the land desolate, ye more I desolate them the wilderness towards Diblah, in all their habitations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. VII.

1 The final desolation of Jerusalem. 16 The mournfull repentance of them that escape. 20 The enemies despoile the Sanctuary, because of the Israelites abominations. 23 Under the type of a chain is shewed their miserable captivity.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 No thou sonne of man, thus saith the Lord GOD vpon the land of Israel, An end, the end is come vpon the four corners of the land.

3 Now is the end come vpon thee, and I will send mine anger vpon thee, and will iudge thee according to thy wayes, and will recompense vpon thee all thine abominations.

4 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy wayes vpon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD, An euill, an euilly euill, behold, it is come,

6 An end is come, the end is come, if ye watch for this, behold, it is come.

7 The morning is come vnto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is neere, and not the founding againe of the mountaines.

8 Now will I shortly powre out my fury vpon thee, and accomplish mine anger vpon thee: and I will iudge thee according to thy wayes, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

9 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee, according to thy wayes, and thine abominations that are in the middell of thee, and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

10 Behold the day, behold, it is come, the morning is gone forth, the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

11 Violence is risen vp into a rod of wickednes: none of them shall remaine, nor of their multitude, nor of any of theirs, neither shall there bee weeping for them.

12 The time is come, the day draweth neere, let not the buyer reioyce, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

13 For the seller shall not returne to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not returne: neither shall any strengthen himselfe in the magnity of his life.

14 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready, but none goeth to the battell: for my wrath is vpon all the multitude thereof.

15 The sword is without, and the pestilence, and the famine within: he that is in the field, shall die with the sword, and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall deuoure him.

16 But they that escape of them, shall escape, and shall bee on the mountaines, like doots of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

18 They shall also as a bird themselves with lacke.

cloth and horror shall cover them, and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

19 They shall cast their filer in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver, and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels, because it is the stumbling block of their iniquity.

20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in malice: but they made the images of their abominations, & of their detestable things thereof: therefore have I set it farre from them.

21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoile, and they shall pollute it.

22 My face will I turne also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

23 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, the city is full of violence.

24 Wherefore, I will bring the work of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pompe of the strong to cease, and of their holy places shall be defiled.

25 Destruction cometh, and they shall seeke peace, and there shall be none.

26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour, then shall they seeke a vision of the Prophet: but the Law shall perish from the Priest, and counsell from the seience.

27 The King shall mourne, and the Prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will doe vnto them after their way, and according to their defaults will I iudge them, and they shall knowe that I am the LORD.

1 Ezekiel in a vision of God, at Jerusalem, is shewed the image of Ierusalem: 7 The chambers of imagery. 13 The mourners for Tammuz. 15 The worshippers toward the Sun. 18 Gods wrath for their idolatry.

And it came to passe in the sixt yeere, in the first month, in the sixt day of the month, as I was in mine house, and the Elders of Iudah sate before me: that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there vpon me.

2 Then I beheld, and loe, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loines came downward, fire: and from his legges upward, as the appearance of brightnesse, as the colour of amber.

3 And he put forth the forme of a hand, and took me by a locke of mine head, and the spirit lift me vp between the earth and the heauen, and brought me in the visions of God to Ierusalem, to the doore of the inner gate, that looketh toward the North, where was the seat of the image of Ierusalem, which proueth to be Ierusalem.

4 And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plaine.

5 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, lift vp thine eyes now, the way towards the North, so I lift up mine eyes the way toward the North, and beholde, Northward at the gate of the Altar, this image of Ierusalem in the entry.

6 He said furthermore vnto me, Sonne of man, seeh thou what they doe here, the great abominations that shall be done in Ierusalem: because I should seee here off from my Sanctuary?

becausee thee yet againe, and thou shalt seee greater abominations.

7 ¶ And he brought me to the doore of the court, & when I looked, beholde, a hole in the wall.

8 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, beholde, a doore.

9 And he said vnto me, Get in, and behold the wicked abominations that they doe here.

10 So I went in, and saw, and beholde, every forme of creeping things, and abominable bestes, and all the fishes of the house of Israel, portrayed vpon the wall round about.

11 And there stood before them, security men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Iazaniah the son of Shaphan with eury man his censer in his hand, and a thicke cloud of incense went vp.

12 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, haue thou seme what the seigners of the house of Israel doe in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth vs not, the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also vnto me, Turne thee yet againe, and thou shalt seee greater abominations that they doe.

14 Then hee brought me to the doore of the gate of the LORDS house, which was towards the North, and beholde, there sate women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he vnto me, Haue thou seene this, O soune of man? Turne thee yet againe, and thou shalt seee greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORDS house, and beholde, at the doore of the Temple of the LORD, betwixt the porch and the Altar, were about fiftie and twenty men, with their backs toward the Temple of the LORD, and their faces towards the East, and they worshipped the Sonne towards the East.

17 ¶ Then he said vnto me, Haue thou seene this, O soune of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Israhel, that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and I am returned to prouoke me to anger: and lo, they put the branch to their nose.

18 Therefore will I also deale in fury: mine eyes shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine eares with a loud voice, yet will I not heare them.

C H A P. IX.

1. A vision whereby is shewed the profanation of house, & the delimitation of the rest. 8 God cannot be reuerated for them.

1 I saw also in mine eyes with a loud voice, saying, Cursed be them that haue charge ouer the city, that draw acerre, euen every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And beholde, fixe men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the North, and eury man a slaughter weapon in his hand: and one among them was clothed with purple, with a writers ink horn: & by his side a vessell they went in, and stood beside the brazen Altar.

3 And the glory of the God of Israel was come vp from the Cherub wherupon hee was, to the threshold of the house, and hee called to the man clothed with linnen, which had the writers ink horn by his side.

4 And the LORD said vnto him, Get thee out of the midst of the city, thou say the word of Ierusalem, and say, A voice vnto the LORD, thus saith the LORD, ¶ Heb. for a separation or cleansing. ¶ PRO. 11. ¶ xph. r. ¶ Eccles. 5. 2. ¶ Or, because when they are in their sinning blacke. ¶ Or, made to this purpose, as welcome thing. ¶ Or, burg. ¶ Or, f. ¶ Or, f. ¶ Heb. with their judges.

men that sigh, and that cry for all the abominations that he done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to the arabers he said in my hearing, Goe ye after him thorow the citie and streets: let not your eye spare, neither haue ye pity.

6 Slay vnto every old and young: both maids and little children, and women: but come not nere any man vpon whom is the marke, and begin at my Sanctuary: then they began at the ancient men, which were before the house.

7 And he said vnto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the flaine, goe ye forth: and they went forth, and flew in the citie.

8 ¶ And it came to passe while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell vpon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD, wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy powring out of thy fury vpon Ierusalem?

9 Then said he vnto me: The iniquity of the house of Israel and Iudah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of spernerousness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I haue pity: but I will recompense their way vnto their iniquity.

11 And behold, the man clothed with linnen, which had the iakhorne by his side, reported the word saying, I haue done as thou hast commanded.

CHAP. X.

1 The vision of the coales of fire to be scattered over the city. 2 The vision of the Cherubims.

Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was aboue the head of the Cherubims, that appeared ouer them, as it were a Saphir stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake vnto the man clothed with linnen, and said, Goe in betwene the wheels, and vnder the Cherub, and fill thine hand with coales of fire from betwene the Cherubims; and scatter them ouer the city. And hee went in my sight.

3 Now the Cherubims stood on the right side of the house when the man went in, and the cloud filled the inner Court.

4 Then the glory of the LORD went vp from the Cherub, and stood ouer the threshold of the house, and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of brightness of the LORDS glory.

5 And the sound of the Cherubims wings was heard, even to the vtter court, as the voyce of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

6 And it came to passe, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linnen, saying, Take fire from betwene the wheels, from betwene the Cherubims: Then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one Cherub ¶ stretched forth his hand from betwene the Cherubims, vnto the fire that was betwene the Cherubims: and tooke thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linnen, who tooke it and went out.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the Cherubims the forme of a man hand vnder their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the foure wheels by the Cherubims, one wheele by one Cherub, and another wheele by another Cherub: and the appearance of the wheels, was as the colour of a Saphir stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they foure had one likeness, as if a wheele had bene in the midst of a wheele.

11 When they went, they went vpon their foure sides; they turned not as they went, for to the place whither the head looked, they followed it, they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backes, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels were full of eyes round about, as the wheels that they foure had.

13 As for the wheels, ¶ it was cried vnto them in my hearing, O wheels,

14 And every one had foure faces: the first face was the face of a Cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an Eagle.

15 And the Cherubims were lifted vp, this is the liuing creature that I saw by the riner of Chebar.

16 And when the Cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the Cherubims lift vp their wings to mount vp from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these hid, and when they were lifted vp, these hid vp themselves also: for the spirit of the liuing creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house and stood ouer the Cherubims.

19 And the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and mounted vp from the earth in my sight: when they went out the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the doore of the East gate of the LORDS house, and the glory of the God of Israel was ouer them aboue.

20 This is the liuing creature that I saw vnder the God of Israel, by the riner of Chebar, and I knew that they were the Cherubims.

21 Every one had foure faces apiece, and every one foure wings, and the likeness of the hands of a man was vnder their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the riner of Chebar, their appearance, and their similitude: they went every one straight forward.

CHAP. XL

1 The presumption of the Princes: 4 Their sinne and iudgement. 12 Ezekiel complaining, God search him in purpose in sauing a remnant, 21 and punishing the wicked. 22 The glory of God leaues the city. 24 Ezekiel is returned to his captivity.

Moreover the Spirit lift me vp, and brought me vnto the East gate of the LORDS house, which looketh Eastward: and behold at the doore of the gate five and twenty men: among whom I saw Iazaniab the sonne of Anur, and Pelatiah the sonne of Benaiah, Princes of the people.

2 Then said he vnto me, Sonne of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and giue wicked counsell in this city;

3 Which say, It is not meete, let vs build houses: this city is the candleston, & we be the selfe.

4 ¶ Therefore prophesie against them, prophesie O Sonne of man,

5 And the Spirit of the LORD fell vpon me, and said vnto me, Speake, thus saith the LORD: This haue ye said, O house of Israel, for I know ¶ things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 Ye haue multiplied your flaine in this city, and ye haue filled the streets thereof with the flaine.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Your flaine whom ye haue laid in the midst of it, they are the fish, and this city is the cauldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 Ye have feared the sword, and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

10 Ye shall fall by the sword: I will judge you in the border of Israel, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 This city shall not be your cauldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof, but I will judge you in the border of Israel.

12 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for I have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benajah died: then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said: Ah Lord GOD, wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, whom I have sworn unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get ye farre from the LORD: proo vs is this land giuen in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Although I have cast them farre off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countreys, yet will I bee to them as a little boundary in the countreys where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will euen gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countreys where ye have bene scattered, and I will giue you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof, and all the abominations thereof, from thence.

19 And I will giue them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you: and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will giue them an heart of flesh.

20 That they may walke in my statutes and keepe mine ordinances, and doethem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

21 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things, and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their owne heads, saith the Lord GOD.

22 ¶ Then did the Cherubims lift vp their wings, and the wheels besides them, and the glory of the GOD of Israel was over them about.

23 And the glory of the LORD went vp from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountaine which is on the East side of the city.

24 ¶ Afterward the Spirit tooke me vp, and brought mee in uisua by the Spirit: of God into Caldea to them of the captivity: so the vision that I had seene went vp from me.

25 Then I spake vnto them of the captivity, all the things which the LORD had shewed me.

C H A P. XII.

The type of Ezekiel's removing: 8 It shewed the captivity of Zedekiah. 17 Ezekiel's trembling for the Jews' desolation. 21 The Jews' prophecies pronounced is reprobated. 26 The beautifullness of the vision.

The word of the LORD also came vnto mee, saying,

1 Some of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which haue eyes to see, and see not: they haue eares to heare, and heare not: for they are a rebellious house.

2 Therefore thou Some of man, prepare thy shafte for removing, and remove by day in their sight, and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may bee they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

3 Then shalt thou bring forth thy shafte by day in their sight, as shafte for removing: and thou shalt goe fourth at Euen in their sight, as they shall goe fourth into captivity.

4 Dig thou thow the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

5 In their sight shalt thou beare it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a signe vnto the house of Israel.

6 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my shafte by day, as shafte for captivity, and in the Euen I judged thow the wall with mine hand, I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.

7 ¶ And in the morning came the word of the LORD vnto me, saying,

8 Some of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said vnto thee, What doest thou?

9 Say thou vnto them: Thus saith the Lord GOD, This burden concerneth the Prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among him.

10 Say I am your signe: like as I have done, so shall it be done vnto them: they shall remove, and goe into captivity.

11 And the Prince that is among them, shall beare upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall goe forth: they shall dig thow the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.

12 My netfall will I spread vpon him, and hee shall be taken in my netre, and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans, yet shall hee not see it, though hee shall die there.

13 And I will scatter toward euery wind all that are about him to helpe him, and all his bands, and I will draw out the sword after them.

14 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countreys.

15 But I will leaue a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence, that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whether they come, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

16 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

17 Some of man, eate thy bread with quakings, and drinke thy water with trembling, and with carefulnesse,

18 And say vnto the people of the land: Thus saith the Lord GOD, of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel: They shall eate their bread with carefulnesse, and drinke their water with abstinence, that her land may be desolate from this that is therein, because of the violence of them that dwell therein.

19 And the cities that are inhabited, shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

20 ¶ And the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

22 Some of men, whoe is that promisee that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The dayes are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will make this promisee to cease, and they shall no more use it as a promisee in Israel: but say unto them, The dayes are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For there shall be no more any vaine vision, nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I saw the LORD: I will speake, and the word that I shall speake, shall come to passe, it shall be no more prolonged: for in your dayes, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will performe it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again, the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, the vision is seethed, for many desires are come, and be prophesied of the times that are farre off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, There shall none of my wordes be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their wntempered morer. 17 Of Prophetes and their pillows.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Some of man prophesie against the prophets of Israel that prophetic, and say thus unto them that prophetic out of their owne hearts, Hoare ye the word of the LORD:

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their owne spirit, and have seene nothing.

4 O Israel, thy prophets are like the fowles in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither have ye made up the hedge for the house of Israel, to stand in the battell in the day of the LORD.

6 They have seene vanity, and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith, and the LORD hath not sent: so say they, and have made others to hope, that they would confirme the word.

7 Have ye not seene a vaine vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it, albeit I have not spoken?

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Because ye have spoken vanity, and seene lies, therefore behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And much hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel, and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ Because men because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace, and there was no peace: and our bastie was a wall, and lo, others dawbed it with wntempered morer.

11 Say unto them which dawbe it with wntempered morer, that it shall fall: there shall be an overthrowing showre, and ye, O great hutehouses, shall fall, and a stormie wind reme it.

12 Loe, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you: Where is the dawbing wherewith ye have dawbed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will such send it with a stormie wind in my fury: and there shall be an overthrowing showre intainc anger, and great hailstones in my fury, to confound it. 24 So will I breake downe the wall that ye have dawbed with wntempered morer, and bring it downe to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be confounded in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

25 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have dawbed it with wntempered morer, and will say unto you: The wall is no more, neither they that dawbed it.

26 To wit, the prophets of Israel, which prophesie concerning Ierusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD.

27 ¶ Likewise thou soune of man, let thy face against the daughters of thy people: which prophesie out of their owne heart, and prophetic thou against them.

28 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Woe to the women that sew pillows to all, arme-holes, and make kerchiefs upon y head of every stature, to hunt soules: Will ye hunt y soules of my people, & will ye save the soules alive that come unto you?

29 And will ye pollute mee among my people for handfuls of barley, and for pieces of bread, to slay the soules that should not die, and to save the soules alive that should not live, by your lying to my people, that heare your lies?

30 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the soules, to make y soules flee, and I will tear them from your armes, and will let the soules goe, as the soules that ye hunt, so make them flee.

31 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and delivere my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

32 Because woe lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad: and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that hee should not returne from his wicked way: by promising him life.

33 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will delivere my people out of your hand, & ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XIII.

1 God answers idolaters according to their own heart. 6 They are whored to ydols for feare of judgement, by meanes of seduced prophetes. 13 Gods irrevocable sentences of shame, 15 of noisome beasts. 17 Of the sword, 19 and of pestilence. 22 A remembrance shall be reserved for example of others.

¶ Then came certaine of the Elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumbling blocke of their iniquity before their face: should I be required of it all by them?

4 Therefore speake unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquity before his face, and commeth to the Prophet, I the LORD will answer him that commeth, according to the multitude of his idols.

5 That I may take the house of Israel in their owne heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, They shall

1 Or,
 gubers,

saith the Lord GOD, Repent, and turne your selues from your idols, and turne away your faces from all your abominations.

7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himselfe from me, and setteth vp his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumbling blocke of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a Prophet to enquire of him concerning me, the LORD will answer him by my spirit.

8 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a signe and a prouerbe, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people, and yee shall know that I am the LORD.

9 And if the Prophet be deceiued, when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceiued that Prophet, and I will stretch out my hand vpon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

10 And they shall breake the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the Prophet shall be euen as the punishment of him that seeketh vanitie him:

11 That y^e house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither bee polluted any more with all their transgressions, but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.

12 ¶ The word of the LORD came againe to me, saying,

13 Son of man, when the land smeth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand vpon it, and will breake the skilke of the bread thereof, and will send famine vpon it, and will cut off man and beast from it.

14 ¶ Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Iob, were in it, they should deliuer but their owne soules, by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ If I cause noisome beasts to passe thorow the land, and they typpie it, so that it be desolate, that no man may passe thorow because of the beasts,

16 ¶ Though these three men were in it, as I liue, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliuer neither sons nor daughters: they onely shall be deliuered, but the land shall be desolate.

17 ¶ Or if I bring a sword vpon that land, and say, Sword, goe thorow the land, so that I cut off man and beast from it:

18 ¶ Though these three men were in it, as I liue, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliuer neither sons nor daughters, but they onely shall be deliuered themselves.

19 ¶ Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and poure out my fury vpon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

20 ¶ Though Noah, Daniel, and Iob were in it, as I liue, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliuer neither son nor daughter: they shall deliuer but their owne soules by their righteousness.

21 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD, I haue much more when I send my sore iudgements vpon Ierusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the pestilence, and the pollution, to cut off from it man and beast:

22 ¶ Yet behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters; behold, they shall come forth unto you, and y^e shall see their way, and their doings, and yee shall be comforted concerning the euill that I haue brought vpon Ierusalem, euen concerning all that I haue brought vpon it.

23 And they shall comfort you when ye see their wayes and their doings: and ye shall know that I haue not done without cause, all that I haue done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XV.

1 By the vision of the vine branch for my works, 6 w^h shewed the reuision of Ierusalem.

AND the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

2 Son of man, what is the vine tree more then any tree, or then a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood bee taken thereof to doe any worke? or, will men take a pint of it to hang any vessel thereon?

4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for stinell: the fire deuoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burnt. ¶ Is it meet for any worke?

5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for any worke: how much lesse shall it be meet yet for any worke, when y^e fire hath deuoured it, & it is burned?

6 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I haue giuen to the fire for stinell, so will I giue the inhabitants of Ierusalem.

7 And I will set my face against them, they shall goe out from our fire, and another fire shall consume them, and yee shall know that I the LORD, when I set my face against them.

8 And I will make the land desolate, because they haue y^e committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Under the similitude of a wrethed infant, it shewed the newe state of Ierusalem. 6 Gods extraordinary iudgements vpon her, 15 Her monstrous whoredome, 25 Her grieuous iudgements, 33 Her forsaking her mother, and exceeding her sisters Sodom and Samara calleth for iudgements, 40 Moyses prophesied her in the cut.

AGAINE the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying;

2 Sonne of man, cause Ierusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD vnto Ierusalem: Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan, thy father was an Amorit, and thy mother an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity in the day thou wast borne, thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee: thou wast not salted at all, nor washed at all.

5 None eye pitied thee, to doe any of these vnto thee, to haue compassion vpon thee, but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the loathing of the people, in the day that thou wast borne.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine owne blood, I said vnto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Lye: yea, I said vnto thee, when thou wast in thy blood, Lye.

7 I haue caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to y^e excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine haire is growing, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked vpon thee, Behold, thy time was the time of loue, and I spread my skirt ouer thee, and covered thy nakednesse: yea, I lay vnto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine.

9 Thou wast washed with water: yea, I rowly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oyle.

1. Cor. 13. 1. 1. Cor. 13. 1. 1. Cor. 13. 1.

1. Cor. 13. 1. 1. Cor. 13. 1. 1. Cor. 13. 1.

10. I clothed thee also with broidered worke, and shod thee with badgers skin, and I girded thee about with fine linnen, & I covered thee with silke.

11. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets vpon thine hands, and a circine on thy necke.

12. And I put a iewell on thy forehead, and earrings in thine eares, and a beautifull crowne vpon thine head.

13. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver, and thy raiment was of fine linnen, and silke, and broidered worke, thou diddest fine floure, and hony, and oyle, and thou wast exceeding beautifull, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14. And thy renowne went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my countenance which I had put vpon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

15. ¶ But thou didst trust in thine owne beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renowne, and passedst out thy fornications vpon every one that passed by: his it was.

16. And of thy garments thou diddest take, and deckedst thy high places with diuers colours, and playedst the harlot thereon: these things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

17. Thou hast also taken thy faire iewels of my gold, and of my silver, which I had giuen thee, and madest to thy selfe images of men, and diddest commit whoredome with them.

18. And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oyle and mine incense before them.

19. My meat also which I gaue thee, fine floure, and oyle, and hony wherewith I fed thee, thou hast eate it: before them for a ¶ sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20. Wherefore, thou hast taken thy sonnes and thy daughters: whom they hath borne vnto thee, and these hast thou sacrificed vnto them: so hee deuoted: is this of thy whoredoms a small matter,

21. That thou hast slaine my children, and deliuered them: to cause them to passe thorow the fire for them?

22. And in all thine abominations, and thy whoredomes, thou hast not remembered the dayes of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

23. And it came to passe after all the whoredoms, (woe, woe vnto thee, saith the Lord GOD,)

24. That thou hast also built vnto thee an high place, and hast made thee an high place in euery street.

25. Thou hast built thy high place at euery head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredomes.

26. Then hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours great of flesh, & hast increased thy whoredoms to provoke me to anger.

27. Behold therefore, I haue stretched out my hand ouer thee, and haue diminished thine ordinary food, and deliuered thee vnto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

28. Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast vsuall: yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

29. Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication to the land of Canaan vnto Caldea, and yet thou wast not satisfied therewith.

30. How wast thou in thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the worke of an imperious whorish woman?

31. In what thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of euery way, and makest thine high place in euery street, and hast not become as an harlot, in that thou comest hire?

32. But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers in stead of her husband.

33. They giue gifts to all whoredomes, but thou giuest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and ¶ hast them, that they may come vnto thee on euery side for thy whoredome.

34. And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredomes: whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredomes: and in that thou sellest a reward, and so reward is giuen vnto thee: therefore thou art contrary.

35. ¶ Wherefore, O Harlot, Heare the word of the LORD.

36. Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because thy faithfulness was poured out, and thy nakednesse discovered through thy whoredomes with thy lovers, and with all the idoles of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou diddest giue vnto them:

37. Behold therefore, I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loued, with all them that thou hast hated: I will euen gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakednesse vnto them, that they may see all thy nakednesse.

38. And I will iudge thee, yea women that breake wedlocke, and shed blood, are iudged, and I will giue thee blood in fury and ire.

39. And I will also giue thee into their hand, and they shall throw downe thine eminent place, and shall breake downe thy high place, they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy faire iewels, and leaue thee naked and bare.

40. They shall also bring vp a conspiracy against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee thorow with their swords.

41. And they shall burne thine houses with fire, and execute iudgements vpon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou shalt giue me hire any more.

42. So will I make my fury towards thee to rest, and my iacobitic shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43. Because thou hast not remembered the dayes of thy youth: but hast fretted mee in all these things: behold therefore, I also will recompense thy way vpon thine head, saith ¶ Lord GOD: & thou shalt not comit this lewdnes, about all these abominations.

44. ¶ Behold, every one that vseth proverbs, shall vset this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45. Thou art thy mothers daughter, that leauest her husband, and her children, and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which leauest their husbands, and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

46. And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

47. Yet hast thou not walked after their wayes, nor done after their abominations: because if thou hadst done a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more as they: they in all thy wayes.

48 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, So dwemethy sister hath not done, for not her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom: Pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her, and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poore & needy.

50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: & therefore I took them away as I saw good.

51 Neither hath Samaria committed halfe of thy sins, but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more then they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 Thou also which hast injured thy sisters, beate thine owne shame, for thy sines, that thou hast committed more abominable then they: they are more righteous then thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and beare thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When I shall bring againe their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring againe the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest beare thine owne shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort vnto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall retorne to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall retorne to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall retorne to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride:

57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all these are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which I despite these round about.

58 Thou hast found thine lewdness, and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

59 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deale with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath, in breaking the Covenant.

60 Nevertheless, I will remember my Covenant with thee in the dayes of thy youth, and I will establish vnto thee an everlasting Covenant.

61 Than thou shalt remember thy wayes, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger, and I will give them vnto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

62 And I will establish my Covenant with thee, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

63 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more: because of thy shame, when I am pacified towards thee, for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Under the parable of two Eagles and a vine, it is showed Gods judgement upon Ierusalem, for removing from Babylon to Egypt. 23 God promises to plant the Cedar of the Gabbai.

And the word of the LORD came vnto mee, saying,

2 Some of man put forth a riddle, and speake a parable vnto the house of Israel,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, A great Eagle, with great wings, long winged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came vnto Lebanon, and tooke the highest branch of the Cedar.

4 He cropt off the top of his young twig, and carried it into a land of traffique; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 He tooke also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field, he placed it by great waters; and set it in a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the rootes thereof were vnder him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth fruite.

7 There was also another great Eagle, with great wings, and many feathers, and behold, this vine did bend her rootes towards him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrowes of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good soile, by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might beare fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull vp the rootes thereof, and cut off the top thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power, or many people to plucke it vp by the rootes thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither when the East wind toucheth it? shall it wither in the furrowes where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? I tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Ierusalem, and hath taken the King thereof, and the Princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon.

13 And hath taken of the Kings seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land, 14 That the kingdome might be base, that it might not lift it selfe vp, that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

15 But he rebelled against him in sending his Ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people: shall he prosper? shall he escape these dolefull things? or shall he breake the Covenant, and be deliuered?

16 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Surely in the place where the King dwelleth that made him King, whose oath he despised, and whose Covenant he brake, even with him, in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the warre, by casting vp mounds, and building forts, to cut off many perious.

18 Seeing he despised the oath, by breaking the Covenant, (when loe, he had given his hand) and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my Covenant that he hath broken, even it will I recompense vpon his owne head.

20 And I will spread my net vpon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespasses that he hath trespassed against me.

21 And all his leguities, with all his hands shall fall by the sword, and they that remaine shall be scattered towards all wincks: and ye shall know that I the LORD haue spoken it.

22 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also take off the highest branch of the high Cedar, and will 18 It is, I will crop off from the top of his young twigs, a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountaine, and eminent.

19 In the mountaine of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughes, and beare fruit, and be a goodly Cedar, and under it shall dwell all foules: every wing in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

20 And all the trees of the field shall know that the LORD hath brought downe the high tree, haue exalted the low tree, haue dried vp y^e greene tree, and haue made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD haue spoken, and haue done it.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 God reproveth the vanity of some grapes: 2 He sheweth how he dealeth with a iust father: 3 with a wicked some of a iust father: 4 with a iust some of a wicked father: 5 with a wicked mans reparation: 6 with a iust mans reuelling. 7 He defendeth his iustice, 8 and exhorteth to repentance.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me againe, saying,

2 What meane ye that ye vie this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers haue eaten sower grapes, and the childrens teeth are set on edge?

3 As I liue, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to vie this proverb in Israel.

4 Behold, all soules are mine, as the soule of the father, so also the soules of the soune is mine: the soule that sinneth, it shall die.

5 ¶ But if a man be iust, and doe that which is lawfull and right:

6 And hath not eaten vpon the mountaine, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbours wife, neither hath come neere to a woman, and

7 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtour his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

8 Hee that hath not given forth vpon vsury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true iudgement betweene man and man,

9 Hath walked in my Statutes, and hath kept my Iudgements to dole truly: he is iust, he shall surely liue, saith the Lord GOD.

10 ¶ If hee forget a soune that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doth the like to any one of these things,

11 And that doth not any of these duties, but even hath eaten vpon the mountaine, and defiled his neighbours wife,

12 Hath oppressed the poore and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lift vp his eyes to the idoles, hath committed abomination,

13 Hath given forth vpon vsury, and hath taken increase: shall he then liue? He shall not liue: he hath done all these abominations, hee shall surely die, his blood shall be vpon him.

14 ¶ Now loe, he beget a soune, that seeth all his fathers sinnes which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

15 That hath not eaten vpon the mountaine, neither hath lift vp his eyes to the idoles of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbours wife,

16 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withdrawn the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment: 17 That hath taken off his hand from the poore, that hath not received vsury nor increase, hath executed my Iudgements, hath walked in my Statutes, hee shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely liue.

18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, hee, euen he shall die in his iniquity.

19 ¶ Yet say ye, Why? doth not the soune beare the iniquity of the father? when the soune hath done that which is lawfull and right, and hath kept all my Statutes, and hath done that which shall surely liue.

20 The soule that sinneth, it shall die: the soune shall not beare the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father beare the iniquity of the soune; the righteousness of the righteous shall be vpon him, and the wickednesse of the wicked shall be vpon him.

21 But if the wicked will turne from all his sinnes that he hath committed, and keepe all my Statutes, and doe that which is lawfull and right, hee shall surely liue, he shall not die.

22 All his transgressions that hee hath committed, they shall not be mentioned vnto him: in his righteousness that he hath done, he shall liue.

23 ¶ Haue I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die, saith the Lord GOD? and not that he should returne from his wales, and liue?

24 ¶ But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doth, shall he liue? all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespasses that he hath trespassed, and in his sinnes that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

25 ¶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal, heare now, O house of Israel, is not my way equal? or are not your wayes vnequal?

26 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done, shall he die.

27 Againe, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickednesse that he hath committed, and doth that which is lawfull and right, he shall saue his soule aliuie.

28 Because he considereth and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely liue, he shall not die.

29 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my wayes equal? or are not your wayes vnequal?

30 Therefore will I iudge you, O house of Israel, eury one according to his wayes, saith the Lord GOD: I repeat and turne if your felues from all other your transgressions: so iniquity shall not be your mine.

31 ¶ Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye haue transgressed, and make you a new heart, and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

32 For I haue no pleasure in the death of him, that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turne ye from your felues, and liue ye.

CHAP. XIX.

1 A lamentation for the Prince of Israel, vnder the parable of heauy whelkes taken in a pit, 2 and for Ierusalem, vnder the parable of a wasted vine. O reuerent, take thou vp a lamentation for the Princes of Israel,

3 And say, What is thy mother? A Horellet she lay downe among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

4 And she brought vp one of her whelpes: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey, it deuoured men.

5 The nations also heard of him, he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains vnto the land of * Egypt.

6 Now when the King that he had waited, and her hope was lost, then sheooke another of her whelpes, and made him a young lion.

7 And he went vp and downe among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and deuoured men.

8 And hee knoweth their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities, and the land was desolate, and the inlands thereof by the noise of his roaring.

9 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net ouer him: he was taken in their pit.

10 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the King of Babylon, they brought him into holds, that his voyce should no more be heard vpon the mountaines of Israel.

11 Thy mother is like a vine: I to thy blood, planted by the waters, fluee was fruitfull, and full of branches, by reason of many waters.

12 And shee had strong roots for the scepters of them that beare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thicke branches, and she appeared in her height, with the multitude of her branches.

13 But she was plucked vp in fury: she was cast downe to the ground, and the * East wind dried vp her fruit: her strong roots were broken and withered, the fire consumed them.

14 And now she is planted in the wilderness in a dry and thirsty ground.

15 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches which hath consumed her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a keeper to rule: this is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

CHAP. XX.

1 God resteth to be consulted by the Elders of Israel. 2 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 3 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 23 He promisseth to gather them by the Gospel. 45 Under the name of a Forrest he sheweth the destruction of Ierusalem.

AND it came to passe in the seuenthy yeere, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certaine of the Elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sate before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD vnto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speake vnto the Elders of Israel, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Are ye come to enquire of me, as I liue, (saith the Lord GOD,) I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Without I iudge them, son of man, wilt thou iudge them? I came them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 I And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the day when I chose Israel, and I lifted vp mine hand vnto the seed of the house of Iacob, and made my selfe knowne vnto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted vp mine hand vnto them, saying, I am the LORD your God,

6 In the day when I lifted vp mine hand vnto them to bring them forth of the land of Egypt, into a land that I had sspied for them, flowing with milke and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I vnto them, Cast ye away euery man the abominations of his eyes, and desile not your selues with the idoles of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But they rebelled against mee, and would not hearken vnto mee: they did not euery man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idoles of Egypt: then I said, I will powere out my fury vpon them, to accomplish my sprog against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

9 But I wrought, for my Names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made my selfe knowne vnto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 Wherefore I caused them to goe forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

11 And I gaue them my Statutes, and I shewed them my Iudgements, which if a man doe, he shall euil liue in them.

12 Moreover also, I gaue them my * Sabbaths, to be a signe betwene me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctifie them.

13 But the house of Israel rebelled against mee in the wilderness: they walked not in my Statutes, and they despised my Iudgements, which if a man doe, he shall euil liue in them, and my Sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would powere out my fury vpon them in the wilderness, to consume them.

14 But I wrought for my Names sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I lifted vp mine hand vnto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had giuen them, flowing with milke and honey, which is the glory of all lands.

16 Because they despised my Iudgements, and walked not in my Statutes, but polluted my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idoles.

17 Nevertheless, mine eye spared them, from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.

18 But I said vnto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the Statutes of your fathers, neither obsecure their iudgements, nor desile your selues with their idoles.

19 I am the LORD your God: walke in my Statutes, and keepe my Iudgements, and do them.

20 And hallow my Sabbaths, and they shall be a signe betwene me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

21 Notwithstanding, the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my Statutes, neither kept my Iudgements to do them, which if a man doe, he shall euil liue in them: they polluted my Sabbaths: then I said, I would powere out my fury vpon them, to accomplish mine anger against them in the wilderness.

22 Nevertheless, I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my names sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I lifted vp mine hand vnto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them thorow the countries:

24 Because they had not executed my Iudgements, but had despised my Statutes, and had polluted my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers idoles.

25 Wherefore I gaue them also statutes that ye are not good, and judgments whereby they should not live.

26 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they offered to pass & throw the fire all their offerings the worms, that I might make their desolate, to the end, that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, some of man, speaks unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Ye in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thicke trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the pronunciation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

29 Then I said unto them, What is the high place wherunto ye goe? and the name thereof is called Barmah unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredome after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to passe thorow the fire, ye pollute your selves with all your idoles, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

32 And that which cometh into your minde, shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countreys, to serve wood and stone.

33 ¶ As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arme, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you.

34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countreys wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arme, and with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

36 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

37 And I will cause you to passe under the rod, and I will bring you into the bow of the Covenant.

38 And I will purge out sin among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourne, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Goe ye, serve ye every one his idoles, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy Name no more with your gifts, and with your idoles.

40 For in mine holy mountaine, in the mountaine of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, sit of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you, with your first fruits, when I bring you out from the people, & gather you out from the countreys wherein ye have bene scattered, and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when

I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country, for the which I lifted up mine hand, to give it to your fathers.

43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have bene desolate: and ye shall looke your selves in your owne sight, for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you for my Names sake, not according to your wicked waies, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Some of man, set thy face toward the South, and drop thy sword toward the South, and prophesie against the forest of the South field.

47 And say to the forest of the South, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall consume every greene tree in thee, and every dry tree the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the South to the North shall be burnt therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD, they say of me, Doeth he not speake parables?

CHAP. XXI.

1 Ezekiel prophesies against Jerusalem, with a gene of signes. 2 The sheepe and lambs words, 18 against Ierusalem, 25 against the kingdome, 28 and against the Ammonites.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Some of man, set thy face toward Ierusalem, and drop thy sword toward the holy places, and prophesie against the land of Israel,

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword goe forth out of his sheath against all flesh, from the South to the North:

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not returne any more.

6 Sight therefore them some of man, with the breaking of thy loynes, and with bitteresse of sight before their eyes.

7 And it shall bee when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings, because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall falow, and all knees shall be weake as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to passe, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Some of man, prophesie and say, Thus saith the LORD, Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also fourted.

10 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter: it is fourted that it may glitter: should wee then make mirth? I it concerneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

11 And he hath given it to be fourted, that it may be haudled: this sword is sharpened, and it is fourted to give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

1 Peter shall rise unto me.

109 it is the rod of my

Or, they are thrust down so as to be sword with my people. Or, when the trial hath bin, what a ben! what they not miss love to be despised? Or, hand to hand Or, glis-tering, or fear. Or, shar-pens. Or, shee see thy selfe, take the left hand of their mother of the way. Or, Amos. Or, Jer. To-rabim. Or, haunter in vannes. Or, for the oaths made to them.

upon my people, it shall be upon all the Princes of Israell: & because, by reason of the sword, shall be upon my people: & smite therefore vpon thy thigh.

12 Because it is a cryall, and what if the sword countesse came the red? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

13 Thou therefore, soune of man, prophetic, and smite thine f hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slaue, it is the sword of the great men that are slaine, which entrench into their priuie chambers.

14 I haue for the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faile, and their raiues be multiplied. Ah, it is made bright, it is I wrapt vp for the slaughter.

15 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, f or on the left, whither order thy face is set.

16 I will also fraise mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: it the LORD haue said it.

17 The word of the LORD came vnto me againe, saying,

18 Also thou soune of man, appoint thee two wayes, that the sword of the King of Babylon may come; both twaine shall come south out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

19 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Iudah in Ierusalem the defenced.

20 For the King of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two wayes, to vic dimination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with f images, he looked in the liner.

21 At his right hand was the dimination for Ierusalem to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift vp the voyce with shouting, to appoint battering rammes against the gates, to cast a mouat, and to ouild a fort.

22 And it shall be vnto them, as a false dimination in their sight, f to them that haue sworne oathes: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

23 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye haue made you iniquity to be remembered, in that your cruelties are discovered, so that in all your doings, your sinnes doe appeare: because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

24 And thou profane wicked Prince of Israell, whose day is come, when iniquity shall haue an end;

25 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Remouee the disme, and take off the crowne: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abate him that is high.

26 I will ouerturne, ouerturne, ouerturne it, and it shall be no more, vntill he come, whose right it is, and I will giue it him.

27 And thou soune of man, prophetic, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, & concerning their reproach: Euen say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn for the slaughter, it is sanctified, to consume because of the glittering.

28 Wher they see vanity vnto thee, whiles they disme a lix vnto thee, to bring thee vpon the necks of them that are slaine, of the wicked whose day is come, when their iniquity shall haue an end.

29 Shall I cause it to returne into his sheath? I will iudge thee, in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

30 And I will powe out mine indignation vpon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliuer thee into the hand of I brutish men, and skillful to destroy.

31 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire: thy blood shall be in the midst of the land, thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD haue spoken it.

CHAP. XXII

1 A catalogue of sinnes in Ierusalem. 2 God will burne them as drosse in his furnace. 3 The general corruption of Prophets, Priests, Princes and people.

MOREouer, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying;

2 Now thou soune of man, Wilt thou iudge, wilt thou iudge the bloody city? yea thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

3 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city fluddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idoles against her selfe, to defile her selfe.

4 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed, and hast defiled thy selfe in thine idoles which thou hast made, and thou hast caused thy dayes to draw neere, and art come euen vnto thy yerres: therefore haue I made thee a reproach vnto the heathen, and a mocking to all countreys.

5 Those that be neere, and those that be farre from thee, shall mocke thee which art infamous, and much vented.

6 Behold the Princes of Israell, euery one were in thee to their power in shed blood.

7 In thee haue they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee haue they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee haue they vened the fatherlesse and the widow.

8 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my Sabbaths:

9 In thee art men that cary tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat vpon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdnesse.

10 In thee haue they discovered their fathers nakednesse: in thee haue they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

11 And some hath committed his bouisiation with his neighbours wife, and another hath lowdly defiled his daughter in law, and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his fathers daughter.

12 In thee haue they taken gifts to shed blood, thou hast taken vnto and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD.

13 Behold therefore, I haue smitten mine hand at thy dishonnest game which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath become in the midst of thee.

14 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong in the dayes that I shall deale with thee? I the LORD haue spoken it, and will doe it.

15 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and will consume thy filchinesse out of thee.

16 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in the felix, in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

17 And the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying;

18 Some of man, the house of Israell is to me become drosse: all they are brass, and stone, and iron, in the midst of the furnace: they are euen as drosse of silver.

19 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because ye are all become drosse, I will purge you.

Or, hee. Or, peruerred. Or, peruerred. Or, made it. Or, hee. Or, hee. Or, hee.

will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
 7 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to make it: so will I gather you in mine anger, and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

8 Yea, I will gather you, and blow you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.

9 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall yee be melted in the midst thereof, and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

10 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

11 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

12 There is a conspiracy of her Prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have despoiled souls: they have taken the treasure and precious things: they have made her many widowers in the midst thereof.

13 Her Priests have violated my Law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they showed difference between the chaste and the cleave, and have hid their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

14 Her Princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

15 And her Prophets have dashed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and dissembling lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken.

16 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

17 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before mee for the law, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

18 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them, I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

C H A P. XXIII.

1 The whoredomes of Aholah and Aholibah.

2 Aholibah is to be plagued by her lovers, as the Prophet reprooveth the adulterers of them both, and sheweth their judgements.

The word of the LORD came againe unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

4 And they committed whoredomes in Egypt: they committed whoredomes in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

5 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters: thus were their names, Sennacherib Aholah, & Jerusalem Aholibah.

6 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine, and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours,

7 Which were clothed with blue, captives and men of all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

8 And she committed her whoredomes with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted; with all their idols she defiled her selfe.

9 Neither left she her whoredomes brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredome upon her.

10 Wherefore I have delivred her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

11 They discovered her nakedness, they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women, for they had executed judgement upon her.

12 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, shee was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredomes, more than her sister in her whoredomes.

13 Shee doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captives and rulers, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen, riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.

14 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they sought both one way:

15 And that she increased her whoredomes: for when she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of Chaldeans portrayed with vermillion,

16 Girded with girdles upon their loines, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them Princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their captivity:

17 And shee doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.

18 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredome, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.

19 So she discovered her whoredomes, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.

20 Yet she multiplied her whoredomes, in calling to remembrance the daies of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.

21 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.

22 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the knowledge of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians, for the paine of thy youth.

23 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side:

24 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Sheah, and Koa, all the Assyrians with them, all of them desirable young men, captives and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

25 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels; and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield, and helmet round about: and I will see judgement before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgements.

26 And I will set my jealousie against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose, and thine eares, and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy founes and thy daughters, and thy residue shall be destroyed by the fire.

26 They shall also strip them out of thy clothes, and take away thy faire jewels.

27 Thus will I make thy lewdnesse to cease from thee, and thy whore domes brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes vnto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

28 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will deliuer thee into the hand of them, whom thou hast hated, into the hand of them, from whom thy minde is alienated.

29 And they shall deale with thee cruelly, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare, and the nakednesse of thy whore domes shall be discovered, both thy lewdnesse and thy whore domes.

30 I will do these things vnto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idoles.

31 Thus hast walked in the way of thy sister, therefore will I giue her cup into thine hand.

32 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Thus shalt drinke of thy sisters cup deepe and large: Thus shalt be laughed to scorn, and had in derision: it continueth much.

33 Thus shalt bee filled with drunkennes, and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment, and delectation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

34 Thus shalt thou drinke it, and sicke it out, and thou shalt weake the breasts thereof, and pluck off thine owne breasts: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behinde thy backe, therefore beare thou also thy lewdnesse, and thy whore domes.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover vnto me, Some of man, with thou? I iudge Aboliah, and Aboliahab yea, declare vnto them their abominations;

37 That they haue committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idoles haue they committed adultery; and haue also caused their sonnes whom they bare vnto me, to passe for them: they shew the fire to denoue them.

38 Moreover, this they haue done vnto me: they haue defiled my Sanctuary in the same day, and haue profaned my Sabbaths.

39 For when they had slaine their children to their idoles, then they came the same day into my Sanctuary to profane it, and loe, thus haue they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye haue sent for men to come from farre, vnto whom a messenger was sent, and loe, they came, for whom thou didst weare thy selfe, paintedst thine eyes, and deckedst thy selfe with ornaments.

41 And thou sittest vpon a f siluer bed, and a table prepared before it; * where vpon thou hast set mine incense, and mine oyle.

42 And a voice of a multitude being at ease, with her, and with the men of the f common sort were brought: I sate me from the wilderness, which put bracelets vpon their hands, and beautifull crowns vpon their heads.

43 Thus said I vnto her, that was old in adulterie, Will they now commit whore domes with her, and she saith them:

44 Yea, they went in vnto her, as they go in vnto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in vnto Aboliah, and vnto Aboliah the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men they shall iudge Aboliah, for the manner of adulterie, and after the manner of women that shall be whoredomes.

they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD, I will beag vpon a company vpon them, and will giue them to be remoued, and spoiled.

47 And the company shall smite them with stones, and I dispatch them with their swords: they shall slay their sonnes and their daughters, and I will burne vp their houses with fire.

48 Thus will I caue lewdnesse to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught, not to doe after your lewdnesse.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdnesse vpon you, and ye shall beare the sin of your idols, and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

C H A P. XXIII.

¶ Under the parable of a boyling pot, is shewed the irremediable destruction of Ierusalem.

15 By the signe of Ezekiel, not mourning for the death of his wife, is shewed the calamity of the Iewes: to be beyond all recovery.

A Gaine in the ninth yeere, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

1 A Souer of man, write thee the name of the day, eyes of this same day: the King of Babylon set himselfe against Ierusalem this same day.

2 And utter a parable vnto the rebellious house, and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Set on a pot, set it on, and also poure water into it.

3 Gather the pieces thereof into it, euen every good piece, the turgon, and the spouider, fill it with the choise bones.

4 Take the choise of the flocke, and burne it: so the bones vnder it, and make it boyle well, and let him seeke the bones of it therein.

5 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whole hum is therein, and whole sum is not gone out of it: bring it out piece by piece, let no lot fall vpon it.

6 For her blood is in the midst of her: she set it vpon the top of a rocke, she poured it not vpon the ground to conser it with dust:

7 That it might cause fury to come vp to take vengeance: I haue set her hony vpon the top of a rocke, that it should not be covered.

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Woe to the bloody city, I will euen make the pile for fire, great.

9 Heape on wood, kinde the fire, consume the flesh, and spite it well, and let the bones be burnt.

10 Then set it empty vpon the coales thereof, that the burning thereof be hot, and may burne, and that the filthinesse of it may be molten in it, thus the sum of it may be consumed.

11 Such hath wearied her selfe with lies; and her great soueranes not foorth out of her: her sum shall be in the fire.

12 In thy filthinesse is lewdnesse, because I haue purged thee, and thou wast not purged: thou shalt not be purged from thy filthinesse any more, till I haue caused my fury to rest vpon thee.

13 ¶ The LORD haue spoken it, it shall come to passe, and I will doe it, I will not goe backe, neither will I spare, neither will I repent, according to thy wayes, and according to thy daings shall they iudge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

14 ¶ Also the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

15 Some of man, behold, I take away from thee the defile of thine eyes with a floure, yet wistest thou that thou mournest, nor weepst, neither shalt thou cease to weep.

17 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bide the rite of thine head vpon thee, and put on thy shoes vpon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat the bread of men.
 18 So I spake vnto the people in the morning, and asen my wife died, and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

19 And the people said vnto mee, With thou not tell vs what these things are to vs, that thou doest vs?
 20 Thus I answered them, The word of the LORD came vnto me, saying, 21 Speake vnto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will profane my Sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soules piteaeth, and your sons and your daughters, whom ye haue left, shall fall by the sword.

 22 And ye shall doe as I haue done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men, 23 And your eyes shall be vpon your heads, and your shoes vpon your feet: ye shall not mourne nor weep, but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourne our towards another.

24 Thus Ezekiel is vnto you a signe according to all that he hath done, shall ye doe: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.
 25 Altho' thou sonne of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the ioy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sonnes and their daughters:

26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come vnto thee, to caule thee to heare it with thine eares.

27 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is opposed, and thou shalt speake and be no more dumb, and thou shalt be a signe vnto them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXV.

The word of the LORD came againe vnto me, saying,
 1 Sonne of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesie against them.
 2 And say vnto the Ammonites, Heere the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou saidst, Aha, against my Sanctuary when it was prepared, and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate, and against the house of Iudah, when they went into captivity;

3 Behold, therefore, I will deliuer thee to the hands of the East for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drinke thy milke.
 4 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for sheeps, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
 5 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast slappd thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel:

6 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand vpon thee, and will deliuer thee for a spoile to the heathen, and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will destroy thee, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.
 7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Moab and their doe say, Behold, the house of Iudah is like vnto all the heathen:

 8 Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country Beth-jithmoth, Beth-bezon, and Kirjathaim,
 9 And I will smite the men of the East, with the Ammonites, & will giue them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among nations.
 10 And I will execute iudgements vpon Moab, and they shall know that I am the LORD.
 11 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Iudah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and reuocged himselfe vpon them:

12 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also stretch out mine hand vpon Edom, and will cut off his and heart from it, and I will make it desolate from Teman, and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.
 13 And I will lay my vengeance vpon Edom, by the hand of my people Israel, and they shall doe in Edom according to mine anger, and according to my fury, and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.
 14 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because the Philistines haue dealt by reuenge, and haue taken vengeance with a despightfull heart to destroy: for the old hatred:

15 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out mine hand vpon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.
 16 And I will execute great vengeance vpon them with furious rebukes, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance vpon them.

CHAP. XXVI.

Tyrus for insulting against Ierusalem is threatened. The power of Melchad rexer against her. The mourning and astonishment of the Sea at her fall.
 1 And it came to passe in the eleuenth yere in the sixth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,
 2 Sonne of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Ierusalem, Aha, shee is broken: her was the gate of the people, shee is turned vnto me, I shall be replenished, now shee is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Tyru, and will cause many nations to come vp against thee, as the Sea causeth his waves to come vp.
 4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyru, and break downe her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rocke.
 5 It shall be a place for the spreading of wees in the midst of the Sea: for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord GOD, and it shall become a spoile to the nations.
 6 And her daughters which are in the field shall be thine by the sword, and they shall know that I am the LORD.
 7 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will bring vpon Tyru Nebuchadrezzar King of Babylon, a King of kings, from the North, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companions, and much people.
 8 He shall lay with the sword thy daughters in the field, and he shall make a fort against thee, and shall set a mount against thee, and lift vp the buckler against thee.
 9 He shall set engines of warre against thy walls, and with his axes he shall breake down thy towers. 10 By reason of the abundance of his horses, their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the harness, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, and men shall enter into a city whereas is made a breach.

11 With the hooves of his horses shall he tread downe all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garisons shall goe downe to the ground.

12 And they shall make spoile of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandize, and they shall breake downe thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses, and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber, and thy dust in the midst of the water.

13 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease, and the sound of my harps shall be no more heard.

14 And I will make thee like the top of a rocke: they shall bee a place to spread nets upon: thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyris, Shall not the Isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all the Princes of the Sea shall come downe from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall cleave themselves with trembling, they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonied at thee.

17 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say so thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of fearing men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she & her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it?

18 Now shall the Isles tremble in the day of thy fall, yea, the Isles that are in the Sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

19 For thus saith the Lord GOD, When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited, when I shall bring up the deepe upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee:

20 When I shall bring thee downe, with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall see thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that goe downe to the pit, that thou be not inhabited, and I shall see glory in the land of the living:

21 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more, though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found againe, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The rich supply of Tyris. 26 The great and unsearchable fall thereof.

The word of the LORD came againe, vnto me, saying,

2 Now thou soune of man, take vp a lamentation for Tyris:

3 And say vnto Tyris, O thou that art situate to the entry of the Sea, which art a merchant of the people for many Isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD, O Tyris, thou hast said, I am a perfect beauty.

4 Thy borders are in the midst of the sea, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

5 They have made all thy ship-boards of firre trees of Sinit: they haue taken Cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

6 Of the oakes of Bashan haue they made thine boares: the footmen of the Ashurites haue made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the Isles of Chaitim.

7 Fine linnen with broidered woock from Egypt, was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy table, blue and purple from the Isles of Elithah was that which covered tbee.

8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyris, that were in thee, were thy Pilots.

9 The ancients of Gebal, and the wisemen thereof were in thee thy galibers, all the ships of the sea, with their mariners were in thee, to occupy thy merchandize.

10 They of Persia, and of Lud, and of Phat were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee: they set forth thy comelinesse.

11 The men of Arad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about, they haue made thy beauty perfect.

12 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches: with silver, iron, tin and lead, they traded in thy faires.

13 Luan, Tubal, and Methoch, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of sinners, and vessels of brass in thy market.

14 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy faires, with horses, and horinen, and mules.

15 The men of Dedan were thy merchants, many they were thy merchants: of thine hand they brought thee for a present horses of Iuoy and Ebecy.

16 Syria was thy merchant, by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy faises with Emurims, purple, and broidered woock, and fine linnen, and Corall, and Agate.

17 Iudah and the land of Israel they were thy merchants, they traded in thy market, wheat of Minnith & Pannag, and honey, & oyl, and y balene.

18 Damascus was thy merchant, in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches in the wine of Helbon, and white wooll.

19 Dan also, and Luan & going to and fro, occupied in thy faires: bright iron, Cassia, and Calamus were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for charots.

21 Arabah and all the Princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in Iambes, and rams, and goats: in these were thy thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Khamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy faires with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 Hiran, and Caneh, and Eden, the merchants of Shebah, Ashur, and Chilmad were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes and broidered woock, and in chests of fish apperell, bound with cords, and made of Cedar among thy merchandize.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market, and thou wast replenished and made very glorious in the midst of the sea.

26 ¶ Thy rowers haue brought thee into great waters: the East wind hath broken thee in the midst of the sea.

27 Thy riches, and thy faires, thy merchandize, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy talkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandize, and all thy men of waire that are in thee: and in all thy company, which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the sea in the day of thy ruine.

28 The Isles shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

29 And all that handle the oare, the mariners, and all the Pilots of the sea shall come downe from their ships, they shall stand upon the land :

 20 And shall cause their voyce to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast vp dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes.

21 And they shall make themselves venterly bald for thee, and giue thee with sackcloth, and they shall weepe for thee with bitterness of heart, and bitter wailing.

22 And in their wailing, they shall take vp a lamentation for thee, and lament ouer thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea ?

23 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledest many people, thou diddest enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

24 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, thy merchandize and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.
 25 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

26 The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee, thou shalt be a \dagger terror, and \dagger uener shalt be any more.

C H A P. XXVIII.

1 Gods iudgement vpon the Prince of Tyrus for his sacrilegious pride. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sinne. 20 The iudgement of Zidon. 24 The restoration of Israel.

The word of the LORD came againe vnto me, saying,

2 Some of man, say vnto the Prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord God, Because thine heart is lifted vp, and thou hast said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God in the \dagger midst of the Seas ; yet thou art a man and not God, though thou sit thine heart as the heart of God.

3 Behold, thou art wiser then Daniel : there is no secret that they can hide from thee.

4 With thy wisdom, and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures.

5 \dagger By thy great wisdom, and by thy traffique, hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted vp, because of thy riches.

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God :

7 Behold therefore, I will bring strangers vpon thee, the terrible of the nations : and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall bring forth thy brightnesse.

8 They shall bring thee downe to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slaine in the midst of the Seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that sayeth thus, I am God ? but thou shalt be a man, and no God in the hand of him that sayeth thus.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of the vncircumcised, by the hand of strangers ; for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord God.

11 \dagger Moreover, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying :

12 Some of man take vp a lamentation vpon the King of Tyrus, and say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord God, Thou hast set vp the summe, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast bene in Eden the garden of God ; every precious stone was thy covering, the Sardinian Stone, and the Diamond, the \dagger Beris, the Onyx, and the Jasper, the Saphire, the Emerald, and the Carbuncle, and gold : the workmanship of thy tables, and of thy pipes was prepared in thee, in the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the anointed Cherub that covereth : and I haue set thee so : thou wast vpon the holy mountaine of God : thou hast walked vp and downe in the midst of the stones of fire.

15 Thou wast perfect in thy wayes, from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

16 By the multitude of thy merchandise they had filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned : therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountaine of God : I will destroy thee, O covering Cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 Thine heart was lifted vp, because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness : I will cast thee to the ground : I will lay thee before Kings, that they may behold thee.

18 Thou hast defiled thy Sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffique : therefore will I bring forth a fire out of the midst of thee, it shall deuoure thee : and I will bring thee to others vpon the earth, in the sight of all them that behold thee.

19 All they that know thee among the people, shall be astonished at thee : thou shalt be a \dagger terror, and none shall be any more.

20 \dagger Againe, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

21 Some of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesie against it,

22 And say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon, and I will be glorified in the midst of thee, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall haue executed iudgements in her, and she shall be sanctified in her.

23 For I will send into her, pestilence, and blood in her streets, and the wounded shall be iudged in the midst of her by the sword vpon her on euery side, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

24 \dagger And there shall be no more a pricking brier vnto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorne of all that are round about them that despise them, and they shall know that I am the Lord God.

25 Thus saith the Lord God, When I shall haue gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land, that I haue giuen to my seruants Jacob.

26 And they shall dwell safely therein, and they shall build houses, and plant vineyards : yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I haue executed iudgements vpon all those that despise them round about them, and they shall know that I am the Lord their God.

C H A P. XXIX.

1 The iudgement of Pharaoh, for his treachery to Israel. 8 The desolation of Egypt. 12 The restoration thereof after seventy yeeres. 17 Egypt the reward of Nebuchadnezzar. 21 Israel shall be restored.

In the tenth yeere, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the moneth, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

2 Some of man, set thy face against Pharaoh King of Egypt, and prophesie against him, and against all Egypt.

3 Speake, and say, Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I am against thee, O Pharaoh King of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the middle of his spine, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for my selfe.

2 But I will put hookes in thy chowes, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to sticke vnto thy scales, and I will bring thee vp out of the middle of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall sticke vnto thy scales.

3 And I will leaue thee throwen into the wil-dernes, thee, and all the fish of thy rivers; thou shalt fall vpon the f open fields, thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered if I haue giuen thee for meat to the beasts of the field, and to the fowles of the heauen.

4 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they haue bene a raile of reed to the house of Israel.

5 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst breake, and rent all their shoulder: and when they leamed vpon thee, thou brakest, and made all their ioyes to be at a stand.

6 There fore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold,
I will bring a sword vpon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

7 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate & waste, and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I haue made it.

8 Behold therefore, I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt vnto a waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene euen vnto the border of Ethiopia.

9 No foot of man shall passe thorow it, nor foot of beast shall passe thorow it, neither shall it be inhabited forty yeares.

10 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the middle of the countrey: that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste, shall be desolate forty yeares: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them thorow the countrey.

11 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD, At the end of forty yeares will I gather the Egyptians from the people whether they were scattered.

12 And I will bring againe the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to returne into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation, and they shall be there: 2 f base kingdome.

13 It shall be the base of the kingdome, neither shall it exalt it selfe any more about the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule ouer the Nations.

14 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall looke after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

15 And it came to passe in the tenth and twentieth yeere in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

16 Son of man, Nebuchad-rezar King of Babylon, caused his army to serue a great seruaice against Tyros: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeced: yet had he no wages, nor his army for Tyros; for the seruaice that hee had serued against it.

17 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold,
I will giue the land of Egypt vnto Nebuchad-rezar
King of Babylon, and he shall take her multitude, and take her people, and take her prey, and he shall be the wages for his army.

18 I haue giuen him the land of Egypt, for his labour wherewith hee serued against it, because they were not for me, saith the Lord GOD,

21 ¶ In that day will I cause the house of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will giue thee the opening of the mouth in the middle of them, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The desolation of Egypt, and her helpers. 2
The arme of Babylon shall be stretched to breake the arme of Egypt.

¶ The word of the LORD came againe vnto me, saying,

1 Some of man, prophetic and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Howls ye, woe worth the day.

2 For the day is neere, when the day of the LORD is neere, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

3 And the sword shall come vpon Egypt, and great paine shall be in Ethiopia, when the same shall fall in Egypt, & they that take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken downe.

4 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, & all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

5 Thus saith the LORD, They also that uphold Egypt shall fall, and the pride of her power shall come downe: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And they shall be desolate in the middle of the countreys that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the middle of the cities that are wasted.

7 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I haue set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

8 In that day shall messengers goe forth from me in ships, to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great paine shall come vpon them, as in the day of Egypt: for loe, it cometh.

9 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also make the multitude of Egypt, to cease by the hand of Nebuchad-rezar King of Babylon.

10 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations shall be brought to destroy the land:
and they shall draw their swords against Egypt,
and fill the land with the slaine.

11 And I will make the cities decay, and fall the land into the hand of the wicked, and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will also destroy the border, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph: and there shall be no more a Prince of the land of Egypt, and I will put a feare in the land of Egypt.

13 And I will make Pathros desolate, & will set fire in Egypt, and will execute iudgements in No-ph.

14 And I will poure my iury vpon the strength of Egypt, and I will cut off the multitude of No.

15 And I will set fire in Egypt, sin shall haue great paine, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall haue distressful dayes.

16 The young men of Auen, and of Phibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall goe into captivity.

17 As Tachpanhes also the day shall be destroyed, when I shall breake there the yokes of Egypt:
and the pompe of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall goe into captivity.

18 Thus will I execute iudgements in Egypt, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

10 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have broken the arme of Pharaoh King of Egypt, and loe, it shall not be bound up to be healed, so yet a ruler to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against Pharaoh King of Egypt, and will breake his armes, the strong, and that which was broken, and I will caule the sword to fall out of his hand.

12 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them thorow the countreys.

13 And I will strengthen the armes of the King of Babylon, & put my sword in his hand: but I will breake Pharaohs armes, and he shall grone before him with the groonings of a deadly wounded man. 14 But I will strengthen the armes of the King of Babylon, and the armers of Pharaoh shall fall downe, and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the King of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out vpon the land of Egypt.

15 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countreys, And they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 A relation unto Pharaoh, 3 of the glory of Affrus, 10 and the fall thereof for pride, 18 The like destruction of Egypt.

1 And it came to passe in the eleventh yeere, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, speake vnto Pharaoh King of Egypt, and to his multitude, Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

3 Behold, the Assyrian was a Cedar in Lebanon, with faire branches, and with a shrowding throud, and of an high stature, and his top was among the thicke boughes.

4 The waters made him great, the deepe I set him vp on high, with her riuers running round about his plants, and sent out her little riuers vnto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore his height was exalted aboue all the trees of the field, and his boughes were multiplied, and his branches became long, because of the multitude of waters, when he throt fourth.

6 All the foules of heauen made their nests in his boughes, and vnder his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their yong, and vnder his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he faire in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his robe was by great waters.

8 The Cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fire trees were not like his boughes, and the cheruim trees were not like his branches: noe any tree in the garden of God, was like vnto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him faire by the multitude of his branches, so that all the trees of Eden that were in the garden of God, caused him.

10 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Because thou hast lifted vp thy selfe in height, and he hath set vp his top among the thicke boughes, and his heart is lifted vp in his height.

11 I have therefore deliuered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen: he shall surely sleaue with him; I have deuiest him out of his wickednesse.

12 And stranger, the terrible of the nations haue deliued him, and haue left him: vpon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are falled, and his boughes are broken by all the riuers of the land, and all the people of the earth are gone downe from his shadow, and haue left him.

13 Vpon his ruine shall all the foules of the heauen remaine, and all the beasts of the field shall be vpon his branches.

14 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot vp their top among the thicke boughes, neither shall their trees stand vp in their height, all that drinke water: for they are all deliuered vnto death, so the number parts of the earth in the midst of the children of men, with them that goe downe to the pit.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the day when he went downe to the graue, I caused a mourning, I covered the deepe for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed, and I caused Lebanon to moue for him, and all the trees of the field fauted for him.

16 I made the nations to shake at the found of his fall, when I cast him downe to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden also choise and best of Lebanon, all that drinke water shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

17 They also went downe into hell with him, vnto them that be lieue with the sword, and they shal be as were his arme, they dwell vnder his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

18 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought downe with the trees of Eden vnto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the vncircumcised, with them that be slaine by the sword: this is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt, 17 The sword of Babylon shall destroy it, 17 shall be brought downe to hell among all the vncircumcised nations.

1 And it came to passe in the twelfth yeere, in the second month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

2 Sonne of man, take vp a lamentation for Pharaoh King of Egypt, and say vnto him, Thou art like a young lyon of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the Seas: and thou camest forth with thy riuers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and footedst their riuers.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD: I will therefore spread out thy net ouer thee, with a company of many people, & they shall bring thee vp in my net.

4 Then will I leaue thee vpon the land, I will cast thee forth vpon the open field, & will cause all the foules of the heauen to remaue vpon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh vpon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains, and the riuers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall purge thee out, I will cover the heauen, and make the starrs thereof dark: I will cover the Sunne with a cloud, and the Moone shall not giue her light.

8 All the bright lights of heauen will I make dark ouer thee, and set darknesse vpon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also reue the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countreys which thou hast not knowne.

Or, stand up as thorns in their height.

Heb. so be. blacke.

10. Yes, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their Kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall broaden my sword before them, and they shall tremble at every moment; every man for his own life in the day of thy fall.

11. For thus saith the Lord GOD, The sword of the King of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12. By the sword of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations all of them: and they shall speak the pompe of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13. I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters, neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hooves of beasts trouble them.

14. Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oyle, saith the Lord GOD.

15. When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country thereof desolate of that wherein it was full; when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

16. This is the lamentation wherein they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

17. It came to passe also in the twelfth yeere, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18. Some of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her and the daughters of the famous nations, vnto the nether parts of the earth, with them that goe downe into the pit.

19. When did thou passe in beauty? goe downe, and be thou laid with the vncircumcised.

20. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slaine by the sword: she is deliuered by the sword; draw her and all her multitudes.

21. The strong among the mighty shall speake to him out of the midst of hell, with them that helpe him: they are gone downe, they lie vncircumcised, slaine by the sword.

22. Alas it is there, and all her company: his granes are about him, all of them slaine, fallen by the sword.

23. Whose granes are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grane: all of them slaine, fallen by the sword, which caused her terror in the land of the living.

24. There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grane, all of them slaine, fallen by the sword, which are gone downe vncircumcised, into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet haue they bought their shame with them that goe downe to the pit.

25. They haue set her a bed in the midst of the slaine with all her multitudes: her granes are round about him, all of them vncircumcised, slaine by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet haue they bought their shame with them that goe downe to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slaine.

26. There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her granes are round about him: all of them vncircumcised, slaine by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27. And they that not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the vncircumcised, which are gone downe to hell with their weapons of war: and they haue laid their swords vnder their heads, but their iniquities shall be vpon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

28. Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the vncircumcised, and shall lie with them that are slaine with the sword.

29. There is Edom, her Kings, and all her Princes, which with their might are afraid by them that were slaine by the sword: they shall lie with the vncircumcised, and with them that goe downe to the pit.

30. There be the Princes of the North, all of them, and all the Zidonians: which are gone downe with the slaine, with their terrors, they are abashed of their might, and they lie vncircumcised with them that be slaine by the sword, and beare their shame with them that goe downe to the pit.

31. Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, vnto Pharaoh and all his army slaine by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

32. For I haue caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the vncircumcised, with them that are slaine with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXIII.

I according to the duty of a watchman in warning the people, 7 Ezekiel is admonished of his duty, 20 God sheweth the iudgement of his wayes towards the penitent and towards reuelers, 27 He want amitteth his iudgement, 28 Upon the newes of the taking of Ierusalem, he propheseth the desolation of the Land, 30 Gods iudgement vpon the makers of the Prophecy.

A Gaine the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

1. Some of man, speake to the children of thy people, and say vnto them, I When I bring the sword vpon a land, if the people of the land take heed man of their coole, & set him for their watchman,

2. If when hee seeth the sword come vpon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warne the people.

3. Then whosoener heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning, if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be vpon his own head.

4. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning, his blood shall be vpon him: but he that taketh warning shall deliuer his soule.

5. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned: if the sword come and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at the watchmans hand.

6. So thou, O son of man, I haue set thee a watchman vnto the house of Israel: therefore thou shalt heare the word at my mouth, and warne them from me.

7. When I say vnto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die, if thou dost not speake to warne the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity: but his blood will I require at thine hand.

8. Nevertheless, if thou warne the wicked of his way to turne from it: if he doe not turne from his way, he shall die in his iniquity: but thou shalt deliuer thy soule.

9. Therefore, O thou son of man, speake vnto the house of Israel; Thus ye speake, saying, If our transgressions and our sin be vpon vs, and we pine away in them, how should we then liue?

10. Say vnto them, As I liue, saith the Lord GOD, I haue no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turne from his way, and liuethe: yee, turne ye from your euill wayes: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

11. Therefore thou son of man, say vnto the children of thy people; The righteousnesse of the righteous shall not deliuer him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not be deliuered.

thereby is the day that he turneth from his wickedness, neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness, in the day that he sinneth.

17 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live, if he trust to his owne righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesse shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

18 Against when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turne from his sinne, and doe that which is lawfull and right:

19 If the wicked restore the pledge: give againe that he had robbed, walke in the Statutes of life without committing iniquity, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

20 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawfull and right, he shall surely live.

21 Yet the children of thy people say; The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

22 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even so die.

23 But if the wicked turne from his wickedness, and doe that which is lawfull and right, hee shall live thereby.

24 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal, O ye house of Israel; I will iudge you every one after his wayes.

25 And it came to passe in the twelfth yeere of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fift day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Ierusalem, came unto me, saying; The city is smitten.

26 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore hee that was escaped came, and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning, and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

27 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

28 Some of man they that inhabite those wastes of the land of Israel, speake, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but wee are many, the land is given vs for inheritance.

29 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood, and shall ye possesse the land?

30 Ye stand upon your sword; ye worke abomination, and ye desire every ones neighbours wife, and shall ye possesse the land?

31 Saye thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, As I live, surely they that are in the wastes; shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beast; to be devoured: and they that be in the towers, and in the castles, shall die of the pestilence.

32 For I will lay the land full of most desolate, and the pompe of her strength shall cease: and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall passe thorow.

33 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate, because of all their abominations which they have committed.

34 Allothou son of man, the children of thy people shall be talking against thee, by the wallles, and in the doores of the houses, and speake one to another, every ones to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and heare what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

35 And they come unto thee, and say to the people comme, and they sit before thee, as my people, and they heare thy words, but they will not doe them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousnesse.

36 And for thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they heare thy words, but they doe them not.

37 And when this cometh to passe, (for it will come:) then shall they know that a Prophet hath bene among them.

CHAP. XXXIIII.

A Repose of the shepherds. 7 Gods judgement against them. 11 His providence for his flocks. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesie against the shepherds of Israel, prophesie and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds, Woe be to the shepherds of Israel, that doe feed themselves, should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 Ye eat the fat, and ye cloth you with the wool: ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flocks.

4 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought againe that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost: but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And they were as a crook because there was no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 My sheepe wandered thorow all the mountains, and upon every high hill, yet, my flocks were scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

7 Therefore ye shepherds, heare the ward of the LORD.

8 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely, because my flocks became a prey, and my flocks became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flocks: but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flocks.

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, heare the word of the LORD.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my flocks at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flocks, neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more: for I will deliver my flocks from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

11 For thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I now I will both search my flocks, and seek them out.

12 As a shepherd seeketh out his flocks in the day that he is among his sheepe that are scattered: so will I seek out my sheepe, and will deliver them out of all places, where they have bene scattered in the cloudy and darke day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countrey, and will bring them to their owne land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel, by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the countrey.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 I will feed my flocks, and I will cause them to lie downe, saith the Lord GOD, 16 I will Locke that which was lost, and bring againe that which was drinen away, and will binde vp that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sike: but I will destroy the fat, and the strong, I will feede them with iudgement.

17 And as for you, O my Locke, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I iudge betwene ¶ cattell and cattell, betwene the rams and the ¶ he-goats.

18 Somewhat is a small thing vnto you to haue eaten vp the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feete the residue of your pastures: and to haue dranke of the deepe waters, but ye must soule the residue with your teete?

19 And as for my Locke, they eate that which ye haue troden with your feete: and they drinke that which ye haue souled with your feete.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD vnto them, Behold, I ouer I will iudge betwene the fat cattell, and betwene the leane cattell.

21 Because ye haue thrust with side and with shoulder, and pulst all the diseased with your hornes, till ye haue scattered them abroad:

22 Therefore will I saue my Locke, and they shall no more be a prey, and I will iudge betwene cattell and cattell.

23 And I will set vp one * shepherd ouer them, and hee shall feed them, even my seruant Dauid: he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And I the LORD will be their God, and my seruant Dauid's Prince among them, I the LORD haue spoken it.

25 And I will make with them a Couenant of peace, and will cause the euill beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleepe in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill, a blessing: and I will cause the showre to come downe in his season: there shall be showres of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yeeld her fruit, and the earth shall yeeld her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I haue broken the bands of their yoke, and deliuered them out of the hand of those that serued themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen: neither shall the beasts of the land deuour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I will raise vp for them a * plaine of reuoyne, and they shall be no more prouamed with hunger in the land, neither beare the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.

31 And ye my Locke of my pasture are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XXXV.

The iudgement of mount Seir for hatting Israel.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

1 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesie against it.

2 And say vnto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee ¶ most desolate.

3 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

4 Because thou hast had a possession of the land, and thou hast shed the blood of the children of Israel, by the ¶ force of the sword, in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

5 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee vnto blood: and blood shall purifie thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall purifie thee.

6 Thus will I make mount Seir ¶ most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out, and him that returneth.

7 And I will fill his mountaines with his haime men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers shall they fall that are slaine with the sword.

8 I will make thee perpetuall desolations, and thy cities shall not returne, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

9 Because thou hast said, These two nation, and these two countrey shall be mine, and we will possess it, ¶ whereas the LORD was there:

10 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even doe according to thine anger, and according to thine enuy, which thou hast vnto out of thy hatred against them: and I will make my selfe knowne among them, when I haue iudged thee.

11 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I haue heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountaine of Israel, saying: they are laid desolate, they are giue vs to consume 12 Thus with your mouth ye haue ¶ boasted against me, and haue multiplied your words against me: I haue heard them.

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the whole earth reioyced, I will make thee desolate.

14 As thou diddest reioyce at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I doe vnto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The land of Israel is consouered, both by destruction of the heathen, who spitefully vsed it, 8 and by the blessings of God promised vnto it. 16 Israel was reuelled for their sin, 21 and shall be restored without their desert. 25 The blessings of Christs Kingdome.

¶ And thou sonne of man, prophesie vnto the A mountaines of Israel, and say, Ye mountaines of Israel, heare the word of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the Lord GOD, ¶ Because the enemy which hath said against you, Ah, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:

3 Therefore prophesie, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, ¶ Because they haue made you desolate, and swallowed you vp on every side, that ye might be a possession vnto the residue of the heathen, and ¶ ye are taken vp in the lips of talkers, and are an infamia of the people.

4 Therefore ye mountaine of Israel, heare the word of the Lord GOD, Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountaine, and to the hills, to the ¶ rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about:

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Surely in the fire of my ielousie haue I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which haue appointed my land into their possession, with the toy of all their heart, with despitefull murder to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesie therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say vnto the mountaine, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord

GOD,

GOD, Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy, and in my fury, because ye have borne the name of the heathen,

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, I have lifted up mine hand; Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and ye shall yield your fruit to my people of Israel, for they are at hand to come.

For behold, I am for you, and I will turne unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sowne.

And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it, and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded.

And I will multiply upon you man and beast, and they shall increase, and bring forth fruit, and I will settle you after your old estates: and will do better unto you then at your beginnings, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Yea, I will cause men to walke upon you, even my people Israel, and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth beare the name of a waste.

Thus saith the Lord GOD, Because they say unto you, Thou hast denounced vp me, and hast berayed by nations, Therefore thou shalt denounce men no more, neither by reason that nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

Neither will I cause men to beare in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shall thou beare the reproach of the people any more, neither shall thou cause the nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

Moreover, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Some of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their owne land, they defiled it by their owne way, and by their doings: their way was before me, as the uncleanness of a remoued woman.

Wherefore I poured my fury upon them, for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idoles, whereunto they had polluted it.

And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed thorow the countreys according to their way, and according to their doings I judged them.

And when they returned unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy Name.

When they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

But I had pitie for mine holy Name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen whither they went.

Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD, I doe not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy Names sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

And I will sanctifie my great Name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countreys, and will bring you into your owne land.

Then will I sprinkle cleane water upon you, and ye shall be cleane: from all your filthines, and from all your idoles will I cleanse you.

As new linnen shall I give you, and new spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

And I will put my Spirit within you, and I will cause you to walke in my statutes, and ye shall keepe my iudgements and doe them.

And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

I will also save you from all your wickednes, and I will call for the corne, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

Then shall ye remember your owne callings, and your comings that were not good, and shall loathe your selves in your owne sight for your iniquities, and for your abominations.

Not for your sakes doe I this, saith the Lord GOD, but it is knowne unto you, that ye are ashamed and confounded for your owne ways, O house of Israel.

Thus saith the Lord GOD, In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities, I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

And they shall say, This land that was desolate, is become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are inhabited, and are inhabited.

Then the heathen that are left round about you, shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I have caused the LORD have spoken it, and I will doe it.

Thus saith the Lord GOD, I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to doe it for them: I will increase them with men like a flocke.

As the flocke that the shepherde feedeth, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAP. XXXVII.

By the resurrection of dry bones, is the hope of Israel renewed. Is by the visiting of the sick, is shewed the incorporation of Israel into Iudah.

The promise of Christis kingdom. I ryed me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me downe in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

And caused me to passe by them round about, and behold, there were very many in the open valley, and loe, they were very dry.

And he said unto me, Some of mine bones here, and I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

Again he said unto me, Prophesie vpon these bones, and say unto them: O ye dry bones, heare the word of the LORD.

Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones, Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall liue.

And I will lay sinewes vpon you, and will bring vp flesh vpon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall liue, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, a shaking, & the bones came together, bone to his bone.

And when I beheld, loe, the sinewes and the flesh sign came vpon them, and the skinnē covered them aboue, but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he vnto me, Prophesie vnto the 4 winde: prophesie soune of man, and say to the winde, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Come from the foure windes, O breath, and breathe vpon these skinnē, that they may liue.

10 So I prophesied, as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they liued and stood vpon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said vnto me, Sonne of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say: Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost, we are cut off for our parte.

12 Therefore prophesie and say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, O my people, I will open your graues, and cause you to come vp out of your graues, and bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I haue opened your graues, O my people, and brought you vp out of your graues, 14 And shall put my Spirit in you, and ye shall liue, and I shall place you in your owne land: then shall ye know that I the LORD haue spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came againe vnto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou soune of man, take thee one stick, and write vpon it, For Iudah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write vpon it, For Ioseph his stick, of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions.

17 And ioynē them one to another into one stick, and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when the children of thy people shall speake vnto thee, saying, Will thou not shew vs what thou meanst by these?

19 Say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the sticks of Ioseph which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellowes, and will put them with him, euen with the stick of Iudah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ¶ And the stickes wherewith thou writest, shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

21 And say vnto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on euery side, and bring them into their owne land.

22 And I will make them one nation in the land vpon the mountaines of Israel, and our King shall bee King to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be diuided into two kingdomes any more at all.

23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idoles, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will fine them out of all their dwelling places, wherewithin they haue sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

24 And ¶ David my seruant shall bee King ouer them, and they all shall haue one Shephard: they shall also walke in my iudgements, and obserue my statutes, and doe them.

25 And they shall dwell in the land that I haue giuen vnto Iacob my seruant, wherewith your fathers haue dwelt, and they shall dwell therein, euen they and their children, and their childrens children for euer, and my seruant David shall bee their Prince for euer.

26 Moreover, I will make a ⁺ covenant of peace with them, it shall be an everlasting covenant with them, and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my ⁺ Sanctuary in the midst of them for euermore.

27 My Tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be ⁺ their God, and they shall be my people.

28 And the heathen shall know, that I the LORD doe sanctifie Israel, when my Sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for euermore.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 The army, & the malice of Gog, 24 Gods iudgement against him.

And the word of the LORD came vnto mee, saying,

2 Sonne of man, set thy face against ⁺ Gog, the land of Magog, the chiefe Prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesie against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chiefe Prince of Meshech and Tubal.

4 And I will turne thee backe, and put ⁺ hooks into thy chawes, and I will bring thee forth and all thine army, horses & horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, with a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords.

5 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya, with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

6 Gomer and all his bands, the house of Togarmah of the North quarters, and all his bands, and many people with thee.

7 Bee thou prepared, and prepare for thy selfe, thou and all thy company that are assembled vnto thee, and be thou a guard vnto them.

8 ¶ After many dayes thou shalt be visited: in the latter yeeres thou shalt come into the land that is brought backe from the sword, and is gathered out in many people against the mountaines of Israel, which haue bene alwaye waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storme, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD: it shall all come to passe, that at the same time shall things come into thy hand, and thou shalt thinke an euill thought.

11 And thou shalt say, I will goe vp to the land of vnwalled villages: I will see to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and hauing in their bars nor gates.

12 ¶ To take a spoile, and to take a prey, to turne the hand vpon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and vpon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which haue gotten cattell and goods, that dwell in the ⁺ midst of the land.

13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof shall say vnto thee, Art thou come to take a spoile; hast thou gathered the company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattell and goods, to take a great spoile?

14 ¶ Therefore soune of man, prophesie, and say vnto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD, In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

15 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the North parts, thou and many people with thee, all of them riding vpon horses, a great company, and a mighty army.

16 And thou shalt come vp against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; & I shall be in the latter dayes, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

17 Thus saith the Lord GOD: Art thou hee of whom I have spoken in old time by my seruants the Prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those dayes many yeeres, that I would bring thee against them?

18 And it shall come to passe at the same time, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come vp in my face.

19 For in my zealouſie, and in the fire of my wrath haue I spoken: Surely in that day their shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel:

20 So that the fishes of the Sea, and the foules of the heauen, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creepe vpon the earth, and all the men that are vpon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be throwne downe, and the high places shall fall, and euery wall shall fall to the ground.

21 And I will call for a sword against him thorowout all my mountaines, saith the Lord GOD: every mans sword shall be against his brother.

22 And I will please against him with pestilence, and with blood, and I will raine vpon him, and vpon his bands, and vpon the many people that are with him, an overflowing raine, and great hailstones, fire and brimstone.

23 Thus will I magnifie my selfe, and sanctifie my selfe, and I will be knowne in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

C H A P. XXXIX.

1 Gods iudgements vpon Gog. 2 Israels victory. 3 Gogs buriall in Hamon-Gog. 4 The feast of the sheeles. 5 Israel hauing beene plagued for their sin, shall be gathered againe with eueryall nations.

Therefore thou ion of man, prophesie against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chiefe Prince of Methoek and Tubal.

2 And I will turne thee backe, and I will leave but the sixt part of thee, and will cause thee to come vp from the North parts, and will bring thee vpon the mountaines of Israel:

3 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrowes to fall out of thy right hand.

4 Thou shalt fall vpon the mountaines of Israel, thou and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will giue thee vnto the ravenous birds of euery sort, and to the beasts of the field to be deuoured.

5 Thou shalt fall vpon the open field, for I haue spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I will kindle a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelesly in the Cities, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So will I make my holy Name knowne in the midst of my people Israel, and I will not let them pollute my holy Name any more, and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the holy One in Israel.

8 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD, this is the day whereof I haue spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel, shall set forth, and shall set on fire, & burne the weapons, the shields, & the bucklers, the bows, and the arrows, and the speeres, and the speeres, and they shall be for fuel to the fire.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut downe any one of the forests: for they shall burne the weapons with fire, and they shall spoile those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

11 And it shall come to passe at that day, that I will giue vnto Gog a place there of graues in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the East of the Sea: and it shall be the house of the passengers, and there shall they bury Gog: & all his multitude, and they shall call it the valley of Hamon-Gog.

12 And seven moneths shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them, and it shall be to them a remembrance, the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out of men of continuall employment, passing thorow the land, to bury with the passengers those that remaine vpon the face of the earth to cleanse it: after the end of seven moneths shall they cease.

15 And the passengers that passe thorow the land, when any seeth a mans bone, then shall hee set vp a signe by it, till the buriers haue buried it in the valley of Hamon-Gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah: thus shall they cleanse the land.

17 And thou soueraine of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, Speake vnto euery feathered fowle, and to euery beast of the field, Assemble your selues, and come, gather your selues on euery side to my sacrifice, that I doe sacrifice for you, euen a great sacrifice vpon the mountaines of Israel, that yee may eat flesh, and drinke blood.

18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drinke the blood of the Princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them eatings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drinke blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I haue sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses, and charres, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my iudgement, that I haue executed, and my hand that I haue laid vpon them.

22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward.

23 And the heathen shall know, that the house of Israel was into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so I sell they all by the sword.

24 According to their uncleanness, and according to their transgressions haue I done vnto them, and hid my face from them.

25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Now will I bring againe the captivity of Jacob, and haue mercy vpon the whole house of Israel, and will be zealous for my holy Name.

26 After that they haue borne their shame, and all their trespasses, whereby they haue trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and saue made them afraid.

27 When I haue brought them againe from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations:

28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to bee led into captivity among the heathen: but I haue gathered them about unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

10 ¶ And he said well I hide my face any more from the habit, for I have not power out my Spirit upon the hosts of Israel, saith the LORD GOD.

C H A P. XI.

1 ¶ The size, manner, and end of the vision: 2 The description of the East gate, 3 of the North gate, 4 of the South gate, 5 of the East gate, 6 of the North gate, 7 of the East gate, 8 of the chambers, 9 of the porch of the house.

IN the first and twentieth yeere of our captivity, in the beginning of the yeere, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth yeere after that the city was smitten, in the selfe same day the hand of the LORD was vpon me, and brought me thither.

2 ¶ In the vision of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me vpon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the South.

3 ¶ And he brought me thither, and behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brasse, with a liane of flaxe in his hand, and a measuring reed, and he stood in the gate.

4 ¶ And the man said vnto me, Sonne of man, be hold with thine eyes, and heare with thine eares, and set thine heart vpon all that I shall shew thee: for to the intent that I might shew thee vnto that all these brought hither, declare all thar thou seest, to the house of Israel.

5 ¶ And behold, I was on the one side of the house round about: and in the mans hand a measuring reed of sixe cubiter long by the cubite, and th hand breadth: so hee measured the breadth of the building, one reed, and the height one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he vnto the gate which looketh toward the East, and went vp the staires thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad, and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 ¶ And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad, and betwene the little chambers was five cubites, and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within, was one reed.

8 ¶ He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 ¶ Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubites, and the postes thereof, two cubites, and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 ¶ And the little chambers of the gate Eastward were three on this side, and three on that side, they three were of one measure, and the postes had one measure on this side, and on that side.

11 ¶ And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate ten cubits, and the length of the gate thirtene cubites.

12 ¶ The space also before the little chambers, was five cubites on this side, and the space was one cubite on that side, and the little chambers were six cubites on this side, and five cubites on that side.

13 ¶ He measured then the gate, from the rooie of one little chamber to the rooie of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubites, double against double.

14 ¶ He made also postes of directore cubits, vpon the porch of the court round about the gate.

15 ¶ And from the face of the gate of the entrance, vnto the face of the porch of the inner gate, were five cubites.

16 ¶ And there were narrow windows in the chambers, and to their postes within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and vpon each post were palme trees.

17 ¶ Then brought he me into the outward court, and loe, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were vpon the pavement.

18 ¶ And the pavement by the side of the gates, ouer against the length of the gates, was the lower pavement.

19 ¶ Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate, vnto the forefront of the inner court: I without, an hundred cubites Eastward and Northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the North, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 ¶ And the little chambers thereof, were three on this side, and three on that side, and the postes thereof, & the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubites, and the breadth five and twenty cubites.

22 ¶ And their windows, and their arches, and their palme trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh towards the East, and they went vp vnto it by seven steps, and the arches thereof were before them.

23 ¶ And the gate of the inner court was ouer against the gate toward the North, and toward the East: and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubites.

24 ¶ After that, hee brought me toward the South, and behold, a gate toward the South, and he measured the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to the measure.

25 ¶ And there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about, like to the windows, the length was fifty cubites, and the breadth five and twenty cubites.

26 ¶ And there were seven steps to goe vp to it, and the arches thereof were before them, and in had palme trees, one on this side, and another on that side, vpon the postes thereof.

27 ¶ And there was a gate in the inner court toward the South, and he measured from gate to gate toward the South an hundred cubites.

28 ¶ And he brought me to the inner court by the South gate, and he measured the South gate, according to these measures.

29 ¶ And the little chambers thereof, and the postes thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures, and there were windows in it, and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubites broad.

30 ¶ And the arches thereof were five and twenty cubites long, and five cubites broad.

31 ¶ And the arches thereof were toward the outer court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof, and the going vp to it, had eight steps.

32 ¶ And hee brought mee into the inner court toward the East, and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 ¶ And the little chambers thereof, and the postes thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures, and there were windows therein, and in the arches thereof round about, it was fifty cubites long, and five and twenty cubites broad.

34 ¶ And the arches thereof were toward the outward court, and palme trees were vpon the postes thereof on this side, and on that side, and the going vp to it, had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me v measured is according to these measures.

35 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it found about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the post thereof was toward the viter on it, and ypon the trees were ypon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side, and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And the chambers, and the entrins thereof, were by the postes of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to lay thereon the burnt offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the North gate, were two tables; and on the other side which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, both side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they flew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were of beaten brass for the burnt offering, of a cubite and an halfe long, and a cubite & a halfe broad, and one cubite high: whereupon also they laid the instruments, wherewith they flew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And waters were of hookes on hand broad, as a sea round about, and ypon the tables was the sign of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the North gate: and their prospect was toward the South, one at the side of the East gate, having the prospect toward the North.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber whose prospect is toward the South, is for the Priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the North, is for the Priests the keepers of the charge of the Altar: the one the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come neere to the Levites to minister unto it.

47 So he measured the court an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, square square, and the Altar that was before the house.

48 ¶ And hee brought mee to the porch of the house; and measured each poste of the porch five cubits on this side, and five cubites on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubites on this side, and three cubites on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth seven cubits, and he brought me by the steps, wherby they went up to it, and there were pillars by the postes, one on this side, and another on that side.

CHAPTER XL

The measures, parts, chambers, and ornaments of the Temple.

¶ Afterward he brought me to the Temple and he measured the postes, five cubites broad on the one side, and five cubites broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the Tabernacle.

2 And the breadth of the stoore was ten cubits, and the side of the doore was five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side, and he measured the length thereof forty cubits, and the breadth ten cubits.

3 Then went he upward, and measured the post of the doore two cubits, and the doore five cubits, and the breadth of the doore ten cubits.

4 So hee measured the length thereof twenty cubits, & the breadth twenty cubits before the temple, & he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

5 After hee measured the wall of the house five cubites, and the breadth of every side-chamber, foure cubits round about the house on every side.

6 And the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order, and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have a hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

7 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers, for the winding about of the house was still upward round about the house, therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle.

8 I saw also the height of the house round about, the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubites.

9 The thickness of the wall which was for the side-chamber without, was five cubits; and that which was left, was the place of the side-chambers that were within.

10 And betweene the chambers was the width of twenty cubites round about the house on every side.

11 And the rooves of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one doore toward the North, and another doore toward the South, and the breadth of the place that was left, was five cubites round about.

12 Now the building that was before the separate place, at the end toward the West, was fifty cubites broad, and the wall of the building was five cubites thicke round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

13 So hee measured the house an hundred cubits long, and the separate place, and the building with the wals thereof, an hundred cubites long.

14 Also the breadth of the face of the houses, and of the separate place toward the East, an hundred cubites.

15 And hee measured the length of the building over against the separate place, which was behind, and the length thereof on the out side, and on the other side an hundred cubits, with the inner Temple, and the porches of the court.

16 The doore-postes, and the narrow windows, & the galleries round about on their three sides, over against the doore, stood with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered.

17 To that about of doores, one unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without by measure.

18 And it was made with Cedrubins, and palm-trees, so that a palme tree was betweene a Cedrub and a Cedrub, and every Cedrub had two faces.

19 So that the face of a man was toward the palme tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palme tree on the other side: it was made thorough all the house round about.

20 From the ground unto about the doore were Cedrubins, two palme trees made, and on the wall of the Temple.

21 The posts of the Temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of the court, as the appearance of the other.

22 The altar of wood was three cubites high, and of length three cubits, and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the wall more of wood: and he said unto me, This is the Table that is before the LORD.

23 And the Temple and the Sanctuary had two doores.

24 And the doores had two leaves apiece, two curving leaves, two leaves for the one doore, and two leaves for the other doore.

25 And there were made on them, on the floores of the Temple, Cherubims, and palme trees; like as were made upon the way, and there were thicke planks upon the face of the porch without.

26 And there were narrow windowes and palme trees on the one side, and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side-chambers of the house, and thicke planks.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 The chambers for the Priests. 12 The use thereof. 19 The measure of the outer court.

Then he brought me forth into the viter court, the way toward the North, and hee brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the North.

2 Before the length of an hundred cubites was the North doore, and the breadth was fifty cubites.

3 Over against the twenty cubites which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the viter court, was a gallery against gallery in three floores.

4 And before the chambers was a walke of ten cubites breadth inward, a way of one cubite, and their doores toward the North.

5 Now the upper chambers were hotter: for the galleries were higher than these: when the lower, and then the middle most of the building.

6 For they were in three floores, but had not pillars as the pillars of the court: therefore the building was that and more then the lowest, and the middle most from the ground.

7 And the wall that was without, over against the chamber towards the viter court, on the forefront of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubites.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the viter court, was fifty cubites: and ten before the Temple were an hundred cubites.

9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the East side, as one goeth into them from the viter court.

10 The chambers were in the thicke of the wall of the court toward the East, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers, which were toward the North, as long as they, and as broad as they, and all their goings out were both according to their fashion, and according to their doores.

12 And according to the doores of the chambers that were toward the South, was a doore in the head of the way, even the way directly beine the wall toward the East, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, The North chambers, and the South chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the Priests that approach unto the LORD, shall see the most holy things: ere shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, & the sin offering, & the trespass offering, for place is holy.

14 When the Priests enter therein, then shall they not get out of the holy place into the viter court, but there they shall lay their garments, when they minister: for they are holy, and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to these things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate, whose prospect is toward the East, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the East side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the North side, five hundred reeds, with a measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the South side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the West side, and measured five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the Sanctuary and the profane place.

C H A P. XLIII.

1 The returning of the glory of God into the Temple. 7 The fine of Israel hinder Gods presence.

10 The Prophet exhibiteth them in repentance, & observance of the Law of the house. 12 The measures, 18 and the ordinances of the Altar.

14 Feruulur brought me to the gate, over the gate that looked toward the East. And behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the East: and his voyce was like a noise: many waters, and the earth was filled with his glory.

2 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw once, when I came to the vision that I saw: when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar: and I fell upon my face.

3 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate, whose prospect is toward the East.

4 So the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court: and bringing the glory of the LORD into the house.

5 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house, and the man stood by me.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Some of man the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy Name shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they nor their Kings by their whoredome, nor by the carcasses of their Kings in their high places.

7 In their setting of their thresholds by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy Name by their abominations: therefore have I committed to whoredome: wherefore I have profaned them in mine anger.

8 Now let them put away their whoredome, and the carcasses of their Kings farre from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

9 ¶ Then some of man shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities, and let them measure the pattern.

10 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done: shew them the forme of the house, and they shall shew them the ordinance thereof, and the countings in thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the formes thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole forme thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and doe

12 This is the Law of the house, upon the top of the mountaine, the whole limit thereof about shall be most holy: behold, this is the Law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the Altar after the cubites: the cubite is a cubite and an hand breadth, even the \dagger bottom shall be a cubite, and the breadth a cubite, and the border thereof by the \dagger edge thereof round about, shall be a spanne, and this shall be the higher place of the Altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground, even to the lower settle, shall be two cubites, and the breadth one cubite, and from the lesser settle, even to the greater settle, shall be four cubites, and the breadth one cubite.

15 So that the Altar shall be four cubites, and from the \dagger Altar and upward shall be four cubites.

16 And the Altar shall be twelve cubites long, twelve broad, square in the lower square thereof.

17 And the settle shall be four square cubites long, and fourteen broad in the lower square thereof, and the border about it shall be half a cubite, and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about, and his staines shall looke toward the East.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Sonne of man, thus saith the Lord GOD, These are the ordinances of the Altar, in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the Priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullocke for a sinne offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and pour it on the four hornes of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

21 Thou shalt take the bullocke also of the sinne offering, and he shall waite it in the appointed place of the house, without the Sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blame for a sinne offering, and they shall cleanse the Altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullocke.

23 When thou shalt have made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the focke without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the Priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

25 Seven dayes shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sinne offering: they shall also prepare a young bullocke, and a ram out of the focke without blemish.

26 Seven dayes shall they purge the Altar, and purge it, and they shall \dagger consecrate themselves.

27 And when their dayes are expired, it shall be that upon the eighth day and so forward, the Priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the Altar, and your \dagger peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAP. XLIIII.

1 The East gate assigned unto the Prince. 4 The Priests, approved for polluting of the Sanctuary. 5 Seditious uncapable of the Priests office.

6 The sinnes of Zadok are accepted thereof. 17 Ordinances for the Priests.

¶ Then he brought me backe the way of the gate to the outward Sanctuary, which looketh toward the East, and it was thus.

2 Then said the LORD unto me, This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it: because the LORD the God of Israel hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

3 It is for the Prince, the Prince he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD: he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall goe out by the way of the same.

4 ¶ Then brought me the way of the North gate before the house, and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD, and I fell upon my face.

5 And the LORD said unto me, Sonne of man, \dagger marke well, and behold with thine eyes & heare with thine eares, all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of \dagger house of the LORD, and all the Lawes thereof, and make well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the Sanctuary.

6 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, thus saith the Lord GOD, O ye house of Israel, Let at linnce you, of all your abominations;

7 In that ye have brought into my Sanctuary, \dagger strangers uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my Sanctuary to pollute it, thus ye have done, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my Sanctuary for your shame.

9 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, Noe stranger uncircumcised in flesh, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my Sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from mee after their idoles, they shall even beare their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my Sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering, and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them, to minister unto them:

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idoles, and plagued the house of Israel to fall into iniquity: therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall beare their iniquity.

13 And they shall not come neere unto me, to doe the office of a Priest unto me, nor to come neere to any of my holy things in the most holy place: but they shall beare their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But the Priests the Levites the sonnes of Zadok, that kept the charge of my Sanctuary, when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come neere to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me, to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD.

16 They shall enter into my Sanctuary, and they shall come neere to my Table to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to passe, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linnen garments, and no wooll shall come upon them, whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have linnen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linnen breeches upon their 19 And when they goe forth into the vnder court out into the vnder court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments, and they shall not sanctifie the people with their garments.

20 Neither shall they shaine their heads, nor suffer their lockes to grow long, they shall onely pull their heads.

21 Neither shall any Priest drinke wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives, a widow, or her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a Priest before.

23 And they shall teach my people the difference betweene the holy and profane, and cause men to discerne betweene the vncleane and the cleane.

24 And in controwersie they shall stand in iudgement, and they shall iudge it according to my iudgments: and they shall keepe my Lawes and my Statutes in all mine assemblies, and they shall halowe my Sabbaths.

25 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister, that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleauid, they shall reckon vnto him seven dayes.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the Sanctuary, vnto the inner court, to minister in the Sanctuary, he shall offer his sinnen offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be vnto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; on their possels on.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering, and every thing dead of the thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the first fruites of all things, and every oblation of all of every sort of your oblations shall be the Priests: ye shall alio give vnto the Priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The Priest shall not eat of any thing that is dead of it: leite, or tome, whether it be foule or beate.

CHAP. XLV.

1 The portion of land for the Sanctuary, 6 for the city, 7 and for the Prince. 9 Ordinances for the Prince.

Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation vnto the Lord: an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: this shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the Sanctuary, five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about, and fifty cubites round about for the suburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shall thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, and the most holy place.

4 The holy portion of the land shall be for the Priests, the ministers of the Sanctuary, which shall come nearest to minister vnto the LORD, and it shall be a place for their habitations, and an holy place for the Sanctuary.

5 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites the ministers of the house haue for themselves for a possession for twenty chambers.

6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, ouer against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.

7 And a portion shall be for the Prince on the one side, & on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the West side Westward, and from the East side Eastward, and the length shall be ouer against one of the portions, from the West border vnto the East border.

8 In the land shall be his possession in Israel, and my Princes shall no more oppresse my people, and for rest of the land shall ye give to the house of Israel, according to their tribes.

9 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Let it suffice you O Princes of Israel; remove violence and spoyle, and execute iudgement and iustice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.

10 Ye shall haue iust ballances, and a iust Ephah and a iust Bath.

11 The Ephah and the Bath shall be of one measure, that the Bath may containe the tenth part of an Homer, and an Ephah the tenth part of an Homer: the measure thereof shall be after the Homer.

12 And the shekel shall be twenty Gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels shall be your Maneh.

13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer, the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of wheat, & ye shall give the first part of an Ephah of an Homer of Barley.

14 Concerning the ordinance of oyle, the Bath of oyle: ye shall offer the tenth part of a Bath one of the Oke, which is an Homer of ten Baths, for ten Baths one an Homer.

15 And one Iambe out of the flocks one of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel, for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

16 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the Prince in Israel.

17 And it shall be the Princes part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings in the Feast, & in the new Moones, and in the Sabbaths, in all iolemnities of the house of Israel: they shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

18 Thus saith the Lord GOD, in the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullocke without blemish, & cleanse the Sanctuary.

19 And the Priest shall take of the blood of this sin offering, and put it vpon the postes of the house, and vpon the foure corners of the table of Altar, and vpon the postes of the gate of the inner court.

20 And thou shalt doe the same thing of the month, for euery one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall haue the Passouer, a feast of seven dayes, vncleane bread shall be eaten.

22 And vpon that day shall the Prince prepare for himselfe, and for all the people of the land, a bullocke for a sinnen offering.

23 And seven dayes of the Feast he shall prepare: seven offerings to the LORD, seven bullockes and seven years without blemish, daily the seven days, & a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

24 And hee shall prepare a meat offering of an Ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a man, and an Hin of oyle for an Ephah.

CHAP. XLVI.

1 Ordmanets for the Prince in his worshipping and for the people. 26 An order for the Princes inheritance. 15 The courts for boyling and bakynge.

Thus said the Lord GOD, the gate of the inner court, that looketh towards the East, shall be shut the six working days: but on the Sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new Moon: it shall be opened.

2 And the Prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the Priests shall prepare his burnt offering, & his peace offerings, & he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall goe forth, but the gate shall not be shut till evening.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the doore of the gate before the LORD, in the Sabbaths, and in the new Moones.

4 And the burnt offering that the Prince shall offer unto the LORD in the Sabbath day, shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ramme without blemish.

5 And the meat offering shall be an Ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs: & as hee shall be able to give, & an Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

6 And in the day of the new Moon, it shall be a young bullocke without blemish, and six lambs and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an Ephah for a bullocke, and an Ephah for a ram: and for the lambs, according to his hand shall attaine unto, and an Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

8 And when the Prince shall enter, he shall goe in by the way of the porch of that gate: and hee shall goe forth by the way thereof.

9 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entred in by the way of the North gate to worship, shall goe out by the way of the South gate, and hee that entred by the way of the South gate, shall goe forth by the way of the North gate: he shall not returne by the way of the gate wherby hee came in, but shall goe fourth over against it.

10 And the Prince in the midst of them when they goe in, shall goe in, and when they goe fourth, shall goe fourth.

11 And in the feasts, and in the Solemnities, the meat offering shall be an Ephah to a bullocke, and an Ephah to a ramme, and to the lambs, as he is able to give, and an Hin of oyle to an Ephah.

12 Now when the Prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering, or peace offering, voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the East, and he shall prepare his burnt offerings, and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day, then he shall goe fourth, and after his going fourth one shall shut the gate.

13 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD, of a lambe of the first year, without blemish, thou shalt prepare it every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an Ephah, and the third part of an Hin of oyle, to temper with the fine flower, a meat offering continually, by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lambe, and the meat offering, and the oyle, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, if the Prince give a gift unto any of his sonnes, the inheritance thereof shall be his sonnes, it shall be their possession by inheritance:

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall bee his to the yere of liberty: after it shall returne to the Prince, but his inheritance shall be his sonnes for them.

18 Moreover, the Prince shall not take of the peoples inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession: but he shall give his (his inheritance out of his owne possession, that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

19 ¶ After, he brought mee thow the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the Priests, which looked towards the North: and behold, there was a place on the two sides Westward.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the Priests shall boyle the trespass offering, and the suse offering, where they shall booke the meat offering: that they heare them not ent into the vicer court, to sanctifie the people.

21 Then he brought mee forth into the outer court, and caused me to passe by the four corners of the court, and behold, in every corner of the court, there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court, there were courts: I loyned of forty cubites long, and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a new building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boyling places under the rows round about.

24 Then said he unto me, these are the places of them that boyle, where the ministers of the house shall boyle the sacrifice of the people.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 The vision of the holy waters: 2 The vision of them. 13 The borders of the land. 22 The division of it by lot.

Afterward he brought me againe unto the doore of the house, & behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house Eastward, for the forefront of the house flood toward the East, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the South side of the Altar.

2 Then brought hee me out of the way of the gate Northward, and led me about the way without unto the outer gate, by the way that looketh Eastward, and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth Eastward, he measured a thousand cubites, and he brought mee thow the waters: & the waters were to the outlets.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought mee thow the waters: the waters were to the knees: againe he measured a thousand, and brought mee thow, the waters were to the loynes.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand, and it was a river, that I could not passe over: for the waters were risen, & waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused mee to returne to the brinke of the river, ¶ Hebr. a court is a court of a court, and a court in a corner of a court. For man will. ¶ Hebr. covered.

¶ Hebr. waters of the outlet.

¶ Hebr. waters of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side, and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the East country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea where I brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which I smother with adversity the rivers shall come, shall live, and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because their waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed, and every thing shall live whether the river come th.

10 And it shall come to pass that the rivers shall stand upon it, from Engedi even unto Engedi: they shall be a place to spread forth nets, their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great Sea, exceeding many.

11 But the mire places thereof, and the marishes thereof, shall not be healed, they shall be given to salt.

12 And by the river upon the banks thereof on this side, and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaves shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they shall issue out of the Sanctuary, and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

13 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD, This shall be the border whereby ye shall inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.

14 And ye shall inherit it one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your father, and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

15 And this shall be the border of the land toward the Northward from the great sea, the way of Heshbon, as men go to Zaidai.

16 Hamath Berothai, Sibonim, which is between the border of Damascus, & the border of Hamath: Hazer Hatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

17 And the border from the Sea shall be Hazatonan, the border of Damascus, and the North Northward, and the border of Hamath: and this is the Northside.

18 And the Eastside ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel to Jordan, from the border unto the East Sea: and this is the Eastside.

19 And the Southside Southward from Tamar, even to the waters of Elat in Kadish, the river to the great Sea: and this is the Southside Southward.

20 The Westside also shall be the great Sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath: this is the Westside.

21 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

22 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you, and they shall be unto you, as born in the country among the children of Israel, they shall have inheritance with you among the Tribes of Israel.

23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

CHAP. I.

1 Joiaims captivity. 3 Assuraz takes Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. They refuse the Kings portion, doe prosper with pulse and water. 17 Their excellency in wisdom.

IN the third yeere of the reigne of Iehoiakim King of Iudah, came Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon unto Ierusalem, and besieged it.

2 And the Lord gave Iehoiakim King of Iudah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried into the land of Shinar, 30th of house of his god, & he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

3 ¶ And the King spake unto Assuraz the master of his Eunuches, that he should bringest some of the children of Israel, and of the Kings seed, and of the Princes:

4 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the Kings palace, and whom they might teach the learning, and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

5 And the King appointed them a daily portion of the Kings meat, and of † the wine which he drank: 10 nourishing them three yeeres, that at the end thereof, they might stand before the King.

6 Now among these were of the children of Iudah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the Prince of the Eunuches gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar: and to Hananiah, or Sadrach, and to Mishael, of Meshach, and to Azariah, of Abednego.

8 ¶ But Daniel proposed in his heart, that he would not defile himselfe with the portion of the Kings meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the Prince of the Eunuches, that he might not defile himselfe, 9 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the Prince of the Eunuches.

10 And the Prince of the Eunuches said unto Daniel, I feare my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drinke: for why should he see you faces † worse liking then the children which are of your † sort? then shall yee make yee endanger my head to the King.

11 Then said Daniel to † Melzar, whom the Prince of the Eunuches had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prouce thy seruants, theseech thee ten dayes, and let them give † pulse † to eat, and water to drinke.

13 Then let our countenances be looked vpon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eate of the portion of the Kings meat: and as thou seest, deale with thy seruants.

14 So hee consented to them in this matter, and prouided them ten dayes.

15 And at the end of ten dayes, their countenances appeared fairer, and fatter in flesh, then all the children which did eate the portion of the Kings meat.

16 ¶ Thus Melzarooke away the portion of their meate, and the wine that they should drinke, and gaue them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these foure children, God gaue them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom, † and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreames.

18 Now at the end of the dayes that the King had said, hee should bring them in, then the Prince of the Eunuches brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the King commended with them: and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the King.

And in all matters off wisdom and understanding that the King enquired of them, hee found them ten times better then all the Magicians; and Astrologers that were in all his realme.

21 And Daniel continued even unto the sixth yere of King Cyrus.

CHAP. II.

1 Nebuchad-netzar forgetting his dreame, requireth it of the Caldeans; promise to three answers.

2 They acknowledging their inability, are ledged to die. 3 Daniel obtaining some respite, satisfieth the dreame. 4 He blasphemeth God. 5 He slaying the Interpreters. 6 The King's aduancement.

IN the second yere of the reign of Nebuchad-netzar, Nebuchad-netzar dreamed dreames, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

1 Then the King commaunded to call the Magicians, and the Astrologers, and the Sorcerers, and the Caldeans, for to shew the King his dreames; so they came and stood before the King.

2 And the King said vnto them, I haue dreamed a dreame, and my spirit was troubled to know the dreame.

3 Then spake the Caldeans to the King in Syriack; O King, thus for our selfe we seruaunt the dreame, and we will shew the interpretation.

4 The King answered, and said to the Caldeans, The thing is gone from me; if ye will not make knowne vnto me the dreame, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in peeces, and your houses shall be made a dung-hill.

5 But if ye show the dreame, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of mee gifts, and rewards, and great honours; therefore shew me the dreame, and the interpretation thereof.

6 They answered againe, and said, Let the King tell his seruants the dreame, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

7 The King answered, and said, I know of certainty, that ye would I gaue the tunc, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

8 But if ye will not make knowne vnto me the dreame, there is but one decree for you; for ye haue prepared lying and corrupt words to speake before mee, till the tunc be changed, therefore tell me the dreame; and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

9 The Caldeans answered before the King, and said, There is not a man vpon the earth that can shew the King's matter; therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that shew such things as my Magician, or Astrologer, or Chaldean.

10 And it is a rare thing that the King requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the King, except the gods, whose dwelling is in the heauens.

11 For this cause the King was angry, and very furious, and commaunded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

12 And the doctors went forth that the wise men should be slaine, and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slaine.

13 Then Daniel answered with counsell, and wisdom to Arioch, the Captaine of the Kings guard, which was sent forth to slay the wise men of Babylon.

14 He answered, and said to Arioch the Kings Captaine, Why is the Decree so hasty from the King? Then Arioch made the thing knowne to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in and desired of the King, that he would giue him tunc, and that he would shew the King the interpretation.

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing knowne to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions.

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heauen concerning this secret, that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret reuealed vnto Daniel in a night's vision; Then Daniel blessed the God of heauen.

20 Daniel answered, and said, Blessed be the Name of God for ever and euer; for wisdom and might are his.

21 And he changeth the times and the seasons; he removeth Kings, and setteth vp Kings; he giveth wisdom vnto the wise, and knowledge to them that know vnto enquiring.

22 He reuealeth the deepe and secret things; he knoweth what is in the darkesse, and the light dwelleth with him.

23 I thank thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast giuen me wisdom and might, and hast made knowne vnto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made knowne vnto vs the Kings matters.

24 Therefore Daniel went in vnto Arioch, vnto whom the King had commaunded, to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus vnto him, Dost thou not the wisemen of Babylon bring me in before the King, as I will shew vnto the King the interpretation.

25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the King in the night, and said thus vnto him, I haue found a man of the Chaldees, that will make knowne vnto the King the interpretation.

26 The King answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belshazzar, Art thou able to make knowne vnto mee the dreame which I haue seene, and the interpretation thereof?

27 Daniel answered in the presence of the King, and said, The secret which the King hath demanded, cannot the wisemen, the Astrologers, the Magicians, the Sooth-sayers, shew vnto the King?

28 But there is a God in heauen that reuealeth secrets, and maketh knowne to the King Nebuchad-netzar what shall be in the last days. Thy dreame, and the visions of thy head vpon thy bed, are these:

29 As for thee, O King, thy thoughts came into thy head vpon thy bed, what should come to passe hereafter; that that reuealeth secrets, maketh knowne to thee what shall come to passe.

30 But as for me, this secret, is not reuealed to me, for any wisdom that I haue more, then any lining but for they talke that shall make knowne the interpretation to the King, and that thou mightst know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 Then, O King, I saw, and behold a great image: that is great image, whose brightnesse was excellent, stood before thee, and the forme thereof was terrible.

32 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his armes of Silver, his belly and his thighs of braasse.

33 His legs of yron, his feet part of yron, and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image vpon his feet that were of yron and clay, and brake them to peeces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, & gold broken to pieces together, & became like the chafe of the hammer threshing floures, and the wind carried the away, that no place was found for them: & the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream, and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the King.

37 ¶ Thou, O King, art a King of Kings: for the God of heauen hath giuen thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 And where soeuer the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field, and the foules of the heauen, hath he giuen into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler ouer them all: thou art this head of gold, 39 And after thee shall arise another kingdom, inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brasse, which shall beare rule ouer all the earth.

40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces, and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all things, shall it breake in pieces and bruite.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters clay, and part of iron: the kingdom shall be diuided, but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixt with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixt with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleane themselves to another, enen as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the dayes of these Kings shall the God of heauen set vp a kingdom, which shall neuer be destroyed: and the first kingdom shall be left to other people, but it shall crosse the empires, and consume all their kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces, the iron, the brasse, the clay, the silver, and the gold: the great God hath made knowne to the King what shall come to passe hereafter, and the dreame is certaine, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the King Nebuchad-nazzar fell vpon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation, and sweet odours vnto him.

47 The King answered vnto Daniel, and said, Of a truth is it, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a reuealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reueale this secret.

48 Then the King made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler ouer the whole Province of Babylon, and chief of the gouernours ouer all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Then Daniel requested of the King, and hee set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ouer the affaires of the Province of Babylon: but Daniel, set in the gate of the King.

CHAP. III.

1 Nebuchad-nazzar dedicated a golden image in Dura, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were accused for not worshipping the image. 2 They bring in word and make a good confession. 3 God deliuereth them out of the furnace. 4 Nebuchad-nazzar sawe the miracle, blessing God.

Nebuchad-nazzar the King made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubites, and the breadth thereof sixe cubites: hee set it vp in the plaine of Dura, in the Province of Babylon.

2 Then Nebuchad-nazzar the King sent to gather together the Princes, the Governours, and the Captaines, the Iudges, the Treasurers, the Counsellors, the Sheriffts, and all the Rulers of the Provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchad-nazzar the King had set vp.

3 Then the Princes, the gouernours, and Captaines, the Iudges, the Treasurers, the Counsellors, the Sheriffts, and all the Rulers of the Provinces, were gathered together vnto the dedication of the image that Nebuchad-nazzar the King had set vp, and they stood before the image that Nebuchad-nazzar had set vp.

4 Then an Herald cryed aloud, To you it is commanded, O people nations, and languages:

5 That at what time ye heare the sound of the Cornet, Flute, Harpe, Sackbut, Psaltery, Dulcimer, and all kinds of Musick, ye fall downe and worship the golden image that Nebuchad-nazzar the King hath set vp:

6 And who so falleth not downe and worshippeth, shall the same houre be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the Cornet, Flute, Harpe, Sackbut, Psaltery, and all kinds of Musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages fell downe and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchad-nazzar the King had set vp.

8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certaine Caldeans came neere, and accused the Jewes.

9 They spake, and said to the King Nebuchad-nazzar, O King, liue for ever.

10 ¶ Thou, O King, hast made a decree, that every man that heare the sound of the Cornet, Flute, Harpe, Sackbut, Psaltery, and Dulcimer, and all kinds of Musick, shall fall downe and worship the golden image:

11 And who so falleth not downe and worshippeth, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

12 There are certaine Iewes, whom thou hast set ouer the affaires of the Province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: these men, O King, I haue not regarded thee, they serue not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set vp.

13 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nazzar in his rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: then they brought these men before the King.

14 Nebuchad-nazzar spake, and said vnto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego? doe not yete serue my gods, nor worship the golden image which I haue set vp?

15 Now if ye be ready, that at what time ye heare the sound of the Cornet, Flute, Harpe, Sackbut, Psaltery, and Dulcimer, and all kinds of Musick, ye fall downe and worship the image which I haue made, well: but if ye worshipp not, ye shall be cast the same houre into the midst of a fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliuer you out of my hands?

16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchad-nazzar, wee are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

17 If it be thy will, O God whom we serue, is able to deliuer vs from the burning fiery furnace, and the will deliuer vs out of thine hand, O King.

18 But if not, be it knowne vnto thee, O King,

19 ¶ Then was Nebuchad-nezzar full of fury, and the furnace of his wrath was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should hear the furnace one seven times more than it way wont to be heat.

20 And hee commanded the most mighty men that were in his army, to Nid Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the Kings commandment was violent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire flew into men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell downe bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchad-nezzar the King was affrighted, and rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his Counsellers, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered, and said unto the King: True, O King.

25 He answered, and said, Lo, I see foure men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt, and the forme of the fourth, is like the Sonne of God.

26 ¶ Then Nebuchad-nezzar came neere to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most High God, come forth and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the Princes, governors, and captaines, and the Kings Counsellers, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose hautes the fire had no power, nor was an haire of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nebuchad-nezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his Angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the Kings word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their owne God.

29 Therefore I make a Decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speake any thing amisse, against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill, because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the King promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the Province of Babylon.

CHAP. III.

1 Nebuchad-nezzar confesseth Gods kinde. 4 maketh relation of his dream, which the Magicians could not interpret. 8 Daniel heareth the dream. 19 He interpreteth it. 28 The story of the event.

Nebuchad-nezzar the King, unto all people, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signes and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signes? and how mightie are his wonders? his kingdom is as an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 ¶ I Nebuchad-nezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream, which made me afraid, and the thoughts vpon my bed, and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a Decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make knowne unto me the interpretation of that dream.

7 Then came in the Magicians, the Astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the Sooth-sayers: and I told the dreame before them; but they did not make knowne unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 ¶ But at the last Daniel came in before mee, (whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the Name of my god, & in whom my spirit of the holy Gods) and before him I told the dream, saying,

9 O Belteshazzar, Master of the Magicians, because I know that the Spirit of the holy Gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dreame that I have seene, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed: I saw, and beheld, a tree in the midst of the earth: and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew and was strong, and the height thereof reached vnto heauen, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth.

12 The leaves thereof were faire, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all the beasts of the field had shadow vnder it: and the fowles of the heauen dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head vpon my bed, and beheld, a watcher, said an holy One came downe from heauen.

14 He cryed ¶ a loud, and said thus: Hew downe the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from vnder it, and the fowles from his branches.

15 Nevertheless, leave the stumps of his roots in the earth, cover with a band of iron and brass, in the tender graue of the field, and let it be with the dew of heauen, and let his portion be with it: he shall be in the galle of the earth.

16 Let his heart be changed from man, and let a beasts heart be giuen vnto him, and let seven times passe over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy Ones: to the intent that the lining may knowe it, that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whom he will, and setteth vp over it the basest of men.

18 This dreame, I King Nebuchad-nezzar haue seene: Now then, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof: forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make knowne vnto me the interpretation: but thou art able, for the Spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel (whose name was Belteshazzar) was affrighted for one houre, and his thoughts troubled him: The King spake and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dreame or the interpretation thereof trouble thee, Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dreame be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

20 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached vnto the heauen, the sight thereof to all the earth.

21 Whose leaves were faire, and the fruit thereof, much, and in it was meat for all, vnder which

CHAP. V.

1 Belshazzar impiou^s feast. A hand writing vnknewe to the Magicians, troubleth the King.
 2 As the commendation of the Queene, Daniel is brought.
 3 Hee reaps ouer the King of pride and idleness.
 4 Hee reaches and interpreteth the writing.
 5 The Monarchy is translated to the Medes.

1 Belshazzar the King made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and dranke wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden & silver vessels which his father Nebuchad-nezzar had taken out of the Temple which was in Ierusalem, that the King and his Princes, his wives, and his concubines might drinke therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the Temple of the house of God, which was at Ierusalem. & the King and his Princes, his wives and his concubines dranke in them.

4 They dranke wine, & praised the gods of gold and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, & of stone.

5 ¶ In the same houre came fourth fingers of a mans hand, and wrote ouer against the candlestick vpon the plaister of the wall of the Kings palace, and the King saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the Kings countenance was changed and his thoughts troubled him, so that the froyms of his loyces were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The King cryed aloud to bring in the Astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the Soothsayers, and the King spake and said to the wife men of Babylon, Whoeuer shall reade this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with a purple, & haue a chaine of gold about his necke, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the Kings wife men, but they could not reade the writing, nor make knowne to the King the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was King Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him; and his lords were astoned.

10 ¶ Now the Queene, by reason of the words of the King, and his lords, came into the banquet house, and the Queene spake and said, O King: live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed.

11 ¶ There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy Gods, and in the dayes of thy fathers, light, and vnderstanding, and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods was found in him: whom the King Nebuchad-nezzar thy father, the King, I say, thy father, made master of the Magicians, Astrologers, Chaldeans, and Soothsayers.

12 Forasmuch as an excellent Spirit, and knowledge, & vnderstanding, interpreting of dreames, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissoluing of doubts were found in the same Daniel, whom the King named Belshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the King, and the King spake, and said vnto Daniel, Accusation that Daniel, which was of the children of the captivity of Iudah, whom the King my father brought out of Iewry?

14 I haue euen heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and vnderstanding, and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

24 This is the interpretation, O King, and this is the Decree of the most High, which is come vpon my lord the King.

25 That they shall driue thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heauen, and seven times shall passe ouer thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whomsoeuer he will.

26 And whereas they commanded to leaue the stump of the tree roots, thy kingdom shall see sure vnto thee, after that thou shalt haue knowne that the heauens doe rule.

27 Wherefore, O King, let my counsell be acceptable vnto thee, and let mee of thy finnes by righteousness, and thine iniquities by throwing mercy to the poore, if it may be a lengthning of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came vpon the King Nebuchad-nezzar.

29 At the end of twelve month he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

30 The King spake and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I haue built for the honour of the kingdom, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my Maistie?

31 While the word was in the Kings mouth, there fell a voice from heauen, saying, O King Nebuchad-nezzar, so thee it is spoken, The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And they shall driue thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall passe ouer thee, vntill thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giueth it to whomsoeuer he will.

33 The same houre was the thing fulfilled vpon Nebuchad-nezzar, & he was driuen from men, and did eate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heauen, till his haire, were growne like Eagles feathers, and his nailes like birds claws.

34 And at the end of the dayes, I Nebuchad-nezzar lift vp mine eyes vnto heauen, and mine vnderstanding returned vnto me, and I blessed the most High, & I praised, and honoured him that lieth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, & his Kingdome is one in generation to generation.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doth according to his will in the army of heauen, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say to him, What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned vnto me: and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour, and brightnesse returned vnto mee, and my Counsellors, and my lords fought vnto mee, and I was glorified in my kingdom, and excellent wisdom was added vnto mee.

37 Now I Nebuchad-nezzar praise and exalt

15 And now the wise men the Astrologers have been brought in before me that they should reade this writing, and make knowe unto me the interpretation thereof, but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst reade the writing, and make knowne to mee the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chaine of gold about thy necke, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered, and said before the King, Let thy gifts be to thy selfe, and give thy treasures to another, yet I will reade the writing unto the king, & make knowe to him the interpretation.

18 O thou King, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and stablished, and glory and honour.

19 And for the marvell that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him; whom he would, he slew, and whom he would, he kept alive, & whom he would, he set up, and whom he would, he put downe.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, & his mind hardened in pride: hee was taken downe, & cast from his high throne, and they tooke his glory from him.

21 And he was driven from the sonnes of men; & his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grasse like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heauen, till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that hee appointeth over it whosoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knowest all this:

23 But hast lifted up thy selfe against the Lord of heauen, and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines have drunk wine in them, and thou hast prayed to gods of silver & gold, of bras, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor heare, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy waies, hast thou not glorified.

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him, and this writing was written.

25 And this is the writing that was written: M E N E M E N E T E K E L P H A R S I N

26 This is the interpretation of the thing, M E N E, God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 T E K E L, thou art weighed in the ballances, and art found wanting.

28 P E R E S, thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, & they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chaine of gold about his necke, & made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night was Belshazzar the King of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, & being about threescore and two yeeres old.

C H A P. V I

1 Daniel is made chiefe of the Presidents: They conspiring against him, obtaine an idolatrous decree.

20 Daniel defendeth of the breach thereof, & cast into the Lyons den: 23 Daniel is saved: 24 Hee answereth, 25 and God magnified by a decree.

IT pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty Princes, which should be over the whole kingdom.

And over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was first) that the Princes might give account unto them, and the King should have no damage: Then this Daniel was preferred above the Presidents, and Princes, because an excellent spirit was in him, and the King thought to set him over the whole realme.

4 Then the Presidents and Princes sought to find occasion against Daniel, concerning the kingdom, but they could find none occasion nor fault: forasmuch as he was faithfull, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we finde it against him concerning the Law of his God.

6 Then these Presidents and Princes assembled together to the King, and said thus unto him, King Darius live for ever.

7 All the Presidents of the kingdom, the Governours and the princes, the Counsellors and the Captaines have consulted together, to establish a royall statute, and to make a firme decree, that whosoever shall aske a petition of any god or man for thirty dayes, save of thee, O King, he shall be cast into the den of Lyons.

8 Now, O King, establish the decree, and signe the writing, that it be not changed, according to the Law of the Medes & Persians, which saithkereth not,

9 Wherefore King Darius signed the writing, and the Decree.

11 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house, and his windows being open in his chamber, toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

12 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

13 Then they came neere, and spake before the King concerning the Kings decree: hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall aske a petition of any god or man within thirty dayes, save of thee, O King, shall be cast into the den of Lyons? The King answered, and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which saithkereth not.

14 Then answered they, and said before the King, Toke Daniel which is of the captivity of the children of Iudah, regardeth not thee, O King, nor the Decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition, on three times a day.

15 Then the King when he heard these words, was sore displeas'd with himselfe, and let his servants on Daniel to deliver him, and hee laboured till the going downe of the Sun to deliver him.

16 Then these men assembled unto the King, and said unto the King, Know, O King, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, that no decree nor statute which the King establisheth, may be changed.

17 Then the King commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the Den of Lyons, now the King spake, and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

18 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den, and the King lested it with his own signet, & with the signet of his lords, that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

19 Then the King went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were there instruments of musick brought before him, and his sleep went from him.

20 Then the King aroose very early in the morning, and went in haste into the den of Lyons.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel, and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, Is thy God whom thou servest continually able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the King, O King, line for ever.

22 My God hath sent his Angel, & hath shut the lions mouths, that they have not hurt me: surely much so before him innocencie was found in me: and also before thee, O King, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the King exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel vp out of the den: so Daniel was taken vp out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives: and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or eate they came at the bottom of the den.

25 ¶ Then King Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom, men tremble and feare before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom shall which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signes & wonders in heaven and in earth; who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reigne of Darius, and in the reigne of Cyrus the Persian.

CHAP. VII.

1 Daniels vision of foure beasts. 3 Of Gods kingdom. 15 The interpretation thereof.

In the first yeere of Belshazzar King of Babylon, Daniel had a dream, and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dreams, and told the summe of the matters.

2 Daniel spake, and said, I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the foure winds of the heauen stroue upon the great Sea.

3 And foure great beasts came vp from the Sea, diuers one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, & had Eagles wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, & it was liued vp from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a mans heart was giuen to it.

5 And behold, another beast, a second like to a Beare, and it raised vp it selfe on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it, betwene the teeth of it, and they said thus vnto it, Arise, deuoure much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and loe, another like a Leopard, which had vpon the backe of it foure wings of a fowle, the beasts had also foure heads, and dominion was giuen to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, dreadfull and terrible, and strong exceedingly, and it had great iron teeth: it deuoured, and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it, and it was diuers from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten hornes.

8 I considered the hornes, & behold, there came vp among them, another like a little horn, before whom there were three of the first hornes plucked vp by the roots: and behold in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things. ¶ I beheld, till the thrones were cast downe, and the Ancient of dayes did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the haire of his head like the pure woolle, his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheelles as burning fire.

9 A fiery stream issued, and came forth from before him: thousands ministered vnto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him, the iudgement was set, and the booke were opened.

10 I beheld then, because of the voyce of the great words which the horse spake, I beheld, euen till the beast was slaine, and his body destroyed, and giuen to the burning flame.

11 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their liues were prolonged for a season and time.

12 I saw in the night visions, and beheld, one like the Sonne of man came with the clouds of heauen, and came to the Ancient of dayes, and they brought him nere before him.

13 And there was giuen him dominion & glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages should serue him: his dominion is an euerslasting dominion, which shall not passe away; and his kingdom shall which shall not be destroyed.

14 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the middelt of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

15 I came nere vnto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this: so he told me, & made me know the interpretation of the things.

16 These great beasts which are foure, are foure Kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

17 But the Saues of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possesse the kingdom for ever, euen for euer and euer.

18 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diuers from all the others, exceeding dreadfull, whose teith were of iron, and his scales of brasse, which deuoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet.

19 And of the ten hornes that were in his head, and of the other which came vp, and before whom there fell, euen of that horn: that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose looke was more stout then his fellows.

20 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the Saints, and prevailed against them:

21 Vntill the Ancient of dayes came, and iudgement was giuen to the Saues of the most High: and the time came that the Saints possessed the kingdom.

22 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom vpon earth, which shall be diuers from all kingdoms, and shall deuoure the white earth, & shall tread it downe, & brake it in pieces.

23 And the ten hornes out of this kingdom, are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall arise after them, and he shall be diuers from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

24 And he shall speake great words against the most High, and shall wear out the Saues of the most High, and thinke to change times and lawes: and they shall be giuen into his hand, vntill a time and times, and the diuiding of time.

25 But the iudgement shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume, and to destroy it vnto the end.

26 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom vnder the whole heauen, shall shall be given to the people of 7 Saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

1 Daniels vision of the Ram and her Goat. 13

The two sheepsent three hundred days of sacrifice.

25 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision.

IN the third yeere of the reigne of King Belshazzar, a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

2 And I saw in a vision (and it came to passe when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam) and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Vliis.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes & saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns, and the two horns were high: but one was higher then the other, and the higher came up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing Westward and Northward, and Southward: so that no brails might stand before him; neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand, but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an her goat came from the West on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had 7 notable horns betwene his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had scene standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close upon the ram, and he was moued with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him downe to the ground, and stamped upon him, and there was woe: that could deliver he ran out of his hand.

8 Therefore the hee goat waxed very great, and when he was strong, the great hornes were broken: and for it came up foure notable ones, toward the foure winds of heauen.

9 And out of one of them came forth a little horne, which waxed exceeding great, toward the South, and toward the East, and toward the pleasant land.

10 And it waxed great, even to the heeke of heauen, and it cast downe some of the hostes, and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yet hee magnified himselfe against the Prince of the hostes, & against the daily sacrifice was taken away, & the place of his Sanctuary was cast downe.

12 And an hoste was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast downe the towreth to the ground, and it praeified and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard one Saint speaking, and another Saint said unto it: care certayne Saint spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice and the transgression of desolation, to give desolation the Sanctuary, and was howe to be troden vnder foot?

14 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred 7 dayes: then shall the Sanctuary be cleansed.

15 ¶ And it came to passe, when I, even I Daniel, had scene the vision, and sought for the meaning, then beheld, there stood before mee as the appearance of a man.

16 And I heard a mans voyce betweene the backs of Vliis, which called, and said, Gabriel, make thee man to understand this vision.

17 So he came neere vnto me: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell vpon my face: but he said vnto me, Vnto thee, O Daniel, be not afraid: for at the time of this vision, thou shalt be alive.

18 Now as he was speaking vnto me, I was in a deepe sleepe on my face to the ground: and he touched me, and 7 for me awake.

19 And he said, behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the vision: for at the time appointed, the end shall be.

20 The ramme which thou sawest, having two horns, &c. the Kings of Media and Persia.

21 And the rough goat is the King of Grecia, and the great horne that is betwene his eyes, is the first King.

22 Now that being broken, whereas foure stood vp for it, foure kinges shall stand vp out of the nation, but not in his power.

23 And in the latter time of their kingdomes, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and vnderstanding darke sentences shall stand vp.

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his owne power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and prey, and shall destroy the mighty, and ouerholly people.

25 And in the time of his rule, he shall reare vp a strong king: his life shall be as a thorn, and he shall be cut downe in many dayes: but he shall also stand vp against the Prince of Princes, but he shall not stand.

26 And the vision of the evening and the morning which were shewed vnto me, is that I saw vpon the vision, and it shall be for many dayes.

27 And I Daniel was grieued exceedingly, and I lay vpon my face, and I fasted foure dayes: and I saw an other vision, but would not shew it.

but vno vs confusion of faces, as at this day : to the men of Iudah, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and vnto all Israel that are here, and that are far off, thorow all the countreys whether thou hast driven them becaufe of their treaspasse that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to vs lengthen confusion of face, to our Kings, to our Priests, and to our Fathers ; becaufe we haue sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord: our God bestoweth mercies and forgiveness, though we haue rebelled against him.

10 Neither haue we obeyed the voyce of the LORD our God, to walke in the lawes which he hath comanded vs, by his seruants the Prophets.

11 Yea, if Israel haue transgressed thy Law, when by departing, that they might not obey thy voyce : thou Lord, thou art righteous, and the oath that thou hast written in the Law of Moyses, the seruant of God, becaufe we haue sinned against him.

12 And he hath confirmed his words which hee spake against vs, and against our Iudges that Iudged vs, by the bringing vpon vs a great euill: for vnder the whole heauen hath not bene done, as hath bene vpon Ierusalem.

13 As it is written in the Law of Moyses, All this euill is come vpon vs; yet thou Lord, we doe not praye before the LORD our God, that we might turne from our iniquities, & vnderstand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD wraued vpon the euill, and brought it vpon vs: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doth: for we obeyed not his voyce.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt, with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renowne, as at this day, we haue sinned, we haue done wickedly.

16 O Lord, according to all thy righteousnesse, I beseech thee, let thine anger, and thy fury be turned away from thy city Ierusalem, thy holy mountaine: because for our sinnes, and for the iniquities of our ladies, Ierusalem, and thy people, we haue become a reproach to all that are about vs.

17 Now therefore, O Lord, heare the prayer of thy seruants, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine vpon thy Sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lords sake.

18 O my God, I am not able to see, and therefore open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy Name: for we doe not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesse, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord heare, O Lord forgive, O Lord hearken, and doe not delere not for thine owne sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin, and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God, for the holy mountaine of my God:

21 Yea while I was speaking in prayer, euen the man Gabriel, whom I had seene in the vision at the beginning, being caused to flie with swiftnesse, touched me, about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come hertoe, to giue thee skill and vnderstanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee: for thou art greatly beloved: therefore vnderstand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weekes are determined vpon thy people, and vpon thy holy city, to finish the transgresson and to finish the end of sin, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and so bring in euerslasting righteousnesse, and to seale vp the vision, and prophesie, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore, and vnderstand, that from the going forth of the commandment, to restore & to build Ierusalem, vnto the Measur of the Prince, shall be seven weekes; and threethree and two weekes, the street shall be built againe, and the wall euen 7 in troublous times.

26 And after threethree and two weekes shall Mischah be cut off, but not for himselfe, and the people of the Prince that shall come, shall destroy the city, and the Sanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and vnto the end of the war, desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirme the covenant with many for one week: and in the middle of the week he shall cause the sacrifice & the oblation to cease, and for the overpreading of abominations, he shall make it desolate, euen vntill the consummation, and that determined, shall be powred vpon the desolate.

1 Daniel being humbled himselfe, seeth a vision. 20 Bring I wraued with feare, be thou comforted by the Angel.

IN the third yeere of Cyrus King of Persia, a thing was revealed vnto Daniel (whose Name was called Belshazzar) and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long, and he vnderstood the thing, & had vnderstanding of the vision.

2 In those dayes, I Daniel was mourning three full weekes.

3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint my selfe at all, till three whole weekes were fulfilled.

4 And in the fourth and twentieth day of the sixth moneth, as I was by the side of the great riuer, which is * Hiddekel :

5 Then I lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and behold, ¶ a certaine man clothed in linnen, whose loines were girded with fine gold of Ephraim.

6 His body also was like the Berill, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lampes of fire, and his armes and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me, saw not the vision: but a great quaking fell vpon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my * comeliennesse was turned in me, but my corruption, and I remained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voyce of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a sleep as I lay on my face, and my face toward the ground.

10 ¶ And behold, as he had touched me, which fit me vpon my knees, and vpon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said vnto me, O Daniel, ¶ a man greatly beloved, vnderstand the words that I speake vnto thee, and ¶ stand vp right: for vnto thee am I now sent; and when he had spoken these words vnto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he vnto me, Feare not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst see thine heart to vnderstand, and to chasten thy selfe before thy God, thy words were heard, & I am come for thy words

13 But the Prince of the kingdom of Persia will hood me one and twenty dayes: but Ioe, Michael & one of the chiefe Priests came to helpe me; and I remained there with the Kings of Persia.

14 Now I am come to make thee vnderstand what shall befall thy people in the latter dayes: for yet the vision is for many dayes.

15 And when hee had spoken such words vnto mee, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumbe.

16 And behold, see like the similitude of the founts of men, touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said vnto him that stood before me; O my LORD, by the vision my sorowes are turned vpon me, & I haue retained no strength.

17 For how can I the seruant of this my Lord, talke with this my Lord? for as for me, straight-way there remained no strength in mee, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came agrine, and touched mee, one like the apperance of a man, and he strengthened me.

19 And said, O man, greatly beloved, feare not: peace be vnto thee, be strong, yea, be strong: and when hee had spoken vnto mee, I was strengthened, and said, Let my Lord speake for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come vnto thee? and now will I returne to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone south, Ioe, the Prince of Grecia shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the Scripture of truth: and there is none that I holden with mee in these things, but Michael your Prince.

CHAP. XI.

1 The overthrow of Persia by the King of Grecia. 5 Leagues and confils betweene the Kings of the South and of the North. 30 The invasion and tyranny of the Romanes.

ALi I, in the fifth yere of Darius the Mede, came I to see to confirme me, and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand vp yet three Kings in Persia, and the fourth shall be farre richer then they all: and by his strength through his riches, hee shall stirre vp all against the realme of Grecia.

3 And a mighty King shall stand vp, that shall rule with great dominion, and doe according to his will.

4 And when hee shall stand vp, his kingdom shall be broken: and shall be deuoted toward the foure winds of heauen; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which hee ruled for the kingdoms shall be pluckt vp, euen for others besides those.

5 And the King of the South shall be strong, and one of his Princes, and he shall be strong aboue him and haue dominion: his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of yeres they shall Ioyne themselves together: for the Kings daughter of the South shall come to the King of the North to make I an agreement, but she shall not retaine the power of the arme, neither shall hee stand, nor his arme that shee shall bee giuen vp, and they that brought her, and she that negate her, and hee that strengthened her in these times.

7 And out of a branch of her roots shall one stand vp in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into I fortresse of the King of I North, and shall deale against them, and shall preuaile against

4 And shall also carry captiues into Egypt, there gods with their Princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold: and he shall continue some yeres then the Kings of the North.

8 So the King of the South shall come into his kingdome, and shall returne into his owne land.

9 But his souldiers shall be stirred vp, and they shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and passe the owne: then shall hee returne, and be stirred vp euen to his fortresse.

10 And the King of the South shall be moued with cholle, and shall come for h and fight with him euen with the King of the North; and he shall set forth a great multitude: but the multitude shall be giuen in o his hau.

11 And when hee hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted vp, and he shall cast down many a thousand: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

12 For the King of the North shall returne, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come (of a I certainee yeres) with a great army, and with much riches.

13 And in those times there shall many stand vp against the King of the South: also of the I Sera of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision, but they shall fall.

14 So the King of the North shall come, and cast vp a moue, and take I the most fenced cities, and the armies of the South shall not withstand, neither I his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

15 But hee that cometh against him, shall doe according to his owne will, and none shall stand before him: as I he shall stand in the I glorious land, which be his hand shall be confirmed.

16 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom against I eight ones with him: thus shall hee doe, and he shall I take the daughter of woman I, corrupting her: she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

17 After this shall hee turne his face vnto the yee, and shall take many, but a Prince I for his owne behalfe shall cause I the reproach offered by him to cease without his owne reproach: he shall cast it to the yee vpon him.

18 Then he shall turne his face towards the fort of his owne land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

19 Then shall stand vp in his estate I a raie of rayes, the glory of the kingdom, but within few dayes he shall be destroyed, neither in I ayre, nor in heu.

20 And in his estate shall stand vp a vile person, to whom they shall not giue the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtaine the kingdom by flatteries.

21 And with his armes of a flood shall they bee ouerflowed from before him, and shall be broken: yea also the Prince of the Covenant.

22 And after the league made with him, he shall worke deceitfully: for he shall come vp and shall become strong with a small people.

23 He shall enter I peacefully, euen vpon the lastest places of the prouinces, and he shall doe that which his fathers haue not done, nor his fathers I: they shall scatter among them the prey and spoile, and riches: yea, and he shall I increase his denises against the strong hold, euen for a time.

24 And he shall stirre vp his power, and his strength against the King of the South with a great

19. Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat, shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow and many shall fall downe likeaine.

20. And both these kings shall be to doe mischief, and they shall speake lies at one table: but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

21. Then shall hee returne into his land with great riches, and his heart shall be against the holy Covenant, and he shall doe exploits, and returne to his owne land.

22. At the time appointed hee shall returne, and come toward the South: but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

23. For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved and returne, and have indignation against the holy Covenant: so shall he doe, he shall come againe, and have intelligence with them that forsake the Covenant.

24. And armes shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

25. And such as doe wickedly against the Covenant, shall hee corrupt by flatteries: but the people that doe knowe their God shall be strong, and doe exploits.

26. And they that understand among the people, shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captiviny, and by spoile, many dayes.

27. Now when they shall fall, they shall bee holpen with a little helpe: but many shall cleave together with flatteries.

28. And some of them of understanding shall fall to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

29. And the King shall doe according to his will, and he shall exalt himself, and magnifie himselfe above every god, and shall speake against things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation bee accomplished: for that time is determined, shall be done.

30. Neither shall hee regard the god of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any gods: for hee shall magnifie himselfe above all.

31. But in his estate shall hee honour the god of forces: and a God whom his fathers knew not, shall hee honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

32. Thus shall hee doe in the most strong holds, with a strange god: whom he shall acknowledge, and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for them.

33. And at the time of the end shall the King of the South push at him, and the King of the North shall come against him like a whirlwind, with charres, and with horsemen, and with many ships, and hee shall enter into the countrey, and shall overflow and passe over.

34. Hee shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countreyes shall be overthrowen: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chiefe of the children of Ammon.

35. His shall stretch forth his hand also vpon the countreyes, and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

36. But hee shall have power over the treasures of gold, and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

37. But tidings out of the East, and out of the North shall trouble him: therefore hee shall goe forth with great hury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

38. And hee shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the Seas in the glorious holy mountaine, yet hee shall come to his end, and none shall helpe him.

C H A P. X I I.

1. Michael shall deliver Israel from their troubles, Daniel is informed of the times.

2. And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great Prince, which standeth for the children of thy people, and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation, even to that like time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the booke.

3. And many of them that sleepe in the dust of the earth, shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

4. And they that bee wise, shall shine as the brightness of the firmament, and they that turne many to righteousness, as the stars for ever and ever.

5. But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seale the booke, even to the time of the end: many shall runne to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

6. Then I Daniel looked, and behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

7. And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be so at the end of these wonders?

8. And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand, and his left hand unto heaven, and swore by him that liveth for ever, that it shall be for a time, times, and an halfe: and when hee shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

9. And I heard, but understood not, then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

10. And he said, Goe thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed, till the time of the end.

11. Many shall be purified and made white, and tried: but the wicked shall doe wickedly, and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

12. And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate, set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety dayes.

13. Blessed is he that waiteth and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty dayes.

14. But goe thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in the lot at the end of the dayes.

1 Hosea, to show Gods judgments for spirituall whoredoms, Tabeth Gomer, 4. and hath by her 12 yearer, 6. Lo-rainah, 8. and Lo-ammi. 10. The regeneration of Judah and Israel.

Hosea the word of the LORD that came unto Hosea the sonne of Beeri, in the daies of Uzziah, Izabab, Azar, and Hozekiah, Kings of Iudah, and in the daies of Ieroboam the sonne of Iotha King of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea: and the LORD said to Hosea, Goe take unto thee a wife of whoredomes, and children of whoredomes: for the land hath committed great whoredome, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and tooke Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, which conceived and bare him a sonne.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Iezreel: for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Iezreel upon the house of Iezreel, and will cause to cease the kinge tome of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to passe at that day, that I will breake the bow of Israel in the valley of Iezreel.

6 And she conceived againe, and bare a daughter, and God said unto her, Call her name I Lo-ubamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel: but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Iudah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not take them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battell, nor by horses, nor by hurtmen.

8 ¶ Now when the had weaned Lo-ubamah, she conceived and bare a sonne.

9 Then said God, Call his name: Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet the number of the children of Israel shall bee as the sand of the Sea, which cannot bee measured, nor numbered: and thus shall come to passe; that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall bee said unto them, Ye are the sonnes of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Iudah, and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint them selves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Iezreel.

C H A P. II.

1 The idolatry of the people, & Gods judgments against them: 14. his promises of reconciliation with them.

Say ye unto your brethren, I Ammi, and to your sisters, I Ru-bamah:

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredomes out of her sight, and her adulteries from betwixt her breasts:

3 Let I sit up naked, and let her as a wilderness, and let her like a dry land, and lay her with thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children, for they be the children of whoredomes.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: shee hath conceived them hath done shamefully: for the said, I will goe after my lovers, that give me my bread, and my water, my wooll, and my flaxe, mine oyle, and my drink.

6 ¶ Therefore behold, I will hedge up thy way with thornes, and I make a wall, that she shall not finde her path.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them, and she shall lacke them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will goe and returne to my first husband, for then was it better with mee, then now.

8 For they did not knowe that I gave her corne, and I wine, and oyle, and multiplied her silver, and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

9 Therefore will I receive, and take away my corne in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will I grower my wooll, and my flaxe grow to cover her nakednesse.

10 And now will I discover her lowliness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast dayes: her new Moones, and her Sabbathes, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will destroy her vines, and her figtrees, where of she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the daies of Baalim, wherein the horn increase to them, and they ded her selfe with her writings, and her wickednesse: these went after her lovers, and forgate mee, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore behold, I will assure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and I will comfortably visit her.

15 And I will give her, her vineyards from Iezreel, and the valley of Achor for a doore of hope, and shee shall sing there as in the daies of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me I Iehi: and shalt call mee no more I Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, & they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a Covenant for them with the beasts of the field, & with the foules of heaven: & with the creeping things of the ground, and I will breake the bow, and the sword, and the battell out of the earth, and will make them to lie downe safely.

19 And I will betrothe thee unto me for ever, ye shall betrothe thee unto me in righteousness, and in indignation: and in loving kindness, and in mercie.

20 I will even betrothe thee unto me in faithfulness, and thou shalt knowe the LORD.

21 And it shall come to passe in that day, I will heare, saith the LORD, I will heare the heavens, and they shall heare the earth:

22 And the earth shall heare the corne, and the wine, and the oyle, and they shall heare Iezreel.

23 And I will sowe her vnto me in the earth: and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy, and I will say to them which were not my people; Thou art my people, and they shall say, Thou art my God.

Then said the LORD vnto me, Goe yet, loue a woman (beloued of her friend, yet an adulteresse) according to the loue of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who louke to other gods, and loue signets † of wine.

So I bought her to mee for fiftene peece of silver, and for an Homer of barley, and an † halfe Homer of barley.

And I led vnto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days, thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man, so will I also be for thee.

For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a King, and without a Prince, and without a Sacrifice, and without † an image, and without an Ephod, and without Teraphim.

Afterward shall the children of Israel returne, and seeke the LORD their God, and David their King, and shall feare the LORD, and his goodnesse in the latter dayes.

CHAP. III.

Gods iudgements against the sinnes of the people, & against the Priests, 12 and against their Idolatry, 15 Iudah is exhorted to take warning by Israels calamity.

Here the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for I LORD hath a pronouncement with the inhabitants of I land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they breake out, and blood toucheth † blood.

Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein, shall languish with the beasts of the field, and with the foules of heauen, yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

Ye like us man sinne nor reprove another: for thus people are as they that strike with the Priests.

Therefore shall thou fall in the day, and the Prophe: all shall fall with thee in the night, and I will † destroy thy mother.

My people are † destroyed for lacke of know: because thou hast rebriected knowledge, I will also reiect thee: thou shalt bee no Priet to mee: seeing thou hast forgotten the Law of thy God, I will also reject thy children.

As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

They exalt up the sinne of my people, and they † reiect their heart on their eniquity.

And there shall be like people, like † Priests, and I will † punish them for their wayes, and † reward them their doings.

For they shall eat and not haue enough: they shall commit whoredome, & shall not increase, because they haue left off to take heed to the LORD.

Whoredome, and wine, and new wine, take away the heart.

My people aske counsell at their stocke, and their fesse declareth vnto them: for the spirit of whoredomes haue caused them to erre, and they haue gone a whoring from vnder their God.

They sacrificie vpon the tops of the mountains, & burne incense vpon the hills, vnder oakes, and poplars, and elmes, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredome, & your spouses shall commit adultery.

I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredome, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for they are separated with whoredome, and they sacrificie with heathen: therefore the people shall doe not vnderstand, I shall fall,

Though thou Israel play the harlot, yet let not Iudah offend, and come not yet vnto Gilgal, neither goe ye vp to Beth-suen, nor swear, The LORD lieth.

For Israel siddeth backe, as a backe-sliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lambe in a large place.

Ephraim is loyued to idols: let him alone.

Their gricke † is foure: they haue committed whoredome continually: her † talers wish thine doe loue, Gine ye.

The wind hath bowed her vp in her wings, & they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAP. V.

Gods iudgements against the Priests, the people, and the Princes of Israel, for their manifold sinnes, 15 vntill they repent.

Here ye that O.P. reite, and hearken, ye house of Israel, and gine ye care, O house of the King: for iudgement is toward you, because ye haue bene a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread vpon Tabor.

And ye resoluers are profoued to make slaughter, though I haue bene † a rebuker of them all.

I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committedst whoredome, and Israel is defiled.

They will not forsake their doings, to turne vnto their God: for the spirit of whoredomes is in the midst of them, and they haue not knowen the LORD.

And the pride of Israel doeth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity: Iudah also shall fall with them.

They shall goe with their flockes, and with their herds to seeke the LORD: but they shall not finde him, because he hath withdrawn himselfe from them.

They haue dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they haue begotten strange children: now shall a sword deuoure them with their parents.

Blow ye the cornet in Gibrath, and the trumpe: pet in Ramah; cry aloud at Beth-zuen: after thee O Benjamin.

Ephraim shall be defoliate in the day of re-buke: among the tribes of Israel haue I made knowen that which shall surely be.

The Princes of Iudah were like them that remove the board: therefore I will powere out my wrath vpon them like war.

Ephraim is oppressed, and broken in iudgement: because he wilfully walked after the commandment.

Therefore will I be vnto Ephraim as a mocht: and to the house of Iudah as † rectorresse.

When Ephraim saw his sicknesse, and Iudah saw his wound: then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent † to King Iared; yet could he not helpe you, nor cure you of your wound.

For I will be vnto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Iudah: I, euen I will teare and goe away, I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

I will gree, and reuenge to my place, † till they acknowledge their offence, and seeke my face: in their affliction they will seeke me early.

CHAP. VI.

An exhortation to repentance, & a complaint of their unbelief and iniquity.

Come, and let vs returne vnto the LORD: for he hath torne, and he will heale vs: he hath smitten, and he will bnde vs vp.

1. Cor. 2 * After two dayes will see reuice vs. in the third day he will raise vs vp, and we shall line in his light.

3 There shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come vnto vs as the raine: as the latter and former raine vnto the earth.

4 O Ephraim, what shall I do vnto thee? O Judah, what shall I do vnto thee? for your good-will is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore haue I hewed them by Prophets: I haue blaine them by the words of my mouth. & the iudgements are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired * mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God, more then burnt offerings.

7 But they; like men haue transgressed the Covenent: therefore haue they dealt treacherously against mee.

8 Gilead is a city of them that work: iniquity, and it is polluted with blood.

9 And as a troupe of robbers wait for a man, so the company of Priests murder in the way: by conscience: for they commit & lewdnesse.

10 I haue seene an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredome of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Alas, O Judah, he hath set an iheruel for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 A prophete of mensu's sin. 15 Gods wrath against them for their b. practise.

When I would haue healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickednesse of Samaria: for they commit falsehood: and the clasp commeth in, and the troupe of robbers spoileth without.

2 And the y consider not in their hearts, that I remember all their wickednesse: their own doings in mine ear: but they about, they are before my face.

3 They make the King glad with their wickednesse, and the Princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as a woman heared by the baker: & who reacheth from raising: after hee hath kneaded the dough, vntill it be leaured.

5 In the day of our King, the Princes haue made him sicke: with bottles of wine, hee stretched out his hand with rorters.

6 For they haue made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie to wait, their baker sleepeth all the night, in y morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and haue denounced their iudges; all their Kings are fallen, there is none among them that callen vnto me.

8 Ephraim, hee hath mixed burntie among the people, Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strange: shauē denounced his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray haire are y here and there vpon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face, and they doe not returne to the LORD their God, nor seeke him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove, without heart: they call to Egypt: they goe to Assyria.

12 When they shall goe, I will spread my net vpon them, I will bring them downe as the fowles of the heauen: I will snatch them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Wee vnto them, for they haue fled from me: & destruction vnto them, because they haue transgressed against me, though I haue redeemed them, yet they haue spoken lies against me.

24 And they haue not cried vnto me with their heart, when they howled vpon their beds: they ascribed themselves for wine and wine, and they rebell against me.

15 Though I haue bound, & strengthened their armes, yet doe they imagine mischief against me.

16 They returne, but not to the LORD their God: because they haue transgressed my Covenent, and trespassed against my Law.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Destruction is threatened for their impiety, & Idolatry.

1 As an Eagle against the house of the LORD, because they haue transgressed my Covenent, and trespassed against my Law.

2 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

3 They haue set vp Kings, but not by mee: they haue made Princes, and I knowe it not: of their silver and their gold haue they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

4 They shall call, O Samaria, hath cast thee off: mine anger is kindled against thee: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

5 For from Israel was it also, the workman made it, therefore it is not God: but the idols of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

6 For they haue sowed the wind, and they shall reape the whirlwind: at each no 3 stalk, the bud shall yeeld no meale: if so be it yeeld, the strangers shall swallow it vp.

7 Israel is swallowed vp, now shall they be among Gentiles, as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

8 For they are gone vnto Assyria, a wilde asseloue by inuincible; Ephraim, hath hired of Israhel.

9 Yea, though they haue liued among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall follow a little for the worden of the King of Princes.

10 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sinne, altars shall hee vnto him to sinne.

11 I haue written to him the great things of my Law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

12 They sacrifice both: for the sacrifice of mine offerings, and yet they doe not accepteth them: now will hee remember their impiety, and visit their sinnes: they shall returne to Egypt.

13 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples, and hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire vpon his cities, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

CHAP. IX.

The diffirence and captivity of Israel, for their sinnes and lawlesse.

1 Reioyce not, O Israel, for joy, as a people: for their trust hath gone: a whoring from thy God, thou hast found a reward: yv eery corne flourisheth.

2 The sower and the wine-presser shall not feed them, and the new wine shall faile in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LANDS: but Ephraim shall returne to Egypt, and they shall eate vncleane things in Assyria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings vnto the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing vnto him: their sacrifices shall be vnto them: as the bread of mourners: all that eate thereof, shall be polluted: for their bread for their soule shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye doe in the solemne day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For loe they are gone, because of thy destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver vessels shall possess them, thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The dayes of visitation are come, the dayes of recompence are come, Israel shall know her Prophets a look, & the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The wickedness of Ephraim was with my God: & as the Prophet is a snare of a Fowler, in all his wayes, and hatred is in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the dayes of Gibeon: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit in his wrath.

10 I would Israel like grapes in the wilderness: I would vine planters as the first ripe in the figtree at her first time: for they went to Beth-peor, and separated themselves unto that shame, and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall flee away, like a bird from the bush, and from the wombe, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I reprove them: that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe shall be to them, when I depart from them.

13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring fourth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD, what wilt thou give? give them a snoring yongie, and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings, I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their Princes are revoltors.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall beare no fruit: yea, though they bring fourth, yet will I say, even of the beloved fruit of their wombe.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

C H A P. X.

Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

1 [Sca. 2:] An empty vine, he bringeth fourth fruit unto himselfe: according to the multitude of his fruit, hee hath increased the Altars, according to the goodwilke of his Land, they have made goodly Images.

2 Their heart is divided: now shall they be found faulty: hee shall breake downe their Altars: he shall spoile their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king because we feared the LORD, What then should a King doe vs?

4 They have spoken words, swearing folly in making a covenant: thus judgement sprang up as hemlocke in the furrowes of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall feare, because of the calnes of Beth-saan: for the people thereof shall moune over it, and the Priests thereof shall rejoyce on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to King Ierch: Ephraim shall receive thame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his owne counsell.

7 As for Samaria her king is cut off as the stone upon the water.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorne and the thistle shall come upon their Altars, and they shall say to the mountains, Carry vs and to the hills, Fall on vs: O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeon: there they stood: the battell in Gibeon against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

9 It is in my desire that I should chastise them, & the people shall be gathered against them: when they shall bind themselves in their two scrowes.

10 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loneth to tread out the corne; but I passed over upon her bare necke: I will make Ephraim to be as Iudah shall plow, and Jacob shall becke his clove.

11 Sow to your sines in righteousness: reape in mercy, & breake up your fallow ground: for it is time to seeke the LORD, till he come and cause righteousnesse upon you.

12 Ye have plowed wickednesse, ye have reaped iniquity, ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

13 Therefore shall a tumult arise among the people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Salmun (spokid Beth-arbel) in the day of battell: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

14 So shall Beth-el doe unto you, because of your great wickednesse: in a morayn shall the King of Israel be vitally cut off.

C H A P. XL

1 The ingratitude of Israel unto God for his benefits. 2 His judgement. 3 Gods mercy toward them.

W HEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my name out of Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burnt incense to graven images.

3 I taught Ephraim also to goe, taking them by their armes: thus they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love, & I was to them as they that take off the yoke of their iawes, and I laid meat unto them.

5 I shall not returne us, the land of Egypt, but the Assyrie shall be his King, because they refused to returne.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their owne counsell.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fiercenes of mine anger, I will not returne to destroy Ephraim, for I am God and not man, the holy One in the midst of thee, and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walke after the LORD: he shall roare like a lyon: when hee shall roare, then the children shall tremble from the West.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a doe out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: the Iudah yet trusteth with God, and is faithful: with the Saints together.

C H A P. XLII

1 A reproof of Ephraim, Iudah and Iacob. 2 By former favours he exhorteth to repentance. 3 Ephraims sinnes provoke God.

Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the East wind: hee daily increaseth lies and desolation, and they doe make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oyle is carried into Egypt.

1 The LORD hath also a covenant with Iudah, and will punish Iacob according to his wayes, according to his doings: he will recompense him.

2 Heeooke his brother * by the herle in the wombe, and by his strength he † had power with God.

3 Yea, he had power over the Angel, and promised: he wept and made supplication unto him: he found him in * Bethel, and there he spake with vs.

4 Euen the LORD God of hostes, the LORD is his * memoriall.

5 Therefore turne thou to thy God: keepe mercy and iudgement, and waite on thy God continually.

6 He is † a Merchant, the balancer of dectt vs in his hand: he loaneth to † oppresse.

7 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found the out (a. state): † in all my labours they shall finde some iniquity in mee, † that were finne.

8 And I, I, hee am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, will yet make thee to dwell in Tabernacles, as in the dayes of the solemne feast.

9 I have also spoken by the Prophet, and I have multiplied visions, and vñd similitudes, † by the multitude of the Prophets.

10 Is there iniquity in Gilead? Surely they are vanity, they sacrifice bullocks in * Gilgal, yea, their altars are as heapes in the furrowes of the fields.

11 And Iacob fled into the countrey of Syria, and Israel serued for * a wife, and so, a wife hee kept sheepe.

12 And * by a Prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a Prophet hee preferred.

13 Ephraim provoked him to anger: most bitterly: therefore shall hee leane his † blood vpon him, and his reproach shall his Lord returne vnto him.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Ephraims glory by reason of idollry, vanishes. 2 Gods anger for their wickednesse. 3 A promise of Gods mercy. 4 A iudgement for rebellion.

When Ephraim spake trembling, hee exalted himselfe in Israel: but when he offended in Baal, he died.

2 And now † they haue more and more, and haue made them molten images of their silver, or idols: according to their owne vnderstanding, all of it the worke of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the † men that sacrifice, make the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew it passeth away, as the chaffe that is driven with a whirlwind out of the floore, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God * from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no God but mee: for there is no Saviour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of † great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled:

they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore haue they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be vnto them as a Lion, as a Leopard, by the way which I observe them.

8 I will meet them as a Beare that is bereaued of her whelpes, and will teare the carle of their heart, and there will I deuoure them like a Lion: † the wilde beast shall teare them.

9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thy selfe, but in me is thy thinge helpe.

10 I will be thy King: where is any other that may saue thee in all thy cities? and thy Iudges of whom thou saidest, Giue me a King and Princes?

11 I gaue thee * a King in mine anger, and tooke him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound vp: his sinne is hid.

13 The sorowes of a trailing woman shall come vpon him, he is an vnwise son; for he should not stay † long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will reuolue them from the † power of the graue: I will redeeme him from death: † death I will be thy plagues: O graue, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be sturied all among his brethren, * an East wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come vp from the wilderness, and hee spring shall become dry, and his fountaine shall be aried vp, he shall spoyle the treasure of all † plethare vessels.

16 Samaria shall become desolate, for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be hurt vp.

CHAP. XIII.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 2 A promise of Gods blessing.

O Israel: returne vnto the LORD thy God: for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turne to the LORD, say vnto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive vs graciously: so will we render the * cause of our lips.

3 As sure shall not saue vs, we will not ride vpon horses, neither will we see by any meane the worke of our hands, for we are our gods: for in those the fatherlesse findeth mercy.

4 I will beate their backsliding I will leane them brayly: for mine anger is kindled away from them.

5 I will be as † dew vnto Israel: he shall † grow as the Lilly, and † cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

6 His branches shall † spread, and his beauty † shall be as the Olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

7 They that dwell vnder his shadow, shall reuerence: they shall reuerence as the cornet and † grow as the vine, the † fruit thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

8 Ephraim shall say, What haue I to doe any more with idoles? I haue heard him, and obserued in him: how like a greene firre tree, from me is thy fruit found.

9 Who is wife, and he shall vnderstand these things? proceas, and hee shall know them? for the wayes of the LORD are right: and the iust shall walke in them: but the transgressours shall fall therein.

† Heb. they shall be so fast. † Heb. the sacrifice of men. † Heb. they shall be so fast. † Heb. they shall be so fast.

C H A P. I.

1 Teel declaring Joadys judgments of God, exhortes to observe a fast, and to mourne. 14 He prescribeth a Fast, for complaint.

He word of the LORD that came to Joel the sonne of Pethuel.

2 Hence this, ye old men, and give eare all ye inhabitants of the land: Hath this bin in your dayes? or even in the dayes of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the palmer-worme hath left, hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left, hath the canker-worme eaten; and that which the canker-worme hath left, hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake ye drunkards, and weepe, and howle all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and hee hath the cheek-teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste; and forked my fig-tree; hee hath made it cleane bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 I lament like a virgine girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

9 The meat offering, and the drinke offering is cut off from the house of the LORD, the Priests; the LORDS Ministers mourne.

10 The field is wasted, the land mourneth, for the corne is wasted, the new wine is dried up, the oyle languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howle, O ye vine-dressers, for the wheat, and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig-tree languisheth, the pomegranate tree, the palme tree also, and the apple tree, such all the trees of the field are withered, because joy is withered away from the sonnes of men.

13 Gird your selves, and lament ye Priests; howle ye Ministers of the Altar; come lie all night in sackcloth, ye Ministers of my God: for the meat offering, and the drinke offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 Sanctifie ye a fast; call a solemn assembly; gather the Elders, and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD:

15 Alas for the day; for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before your eyes, joy and gladnesse from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barnes are broken downe, for the corne is withered.

18 How doe the beasts grone? the herds of cattell are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the sheeces of sheepe are made desolate.

19 O LORD, so will I cry: for the fire hath consumed the pastures of the wilderness, and the fire hath burnt all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up; and the fire hath consumed the pastures of the wilderness.

C H A P. II.

1 Hee sheweth unto Zion the terribleesse of Gods judgments. 13 He exhorteth to repentance. 17 Prescribeth a Fast. 18 Promiseth a blessing thereon. 21 He comforteth Zion with present, and future blessing.

Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarme in my holy mountaine; for all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is at hand.

2 A day of darkness and of gloominesse, a day of clouds and of thicke darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong, there hath not bene ever the like, neither shall bee any more after it, even to the spaces of many generations.

3 A fire burneth before them, and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness, yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses, and as horsemen, so shall they runne.

5 Like the noise of charrets on the tops of mountains shall they leape, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battell aray.

6 Before their face the people shall bee much pained: all faces shall gather blacknesse.

7 They shall run like mighty men, they shall climb the wall like men of warre, and they shall march every one on his wayes, and they shall not breake their ranks.

8 Neither shall one thrust another, they shall walke every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city, they shall runne upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses: they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble, the Sonne and the Moone shall be dark, and the Starres shall withdraw their shining.

11 And the LORD shall utter his voyce before his army, for his campe is very great: for hee is strong that exorceth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible, and who can abide it?

12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, Turne ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.

13 And rent your heart, and not your garments; and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and mercifull, slow to anger, and of great kindeesse, and repenteth him of the euill.

14 Who knoweth if he will returne and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meat offering and a drinke offering unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctifie a fast; call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people; sanctifie the congregation; assemble the Elders; gather the children, and those that sucke the breasts: let the bridegroome goe forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

27 Let the Priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the Altar; and let them say: Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach; that the heathen should say: We have devoured them: Wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

28 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

29 Yea, the LORD will answer, and say unto his people; Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oyle, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen.

30 But I will remove far off from you the North-ern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the East sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his kinde shall come up, and his ill favour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

31 ¶ Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will doe great things.

32 Be not afraid ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness doe spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the figge-tree and the vine doe yield their strength.

33 Be glad then ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former raine, moderately, and he will cause to come downe for you the raine, the former raine, and the latter raine in the first month.

34 And the boores shall be full of wheat, and the fatts shall overflow with wine and oile.

35 And I will restore to you the yeeres that the locust hath eaten, the cater-worme, and the cater-pillar, and the palmer-worme, my great army which I sent among you.

36 And ye shall eate in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the Name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

37 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

38 ¶ And it shall come to passe afterward, that I will * powre out my spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesie, your old men shall dream dreames, your young men shall see visions.

39 And also upon the servants, and upon the hand-maids in those dayes will I powre out my spirit.

40 And I will shew wonders in the heavens, and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

41 * The Sun shall be turned into darknesse, and the Moone into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

42 And it shall come to passe, that * whosoever shall call on the Name of the LORD, shall be delivered: for in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem shall bee deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant, whom the LORD shall call.

C H A P. III.

1 Gods judgments against the enemies of his people. 2 God will be knowne in his judgment. 3 His blessing upon the Church.

¶ Or behold, in those dayes, and in that time, I when I shall bring againe the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem.

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them downe into the valley of Iehoshaphat, and will pleade with them there for my people; and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wise, that they might drinke.

4 Yea, and what have ye to doe with me, O Tyre and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense mee, swiftly and speedily will I returne your recompence vpon your owne head.

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your Temples my goodly & pleasant things.

6 The children also of Iudah, and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them farre from their border.

7 Behold, I will cause them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will returne your recompence vpon your owne head.

8 And I will sell your sonnes and your daughters into the hand of the children of Iudah, and they shall sell them to the Sabaeans, as a people for oyle, for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaime ye this among the Gentiles, prepare warre, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of warre draw swords, let them come up.

10 * Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hookes into speeres; let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Assemble your selves, and come all ye heathen, and gather your selves together round about: to fight with me, say they, to come downe, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Iehoshaphat: for there will I sit to iudge all the heathen round about.

13 * Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe, come get you downe, for the preise is full, the lets overflow, for the wickednesse is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is neere in the valley of Decision.

15 The * Sonne and the Moone shall be darkened, and the Starres shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall * roare out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem, and the bowens and the cark shall shake, but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountaine: then shall Jerusalem be & holy, and there shall no straggling passe thorough her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to passe in that day, that the mountaine shall * drop downe new wine, and the hilles shall flow with milke, and all the rivers of Iudah shall flow with waters, and a fountaine shall come forth of the hauc of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Sittim.

19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Iudah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Iudah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood, when I have not cleansed, for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

1 Amos speaketh Gods iudgements upon Syria, 8 upon the Philistines, 9 upon Tyre, 11 upon Edom, 12 upon Ammon.

IN the words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Iudah, and in the dayes of Jeroboam the sonne of Ioash King of Israel, two yeeres before the earthquake.

2 And he said, The LORD will rouse from Zion, and utter his voyce from Ierusalem: and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourne, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall deuoure the palaces of Benhadad.

5 I will breake also the barre of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plaine of Auen: and him that holdeth the kepter from the house of Edom, and the people of Syria shall goe into captivity vnto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Gaza and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof: because they carried away captiue the whole captivity, to deliuer them vp to Edom.

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the kepter from Ashkelon, and I will turne mine hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Tyre, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof: because they deliuered vp the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant.

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, which shall deuoure the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Edom, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger was kindled perpetually, and kept his wrath for euer.

12 But I will send a fire vpon Teman, which shall deuoure the palaces of Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because they haue tript vp the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall deuoure the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battell, with a tempest in the day of the whirlewind.

15 And their King shall goe into captivity, hee, and his Princes together, saith the LORD.

C H A P. II.

1 Gods wrath against Moab, 4 upon Iudah, 8 and upon Ierusalem, 9 Gods complaine of their sinnes.

THUS saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Moab, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because he hath cast the bones of the King of Edom into fire.

2 But I will send a fire vpon Moab, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Kerioth, and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the Iudge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the Princes thereof, with him, saith the LORD.

4 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Iudah, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof, because they haue despised the Law of the LORD, and haue not kept his Commandments, and their King caused them to erre, after the which their fathers haue walked.

5 But I will send a fire vpon Iudah, and it shall deuoure the palaces of Ierusalem.

6 Thus saith the LORD, For three transgressions of Israel, and for foure, I will not turne away the punishment thereof: because they sold the righteous for siluer, and the poore for a paire of shoes:

7 That put after the dust of the earth on the head of the poore, and turne aside the way of the meeke, and a man and his father will goe in vnto the same maid, to profane my holy Name.

8 And they lay their slauis downe vpon clothes laid to pledge by euery Altar, they drinke the wine of the condemned in the house of their God.

9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the Cedars, and he was strong as the ashes, yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you vp from the land of Egypt, and led you forty yeeres thorow the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised vp of your sons for Prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites, it is not enough thus, O ye children of Israel, saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drinke, and commanded the Prophets, saying, Prophets not.

13 Behold, I am pressed vnder you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

14 Therefore the light shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliuer himselfe.

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow, and he that is swift of foot, shall not deliuer himselfe, neither shall he that rideth the horse, deliuer himselfe.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty, shall see away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

C H A P. III.

1 The necessity of Gods iudgements against Ierusalem, 2 The publication of it, with the causes thereof.

HEARE this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought vp from the land of Egypt, saying,

2 You say, we knowe of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take vp a thorn from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blowne in the city, and the people? nor bee afraid? shall there bee mull in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will doe nothing, but hee reneweth his secret vnto his seruants the Prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not feare? the leopard hath spoken, who can but prophesie?

9 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble your selues vpon the mountains of Samaria: and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to doe right, saith the LORD; who store vp violence and robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, An adversary there shall be euen round about the land: and hee shall bring downe thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD, As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an eare: so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria, in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus, as if in a couch.

13 Heare ye and cease in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hostes.

14 That in the day that I shall visite the transgressions of Israel vpon him, I will also visite the altars of Bethel, and the horns of the Altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house, and the houses of Ieremy shall perishe, and the great houses shall haue an end, saith the LORD.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee reproveth Israel for oppression: 4 For idolatry. 6 And for their inuicible sinne.

1 Heare ye this word ye kinde of Basan, that are in the mountaines of Samaria, which oppress the poore, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let vs drinke.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his Holinesse, that loe, he dayes shall come vpon you, that he will take you away with hookes, and yone politinity with fist-hookes.

3 And ye shall goe out as shee breaches, euerie one at that which is before her, and ye shall cast them into the palatse, saith the LORD.

4 Come to Bethel and transgresse, at Gilgal multiply transgression, and bring your sacrifices euerie morning, and your tithes after three yeeres.

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leauen, and proclaime and publish the free-offering: for this lieth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And also howe giuen you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet haue ye not returned vnto mee, saith the LORD.

7 And also I haue withholden the raine from you, when there were yet thre moneths to the harvest: and I caused it to raine vpon one city, and caused it not to raine vpon another city, one piece was raised vpon, and the piece wherupon it rained not, withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered vnto one city, to drinke water: but they were not satisfied: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the LORD.

9 I haue smitten you with blasting, and mildew, when your gardens, and your vineyards, and your figtrees, and your olive trees increased, the palm-trees: you deuoured them: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the LORD.

10 I haue fast among you, the pestilence, I affected the manner of Egypt: your young men haue I sliue with the sword, and I haue taken away your holies, and I haue made the stinke of your campes to come vpon you, and your nostrils, yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the LORD.

11 I haue ouerthrowne some of you, as God overthroweth Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand pluckt out of the burning: yet haue ye not returned vnto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I doe vnto thee, O Israel: and because I will doe this vnto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For loe, he that foismeth the mountaines, and createth the wind, and declarerh vnto man, what is his thought, that maketh the morning dawns, and treadeth vpon the high places of the earth: the LORD, the God of hostes is his Name.

CHAP. V.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 An exhortation to repentance. 21 God reuileth their hypocritical seruice.

1 Heare ye this word which I take vp against you, euen a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen, shee shall no more rise: there is forsaken vpon her land, there is none to raise her vp.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD, The city that went out by a thousand, shall leaue an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred, shall leaue ten to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the Lord vnto the house of Israel, Seeke ye me, and ye shall liue.

5 But seeke not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and passe not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely goe into captivity, & Bethel shall come to naught.

6 Seeke the LORD, and ye shall liue, lest hee breake out like fire in the house of Ioseph, and deuoure it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.

7 Ye who turne iudgement to worme-wood, and leaue off righteousness in the earth:

8 Seeke him that maketh the iawen Stars and Orion, and mureth the shadow of death into the morning, & maketh the day darke with night: that calleth for the waters of the Sea, & powereth them out vpon the face of the earth: the LORD is his Name.

9 The strengtheth the spoiled against the strong: so that the spoiled shall come against the forteffe.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhorre him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your weeding is vpon the poore, and ye take from him burdnes of wheat, & ye haue build bouies of hewen stone, but ye shall not dwell in them: yet haue planted ye pleafur vineyards, but ye shall not drinke wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty liues: they afflict the iust, they take a bribe, and they tarce aside the poore in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keepe silences in wast that time, for it is an small time.

14 Seeke good, and not euill, that ye may liue: and so the LORD, the God of hostes shall be with you, as ye haue spoken.

15 * Hate the euill, and loue the good, and establish iudgement in the gate: it may bee that the LORD God of hostes will bee gracious vnto the remnant of Ioseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hostes, the Lord saith thus, Watching shall be in all breeces, and they shall sit in all the high wayes, Adas, alas: and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and shall be skilfull of lamer arion, to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will passe thorow thee, saith the LORD.

18 * Woe vnto you that desire the day of the LORD: to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and no light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lyon, and a brave warriour was into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, & aserpaunt by him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkenesse, and not light? euen vey darke, and so brightnesse in it?

21 * I hate, I despise your feast dayes, and I will not be in your solenne assemblies.

22 Though ye offer mee burnt offerings, and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your lay houses.

23 Take thou away from mee the noise of thy songs: for I will not heare the melody of thy viol.

24 But let iudgement run downe as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 * Haue ye offered vnto me sacrifices and offerings of wildernesse forty yeres, O house of Israel?

26 But ye haue borne the y cabernacle of your Moloch, and Chim: your images, the stars of your god, which ye made to your felices.

27 Therefore will I cause you to goe into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose Name is, The God of hostes.

CHAP. VI.

1 The wantonnesse of Israel: 7 shall be plagued with affliction, & their inuicibility.

Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountaine of Samaria, which are named: the chicke of the nation: so whom the house of Israel came.

2 Passe ye into Calneh and see, and from thence goe ye to Henuch: the greater then goe downe to Gath of the Philistines: is they better then their kingdomes? or their border greater then your border?

3 Ye that put far away the euill dayes, and cause the feat of violence to come nere:

4 That lie vpon beds of yuory, and stretch themselves vpon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flocke, and the calves out of the midst of the stall:

5 That saye thus: the sound of the viall, and inuent to them instruments of musick, like Dauid:

6 That drinke wine in bowles, and smint themselves with the cheefe ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Ioseph.

7 Therefore now shall they goe captiue with the first that goe captiue, and the banner of them that stretched themselves, shall be remooued.

8 * The Lord God hath sworn by himselfe, saith the LORD, the God of hostes, I abhorre the excellency of Iacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliue vp the city, with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to passe, if there remaine ten men in our house, that they shall die.

10 And a mans vncle shall take him vp, and his vncle burneth him, so being one of the bones out of the house, and shall say vnto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? And he shall say, No, Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue, for we may not make mention of the blame of the LORD.

11 For behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will visite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run vpon the rocks? will one plow share with oxen? for ye haue turned iudgement into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into bismolke.

13 Ye which reioyce in a thing of naught, which say, haue we not taken to vs horses by our owne strength?

14 But behold, I will raise vp against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hostes, and they shall afflicte you, from the cutting in of Heuath, vnto the river of the wilderness.

CHAP. VII.

The iudgements of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diuised by the pyres of Amos. 7 By the wall of a plural house, is signified the reuersion of Israel. 10 Amaziah apparerth of Amos. 14 Amos sheweth his calling, 16 and Amaziahs iudgement.

Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed vnto me, and behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting vp of the latter growth: & lo, it was the latter growth after the kings mowing.

2 And it came to passe, when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said: O Lord GOD, argue I desire thee, by whom shall Iacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD answered for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed vnto me: and behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it decouered the great dectre, and did eat vp a parte.

5 Then said I O Lord GOD, cease I beseech thee, by whom shall Iacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD answered for this, This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me, and behold, the Lord stood vpon a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said vnto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumb line. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel, I will not againe passe by them any more.

9 And the high places of Isaac shall bee desolate, and the Synagogues of Israel shall bee laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Iacob with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah the Priest of Bethel sent to Ierobeam King of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of thine house of Israel: the land is not able to beare all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Ierobeam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captiue out of their owne land.

12 Also Amaziah said vnto Amos, O thou Seer, goe see thee away into the land of Iudah, and there eat bread, and prophesie there.

13 But prophesie not againe any more at Bethel: for it is the Kings Chappell, and it is the Kings Court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no Prophet, neither was I a Prophets sonne, but

CHAP. IX.

The captivity of the desolation, 11 The restoring of the Tabernacle of David.

I saw the Lord standing upon the Akar, and he said, Smite the lintell of the doore, that the posts may shake, and cut them in the head all of them, & I will lay the rafters of them with the sword: hee that stretcheth of them, shall not see away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them: though they climb vp to heauen, thence will I bring them downe.

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence: and though they bee hid from my sight in the bottom of the Sea, thence will I command the serpent, and hee shall bite them.

4 And though they see into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for euill, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hostes is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwelleth therein shall mourne, and it shall rise vp wholly like a flood, and shall bee drowned as by the flood of Egypt.

6 It is he that buildeth his store in the heauen, and hath founded his troupe in the earth, he that calleth for the waters of the Sea, and powreth them out vpon the face of the earth: the Lord is his Name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians vnto me, O children of Israel, saith the Lord God? haue not I brought vp Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord God are vpon the sinfull kingdomes, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth, (saying that I will not utterly destroy the house of Isaac, saith the Lord.)

9 For loe, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieue, yet shall not the least graine fall vpon the earth.

10 All the finners of my people shall die by the sword, which say: The euill shall not ouertake nor prevent vs.

11 In that day will I raise vp the Tabernacle of David that is fallen, and I will close vp the breaches thereof, and I will raise vp his ruines, and I will build it as in the dayes of old.

12 Then they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my Name, saith the Lord that doeth this.

13 Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord, that the plowmen shall ouertake the reaper, and the treader of grapes, him that sowerth seed, and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melte.

14 And I will bring againe the captivity of my people of Israel: and they shall build the waile cities, and inhabite them, and they shall plant vineyards, and drinke the wine thereof: they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them vpon their land, and they shall no more be pulled vp out of their land, which I haue giuen them, saith the Lord thy God.

but I was a herdman, and a gatherer of Summer fruit.

15 And the Lord saide me: as I followed the flocke, and the Lord saide vnto me, God, prophesie vnto my people Israel.

16 Now therefore heare thou the word of the Lord: thou sayest, Prophesie not against Isaac, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

17 Therefore, thus saith the Lord, Thy wife shall be as a harlot in the city, and thy sonnes and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be diuided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land, and Israel shall surely goe into captivity fourth of his land.

CHAP. VIII.

By a basket of summer fruit, is shewed the propinquity of Israels end, & Oppression is reprov'd. 11 A famine of the word is warned.

Thus hath the Lord God shewed vnto me, and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the Lord vnto me, The end is come vpon my people of Israel, I will not againe passe by them any more.

3 And the songs of the Temples shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God, there shall be many dead bodies in every place, they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Heare this, O ye that swallow vp the needy, euen to make the pore of the land to faile,

5 Saying, When will the new Moore be gone, that we may sell wine? and the Sabbath, that we may get for fourth wheat, making the Ephah small, and the Shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the pore for siluer, and the needy for a paire of shooes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The Lord hath sworn by the excellency of Isaac, Surely I will neuer forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one moue that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise vp wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

9 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the Lord God, that I will cause the Sunne to goe downe at noone, and I will darken the earth in the cleare day.

10 And I will turne your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation, & I will bring vp sackcloth vpon all loynes, and baldnesse vpon every head: and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the dayes come, saith the Lord God, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the Lord.

12 And they shall wander from Sea to Sea, and from the North euen to the East, they shall runne to and fro, to seeke the word of the Lord, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the faire virgines and young men faile for thirst.

14 They that sweare by the name of Sathana, and say thy God, O Dan, lieth; and the manner of Beersheba lieth, euen they shall fall, and neuer rise vp againe.

1 The destruction of Edom, 2 For their pride, 3 And for their wrong unto Jacob, 4 The salvation out of the mouth of Jacob.

He vision of Obadiah: Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom, We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an Ambassadour is sent among the heathen: Arise ye, and let vs rise vp against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised,

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee: thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high, that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me downe to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thy selfe as the Eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee downe, saith the LORD.

5 If thou sayest, Come to mee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off?) would they not have stolen till they had enough? If the grape-gatherers come to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the strong holdes of Edom searched out? how are his high things sought vp?

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee euen to the border: of the men that were at peace with thee, have deceived thee, and prenised against thee: they that eat thy bread, have laid a wound vnder thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, euen destroy the wicketten out of Edom, and vnderstanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thou mighty man, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that euerie one of the mount of Esau shall be cut off with righte.

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob, thine enemies shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for euer.

11 In the day that thou shalt be brought downe, in the day that the strangers shall carry away thy towers, and thou shalt be cut off for euer, and thou shalt be cut off for euer, and thou shalt be cut off for euer, and thou shalt be cut off for euer.

12 But thou shalt not haue looked on the day of thy brother, in the day that hee became a stranger: neither shalt thou haue reioyced ouer the children of Israhel in the day of their destruction: neither shalt thou haue spoken proudly in the day of distresse.

13 Thou shalt not haue entred into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity: yea, thou shalt not haue looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor haue laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.

14 Neither shalt thou haue stood in the crosse way to cut off those of his that did escape, neither shalt thou haue hindered vs those of his that did remaine in the day of distresse.

15 For the day of the LORD is neere vpon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done vnto thee: thy reward shall returne vpon thine owne head.

16 For as ye haue drunke vpon my holy mountaine, so shall all the heathen drinke continually: yea, they shall drinke, & they shall swallow downe, and they shall be as though they had not bene.

17 But vpon mount Zion shall be deliuerance, and there shall be holmes, and the house of Jacob shall possess their possession.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Ioseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and deuoure them, and there shall not be any remaining in the house of Esau, for the LORD hath spoken so.

19 And they of the South shall possess the mount of Esau, and they of the plaine, the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria, and Benjamin, shall possess Gilcad.

20 And the captiuitie of this hoste of the children of Israhel shall possess that of the Canaanites, euen vnto Zarephath, and the captiuitie of Ierusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South.

21 And Saviours shall come vp vpon mount Zion, to iudge the mount of Esau, and the Kingdome shall be the LORDS.

C H A P. I.

1 Jonah sent to Ninueh, 2 Heeth to Tarshish, 3 He is swallowed by a tempest, 4 Is throwne into the Sea, 5 And swallowed by a fish.

Now the word of the LORD came vnto Jonah the sonne of Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Ninueh, that great city, and cry against it: for their wickednesse is come vp before me.

2 But Jonah rose vp to flee vnto Tarshish, from the presence of the LORD, and went downe to Ioppa, and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he payed the fare thereof, and went downe into it, to goe with them vnto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

3 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the Sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the Sea, so that the ship was like to bee broken.

4 Then the mariners were afraid, and cryed euery man vnto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the Sea, to lighten it of them: but Iohn was gone downe into the sides of the ship, and he lay, and was fast asleepe.

5 So the skip-master came to him, and said vnto him, What meanest thou, O Sleeper? Arise, call vpon thy God, if so be that God will thinke vpon vs, that we perish not.

6 And they said euery one to his fellow, Come, and let vs cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this euill is vpon vs. So they cast lots, and the lot fell vpon Iohn.

7 Then said they vnto him, Tell vs, we pray thee, for whose cause this euill is vpon vs? What is thine occupation? and when e comest thou? What is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said vnto them, I am an Hebrew, and I feare the LORD the God of heauen, which hath made the sea, and the dry land.

10 Then were the men \dagger exceedingly afraid, and said vnto him, Why hast thou done this? (For the men knew that hee fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.)

11 ¶ Then said they vnto him, What shall we do vnto thee, that the Sea \dagger may be calme vnto vs? (For the Sea \dagger wrought, and was tempestuous.)

12 And he said vnto them, Take me vp, and cast me forth into the Sea, so shall the Sea be calme vnto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is vpon you.

13 Nevertheless, the men frowned hard to bring it to the land, but they could not: for the Sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cryed vnto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let vs not perish for this mans life, and lay not vpon vs innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So theyooke vp Iouah, and cast him forth into the Sea, and the Sea \dagger ceas'd from her raging. 16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice vnto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow \dagger up Iouah, and Iouah was in the \dagger belly of the fish three dayes, and three nights.

CHAP. II.

1 The prayer of Iouah, 16 He is deliuered from the fish.

Then Iouah prayed vnto the LORD his God out of the fishes belly.

2 And said, I \dagger cried by \dagger reason of mine affliction vnto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of \dagger bell cryed I, and thou heardest my voyce.

3 For thou hast cast me into the deepe, in the \dagger midst of the Seas, and the floods compassed me about: all thy billowes and thy waves passed ouer mee.

4 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight: yet I will looke againe toward thy holy Temple.

5 The \dagger waters compassed me about, euen to the soule, the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapt about my head.

6 I went downe to the \dagger bottomes of the mountains: the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought vp my life from \dagger corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soule fainted within me, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came in vnto thee, into thine holy Temple.

8 They that observe lying vanities, forsake their owne mercy.

9 But I will sacrifice vnto thee, with the voice of \dagger thanksgiving, I will pay that that I haue vowed: salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake vnto the fish, and it vomited out Iouah vpon the dry land.

CHAP. III.

1 Iouahs first againe, 16 Iouahs repentance, 20 God repenteth.

And the word of the LORD came vnto Iouah the second time, saying,

1 Arise, goe vnto Nineueh that great citie, and preach vnto it the preaching that I bid thee.

2 So Iouah arose, and went vnto Nineueh, according to the word of the LORD: now Nineueh was an exceeding great city, of three dayes iourney.

3 And Iouah began to enter into the city a dayes iourney, and he cryed and said, Yet fourty dayes and Nineueh shall be overthrown.

4 ¶ So the people of Nineueh \dagger beleeued God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them, euen to the least of them.

5 For word came vnto the King of Nineueh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and fasted in ashes.

6 And he caused it to be proclaimed, and published thatow Nineueh, (by the decree of the King and his \dagger Nobles,) saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flocke talke any thing: Let them not feed, nor drinke water.

7 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily vnto God: yea, let them turne euerie one from his euill way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

8 ¶ Who can tell if God will turne and repent, and turne away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

9 ¶ And God saw their works, that they turned from their euill way, and God repented of the euill that he had said, that he would do vnto them, and he did it not.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 Iouahs repining as Gods mercy, 4 he is repented by the tye of a gourd.

But he displeas'd Iouah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed vnto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my fasting, when I was yet in my country? I abstain'd from bread, and I wept, and I fasted: for I knew that thou art a \dagger gracious God, and mercifull, slow to anger, and of great kindeesse, and repentest thee of the euill.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, take I beseech thee, my life from mee; for it is better for me to die, then to liue.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, \dagger Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Iouah went out of the city, and sat on the East side of the city, and there made him a bouche, and fate vnder it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a \dagger gourd, and made it to come vp ouer Iouah, that it might be a shadow ouer his head, to deliue him from his griefe. So Iouah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worme when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, that it withered.

8 And it came to passe when the Sun did arise, that God prepared a \dagger vehement East wind, and the Sun beat vpon the head of Iouah, that he fainted, and wished in himselfe to die, and said, It is better for me to die, then to liue.

9 And God said vnto Iouah, \dagger Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? and hee said, \dagger I doe well to be angry euen vnto death.

10 Then said the LORD: Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither made it to grow, which \dagger came vp in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare Nineueh that great citie, wherein are more then sixscore thousand persons, that cannot discern betweene their right hand and their left hand, and also much cattell?

MICAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Micah firmeth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry. 10 He exhorteth to mourning.

He word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite, in the days of Iotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah Kings of Judah, which hee saw concealing Samaria, and Ierusalem.

2 Hearre * all ye people, hearken O earth, and all that therein is, and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his holy Temple.

3 For behold, * the LORD counteth fourth out of his * place, and will come downe and tread upon the * high places of the earth.

4 And the * mountains shall be moiren vnder him, and the valleys shall be cleft: as waves before the winde, and as the waters that are powred downe in a streete place.

5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sinne of the house of Israel: What is the transgression of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Iudah? are they not Ierusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heape of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will poure downe the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the golden images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hures thereof shall be burnt with the fire, and all the idoles thereof will I lay desolate: for they gathered it out of the bare of an harlot, and they shall returne to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will weile and howle, I will greepe and strip, and naked: I will make a wailing like the daughters, and mourning as the doves.

9 For I see want: I see violence, for it is come vnto Iudah: he is come vnto the gate of my people, even to Ierusalem.

10 * Doe I see ye? not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of * Aphrah, * route thy selfe in the dust.

11 Passe ye away thou * inhabitant of Saphir, hauing thy * shime naked; the * inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of * Beth-ezel, he shall receiue of you his standing.

12 For the inhabitant of Marah * waited carefully for good, but euill came downe from the LORD vnto the gate of Ierusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the charre to the swift beast: he is the beginning of the shame to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shall thou give presents: I to Moresheth-Gath: the houses of * Achish shall be a lie to the Kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heire vnto thee, O inhabitant of Marreshah: he shall come vnto Adullam, the glory of Israel.

16 Make thee * bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children, enlarge thy baldnesse as the Eagle, for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAP. II.

Against oppression, & A lamentation. 7 A reproofe of iniustice and idolatry. 12 A promise of reforming Iacob.

10e to them that desire iniquity, and warde euill vpon their bodis; when the improving is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they come * fields, and take them by violence: and houses, and take them away: so they * profite a man and his house, turne a man into his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, against this family do I devise an euill, from which ye shall not remove your neckes, neither shall ye get laughingly: for this time is euill.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take vp a parable against you, and saeme with a * dolefull lamentation, and say, Wee be utterly spoiled: wee haue changed the portion of my people: how hath hee removed it from me? ¶ turning away hee hath diuided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt haue none that shall waite a word by lot in the Congregation of the LORD.

6 ¶ ¶ * Prophecie ye not, say they to them that prophesie: they shall not prophesie to them, but they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the Spirit of the LORD * strained? are these his doings? doe not my words doe good to him that walketh * vprightly?

8 ¶ Euen of late my people is risen vp as an enemy: ye pull off the robe * with the garment from them that passe by (scarcely, as men ascerie from warre.

9 The * women of my people haue seeke out from their pleasant houses, from their children haue ye taken away my glory for euer.

10 Arise ye and depart, for this is not your rest; because it is polluted, it shall destroy you euen with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and faithfull, doe lie, saying, I will prophesie vnto thee of wine and of strong drinke, he shall can be the Prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Iacob, all of thee, I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheepe of Boorah, as the flocke in the middle of their fold; they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come vp before them: they haue broken vp, and haue passed throw the gate, and are gone out by it, and their King shall passe before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAP. III.

3 The cruelty of the Princes. 5 The fulfild of the Prophets. 8 The fearety of them both.

And I said, Hearre, I pray you, O heads of Iacob, and ye Princes of the house of Israel: Is it not for you to know iudgement?

2 Who hate the good, and love the euill, who placke off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones.

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and they their haunce from off them, and they becke their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the poore, and as flesh within the cauldron.

4 Then shall they cry vnto the LORD, but hee will not heare them: he will can hide his face from them at that time, as they haue behoued themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD concerning the Pro-

... that make my people ... like with their teeth, and cry, Peace: & see that patrech she into their mouths, they shall prepare warre against him.

6 Therefore night shall be unto you & that yee shall not have a vision, and it shall be darke unto you, & that yee shall not divine: and the Sun shall goe downe over the Prophets, and the day shall be darke over them.

7 Then shall the Seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their eyes, for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD, and of judgement, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sinnes.

9 I desire this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Joseph, and Princes of the house of Israel, that abandon judgement, and pervert all equity.

10 Why build ye Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 Therefore heere thereof indige for reward, and the Princes thereof teach for hire, and the Prophets thereof, mine for money: yet will they leave vp-on the high, & say, Is not the LORD among vs? some will can come vpon vs.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heapes, and the mountains of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The glory, 2 peace, & kingdom, 11 and with the church.

1 In the last dayes it shall come to passe, and I will build the mourning of the house of the LORD shall be: & God in the top of the mountaines, and I shall talked above the hill, and people shall

2 All nations shall come, and say, Come, and let vs goe vp to the mountaines of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob, and he will teach vs of his wayes, and we will walke in his paths: for the Law shall goe forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall iudge among many people, and he shall among nations as a ree, and they shall beat their swords into plow-shares, and their spears into pruning hookes: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But they shall sit every man vnder his vine, and vnder his fig-tree, and none shall make them afraid, for the mouth of the LORD shall be spoken it.

5 For all people will walke every one in the Name of his god, and we will walke in the Name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that hath beene scattered, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted.

7 And I will make her that is halsted a restless, and her that was cast far off, a strong nation, and the LORD shall reside with them in mount Zion, from henceforth even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the Socke, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion: vnto thee shall it come, when the last dayes shall be, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? & there is no king in thee: is the Counseller perished: for there hath beene none there: is a woman in the land: for there hath beene none there: is the strong hold, the tower, the high fort, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in trauell: for now shall thou goe forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt see turne to Babylon: there shall thou be deliuered: because the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

10 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye looke vpon Zion.

11 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither vnderstand they his counsell: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floore.

12 Arise, & digh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine borne iron, and I will make thy hookes brasse, & thou shalt heat in pieces many people, and I will consecrate their game vnto the LORD, and the substance vnto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. VI.

1 The birth of Christ: & his kingdom: & 8 his conquest.
Now gather thy selfe in trouper, O daughter of trouper: hee hath laid siege against vs: & they shall mine the Iudge of Israel with a rod vpon the cheeke.

2 But thou & Beth-leem-Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousand of Iudah, yet out of thee shall he come forth vnto me, that is to be ruler in Israel: whose goinge forth hath bene from old, & from everlasting.

3 Therefore will hee giue them vp, vntill the time that she which trauelleth, hath brought forth:
then the remnant of her brethren shall secure vnto
the children of Israel.

4 And he shall stand and I seed in the strength of the LORD, in the Misery of the Name of the LORD his God, and they shall abide: for now shall he be great vnto the ends of the earth.

5 And this warre shall be the peace, when the Af-fyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we rise against him senten shepherds, and eight principall men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria, with the sword, and the Land of Ninued I will entrance thereof: thus shall he deliuer vs from the Assyrian when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall multitude of many people, as a dew from the LORD, as the showers vpon the grasse, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sonnes of men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many people, as a Lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young Lion among the flockes of sheepe, who will hee tear down, both treadeth down, and tear in pieces, and none shall rise.

9 Thine hand shall be lift vp vpon thine aduer-saries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy charres.

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw downe all thy strong holds.

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand, and thou shalt have no more Soothsayers.

13 Thy grauen images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee: and thou shalt no more worship the worke of thine handes.

14 And I will plucke vp thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger, and saw vpon the heathen, as they haue not heard.

CHAP. VII.

1 Gods controuersie for vniuersitie, & for ignorance, 10 for iustice, 16 and for Idolatry.

1 Hearc ye now what the LORD saith, Arise, and thou shalt stand before the mountains, and let the hills heare thy voyce.

2 Hearc ye, O mountains the LORDS controuersie, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controuersie with his people, and he will please with Israel.

3 O my people, what haue I done vnto thee, and wherein haue I wearied thee? testify against mee.

4 For I brought thee vp out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of seruants, and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people remember now what Balak King of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim vnto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myselfe before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a yere old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousand of oxen? shall I give my first borne for my transgressions, the fruit of my body, for the sin of my soule?

8 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to doe iustly, and to looe mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORDS voice cryeth vnto the city, and he that is wise of wisdom shall see thy Name: heare ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the treasures of wickednes in the house of the wicked, and the scale measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitfull weights?

12 Foe the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof haue spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitfull in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee tickle in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy finnes.

14 Thou shalt eate, but not be satisfied, and thy calling downe shall be in the midst of thee, and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliuer: and that which thou desirest, will I giue vp to the sword.

15 Thou shalt sowe, but thou shalt not reape: thou shalt tread the oliuier, but thou shalt not annoynt thee with oyle, and sweet wine, but shalt not drinke wine.

16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the workes of the house of Ahab, and ye walke in their counsel, that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall beare the reproach of my people.

CHAP. VII.

1 The Church complaint of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 pisseth her confidence not in man, but in God: 8 She triumpheth ouer her enemies. 14 God comforteth her by promises, 16 by confusion of she enemies, 26 and by his mercies.

Woe is me, for I am as when they haue gashed the figgines, as the grape glect ninge of the vineage there is no cluster to cutt my soule desired the ripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth, and there is none vpright among men: they all lie in wait for blood: they haue euen every man his brother with a sin.

3 That they may doe euill with both hands earnestly, the Prince stretcheth, and the Judge stretcheth for a reward: and the great man breueth his wickednes desire: so they wrap it vp.

4 The best of them is as a briar: the most vpright is sharper then a thorne hedge: the day of the thy washunen, and thy visitation cometh, now shall be their perplaxity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keepe the doores of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy doore.

6 For the sonne dishonoureth the father: the daughter riseth vp against her mother: the daughter in law against her mother in law: a mans enemies are the men of his owne house.

7 Therefore I will looke vnto the LORD: I will wait for the God of my saluation: my God will heare me.

8 Reioyce not against me, O mine enemies: When I fall, I shall arise: when I sit in dishonour, the LORD shall be a light vnto me.

9 I will beare the indignation of the LORD, because I haue sinned against him, vntill he pleade my cause, and execute iudgement for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall beholde his righteousness.

10 Then shall mine enemy shall see, and shalke shall cower her: which said vnto mee, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall beholde her: now shall they be trodden downe as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy wals are to be built, in that day shall the decree be laye removed.

12 In that day also her wall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress, even to the river, and from Sea to Sea, and from mountaine to mountaine.

13 Nor will stand the land, shall be desolate, because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doing.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flocke of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilend, as in the dayes of old.

15 According to the dayes of thy counting out of the land of Egypt, will I shew vnto him maruolous things.

16 The nations shall see, and bee confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand vpon their mouth: their eares shall be deafe.

17 They shall licketh the dust like a serpent, they shall mooue out of their holes like swormes of the earth, they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall feare because of thee.

18 Who is a God like vnto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for euer, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will truce againe, he will haue compassion vpon vs: he will subdue our iniquities, and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the Sea.

20 Thou wilt performe the truth to Iacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sware vnto our fathers from the dayes of old.

C H A P. I.

The maiestie of God in goodnesse to his people, and fury against his enemies.

The burden of Nineveh. The booke of the vision of Nabum the Elkothite.

1 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth: the LORD revengeth, and is furious, the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and hee referneth his wrath for his enemies.

2 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind, and in the storme, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

3 He rebuketh the Sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bathan Imquith, and Carmel, and the founte of Lebanon languisheth.

4 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burnt at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

5 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fiercenesse of his anger? his fury is powred out like fire, and the rocks are throwne downe by him.

6 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble, and he knoweth them that trust in him.

7 But with an over-running flood he will make an vtter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

8 What doe ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an vtter end: affliction shall not rise vp the second time.

9 For while they be folden together as thornes, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be decouered as stubble fully dry.

10 There is one come out of thee that imagineth enill against the LORD: a wicked counsellor.

11 Thus saith the LORD, Though thy sea quake, and likewise may, yet thus shall they be cut downe when hee shall passe thow: though
I haue afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

12 For now will I brake his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

13 And the LORD hath giuen a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name bee sowne: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image, and the molten image, I will make thy graue, for thou art vile.

14 Behold, upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace.
O Iudah? keepe thy solemn feasts, performe thy vowes: for the wicked shall no more passe thro-row thee, he is vicerly cut off.

C H A P. II.

The fearful and vtilerious armers of God against Ninueh.

1 As thar datheth in pieces, is come vp before thy face: keepe the manition, watch the way, make thy loines strong, fortifie thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Iacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the eneniers haue emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty arm is made red, the valiant maner of his bowe: the charnes shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the firre-trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The charnes shall rage in the streets, they shall instile one against another in the broad wayes:
they shall flame like torches, they shall rna like the lightning.

5 He shall recompense his worthies: they shall stumble in their walke: they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And Huzzab shall be led away captiue, she shall be brought vp, and her maids shall leade her as with the voice of doves, tabring vpon their breasts.

8 But Ninueh is full of old like a pool of water: yet they shall see away. Stand, stand, shall they cry: but none shall looke backe.

9 Take ye the spoile of silver, take the spoile of gold: for there is no end of the store, and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 Shee is empty, and void, and waste, and she hath heart miseth, and the knees smite together, and much paine is in all loynes, and the faces of them all gather blacknesse.

11 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions? where the lion cruel the old lion walked, and the lions whelp, and none made them afraid.

12 The lion did cease in pieces enough for his whelpes, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with raine.

13 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hostes, and I will burne her charnes in the smoke, and the sword shall denoure thy young lions, and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

C H A P. III.

The miserable ruine of Ninueh.

1 Woe to the bloody city, it is all full of lies and robbery, the prey departeth not.

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the railing of the wheelers, and of the prancing horses, and of the iumping charres.

3 The horseman lifteth vp both the bright sword, and the glittering speare, and there is a multitude of slaine, and a great number of carcases: and there is none end of their corpses, they stumble vpon their corpses.

4 Because of the multitude of the whoresomes of the well-famoured harlot, the mistress of witchcraftes, that selleth nations through her whoresdomes, and families through her witchcraftes.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hostes, and I will discover thy skirts vpon thy face, and I will shew the nakednesse of thy nakednesse, and the kingdoms shall see thine.

6 And I will cast abominable filth vpon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a garing stoeke.

7 And it shall come to passe, that all they that looke vpon thee, shall see from thee, and say, Ninueh is laid waste, who will bemoane her? where shall I seeke comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better then? populous No, that was strong among the rivers, that had the waters round about her, whose rampart was the Sea, and her wall was from the Sea?

9 Babylon and Egypt were her strength, and she 99 infinite, Pat and Lubim were thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seeke strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like figtrees with the first ripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be wide open unto thee enemies, the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege: fortifie thy strong holds: goe into clay, and tread the mortar: make strong the brick-kilne.

15 There shall the fire devour thee: the sword shall cut thee off: it shall cease thee up like the cankerworme: make thy selfe many as the locusts. The cankerworme, make thy selfe many as the locusts.

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heauen: the cankerworme spoileth and seeth away.

17 The crowned are as the locusts, and thy captaines as the great grassoppers, which rampe in the hedges in the cold day: but when the Sun ariseth, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

18 Thy shepherds slumber, O King of Assyria: thy fables shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered vpon the mountaignes, and no man gathereth them.

19 There is no healing of thy braiue thy wound is grievous: all that heere the bruit of thee, shall clap the hands ouer thee for vpon whom hath not thy wickednesse passed continually?

CHABAKKUK.

CHAP. I.

1 Unto Habakkuk complaining of the iniquity of the land, 5 is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Caldeans. 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are worse worse.

The burden which Habakkuk the Prophet did see.

1 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not heare! when I cry out vnto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save?

2 Why doest thou shew me iniquity, and cause mee to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise vp strife and contention.

3 Therefore the Law is slacke, and iudgment doeth neuer goe sooth: for the wicked doeth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong iudgement proceedeth.

4 Behold I am among the heathen, and regard, and wonder maruolously: for I will worke a worke in your dayes, which yet will not beleue, though it be told you.

5 For loe, I raise vp the Caldeans, that bitter and fassy nation, which shall march thorow the breadth of the land, to possesse the dwelling places that are not theirs.

6 They are terrible and dreadful: their iudgement & their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

7 Their horses also are swifter then the leopards, and are more fierce, then the evening wolues, and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from farre, they shall see as the Eagle that hasteth to eate.

8 They shall come all for violence: & their faces shall say vp as the East wind, and they shall gather the captiuiety as the sand.

9 And they shall scoff at the Kings, and the Princes shall be a scorn vnto them: they shall deride every strong hold: for they shall heape dust and take it.

10 Then shall his mind change, and hee shall passe ouer and offend, inspiring this his power vnto his god.

11 Art thou not from Caerlesing, O LORD my God: mine holy One: shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for iudgement, and O feaghty God: thou hast established them for correction.

12 Thou art of purer eyes then to behold euill, and canst not looke on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou vpon them that deale treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked deuoureth the man that is more righteous then he?

13 And makest men as the fishes of the Sea, as the creeping things that haue no ruler ouer them.

14 They take vp all of them with the angle: they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they reioyce and are glad.

15 Therefore they sacrifice vnto their net, and burne incense vnto their drag: because by them their portion is fet, and their meat plenteous.

16 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAP. II.

1 Unto Habakkuk waiting for an answer, 5 is shewed that hee must wait by faith. 9 The indignation vpon the Caldean for vsurpation, 13 For comest as a staffe, 15 for drunkenness, 18 and for idleness.

I will stand vpon my watch, and set me vpon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say vnto mee, and what I shall answer when I am reproued.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain vpon tables, that hee may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speake, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it, because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, hisoule which is lifted vp, is not vpright in him: but the iust shall liue by his faith.

5 Yea also, because hee transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth vnto him all nations, and heepeth vnto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take vp a parable against him, and a taunting proverbe against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his: how long? and to him that ladeth himselfe with thicke clay.

7 Shall they not rise vp suddenly that shall bite thee? and awake that shall vex thee? and thou shalt be for bootie vnto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the seruants of the people shall spoile thee; because of mens blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that is conuersed as an euill countenance to his house, & he may set his nest on high, that he may be deliuered from the power of euill.

10 Thou hast confounded shame to thy house, by cutting off many people, & hast cryed against thy house.

11 For the stones shall cry out of the wall, and the beams out of the timber shall answer it.

12 ¶ Woe to him that buildeth a towne with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity.

13 Behold: is it not of the LORD of hostes, that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall waary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 ¶ Woe was him that giueth his neighbour drinke: that putteth thy bottle to him, and maketh him drunken also; that thou mayest looke on their nakedness.

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy forehead be vacouered: the cup of the LORDS right hand shall be turned vnto thee, and thame shall spew shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence of Lebanon that cover thee: and the spoile of beasts which made them afraid, because of mens blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, an of all that dwell therein.

18 ¶ What profiteth the graven image, that the maker thereof hath graven it: the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his worke trusteth therein, to make dumbe idols?

19 Woe was him that saith to the wood, Awake: to the dumbe stone, Arise, it shall teach: behold, it is laid out with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy Temple: & let all the earth keepe silence before him.

C H A P. I I I.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer trembled at Gods mercy. 17 The confidence of his faith.

A Prayer of Habakkuk the Prophet upon Agiooth.

1 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, I reuise thy worke in the middle of the yeeres, in the middell of the yeeres will knowe: in wrath remember mercy.

2 God came from Teman, and the holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

3 And his brightnesse was as the light: he had horns coming out of his hand, and there was the hiding of his power:

4 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coales went forth at his feet.

5 He stoode, and measured the earth: he beheld, and droue vnder the nations, and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetuall hills did bow, his wayes are enclawing.

6 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtaines of the land of Midian did tremble.

7 Was the LORD displeased against the riuers? was thine anger against the riuers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou diddest ride vpon thine horses, and thy charres of saluarion?

8 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oathes of the tribes, when thy word, Selah.

9 Thou diddest cleane the earth with riuers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deepe vttered his voyce, and lift vp his hands on high.

11 The Sunne and Moone stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the striking of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou diddest march thorow the land in indignation: thou diddest thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for saluation of the people, seen for saluarion with thine Arme, thou woundedst the head out of house of the wicked, by discerning y foundation vnto the neck, Selah.

14 Thou diddest strike thorow with his blow the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their reioycing was as to deuoure the poore iustly.

15 Thou diddest walke thorow the sea with thine horses, shewing the heape of great waters.

16 When I heard, my belly trembled: my lips quauered at the voyce: my eare enntred into my bones, and I trembled in my selfe, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he commeth vp vnto the people, he will invade them with his troopes.

17 ¶ Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines: the labour of the Oliue shall fall, and the fields shall yeeld no meat, the stocke shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalle.

18 Yet I will reioyce in the LORD: I will say in the God of my saluation.

19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like Hindes feet, and he will make me to walke vpon mine high places. To the chiefe singer on my stringed instruments.

C H A P. I I I I.

1 Habakkuk in his prayer trembled at Gods wrath against Iudah for diuers sin.

He word of the LORD which came vnto Zephaniah the sonne of Cushi, the sonne of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the dayes of Iosiah the sonne of Amou King of Iudah.

1 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

2 I will consume man and beast: I will consume the foules of the heauen, and the fishes of the sea, and the I stumbling blockes with the wicked, and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast: I will consume the foules of the heauen, and the fishes of the sea, and the I stumbling blockes with the wicked, and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out mine hand vpon Iudah, and vpon all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the Priests.

5 And them that worship the hoste of heauen vpon the house tops, and them that worship, and that sweare by the LORD, and that sweare by Malcham:

6 And them that are turned backe from the LORD, and those that haue not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord God: for the day of the LORD is at hand: see the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice: he hath f hid his guests.

8 And it shall come to passe, in the day of the LORDS sacrifice, that I will f punish the Princes, and the Kings children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leape on the threshold, which fill their masters houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the nigh-gate, and an howling from the second, and a great cralling from the hills.

11 Howle, ye inhab.ers of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down: all they that beare silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to passe at that time, that I will search (er I slay) with candles, and punish the men that are f sealed on their loes, that lay in their heart, the LORD will not doe good, neither will he doe evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhahze them, and they shall plant vineyards, but not drinke the wine thereof.

14 The great day of f LORDS wraoth, it is come, and wraoth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of wraoth, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wraoth and desolation, a day of darkness and gloomynesse, a day of clouds and thicke darkness:

16 A day of the trumpet, and alarme against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walke like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood shall be powdered out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wraoth, but the whole land shall be despoiled by the fire of his iudgement: for hee shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 2 The inhabitants of the Philistines, 3 Of Moab and Ammon.

4 Of Ethiopia and Assyria.

5 Gather you selves together, yea, gather together, O nation if not desired, before the decree bring forth, before the day passe as the chaffe, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORDS anger come upon you.

6 Seek ye the LORD, all ye macks of the earth, which have wrought his iudgement, seeke righteousness, seeke meeknesse: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORDS anger.

7 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Askelon a desolation: they shall drine out Asdod at the same day, and Ekron shall be rooted vp.

8 Voe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast: the nation of the Cherethites, the word of the LORD is against you: O Caanan, the land of the Philistines, I will ouer destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

9 And the Sea coast shall be dwellings, and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

10 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Iudah, they shall feed thereupon, in the houses of Askelon that they lie downe in the evening: f for the LORD their God shall visit them, and take away their captiuitie.

9 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revellings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

10 Therefore sa I haue, saith the LORD of hostes, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and Saltpits, & a perpetual desolation, the residue of my people shall spoile them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

11 This shall they haue for their pride, because they haue reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hostes.

12 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will f famish all the gods of the earth, and men shall worship him, every one from his place, men all the likes of the heathen.

13 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

14 And hee will stretch out his hand against the North, and destroy Assyria, and will make Ninueh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

15 And flocks shall lie downe in the midst of her: all the beasts of the nations, both the f Coragorax and the Bitterns shall f lodge in the f upper bents of it: their voice shall sing in the windows, desolation shall lie in the thresholds: f for hee shall overcome the Cedar worke.

16 This is the reioycing city that dwelt excedly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside mee: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie downe in: every one that passeth by her, shall hiss, and wag his hand.

5 Shee obeyed not the voyce: shee received not correction: shee trusted not in the LORD; shee drew not neere to her God.

6 Her Princes within her are roaring f Lyons: her Iudges are enuening wolues, they gaue not the bones till the morrow.

7 Her Prophets are light and treacherous persons: her Priests haue polluted the Sanctuary, they haue done violence to the Law.

8 The iust LORD is in the midst thereof: hee will not doe iniquity: f every morning doeth he bring his iudgement to light, hee felleth not; but the vnjust knowe eth no shame.

9 I haue cut off the nations: their f towers are desolate: I made their strongs waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

10 I said, Surely I on will feare me: thou wilt receive instruction: so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

11 Therefore waite ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I sit vp to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdom, to pouere vpon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: f for all the earth shall be desoyned with fire of my iudgement.

12 For then will I bring to the people a pure f language, that they may all call vpon the Name of the LORD, to serue him with one f consent.

12 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poore people: and they shall trust in the Name of the LORD.

1 Haggai representeth the people for neglecting the building of the house. 2 He inviteth them to the building. 3 He promisseth Gods assistance to them being forward.

IN the second yeere of Darius the King, in the first month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet vnto Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, Governour of Iudah, and to Iosiah the son of Iosedech the high Priest, saying,

1 Thus speaketh the LORD of hostes, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORDS house should be build.

2 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet, saying,

3 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your siled houses, and this house is waste?

4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hostes, Consider your wayes.

5 Ye haue sown much, and bring in little: ye eat, but ye haue not enough: ye drinke, but ye are not filled with drinke: ye clothe you; but there is none warme: and he that earneth wages, earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Consider your wayes.

7 Goe vp to the mountaine, and bring wood, and build the house, and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

8 ¶ Ye looked for much, and loe it came to little: and when ye brought it home, I did blow vpon it: Why, saith the LORD of hostes? because of mine house that is waste, and ye rume euery man vnto his owne house.

9 Therefore the heauen ouer you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from fruit.

10 And I called for a drought vpon the land, and vpon the mountaine, and vpon the corne, and vpon the new wine, & vpon the oyle, & vpon that which the ground bringeth forth, and vpon men, and vpon euery thing, and vpon all the labour of the hands.

11 ¶ Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Iosiah the son of Iosedech the high Priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the Prophet, (for the LORD their God had sent him) and the people did feare before the LORD.

12 Then spake Haggai the LORDS messenger in the LORDS message vnto the people saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

13 And the LORD stirred vp the spirit of Zerubbabel the Sonne of Shealtiel, Governour of Iudah, and the spirit of Iosiah the son of Iosedech the high Priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people, and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hostes their God.

14 In the foure and twentieth day of the first moneth, in the second yeere of Darius the King.

IN the ianenth month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the Prophet Haggai, saying,

1 Speake now to Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, Governour of Iudah, and to Iosiah the son of Iosedech the high Priest, and to the residue of the people saying,

2 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how doe yee see it now? Is it not in your eyes, in comparison of it as nothing?

3 ¶ Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD, and be strong, O Iosiah son of Iosedech the high Priest, and be strong all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and worke: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hostes.

4 ¶ According to the word that I covenanted with you, when ye came out of Egypt, so my Spirit remaineth among you, Feare ye not.

5 For thus saith the LORD of hostes, Yet once it is a little while, and I will shake the heauens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land.

6 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come, and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hostes.

7 The siluer is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hostes.

8 The glory of this latter house shall be greater then of the former, saith the LORD of hostes: and in this place will I giue peace, saith the LORD of hostes.

11 in the second yeere of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the Prophet, saying,
 11 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Alas now the Priests concerning the Law, saying,
 12 If one beare holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt doe touch bread, or potage, or wine, or oyle, or any meate, shall it be holy? And the Priests answered, and said, No.
 13 Then said Haggai, If one that is vncleane by a fleed body, touch any of these, shall it be vncleane? And 5 Priests answered, & said, It shall be vncleane.
 14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every worke of their hands, and that which they offer there, is vncleane.
 15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and vppward, from before a stone was laid vpon a stone in the Temple of the LORD.
 16 Sixe thofte dayes were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the presse-lat for to draw out fiftie wassels out of the presse, there were but twenty.
 17 I smote you with blasting, and with mildew, and with haille in all the labours of your hands: yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and vppward, from the foure and twentieth day of the month weath, came from the day that the foundation of the LORDS Temple was laid, consider it.
 19 Is the seed yet in the barnes? yet the vine and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.
 20 ¶ And againe, the word of the LORD came vnto Haggai, in the foure and twentieth day of the month, saying,
 21 Speake to Zerubbabel Governour of Iudah, saying, I will shake the heauens and the earth.
 22 And I will overthrow the thrones of kinges domes, and I will destroy the strength of the high domes of the heathen, and I will overthrow the charots and those that ride in them, and the horses and their riders shall come downe, every one by the sword of his brother.
 23 In that day, saith the LORD of hostes, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel my seruant, the summe of Sheraziel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I haue chosen thee, saith the LORD of hostes.

1 Zachariah vnto Zerubbabel to reuerent. 7 The vision of the hornes. 12 As the prayer of the Angels, comfortable promise, first made in Ierusalem. 18 The vision of the foure hornes, and the foure Carpenters.

IN the eighth month, in the second yeere of Darius, came the word of the LORD vnto Zachariah the soune of Barachiah, the soune of Iddo the Prophet, saying,

1 The LORD hath bene 4 sore displeas'd with your fathers.
 2 Therefore say thou vnto them, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Turne ye vnto me, saith the LORD of hostes, and I will turne vnto you, saith the LORD of hostes.

3 Be ye not as your fathers, vnto whom the former Prophets haue cryed, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Turne ye now from your euill wayes, and from your euill doings: but they did not heare, nor hearken vnto me, saith the LORD.
 4 Your fathers, where are they? and the Prophets, doe they liue for ever?

5 But my words and my Statutes which I commanded my seruants the Prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned, and said, Like as the LORD of hostes thought to doe vnto vs, according to our wayes, and according to our doings: so hath he dealt with vs.
 6 ¶ Vpon the foure and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the twentieth Sebat, in the second yeere of Darius, came the word of the LORD vnto Zachariah, the soune of Barachiah, the son of Iddo, the Prophet, saying,

7 I saw by night, and beholds man riding vpon a red horse, and hee had among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom, and behind him were 3 other red horses, 1 speckled and white.
 8 Then said I, O my Lord, what are these? And the Angel that talked with me, said vnto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among 4 myrtle trees answered, & said, These are they, whom the LORD hath sent to walke to and fro thorow the earth.
 11 And they answered the Angel of the LORD, that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We haue walked to and fro thorow the earth: and behold all the earth steech still, and is at rest.
 12 ¶ Then the Angel of the LORD answered, and said, O LORD of hostes, how long wilt thou not haue mercy on Ierusalem, and on the cities of Iudah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten yeeres?

13 And the LORD answered the Angel that talked with me, with good words, & comfortable words.
 14 So the Angel that communed with mee, said vnto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, I am 3 jealous for Ierusalem, and for Zion, with a great jealousy.
 15 And I am very sore displeas'd with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeas'd, and they helped forward the affliction.
 16 Therefore, thus saith the LORD, I am returned to Ierusalem with mercies, my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hostes, and a line shall be stretched forth vpon Ierusalem.
 17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hostes, My cities through 4 prosperity shall yet be spread abroad, and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet chuse Ierusalem.

18 ¶ Then lift I vp mine eyes and saw, and behold, foure hornes.
 19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.
 20 And the LORD shewed me foure Carpenters.
 21 Then said I, What come these to doe? And hee spake, saying, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, so that no man did lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the hornes of the Gouernes, which lift vp their borne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

18 ¶ Then lift I vp mine eyes and saw, and behold, foure hornes.
 19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.
 20 And the LORD shewed me foure Carpenters.
 21 Then said I, What come these to doe? And hee spake, saying, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, so that no man did lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the hornes of the Gouernes, which lift vp their borne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

18 ¶ Then lift I vp mine eyes and saw, and behold, foure hornes.
 19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.
 20 And the LORD shewed me foure Carpenters.
 21 Then said I, What come these to doe? And hee spake, saying, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, so that no man did lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the hornes of the Gouernes, which lift vp their borne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

18 ¶ Then lift I vp mine eyes and saw, and behold, foure hornes.
 19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.
 20 And the LORD shewed me foure Carpenters.
 21 Then said I, What come these to doe? And hee spake, saying, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, so that no man did lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the hornes of the Gouernes, which lift vp their borne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

18 ¶ Then lift I vp mine eyes and saw, and behold, foure hornes.
 19 And I said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these? And hee answered me, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, Israel, and Ierusalem.
 20 And the LORD shewed me foure Carpenters.
 21 Then said I, What come these to doe? And hee spake, saying, These are the hornes which haue scattered Iudah, so that no man did lift vp his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the hornes of the Gouernes, which lift vp their borne ouer the land of Iudah to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

1 God in the care of Jerusalem, sentish to us say is. 4 The redemption of Zion, is The promise of Gods presence.

1 Lift up mine eyes againe, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said vnto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And behold, the Angel that talked with me, went forth, & another Angel went out to meet him;

4 And said vnto him, Runne, speake to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as townes without walles, for the multitude of men and cattell therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be vnto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ No, no, come her, and see from the land of the North, saith the LORD: for I haue spread you abroad as the foure winds of the heauen, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thy selfe, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

8 For this saith the LORD of hostes, After the glory hath he sent me vnto the nations which spoiled you; for he that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For behold, I will shake mine hand vpon them, and they shall be a spoile to their seruants: and yee shall know that the LORD of hostes hath said me.

10 ¶ Sing and reioyce, O daughter of Zion: for loe, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be ioyned to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: I and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hostes hath sent me vnto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherite Iudah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem againe.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised vp out of his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

1 Under the type of Ioshua, the restoration of the Church. 2 Christ the branch is promised.

And he shewed me Ioshua the high Priest, standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

2 And the LORD said vnto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan, enen the LORD that hath choosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee. Is not this a brand pluckt out of the fire?

3 Now Ioshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the Angel.

4 And hee answered, and spake vnto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And vnto him he said, Behold, I haue caused thine iniquity to passe from thee, & I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them see a faire Mitre vpon his head. So they set a faire Mitre vpon his head, and clothed him with garments, and the Angel of the LORD said he.

6 And the Angel of the LORD protested vnto Ioshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, If thou wilt walke in my wayes, and if thou wilt keepe my charge, then thou shalt also iudge my house, and shalt also keepe my Courts, and I will giue thee places to walke among these that stand by.

8 Heere now, O Ioshua the high Priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondrous at: for behold, I will bring fourth my seruants the BRANCH.

9 For behold, the stone that I haue laid before Ioshua: vpon one stone shall be seuen eyes, behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hostes, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hostes, shall ye call euery man his neighbour vnder the vine, and vnder the figtree.

CHAP. IIII.

1 By the golden Candlesticke is foretold the good success of Zerubbabels foundation. 12 By the two olive trees, the two anointed ones.

And the Angel that talked with mee, came againe and walked me, at a man that is warmed out of his sleepe:

2 And said vnto mee, What seest thou? And I said, I haue looked, and behold, a Candlesticke all of gold, with a bowle vpon the top of it, and his seuen lampes thereon, and seuen pipes to the seuen lampes, which were vpon the top thereof.

3 And two olive trees by it, one vpon the right side of the bowle, and the other vpon the left side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the Angel that talked with me, saying, What are these my lord?

5 Then the Angel that talked with mee, answered, and said vnto mee, Knowest thou not what these be? and I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered, and spake vnto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD vnto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the LORD of hostes.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plaine, and he shall bring forth the head stone thereof with shoutings, saying, Grace, grace, vnto it.

8 Moreover, the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel haue laid the foundation of this house: his hands shall also finish it, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hostes hath sent me vnto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall reioyce, and shall see the planer in the hand of Zerubbabel with chaste stones: they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro thorow the whole earth.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said vnto him, What are these two olive trees vpon the right side of the Candlesticke, and vpon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered againe, and said vnto him, What be these two olive branches, which through the two golden pipes empty the golden vnto the oil of themselves?

13 And he answered me, and said, Knowest thou not what these be? and I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

1 By the signe of the curse is shewed the curse of shepherds, and shepherds. 5 By a woman pressed in as a saphire, the final damnation of Babylon.

Then I turned, and lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and behold, a flying roule.

2 And he said vnto me, What seest thou? and I answered, I see a flying roule, the length thereof is twenty cubites, and the breadth thereof ten cubites.

Then

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse, that goeth fourth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on this side, according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side, according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thick, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my Name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it, with the timber thereof, and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the Angel that talked with mee, went forth, and said unto me, Lift vp now thine eyes, see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an Ephah that goeth forth. Hee said moreover, This is their resemblance thorow all the earth.

7 And behold, there was lift vp a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sateth in the midst of the Ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickednes, and hee cast it into the midst of the Ephah, and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lift I vp mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings (for they had wings like the wings of a Storke) and they lift vp the Ephah betweene the earth and the heauen.

10 Then said I to the Angel that talked with me, Whicher do these beare the Ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar, and it shall be established, and sit there vpon her owne base.

CHAP. VI.

1 The vision of the foure chariots. 2 By the promer of Iosua, it showed the Temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

1 And I turned, and lift vp mine eyes, and looked, and behold, there came foure chariots out from between two mountains, and the mountains were monuments of brass.

2 In the first chariot were red horses, and in the second chariot blacke horses.

3 And in the third chariot white horses, and in the fourth chariot grized and bay horses.

4 Then I answered, and said vnto the Angel that talked with me, What are these my LORD?

5 And the Angel answered, and said vnto mee, These are the foure Spirits of the beatusus, which goe fourth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The blacke horses which are therein goe forth into the North country, and the white goe forth after them, and the grized goe fourth toward the South country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to goe, that they might walke to and fro thorow the earth, and hee said, Get yee hence, walke to and fro thorow the earth: so they walked to and fro thorow the earth.

8 Then cryed he vpon me, & spake vnto me, saying, Behold, these that goe toward the North country, haue quieted my spirit in the North country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came vnto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, saw of Hel-dan, of Tobijah, and of Iedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, & goe into the house of Iosua the sone of Zephaniah.

11 They take silver, and gold, and make crownes, and set them vpon the head of Iosua the sone of Iedaiah the high Priest.

11 And I spake vnto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold, the man whose Name is the BRANCH, and he shall grow vp out of his place, and he shall build the Temple of the LORD:

12 Euen he shall build the Temple of the LORD, and he shall beare the glory, and shall sit and rule vpon his Throne, and he shall be a Priest vpon his Throne, and the counsell of peace shall be betweene them both.

13 And the crowne shall bee to Helkem, and to Tobijah, and to Iedaiah, and to Hen the sone of Zephaniah, for a memoriall in the Temple of the LORD.

14 And they that are fore off, shall come and build in the Temple of the LORD, and yee shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent mee vnto you. And this shall come to passe, if yee will diligently obey the voyce of the LORD your God.

CHAP. VII.

1 The captiues enquire of fasting, & Zechariab reprehendeth their fasting. 2 Since the cause of their captivity.

1 And it came to passe in the fourth yere of A King Darus, that the word of the LORD came vnto Zechariab, in the fourth day of the ninth month, euen in Chislen.

2 When they had sent vnto the house of God, Serezer, and Regem-melech, and their sicken to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speake vnto the Priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the Prophets, saying, Should I weepe in fast month, separating my selfe, as I haue done these so many yeres?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts vnto me, saying,

5 Speake vnto all the people of the land, and to the Priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seuenth month, from the thirtieth yeres: did yee at all fast vnto me, then to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drinke, I did not yee eate for your selues, and drinke for your selues?

7 ¶ Should yee not heare the words which the LORD hath cried by the former Prophets, when Ierusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the South of the plaines?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came vnto Zechariab, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Excuse true iudgement, and show mercy and compassions euery man to his brother.

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherlesse, the stranger, nor the poore, & let none of you imagine euill against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their eares, that they should not heare.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an Adramelech stone, lest they should heare the Law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his Spirit by the former Prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to passe, so that as hee cryed, and they would not heare: so they cryed, and I would not heare, saith the LORD of hosts.

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind, among all the nations whom they knew not: thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed thorow nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

CHAR.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The restoration of Jerusalem. 9 They are encouraged to the building, by Gods favour to them. 16 Good works are required of them, 18 Joy and enlargement are promised.

Again, the word of the LORD of hostes came unto me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called a citie of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hostes, The holy mountaine.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, There shall yet old men, and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staffe in his hand: for very age.

5 And the streets of the citie shall bee full of boys and girles, playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these dayes, should it also be marvellous in my eyes, saith the LORD of hostes?

7 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Behold, I will save my people from the East country, and from the West country.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, Let your hands be strong, ye that heare in these dayes these words by the mouth of the Prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hostes was laid, that the Temple might be built.

10 For before these dayes, there was no peace for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men, every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not see vnto the residue of this people as in the former dayes, saith the LORD of hostes.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous: the vine shall giue her fruit, and the ground shall giue her increase, and the heavens shall giue their dew, and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to passe, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Iudah, and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing, feare not, for your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So againe have I thought in these dayes to doe well vnto Jerusalem, and to the house of Iudah: feare ye not.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Father to the widow, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Father to the widow, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Father to the widow, saith the LORD of hosts.

17 And let none of you imagine euill in your hearts against his neighbour, & looke no false oath; for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

18 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Father to the widow, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will be a Father to the fatherless, and a Father to the widow, saith the LORD of hosts.

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth shall be to the house of Iudah joy and gladnesse, and cheerefull: for I will therefore loose the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hostes: It shall yet come to passe that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many citie.

21 And the inhabitants of one citie shall goe to another, saying, Let vs goe quickly to pray before the LORD, and to seeke the LORD of hostes: I will goe also.

22 Yea, many people, and strong nations shall come to seeke the LORD of hostes in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hostes, In those dayes shall many come to passe, that ten men shall take hold of one mans girdle, three shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, Wee will goe with you: for wee haue heard that God is with you.

CHAP. IX.

1 God defendeth his Church, 3 Zio is exhorted to rejoice for the coming of Christ, to his peaceable kingdom. 12 Gods promises of victory & defence.

The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Iudah, and Damascus: for the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby: Tyrus and Sidon, though it be very wile.

3 And Tyrus did build her selfe a strong hold, and heaped vp silver as the dust, and fine gold as the myrrour of the street.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea, and she shall be denouered with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and Asdod also shall see it: and they shall be very sorrowfull, and Ekron: for her expectation shall be ashamed, and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastion shall dwell in Asdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even hee shall be for our God, and he shall be as a gouernour in Iudah, and Ekron as a Iebusite.

8 And I will encampe about mine house, because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall passe thorow them any more: for now haue I seene with mine eyes.

9 Reioyce greatly, O daughter of Zion, shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: Behold, thy King cometh vnto thee: he is iust, and hauing saluacion, lowly, and riding vpon an asse, and vpon a colt the foale of an asse.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem: and the battell bow shall be cut off, and he shall speake peace vnto the heathen, & his dominion shall be from Ieruen to Ier, & from the river, even vnto the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, O ye blood of thy covenant, I haue sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit, wherein is no water.

12 I turne ye to the strong hold, yee prisoners of hope, euen to day doe I declare that I will render double vnto thee:

13 When I haue beat Iudah for mee, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised vp thy stones, O Zion, against thy enemies, O Greece, and mount that as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be for our defence, and his arrow shall goe forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall goe with whirlwinds of the South.

15 The LORD of hostes shall defend them, and they shall denounce, and I shall subdue with sling-stones, and they shall drinke and make a noise, as through wine, and they shall be filled like bowles, and as the corners of the Altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flocke of his people, for they shall be as the flocks of a crowne filled vp as an ensigne vpon his land.

17 For how great is his goodnesse, and how great is his beauty? come shall make the young men cheerefull, and new wine the maids.

CHAP. X.

God is to be sought vnto, and not idoles. As he visited his flocke for sinne, so he will save and restore them.

1 The voice of the LORD raie in the time of the latter raie, so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of raie, to enery one graffe in the field.

2 For the idols haue spoken vanity, and the diuiners haue seen a lie, and haue told false dreames, they comfort in vaine: therefore they went their way as a flocke, they were troubled, because there was no shepheard.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hostes hath visited his flocke the house of Iudah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battell.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the snail, out of him the battell bow, out of him a very oppressour together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the flocks in the battell, as they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Iudah, and I will save the house of Ioseph, and I will bring them againe to place them, for I haue mercy vpon them: and they shall bee as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will heare them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall reioyce as through wine yet, their children shall see it, and be glad, their heart shall reioyce in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and gather them, for I haue redeemed them: and they shall increase as they haue increased.

9 And I will fowe them among the people, and they shall remember me in farre countreys, and they shall live with their children, and turne againe.

10 I will bring them againe also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon, and place shall not be found for them.

11 And hee shall passe thorow the Sea, with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the Sea, and all the depes of the riuers shall dry vp: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought downe, and the Scepter of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD, and they shall walke vp and downe in his Name, saith the LORD.

CHAP. XI.

The destructions of Ierusalem. The Elders being swayed for, the rest were visited. The flames of Beauty and Bands broken by the victorious of Ierusalem. The rage and curse of a foolish shepheard.

Open thy doores, O Lebanon, that the fire may denounce thy Cedars.

1 Howle Fir-tree, for the Cedar is false, because all the I mighties are spoiled; howle, O ye Oakes of Bashan, for y forest of the vintage is come downe.

2 There is a voyce of the howling of the shepherds: for their glory is spoiled: a voyce of the rising of young lions, for pride of Iordan is spoiled.

3 Thus saith the LORD my God, Feed the flocke of the slaughter;

4 Whose possessours slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them, say, Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

5 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but loe, I will deliver the que, enery one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of his King, and they shall smite the land, and but of their hand I will not deliver them.

6 And I will feed the flocke of slaughter, messe you, O poore of the flocke: and Iooke vnto me two flocks, the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands, and I fed the flocke.

7 Three shepherds also I cut off in one moneth, and my soule was loathed them, and their soule also abhorred me.

8 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat enery one the flesh of another.

9 And Iooke my staffe, curre Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might brake my covenant which I had made with all the people.

10 And it was broken in that day: and so I the poore of the flocke that waited vpon mee, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

11 And I said vnto them, If yee thinke good giue mee my price: and if not, forbear: so they were weighed for my price, thirtie pieces of silver.

12 And the LORD said vnto me, Cast it vnto the potter: a goodly price, that I was prized at of them. And Iooke the thirtie pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

13 Then I cut asunder mine other staffe, curre Bands, that I might breake the brotherhood betwene Iudah and Israell.

14 And the LORD said vnto me, Take vnto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepheard.

15 For loe, I will raise vp a shepheard in the land, which shall not visite those that be cut off, neither shall seeke the young one, nor heale that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of fat, & teare their clawes in pieces.

16 Woe to the idle shepheard, that leaneth the flocke: the foward shall be vpon his arme, and vpon his right eye: his arme shall be cleane dried vp, and his right eye shall be vexed and duncled.

CHAP. XII.

Ierusalem a cup of trembling to her selfe, & a lowdesome stone to her aduersaries. The victorious restoring of Iudah. The repentance of Ierusalem.

1 The burden of the word of the LORD for Ierusalem, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Ierusalem a cup of trembling vnto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege, both against Iudah, and against Ierusalem.

3 Iudah shall be de, which shall be in siege against I

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burden some floor for all people: all that burden themselves with it, shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness, and I will open mine eyes vpon the house of Judah, and I will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the gouernours of Iudah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Ierusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hostes their God.

6 In that day will I make the gouernours of Iudah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall demoure all the people round about, on the right hand, and on the left: and Ierusalem shall be inhabited againe in her owne place, as in Ierusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Iudah first, that the glory of the house of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Ierusalem doe not magnifie themselves against Iudah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and he that is feeble among them at that day, shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the Angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to passe in that day, that I will smite, & destroy all the nations that come against Ierusalem.

10 And I will poure vpon the house of David, and vpon the inhabitants of Ierusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications, and they shall looke vpon vs whom they haue pierced, and they shall mourne for him, as one mourneth for his onely son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitternesse for his first borne.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Ierusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourne, & every family apart: the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathain apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimeon apart, and their wives apart:

14 All the families that remaine, euery family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The foueraignes of purgation in Ierusalem, a from idolatry and false prophesie. 7 the death of Christ, and the trial of a third part.

In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Ierusalem for sinne, and for vncleannesse.

2 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD of hostes, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land: and they shall no more be remembered: and alse I will cause the Prophets and the vncleane spirit to passe out of the land.

3 And it shall come to passe, that when any shall prophesie, then his father and his mother that begat him, shall say vnto him, Thou shalt not heere for thou speakest lies in the Name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him, shall thereat hit thowen when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the Prophets shall be ashamed euery one of his vision, when he hath prophesied: neither shall they weare a rough garment, nor to decline.

5 Thus he shall say, I was no Prophet, I was a busband-man: for man taught me to keepe counsel from my youth.

6 And one shall say vnto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then hee shall answer:
These with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hostes: smite the Shepherd, and the sheepe shall be scattered, and I will turne mine hand vpon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to passe, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off, and die, but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part thorow the fire, & will refine them as silver is refined: and will try them as gold is tryed: they shall call on my Name: and I will heare them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.
CHAP. XIII.

1 The destroyers of Ierusalem destroyed. 4 The commoy of Christ and the graces of his kingdom 11 The plague of Ierusalem counter. 16 The remenants shall serue to the Lord. 20 And their spirits shall be holy.

Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoile shall be diuided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Ierusalem to battell, and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women rauished, and halfe of the city shall goe fourth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Thus shall the LORD goe fourth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battell.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day vpon the mount of Oliues, which is before Ierusalem on the East, and the mount of Oliues shall cleaue in the middle thereof toward the East, and toward the West, and there shall be a very great valley, and halfe of the mountaine shall remoue toward the North, and halfe of it toward the South.

5 And ye shall see to the valley of the moun-taines: for the valley of the mountaines shall reach vnto Azat, ye shall see like as ye had from before the earthquake, in the dayes of Vnias King of Iudah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the heathens with thee.

6 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the light shall not be cleare, nor darke.

7 But it shall be one day, which shall be knowne to the LORD, not day nor night: but it shall come to passe, that at evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that the lining waters shall goe out from Ierusalem: halfe of them toward the former sea, and halfe of them toward the hie-der leat in summer, and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall bee King ouer all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his Name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a plaine, from Gebza to Buxton, South of Ierusalem: and it shall be lifted vp, and inhabited in her place: a from Beniamin gate vnto the place of the first gate, vnto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananiel vnto the Kings wise peller.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more wrec destruction: but Ierusalem shall be saiely inhabited.

12 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that haue fought against Ierusalem: & their flesh shall consume away, while they stand vpon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

17 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them, and they shall lay hold euery one on the hand of his neighbour; and his hand shall rise vp against the head of his neighbour.

18 And Iudah also shall fight for Ierusalem, and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold and siluer, and apparell in great abundance.

19 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camell, and of the asse, and of all the beasts that shall be in their tents, as this plague.

20 And it shall come to passe, that euery one that is left of all the nations which came against Ierusalem, shall euen goe vp from yeare to yeare to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

21 And it shall be, that whose will not stand vp of all the families of the earth vnto Ierusalem, to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, euen vpon them shall be no raine.

22 And if the family of Egypt goe not vp, and come not, that they haue no raine: there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not vp to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

23 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not vp to keepe the feast of Tabernacles.

24 In that day shall there be vpon the i bolts of the doores, HOLINESSE VNTO THE LORD, and the pots in the LORDS house shall be like the bowles before the Altar.

25 Iudah, euery pot in Ierusalem, and in Iudah shall be holinesse vnto the LORD of hosts, and all they that sacrifice shall come & take of them, and serue therein, and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI.

CHAP. I.

Malachi complaineth of Israels wickednesse, of their irreligionnesse, 22 and profanenesse.

The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

1 I haue loved you, saith the LORD yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved vs? was not Esau Jacobs brother, saith the LORD? yet I loved Jacob.

2 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountaines and his heritage waste, for the dragons of the wilderness.

3 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished; but we will recteme and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw downe; and they shall call them, The burder of wickednesse, and the people against whom the LORD hath indignation for euer.

4 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD hath magnified his border of Israel.

5 A son honoureth his father, and a seruant his master. If I be a father, where is mine honour? & if I be a master, where is my feare, saith the LORD of hosts, vnto you, O priests, that despise my Name; and ye say, Wherein haue we despised thy Name?

6 Ye offer polluted bread vpon mine Altar, and ye say, Wherein haue we polluted thee? in that ye say, The Table of the LORD is contemptible.

7 And if ye offer the blinde for sacrifice, is it not euill? and if ye offer the lame and sicke, is it not euill? offer it now vnto thy gouernour: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person, saith the LORD of hosts?

8 And now I pray you, beseech the God, that hee will be gracious vnto vs: this hath been by your means: will hee regard your persons, saith the LORD of hosts?

9 Who is there euen among you that would shut the doores for soughs? neither doe ye kinde fire on mine Altar for nought. I haue no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

10 For from the rising of the Sunne, euen vnto the going downe of the same, my Name shall be great among the Gentiles, and in euery place incense shall be offered vnto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

11 The Table of the LORD is polluted, and the freer thereof, vpon his meat is contemptible.

12 Ye said also, Behold, what a wearinesse is it, and I ye haue fasted that which was the LORD of hosts, and ye brought that which was rotte, and the lame and the sicke: thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand, saith the LORD?

13 But cursed be the deconer, which hath in his focke a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth vnto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my Name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAP. II.

He severely reproveth the Priests for neglecting their couenant, 22 and the people for idolatry, 24 for adultery, 27 and for infidelitie.

And now, O ye Priests, that contemned me, say you.

1 If ye will not heare, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory vnto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will euen send a curse vpon you, and will curie your blessings: yea, I haue curied them already, because ye doe not lay it to heart.

2 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and I spread dung vpon your faces, euen the dung of your swelme testis, and I will take you away with it.

3 And ye shall know that I haue sent this commandment vnto you, that my Couenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 My Couenant was with him of life and peace, and I gaue them to him, for the feare wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my Name.

5 The Law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did trauel many way from iniquitie.

6 For the Priests lips should keepe knowledge, and they should seeke the Law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

7 But ye are departed out of the way: ye haue caused many to stumble at the Law: ye haue corrupted the Couenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 Therefore haue I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye haue not kept:

keeps my wayes, but I haue bin partiall in the Law.
10 Howe we not all one Father? hath not one God created vs? Why doe we deale treacherously euery man against his brother, by profaning the Couenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Iudah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Iſrael and in Ierusalem: for Iudah hath profaned the holinesse of LORD which shee loued, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this: the I staffe and the scholier out of the Tabernacles of Iacob, and him that offereth an offering vnto the LORD of holtes.

13 And this haue ye done againe, concerning the Altar of the LORD with teares, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that hee regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? because the LORD hath bene witness betweneether and the wife of thy youth: against whom thou hast deale treacherously; yet is she thy companion and the wife of thy couenant.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he the promise of the spirit: and wherefore one? That hee might seeke a godly seed: therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deale treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD the God of Iſrael saith, that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of holtes, therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deale not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye haue wearied the LORD with your words: yet ye say, Wherein haue we wearied him? when ye say, Every one that doeth euill, is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in euen, or where is the God of Iudgement?

CHAPTER III

1 Of the messenger, Ministry, and grace of Christ by the rebulth, sacrifices, and infidelity of the people. Not be promise of blessing to them that feare God.

Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: the LORD whow ye seeke, shall suddenly come to his Temple: euen the messenger of a Couenant, whom ye delight in: Behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of holtes.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiners fire, and like fullers sope.

3 And hee shall sit as a refiner and purifier of siluer: and hee shall purifie the sonnes of Levi, and purge them as gold and siluer, that they may offer vnto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offerings of Iudah and Ierusalem be pleasure vnto the LORD, as in the dayes of old, and as in former yeeres.

5 And I will come vnto you to Iudgement, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppose the hearing in the wayes, the widow, and the fatherlesse, and that saye an aside the stranger from his right, and despise my say: saith the LORD of holtes.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not: therefore ye sinners of Iacob are not consumed.

7 ¶ Euen from the dayes of your Fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and haue not kept them: Returne vnto me, and I will returne vnto you, saith the LORD of holtes: But ye say, Wherein shall we returne?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? yet ye haue robbed me. But ye say, Wherein haue we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye haue robbed me, says the LORD of holtes.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meet in mine house, and pronounce me now herewith, saith the LORD of holtes, if I will not open you the windows of heauen, and I powre you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receiue it.

11 And I will rebuke the denouer for your sakes: and hee shall not destroy the fruits of your ground, neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of holtes.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the LORD of holtes.

13 ¶ Your words haue bene stout against mee, saith the LORD: yet ye say, What haue we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye haue said, It is vaine to serue God: and what profit is it that wee haue kept his ordinances, and that we haue walked mournfully before the LORD of holtes?

15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that worke wickednesse are set vp, yea, they that tempt God, are euen deliuered.

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD spake of ten one to another, and the LORD hearkned, and heard it, and a booke of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, and that thought vpon his Name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of holtes, in that day when I make vp my jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his owne soule that serueth him.

18 Then shall ye returne and discern betwene the righteous and the wicked: betwene him that serueth God, and him that serueth him not.

CHAPTER IIII

1 Gods iudgements on the wicked, and his blessing on the good. He exhorts to the study of the Law, and teach of Elijahs coming, and office.

Behold, the day cometh that shall burne as an oven, and all the proud, yea, and all that doe wickedly, shall be stubble: & the day that cometh shall burne them vp, saith the LORD of holtes: it shall leaue them neither root, nor branch.

2 ¶ But vnto you that feare my Name shall the Sonne of righteousness arise with healing in his wings, and ye shall goe forth and grow vp as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread downe the wicked: for they shall ashes vnder soles of your feet, in that day that I shall doe this, saith the LORD of holtes.

4 ¶ Remember ye the Law of Moses my seruant, which I commanded vnto him in Horeb, for all Iſrael, with the Statutes and Iudgements.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you Elijah the Prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadfull day of the LORD.

6 And hee shall raise the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come & smite the earth with a curse.

CHAP. I.

1 Jofias his charge to the Priests and Levites.
 2 A great Passover kept: 31 His death is now lamented. 33 His successors. 37 The Temple, cities, and people are destroyed. 56 The vessels are carried into Babylon.

And Jofias held the * feaft of the Passover in Hierusalem unto his Lord, and offered the Passover the fourteenth day of the first month:

2 Having let the Priests according to their duties, being arrayed in long garments in the Temple of the Lord.

3 And he spake unto the Levites, the holy Ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, as for the holy Arke of the Lord in the house that King Solomon the souner of David had built:

4 And said, Ye shall no more beare the Arke upon your shoulders: now therefore searve the Lord your God, and minister unto his people Israel, and prepare you after your families, and kindreds.

5 According as David the King of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his souner: and standing in the Temple, according to the severall dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the peccature of your brethren the children of Israel.

6 Offer the Passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the Passover according to the commandment of the Lord which was given to Moses.

7 And unto the people that was found there, Jofias gave thirty thousand lambs, and kids, & three thousand calves: these things were given of the Kings allowance, according as he promised to the people, to the Priests, and to the Levites.

8 And Helkias, Zacharias, and Sielus the governors of the Temple, gave to the Priests for the Passover, two thousand and six hundred sheeps, and three hundred calves.

9 And Iechonias, and Samaias, and Nathanael his brother, and Asabias, and Ochiel, and Ioram, Captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the Passover, five thousand sheeps, and fifteen hundred calves.

10 And when these things were done, the Priests and Levites, having the vales and bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds.

11 And according to the severall dignities of the fathers before the people, so offer to the Lord, as it is written in the booke of Moyses:

† And thus did they in the morning.

12 And they roasted the Passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in braffe pots and panses with a good flavour.

13 And set them before all the people, and afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the Priests their brethren the souners of Aaron.

14 For the Priests offered the fea: untill night: and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the Priests their brethren the souners of Aaron.

15 The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zacharias, and Iechonias who were * of the Kings retainers.

16 Moreover, the porters were at every gate: it was not lawfull for any to goe from his ordinary service for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

17 Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the Passover.

18 And offer sacrifices upon the Altar of the Lord according to the commandment of King Jofias.

19 So the children of Israel which were present, held the Passover at that time, and the Feast of sweete bread seven dayes.

20 And such a Passover was not kept in Israel, since the time of the Prophet Samuel.

21 Yea, all the Kings of Israel held not such a Passover as Jofias, and the Priests, and the Levites, and the Jewes held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Hierusalem.

22 In the eighteenth yeere of the reigne of Jofias was this Passover kept.

23 And the workes of Jofias were vpright before his Lord, with an heart full of godliness.

24 As for the things that came to passe in his time; they were written in former times concerning those that sinned, and I did wickedly against the Lord, as hows all people and kindredes, and how they grieved him: exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

25 Now after all these doings of Jofias, it came to passe, that Pharaos the King of Egypt came to raise warre at Carchonias upon Euphrates: and Jofias went out against him.

26 But the King of Egypt sent to him, saying, what have I to doe with thee, O King of Judah?

27 I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee: for my warre is upon Euphrates, and now the Lord is with me, the Lord is with me, bearing me forward: depart from me, and bee not against the Lord.

28 Howbeit Jofias did not turne backe his de-not from him, but undertooke to fight with him, not regarding the words of the Prophet Ieremy, spoken by the mouth of the Lord :

29 But Ioyed himself with him in the plate of Migdol, & the princes came against King Iosias.

30 Then said the King vnto his seruants; Carry me away out of the battell, for I am very weak: and immediatly his seruants tooke him away out of the battell.

31 Then gave he vp vpon his second chariot, and being brought backe to Ierusalem, died, and was buried in his fathers sepulchre.

32 And in all they mourned for Iosias, yea, Ieremie the Prophet lamented for Iosias, and the chiefe men with the women made lamentation for him vnto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel.

33 These things are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the Kings of Iudah, and every one of the actes of Iosias did, & his glory, & his vnderstanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, & the things now recited, are reported in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iudea.

34 And the people chooke Iosachaz the sonne of Iosias, and made him King in stead of Iosias his father, when he was twenty and three yeeres old.

35 An lice reigned in Iudea and in Hierusalem three moneths: and then the King of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Hierusalem.

36 And he set a taxe vpon the land of an hundred talents of silver, and one talent of gold.

37 The King of Egypt also made King Iosacin his brother King of Iudea and Hierusalem.

38 And he bound Iosacin and the Nobles: but Zarcas his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

39 Five and twenty yeeres old was Iosacin when he was made King in the land of Iudea and Hierusalem, and he did euill before the Lord.

40 Wherefore against him, Nabuchodonosor the King of Babylon came vp, and bound him with a chain of brasse, and carried him vnto Babylon.

41 Nabuchodonosor also tooke of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his owne temple at Babylon.

42 But those things that are recorded of him, and of his uncleannesse and impiety, are written in the Chronicles of the Kings.

43 And Iosacin his sone reigned in his stead: he was made King being eighteenth yeeres old.

44 And reigned but thre moneths and ten daies in Hierusalem, and did euill before the Lord.

45 So after a yeere Nabuchodonosor came, and caused him to be brought into Babylon, with the holy vessels of the Lord.

46 And made Zedechias King of Iudea and Hierusalem, when he was one and twenty yeeres old, and he reigned eleven yeeres:

47 And he did euill also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken vnto him by the Prophet Ieremie, from the mouth of the Lord.

48 And after that King Nabuchodonosor had made him to swear by the Name of the Lord, he swore himselfe, and rebelled, and hardening his necke, and his heart, he transgressed the Lawes of the Lord God of Israel.

49 The gouernours also of the people, and of the Priests, did many things against the Lawes: & passed all the collections of all nations, & defiled the Temple of the Lord, which was builded in Ierusalem.

50 Nevertheless, the God of their fathers sent by his messenger to call them backe, because hee spared them, and his Tabernacle also.

51 But they had his messengers in derision, and looked when the Lord spake vnto them, they made a sport of his Prophets,

52 So farre forth, that he being wroth with his people for their great vngodlines, commanded the Kings of the Caldees to come vp against them:

53 Who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compasse of their holy Temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child among them, for hee deliuered all into their hands.

54 And they tooke all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the Arke of God, and the Kinges treasures, and carried them away into Babylon.

55 As for the house of the Lord, they burnt it, brake downe the wals of Hierusalem, set fire vpon her towers.

56 And as for her glorious things they neuer ceased, till they had consumed and brought them all to nought, and the people that were not slaine with the sword, hee carried vnto Babylon:

57 Who became seruants to him and his children till the Persians raigned, to fulfill the word of the Lord, spoken by the mouth of Ieremy:

58 Vntill the land had enioyed her Sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall three yeeres, vntill the full time of seventy yeeres.

CHAP. II.

1 Cyrus is moued by God to build the Temple, & and giueth leave to the Iewes to returne and contribute to it. 11 He deliuereth againe the vessels which had bene taken thence. 25 Artaxerxes forbiddeth the Iewes to build any more.

IN the sixth yeere of Cyrus King of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that he had promised by the mouth of Ieremy:

2 The Lord raised vp the spirit of Cyrus, the King of the Persians, and hee made proclamation thorow all his kingdom, and also by writing.

3 Saying, Thus saith Cyrus King of the Persians, The Lord of Israel, the most high God hath made me King of the whole world,

4 And commanded mee to build him an house at Hierusalem in Iury.

5 If therefore there bee any of you that are of his people, let the Lord, your Lord be with him, and let him goe vp to Hierusalem, that is in Iudea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: for he is the Lord that dwelleth in Hierusalem.

6 Whosoever then dwell in the places about, let them helpe him, those I say that are his neighbours with gold and with silver,

7 With gifts, with horsets, and with cattell and other things which haue been set forth by vow for the Temple of the Lord at Hierusalem.

8 ¶ Then the chiefe of the families of Iudea, and of the tribes of Benjamin stood vp: the Priests also and the Leuites, and all they whose minds the Lord had moued to goe vp, and so build an house for the Lord at Hierusalem, 9 And they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver & gold, with horses and cattell, and with very free gifts of a great number, whose minds were stirred vp thereto.

10 King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels which Nabuchodonosor had carried away from Ierusalem, and had set vp in his temple of idolatry.

brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithras his treasurer.

12 And by him they were delivered to Sathabassar the govtner of India.

13 And this was the number of them: a thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, and vessels of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels.

14 So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carryed away were five thousand four hundred threescore and nine.

15 These were brought backe by Sathabassar together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Ierusalem.

16 But in the time of Artaxerxes, King of the Persians, Belshazzar, and Mithridates, and Tebellinus, and Ratharus, and Beelthanas, and Scapellius, the Secretary, with others that were in Commission with them, dwelling in Samaria, and other places, wrote vnto him against them that dwelt in India and Ierusalem, their letters following:

17 To King Artaxerxes our lord. Thy seruants, Ratharus the sory writer, and Scapellius the Scribe, and the rest of their counsell, and the Iudges (but are in Caelosyria and Phenice.

18 Be it now knowe to the lord the King, that the Iewes that are come vp from you to vs, being come into Ierusalem (that rebellious and wicked city) doe build the market places, and repaire the wals of it, & doe lay the foundation of the Temple.

19 Now if this city, and the wals thereof, be made vp againe, they will not onely refuse to giue tribute; but also rebell against Kings.

20 And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the Temple, are now in hand, we thinke it meet not to neglect such a matter.

21 But to speake vnto our lord the King, to the intent that if it be thy pleasure it may be sought out in the booke of thy fathers.

22 And thou shalt find in the Chronicles what is written concerning these things: and shalt vnderstand that that city was rebellious, troubling back Kings and cities.

23 And that the Iewes were rebellious, and raised alwayes warres against vs, for the which cause this city was made desolate.

24 Wherefore now we doe declare vnto thee, (O lord the king) that if this city be build againe, and the walles thereof be vs a new, thou shalt from henceforth haue no passage into Caelosyria, and Phenice.

25 Then the king wrote backe againe to Ratharus the sory writer, to Beelthanas, to Scapellius the Scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria, and Phenice, after this manner:

26 I haue read the Epistle which ye haue sent vnto me, therefore I commaunded to make diligent search, and it hath bene found that that city was from the beginning practising against Kings.

27 And the men therein were giuen to rebellion, and warre, and that mighty kings and fierce, were in Ierusalem, who required and exacted tributes in Caelosyria and Phenice.

28 Now therefore I haue commaunded to hinder those men from building the city, and herde to be taken that there be no more done in it.

29 And that those wicked workers proceede no further to the annoyance of Kings.

30 Then King Artaxerxes his letters being read, Ratharus and Scapellius the Scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, sendinge an hatt towards Ierusalem with a troupe of men, and a multitude of people in battell array, began to hinder the building, & the building of the Temple in Ierusalem, ceased vntill the second yeere of the reigne of Darius King of the Persians.

C H A P. III.

1 They first to crosse each other in wile speeches, & they reuerse themselves to the iudgement of the King. 18 The first declares the strength of wine.

Now when Darius reigned, he made a great feast vnto all his subjects, & was all his hold, and vnto all the Princes of Media, and Persia. And to all the gouernours and captaines, and lieutenants that were vnder him, from India vnto Ethiopia, of an hundred twenty and seven provinces.

2 And when they had eaten and drunken, and beinge fatished, were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bed chamber and slept, and soone after awaked.

3 Then three young men that were of the guard that kept the Kings body, spake one to another:

4 Let every one of vs speake a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seeme wiser then the others, vnto him shall the King Darius giue great gifts, and great things in token of victory.

5 As to be clothed in purple, to drinke in gold, and to sleepe vpon gold, and to be rich with vntoises of gold, and an head-tire of fine linnen, and a chaunc about his necke.

6 And he shall succure to Darius, because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his counsellor.

7 And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it vnder King Darius his pillow.

8 And said, that when the King is ill, sende him such him the writings, and of whose side the King and the three Princes of Persia shall iudge, that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall the victory be giuen, as was appointed.

9 The first wrote: Wine is the strongest.

10 The second wrote: The King is strongest.

11 The third wrote: Women are strongest, but vnto all things, Truth beareth away the victory.

12 Now when the King was waken vp, they read their writings, and delivered them vnto him, and so he read them.

13 And sending forth, he called all the Princes of Persia and Media, and the gouernours, and the captaines, and the lieutenants, & the chiefe officers.

14 And set him downe in the Royall seat of iudgement, & the writings were read before them.

15 And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their owne sentences: so they were called and came in.

16 And he said vnto them, Declare vnto vs your mind concerning the writings, I haue begun the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine.

17 And he said thus, O ye men how exceeding strong is wine, it can make all men to erre that drinke it.

18 It maketh the minde of the King, and of the fatherlesse child to be all onep of the bodysman, and of the freeman of the pooreman, and of the rich.

19 It turneth also euery thought into foolishness, and maketh, so that a man receiuebreth neither forrow nor debt.

20 And it maketh euery man rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor gouernour, and it maketh to speake all things by talents.

21 And when they are in their cups, they forget their loss both to friends and brethren and a little after draw out swords.

10
10

22 But when they are from the wines, they remember not what they have done.

24 O ye men, is not wine the strength that fortifieth to doe thus? And when he had so spoken he held his peace.

CHAP. III.

1 The second declareth the power of a King. 24 The third the force of women: 33 and of Truth. 42 The third is judged to be wise for that he obtaineth letters of the King to build Jerusalem: 53 He praiseth God, and someth his love born what he had done.

Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the King began to say,

1 O ye men, doe not men excell in strength, that beate rule over Sea, & land, & all things in the world?

2 But yet the King is more mighty: for he is lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them, and whatsoever he commandeth them they doe:

4 If he bid them make warre, the one against the other, they doe it: if he send them out against the enemies, they goe, and breake downe monuments, walles, and towers.

5 They slay, and are slaine, and transgresse not the Kings commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the King, as well the spoile, as all things else.

6 Likewise, for those that are no souldiers, and have not to doe with warre, but vie husbandry: when they have reaped againe that which they had sowne, they bring it to the King, and compell one another to pay tribute unto the King.

7 And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill: if he command to spare, they spare:

8 If hee command to smite, they smite: if hee command to make desolate, they make desolate: if hee command to build, they build:

9 If he command to cut downe, they cut downe: if he command to plant, they plant.

10 So all his people, and his armies obey him: further more he lieth downe, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest.

11 And these keepe (watch) round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his owne business, whether disobey they him in any thing.

12 O ye men, how should not the King be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? and hee hold his tongue.

13 ¶ Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (that was Zorobabel) began to speake.

14 O ye men, it is not the great King, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine that excelleth: who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them, are they not women?

15 Women have borne the King, and all the people that beare rule by sea and land.

16 Even of them came they, and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh.

17 These also make garments for men: these bring glory unto men, and without wounds cannot men bee.

18 Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, doe they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty?

19 And letting all these things goe, doe they not gaze, and even with open mouth fixe their eyes left and her, and have not all men more desire unto her, then unto silver, or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever?

20 A man loveth his owne father, that brought him up, and his owne countrey, and cleareth unto his wife.

21 He thinketh not to spend his live with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor countrey.

22 By this also you must know that women have dominion over you: doe ye not labour and toyle, and give and bring all to the woman?

23 Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steale, to saile upon the sea, and upon rivers, 24 And looketh vpon a lion, and goeth in the darkness, and when he hath stolne, spoiled, and robbed, hee bringeth it to his loane.

25 Wherefore a man loveth his wife better then father and mother.

26 Yea, many there bee that have remane out of their wives, for women, and become servants for their sakes, 27 Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned for women.

28 And now doe yet not believe me? Is not the King great in his power? doe not all regions feare to touch him?

29 Yet did I see Ister and Apame the Kings concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bactarus, sitting at the right hand of the King, 30 And taking the crowne from the Kings head, and setting it vpon her owne head, shee also strooke the King with her left hand.

31 And yet for all this, the King gaped and gazed vpon her with open mouth, if shee laughed vpon him, hee laughed also: albeit if sheeooke any displeasure at him, the King was faine to smee, that the night hee remembered to him againe.

32 O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they doe thus?

33 Then the King and the Princes looked one vpon another, so he began to speake of the Truth.

34 O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heauen, swift is the Sonne in his course, for he compasseth the heuens round about, and becometh his course againe to his owne place in one day.

35 Is hee not great that maketh these things? before great is the Truth, & stronger then all things.

36 All the earth is called vpon the Truth, and the heauen bleaseth it: all workes shake and tremble at it, and with it is no variegious thing.

37 Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, and such are all their wicked workes, and their is no truth in them. In their variegousness, also they shall perish.

38 As for the Truth, it endureth, and is alwayes strong, it shineth, and conquereth for evermore.

39 With her there is no accepting of persons, or rewards, but she doeth the things that are iust, and refrains from all vaine and wicked things, and all men doe well like of her worker.

40 Neither in her iudgment is any variegousness, and she is the strength, kingdom, power, and maiesty of all ages. Blessed be the God of Truth.

41 And with that he held his peace, and all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty about all things.

42 Then said the King unto him, Alas, what thou wilt, more then is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest, and thou shalt sit next mee, and shalt be called my cousin.

1 Or, have not come.

1 Or, gra.

CHAP. V.

43 Then said he unto the King: remember thy 44 And to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them againe thither.

45 Thou also hast vowed to build vp the Temple which the Edomites burnt when Iudca was made desolate by the Caldees.

46 And now, O Lord the King, this is that which I requite, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality; proceeding from thy felix: I desire therefore, that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine owne mouth thou hast vowed to the King of heauen.

47 Then Darius the King stood vp, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him vnto all the tresur-ers, and licentiants, and capitaines, and gouernours:
 that they should safely cary on their way, both him, and all thos that got vp with him to build Jerusalem.

48 He wrote letters also to the licentiants that were in Coelosyria and Phenice, and vnto them in Libanus, that they should bring Cedar wood from Libanus vnto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him.

49 Moreover he wrote for all the Iewes that went out of his realme vp into Iury, concerning their freedom; that no officer, no ruler, no licentiant, nor J treasurer, should tormente or take into their doores.

50 And that all the country which they hold, should be free without tribute, and that the Edumines should giue ouer the villages of the Iewes, which they held.

51 Yet, that there should be yeerly giuen twenty talents to the building of the Temple; vntill the time that it were built.

52 And other ten talents yeerly to maintaine the burnt offerings vpon the Altar every day; (as they had a commandement to offer.)

53 And that all they that went from Babylon to build the city, should haue free liberty, aswell they as their portmoy, & all the Priests that went away.

54 He wrote also concerning the charges, and the Priests vestments wherein they minister:

55 And likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be giuen them, vntill the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded vp.

56 And hee commanded to giue to all that kept the city, pensions and wages.

57 He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon that Cyrus had set apart, and all that Cyrus had giuen in commandement, the same charged he also to be done, and sent vnto Jerusalem.

58 Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted vp his face to heauen toward Jerusalem, and praised the King of heauen.

59 And said, From thee cometh victory, from thee cometh wisdom, and thine is the glory, and I am thy seruant.

60 Blessed art thou who hast giuen me wisdom:
 for to thee I giue thanks, O Lord of our fathers.

61 And hee tooke the letters, and wear out, and came vnto Babylon, and told it all his brethren.

62 And they praised the God of their fathers:
 because he had giuen them freedom and liberty.

63 To goe vp, and to build Jerusalem, and the Temple which is called by his Name, and they feasted with instruments of musicks, and gladly feast, four dayes.

4 The names and number of the Iewes that returned home. 50 The Altar is set vp in his place.
 57 The foundation of the Temple is laid. 73 The worke is finished for a time.

After this were the principall men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to goe vp with their wives, and sons, & daughters, with their menservants, and maid-servants, and their cattell.

2 And Darius sent with them a thousand ho-men, till they had brought them backe to Jerusalem safely, and with musicall [instruments] tabrets and dances.

3 And all their brethren played; and he made them goe vp together with them.

4 And there are the names of the men which went vp according to their families, amongst their tribes after their severall heads.

35 All the ministers of the Temple, and the sons of the Levanters of Solomon, were three hundred twenty and two.

36 There came up from Thermoeth and Theletas, Chazarabab leading them, and Aalar.

37 Neither could they see their families, nor their houses, how they were of Israel: the sonnes of a Eftan, the sonnes of a Eflu, the sonnes of a Necoza, five hundred fifty and two.

38 And of the Priests that usurped the office of the Priesthood, and were not found, the sonnes of 1 Obdias: the son off Azore, the son of a Adar who married Angiz, one of the daughters of Berzeins, and was named after his name.

29 And when the description of the hundred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were remoued from executing the office of the Priesthood.

40 For vnto them said y Nohemiss, and Achurias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there rose up an high Priest, clothed with y doctrine and truth.

41 So of Israel from them of twelue yeeres old and upward, they were all in number, forty thousand, besides men-seruants, and women-seruants, two thousand three hundred and sixty.

42 Their men-seruants, and hand-maids, were seven thousand three hundred forty and seven: the singing men, and singing women, two hundred forty and five.

43 Four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, six thousand six hundred twenty and five beasts, vnto the yoke.

44 And certaine of the chiefe of their families, when they came to the Temple of God that is in Ierusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his owne place, according to their ability:

45 And to give into the holy treasury of the worke, a thousand pounds of gold, six thousand of silver, and an hundred Priestly vestments.

46 And so dwelt the Priests, and the Levites, and the people in Ierusalem, and in the country: the singers also, and the porters, and all Israel in their villages.

47 But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the children of Israel were every man in his owne place, they came together with one consent into the open place of the y first gate, which is towards the East.

48 Then stood up Iesus the son of Iosafad, and his brethren the Priests, and Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, and his brethren, and made ready the Altar of the God of Israel.

49 To offer burnt sacrifices vpon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the booke of Moses the man of God.

50 And there were gathered vnto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the Altar vpon his owne place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them, and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and burnt offerings to the Lord, both morning and evening.

51 Also they held the feast of Tabernacles as it is commanded in the Law, and offered sacrifices daily as was meet.

52 And after that the y ronnimall oblations and the sacrifice of the Sabbath, and of the new Moones, and of all holy Feasts.

53 And all they that had made any vowe to God began to offer sacrifices to God, from the first day of the seventh month, although the Temple of the Lord was not yet built.

54 And they gave vnto the masons and carpenters many meat and drinke with cheerfulness.

55 Vnto them of Sidon also and Tyre, they gave carres, that they should bring Cedars trees from Libanus, which should be brought by boats to the haven of Ioppe, according as it was commanded them by Cyus King of the Persians.

son, begonne Zorobabel, the son of Salathiel, and Iesus the son of Iosedece, and their brethren, and the Priests and the Levites, and all they that were come vnto Ierusalem out of the captivity:

57 And they laid the foundation of the house of God, in the first day of the second moneth in the second yere after they were come to Ierusalem and Hierusalem.

58 ¶ And they appointed the Levites, from twenty yeeres old ouer the workes of the Lord. Then stood vp Iesus and his sons, and brethren, and Cadmei his brother, and the sons of Madiabab, with the sonnes of Iuda, the son of Eliadun, with their sonnes and brethren, all Levites with one accord, setting forward of the businesse, labouring to accompanie the workes in the house of God, so the workemen built the Temple of the Lord.

59 And the Priests stood arrayed in their vestiments, with musick all instruments, and trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals.

60 Singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, according as Dauid the King of Israel had ordained.

61 And they sung with loud voyces songs to the praise of the Lord: because his mercy and glory is for euer in all Israel.

62 And all the people sounded Trumpets, and showed with a loud voyce, singing songs of thanksgiving vnto the Lord, for the rearing vp of the house of the Lord.

63 ¶ Also of the Priests and Levites, and of the chiefe of their families, the ancients, who had seene the former house, came to the building of this with weeping and great crying.

64 But many with Trumpets and ioy shouted with loud voyce.

65 In so much that the Trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of the people: yet the multitude sounded maruailously, so that it was heard afar off.

66 Wherefore when the enemies of the Tribe of Iudah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what that voyce of trumpets should meane.

67 And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the Temple vnto the Lord God of Israel.

68 So they went to Zorobabel and Iesus, and to the chiefe of the families, and said vnto them, We will build together with you.

69 For we likewise, as you doe, obey your Lord, & doe sacrifice vnto him fro the daies of Azbazarath the King of the Assyrians, who brought vs hither.

70 Then Zorobabel and Iesus, and the chiefe of the families of Israel, said vnto them, It is not for vs and you to build together an house vnto the Lord our God.

71 We our selues will build vnto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the King of the Persians hath commanded vs.

72 But the heathen of the land lying heauy vpon the inhabitants of Iudea, and holding them strait, hindered their building:

73 And by their secret plots, & poplar persuasions, and compassions, they hindered the finishing of the building, all the time that King Cyrus liued: so they were hindered from building for the space of two yeeres, vntill the raigne of Darius.

CHAP. VI.

The Prophets sturre vp the people to build the Temple. & Darius is sollicit to hinder it. 27 But in due farther is by all means: and threatened that he shall hinder it.

Now in the second yere of the reigne of Darius, Aggeus, and Zacharias the sonne of Addo, the Prophets prophesied vnto the Iewes in Ierusalem, in the Name of the Lord God of Israel: which was vpon them.

1 Then stood vp Zorobabel the son of Salathiel, and Iesus the son of Iosedece, and began to build the house of the Lord at Hierusalem, the Prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them.

2 ¶ At the same time came vnto them, Sifonnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said vnto them,

3 By whose appointment do you build this house and this roofe: & performe all other things: and who are the workmen that performe these things?

4 Neuertheless, the Elders of the Iewes obtained fauour because the Lord had visited the captivity.

5 And they were not hindered from building vntill such time as signification was giuen vnto Darius concerning them, and an answer receiued.

6 The copy of the letters which Sifonnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, & Sathrabuzanes with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote, and sent vnto Darius, To King Darius greeting.

7 ¶ In all things he knowe vnto our Lord the King, that being come into the countrey of Iudea, and entred into the city of Ierusalem, we found in the city of Ierusalem the ancients of the Iewes that were of the captivity.

8 Building an house vnto the Lord, great and stee of heuven and costly stones, and the timber already laid vpon the walls.

9 And their workes are done with great speed, and the worke goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made.

10 Then asked we these Elders, saying, By whose commaundement build you this house, and lay the foundations of these workes?

11 Therefore to the intent that we might giue knowledge vnto thee by writing, we demanded of them, who were the chiefe doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principall men.

12 So they gaue vs this answer, We are the seruants of the Lord which made heauen and earth.

13 And as for this house, it was builded many yeeres agoe, by a King of Israel great and strong, and was finished.

14 But when our fathers prouoked God vnto wrath, & sinned against the Lord of Israel, which is in heauen, he gaue them ouer into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon of the Chaldees.

15 Who pulled downe the house, & burne it, and caried away the people captiues vnto Babylon.

16 But in the first yere that king Cyrus reigned ouer the countrey of Babylon, Cyrus the King wrote to build vp this house.

17 And the holy vessels of gold and of siluer that Nabuchodonosor had caried away out of the house at Ierusalem, and had set them in his owne temple, that Cyrus the King brought forth againe out of the temple at Babylon, and they were deliuered to Zorobabel, and to Sanabassar the ruler.

18 With commaundement that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the Temple at Ierusalem, and that the Temple of the Lord should be build in his place.

19 Then the same Sanabassar being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Ierusalem, and from that time to this, being still a building, it is not yet fully ended.

20 Now therefore if it seem good vnto thy King, let search be made among the records of King Cyrus,

11 And if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded let him signify unto vs thereof.

12 Then commanded king Darius to seek among the records at Babylon: & so at Ecbatana the palace which is in the country of Media, there was found a roll wherein these things were recorded.

13 In the first year of the reign of Cyrus, King Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord at Jerusalem should be built againe, where they doe sacrifice with continual fire.

14 Whose height shall be sixty cubites, and the breadth sixty cubites, with three rowes of heauen stones, and one row of new wood of that country, and the expences thereof to be giuen out of the house of king Cyrus.

15 And that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold & silver that Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, & be set in the place where they were before.

16 And also he commanded, that Siftanes the Governour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathabazanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed Rulers in Syria & Phenice, should be careful not to meddle with the place, but Sathabazanes the seruant of the Lord and Governour of Iudaea, and the Elders of the Iewes: to build the house of the Lord in that place.

17 I have commanded also to haue it built up whole againe, and that they looke diligently to helpe those that be of the captivity of the Iewes, till the house of the Lord be finished.

18 And out of the treasure of Caelosyria, and Phenice, a portion carefully to be giuen these men, for the sacrifices of the Lord, as to Zerobabel the Governour, for bullocks, and rams, and lambs:

19 And also wine, salt, wine, and oyle, and that continually every yeere without farther question according as the Priests that be in Jerusalem, shall signify to be daily spent:

20 That offerings may be made to the most high God, for the King and for his children, and that they may pray for their Kinges.

21 And he commanded that whatsoever should transgresse, yet, or make light of any thing afore spoken, or written, out of his owne house should a tree be taken, and be thereon be hanged, and all his goods seized for the King.

22 The Lord therefore, whose Name is there called vpon, utterly destroy every King and Nation, that stretch out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem.

23 I Darius the king haue ordained, that according vnto these things it be done with diligence.

CHAP. VII.

1 Siftanes and others helps forward the building, 2 The Temple is finished, and dedicated, 3 The Passouer is kept.

Then Siftanes the governour of Caelosyria, & Phenice, & Sathabazanes, with their companions, following the commandements of king Darius,

1 Did very carefully oversee the holy workes, finishing the ancient of the Iewes and governours of the Temple.

2 And so the holy workes prospered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the Prophets prophesied.

3 And they finished these things by the commandement of the Lord God of Israel, and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes Kings of Persia.

4 And there was the holy house finished, in the seventh and twentieth day of the month Adarith the first yeere of Darius King of the Persians.

5 And the children of Israel: the Priests, and the Levites, and other that were of the captivity, that were added vnto them, did according to the things written in the booke of Moses.

6 And to the dedication of the Temple of the Lord, they offered an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, foure hundred lambs;

7 And twelue goats for the sinne of all Israel, according to the number of the chief of the Tribes of Israel.

8 The Priests also and the Levites stood in their vestiments, according to their ordinances of the Lord God of Israel, according to the booke of Moses, and the statutes at every gate.

9 And the children of Israel, that were of the captivity, held the Passouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth, after that the Priests and the Levites were sanctified.

10 They that were of the captivity were not all sanctified together, but the Levites were all sanctified together.

11 And so they offered the Passouer for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the Priests, and for themselves.

12 And the children of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, euen all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord.

13 And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven dayes, making merry before the Lord.

14 For that he had turned the counsell of the King of Assiria towards them, to strengthen their hands in the workes of the Lord God of Israel.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Esdras bringeth the Kings Commission to build the Temple, 2 He declareth the names and number of those that came with him: 3 And his prayer, 4 He lamenteth the sinnes of his people, 5 And sweareth the Priests to put away their strange wives.

And after these things, when Artaxerxes the King of the Persians reigned, came Esdras, the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Ieremias, the son of Helkiah, the son of Salum.

2 The sonne of Sadduc, the son of Achitob, the son of Amarias, the sonne of Ozias, the sonne of Micmeroth, the sonne of Zorab, the son of Sabar, the son of Boacar, the son of Abihum, the son of Phinnes, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the chief Priests.

3 Thus Esdras went up from Babylon as a Scribe being very ready in the Law of Moses, that was giuen by the God of Israel.

4 And the King did him honour: for he found grace in his sight in all his requests.

5 There went up with him also certaine of the children of Israel, of the Priests, of the Levites, of the holy Singers, Porters, and Musicians of the Temple vnto Hierusalem.

6 In the seventh year of the reign of King Artaxerxes, in the first moneth, (this was the Kings seventh yeere,) for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first moneth, and came to Ierusalem according to the prosperous iourney which the Lord gaue them.

7 For Esdras had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the Law and Commandement of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances, and Iudgements.

8 Now the copy of the Commission which was written from Artaxerxes the King, and came to Esdras the Priest, and Reader of the Law of the Lord, is thus that followeth.

9 King Artaxerxes unto Esdras the Priest, and Reader of the Law of the Lord, sendeth greeting.
10 Having determined to deale graciously, I have given order that such of the nation of the Jewes, and of the Priests and Levites, being within our Realme, as are willing and desirous, should goe with thee unto Ierusalem.

11 As many therefore as have a mind therunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me, and my senea friends the Counsellors.
12 That they may looke vnto the affaires of Iudaea and Ierusalem, agreeably to that which is in the Law of the Lord.

13 And carry the gifts vnto the Lord of Israel to Ierusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the countrey of Babylon can be found to the Lord in Ierusalem.

14 With that also which is given of the people for the Temple of the Lord their God at Ierusalem: and that silver and gold may be collected for bullocks, rams and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining.

15 To the end that they may offer sacrifices vnto the Lord, vpon the Akar of the Lord their God, which is in Ierusalem.

16 And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will doe with the silver and gold, that doe according to the will of thy God.

17 And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee, for the vse of the Temple of thy God, which is in Ierusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Ierusalem.

18 And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the vse of the Temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the Kings treasury.

19 And King Artaxerxes hath also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phnicie, that whatsoever Esdras the Priest, and the Reader of the Law of the most High God shall aske for, they should give it him with speed.

20 To the summe of an hundred talents of silver likewise also of wheat, euen to an hundred coeres, and an hundred picers of wine, and other things in abundance.

21 Let all things be performed after the Law of God diligently, vnto the most High God, that wrath come not vpon the kingdom of the King and his Sonnes.

22 I command you also that ye require no taxe, nor any other imposition of any of the Priests or Leuites: or holy fingers, or porters, or ministers of the Temple, or of any that haue doings in this Temple, and that no man haue authority to impose any thing vpon them.

23 And thou Esdras, according to the wisdom of God, ordaine Iudges, and Iustices, that they may iudge in all Syria and Phnicie, with all those that know the Law of thy God, and those that know it not, thou shalt teach.

24 And whosoever shall transgresse the Law of thy God, and of the King, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

25 Then said Esdras the Scribe, blessed be the only Lord God of my Fathers, who hath put their things into the heart of the King, to glorifie his house: that is in Ierusalem;

26 And haue honoured men in the sight of the king and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles.

27 Therefore was I encouraged by the helpe of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to goe vp with me:

28 And these are the chiefe according to their families and severall dignities, that went vp with me from Babylon in the reigne of King Artaxerxes.

40 Of the sonne of Bago, Vthi, the sonne of Ithalurus, and with him seventy men:

41 And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three dayes: and then I surveyed them.

42 But when I had found there none of the Priests and Levites,

43 Then sent I vnto Eleazar and Iziel, and I Masmas,

45 And I hadde them that they should goe vnto Siddenz, the captaine, who was in the place of the treasury:

46 And commanded them that they should speake vnto Dadduz, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send vs such men as might execute the Priests office in the house of the Lord.

17 Proclaim. And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, to desire of him a prosperous journey both for vs, and them that were with vs; for our children, and for their + cattell.

18 Neb. 19 For vs was ashamed to shke the King's women, and herfemen, and conduct forth against our adversaries:

20 For vs had said vnto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek him, to support them in all wayes.

21 And againe we besought our Lord, as touching these things, and found him favourable vnto vs.

22 Then I separated twelve of the chief of the Priests, Eleazar, and Azarias, and ten men of their brethren with them.

23 And I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the King and his Counsell, and the princes, and all Israel had giuen.

24 And when I had weighed it, I deliuered y^e to them six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels of a hundred talents, and an hundred Calnes of gold.

25 And twenty golden vessels, & + twelve vessels, of brass, euen of the brass glistering like gold.

26 And I said vnto them, both you are holy vnto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold, and the silver is a vow vnto the Lord, the Lord of our Fathers.

27 Watch ye, and keepe them till ye deliuer them to the chief of the Priests, and Leuites, and to the principall men of the families of Israel in Ierusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God.

28 So the Priests and the Leuites, who had receiued the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, brought them vnto Ierusalem into the Temple of the Lord.

29 And from the river Tigris, was departed the twentieth day of the first month, and came to Ierusalem, by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with vs; and then in the beginning of our + Iourney, the Lord deliuered vs from every enemy, and so we came to Ierusalem.

30 And when we had bene thirte three dayes, the gold, and silver that was weighed was deliuered in the house of our Lord, on the fourth day, vnto 31 Marnoth the Priest the Sonne of Iri.

32 And with him was Eleazar the Sonne of Phinees, and with them were Iocabad, the Sonne of Ieda, and 33 Moeth the Sonne of Sibbon, Leuites: all was deliuered them by number and weight.

34 And all the weight of them was written vp the same houre.

35 Moreover, they that were come our of the captivity, offered sacrifice vnto the Lord God of Israel, euen twelue bullocks for all Israel, souescore and fixtens ranmet.

36 + Threecore and twelue lambs, goats for a pecke offering, twelue all of them + sacrifices the Lord.

37 And they deliuered the Kings commandments vnto the King, Stewart, and to the Governours of Caelo Syria and Phenicie, and they honoured the people, and the Temple of God.

38 Now when these things were done, the rulers came vnto me, and said, 39 The nation of Israel, the Philoes, the Priests, and Leuites, haue not pur away from them the strange people of the land: nor the pollution of the Gentiles, so vs, of the Chaldeans, Hittites, Phorcites, Iebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites.

40 For both they and their families, haue married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land, and from the beginning of this matter, the Rulers, and the great men haue bene partakers of this iniquity.

41 And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the haire from off my head, and beard, and fate me downe sad, and very heauy.

42 So all they that were then moued at the word of the Lord God of Israel, assembled vnto me which I moued for the inquiry: but I saw still full of beautie vntill the evening sacrifice.

43 Then rising vp from the fast, with my clothes, and the holy garment rent; and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands vnto the Lord:

44 I said, O Lord, I am confounded, and ashamed before thy face:

45 For our crimes + are multiplied about our heads, and our ignorances haue reached vp vnto heauen.

46 For ever since the time of our fathers, we haue bene, and are in great sinne, euen vnto this day.

47 And for our finnes and our fathers, we with our brethren and our Kings, and our Priests, were giuen vp vnto the Kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey, with shame vnto this day.

48 And now in some measure hath mercy bene shewed vnto vs from thee, O Lord, that thee should be left vs a rook, and a name in the place of thy Sanctuary.

49 And discouer vnto vs a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to giue vs + food in the time of our seruitude.

50 Yea, when we were in bondage, we were not forsaken of our Lord, but hee made vs gracious before the Kings of Persis, so that they gaue vs food:

51 Yea, and honoured the Temple of our Lord, and raised vp the desolate Sion, that they haue giue vs a sure abiding in Iury and Ierusalem.

52 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, hauing these things? for wee haue transgressed thy commandments, which thou gauest by the hand of thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

53 This the land which ye enter into to possess, as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollution of the strangers of the land, and they haue filled it with their vnicleanesse.

54 Therefore now shall ye not ioyne your daughters vnto their: sonnes, neither shall ye take their daughters vnto your sonnes.

55 Moreover, you shall neuer cease to haue peace with them, that yet may bee strong, and eate the good things of the land, and that yet may leaue the inheritance of the land to your children for euernore.

56 And all that is befallen, is done vnto vs for our wicked workes, and great finnes: for thou, O Lord, didst make our finnes light:

57 And didst giue vnto vs such a rook: but wee haue turned backe againe to transgresse thy Law, and to mingle our selues with the vnicleanesse of the nations of the land.

58 I beseech thee thou bee angry with vs to destroy vs. All thou hadst left vs neither rook, (ord, nor name.

59 O Lord of Israel thou art true: for wee are left a rook this day.

60 Behold, now are wee before thee in our iniquities, for wee cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before thee.

91 And as Eldras in his prayer made his confession weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the Temple, there gathered vnto him from Ierusalem, a very great multitude of men, and women, and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude.

92 Then Iechonias the sonne of Iechon, one of the fones of Israel called out and said, O Eldras, we haue sinned against the Lord God, we haue married strange woman of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel a aloft.

93 Let vs make an oath to the Lord, that we wil put away all our wives which we haue taken of the heauen, with their children, 94 Like as thou hast decreed, and as many as doe obey the Law of the Lord.

95 Arise, and put in execution: for to thee doeth this matter appertaine, and we will be with thee: we will valently.

96 So Eldras arose, and tooke an oath of the chiefe of the Priests and Lemites of all I Israel, to doe after their things, and so they swore.

C H A P. I X.

3 Esdra assembles all the people. 10 They promise to put away their strange wives. 20 The names and number of them that did so. 40 The Law of Moses is read and declared before all the people. 49 They weep, and are put in mind of the feast day.

Then Eldras rising from the court of the Temple, went to the chamber of Ioanah the sonne of Eluab,

4 And remained there, and did eat no meat, nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude.

5 And there was a proclamation in all Iury, and Ierusalem, to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Ierusalem:

6 And that whosoener met not there within two or three dayes, according as the Elders that bare rule appointed, their captiue should be seized to the vse of the Temple, and himselfe cast out from them that were of the captivity.

7 And in three dayes were all they of the tribe of Iudah and Benjamin gathered together at Ierusalem the twentieth day of the sixth month.

8 And all the multitude sat trembling in the broad court of the Temple, because of the present brood weather.

9 So Eldras arose vpon, and said vnto them, Ye haue transgressed the Law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the finnes of Israel.

10 And now by confessing giue glory vnto the Lord God of our fathers, 11 And doe his will, and separate your selves from the heauen of the land, and from the strange woman.

12 Then cryed the whole multitude, and said with a loud voyce: Like as thou hast spoken, so will we doe.

13 But inasmuch as the people are many, and it is soule weather, so that we cannot stand without: and this is not a worke of a day, or two, seeing our sinne in these things is spread farre:

14 Therefore let the Rulers of the multitude, and Iudges, and let all them of our habitacions that haue strange wives come at the time appointed,

15 And with them the Rulers and Iudges of our place, till wee haue away the wrath of the Lord from vs, for this matter.

16 Then Ionathan the sonne of Azael, and Esdras the sonne of Theocanus, accordingly took this matter vpon them: and Mesollan, and Iasus, and Sabbathana helped them.

17 And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things.

18 And Esdras the Priest chose vnto him the principall men of their families, all by names, and in the first day of the tenth month, they came together to examine the matter.

19 So their cause that held strange wives, was brought to an end in the first day of the first month.

20 And of the Priests that were come together, and had strange wives there were found, 21 Of the fones of Iesai, the son of Iosabed, and his brethren, Mathetha, and Eleazar, and Simon, and Iocadana.

22 And they gaue their hands to put away their wives, and to offer prayers, to make reconciliation for their errors.

23 And of the fons of Etner, Ananias, and Zabdus, and a Eanes, and Sameiua, and Hieriel, and Azarias.

24 And of the fons of Pleinur, Elionas, Malgus, Eimael, & Nathanael, and Scidelus, and Talfas.

25 And of the Lemites: Iosabod and Semis, and Colias, who was called Colias, and Patheus, and Indas, and Ionas.

26 Of the holy Singers: Elezernus, Bacchurus, and the porters, Salurus, and Toibanus.

27 Of them of Israel, of the fones of a Phoros, Hiermas, and Edcias, and Melchias, and g Matulus, and Eleazar, and Ashbias, and Bazania.

28 Of the fons of Ela, Mathanias, Zacharias, and Hierielus, and Hieremoth, and Aedias.

29 And of the fones of a Zamoth, & Eliadas, & Elifanus, & Orthonias, & Arimoth, and a Sabanus, and Sardicus.

30 Of the fons of Schai, Iohannes and Ananias, and Iosabod, and d Amatheis.

31 Of the fons of a Many, Olamus, g Maruchas, & Iedus, Isabus, Isaiel, and Hieremoth.

32 And of the fons of Addi, Neathus, and Moasias, Lannus, and Naidus, and Mathanias, & Sosei, Balanus, and Minastias.

33 And of the fons of Annas, Elinus, and Aferus, and Michias, and Sabbcus, and Simon, Chobanus.

34 And of the fones of Aferus, and d Matanias, and m Banasia, Eliphaz, and Manastias, and Semis.

35 And of the fons of Mzani, Ieremias, Mordis, Onacrus, Incl, Madas, and Pelias, and Anos, Capabason and Easibus, and Manuitaninus, Ekinus, Bouuis, Eliali, Samis, Seluias, Nathanius, and of the fons of Ozoro, Sefis, Efril, Azaiias, Samarus, and Zambis, Iosiphus.

36 And of the fons of Eihema, Matricis, Zabada, Isas, Edes, Iuel, Bananas.

37 All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

38 And the Priests and Lemites, and they that were of Israel dwelt in Ierusalem, and in the country, in the first day of the fourth month: so the children of Israel were in their habitacions.

39 And the whole multitude came together with one accord, into the broad place of the holy porch toward the East.

40 And they spake vnto Esdras the Priest, and desired that he would bring the Law of Moses, that was giuen of the Lord God of Israel.

41 So Esdras the chiefe Priest, brought the Law vnto the whole multitude from mury to mury, & to all the Priests to leave the Law in the first day of the seventh month.

41 And he read in the broad court, before the holy porch, from morning unto mid-day, before both men and women, and all the multitude gave heed unto the Law.

42 And Efdras the Priest, and Reader of the Law, stood vp vpon a Pulpit of wood, which was made for that purpose.

43 And there stood vp by him Mathathias, Samouas, Ananias, Azarias, Virias, Ezeccias, Balasanus vpon the right hand.

44 And vpon his left hand stood phafadaius, Misael, Melchias, Iothababus, and Nabarias.

45 Then tooke Efdras the booke of the Law, before the multitude: for hee sate there honourably in the first place in the sight of them all.

46 And when he opened the Law, they stood all straight vp: So Efdras blessed the Lord God most High, the God of Iudaea Almighty.

47 And all the people answered, Amen, and lifting vp their hands, they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord.

48 Also Ieser, Anus, Sababius, Adiaz, Iacubus, Sabozens, Autus, Maizanus, and Calitus, Azarias, and Iozabodis, and Ausmas, Biazas, the Levites taught the Law of the Lord, making them wishall to vnderstand it.

49 Then spake Athabates vnto Efdras the chief Priest and Reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying,

50 This day is holy vnto the Lord; for they all wept when they heard the Law.

51 Coc them and eat the fat, and drinke the sweete, and leaue part to them that haue nothing.

52 For this day is holy vnto the Lord, & be not sorrowfull, for the Lord will bring you to honor.

53 So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy vnto the Lord, be not sorrowfull.

54 Then went they their way, every one to eate and drinke, and make merry, and to giue part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheere.

55 Because they vnderstood the words wherewith they were instructed, and for the which they had bene assembled.

II. ESDRAS.

CHAP. I.

1 Efdras is commanded to reprove the people, and God threateneth to cast them off. 25 And to giue their hands to a people of more grace: then they.

HE second Booke of the Prophet

Efdras the sonne of Sarais the son of Azarias, the sonne of Helchias, the sonne of Sidamias, the sonne of Sador, the sonne of Achitob,

2 The sonne of Achiaz, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Hebe, the sonne of Amarias, the sonne of Azel, the sonne of Mirimoth, the son of Arna, the sonne of Ozias, the sonne of Borith, the sonne of Abrith, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar,

3 The sonne of Aaron, of the tribe of Levi, which was captiue in the land of the Medes, in the reigne of Artaxerxes King of the Persians.

4 And the word of the Lord came vnto me, saying,

5 Goe thy way, and shew my people their faultes, and their children their wickednesse, which they haue done against me, that they may tel their childrens children,

6 Because the finnes of their fathers are increased in them: for they haue forgotten me, and haue offered vnto strange Gods.

7 Am not I cōen he that brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage? but they haue provoked me vnto wrath, and despised my cōuenent.

8 Pull thou off then the haire of thine head, and cast all euill vpon them, for they haue not bin obedient vnto my Law, but it is a rebellious people.

9 How long shall I forbear them vnto whom I haue done so much good?

10 Many Kinges haue destroyed for their sakes, Pharaoh with his seruants, and all his power haue I smitten downe.

11 All the nations I haue destroyed before them: and in the East I haue scattered the people of two promouers, men of Tyre and Sydon, and haue slaine all their enemies.

12 Speake thou therefore vnto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord.

13 I led you thorough the sea, and in the beginning gaue you a large and safe passage, I gaue you Moses, for a leader and Aaron for a Priest.

14 I gaue you light in a pillar of fire, and great wonders haue I done among you, yet haue you forgotten me, saith the Lord.

15 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, The qualities were as a token for you, I gaue you tents for your safeguard; I neuer thelesse you unarmed there, yet And triumphed not in my Name for the destruction of your enemies, but cōuen to this day doe ye yet murmur.

16 Where are the benefites that I haue done for you? when you were hungry and thirsty in the wilderness, did I not cry vnto me?

17 Saying, Why hast thou brought vs into this wilderness to kill vs? had bene better for vs to haue feared the Egyptians, then to dye in this wilderness.

18 Then bid I pitty vpon your mourning, and gaue you Meana to eat, to feede you Angell bread.

19 When ye were thirsty, did I not cleare the rock, and waters flowed out of it to you fill? for the heat I covered you with the leaues of the trees.

20 I divided amongst you fruitfull lands I cast out the Canaanites, the Pherezites, and the Philistines before you: what shall I yet doe more for you, saith the Lord?

21 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, when you were in the wilderness, in the river of the Amorites being thirst, and blaspheming my Name, 22 I gaue you not fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree in the water, and made the river sweet.

23 What shall I doe vnto thee, O Iacob? thou Iudah wouldst not obey me: I will turne me to other nations, and vnto those will I giue my Name, that they may keep my statutes.

24 Seeing ye haue forsaken me, I will forsake you also: when ye desire me to be gracious vnto you, I shall haue no mercy vpon you.

25 Whofoeuer you shall call vpon me, I will not heare you: for ye haue defiled your hands with blood, and your feet are swift to commit manslaughter.

Gen. 12-14

For, bring them up with gladness, as a dam maketh their feet safe. For, thy name is Israel.

Tob. 12. 18. saying very them

For, preach.

27 Ye have not as it were forsake me, but your owne selves, saith the Lord.

28 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Haue I not prayed you as a father his ionnes, as a mother her daughters, and a nurse her young babes, 29 That ye would bee my people, & I and I should be your God, that ye would be my children, and I should be your father?

30 I gathered you together, as a hen gathereth her chickens vnder her wings; but now what shall I vnto doe you? I will call you not from my face.

31 When you offer vnto me I will turne my face from you: for you (saith the Lord) haue despised my voice, and your Circumcisions haue I forsaken.

32 I sent vnto my Seruants the Prophets, whom ye haue taken and slaine, and torne their bodies in pieces, whose blood I will require of your hands, saith the Lord.

33 Thus saith the Almighty Lord, Your house is desolate, I will cast you out as if wind doth stubble.

34 And your children shall not be fruitfull; for they haue despised my commandement, and done the thing that is euill before me.

35 Your houses will I giue to a people that shall come, which not hauing heard of me, yet shall believe me, to whom I haue shewed no signes, yet they shall do that I haue commanded them.

36 They haue toke no Prophets, yet they shall call their finnes to remembrance, and acknowledge them.

37 I take to witness the grace of the people to come, whose little ones reioyce in gladnesse: and though they haue not seene mee with bodily eyes, yet in spirit they beleue the thing that I say.

38 And now brother, behold what glory and see the people that cometh from the East.

39 Vnto whom I will giue for leaders, Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, Oler, Amur, & Michas, Ioch, Adiaz, and Ipanz.

40 Nahum, and Abzeur, Sophomas, Aggeus, Zacharie, and Malachir, which is called also an Angel of the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 God compasseth of his people. Yet I shew as it is written to comfort them, as I haue said they refused, the Gentiles are called. 43 Esdras saith the Son of God, and I hope that are crowned by him.

Thus saith the Lord, I brought this people out of bondage, and I gaue them my commandments by my seruants the Prophets, whom they would not heare, but despised my counsels.

2 The mother that bare them, saith vnto them, Goe your way, ye children, for I am a widow, and forsaken.

3 I brought you vp with gladnesse, but with sorrow and heauinesse haue I lost you: for ye haue sinned before the Lord your God, and done that thing that is euill before him.

4 But what shall I now doe vnto you? I am a widow, and forsaken: goe your way, O my children, and alle mercy of the Lord.

5 As for me, O Father, I call vpon thee for a witness ouer the mother of these children which would not keepe my Couenant,

6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoyle, that there may be no off-spring of them.

7 Let them be searched abroad among the heathen, let facte names be put out of the earth: for they haue despised my Couenant.

8 Woe be vnto thee, Asur, thou that hidest the vnto nations in thee, O thou wicked people, remember what I did vnto Sodom and Gomorrah.

9 Whose land lieth in clods of pitch and heapes of ashes: euen so also will I doe vnto them that haue me not, saith the Almighty Lord.

10 Thus saith the Lord vnto Sidas, Tell my people, that I will giue them the kingdom of Ierusalem, which I would haue giuen vnto Israel.

11 Their glory also will I take vnto me, and giue these the euerlasting Tabernacles which I had prepared for them.

12 They shall haue the tree of life for an ornament of sweet favour, they shall neither labour nor be weary.

13 Goe, and ye shall receive: pray for few dayes vnto you, that they may be shortened, the kingdom is already prepared for you: watch.

14 Take heauen and earth to witness, for I haue broken the euill in pieces, and created the good, soe I line, saith the Lord.

15 Mother, embrace thy children, and I bring them vp with gladnesse, make their feet as fast as a pillar, for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord.

16 And those that be dead will I helpe vp againe from their place, & bring them out of the granes, for I haue knowen I my Name in Israel.

17 Feare not, thou mother of the children: for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord.

18 For thy helpe, I will send my seruants Esay and Ieremie, after whose counsell I haue sanctified and prepared for thee twelue trees, laden with sweet fruits.

19 And as many fountaines flowing with milke and honey, and seuen mighty mountains, whereupon their grow roses, and lillies, whereby I will fill thy childen with ioy.

20 Doe right to the widow, iudge for the fatherlesse, giue to the poore, defend the orphan, clothe the naked.

21 Heale the broken and the weak, laugh not a lame man to scorn, defend the maimed, and let the blind man come into the light of my clearnesse.

22 Keepe the old and young within thy walls.

23 Wherefoeur thou findest the dead, I take them and bury them, and I will giue thee the first place in my reformation.

24 Abide still, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietnesse shall come.

25 Nourish thy children, O thou good nurse, stublith their feet.

26 As for the seruants whom I haue giuen thee, there shall not one of them perish: for I will requaire them from among thy number.

27 Be not weary, for when the day of trouble and heauinesse cometh, others shall weep and be sorrowfull: but thou shalt be merry and haue abundance.

28 The heathen shall enuy thee, but they shall be able to doe nothing against thee, saith the Lord.

29 Mine hands shall couer thee, so that thy children shall not see hel.

30 Be ioyfull, O thou mother with thy children: for I will deliuer thee, saith the Lord.

31 Remember thy children that sleepe, for I shall bring them out of the sides of the earth, and shew mercy vnto them: for I am mercifull, saith the Lord Almighty.

32 Embrace thy children vntill I come and I shew mercy vnto them: for my writs run ouer, and my grace shall not faile.

33 I Esdras receiued a charge of the Lord, vpon the mount Oreb, that I should goe vnto Iisack: but when when I came vnto them, they ſet me at noughe, and deſpiſed the commandement of the Lord.

24 And therefore I ſay vnto you, O ye heathen, that haue and vaderſtand: looke for your ſhepheard, he ſhall giue you enſeruing reſt, for he is nigh at hand that ſhall come in the end of ſ world

25 Be ready to the reward of the Kingdome, for the enſeruing light ſhall ſhine vpon you for euermore.

26 Fiſe the ſhadow off his world, receive the ſeyntines of your glory: I teſtifie my Sauour openly.

27 O receive the gift that is giuen you, and bee glad giuing thanks to him that hath called you to the heauenly kingdome.

45 He answered and ſaid vnto me, Theſe be they that haue put off the mortall clothing, and put on the immortal, and haue comfitted the Name of God now are they crownded, and receive palmes.

46 Then ſaid I vnto the Angel, What young perſon is it that crowneſt them, and giue them palmes in their hands?

47 So he answered, and ſaid vnto me, It is the Son of God, whom they haue comfitted in the world, Then began I greatly to commend them that ſtood ſo ſuſtly for the Name of the Lord.

6 And thou leddeſt him into Paradife, which thy right hand had planted, before euer the earth came forward.

7 And vnto him thou gaueſt commandementes long thy way which he tranſgreſſed, and immediatly thou appoyneſt death in him, and in his generations of whom came nations, tribes, people, and kindred out of number.

8 And euer y people walked after their owne will, and did wonderful things before thee, and deſpiſed thy commandementes.

9 And againe, in proceſſe of time thou broughteſt the flood vpon thoſe that dwelt in the world, and deſtroyeſt them.

10 And it came to paſſe in euer y of them, that as death was to Adam, ſo was the flood to thee.

11 Neuertheleſſe one of them thou leſt, namely,

12 Noah with his houſhold, of whom came all righteous men.

13 And it happened, that when they that dwelt vpon the earth began to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began againe to haue more vngodly then the fiſt.

14 Now when they liued ſo wickedly before thee, thou diddeſt chuſe thee ſ man from among them, whoſe name was Abraham.

15 Him thou loueſt, and vnto him onely thou ſaueſt thy will 1

16 And madeſt an enſeruing Covenant with him, promiſing him that thou wouldeſt neuer forſake his feed.

17 And vnto him thou gaueſt Isaac, and vnto Isaac alſo thou gaueſt Iacob and Eſau. As for Iacob, thou diddeſt chooſe him to thee, and yet by Eſau, and ſo Iacob became a great multitude.

18 And it came to paſſe, that when thou leddeſt his feed out of Egypt, thou broughteſt them vp to the mount ſin.

19 And bowing the heauens, thou diddeſt ſet fall the earth, mooueſt the whole world, and madeſt the depth to tremble, and troubledeſt the men of that age.

20 And thy glory went through ſoure gates of ſie, and of earthquake, and of wine and of gold, that thou mighteſt giue the Law vnto the feed of Iacob; and diligence vnto the generation of Iſrael.

21 And yet tookeſt thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy Law might bring forth fruit in them.

22 For the fiſt Adam bearing a wicked heart, tranſgreſſed, and was our come, and ſo be all they that are borne of him.

23 Thus inſirmity was made peremnent, and the Law (alſo) in the heart of the people, with the malignity of the root; ſo that the good departed away, and the euill abode ſtill.

24 So the times paſſed away, and the yeres were brought to an end, & then diddeſt thou raiſe thee vp a ſeruant called Darius, 25 Whom thou commandeſt to build a city vnto thy Name, and to offer incenſe and oblationes vnto thee therein.

26 When this was done many yeres, then they that inhabited the city forſooke thee.

27 And in all things did euill as Adam and all his generations had done, for they alſo had a wicked heart.

28 And ſo thou gaueſt the city over into the hands of thine enemies.

29 Are their deede then any better that inhabit Babylon, then they ſhould therefore haue the dominion ouer ſion?

30 For when I came thither, and had ſene impieties without number, than my ſoule ſaw many euill doers in that ſixty yere, ſo that my heart failed me.

20 For I have seen how thou sufferest them flying, and hast spared wicked doers, and hast destroyed the people, and hast preferred thine enemies, and hast not signified it.

21 ¶ I doe not remember how this way may be kept: Are they of Babylon better then they of Senn?

22 Or is there any other people that knoweth thee besides Israel? or what generation hath to beleeved thy commands as Iacob?

23 And yet their reward appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruit, for I have gone here & there through the heathen, and I see that they } show in wealt.h, and thinke not } upon thy Commandments.

24 Weigh thou therefore our wickedness now in the ballance, and theirs also that dwell in the world: and fo shall thy Name as where be found but in Israel.

25 Or when was it, that they which dwell upon the earth have not sinned in thy sight? or what people hath fo kept thy Commandments?

26 Thou shalt sude that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts: but not the heathen.

CHAP. IIIE

1 The Angel declareth the ignorance of Iſraim in Gods iudgement. 2 and aduiseb him not to muddle wib: things about his reach. 3 Remembre thy selfe, Iſraim asketh diuers questions, and returneth answers to them.

AND the Angel that was sent vnto me, whose name was Vziel, gaue me an answer,

1 And said, Thy heart hath gone coo far in this world, and thinkest thou to comprehend the way of the most High?

2 Then said I, Yea my Lord, and he answered me, and said, I am fex to show thee three wayes, and to set forth three similitudes before thee.

3 Whereof if thou canst declare me one, I will show thee also the way that thou desirest to see, and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart cometh.

4 And I said, Tell on my Lord, Then said he vnto me, Goe thy way, weigh me the weight of the fire, or measure me the bulk of the wind, or call me against the day that is past.

5 Then answered I he said, Where mine is able to doe that, } thou shouldst adue such things of me?

6 And he said vnto me, If I should aske thee how great dwellings are in the midst of the Sea, or how many springs are in the beginning of the deepe, or how many springs are above the firmament, or which are the outgoings of Paradise?

7 Peradventure thou wouldst say vnto me, I neuer went downe into the deepe, nor as yett iur'd hell, neither did I euer climb vnto heauen.

8 Remember, now haue I asked thee but only of the fire and wind, and of the day where through thou hast passed, and of things from which thou canst not be separated: and yett canst thou giue me no answer of them.

9 He said moreover vnto me, These owne things and such as are growen vp with thee, canst thou not know.

10 How should thy vessel then be able to comprehend the way of the Highest, and the world being now outwardly corrupted, so vnderstand the corruption that is eident in my sight?

11 Then said I vnto him, It were better that we were not at all then that we should liue still in wickedness, and so suffer, and not to know wherefore.

12 He answered me and said, I went downe a forrest into a plaine, and the trees were comfitt.

13 And said, Come, let us goe and make war against the Sea, that it may depart away before vs, and that we may make vs more wouds.

14 The floods of the sea also in like manner took counsell, and said, Come let vs goe vp and subdue the woods of the plaine, that there also we may make vs another country.

15 The thought of the wood was in vaine, for the fire came and consumed it.

16 The thought of the floods of the Sea resembled likewise to nought, for the said flood vp and flooded them.

17 If thou wert iudge now betwixt these two, whom wouldst thou begin to iustifie, or whom wouldst thou condempne?

18 I answered and said, Verely it is a foolish thought that they both haue deuided; for the } ground is giuen vnto the wood, and the Sea also hath his place to beare his } floods.

19 Then answered he me and said, Thou hast giuen a right iudgement, but why iudgest thou not thy selfe also?

20 For like as the } ground is giuen vnto the wood, and the sea to his floods: euen so } they that dwell upon the earth may vnderstand nothing, but that which is vpon the earth: and he that dwelleth above the heauen, may euerly vnderstand the things that are above the height of the heauen.

21 Then answered I, and said, I beseech thee, O Lord let me haue vnderstanding.

22 For it was not my mind to be curious of the high things, but of such as passe by vs daily, namely, wherefore Israel is giuen vp as a reproch to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loued, is giuen ouer vnto vngodly nations, and why } Isaac of our forefathers is brought to yonght, and the written covenant come to } none effect.

23 And we passe away out of the world as grasshoppers, and our life is astonishment, and feare, and we are not worthy to obtaine mercy.

24 What will he then doe vnto his Name, where by we are called? of these things haue I asked.

25 Then answered he mee, and said, The spirit that searcheth the more than thals marvell for the world hath fast to passe away.

26 And canst comprehend the things that are promised to } righteous in time to come: for this world is full of vngodlinesse and infirmitie.

27 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee: for the euill is longed, but the destruction thereof is not yett come.

28 If therefore that which is sowne, be not trampled vnder downe, and if the place where the euill is sowne, passe not away, then cannot it come that is sowne with good.

29 For the graine of euill seed hath bene sowne in the heart of Adan from the beginning, and how much vngodlinesse hath it brought vp vnto this time? and how much shall it yett bring forth vntill the } time of threshing come?

30 Powder now by thy selfe, how great fruit of wickedness the graine of euill seed hath brought forth.

31 And when } eares shall be cut down, which are without number, how great a floore shall they fill?

32 Then they answered, and said, How, and when shall these things come to passe? wherefore are our yeeres few and euill.

33 And he answered me, saying, Doe not thou hasten about the most Highest: for thy hast is in vaine to be above him, for thou hast much exceeded.

35 Did not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when cometh the fruit of the sowers of our reward?

36 And vnto these things Vriell the Archangel gaue them answer, and said, euen when the number of seeds is filled in you: for he hath weighed the world in the ballance.

37 By measure hath he measured the times, and by number hath he numbered the times; and he doeth not mooue nor stirre them, vntill the said measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answered he, and said, O Lord, that beareth rule, euen we all are full of impiety.

39 And for our sakes peradventure it is that the sowers of the righteous are not filled, because of the sinnes of them that dwell vpon the earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Goe thy way to a woman with child, and aske of her when the hath fulfilled her nine moneths? If her wombe may keepe the birth any longer within her?

41 Then said I, No, Lord, that can she not. And he said vnto me, in the graue, the chambers of soules are like the wombe of a woman.

42 For like as a woman that travaileth maketh hast to escape the necessity of the traile: euen so doe these places hast to deliuer those things that are committed vnto them.

43 From the beginning looke what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee.

44 Then answered I, and said, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meet therefore:

45 Show me then whether there be more to come then is past, or more past then is to come.

46 What is past, I know; but what is for to come, I know not.

47 And he said vnto me, Stand vp vpon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude vnto thee.

48 So I stood, and saw, and behold, an hote burning ouen passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by, I looked, and beheld the smoke remained still.

49 After this, there passed by before me, a watery cloud, and feat downe much raime with a storme, and when the stormy raime was past, the drops remained still.

50 Then said he vnto me, Consider with thy selfe, so the raime is more then the drops, and as the fire is greater then the smoke: but the drops and the smoke remaineth behind: so the quantity which is past, did more exceed.

51 Then I prayed, and said, May I line thinke that thou vntill that time? or what shall happen in those dayes.

52 He answered me, and said, As for the darkness wherof thou askest me, I may tell thee of them in part; but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee, for I doe not know it.

C H A P. V.

1 The signes of the times to come. 23 He asketh why God chusing but one people, did cast them off. 30 He is taught that Gods iudgements are vnsearchable. 46 And that God doeth not all as ween.

¶ Euen as he, as concerning the tokens, behold the dayes shall come, that they which dwell vpon earth, shall see taken in a great number, and the way of truth shall be hidden, and the land shall be barren of faith.

2 A Bar * inquiry shall be increased aboue that which now thou seest, or that thou hast heard long agoe.

3 And the land [that thou seest now] to haue vnto, shall thou see washed suddenly.

4 But if the most High grant thee to line, thou shalt see after the third trumpet, that the Sun shall suddenly shone againe in the night, and the Moone darke in the day.

5 And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall giue his voyce; and the people shall be troubled.

6 And euen he shall rule, whom they looke not for, that dwell vpon the earth, and the ioues shall take their flight away together.

7 And the Sodomites shall cast out fish, and make a noise in the night, which many haue not knowen; but they shall all heare the voyce therof.

8 There shall be a confusion also in many places, and the fire shall be oft sent out againe, and the wild beastes shall change their places, and monstrous women shall bring forth monsters.

9 And salt waters shall be found in the sweet, and all friends shall destroy one another: then shall we hide in selfe, and vnderstanding withdrawe it selfe into his secret chamber,

10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be found: then shall wrighteousnesse and innocency be multiplied vpon earth.

11 One land also shall like another, and say, Is righteousness that maketh a man righteous, gone through thee? and it shall say, No.

12 At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obtaine: they shall labour, but their wayes shall not prosper.

13 To shew thee such tokens I haue leaue; and if thou wilt pray againe, and weep as now, and fast (euen dayes, thou shalt heare yet greater things.

14 Then I swaied, and an extreme fearefulnesse went through all my body, and my mind was troubled, so that it space.

15 So the Angel that was come to talke with me, held me, comforted me, and sit me vp vpon my feet.

16 And in the second night it came to passe, that Salathiel the captain of the people came vnto me, saying, Where hast thou bene? and why is thy countenance so heavy?

17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed vnto thee, in the land of their captivity?

18 Vp thou, and seek bread, and forsake we not as the shepherd that leaueh his flocke in the hands of cruell wolues.

19 Then said I vnto him, goe thy wayes from me, and come not nigh me: And hec heard what I said, and went from me.

20 And I fasted ieten dayes, mourning, and weeping like as Vriell the Angel commanded me: and after seven daies, so it was that the thoughts of my heart was very gracious vnto me againe.

21 And my soule recovered the spirite of vnderstanding, and I began to talke with the most High againe.

22 And said, O Lord that beareth rule of eery wood of the earth, and of all the trees therof, thou hast chosen thee one ouerly vine.

23 And of all lands of the whole world, thou hast chosen thee one pit: and of all the flowers therof, one Lilly.

24 And of all the depths of the sea, thou hast filled thee one river: and of all builded cities, thou hast hollowed Sion vnto thy selfe.

25 And of all the soules that are created, thou hast named thee one Dove: and of all the count that are made, thou hast requiered thee one sheepe.

27 And among all the multitudes of peoples, thou hast gotten thee one people? and unto this people whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a Law that is approved of all.

28 And now, O Lord, why hast thou given this one people over unto many? and I upon the one route hast thou prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy only one people among many?

29 And they which did gaine say thy promises, and beleev'd not thy covenant, have troden thee downe.

30 If thou diddest so much hate thy people, yet shouldst thou punish them with thine own hands.

31 Now when I had spoken these words, an Angel that came to me the night afore, was iour unto me, 32 And said unto me, Heare me, and I will instruct thee: hearken to the thing that I say, and I shall tell thee more.

33 And I said, Speake on my Lord, Then said he unto me, Thou art fore troubled in mind for Israels sake: I wold thou that people better than he that made them?

34 And I said, No Lord, but of very griefe have I spoken: for my reines paine me every hour, while I labour to comprehend the way of the most High, and to seeke out part of his judgement.

35 And he said unto me, Thou canst not: and I said, Wherefore Lord? whereunto was I create thee? or why was not my mothers wombe thee my grave, that I might not have seen the travail of labour, & the wearisome toyle of the stocke of Israel?

36 And he said unto me, Number me the things that are not yet come, gather me together the drops that are scattered abroad, make me the flowers greene againe that are withered.

37 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the winds that inghen are shut vp, shew me the image of a voyce, and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know.

38 And I said, O Lord that bearest rule, who may know these things, but he that hath nothis dwelling with men?

39 As for mee, I am wunlike how may I then speake of these things whereof thou askest mee?

40 Then said he unto me, Like as thou canst doe none of these things that I have spoken of, even so canst thou not find out my judgement, or in the end the love that I have promised unto my people.

41 And I said, Behold, O Lord, yet art thou aigh unto them that be reserved till the end, and what shall they doe that have bene before me, or wee (that be now) or they that shall come after vs?

42 And he said unto me, I will liken my judgement unto a ring: like as there is no slacknesse of the last, even so there is no twining of the first.

43 So I answered, and said, Considerst thou not make those that have bene made, and bene, and that are for to come, at once, that thou mightest shew thy judgement the sooner.

44 Then answered he me, and said: The creature may not haue about the maker, neither may the world hold them at once: I shall create therein.

45 And I said, as thou hast said unto thy servant, that thou which givest life to all, hast given life at once to the creature that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: even so it might now also beare paine that now bee present at once.

46 And he said unto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, and I say unto her, If thou bringest forth children, why dost thou is not together, but one after another? pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

47 And I said, Shere cannot: but must doe it by distance of time.

48 Then said he unto me, Even so have I given the wombe of the earth to claie that be sowne in it, in their times.

49 For like as a young child may not bring forth the things that belong to the age, even so have I disposed the world which I created.

50 And I asked, and said, Seeing thou hast now given me the way, I will proceed to speake before thee: for our mother, of whom thou hast told me, that she is young, draweth now nigh unto age.

51 He answered me, and said; Aske a woman that beareth children, and she shall tell thee.

52 Say unto her, Wherefore are not they whom thou hast now brought forth, like those that were before, but lesse of stature?

53 And she shall answer thee, They that be borne in the strength of youth, are of one fashion, and they that are borne in the time of age, (when the wombe faileth) are otherwise.

54 Consider thou therefore also, how that ye are lesse of stature than those that were before you.

55 And so are they that come after you, lesse than ye: at the creature which now begin to be old, and have passed over the strength of youth.

56 Then said I, Lord, I beseech thee, if I have found favour in thy sight, shew thy servant by whom thou visitest thy creature.

CHAP. VI.

1 Gods purpose is eternal. 2 The next world shall follow this immediately. 3 What shall fall out at the last. 4 He is promised more knowledge. 5 and yet knoweth of the workes of the creation. 50 and complaineth that they have no part in the world for whom it was made.

And he said unto me, in the beginning when the earth was made, before the borders of the world stood, or ever the wind blew,

1 Before it thundered and lightened, or ever the foundations of Paradise were laid,

2 Before the faire flowers were sowne, or ever the moorable powers were established, before the innumerable multitude of Angels were gathered together.

4 Or ever the height of the ayre were lifted vp, before the measure of the firmament were named, or ever the chimneys in Sion were bor,

5 And ere the present yeres were soule out, and or ever the innovations of them that now sinne, were turned, before they were stated that have gathered faith for a treasure:

6 Then did I consider these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shall be ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I, and said, What shall be the parting of sunders of the times; for when shall be the end of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

8 And he said unto mee, From Abraham unto Isaac, when Jacob and Esau were borne of him, Jacobs hand held first the heels of Esau.

9 For Esau is the end of the world, and Jacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

10 The hand of man is betwene the heels and the hand: other questions like thou see.

11 I answered then, and said, O Lord, that bearest rule, if I have found favour in thy sight, 12 I beseech thee, shew thy servant the end of thy tokens, whereof thou shewdest mee part the last night.

13 So he answered, and said unto mee, Stand vp

14 And it shall be as it were a great jubilee, but 15 Where thou standest, shall not be moved.

16 Add therefore when it speaketh, be not afraid: for the word is of the end, and the foundation of the earth is unshaken.

17 And why I because the speech of these things trembleth, and is moaned: for it knoweth that the end of these things shall be changed.

18 And it happened that when I had heard it, I stood up upon my feet, and hearkened, and behold, there was a voice that spake, and the sound of it was like the sound of many waters.

19 And it said, Behold, the dayes come, that I will begin to draw nigh, and to visit them that dwell upon the earth.

20 And will begin to make inquisition of them: what they be that have hurt violently with their unrighteousness, and when the affliction of Sion shall be fulfilled.

21 And when the world that shall begin to vanish away, shall be finished: then will I show these tokens, the booke shall be opened before the firmament, and they shall see altogether.

22 And the children of a yere old shall speak with their voices, the women with child shall bring forth variously children: or three or four months old: and they shall live and be raised up.

23 And suddenly shall the seven places appear: and the fall of the bowes shall suddenly be heard: and they shall see altogether.

24 And the trumpet shall give a sound, which when many men heareth, they shall be suddenly raised.

25 At that time shall friends fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stand in fear: with these shall dwell the sin; the springs of the fountains shall stand still, and in three houres they shall not rise.

26 Whosoever remembereth from all these that I have told thee, shall escape, and see my salvation, and the end of thy world.

27 And the men that are received, shall see it, who have not cutteth cleave from their birth: and the heart of the habitans shall be changed, and turned into another meaning.

28 For evil shall be put out, and devils shall be quenched.

29 As for birds, it shall flourish, corruption shall be overcome, and the earth which have bin so long without fruit, shall be declared.

30 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked by little and little upon him before whom I stood.

31 And these words said he unto mee, I am come to show thee the time of the night to come.

32 If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seven daies againe, I shall tell thee the greater things by day than I have heard.

33 For thy voice is heard before the most High: for the mighty hath feared thy righteous dealing, he hath sent a voice to thy chastity, which thou hast had ever since thy youth.

34 And therefore hath he sent mee to show thee all these things, and to say unto thee: Bewe of good conduct, and beare not.

35 And hasten not with the times that are past, as things which things, that thou mayest not hasten from the latter times.

36 And it came to passe after this, that I wept againe, and sitted seven dayes in like manner, that I might fulfill the thre weekes, which he told me.

37 And in the eighth night was my heart vexed with him againe, and I began to speake before the most High.

38 For my spirit was greatly set on fire, and my soule was in distress.

39 And I said, O Lord, thou spakest from the beginning of the creation, even the first day, and hidest this, O Lord, heaven and earth be made: and thy word was a perfect worke.

40 And then was the spirit and darknesse, and silence were on every side: the sound of mans voice was not yet formed.

41 Then commandedst thou a faire light to come forth of thy treasures, that thy worke might appeare.

42 Upon the second day, thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commandedst it to part asunder, and to make a division betwixt the waters, that the one part might see up, and the other remaine beneath.

43 Upon the third day, thou didst command that the waters should be gathered: in the seventh part of the earth; six parts hast thou dried up and kept them, to the intent that of these fowre being planted of God, and tilled, might fruite thee.

44 For as much as thy word went forth, the worke was made.

45 For immediately there was great and innumerable fruit, and many and divers pleasures for the taste, and bowres of unchangeable colour, and odours of wonderful smell: and this was done the third day.

46 Upon the fourth day, thou commandedst that the sun should shine, and the moon give light, and the stars should be in order.

47 And gavest them a charge to doe service unto man that was to be made.

48 Upon the fifth day, thou saidst unto the seventh part, where the waters were gathered, that it should bring forth living creatures, foules and fishes: and so it came to passe.

49 For the drinke water, without life, brought forth living things at the commencement of Gods work: that all people might praise thy wondrous workes.

50 Then didst thou ordaine two living creatures, the one called Enoch, and the other Lamech.

51 And didst separate the one from the other: for the seventh part (namely, where the water was gathered together) might not hold them both.

52 Vnto Enoch thou gavest one part, which was dried up the third day, that he should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hills.

53 Vnto Lamech thou gavest the seventh part, namely the moor, and hast kept him to be denounced of whom thou wilt, and when.

54 Upon the sixth day, thou gavest commandement unto the earth, that before thee it should bring forth beasts, cattle, and creeping things.

55 And after this, Adam also, whom thou madest lord of all thy creatures, of him come we all, and the people all, whom thou hast choise.

56 All this have I spoken before thee, O Lord, because thou madest the world for our sakes.

57 As for the other people, which also come of Adam, thou hast said, that they are nothing, but be like unto spittle, and hast likened the abundance of them unto a drop that falleth from a vessel.

58 And now, O Lord, behold these heathens, which have ever bin reputed as nothing, have begun to be lords over us, and to devour us.

59 Not we thy people, whom thou hast called thy first borne, thy only begotten, and thy youngest son: we are ingoing into their hands.

39 If the world now be made for our sakes, why doe we not possesse an inheritance with the world? how long shall this endure?

CHAP. VII.

1 The way is narrow: 2 When it was made narrow. 3 All shall die and rise againe. 4 Christ shall sit in iudgements. 5 God hath not made Paradise in vaine, & it is mercifull.

AND when I had made an end of speaking these words, there was sent vnto mee the Angell which had bene sent vnto me the night before.

2 And he said vnto me, Vp Eldras, and heare the words that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I said, Speake on, my God. Then said hee vnto mee, The Sea is fet in a wide place, that it might be deepe and great.

4 But put the scale, the entrance were narrow, and like a nec:

5 Who then could goe into the Sea to looke vpon it, & to intie it? if hee went not thorow the narrow, how could he come into the broad?

6 There is also another thing, A city is builded and set vpon a broad field, and it full of all good things.

7 The entrance thereof is narrow, and is set in a dangerous place to fall like as if there were a fire on the right hand, and on the left a deepe water.

8 And one woly path betwene them both, euen betwene the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man goe there at once.

9 If this city now were giuen vnto a man for an inheritance; if hee were still shall passe the danger let before it, how shall he recouie this inheritance?

10 And I said, It is so, Lord. Then said he vnto mee, Euen so also in Israells portion?

11 Because for their sakes, I made the world: and when Adam transgressed my Statutes, then was decreed, that now is done.

12 Then were the entrances of this world made narrow, full of sorrow and travail, they are but few and small, full of perils, and very painefull.

13 For the entrances of the I cleare world were wide and sure, and brought innumerable fruit.

14 If then they that laboure not to enter these straight and vaine things, they can neuer recouie these that are laid vp for them.

15 Now therefore, why distrustest thou thy selfe, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? and why art thou moued, whereas thou art but vaine?

16 Why hast thou not considered in thy minde, this thing that is to come, rather then that which is present?

17 Then said I vnto him, O Lord, that bearest rule, thou hast bound in thy Law that the righteous should inherit these things, but that the vngodly should perishe.

18 Nevertheless, the righteous shall suffer frait things, and hope for wide: for they that haue done wickedly, haue suffered the frait things, and yet shall not see the wide.

19 And he said vnto me, There is no iudge above God, and none that hath vnderstanding about the Highest.

20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the Law of God, that is set before them.

21 For God hath giuen frait commandement to such as come, what they should doe to liue, in such as they came, and what they should obserue to avoid punishment.

22 Nevertheless they were not obedient vnto him, but spoke against him, and imagined vaine things.

23 And detested themselves, and their kindred, and said of the good things, they had done, and knew not his wayes.

24 But his Law how they despised, and despised his Commandes; in his Statutes haue they not beene faithfull, and haue not performed his worke.

25 And therefore Eldras, for the empty, and empty things, and for the full, are the old things.

26 Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I haue told thee, shall come to passe, and the braid shall appere, and the coming forth, shall be come, that now is withdrawn from the earth.

27 And whosoever is deliuered from the fore-said euils, shall see my wonders.

28 For my forme Iesus shall be reuealed, with those that be with him, and they that remaine, shall reioyce within foure hundred yeeres.

29 After these yeeres shall my Sonne Christ die, and all men that haue life.

30 And the world shall bee turned into the old silence, Iesus sayes, like as in the former iudgements: so that no man shall remaine.

31 And after seven dayes, the world that yet awaketh not, shall be raised vp, and that shall die that is corrupt.

32 And the earth shall restore those that are asleepe in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell in silence, and the secret places shall deliuer those soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the most High shall appere vpon the feat of iniquities, and misery shall passe away, and the long suffering shall haue an end.

34 But iudgement only shall remaine, such shall stand, and truth shall be strong.

35 And the works shall follow, and the reward shall be shewed, and the good deeds shall be of force, and wicked deeds shall be no more.

36 Then said I, Abraham prayed for the Sodomites, and Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wilderness?

37 And Iesus answered him for Israel in the time of Achan.

38 And Samson, and David for the destruction, and Solomon for them that should come to the Sanctuary.

39 And Helias for those that required rain, and for the dead, that he might liue.

40 And Elias for the people in the time of Samatharit, and many for many.

41 Euen to now seeing corruption is growne vp, and wickedness increased, and the righteous haue prayed for the vngodly: wherefore shall it not bee so now also?

42 He answered me, and said, This present life is not the end where much glory doth abide, therefore haue they prayed for the weak.

43 But the day of iudgement shall be the end of child time, in the beginning of the immortality for to come, wherein corruption is past.

44 Intemperancy is at an end, and deliety is cut off, righteousness is growne, and truth is sprung vp.

45 Then shall no man be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor to oppresse him that hath gotten the victory.

46 I answered then, and said, This is my first and last saying, That it had bene better for to haue giuen the earth vnto Adam, or else when it was giuen him, to haue restrained him from sinning.

47 For what profit is it for men now in this present time: to liue in heauynesse, and after death to looke for punishment?

48 O thou Adam, what hast thou done? for thought it was^e thou that wast, thou art not fallen alone, but we all that come of thee.

49 For what profit is it vnto vs, if there be promised vs an immortall time, whereas we haue done the workes that bring death?

50 And that there is promised vs an euertasting hope, whereas our selues, being most wicked, are made vaine?

51 And thus there are laid vpon vs dwellings of health and safety, whereas we haue liued wickedly?

52 And that the glory of the most High is kept to defend them which haue led a wary life, whereas we haue walked in the most wicked wayes of all?

53 And that there should be shewed a Paradise, whose fruit endureth for ever, whereas is security and medicine, wherewith we shall not enter into it?

54 For we haue walked in vopelousur places,

55 And that the faces of them which haue vfed abstinence shall shine about the Stars, whereas our faces shall be blacker then darkness?

56 For while we liued and committed iniquity, we considered not that we should begin to suffer for it after death.

57 Then answered hee me, and said This is the condition of the bectell, which man that is borne vpon the earth, shall fight, 58 That if he be overcome, he shall suffer as thou hast said, but if he get the victory, he shall receive the thing that I say.

59 For this is the life whereof Moses spake vnto the people while he liued, saying, "Chose thee life that thou mayest liue."

60 Nevertheless they believed not him, nor yet the Prophets after him, no nor me which haue spoken vnto them, 61 That there should not be such heauiness in their destruction, as shall beioyn our them that are persuaded to saluation.

62 I answered them, and said, I know, Lord, that the most High is called mercifull, in that he hath mercy vpon them which are not yet come into the world,

63 And vpon those also that turne to his Law,

64 And that hee is patient, and long suffereth those that haue sinned, as his creatures,

65 And that he is bountifull, for he is ready to giue where it needeth, 66 And that hee is of great mercy, for hee multiplieth more and more mercies to them that are present, and that are past, and also to them which are to come.

67 For if he shall not multiply his mercies, the world would not continue with them that inherit therein.

68 And hee pardoneth; for if hee did not so of his goodnesse that they which haue committed iniquities, might be eased of them, the thousand part of men should not remaine liuing.

69 And being iudge, if hee should not forgive them that are secured with his word, and put out the multitude of his contractions;

70 There should be very few left peraduenture in an innumerable multitude.

CHAP. VIII.

1 He created but few saved. 2 He telleth vnto God he sheweth his own works. 3 He and prayeth God to looke vpon the people which onely serue him, 4 God answered that all setd command not so good, 5 and that glory is prepared for him and such like.

And he answered mee, saying, The most High hath made this world for many, but the world to come for few.

2 I will tell thee a similitude, Eldras, as whereby thou shalt see the earth, it shall say vnto thee, that it giueth much mould, whereof earthen vessels are made, but little dust that gold cometh of; thus so is the course of this present world.

3 There be many created, but few shall be saved.

4 So answered I, and said Swallow thou downe,

O my soule, vnderstanding, and denoure wisdom.

5 For thou hast agreed to giue eare, and art willing to prophesie; for thou hast no longer space then onely to liue.

6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy seruant, that we may pray before thee, and thou shalt giue us vnto our heart, and culture to our vnderstanding, that there may come fruit of it, how shall euery man liue that is corrupt, who beareth the price of a man?

7 For thou art alone, and we all one workmanship of thine hands, like as thou hast said.

8 For when the body is fashioned now in the mothers wombe, and thou giueth it members, and creature is pictured in fire and water, and nine moneths doth the workmanship endure thy creature which is created in her.

9 But that which keepeth, and is kept shall both be preferred, when the time cometh, the things that grew in the body, that is to say, out of the breasts, milke to be giuen, which is the fruit of the breasts.

10 That the thing which is fashioned, may be nourished for a time, till thou disposest it to thy mercy.

11 Thou broughtest it vpon with thy righteousness, and nurtured it in thy Law, and returned it with thy iudgement.

12 And thou shalt mortifie it as thy creature, and giueth it as thy worke.

13 If therefore the thing is desired by him which with so great labour was fashioned, it is an asse thing to be ordained by thy commendement, that the thing which was made might be preferred.

14 Now therefore Lord, I will speak; touching man in general, thou knowest best; but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sorry,

15 And for thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourne, and for Israel, for whom I am heavy, and for Iacob, for whose sake I am troubled;

16 Therefore will I begin to pray before thee, for myselfe, and for them; for I see the fall of vs that dwell in the land.

17 But I haue heard the swiftnesse of the Iudge, which it is to come.

18 Therefore heere my voyce, and I shall speake before thee; this is the beginning of the word of Eldras, before he was taken vpon; and I said;

19 O Lord, thou that dwellest in euertasting peace, which beholdest from aboue, things in the heauen and in the earth;

20 Whose thron is ineffible, whose glory may not be comprehended, before whom the hostes of Angels stand with trembling,

21 Whose seruice is constant in wind and fire; whose word is true, and sayings constant, whose commendement is strong, and ordinance fearefull,

22 Whose looke drieth vp the depthe, and indignation maketh the mountains to melt away, which the truth witnesseth;

23 O heare the prayer of thy seruant, and giue care to the petition of thy creature.

24 For while I liue, I will speake, and so long as I haue vnderstanding, I will answer.

25 O looke vpon the finnes of thy people; but on them which serue thee in truth.

27 Regard not the wicked inventions of the heathen; but the desire of those that keep thy Testimonies in afflictions.

28 Think not upon those that have walked proudly before thee; but remember them, which according to thy will have knowne thy feate.

29 Let it not be thy will to destroy them which have lived like beasts; but to look upon them that have clearly taught thy Law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which are deemed worse than beasts; but love them that always put their trust in thy righteousness and glory. For we and our fathers have languish of such diseases; but because of vs sinners, thou shalt be called mercifull.

31 For if thou hast a desire to have mercy upon vs, thou shalt be called mercifull, vs usually, that have no workes of righteousness.

32 For the iust which have many good workes laid up with thee, shall use of their owne deues receive reward.

33 For what it may that thou shouldst take displeasure at him? what is a corruptible generation, that thou shouldst be bitter toward it?

34 For in earth there is no man among them that be honest, but he hath deale wickedly; and among the faithfull, there is none which hath not done amisse.

35 For in this, O Lord thy righteousness, and thy goodness shall be declared; if thou be mercifull vnto them, which have not the confidence of good workes.

36 Then answered he me, and said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, and according vnto thy words it shall be.

37 For indeed I will not think on the disposition of them which have lived before death, before judgement; before I strike on.

38 But I will reuerse over the disposition of the righteous; and I will remember all their pilgrimages, and the education; and the reward that they shall have.

39 Like as I have spoken now, so shall it come to passe.

40 For as the husbandman soweth much seed upon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet the thing that is sowne good in his season, cometh not up, neither doth all that is planted take root; even so is it of them that are sowed in the world; they shall not all be sined.

41 I answered then, and said, If I have found grace, let me speake.

42 Like as the husbandmans seed perisheth, if it come not up and receive not the rain in his season; or if there come too much rain, and corrupt it;

43 Even so perisheth in man also which is sowne with thy hands, and is called thins owne image, because thou art like vnto him, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seed.

44 Be not wroth with vs, but spare the people, and have mercy vpon thine owne inheritance; for thou art mercifull vnto thy creature.

45 Then answered he me, and said, Things present are for the present, and things to come, for vs to come.

46 For thou comest far short, that thou shouldst be able to love my creature worse then I; but I have oft times drawen sigh vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.

47 In this alle thou art maruilous before the multitude.

48 Is that thou hast humbled thy selfe, as if thou comest thee, and hast not iudged thy selfe worse thy to be much glorified among the righteous.

49 For many great miseries shall be done to them that in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they have walked in great pride.

50 But vnderstand thou for thy selfe, and seek out the glory for such as be like thee.

51 For vnto you is Paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plentifulness is made ready, a city is builded, and rest is allowed, yea, perfect goodnesse and wisdom.

52 The out of euill is sealed up from you; weakness and the moth is hid from you, and corruption is led into hell, to be forgotten.

53 Sorrows are passed, and in the end is shewed the creature immortality.

54 And therefore like thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

55 For when they had taken liberty, they despised the most High, thought scorn of his Law, and forsooke his wayes.

56 Moreover, they have troden downe his righteousness,

57 And said in their heart, that there is no God, yet, not knowing they must die.

58 For as the things aforesaid shall receive you, so chere and paine are prepared for them; for it was not his will that men should come to ought.

59 But they which be contented, have defiled the Name of him that made them; and were vnto him tall vnto him which prepared life for them.

60 And therefore is my iudgement now at hand. 61 The e things have I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto thee, and a few liker thee. Then answered I, and said, 62 Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed me the multitude of the wonders which thou wilt begin to doe in the last tyme, but at what time, thou hast not shewed me.

CHAP. IX.

1 Who shall be saved, and who not. 19 All the world is now corrupted, 22 The God with sand a few. 23 He complaineth that those perish which keepe Gods Law: 28 and seeth a woman tanning in a field.

HE answered me then, and said, Measure thou the time diligently in the field; & when thou seest part of the signes past which I have told thee before.

2 Then shalt thou vnderstand that it is the very same time when in the Highest will begin to visit the world which he made.

3 Therefore when there shall be stene earthquakes and vnto the people in the world;

4 Then shalt thou well vnderstand, that the most High spake of those things from the dayen that were before thee, curs from the beginning.

5 For like as all that is made in the world, hath a beginning, and an end, and the end is made;

6 Even so the times also of the Highest hath plaine beginnings in wonders and powerful workes, and endings in effects and signes.

7 And therefore that shall be saved, and shall be able to escape by his workes, and by faith, vnto by perils and perils.

8 Shall see no destruction in my land, and within my borders; for I have iudged them for me, from the beginning.

9 Then shall they be in pittiful case, which now have shined my wayes; and they that have cast them away selfrightfully, shall dwell in corners, to be

10 For such as in their life have received benediction, and have not knowne mee:

11 And they that have loured my Law, while they had yet liberty, and when a ny place of recompence was open unto them, understood not, but suspected:

12 The same must know it after death by paine, 13 And therefore see thou not our case, how the vngodly shall be punished, and when: but enquire how the righteous shall be saved, whose the world is, and for whom the world is created.

14 Then answered I, and said,

15 I have said before, and now doe speake, and will speake it also hereafter; that there be many more of them which perish, then of them which shall be saved.

16 Like as a wave is greater then a drop.

17 And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the see: as the flowers be, such are the colours also: such as the woman is, such also is the worke: as the husbandman is kindle, so is his husbandry also: for it was the creature of the world.

18 And now when I prepared the world, which was not yet made, men for thee to dwell in; that now live, no man spake gainst me.

19 For this enty on: ob. yed, that now the maner of them which are created in this world, that is made, are corrupted by a peccatiuall law, and by a Law which is vnschearable, and thence is said:

20 So I considered the world, and beheld, there was perill, because of the deuites that were count into it.

21 And I saw, and spied it greatly, and haue kept mee a grape of the cluster, and a plant of a great people.

22 Let the multitude perishe then, which was borne in vaine, and let me I grape be kept, and my plant for with grape labour. hence I made it perishe.

23 Newerthlesse, I shall with cease yet from dayes mee, (but thou shalt not fast in thow.)

24 But goe into a field of flowers, where no house is builded, and eat onely the flowers of the field, take no fleshe, drinke no wine, nor eat flowers onell.

25 And pray vnto the High God continually, then will I come and talke with thee.

26 So I went my way into the field, which is called Arach. like as he commanded me, and there I sate among the flowers, and did eat of the herbs of the field, and the meat of the same satisfied me.

27 After seven dayes I rose vpon the grass, and my heart was vexed within me like as before.

28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talke before the most High, and said, 29 O Lord, thou that therest thy selfe vnto vs, thou wast shewed vnto our fathers in the wilderness, in a place where no man steredeth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egipt.

30 And thou spakest, saying, He are me, O Israel, as I make my way vnto you, and it shall bring fruit in you, and yee shall be honoured in it for ever.

31 But, our fathers which received the Law, kept it not, and obserued not the ordinances, and through the fruit of thy Law did not perish, neither count, for it was thine:

32 Yet they that received it, perished, because they kept not the thing that was sowne in them.

33 And loe, it is a custome when the ground hath receiued seed, or the Sea a ship, or any vnto: it meere or drinke, that that being perishe, and wherein it was sowne or cast into,

34 That thing also which was sowne or cast there, or receiued, doth perishe, and remaineth not with vs: that which is hath not happened so.

35 For we that haue receiued the Law, perish by sinne, and we haue also which see in us it.

36 Notwithstanding, the Law perisheeth not, but remaineth in his force.

37 And when I spake these things in my heart, I looked backe with mine eyes, and vpon the right side I saw a woman, and beheld, she was weened, and wept with a loud voyce, and was much grieved in heart, and her clothes were rent, and she had ashes vpon her head.

38 Then let my thoughts go that I was dead, and turned me vnto her, 39 And I said vnto her, Wherefore weepst thou? why art thou so grieved in the mind?

40 And she said vnto me, Sir, Let me alone, that I may bewaile my selfe, and add vnto my sorrow, for I am sore vexed in my mind, and I ought weep vnto thee.

41 And I said vnto her, What aileth thee? Tell mee.

42 Shee said vnto me, I thy seruant haue bene barren and had no child, though I had an husband thirty yeeres.

43 And those thirty yeeres I did nothing elsse day and night, and euery day I brought my prayer to the High God.

44 After thirty yeeres God heard me thine handmaid, looked vpon my misery, and isured my trouble, and gave me neede of a sonne: and I was very glad of him: so was my husband also, and all my neighbours, and we went great honour vnto the Almighty.

45 And I nourished him with great care.

46 So when hee grew vp, and came to the time that he should take a wife, I was afeard.

CHAPTER X.

1 He comforted the women in the field, 27 The woman wash away, and a city appeared in her place.

3 The Angel declared his visitation in the field.

4 And it became top all that which my vision was entered into his wedding chamber, hee fell down and d. c.

5 Then we all together threw the lights, and all my neighbours rose vp to comfort me, (so I took my rest vnto the second day at night.

6 And it came to pass, when they had all left off to comfort me, in the end I might be quiet: I rose I vnto night, and I did, and came hither into this field, as thou seest.

7 And I doe now purpose mee to returne into the city, but here to stay, and neither to eat nor drinke, but continually to moue, and to fast vnto all day.

8 There is I the I meator: om where in I was, and I spake to her in anger, saying,

9 Then I tosh woman: ob. ne all other, seest thou not our mourning, and what hath befallen vnto vs? How hath this our woe: her is full of all heauynesse, and much heauynesse mourning vnto thee.

10 And now seeing wee all mourne, and thou satest for wee are all in heauynesse, art thou g. eened for our sinne?

11 For ake the earth, and she shall vnto thee, that it is the which might to mourne, for the fall of so many that grow vnto hee.

12 For our sinne became all at the first, and our of her shall also: hee come: and behold, they walke almost all into destruction, and a multitude of the is vnto vs: so we are cut.

13 Who then should make more mourning, then shee that hath lost so great a multitude, and not those which are sorry but for our sinne?

And now do we say the same of the world as we come vnto I weeping the world, etc. I But vnto the world was made borne in vaine, and both now and then, the manner of every one created were corrupted by a sinne falling her selfe, and a Law vnto search of her, vnto, vnto, Exod. 29. and 34. etc. etc.

And it became top all that which my vision was entered into his wedding chamber, hee fell down and d. c. etc.

12 But if thou sayest vnto me, My lamentation is not like the earth, because I haue lost the fruit of my wombe, which I brought fourth with paines, and bore with sorrowes.

13 But the earth not so: for the multitude present vnto it, according to the curse of the earth, is gone as it came.

14 Therefore I vnto thee, Like as thou hast brought forth with labour vnto the earth: she hath giuen her fruit, namely vnto euery since the beginning, vnto this that made her.

15 Now therefore keepe thy sorrow to thy selfe, and haue with a good courage that which hath befallen thee.

16 For if thou shalt acknowledge the determination of God to be iust, thou shalt both receive thy soule in time, and shalt bee commended amongst women.

17 Goe thy way then into the city to thine husband.

18 And she said vnto me, That will I not doe: I will not goe into the city, but here will I die.

19 So I proceeded to speake further vnto her and said,

20 Doe not so, but be comforted by me: for how many are the sinners of Sion? Be comforted in regard of the forme of Ierusalem.

21 For thus saith the Lord God: My Altar is broken downe, our Temple destroyed.

22 Our Priests lie in dust on the ground, our King is put to silence, our religious are as an end, the light of our candle is put out, the Arke of our Covenant is spoiled, our holy things are defiled, and the Name that is named vpon vs, is almost profaned: our children are put to shame, our Priests are burnt, our Levites are gone into captivity, our virgins are reuelled, and our wives reuelled, our righteous men carried away, our little ones destroyed, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong men are become weak.

23 And which is the greatest of all, the Scale of Sinne hath now lost her honour: for she is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake off thy griefe of bewailing, and put away the multitude of sorrowes, that the Might may be manifest vnto thee againe, and the Highest shall giue thee rest and quietness on thy labour.

25 And it came to passe, while I was talking with her, behold, her face vpon a sudden shined exceedingly, and she was out of glory, so that I was afraid of her, and woted what it might be.

26 And behold, suddenly there came a great cry, very loud full in the that the earth shooke at the noise of the woman.

27 And I looked, and beheld, the woman appeared vnto me no more, but there was a citie builded, and a large place thereof: I fell from the foundation: then was I afraid, and cryed with a loud voice, and said, 28 Where is the Angel, who came vnto me at the first? for he hath caused me to fall into many tribulations, and mine end is turned into contempt, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was speaking these words, behold, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me.

30 And hee, I say as one that had bene dead, and mine understanding was taken from me, and hee toke me by the right hand and comforted me, and set me vpon my feet and said vnto me, 31 What aileth thee? and why art thou so disquieted? and why is thine understanding troubled, and the thoughts of thine heart?

31 And I said, Because thou hast forsaken me, and yet I stid according to thy words, and I went into the field, and loe, I haue seene, and yet for, that I am not able to expresse.

32 And he said vnto me, Stand vp manfully, and I will aduise thee.

33 Then said I, I speake on my Lord in the only forsake me not, lest I die frustrate of my hope.

34 For I haue seene that I knew not, and heard that I doe not know.

35 Or is my life decayed, or my soule in a decay?

36 Now therefore, I beseech thee, that thou wilt shew thy iudgement of this vision.

37 He answered me then, and said, Heare me, and I shall informe thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraid: for the Highest will reueale many secret things vnto thee.

38 He hath seene that thy way is right for that I, or the foremost continually for thy people, and my purpose: keepest great indignation for Sion.

39 This therefore is the meaning of the vision which thou lately sawest.

40 Thou sawest a woman mourning, and thou beganst to comfort her:

41 But now I tell thee the like of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a city builded.

42 And whereas she told thee of the death of her sonne, this is the Iolation.

43 This woman whom thou sawest, is Sion: and whereas she said vnto thee (saith she whom thou sawest) I built a city builded.

44 Whereas I say, she said vnto thee that shee hath bin thirty yeeres barren: those are the thirty yeeres wherein there was no offering made in her.

45 But after thirty yeeres Solomon builded the citie, and offered offerings: and then bare the barren a sonne.

46 And whereas she told thee, that shee mourned him who laboureth that was the dwelling in Ierusalem.

47 But whereas she said vnto thee, That my sorrow comming into his marriage chamber, happened to her a fall and died, this was the destruction that came to Ierusalem.

48 And behold, thou sawest her likenesse, and because she mourned for her sonne, thou beganst to comfort her, and of that thing which hath chanced, there are to be opened vnto thee.

49 For now the most High seeth that thou art grieued vaine, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, so hath he shewed thee the brightness of her glory, and the comelinesse of her beauty.

50 And therefore let there remaine in the field, where no house was builded.

51 For I knew that the Highest would shew this vnto thee.

52 Therefore I commanded thee to goe into the field, where no foundation of any building was.

53 For in the place wherein the Highest beginneth to the w his city: there can no mans building be able to stand.

54 And therefore feare not, let not thy heart be affrighted, but goe thy way in, and see the beauty and greatness of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see.

55 And then shalt thou heare as much as elias saies thou hast comprehended.

56 For thou art blessed above many other and art called with the Highest, and so are but few.

57 But to morrow at night thou shalt remaine here.

Or. 107
107.

26 And so shall the Highest show thee visions of thy high things, which the most High will doe vnto them that dwell vpon earth in the last dayes.
So I slept that night, and another, like as he commended me.

CHAP. XI.

1 Hee seeth in his archangele Eagle coming out of the Sea: 27 And a Lion out of a wood, saluting to the Eagle.

Then I saw a dream, and beheld, there came vp from the Sea an Eagle, which had two litte feathered wings, and thre heads.

2 And I saw, and beheld, she spread her wings ouer all the earth, and all the wings of the air blew on her, and were gathered together.

3 And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grew other, contrarie feathers, and they became litte feathers, and small.

4 And her heads were as rest, the head in the middle was greater then the other, yet rested it with the residue.

5 Moreover, I beheld, and loe, the Eagle flew with her feathers, and reigned ouer earth, and ouer them that dwell there.

6 And I saw that all things vnder heauen were subiect vnto her, and no man spake against her, no prouer creature vpon earth.

7 And I beheld, and loe, the Eagle rose vpon her talons, and spake to her feathers, saying,

8 Watch not all at once, respectuery one in his owne place, and watch by course.

9 But see the heads be preferred for the last.

10 And I beheld, and loe, the voyce went out of her heads, but from the middle of her body.

11 And I beheld, she cast her feathers, and behold, there were eight of them.

12 And I beheld, I beheld, on the right side there grose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.

13 And so it was, that when it reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more:
so the next following flood vpon it, and reigned, and had a great time.

14 And it happened, that when it reigned, the end of it came vnto, like as the first, so that it appeared no more.

15 Then came there a voyce vnto it, and said,

16 Fear, thou that shalt be no rule ouer the earth so long, as this day is to thee, before thou beginnest to appeare no more.

17 There shall come after thee certaine vnto thy time, neither vnto the halfe thereof.

18 Then arose the other, and reigned as the other before, and appeared no more also.

19 So went it with all the residue one after another, so that euery one reigned, and then appeared no more.

20 Then I beheld, and loe, in the end of time the feathers that all were, and vp vpon the right side that they might rule all, and some of the number, but within a while they appeared no more.

21 For some of them were set vp, but ruled not.

22 After this I beheld, and beheld, the twelue feathers appeared no more, nor the euy litte feathers.

23 And there was no more vpon the Eagle's body, but three heads that rested, as the litte stings.

24 Then saw I also that two litte feathered, visited themselves from the first, and remained vnder the head that was vpon the right side: for the four remained in their place.

25 And I beheld, and loe, the feathers that were vnder the wing, thought to set vp themselves, and to haue the place

26 And I beheld, and loe, there was one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more.

27 And the second was slower away then the first.

28 And I beheld, and loe, the two that remained, thought also in themselves to reigne.

29 And when they so thought, behold, there was made one of the heads, that was at rest, namely, it that was in the middle, for that was greater then the two other heads.

30 And then I saw that the two other heads were ioined with it.

31 And I beheld, and the head was turned with them that were with it, and hid ear vpon the two feathers vnder the wing that would haue reigned.

32 But this head, that the whole earth in fears, and bare rule in it, curer all those that dwell vpon the earth, with much oppression: it had the gouernance of the world, more then all the wings that had but.

33 And after this I beheld, and loe, the head that was in the middle suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings.

34 But then remained the two heads, which also in like sort ruled vpon the earth, and curer those that dwell therein.

35 And I beheld, and loe, the head on the right side stood out in their way vnto the left side.

36 Then I heard a voyce, which said vnto me, Looke before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.

37 And I beheld, and loe, there were a hearing of the end of the world, and I saw that he set out a man, voyce vnto the Eagle, and said,

38 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the Highest shall say vnto thee:

39 Acc not this, it that remained of the seere beast, whom I made to reigne vnto: what hath the end of their times might come through them?

40 And then I beheld, and loe, there came all the brass that were in the world, and power ouer the world with great fearfulnes, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with much wicked oppression, and so long time dwelt in vpon the earth with deceit.

41 For these things thou shalt not be warged with truth.

42 For thou shalt afflicted the mecke, thou shalt hurt the peaceable, thou shalt loue thy self, and destroyed the well, eyes of them that wrought forth fruit, and hast cast downe the wall of such as did thee no harme.

43 Therefore is this vengeance dealing come vpon vnto the Highest, and thy praise vnto the Mighty.

44 The Highest also hath looked vpon thee proud times, and beheld, they are ended, and his abomi-nations are fulfilled.

45 And therefore, appeare no more thou Eagle, nor thy horrible wings, nor thy wicked feathers, nor thy malicious heads, nor thy hatfull lawes, nor all the vaine head.

46 That all the earth may be refreshed, and my returne, being deliuered from the violence, and that the may hope for the iudgement and mercy of him that made her.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Eagle which is saw in the first, to the vision is interpreted: 27 Hee shall write his visions,

29 and so fast, that he may see more. 46 Hee shall comfort those that were grieved for his distresse.

And it came to passe, while the Lion spake these words vnto the Eagle, I saw,

2 And beheld, the head that remained, and the four wings appeared no more, and the two went vnto it, and set themselves vp to reigne, and their kingdome was small and full of vncertainty.

3 And I saw, and behold, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Eagle was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare, then I was taken out of the trouble and trance of my mind, and from great feare, and said unto my spirits,

4 Look, this hath thou done unto mee, in that thou searcest out the wayes of the Highest.

5 Yes, yet am I woe, in my mind, and very weak in my spirits, and little strength is there in me; for the great feare wherewith I was afflicted this night.

6 Therefore will I now defend the Highest, that he will comfort me unto the end.

7 And I said, Lord that bearest rule, if I have found grace before thy sight, and if I am justified with thee before many others, and if my prayer indeed be come up before thy face,

8 Comfort me then, and shew me thy servant, the interpretation and true difference of this fearefull vision, that thou mayest perfectly comfort me to the end.

9 For thou hast judged me worthy, to shew mee the last times.

10 And he said unto me, This is the interpretation of the vision.

11 The Eagle whome thou sawest come up from the Sea; is the kingdom, which was scene in the vision of thy brother Daniel.

12 But it was not expounded unto him, therefore now I declare it unto thee.

13 Behold, the dayes will come, that there shall rise vpon a kingdom vpon earth, and it shall be feared above alle the kingdoms that were before it.

14 In the same shall twelue Kings reigne one after another.

15 Wherof the second shall begin to reigne, and shall haue more time then any of the twelue.

16 And this doe the twelue wings signifie, which thou sawest.

17 As for the voyce which thou heardst speake, and that thou sawest not to goe out from the heads; but from the midst of the body thereof, this is the interpretation;

18 That after the time of that kingdom, there shall arise great strivings, and it shall stand in perill of falling; neuertheless shall not then fall, but shall be restored againe to his beginning.

19 And whereas thou sawest the eight small vnder feathers sticking to her wings, this is the interpretation;

20 That in litle time there shall arise eight kings, whose time shall be but small; and their yeeres twiue.

21 And two of them shall perish: the middle time approaching, some shall be kept vntill their end begin to approach; but two shall be kept unto the end.

22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation;

23 In his last dayes shall the most High raise vp three kingdoms; and renew many things therein, and they shall haue the dominion of the earth.

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much oppression, above all those that were before them; therefore are they called the heads of the Eagle.

25 For the necke: he that shall accomplish his wickedness; and that shall finish his last end.

26 And whereas thou sawest that the great head appeared no more; it signifieth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with paine.

27 For the two that remaine, shall be slaine with the sword.

28 For the sword of the one shall denoure the other; but in the last shall he fall through the sword himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two feathers vnder the wings, signifying the head that is on the right side:

30 It signifieth that these are they whome the highest hath kept unto their ends; this is the small kingdom, and full of trouble as thou sawest.

31 And the Lyon whome thou sawest rising vp out of the wood, and roaring and speaking to the Eagle, and rebuking her for her vnrightrousnesse, with all the words which thou hast heard.

32 This is the anointed which the Highest hath kept for them, and for their wickednesse vnto the end; he shall reprove them, and shall vpraike them with their cruelty.

33 For he shall set them before him a litle in iudgement, and shall rebuke them and correct them.

34 For these of my people shall be deliuered with mercy, those that haue bene preferred vpon thy borders, and he shall make them ioyfull vntill the coming of the day of iudgement, wherof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dream that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou only hast bene mee to know this secret of the Highest.

37 Therefore write all these things that thou hast seen, in a booke, and hide them.

38 And teach them to the wife of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keepe these secrets.

39 But wait thou here thy selfe yet longer dayes more, that it may be shewed thee whatsoever it pleaseth the Highest to declare vnto thee; And with that he went his way.

40 And it came to passe, when all the people saw that the seven dayes were past, and I nor come againe into the city, they gathered them all together, from the least vnto the greatest, and came vnto me, and said, 41 What haue we offended thee, and what couldest thou haue done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and farest here in this place?

42 For of all the Prophets thou only art left vs, as a cluster of the vintage, and as a candle in a dark place, and as a haunter ship preferred from among the tempest.

43 Are not the evils which are come to vs sufficient?

44 If thou shalt forsake vs, how much better had it bene for vs, if we also had bene burnt in the midst of Sion?

45 For we are not better then they that dyed here. And they wept with a loud voyce; then answered I them, and said, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel: and be not heavy thou house of Iacob.

47 For the Highest hath you in remembrance, and the Mighty hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for me, I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you; but am come into this place to pray for the desolation of Sion, and that I might seeke mercy for the low estate of your Sanctuary.

49 And now goe your way home euery man, and after these dayes will I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the city like as I commanded them.

51 But I remained still in the field seven dayes; as the Angel commanded me, and did eate onely in those dayes of the flowers of the field, and had my meate of the herbes,

CHAP. XIII.

1 How soon he had become a man coming out of the Sea. 25 The declaration of his dream. 34 How he was praised, and promises to see more.

And it came to passe after seven dayes, I dreamed a dream by night,

2 And I loe, there arose a wind from the Sea, that it moored all the waters thereof.

3 And I beheld, and loe, that man waxed strong with the thousands of heaven: and when he turned his countenance to look, all the things assembled that were sene under him.

4 And wheneuer the voyce went out of his mouth, all they burnt, they heard his voyce, like as the earth falleth when it seeth the fire,

5 And after this, I beheld, and loe there was gathered together a multitude of euen one of number, from the foure winds of the heauen, to subdue the man that came out of the Sea.

6 For I beheld, and loe, he had gashed himselfe with great indignation, and flew vpon it.

7 For I would haue seene the region, or place whereout the hill was graised, and I could not.

8 And after this I beheld, and loe, all they which were gathered together to subdue him, were sore afraid, and yet durst fight.

9 And loe, as hee saw the violence of the multitude that came, hee wither his hand, and drew forth sword, nor any instrument of warre.

10 But only I saw that he sent out of his mouth, as it had bene a blast of fire, and out of his lips a flaming breath, and out of his nostrils he cast out sparkes and tempests, 11 And they were all mixt together, the blast of fire, the flaming breath, and the great tempest, and fell with violence vpon the multitude which was prepared to fight, and burnt them vpon euery one, so that vpon a sudden of an innumerable multitude, nothing was to be perceiued, but onely dust and smell of smoke when I saw this, I was afraid.

12 Afterward saw I the same man come downe from the mountain, and call vnto him another peccable multitude.

13 And there came much people vnto him, whereof some were glad, some were sorry, for of them were bound, and other some brought of them that were offered: then was I like through great feare, and I awaked, and said, 14 Then hast showed by signe wondrous from the beginning, and hast conuited mee worthy that thou shouldst receive my prayer.

15 Show mee now yet, the interpretation of this dream.

16 For as I conceiue in my vnderstanding, woe was to them that shall be left in those dayes, and much more woe vnto them that are not left behind.

17 For they that were not left, were in heauines.

18 Now vnderstand the things that are laid vp in the latter dayes, which shall happen vnto them, and to those that are left behinde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils, and many necessities, like as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier for him that is in danger, to come into these things, then to passe away as a cloud out of the world, and not to see the things that happen in the last dayes. And he answered vnto mee, and said, 21 The interpretation of the vision shall I shew thee, and I will open vnto thee the things that thou hast required.

22 Whose thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation.

23 He that shall escape the perill in that time, hath kept himselfe they that be fallen into danger, are such as homeworkers and faith towards the Almighty.

24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behind, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 This is the meaning of the vision: Whereas thou sawst a man coming vp from the middle of the Sea.

26 The same is he whom God the Highest hath kept a great feate, which by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature; and he shall order them that are left behind,

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth, there came as a blast of wind, and fire, and storme;

28 And that he held neither sword, nor any instrument of warre, but that the rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to subdue him, this is the interpretation.

29 Behold the day is come, when the most High will begin to deliuer them that are vpon the earth.

30 And he shall come to the affliction of them that dwell on the earth.

31 And eue shall undertake to fight against another, one city against another, one place against another, one people against another, and one realme against another.

32 And the time shall be when these things shall come to passe, and the signes shall happen, which I showed thee before, and then shall my Sonne be declared, whom thou sawst as a man ascending.

33 And when all the people heare his voyce, euery man shall in their owne land leave the battell they haue one against another.

34 And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as thou sawest them willing to come, and so overcome him by fighting.

35 But he shall stand vpon the top of the mount Sebu.

36 And sign shall come, and shall be shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill graised without hands.

37 And this my Sonne shall rebuke the wicked impieties of those nations, which for their wicked life are fallen into the tempest.

38 And shall say before them their euil thoughts, and the counsels wherewith they shall begin to be tormented, which are like vnto a stone, and he shall deliuer them without laboure, by the law which is like vnto fire.

39 And whereas thou sawst that hee gathered an innumerable multitude vnto him;

40 These are the ten Tribes, which were carried away prisoners out of their owne land, in the time of Oses the King, when Salsmanas the King of Assyria led away captiues, and he carried them out the waters, and so came they into another land.

41 But they took this counsell among themselves that they would leaue the multitudes of the heathen, and goe south into a further country, where men might dwell.

42 That they might there keepe their Statutes, which they were kept in their owne land.

43 And they entered into Ephrazes by the narrow passages of the river.

44 For the most High then shewed signs for them, and held still the flood, till they were passed ouer.

45 For through this country there was a great way.

way to goe, namely, of an yeere and an halfe and the same region is called A. Sareth.

45 Then dwelt they there untill the latter time, and now when they shall begin to come,

47 The Highest shall stay the springs of the streame againe that they may goe throue; therefore I woeke thou the multitude with peace.

48 But those that be left behind of thy people, are they that are found within my borders, 49 Now when hee destroyed the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, hee shall defend his people that remaine.

50 And then shall hee shew them great wonders

51 Then said I, O Lord, that bearest rule, shew me this: Whereof I have I seene the man coming vp from the smelt of the Sea?

52 And hee said vnto me, Like as thou canst neither seeke out, nor knowe the thing that is in the deepe of the Sea: I mean I can no man vpon earth see my Sonne, as those that be with him, but in the daye time.

53 This is the interpretation of the dreame which thou sawest, and whereby thou shalt see thy lightened.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne way, and applied thy selfe vnto my law, and sought it.

55 The life hast thou desired in wisdom, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother.

56 And therefore thus I shewed thee the treasure of the Highest. After other three dayes, I will speake other things vnto thee, and declare vnto thee myghty and wondrous things.

57 Then went I forth into the field, giving praise and thanks greatly vnto the most High, because of his wonders which hee did in time.

58 And because hee governeth the same, and such things as fall in their season, and there I sawe three dayes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 A voyce out of a bush called Efras, to and collectibon that the world wasth old. 22 Hee de- scribeth the Law was lawes, 29 words all a- gaine, 29 and a vsa to get wife W:ers. 30 Hee and out they are fitted with vnderstanding. 45 but hee is charged not to publish all that is written.

And it came to passe, vpon the third day I sawe a vnder an oak, and behold, there came a voyce out of a bush vnto me, and said, Eldras, Efras.

2 And I said, Here am I, Lord, and I stood vp vpon my feet.

3 Then said he vnto me, * In the bush I did manically reuende my selfe vnto Moses, and talked with him, when my people feried in Egypt.

4 And I led him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vp to the mount of Sinai, where I held him by me a long season.

5 And told him many wondrous things, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the end, and commanded him, saying,

6 These words shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide.

7 And now I say vnto thee,

8 That thou lay vp in thine heart the signs that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the iurye cations which thou hast heard.

9 For thou shalt be taken away from all, and fro a henceforth thou shalt remaine with my Sonne, and with such as be like thee, vntill the times bee ended.

10 For the world hath lost his youth, and the flowers are very many old.

11 For the world is diuided into twoe parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and halfe of a tenth part.

12 And there remaineth that which is after the halfe of the tenth part.

13 Now therefore keepe thine house in order, and re- prooche thy people, comfort such of them as bee in trouble, and now renounce corruption.

14 Let goe from thee mortal thoughts, cast away the burdens of man, put off now the weak nature.

15 And set aside the thoughts that are most be- tray to thee, and haste thee to flee from these times.

16 For yet greater evils then those which thou hast seene happen, shall be done hereafter.

17 For looke how much the world shall be weaker through age, so much the more shall evils in- crease vpon them that dwell therein.

18 For the truth is hee farre away, and leading is hard at hand: for now hasteth the vision to come, which thou hast seene.

19 Then answered I before thee, and said,

20 Behold, Lord, I will goe as thou hast com- manded me, and reprove the people which are present, but they that shall be borne afterward, who shall admiraish them, but the world is set to darkness, and they that dwell therein, are without light.

21 For thy law is borne, therefore no man know- eth the things that are done vnto thee, or the works that shall begin.

22 And if I haue found grace before thee, send the holy Ghost into me, and I shall write all that hath bene done in the world since thou beganst, which were written in thy Law, that men may find thy path, and that they which will liue in the latter dayes, may liue.

23 And hee answered me, saying, Goe thy way, gather the people together, and say vnto them, that they seeke thee not for lowry dayes.

24 But looke thou prepare thee many boxes, and take with thee Sassa, Dubria, Sekmia, Esmo, Afel, these five which are ready to write swiftly.

25 And come hither, and I shall light a candle of vnderstanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out: till the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And when thou hast done, some things shalt thou publish, some things shalt thou shew secretly to the wise: to me wrote this hour, that thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth as hee commanded, and gathered all the people together, and said,

28 Heere are these words, O Israel,

29 * Our fathers at the beginning were strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered.

30 * And receiued the Law of life, which they kept not, which ye also haue transgressed after the.

31 Then was the land euen the land of Sion parted among you by lot: but your fathers, and ye your selves haue done vniuersally, and haue not kept the wayes which the Highest commanded you.

32 And forasmuch as he is a righteous Iudge, hee rooteth from you in time the thing that hee had giuen you.

33 And now are you here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore is so be that you will subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your hearts: ye shall be kept alive, and after death ye shall obtaine mercy.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come, when we shall liue againe: and them that be named of the righteous be manified, and the works of the vngodly shall be doctored.

CHAP. XV.

1 This synecryche is euasane, 2 God will take vengeance vpon the wicked, 3 vpon Egypt, 4 An horrible vision, 43 Babylon and Affe are destroyed.

Behold, I spake then in the eares of my people the words of prophete, which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord.

2 And cause them to bee written in paper: for they are faithfull and true.

3 Feare not the imaginations against thee, for not the incredulity of them trouble thee, that speake against thee.

4 For all the vnsightfull shall die in their wickednesse.

5 Behold, saith the Lord, I will bring plagues vpon the world, the sword, famine, death and destruction.

6 For wickednesse hath exceedingly polluted the whole earth, and their warfull works are fulfilled.

7 Therefore, saith the Lord,

8 I will hold my tongue no more as touching their wickednesse, which they profanely commit, neither will I suffer them in those things, in which they wickedly exercise themselves: behold, the innocent and righteous blood cryeth vnto mee, and the soules of the iust complaine continually.

9 And therefore saith the Lord, I will surely avenge them, and receive vnto mee all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Behold, my people is led as a flocke to the slaughter: I will not suffer them now to dwell in the land of Egypt.

11 But I will bring them with a mighty hand and a stretched-out arme, & smite Egypt with plagues, as before, and will destroy all the land thereof.

12 Egypt shall mourn, and the foundation of it shall bee shaken with the plague and punishment, that God shall bring vpon it.

13 They that till the ground shall mourn: for their seeds shall faile through the blasting, and haile, and with a fearefull constellacion.

14 Woe to the world, and them that dwell therein,

15 For the sword, and their destruction draweth nigh, and one people shall stand vp to fight against another, and swords in their hands.

16 For these shall be done among men, and invading one another, they shall not regard their Kings nor Princes, and the course of their actions shall stand in their power.

17 A man shall desire to goe into a city, and shall not be able.

18 For because of their pride, the cities shall be troubled, the houses shall be destroyed, and men shall be afraid.

19 A man shall haue no pitié vpon his neighbour, but shall destroy their houses with the sword, and spoile their goods, because of the lacke of bread, and for great tribulation.

20 Behold, saith God, I will call together all the Kings of the earth to conueneous me, which are from the rising of the Sunne, from the South, from the East, and Libanus: to turne themselves one against another, and repay the things that they haue done to them.

21 Like as they doe see this day vnto my chosen, so will I doe also, and recompence in their bosomes, Thus saith the Lord God.

22 My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and my sword shall not cease ouer them, that shed innocent blood vpon earth.

23 The first is gone forth from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners like the straw that is kindled.

24 Woe to them that haue, and keepe not my Commandements, saith the Lord.

25 I will not spare them: goe your way, ye children from the power, defile not my Sanctuary:

26 For the Lord knoweth all them that sinne against him, and therefore destruction he them vnto death and destruction.

27 For now are the plagues come vpon the whole earth, and yee shall remaine in them, for God shall not deliuer you, because ye haue sinned against him.

28 Behold an horrible vision, and the appearance thereof from the East.

29 Where the nations of the dragons of Arabia shall come out: with many chariots, and the multitude of them shall be carried as the wind vpon earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble.

30 Also the Cannizians raging in wrath shall goe forth as the wilde boares of the wood, and with great power shall they come, and joyne battell with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

31 And then shall the dragons haue the upper hand, remembering their hatred, and if they shall turne themselves, conspiring together in great power to persecute them.

32 Then these shall be troubled and keepe silence through their power, and shall see.

33 And from the land of the Assyrians, shall the enemy beseege them, and consume some of them, and in their holde shall be feare, and death, and strife among their Kings.

34 Behold, clouds from the East, and from the North,

North unto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, full of wrath and storme.

35 They shall smite one vpon another, and they shall smite downe a great multitude of stars vpon the earth, and their owne stars, and blood shall be from the sword vnto the belly.

36 And oung of mee, vnto the camel I haue brought. And there shall be great fearfulnesse & trembling vpon earth, and they that see the wrath, shall be affraid, and trembling shall come vpon them.

38 And then shall there come great stormes, from the South, and from the North, and another part from the West.

39 And strong winds shall arise, from the East, and shall asperse, and the cloud which hee raised vpon, and the starre stirred to come feare toward the East and West wind, shall be destroyed.

40 The great and mighty clouds shall be lifted vp full of weath, and the starres, that they may make all the earth afraid, and he that dwell therein, and they shall power our ouer every high and eminent place, in horrible faue.

41 Fire and haile and flying swordes, and many waters, that all belies may be full, and all rivers with the abundance of great waters.

42 And they shall breake downe the cities, and walles, mountaines and hills, trees of the wood, and grass of the meadowes, and their corne.

43 And they shall goe stedfastly vnto Babylon, and make her afraid.

44 They shall come to her and besiege her, the star & all wrath shall they powre out vpon her, when shall the dust and smoke goe vp into the heauen; and all they that be about her, shall bewaile her.

45 And they that remaine vnder her, shall desceiue vnto them that haue put her in feare.

46 And thou Asia, that art partaker of the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person:

47 Woe be vnto thee, thou wretch because thou hast made thy selfe like vnto her, and hast deckt thy daughters in whoredome, that they might please and glory in thy loues, which haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

48 Thou hast followed her that is hated in all her werkes and inuentions: therefore saith God, 49 I will send plagues vpon thee, widowhood, poverty, famine, (w. a.) and pestilence to visit thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shall be dried vp as a flow: when the heat shall arise that is sent vnto thee.

51 Thou shalt be weakened as a pouce woman with stripes, and as one chastised with wounds, so that the mighty and lowers shall not be able to requite thee.

52 Would I with zealous heart so proceeded against thee, (saith the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not alway blame my chosen, exalting the stroke of thy handes, and saying ouer their dead, When thou wast drunken,

54 Set forth the beauty of thy countenance?

55 The reward of thy whoredome shall be in thy bosome, therefore shall thou receiue recompence.

56 Like as thou hast done vnto my chosen, saith the Lord, euen so shall God doe vnto thee, and shall deliuer thee into mischief.

57 Thy children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword, thy cities shall be broken downe, and all thine shall perish with the sword in the field.

58 They that be in the mountaines, shall die of hunger, and eat their owne flesh, and drinke their owne blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water.

59 Thou as unhappy shalt come thorow the sea, and receiue plagues againe.

60 And in the passage they shall rush on the idle city, and shall destroy some portion of the land, and consume part of thy glory, and shall returne to Babylon that was destroyed.

61 And thou shalt be cast downe by them as stubble, and they shall be vnto thee as fire, 62 And shall consume thee and thy cities, thy land, and thy mountaines, all thy woods and thy fruitfull trees shall they burne vp with fire.

63 Thy children shall they carry away captiue, and looke what thou hast they shall spoile it, and I marre the beauty of thy face.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Babylon and other places are stricken with plagues that cannot be counted: 23 and with destruction. 40 The seruants of the Lord must looke for troubles, 51 and not hide their faces, 74 and know them, and they shall be stricken.

Woe be vnto thee Babylon and Asia, woe beed vnto thee, Egypt and Syria.

2 Gird vp your selves with clothes of sacke and haire, bewaile your children and be sorry, for your destruction is at hand.

3 A word is sent vpon you, and who may turne it backe?

4 A fire is sent among you, who may quench it?

5 Plagues are sent vnto you, and what is he that may drive them away?

6 May any man drive away a hungry Lyon in the wood? or may any one quench the fire in stubble, when it hath begun to burne?

7 May one turne againe the arrow that is shot of a strong Archer?

8 The mighty Lord sendeth the plagues, and who is he that can drive them away?

9 A fire shall goe forth from his wrath: and who is he that may quench it?

10 He shall cast lightnings and who shall not feare? he shall thunder and who shall not be afraid?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shall not be utterly beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quake, and the foundations thereof, the Sea strike vp with waves from the deepe, and the waves of it are troubled, and the fishes thereof all before the Lord, and before the glory of his power.

13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bow, his arrowe that he shooteth is as sharpe, and shall not misse when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

14 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shall not returne againe, vntill they come vpon the earth.

15 The fire is kindled, and shall not be put out till it consume the foundation of the earth.

16 Like as an arrow which is shot of a mighty archer, returneth not backward euen so the plagues that shall be sent vpon earth, shall not returne againe.

17 Woe is me, woe is me, who will deliuer me in those daies?

18 The beginning of sorrowes and great mourninges, the beginning of famine and great death: the beginning of wars, and the powers shall stand in feare, the beginning of euils, what shall I doe when these euils shall come?

19 B-hold, famine, and plagues, tribulation, and anguish, are sent as scourges for amendment.

20 But for all these things, they shall not turne from from their wickedness, nor be alway mindful of the congre.

21 Behold, with malice shall be good escape vpon earth, that they shall thinke themselues to be in good case, and euen then shall 3 evils grow vpon earth, sword, famine, and great confusion.

22 For many of them that dwell vpon earth, shall perish of famine, and the other that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy.

23 And the dead shall be cast out as dung, and there shall be no man to comfort them, for the ratch shall be waste, and the cities shall be cast downe.

24 There shall be no man left to till the earth, and to sow it.

25 The trees shall giue fruit, and who shall gather them?

26 The grapes shall ripe, and who shall tread them? for all places shall be desolate of men.

27 So that no man shall desire to see another, and to heare his voyce.

28 For of a city there shall be ten leet, and two of the leet, which shall hide themselves in the thicke ground, and in the clefts of rocks.

29 As in an orchard of Olives, vpon every tree there are left three or foure Oliues;

30 Or when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some clusters, of them that diligently seeke thorow the vineyard;

31 Euen so in those dayes there shall be three or foure left by them that searcho their houses with the sword.

32 And the earth shall be laid waste, and the fields thereof shall wax old, and her wastes, and all her paths shall grow full of thornes, because no man shall trauell there chorow.

33 The virgins shall mourne, having no bridegroomes, the women shall mourne having no husbands, their daughtes shall moune having no belouers.

34 In the wars shall their bridegroomes be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of famine.

35 Heare now these things and vnderstand them, ye seruantes of the Lord.

36 Behold the word of the Lord, recite it; he leueth not the gods of whom the Lord spake.

37 Behold, the plagues draw sigh, & are not slack.

38 As when a woman wth child, in the ninth moneth by length forth her foetus, within two or three houres of her birth, great paines compass her womb; which paines when the child commeth forth they sleepe not a moment, 39 Euen so shall not the plagues be slack to come vpon the earth, and the world shall mourne, and forrowes shall come vpon it on every side.

40 O my people, heare my word; make you ready to the battell, and in those daies, be ouer all plagues vpon the earth.

41 He that selleth, let him be as hee that selleth away; and he that buyeth, as one that will buy.

42 He that occupieth merchandise, as he that had no profit by it; and hee that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein.

43 He that soweth, as if he should not reape; as if hee had cast ploweth the vineyard, as he that shall not gather the grapes.

44 He that marry, as they that shall get no children; and they that marry not, as the widowers.

45 And therefore they that labour, labour in vaine. 46 For strangers shall reape their fruits; and shall their goods, overthrow their houses; and take their children captiue, for in captivity and bondage shall they be sold.

47 And they that occupie their merchandise with robbery, the more they decke their cities, their houses, their possessions, and their owne prisons:

48 The more will be angry with them for their sinne, saith the Lord.

49 Like as an whore commeth a right honest and vertuous woman;

50 So she shall righteousnesse hate iniquity, when she deceiue her selfe, and shall accuse her to her face, when he commeth that shall defend him that diligently searchoeth our enery sinne vpon earth.

51 An therefore be ye not like charanito, nor to the workers thereof.

52 For yet a little, and iniquity shall be taken away out of the earth, and righteousnes shall reigne among you.

53 Let not the fumes say that he hath not sinned; for God shall burne coales of fire vpon his head, which shall be for the Lord God and is glory, I haue not sinned.

54 Behold, the Lord knoweth all the workes of men, their imaginacions, their thoughts, and their heaues:

55 Which spake hat the word, Let the earth be made, and it was made: Let the heauen be made, and it was created.

56 In his word were the stars made, and he knoweth the number of them.

57 He searchoeth the deep, and the treasures thereof, he hath measured the Sea, and what it containeth.

58 He hath shot the Sea in the midst of the waste, and with his word hath he changed the earth vpon the waters.

59 He spreadeth out the heuens like a vauit, vpon the water; hath he founded it.

60 In the desert hath he made springs of waters; and pools vpon the tops of the mountains, that the floods might poure downe from the high rocks to water the earth.

61 He made man, and put his breath in the midst of he body, and gaue him breath, life, and vnderstanding.

62 Yes, and the Spirit of Almighty God, which made all things, and searchoeth out all hidde things in the secretes of the earth.

63 Surely he knoweth your inuentions, and what you thinke in your hearts, euen them that sinner, and would hide their sinne.

64 Therefore hath the Lord exhorted searchoed out all your workes, and he will paye you all to shame.

65 And when your sins are brought forth, shall be ashamed before men, and your owne finnes shall be your witnesses in that case.

66 What will ye doe? or how will ye hide your finnes before God and his Angles?

67 Behold, God himselfe is the Iudge, feare him; leaue off from you, forsake to get your inuentions to mangle no more with the; for our gods shall God lead you forth, and deliue you from all trouble.

68 For behold, the burning wrath of a great multitude is kindled ouer you, and they shall take away certaine of you, and lead you being idle, with things offered vnto idols.

69 And they that consent vnto them shall be had in derision, and in reproach, and truden vnder foot.

70 For there shall be in every place, and in the next cities a great infection vpon those that sinner the Lord.

71 They shall be like mad-men, sparing none but still spoiling and destroying those that feare the Lord.

75 For they shall waite and take away their goods, and cast them out of their houses.
 76 Then shall they be known, who are my chosen, and they shall be cried as the gold in fire.
 77 Hence, O yee, my beloved, saith the Lord, behold the dayes of tribulation are at hand, but I will deliuer you from the same.
 78 See yee not afraid, neither doubt, for God is your guide.
 79 And the guide of them who keepe my Com-mandements, and preceptes, saith the Lord God I will not your sinnes weigh you downe, and let not your inquieries lift vp your shoulders.

 77 Wee be warye them that are bound with their sinnes, and covered with their iniquities: like as a heild is covered on the with bowes, and the parrs thereof covered with chornes that no man may trauaile throughe.
 78 It is left vnder the feet, and is cast into the fire to be consumed therewith.

TOBIT.

CHAP. I.

1 Tobias his flocke, and deuotion in his youth. 2 His marriage, 10 and captiuitie: 13 His performinge 16 almes, and charitye in burying the dead. 19 For which he is rewarded, 22 And after returne to Ninus.

This booke of the wordes of Tobias, son of Tobiel, the son of Ananias, the sonne of Adael, the sonne of Gabael, of the tribe of Asech, of the tribe of Nephtali, a Who in the time of Enezechar King of the Assyrians, was led captiue out of Tisbe, which is at the right hand of that city, which is called properly Nephtali in Galilee aboute Afer.

2 Tobias thus walked all the dayes of my life in the way of truth and iustice, and I did many almes-deeds to my brethren, and my nation, who came with me to Ninus into the land of the Assyrians.

3 And when I was in mine owne countrey in the land of Israel, being but young, all the Tribe of Nephtali my father sell from the house of Ierusalem, which was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel that all the tribes should sacrifice there where the Temple of the habitation of the most High was consecrated and built for all ages.

4 Now all the Tribes which together remoued, and the house of my father Nephtali, sacrificed vnto the bester Bank.

5 But I alone went offer to Ierusalem at the feasts, as it was ordaind vnto all the people of Israel, by an euerlasting decree: having the first fruits and tenths of increase which the Lord our God hath sent downe, and thern I gaue at the Altar to the Priests the children of Aaron.

6 The first tenth part of all increase I gaue to the Levites of Aaron, who ministered at Ierusalem: another tenth part I sold away, and went and spent it euery yeere at Ierusalem.

7 And the third I gaue vnto them to whom it was meet, Deborah my fathers mother had commended me, because I was left an Orphan by my father.

8 Furth more when I was come to the age of a man, I married Anna of mine owne kindred, and of her I begat Tobias.

9 And when we were carryed away captiues to Ninus, all my brethren, and those which were of my kindred, did eat of the bread of the Gentiles.

10 But I kept my selfe from eating:

11 Because I remembered God with all my heart.

12 And the most High gaue me grace and fauour before Enezechar, so that I was his first purveyour.

13 And I went into Media, and left in trust with Gabael the brother of Gabrias, at Rages a city of Media, ten talents of silver.

14 Now when Enezechar was dead, Sennacherib his sonne reigned in his stead, whose state was troubled, that I could not goe into Media.

 15 And in the time of Enezechar I gaue many almes to my brethren, and gaue my bread to the hungry.

16 And my clothes to the naked, and I saw many of my nation dead, or cast about the wallis of Ninus, I buried them.

17 And if the King Sennacherib had slaine any, when he was come, and S. of om Media, I buried them privately: for in his wrath he killed many, but the bodies were not found, when they were sought for of the King.

18 And when one of the Ninuites went and complained of me to the King, that I buried them, and hid my selfe, and standing that I was sought for to be put to death, I withdrew my selfe for saue.

19 Then all my goods were forcibly taken away, neither was there any thing left me, besides my wife Anna, and my soune Tobias.

20 And the 2 passed nor fine and sixty dayes, before two of his sonnes killed him, and they fled into the mountaines of Ararat, and Sarrbedon his sonne reigned in his stead, who appointed ouer his fethers accounts, and ouer all his affaires, Achichar my brother Anselimour.

21 And Achichar was intrerating for me, I came to Ninus: Now Achichar was cup-bearer, and keeper of the signet, and steward, and overseer of the accounts. So Sarchedani appointed him ouer vnto him; and he was my brothers soune.

CHAP. II.

1 Tobias I taught his mee to bury the dead. 10 and become his friend. 11 His wife setteth in works to get her liuing. 14 Her husband and she fall out about a kid.

Now when I was come home againe, and my wife Anna was restored vnto me with my son Tobias in the feast of Pentecost, which is the feasty feast of the seven weekes, there was a good dinner prepared me, in the which I ate downe to eat.

2 And when I saw abundance of eey, I said to my soune, Goe and bring what euer thou shalt find out of our brethren, who is in needfull of the Lord, and say, I carry for thee.

3 But he came againe, and said, Father, one of our nation is strangled, he is cast out in the market place.

4 Then before I had tasted of any meate, I arose vp, and tooke him vp into a ronne, vntill the going downe of the Sonne.

5 Then I returned and washed my selfe, and set my meate in brainede.

6 Remembering that prophesie of Amos, as he said, Your feasts shall be turned into mourning, and all your mirth into lamentation.

7 Therefore I wept, and after the going downe of the Sun, I went and made a grave and buried him.

8 But my neighbours decked me, and said, This my come, that our fathers from the beginning, even that they all married wives of their own kindred, and were blessed in their children, and their seed shall inherit the land.

13 Now therefore, my sons, love thy brethren, and despise not in thy heart thy brethren, the sisters and daughters of thy people, in not taking a wife of them: for in pride is destruction and much trouble, and in lowliness is decay and great want: for lewdness is the mother of famine.

14 Let not the wages of any man which hath wrought for thee, tarry with thee, but give him it out of hand: for if thou serve God, he will also repay thee: be circumspect my sonne, in all things thou doest, and be wise in all thy conversation.

15 Doe that to no man which thou hatest: drink no wine to make thee drunken: neither let drunkenness goe with thee in thy journey.

16 Give of thy bread to the hungry, and of thy garments to them that are naked, and according to thine abundance give almes, and let not thine eye be envious when thou givest almes.

17 Pounce on thy bread on the burrill of the iust, but give nothing to the wicked.

18 Aske counsell of all that are wise, and despise not any counsell that is profitable.

19 Bless the Lord thy God alway, and despise of him, that thy wayes may be directed, & that all thy paths and counsels may prosper: for every nation hath not counsell: but the Lord himselfe giveth all good things, and he humbly whom he will, as he will, now therefore my son, remember my commandments, neither let them be pur out of thy mind.

20 And now I signifye this to thee, that I committed ten talents to Gabriel, the sonne of Gabrias at Rages in Media.

21 And feare not, my sonne, that wee are made poore, for thou hast much wealth, if thou feare God, and departe from all unne, and doe that which is pleasing in his sight.

CHAP V.

1 Yong Tobias seeketh a guide into Media. 2 The Angel will goe with him, and saith he is his kinsman. 3 Tobias and the Angel depart together. 4 His mother is grieved for her sonnes departing.

Tobias thus answered, and said, Father, I will do all things which thou hast commanded me.

2 But how can I receive the money, seeing I know him not?

3 Then he gave him the hand writing, and said unto him, Seeke thee a man which may goe with thee, whilst I yet live, and I will give him wages, and goe and receive the money.

4 Therefore when he went to seeke a man, hee found Raphael, that was an Angel.

5 But he knew not and he said unto him, Canst thou goe with mee to Rages? and knowest thou those places well?

6 To whom the Angel said, I will goe with thee, and I know the way well: for I have lodged with our brother Gabriel.

7 Then Tobias said unto him, Tarry for me till I tell my father.

8 Then he said unto him, Goe and tarry not: for he was in, and said to his father, Behold I have found one which will goe with me. Then he said, Call him unto me, that I may know of what tribe he is, and whether he be a trusty man to goe with thee.

9 So he called him, and he came in, and they saluted one another.

10 Then Tobias said unto him, Brother, shew me of what tribe and family thou art.

11 To whom he said, Dost thou seeke for a tribe or family, or an hired man to goe with thy sonne? Then Tobias said unto him, I would know brother, thy kindred and name.

12 Then he said, I am Ananias, the sonne of Ananias the great, and of thy brethren.

13 Then Tobias said, Thou art welcome, in as much as thou art not angry with me, because I have inquired to know thy tribe and thy family, for thou art my brother, of an honest and good stocke, for I know Ananias, and Jonathan, sons of that great Sardanias, as we went together to Ierusalem to worship, and offered the first beastes, and the tenths of the fruits, and they were not scamed with the error of our brethren: my brother thou art of a good stocke.

14 But tell me what wages shall I give thee? wilt thou a dram for a day and things necessary, as to mine owne souer?

15 Yea, moreover, if ye returne safe, I will add something to the wages.

16 So they were well pleased. Then said he to Tobias, Prepare thy selfe for the journey, and God send you a good journey. And when his sonne had prepared all things for the journey, his father said, Goe thou with this man, and God which dwelleth in heaven prosper your journey, and the Angel of God keepe you company: for they went forth both, and the young mans dog went with them.

17 But Anna his mother wept, and said to Tobias, Why hast thou sent away our sonne? is he not the staffe of our hand, in going in and out before us?

18 Be not greedy (to adde) money to money: but let it be for reioyce in respect of our child.

19 For that which the Lord hath given us to live with, doeth suffice us.

20 Then said Tobias to her, Take no care my sister, he shall returne in safety, for thine eyes shall see him.

21 For the good Angel will keepe him company, and his journey shall be prosperous, and he shall returne safe.

22 Then thus made an end of weeping.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Angel biddeh Tobias to take the limbeck, and gath out of a fish, to and to marry Sara, the daughter of Raguel, and teacheth how to drive the wicked spirit away.

And as they went on their journey, they came in the evening to the river Tigris, and they lodged there.

2 And when the young man went downe to wash himselfe, a fish leaped out of the river, and would have devoured him.

3 Then the Angel said unto him, Take the fish, and the young man had hold of the gill, and drew it to land.

4 To whom the Angel said, Open the fish, and take the heart, and the liver, and the gall, and put them up safely.

5 So the young man did as the Angel commanded him, and when they had rested the fish, they did eat it: then they both went on their way, all they drew neere to Ecbatane.

6 Then the young man said to the Angel, Brother Ananias, to what vie is the heart, and the liver, and the gall of the fish?

7 And he said unto him, Touching the heart and the liver, if a devil or an evil spirit trouble any, we must make a smocke thereof before the man or the woman, and the party shall be no more vexed.

8 As for the gall, it is good to anoint a man that hath whitenes in his eyes, and he shall be healed.

9 And when they were come neere to Rages,

Let not money be added, but be the offering of our souer. For, as long as God shall be with us, this is sufficient.

Call it up on the land.

10 The Angel said to the young man, Brother, to day we shall lodge with Raguel, who is thy cousin; he also hath one only daughter, named Sara; will speak for her, that she may be given thee for a wife.

11 For to thee doth the spirit of her appetite, seeing thou only art of her kindred:

12 And the maid is faire and wise; now therefore hear me, and I will praye to her father, and when we returne from Raguel, we will celebrate the marriage: for I know that Raguel cannot marry her to another, according to the Law of Moses, but he shall be guilty of death, because the spirit of inheritance doth rather appertaine unto thee, then to any other.

13 Then the young man answered the Angel, I have heard, brother Azarias, that thou maist hath bene given to seven men, who all died in the marriage chamber.

14 And now I am the only soone of my father, and I am afraid, lest if I goe in unto her, I die as the other before, for a wicked spirit haunt her, which hurteth no body, but those which come unto her: therefore I also feare, lest I die, and bring my father and my mother's life (because of me) to the grave with sorrow, for they have no other soone to bury them.

15 Then the Angel said unto him, Dost thou not remember the preceptes which thy father gave thee, when thou shouldst marry a wife of thine owne kindred? Wherefore heare me, O my brother, for she shall be given thee to wife; and make thou no reckoning of the euill spirit; for this same night shall she be given thee in marriage.

16 And when thou shalt come into the marriage chamber, thou shalt take the sashes of perfume, and shalt lay upon them some of the heart and liver of the fish, and shalt make a smoke with it.

17 And the euill shall smell it, and flee away, and neuer come againe any more: but when thou shalt come to her, rise up both of you, and pray to God, which is mercifull, who will haue pity on you, and save you: feare not, for she is appointed unto thee from the beginning, and thou shalt prosper her, and she shall give with thee children. Now when Tobias had heard these things, he loved her, and his heart was effectually ioynd to her.

CHAP. VII.

11 Raguel telleth Tobias what had happened to his daughter: 12 and giueth her in marriage unto him. 13 She is conueighed to her chamber, and weepeth. 14 Her master comforteth her.

And when they were come to Echirasus, they came to the house of Raguel, and Sara met them; and after that they had saluted one another, she brought them into the house.

2 Then said Raguel to Edna his wife, How like is this young man to Tobit my cousin?

3 And Raguel asked them, From whence are you, brethren? To whom they said, We are of the house of Joseph, which are captiues in Ninus.

4 Then he said vnto them, Doe ye know Tobit our kinsman? And they said, We know him. Then said he, Is he in good health?

5 And they said, He is both aliue, and in good health: and Tobias said, He is my father.

6 Then Raguel leaped vp, and kissed him, and wept.

7 And blessed him; and said vnto him, Thou art the soone of an honest and good man; but when he had heard that Tobias was blind, he was sorrowfull and wept.

8 And likewise Edna his wife, and Sara his daughter wept. Moreover, they entertained them cheerfully; and after that they had killed a fowle of the focke, they set some of meat on the table. Then said Tobias to Raphael, Brother Azarias, or Edna, speak of these things, of which thou didst talke in Iacob the way, and let this business be dispatched.

9 So he communicated the matter with Raguel, and Raguel said to Tobias, Eat and drinke, and make merry.

10 For it is meet that thou shouldst marry my daughter: notwithstanding, I will declare vnto thee the truth.

11 I haue giuen my daughter in marriage to seven men, who died that night they came in vnto her; none thelesse, for the present be merry. But Tobias said, I will eat nothing here, till we agree and sweare one to another.

12 Raguel said, Then take her from henceforth, according to the manner, for thou art her cousin, and she is thine, and the mercifull God giue you good success in all things.

13 Then he called his daughter Sara, and she came to her father, and he took her by the hand, and gave her to be wife to Tobias, saying, Behold, take her after the Law of Moses, and lead her away to thy father. And he blessed them.

14 And called Edna his wife, and took paper, and did write an instrument of contract, and sealed it.

15 Then they began to eat.

16 After Raguel called his wife Edna, and said vnto her, Sitte, prepare another chamber, and bring her in thither.

17 Which when she had done as he had bidden her, she brought her thither, and she wept, and she recounted the tears of her daughter, and said vnto her,

18 Be of good comfort; my daughter, the Lord of heauen and earth giue thee joy for this thy sorrow: be of good comfort, my daughter.

CHAP. VIII.

3 Tobias drineth the wicked spirit away as he was taught. 4 He and his wife rise up to pray.

5 Raguel thought he was dead: 15 But finding him aliue, praiseth God, 16 and maketh a wedding Feast.

And when they had supped, they brought Tobias in vnto us.

1 And as he wept, he remembered the words of Raphael, and took the sashes of the perfumes, and put the heart, and the liver of the fish thereupon, and made a smoke therewith.

2 The which smell, when the euill spirit had smelled, he fled into the euill parts of Egypt, and the Angel bound him.

3 And after that they were both shut in together Tobias rose out of the bed, and said, Sister, arise, and let vs pray that thou wouldst be partty on vs.

4 Then began Tobias to say, Blessed art thou, O God of our Father, and blessed is thy holy and glorious Name for ever, for the heauens blest thee, and all the creatures.

5 Then he made a prayer, and said, O God, his wife for an helper and say: of them came mankinde; thou hast said, It is not good that man should be alone: for we make vnto him an ayd like to himselfe.

6 And now, O Lord, I take not this my sister for lost, but rightly; therefore mercifully ordaine, that we may become aged together.

7 And she said with him, Amen.

8 So they slept both that night, and Raguel arose, and went, and made a feast,

10 Saying, I shall tell he be dead:
 11 But when Raguel was come into his house, 12 He said unto his wife Edna, Send one of the maides, and let her see whether he be alive, or be not, that we may bury him, and no man know it.
 13 So the maide opened the doore, and went in,
 and found them sleepe, 14 And came fourth, and told them that he was alive.

15 Then Raguel praised God, and said, O God, thou art worthy to be praised with all pure and holy praise: therefore let thy Saints praise thee with all thy creatures, and let all thine Angels, and thine Elect praye thee for ever.

16 Thou art to be praised, for thou hast made me joyfull, and that is not come to me which I suspected: but thou hast dealt with vs according to thy great mercy.

17 Thou art to be praised, because thou hast had mercy of two, that were the onely begotten children of their fathers, grant them mercy, O Lord, and smith their life in health, with ioy and merry.

18 Then Raguel bade his seruants to fill the graue.

19 And hee kept the wedding feast foureccene dayes.

20 For before the dayes of his marriage were finished, Raguel had said vnto him by an oath, that he should not depart, till the foureccene dayes of the marriage were expired.

21 And then hee should take the halfe of his goods and put in safety to his father, and should haue the rest when I and my wife be dead.

CHAP. IX.

1 Tobias sendeth the Angel vnto Gabael for the money, 6 The Angel bringeth it and Gabael to the wedding.

Then Tobias called Raphael, & said vnto him,
 2 Brother Azarias, take with thee a seruant, and two camels, and goe to Rages of Media, to Gabael, and bring me the money, and bring hys to the wedding.

3 For Raguel hath sworne that I shal not depart, 4 But my father counteth the dayes, and if I tarry long he will be very torry.

5 So Raphael went out, and lodged with Gabael, and gaue him the hand-writings, who brought forth bags which were sealed vp, and gaue them to him.
 6 And early in the morning, they went fourth both together, and came to the wedding, and J Tobias blessed his wife.

CHAP. X.

1 Tobit and his wife long for their sonne, 7 She will not be comforted by her husband, 10 Raguel sendeth Tobias and his wife away, with halffe their goods, 12 and blesteth them.

Now Tobit his father counted every day, and when the dayes of the iourney were expired, and they came not:

2 Then Tobit said, Are they detained? or is Gabael dead? and there is no man to giue him the money?

3 Therefore he was vrry torry.

4 Then his wife said to him, My sonne is dead, being he starveth long, and thre began to bewails him, and I said,

5 Now I care for nothing, my sonne, for I haue let thee goe, the light of mine eyes.

6 To whom Tobit said, hold thy peace, take no care for his life.

7 But she said, Hold thy peace, and deccine mee if my sonne is dead, and she went out, and crye day

into the way which they went, & did stand weping on the drytune, and sendeth not whoels might to bewaile her sonne Tobias, untill the foureccene dayes of the wedding were expired, which Raguel had sworne that he should spend there: Then Tobias said to Raguel, Let me goe, for my father and my mother looke no more to see me.

8 But his father in law said vnto him, Tarry with mee, and I will send to thy father, and they shall declare vnto him how things goe with thee.

9 But Tobias said, No; but let mee goe to my father.

10 Then Raguel arose, and gaue him Sara his wife, and halffe his goods, seruants, and cattell, & money.

11 And he blessed them, and sent them away, saying the God of heauen giue you a prosperous iour-ney, my children.

12 And hee said to his daughter, Honour thy father and thy mother in law, which are now thy parents, that I may heare good report of thee: and he kissed her, Edna also said vnto Tobias, The Lord of heauen restore thee, my deare brother, and grant that I may see thy children of my daughter Sara before I die, that I may reioyce before the Lord:
 behold, I commit my daughter vnto thee: of speciall trust, wherefore doe not intreat her euill.

CHAP. XI.

6 Tobias smother spith her soune comming, 10
 His father meeteth him at the doore, and receiveth his sight, 14 He praiseth God, 17 and welcometh his daughter in law.

After these things, Tobias went his way praising God, that he had giuen him a prosperous iourney, and blessed Raguel and Edna his wife, and went on his way till they drew neere vnto Nineue.

2 Then Raguel said to Tobias, Thou knowest brother, how thou didst leaue thy father.

3 Get vs halfe before thy wife, and prepare that house.

4 And take in thine hand the gall of the asse: for they went their way, and the dog went after them.

5 Now Anna satte looking about towards the way, for her sonne.

6 And when she espied him comming, she said to his father, Behold thy sonne commeth, and the man that went with him.

7 Then said Raphael, I know Tobias, that thy father will open his eyes.

8 Therefore smite on his eyes with the gall, and being pricked therewith, he shall rub, and the whiteneesse shall fall away, and he shall see thee.

9 Then Anna ran fourth, and fell vpon the necke of her sonne, and said vnto him, Seeing I haue seene thee my sonne, from henceforth I am content to die, and they wept both.

10 Tobit also went forth toward the doore, and stumbled: but his sonne ran vnto him.

11 Andooke hold of his father and hee strake of the gall on his fathers eyes, saying, Be of good hope my father.

12 And when his eyes began to smart, he rubbed
 them.

13 And the whiteneesse pilled away from the corners of his eyes, and when hee saw his sonne, he fell vpon his necke.

14 And he wept, and said, Blessed art thou, O God, and blessed is thy Name for ever, and blessed are all thine holy Angels.

15 For thou hast forgouen, and hast taken pty on mee: for behold I for my sonne Tobias. And his sonne went in, reioycing, and told his father the great things that had happened to him in Media.

16 Then Tobit went out to visit his daughter in law at the gate of Nineue, reioyng and praising God: and they which saw him goe, marvelled because he had received his sight.

17 But Tobit gave thanks before them: because God had mercy on him. And when he came neere to Sara his daughter in law, he blessed her, saying, Thou art welcome daughter: God hath blessed which hath brought thee vnto vs, and blessed be thy father and thy mother, and there wasioy among all his brethren which were at Nineue.

18 And Achizaharus, & and Nasbarius brothers soune came.

19 And Tobits wedding was kept seuen dayes with great ioy.

C H A P. XII.

1 Tobit offereth halfe to the Angel for his paines. 2 But he calleth them both aske, and exhorteth them. 3 and telleth them that he was an Angel, and was seene no more.

Then Tobit called his soune Tobias, and said vnto him, My soune, for that the man haue his wages, which went with thee, and thou must give him more.

2 And Tobias said vnto him, O father, it is no harme to mee to give him halfe of those things, which I haue brought.

3 For he hath brought me againe to thee in safety, and made whole my wife, and brought mee the money, and like vnto he healed thee.

4 Then the old man said, it is due vnto him.

5 So he called the Angel, and he said vnto him, Take halfe of all that yee haue brought, and goe away in safety.

6 Then he took them both aspart, and said vnto them, Bless God, praise him, and magnifie him, and praise him for the things which he hath done vnto you in the sight of all that liue. It is good to praise God, and exalt his Name, and honourably to shew forth the works of God, therefore be not slacke to praise him.

7 It is good to keep close the secret of a king, but it is honourable to reueale the works of God: doe that which is good, and no euill shall touch you.

8 Prayer is good with sitting, and stimes, and righteousness: a little with righteousness is better then much with wickednesse: it is better to giue almes, then to lay vp gold.

9 For almes doth deliuer from death, and shall purge away all sinne. Those that exercise almes and righteousness, shall be filled with life.

10 But they that sinne, are enemies to their owne liue.

11 Surely, I will keepe close nothing from you, For I said, It was good to keepe close the secret of a King, but that it was honourable to reueale the works of God.

12 Now therefore when thou diddest pray, and Sara thy daughter in law, I did bring the remembrance of yo- e prayer before the holy One, and when thou diddest bury the dead, I was with thee likewise.

13 And when thou didst not delay to rise vp, and leave thy dinner to goe & cover the dead, thy good deed was not hid from me, but I was with thee.

14 And now God hath sent me to heale thee, and Sara thy daughter in law.

15 I am Raphael, one of the seven holy Angels, which present the prayers of the righteous, and which goe in and out before the face of the Lord.

16 They that were in the house, and they which were without, answered and said, Thou art a good man, and thou art a good man.

17 But he said vnto them, I am not a man: for I shall goe well with you: praise God therefore.

18 For not of my fauour of mine, but by the will of our God I came: therefore praise him for euer.

19 All these dayes I did appeare vnto you, but I did neither eat nor drinke, but you did see a vision.

20 Now therefore give God thanks: for I goe vp to him that sent me, but write all things which are done in a booke.

21 And when they rose, they saw him no more.

22 Then they confessed the great and wonderfull works of God: and how the Angel of the Lord had appeared vnto them.

C H A P. XIII.

The thanksgiving vnto God which Tobit wrote.

Then Tobit wrote a prayer of reioyng, and said, Blessed be God that is health for euill, and blessed be his Kingdome:

1 For hee doth scourge, and he hath mercy: hee leadeth downe to hell, and bringeth vp againe: neither is there any that can resist his hand.

2 Confesse him before the Gentiles, ye children of Israel: for hee hath created vs among them.

3 Therefore declare his greatness, and exalt him before all the liuing, for he is our Lord, and hee is the God our Father for euer:

4 And he will scourge vs for our iniquities, and will haue mercy againe, and will gather vs out of all nations, among whom he hath scattered vs.

5 If you can resist him with your whole heart, and with your whole minde, and desire vprightly before him, then will hee turne you, and will not hide his face from you: Therefore see what he will doe with you, and confesse him with your whole mouth, and praise the Lord of might, as exceed the euill King.

6 In his hand is my captiuitie, and I praise him, and declare his might and Majesty to a fittill nation: O ye sinners, turne and doe iustice before him: who can tell, he will accept you, and haue mercy on you?

7 I will extol my God, and my minde shall praise the King of heauen, and shall reioyce in his greatnesse.

8 Let all men speake, and let all praise him for his righteousness.

9 O Jerusalem the holy city, thou shalt scourge thee for thy childrens works, and thou shalt haue mercy againe on the finnes of the righteous.

10 Give praise to the Lord our heu- nly God, & praise the euill King: in his hand is my captiuitie, and I am builded in thee againe with the Lord: and thou shalt be ioyfull there in thee, for thou shalt not be captiue, and thou shalt be for euer: thus shall thou be iustifiable.

11 Many nations shall come from farre to the Name of the Lord: God will giue in their hands, euill gifts to the King of heauen: all gentes against shall praise thee with great ioy.

12 Corals are all thy which thou hast set, and blessed shall all be, which buy thee: and thou shalt be ioyfull there in thee, for thou shalt not be captiue, and thou shalt be for euer: thus shall thou be iustifiable.

13 Reioyce and be glad for the children of the blisse: for they shall be gathered together, and shall besse the Lord of the heu- nly.

14 O blessed are they which loue thee, for they shall reioyce in thy peace: blessed are they which haue bene sorrowfull for all thy scourges, for they shall reioyce for thee, when thou shalt see all thy glory, and thou shalt be glad for euer.

15 Let my louer besse God, the great King.

16 For Jerusalem shall be build vp with Sapphires and Emeraude, and precious stones: thy walls towers, and battlements with pure gold.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Tobias giueth instructions to his soue, & graciously to leane Nimus. 11 Hee and his wife die and are buried. 12 Tobias remoueth to Ecbatane, 14 and there died after he had heard of the destruction of Ninus.

So Tobias made an end of praising God.

2 And he was eight and fifty yeres old when hee lost his sight, which was restored to him after eight yeres, and he gaue a stone, and he increased in the feare of the Lord God, and praised him.

3 And when he was very aged, he called his son and the sixe sonn-ers of his son, and said to them, My soue, gaue thy children, for behold, I am aged, and am ready to depart out of this life.

4 Goe into Media, my son, for I sorely beleene those things which Ionas the Prophet spake of Ninus: that it shall be overthrown, and that for a time peace shall rather be in Media, and that our brethren shall lie scattered in the earth, from that good land, and Ierusalem shall be desolate, and the house of God in it shall be burned, and shall be desolate for a time:

5 And that againe God will haue mercy on them, and bring them againe into the land where they shall build a Temple, but not like to the first vntill the time of that age be fulfilled, and afterward they shall reuenge from all places of their captivity, and build vp Ierusalem gloriously, and the house of God shall be built in it for euer with a glorious building, as the Prophets haue spoken thereof.

6 And all nations shall come and feare the Lord God truly, and shall bury their idols.

7 So shall all nations praise the Lord, and his people shall confesse God, and the Lord shall exalt his people, and all those which loue the Lord God in truth and iustice, shall reioyce, shewing mercy to our brethren.

8 And now my soue, depart out of Ninus, because that those things which the Prophet Ionas spake, shall surely come to passe.

9 But keep thou the Law and the good commandments, and shew thy selfe mercifull and just, that it may goe well with thee.

10 And bury me decently, and thy mother with me, but tarry no longer at Ninus. Remember my son, how Aman handled Achicharus that brought him vp, how out of light hee brought him into darkness, and how he rewarded him againe: yet Achicharus was spared, but the other had his reward, for he went down into darkness. Manasses gaue almes, and escaped the fares of death, which they had set before him: but Aman fell into the fares, and perished.

11 Wherefore now my son, consider what almes doth, and how righteousnesse doth decline. When he had said these things, hee gaue vp the ghost in the bed, being an hundred and eight and fifty yeres old, and he was buried him honourably.

12 And when Anna his mother was dead he buried her with his father: but Tobias departed with his wife and children to Ecbatane, to Raguel his father in law:

13 Where he became old with honour, & he buried his father and mother in law honourably, and he inherited their substance, and his father Tobias.

14 And hee died at Ecbatane in Media, being an hundred and seuen and twenty yeres old.

15 But before he died, he heard of the destruction of Ninus, which was taken by Nabuchodonosor and Adractus: and before his death he reioyced ouer Ninus.

CHAP. I.

1 Arphaxad doth forsike Ecbatane, & Nabuchodonosor maketh warre against him, 7 and cometh to aide. 12 He striveth those that would not aide him, 15 and killeth Arphaxad, 16 and returneth to Ninus.

In the twelfth yere of the reigne of Nabuchodonosor, who reigned in Ninus the great city, (in the dayes of Arphaxad, which reigned ouer the Medes in Ecbatane,

2 And built in Ecbatane walles round about of houses hewen, three cubites broad, and sixe cubites long, and made the height of the wall fencye cubites, and the breadth thereof fifty cubites:

3 And set the towres thereof vpon the gates of it, an hundred cubites high, and the breadth thereof in the foundation threecore cubites.

4 And he made the gates thereof, euen gates that were raised to the height of fencye cubites, and the breadth of them was forty cubites, for the going forth of his mighty armies, and for the setting in array of his footmen.)

5 Euen in these dayes King Nabuchodonosor made war with King Arphaxad in a great plaine, which is the plaine in the borders of Raguel.

6 And there came vnto him all they that dwelt in that countrey, and all that dwelt by Euphrates, and Tigris, and Hydaspes, and the plaine of Artoch, the King of the Elymeans, and very many nations of the Iouans of Chelod, assembled themselves to the battell.

7 Then Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians, sent vnto all that dwell in Persia, and to all that dwell Westward, and to those that dwell in Cilicia, and Damascus, and Libanus, and Antilibanus, and to all that dwelt vpon the Sea coast,

8 And to those amongst the nations that were of Carmel, and Galad, and the higher Galilee, and the great plaine of Eledrebon,

9 And to all that were in Samaria, & the cities thereof, & beyond Iordan vnto Ierusalem, and Betuse, and Chelias, and Cades, & the river of Egypt, and Taphnes, & Ramesse, & all the land of Gessen, 10 Vntill you come beyond Tania, and Memphis, and to all the inhabitants of Egypt, vntill you come to the borders of Ethiopia.

11 But all the inhabitants of the land made light of the commandment of Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians: neither were they with him to the battell: for they were not afraid of him; yea, he was before them as one man, & they sent away his Ambassadors from che without effect, & with disgrace.

12 Therefore Nabuchodonosor was very angry with all this countrey, & (sware by his throne and kingdom, that he would surely be avenged vpon all these coastes of Cilicia, & Damascus, and Syria, and that he would slay with the sword all the inhabitants of the land of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and all Indes, and all that were in Egypt, till you come to the borders of the two Seas.

13 Then hee marched in battell army with his power against King Arphaxad, in the seaventh yeere, and hee prevailed in his battell, for hee overthrew all the power of Arphaxad, and all his horsemen, and all his chariots.

14 And became lord of his cities, and came unto Echarane, and tooke the towres, and spoiled the streets thereof, and turned the beauty thereof into shame.

15 Hee tooke also Arphaxad in the mountaines of Ragau, and indued him thorow with his darts, and destroyed him utterly that day.

16 So hee returned afterward to Ninene, both hee, and all his company of sundry nations, being a very great multitude of men of war, and there hee tooke his ease, and banqueted, both hee, and his army, an hundred and twenty dayes.

C H A P. II.

1 Olofernes is appointed generall, 11 and charged to spare none that will not yield. 13 His army and provision. 23 The places which hee wonne and wasted as hee went.

1 And in the eighteenth yeere, the two and twentieth day of the first month, there was talk in the house of Nabuchodonosor, King of the Assyrians, that he should, as hee said, avenge himselfe on all the earth.

2 So hee called unto him all his officers, and all his nobles, and communicated with them his heart comfell, and concluded the sacking of the whole earth out of his owne mouth.

3 Then they desired to destroy all flesh that did not obey the commandement of his mouth.

4 And when hee had ended his counsell, Nabuchodonosor King of the Assyrians, called Olofernes the chiefe captaine of his army, which was next unto him, and said unto him,

5 Thus saith the great King, the lord of the whole earth, Behold, thou shalt goe forth from my presence, and take with thee men that trust in their owne strength, of footmen an hundred and twenty thousand, and the number of horsemen with their riders twelue thousand.

6 And thou shalt goe against all the West countries, because they disobey my commandement.

7 And thou shalt declare unto them, that they prepare me mee f earth and water: for I will goe forth in my wrath against them, and will cover the face of the whole earth with the feet of mine army, and I will give them for a spoile unto them.

8 So that their flaine shall fill their valleys and brookes, and their river shall be filled with their dead, till it overflow.

9 And I will leade them captives to the remotest parts of all the earth.

10 Thou therefore shalt goe forth, and take beforehand for me all their coasts, and if they will yield themselves unto thee, thou shalt release them for me till the day of their punishment.

11 Now concerning them that rebell, let not thine eye spare them: but put them to the slaughter, and spoile them wheresoever thou goest.

12 For as I live, and by the power of my kingdom, whatsoever I have spoken, that will I doe by mine hand.

13 And take thou heed that thou transgresse none of the commandements of thy lord, but accomplish them fully, as I have commanded thee, and defer not to doe them.

14 Then Olofernes went forth from the presence of his lord, and called all the governors, and capitaine, and the officers of the army of Assur.

15 And hee mustered the chosen men for the battell, as his lord had commanded him, unto an hundred and twenty thousand, and twelue thousand archers on horsebacke.

16 And hee ranged them as a great army is ordered for the warre.

17 And hee tooke camels and asses for their carriages, a very great number, and sheepe, and oxen, and goats, wch. our number for their provision.

18 And plenty of victuall for every man of the army, and very much gold and silver out of the Kings house.

19 Then hee went forth, and all his power, to go before King Nabuchodonosor in the voyage, & to cover all the face of the earth Westward with their chariots, and horsemen, and their chosen toothen.

20 A great multitude also of sundry countries came with them like locusts, and like the land of the earth; for the multitude was without number.

21 And they went forth of Ninene three dayes journey toward the plaine of Bethleth, and passed from Bethleth neere the mountaine, which is at the left hand of the upper Calicia.

22 Then hee tooke all his army, his footmen, and horsemen, and chariots, and went from thence into the hill country;

23 And destroyed Phad and Lud, and spoiled all the children of Rasse, and the children of Ismael, which were toward the wilderness, at the South of the land of the Chelians.

24 Then hee went over Esphracen, and went thorow Mesopotamia, and destroyed all the high cities that were upon the river Arbocai, till you come to the Sea.

25 And hee tooke the borders of Cilicia, and killed all that resisted him, and came to the borders of Iapheth, which were toward the South, over against Arabia.

26 Hee compassed also all the children of Madian, and burnt up their Tabernacles, and spoiled their sheepe-coats.

27 Then hee went downe into the plaine of Damascus in the time of wheat harvest, and burnt up all their fields, and destroyed their flocks and herds, also hee spoiled their cities, and utterly wasted their countreys, and linnet all their young men with the edge of the sword.

28 Therefore the feare & dread of him fell upon all the inhabitants of the Sea coasts, which were in Sidon and Tyris, and them that dwell in Sar, and Oriza, and all that dwell in Temzan, and they that dwell in Axocus, & Azoalon feared him greatly.

C H A P. III.

1 They of the Sea coast intreat for peace. 7 Olofernes is received there: 8 Yet hee desireth with their gods, that they might worship only Nabuchodonosor. 9 The counsell were to Iuda.

So they sent Ambassadors unto him to treat of peace, saying,

2 Behold, we the servants of Nabuchodonosor the great King, be before thee, vie vs as shall be good in thy sight.

3 Behold, our houses, and all our places, and all our fields of wheat, and flocks, and herds, and all the ludges of our tents lie before thy face, vie them as it pleaseth thee.

4 Behold, even our cities, and the inhabitants thereof.

5 So the men came to Olofernes, and declared unto him after this manner.

6 Then came hee downe toward the Sea coast, both he and his army, and set garisons in the high cities, and took out of them chosen men for aide.

7 So they, and all the country round about, received them with garlands, with dances, and with timbrels.

8 Yet he did cast downe their frontiers, and cut downe their groves, for he had decreed to destroy all the gods of the land; that all nations should worshipping Naburhodonosor onely, and that all tongues and tribes should call upon him as God.

9 Also he came once againe against Edfrazelon, neere unto Iudaea, ouer against the great strait of Iudaea.

10 And he putted between Geba & Scythopolis, and there he carried a whole moeth, that he might gather together all the carriages of his army.

CHAP. liii.

1 The Iewes are afraid of Olofernes, & send sacrifice to him. 2 They of Bethsulta take charge of the passages. 3 All Israel fall in fasting and prayer.

Now the children of Israel that dwelt in Iudaea heard all that Olofernes the chiefe captaine of Nabuchodonosor king of the Assyrians had done to the nations, and saw what manner he had spoiled all their Temples, and brought them to nought.

2 Therefore they were exceedingly afraid of him, and were troubled for Hierusalem, and for the Temple of the Lord their God.

3 For they were newly returned from the captivity, and all the people of Iudaea were largely gathered together: and the vessels, and the Altar, and the house, were sanctified after the proclamation.

4 Therefore they went into all the coasts of Samaria, and the villages, and to Bethoron, and Bethan, and Beticho, and to Chryba, and Eloza, and to the valley of Salca;

5 And possessed themselves beforehand of all the tops of the high mountains, and fortified the villages that were in them, and hid up victuals for the privation of war: for their fields were of late reaped.

6 Also Ibasin the high Priest which was in those times in Hierusalem, wrote to them that dwell in Bethsulta and Bethonethsam, which is ouer against Edfrazelon toward the open country, neere to Duchaim,

7 Charging them to keepe the passages of the hill country: for by them there was an entrance into Iudaea, and it was easie to stop them that would come up, because the passage was strait for two men at the most.

8 And the children of Israel did as Iosacin the high Priest had commaunded them, with the ancients of all the people of Israel, which dwelt at Hierusalem.

9 Then every man of Israel cried to God with great feruency, and with great vehemency did they smite their breasts;

10 Both they, and their wives, and their children, in their castles, and every stranger, and hireling, in their seruaunts bought with money, put sackcloth upon their loines.

11 Thus every man and woman, and the little children, and the inhabitants of Ierusalem, fell before the Temple, and cast ashes upon their heads: they spread out their sackcloth before the face of the Lord: also they put sackcloth about the Altar, and cried to the God of Israel all with one voice, earnestly saying he would not give their children for a prey, and their wives for a spoile; and the cities of their inheritance to destruction, and the Sanctuary to profanation, and reproch, and for the nations to reioyce at.

12 So God heard their prayers, and looked vpon their afflictions, for the people fasted many dayes in all Iudaea and Ierusalem, before the Sanctuary of the Lord Almighty.

13 And Iosacin the high Priest, and all the Priests that stood before the Lord, and they which ministered vnto the Lord, had their loines girt with sackcloth, and offered the daily burnt offerings, with the vowes and free gifts of the people.

14 And had ashes on their mixers, and cried vnto the Lord with all their power, that hee would looke vpon all the house of Israel graciously.

CHAP. v.

1 Achior telleth Olofernes what the Iewes are, & what their God had done for them, as and alwayeth not to mendle with them. 20 All that heard him, were offended at him.

Then was it declared to Olofernes, the chiefe captaine of the army of Assur, that the children of Israel had prepared for warre, and had shut vp the passages of the hill country, and had fortified all the tops of the high hills, and had laid impediments in the champion countries.

Gr. 10p. 10p.

2 Wherewith he was very angry, and called all the Princes of Moab, and the captaines of Ammon, and all the generous of the sea coast.

3 And he said vnto them, Tell me now, ye sons of Canaan, who this people is that dwelleth in the hill country? and what are the cries that they inhabite? and what is the multitude of their army? and wherein is their power and strength, and what king is hee ouer them, or captaine of their army?

4 And why haue they determined not to come and meet me, more then all the inhabitants of the Wele?

5 Then said Achior the captaine of all the sons of Ammon, Let my lord now heare a word from the mouth of thy seruaunt, and I will declare vnto thee the truth, concerning this people which dwelleth neere thee, & inhabireth the hill countries, & there shall no lie come out of the mouth of thy seruaunt.

Chap. 12. 20

6 This people are descended of the Canaanites,

7 And they sojourned heretofore in Mesopotamia, because they would not follow the gods of their fathers which were in the land of Caldea.

Gen. 11. 31. 10v. went out of.

8 For they left the way of their ancefours, and worshipped the God of heauen, the God whom they knew: so they cast them out from the face of their gods, and they fled into Mesopotamia, and sojourned there many dayes.

9 Then their God commanded them to depart from the place where they sojourned, and to goe into the land of Canaan, where they dwell, and were increased with gold and silver, and with very much cattell.

Gen. 12. 16

10 But when a famine covered all the land of Canaan, they went downe into Egypt, and sojourned there, while they were nourished, and became there a great multitude, so that one could not number their nation.

11 Therefore the King of Egypt rose vp against them, and dealt cruelly with them, and brought them low with labouring in bricke, and made them slaves.

Exod. 1. 11.

12 Then they cried vnto their God, and he smote all the land of Egypt with incurable plagues, so that the Egyptians cast them out of their sight.

Exod. 12. 31. 32.

13 And God dyed the red Sea before them:
 14 And brought them to mount Sinai, and Cades Barne, and cast forth all their dwelers in the wilderness.
 15 So they dwelt in the land of the Amorites, and they destroyed by their strength all them of Esbon, and passing over Jordan, they possessed all the hill country.
 16 And they call forth before them the Chama-zaire, the Phazetite, the Iebosite, and the Sychemite, and all the Gergesites, and they dwelt in that countrey many dayes.

17 And whilke they sinned not before their God, they prospered, because the God that hateth iniquity was with them.

18 But when they departed from the way which hee appointed them, they were destroyed in many battels very sore, and were led captiues into a land that was not theirs, and the Temple of their God was cast to the ground, and their cities were taken by the enemies.

19 But now are they returned to their God, and are come vp from the places where they were scattered, and have possessed Ierusalem, where their Sanctuary is, and are seated in the hill country, for it was desolate.

20 Now therefore my lord and gouernour, if there be any error in this people, & they sin against their God, let vs confides, that this shall be their ruine, and let vs goe vp, and we shall overcome them.

21 Not if there be no iniquity in their nation, let my lord now passe by, lest their lord defend them and their God be for them, and wee become a reproch before all the world.

22 And when Achior had finished these sayings, all the people standing round about the tent mar-uelled, and the chief men of Olofernes, and all that dwelt by the sea side, and in Moab, spake that he should kill him.

23 For say they, We will not be afraid of the face of the children of Israel, for loe it is a people that hath no strength nor power for a strong battell.

24 Now therefore, lord Olofernes, we will goe vp, and they shall be a prey, to be deuoured of all their army.

CHAP. VI.

3 Olofernes despiseth God. 7 Hee throweth
 Achior, and scuteth him away. 14 The Bethulians receive and heare him. 18 They fall to prayer, and comfort Achior.

And when the tumult of men that were about the counsell was ceased, Olofernes the chiefe Captaine of the army of Assur, said vnto Achior and all the Moabites, before all the company of other nations,

3 And who art thou Achior, and the hirelinge of Ephraim, that thou hast prophesied among vs as to day, and hast said, that we should not make war gaine the people of Israel, because their God will defend them? who is God but Nabuchodonosor?

4 Hee will send his power, and will destroy them from the face of the earth, and their God shall not deliuer them: but wee his seruants will destroy them as one man, for they are not able to sustaine
 the power of our hottis:

5 For with them we will tread them vnder foot, and their mountaines shall be drunken with their blood, and their fielde shall be filled with their dead bodies, and their tootheys shall not be able to stand before vs, for they shall vncery perish, saith King Nabuchodonosor, lord of all the earth, for hee saith, None of my words shall be in vaine.

5 And thou Achior, an hireling of Ammon, which hast spoken these words in 5 day of thine iniquity, shall see my face no more till this day, vntill I take vengeance of this nation that came out of Egypt.

6 And then shall the sword of mine armie, and the multitude of them that serue me, passe thow thy sides, and thou shalt fall among their flaine, when I returne.

7 Now therefore, my seruants shall bring thee backe into the hill country, and shall see thee in one of the cities of the passages.

8 And thou shalt not perish till thou be destroyed with them.

9 And if thou perswade thy selfe in thy misde, that they shall not be taken: let not thy countenance fall, I haue spoken it, and none of thy words shall be in vaine.

10 Then Olofernes commanded his seruants that waited in his court, to take Achior, and bring him to Bethulia, and deliuer him into the hands of the children of Israel.

11 So his seruants tooke him, & brought him out of the campe into the plaine, and they went from the middle of the plaine into the hill country, and came vnto 5 bouenours that were vnder Bethulia.

12 And when the men of the city saw them, they tooke vp their weapons, and went out of the city to the top of the hill, and every man that was a sinner, kept them from coming vp, by casting of stones against them.

13 Nevertheless, hauing gotten priuily vnder
 the hill, they bound Achior, and cast him downe, and lett him at the foot of the hill, and returned to their lord.

14 But the Israelites descended from their city, and came vnto him, and tooke him, and brought him into Bethulia, and presented him to the gouernours of the city.

15 Which were in those dayes Ozias, the sonne of Michas, of the tribe of Simeon, and Charas the son of Gothoniel, and Charas the son of Melchiel.

16 And they called together all the Ancients of the city, and all their youth ran together, and their women to the assembly, and they let Achior in the middelt of all their people. Then Ozias asked him of that which was done.

17 And hee answered, and declared vnto them the words of the counsell of Olofernes, and all the words that he had spoken in the middt of the Prin-ceps of Assur, and whosoever Olofernes had spoken proudly against the house of Israel.

18 Then the people fell downe and worshipped
 God, and cryed vnto God, saying,

19 O Lord God of heauen, behold their pride, and pity the low estate of our nation, & looke vpon this face of those that are sanctified vnto thee, this day.

20 Then they comforted Achior, and praised him greatly.

21 And Ozias took him out of the assembly vnto his house, and made a feast vnto the Elders, & they called on the God of Israel all that night for helpe.

CHAP. VII.

1 Olofernes besiegeth Bethulia, 7 and stoppeth the water from them. 22 They faunt and murmure against the Gouernour. 30 Who promise to yeelde within fift dayes.

The next day Olofernes commanded all his army, and all his people which were come to take his part, that they should reuolue their campe against Bethulia, to take aforehand the ascent of the hill country, and to make warre against the children of Israel.

2 Then their strong men remoued their campe in that day, and the armie of the men of warre was an hundred and fawente thousand footmen, and twelue thousand horsemen, beside the baggage and other men that were a foot amongst them, a very great multitude.

3 And they camped in the valley nere vnto Bethulia, by the fountaine, and they spent themselves in breade vpon Dorham, enen to Belmaim, and in leauge from Bethulia vnto Cymon, which is ener against Edraclon.

4 Now the children of Israel, when they saw the multitude of them, were greatly troubled, and said carry me to his neighbour: Now will these men lide vp the face of the earth, for neither the high mountaines, nor the valleys, nor the hills, are able to beare their weight.

5 Then every man tooke vp his weapons of war, and when they had kindled fires vpon their towres they remained and watched all that night.

6 But in the second day Olofernes brought forth all his horsemen, in the fight of the children of Israel, which were in Bethulia.

7 And viewed the passages vp to the cite, and came to the fountaine of their waters, and tooke them, and set garisous of men of warre ouer them; and he himselfe remoued toward his people.

8 Then came vnto him all the chicke of the children of Esau, and all the gouernours of the people of Moab, and the captaines of the sea coast, and said,

9 Let our lord now heare a word, that these be not an overthrow in thine armie.

10 For this people of the children of Israel doe not trust in their speeres, but in the height of the mountaines wherein they dwell, because it is not easie to come vp to the tops of their mountaines.

11 Now therefore, my lord, fight not against them in battell array, and there shall not so much as one man of thy people perish.

12 Remain in thy campe, and keepe all the men of thine army, and let thy seruants see into their founte the fountaine of water, which issueth forth of the face of the mountaine.

13 For all the inhabitants of Betanias hate their water thence: so shall thirst kill them, and they shall giue vp their city, and we and our people shall goe vp to the tops of the mountaines that are nere, and will campe vpon them, to watch that some goe out of the city.

14 So they, and their wives, and their children, shall be confirmed with fauour, and before the sword come against them, they shall be overthrowne in the streets where they dwell.

15 Thus shalt thou render them an euill reward: because they rebelled, and met not thy person peaceably.

16 And these words pleased Olofernes, and all his seruants, and he appointed to doe as they had spoken.

17 So the campe of the children of Ammon departed, and with them six thousand of the Assyrians, and they pitched in the valley, and tooke the waters, and the fountaines of the waters of the children of Israel.

18 Then the children of Esau went vp, with the children of Ammon, and camped in the hill countrey ouer against Dorham: and they sent some of them toward the South, and toward the East, ouer against Ekrebel, which is nere vnto Chasi, that is vpon the brooke Mochmar, and the rest of the armie of the Assyrians camped in the plaine, and covered the face of the whole land, and their tents and carriage were pitched to a very great multitude.

19 Then the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord their God, because their heart failed, for all their enemies had compassed them round about, and there was no way to escape out from among them.

20 Thus all the company of Assur remained about them, both their footmen, charcers, and horsemen, house and thirrie dates, so that all their vessels of water failed of the inhabitants of Bethulia.

21 And the Iudiths were emptied, and they had not water to drinke their fill for one day, for they gaue them drinke by measure.

22 Therefore their young children were out of heart, and their women and young men fainted for thirst, and fell downe in the streets of the city, and by the passages of the gates, and there was no longer any strength in them.

23 Then all the people assembled to Ozias, and to the chicke of the city, both young men and women, and children, and cried with a loud voyce, and said before all the Elders:

24 God be iudge betwene vs and you: for you haue done vs great iniury, in that you haue not required peace of the children of Assur.

25 For now we haue no helpe: but God hath sold vs into their hands, that wee should be throwen downe before them with thirst, and great destruction.

26 Now therefore call them vnto you, and deliuer the whole city for a spoile to the people of Olofernes, and to all his armie.

27 For it is better for vs to be made a spoile vnto them, then to die for thirst, for we will be his seruants; that our soules may liue, and not see the death of our infants before our eyes, nor our wives nor our children to dye.

28 We take to witness against you, the heauen and the earth, and our God and Lord of our Fathers, which punisheth vs according to our finnes, and the finnes of our Fathers, if that he doe not according to we haue said this day.

29 Then there was great weeping with one consent in the middle of the assembly, and they cried vnto the Lord God with a loud voyce.

30 Then said Ozias to them, Brethren, be of good courage, let vs yet endure five dayes, in the which space the Lord our God may carue his mercie towards vs, for he will not forsake vs utterly.

31 And if these dayes passe, and there come no helpe vnto vs, I will doe according to your word.

32 And he dispersed the people every one to their owne charge, and they went vnto the walles and towres of their cite, and sent the women and children into their houses, and they were very low brought in the city.

CRAP. VIII.

1 The state and behaviour of Iudith, a widow.
2 She blameth the Gouernours for their promise to yield: 3 And aduisech them to trust in God.
4 They excuse their promise. 5 She promiseth to doe something for them.

Now at that time Iudith heard thereof, which was the daughter of Merari the son of Ozai, the son of Ioseph, the son of Ozuel, the son of Elcia, the son of Ananias, the son of Gedemon, the son of Raphaim, the son of Acitho, the son of Elio, the son of Elish, the sonne of Nathanael, the son of Samael, the son of Salafada; the sonne of Israel.

2 And Manasses was her husband, of her tribe and kindred, who died in the barley harvest.

3 For as hee stood mourning them that brend sheares in the field, she heare came vpon his head, and he fell on his bed, and died in the city of Bethulia, and they buried him with his Father in the field besyde Bethsaim and Balasoo.

4 So Indith was a widow in her looth, three yeeres and foure monthes.

5 And she made her a tent vpon the top of her house, and put on sackcloth on her loynes, and wate her widowes apparell.

6 And she fasted all 3 dayes of her widowhood, save the eases of the Sabbath, and the Sabbath, and the feastes of the new Moones, and the new Moones, & the feasts, & solemne dayes of the house of Israel.

7 She was also of a goodly countenance, and very beautiful to beholde: and her husband Manasses had left her gold and siluer and men-seruants, and maide-seruants, and cattell, and lands, and she remained vpon them.

8 And there was none that gaue her an ill word, for she feared God greatly.

9 Now when she heard the euill words of the people against the gouernour, that they desired for lacke of water for Indith had heard all the words that Ozias had spoken vnto them, and that he had sworn to deliuer the city vnto the Assyrians after foure dayes.

10 Then she sent her waiting woman, that had the gouernour of all things that she had, to call Ozias and Chabris, and Charimis, the ancients of the city.

11 And they came vnto her, and shee said vnto them, Heare me now, O ye Gouernours of the inhabitants of Bethulia: for your words that you haue spoken before the people this day, are not right, touching this oath which ye made, and pronounced betwene God and you, and haue promised to deliuer the city to our enemies, vntill within these daies the Lord turne to helpe you.

12 And now, who are you: that haue tempted God this day, and stand in stead of God amongst the children of men?

13 And how trye the Lord Almighty, but you shall neuer know any thing.

14 For you cannot find the depth of the heart of man, neither can ye perceiue the things that he thinketh: euen how can you search out God, that hath made all these things, and know his mind, or comprehend his purpose? Nay, my brethren, prouoke not the Lord our God to anger.

15 For if he will not helpe vs within these foure dayes, he hath power to destroy vs before our enemies.

16 Doe not I blame the counsell of the Lord our God, for God is not as man, that he may be threatened, neither is hee as the soune of man that he should be wauering.

17 Therefore let vs waite for salvation of him, and call vpon him to helpe vs, and hee will heare our voyce, if it please him.

18 For there strofe none in our age, neither is there any now in these dayes, neither tribe nor family, nor I people, nor any among vs, which worshipping gods made with handes, as hath bene aforetime.

19 For the which cause our Fathers were giuen to the sword, and for a spoile, and had a great fall before our enemies.

20 But we know none other God: therefore we trust that he will not despise vs, nor say of our nation.

21 For if we be taken (so all Indiths people were) and our Sanctuary shall be spoiled, and he will require the propitiation thereof at our enemies.

22 And the blaspemy of our brethren, and the captivity of the country, and the desolation of our inheritance, will be vnto our heads among the Gentiles, wherefore we shall be in bondage, and we shall be an offence, and a reproch to all them that possesse vs.

23 For our fortitude shall not be directed to shame: but the Lord our God shall turne it to dishonour.

24 Now therefore, O brethren, let vs shew an example to our brethren, because their hearts depend vpon vs, and the Sanctuary, and the house, and the Altar rest vpon vs.

25 Moreover, let vs giue thanks to the Lord our God, which trieth vs, as he did our Fathers.

26 Remember what things hee did to Abraham, and how hee tried Isaac, and what happened to Jacob in Mesopotamia of Syria, when hee kept the sheepe of Laban his mothers brother.

27 For he hath not tried vs in the fire, as hee did them, for the examination of their hearts, neither hath he taken vengeance on vs: but the Lord doth scourge them that come neere vnto him to admonish them.

28 Then said Ozias to her, All that thou hast spoken, hath thou spoken with a good heart, and there is none that may gainsay thy words.

29 For this is not the first day wherein thy wisdom is manifested, but from the beginning of thy dayes: all thy people haue knowen thy vnderstanding, because the spirit of our true heart is good.

30 But the people were very thirsty, and compelled vs to doe vnto them, as we haue spoken, and to bring an oath vpon our selves, which we will not break.

31 Therefore now pray thou for vs, because thou art a goodly woman, and the Lord will send vs, as he will send vs, and we shall faint no more.

32 Then said Indith vnto them, Heare me, and I will doe a thing, which shall goe throughout all generations, to the children of our nation.

33 You shall stand this night in the gate, and I will go forth with my waiting woman: and within the dayes: hee you haue promised to deliuer the city to our enemies, the Lord will visite Israel by mine hand.

34 But enquire not you of mine age: for I will not declare it vnto you, till the things be finished that I doe.

35 Then said Ozias and the Princes vnto her, God in peace, and the Lord God be mercie vnto thee, to take vengeance on our enemies.

36 So they returned from the tent, and went to their wards.

CHAP. IX.

1 Indith humbleth her selfe, and prayeth God to prosper her purpose against the custom of her Sanctuary.

Then Indith fell vpon her face, and put ashes vpon her head, and wraucoued the sackcloth wherewith shee was clothed, and about the time that the incense of that evening was offered in Jerusalem in the house of the Lord, Indith cried with a loud voyce, and said,

O Lord God of my father Simeon, to whom thou giuest a sword to take vengeance of the strangers, who loosened the girdle of a maide to defile her, and discovered the thigh to her shame, and polluted her virginity to her reproach, (for thou saidst it shall not be so, and yet they did so.)

3 Wherefore thou giuest thine Rulers to be Rulers: in the day they did their head in blood, being for, and the tops them.

decided, and smote the Sennans with their lords, and the lords upon their thrones :

4 And hath given their wives for a prey, and their daughters to be captives, and all their spoiles to be divided amongst thy dear children, which were smothered with thy rage, and abhorred the pollution of their blood, and called upon thee for ayde: O God, O my God, heare me also a widow.

5 For thou hast wrought not only those things, but also the things which fell out before, and which ensued after, thou hast thought upon the things which are now, and which are to come.

6 Yes, what things thou didst determine, were ready at hand, and said, Lo, we are here; for all thy wayes are prepared, and thy iudgements are in thy foreknowledge.

7 For behold, the Assyrians are multiplied in their power: they are exalted with horre and man: they goe, in the strength of their footmen: they trust in shield, speere, and bow, and sling, and know not that thou art the Lord that breaketh the bowels: the Lord is thy Name.

8 Throw down their strength in thy power, and bring down their force in thy wrath: for they have purposed to defile thy Sanctuary, and to pollute the Tabernacle, where thy glorious Name resteth, and to cast downe with twined the horn of thy Altar.

9 Behold their pride, and send thy wrath upon their heads: give into mine hand which am a widow, the power that I have conceived.

10 "Smite by the decree of my lips, the servant with the prince, and the prince with the servant: smite downe their strength, by the hand of a woman.

11 "For thy power standeth not in multitude, nor thy might in strong men, for thou art a God of the afflicted, an helper of the oppressed, an upholder of the weak, a protector of the forlorn, a Saviour of them that are without hope.

12 I pray thee, pray thee, O God of my father, and God of the inheritance of Israel, Lord of the heavens and earth, Creator of the waters, King of every creature, heare thou my prayer:

13 And make my speeche an I decrie to be their wound and stripe, who have purposed cruell things against thy Covenant, and thy hallowed house, and against the top of Zion, and against the house of the possession of thy children.

14 And make every nation and tribe to acknowledge, that thou art the God of all power and might, and that there is none other that protecteth the people of Israel but thou.

3 Indebz hath set forth her selfe. 10 She and her maid goe forth into the campe. 17 The watch sake and cauldred her to Olofernes.

NOW after that she had ceased to cry unto the God of Israel, and had made an end of all these words;

1 She arose where she had fallen downe, and called her maid, and went downe into the house, in the which shee abode in the Sabbath dayes, and in her first dayes.

2 And pulled off the sackcloth which shee had on, and put off the garments of her widowhood, and washed her body all over with water, and anointed her selfe with precious ointment, and braided the haire of her head, and put on a tyre upon it, and put on her garments of gladnesse, where-with shee was clad during the life of Manasse her husband.

3 And shee took the sandals upon her feet, and put about her, her head, and her shaines, and her rings, and her earrings, and all her ornaments, and decked her selfe bravely, to allure the eyes of all men that should see her.

4 Then shee gave her maid a bottle of wine, and a cruft of oyle, and filled a bag with parched corne and lumps of figs, and with fine bread, for shee added all these things together, and laid them upon her.

5 Thus they went fourth to the gate of the city of Bethulia, and found standing there Ozias, and the ancients of the cite, Chabris and Charanis.

6 And when they saw her, that her countenance was altered, and her apparell was changed, they wondered at her beauty very greatly, and said unto her,

7 The God, the God of our fathers give thee favour, and accomplish thine enterprises to the glory of the children of Israel, and to the exaltation of Ierusalem: then they worshipped God.

8 And shee said unto them, Command the gates of the city to be opened unto me, that I may goe fourth to accomplish the things whereof you have spoken with mee: for they commanded the young men to open unto her as she had spoken.

9 And when they had done so, Iudith went out, shee, and her maid with her, and the men of the city looked after her, untill shee was gone downe the mountaine, and untill shee had passed the valley, and could see her no more.

10 Thus they went straight forth in the valley, and the first watch of the Assyrians met her:

11 Andooke her, and asked her, Of what people art thou? and whence comest thou? and whither goest thou? and shee said, I am a woman of the Medes, and am fled from them; for they shall be given you to be consumed.

12 And I am coming before Olofernes the chief captaine of your army, to declare words of truth, and I will shew him a way whereby he shall goe and win all the hill country, without losing the body or life of any one of his men.

13 Now when the men heard her words, and beheld her countenance, they wondered greatly at her beauty, and said unto her;

14 Thou hast saved thy life, in that thou hast refused to come downe to the presence of our lord: now therefore come to his tent, and some of us shall conduct thee, untill they have delivred thee to his hands.

15 And when thou standest before him, be not afraid in thine heart: but shew unto him according to thy word, and he will increase thee well.

16 Then they chose out of them to hundred men to accompany her and her maid, and they brought her to the tent of Olofernes.

107, and they prepared a chamber for her.

17 Then was there a concourse thoroughout all the campe, for her coming was noised among the tents, and they came about her as the flood without the tent of Olofernes, till they told him of her.

18 And they wondered at her beauty, and admired the children of Israel because of her, and every one said to his neighbor, Who would despise this people, that have among them such women? surely it is not good that one man of them be left, who being let goe, might deccie the whole earth.

19 And they that lay neere Olofernes, went out, and all his servants, and they brought her into the tent.

20 Now Olofernes rested upon his bed under a canopy, which was woven with purple and gold, and emeralds and precious stones.

17 So they showed him of her: he came out before his men, with filer lamps going before him.
18 And when Iudeth was come before him, and his servants, they all marvelled at the beauty of her countenance, and she fell downe upon her face, and did reverence vnto him, and his servants tooke her vp.

C H A P. X I.

3 Olofernes asked Iudeth the cause of her coming. 6 Shee told vs how how and when her may grauaile. 20 He is much pleased with her wisdom and beauty.

Then said Olofernes vnto her, Woman, be of good comfort, feare not in thine heart: for I neuer hurt any that was willing to serue Nabuchodonosor the King of all the earth.

1 No v therefore, if thy people that dwellecth in the mountains had not set light by me, I would not haue lifted vp my speare against them: but they haue done these things to themselves.

2 But now tell me wherefore thou art fled from them and art come vnto vs: for thou art come for safeguard, he of good comfort, thou shalt liue this night, and hereafter.

4 For now shall I see thee, but I reate these well as they doe the servants of King Nabuchodonosor my lord.

5 Then Iudeth said vnto him, Receive the words of thy servant, and suffer thine handmaid to speake in thy presence, and I will declare no lie to my lord this night.

6 And if thou wilt follow the words of thine handmaid, God will bring it thing perfectly to passe by thee, and my lord shall not faile of his purpose.

7 As Nabuchodonosor King of all the earth liueth, and as his power liueth, who hath sent thee for the vpholding of every thing: for not onely man shall serue him by thee, but also the beasts of the field, and the cattell, and the foules of the aire shall liue by thy power vnder Nabuchodonosor and all his honie.

8 For we haue heard of thy wisdom, and thy policies, & it is reported in all the earth, that thou only art excellent in all the kingdome, and mighty in knowledge, and wonderfull in feats of warre.

9 Now as concerning the matter which Achior did speake in thy counsell, we haue heard his words, for the men of Babilonia kissed him, and he declared vnto them, all that he had spoken vnto thee.

10 Therefore, O lord and gouernour, reioice not his word, but lay it vp in thine heart, for it is euer, for our nation shall not be punished, neither can his sword preuaile against them, except they sinne against their God.

11 And now that my lord be not defeated, and frustrate of his purpose, euen death is now fallen vpon them, & their God hath oueraken them: wherewith they wil prouoke their God to anger, whensoever they shall see that which is not fit to be done.

12 For their victualls faile them, and all their water is scant, and they haue determined to lay hands vpon their cattell, and purposed to consume all those things that God hath forbidden them to eate by his lawes.

13 And are resolute to spend the first fruits of the corne, and the tenth of wine and oyle, which they had sanctified and returned for the Priests that serue in Ierusalem, before the face of our God: the which things it is not lawfull for any of the people so much as to touch with their hands.

14 For they haue sent some to Ierusalem, because they said that death should haue done the like, as being them a licence from the Senate.

15 Now when they shall bring them word, they will faithfully doe it, and they shall be giuen them to be destroyed the same day.

16 Wherefore I thine handmaid, knowing all this, am fled from their presence, and God hath sent me to work things with thee, wherewith all the earth shall be astonished, and whosoever shall heare it.

17 For thy servant is religious, and serueth the God of heauen day and night: now therefore, my lord, I will remaine with thee, and thy servant will goe out by night into the valley, and I will pray vnto God, and he will tell me when they haue committed their sinnes.

18 And I will come and shew it vnto thee: then thou shalt goe forth with all thine armie, and there shall be none of them that shall resist thee.

19 And I will leade thee thorow the midd of Iudaea, vntill thou come before Ierusalem, and I will set thy throne in the midd thereof, and thou shalt driue them as sheepe that haue no shepherd, and a dog shall not so much as open his mouth at thee: for if these things were told me according to my foreknowledge, and they were declared vnto me, and I am faine to tell thee.

20 Then her words pleased Olofernes, and all his servants, and they marvelled at her wisdom, and said, 21 There is not such a woman from one end of the earth to the other, both for beauty of face, and wisdom of words.

22 Likewise Olofernes said vnto her, God hath done well to send thee before the people, that strength might be in our hands, and destruction vpon them that lightly regard my lord.

23 And now thou art both beautifull in thy countenance, and wittie in thy words: surely if thou doe as thou hast spoken, thy God shall be my God, and thou shalt dwell in my house of king Nabuchodonosor, & shalt be renowned through the whole earth.

C H A P. X I I.

3 Iudeth will not eate of Olofernes meat. 7 Shee tarried three dayes in the campe, and eatey might was forth to pray. 13 Begott darth moues her to be merry with Olofernes, 20 who for ioy of her company, drunke much.

Then he commanded to bring her in, where his plate was set, and bade that they should prepare for her of his own meats, and that she should drinke of his owne wine.

2 And Iudeth said, I will not eate thereof, lest there be an offence: but provision shall be made for me of the things that I haue brought.

3 Then Olofernes said vnto her, If thy promise should faile, how should we give thee the like? for there be none with vs of thy nation.

4 Then said Iudeth vnto him, As thy soule liueth, my lord, thine handmaid shall not spend those things that I haue, before the Lord worke by mine hand the things that he hath determined.

5 Then the servants of Olofernes brought her into the tent, and she slept vntill midnight, and she arose when it was towards the moruing watch.

6 And sent to Olofernes, saying, Let my lord now command that thine handmaid may goe forth vnto prayer.

7 Then Olofernes commanded his guard, that they should not stay her: thus shee abode in the campe three dayes, and went out in the night into the valley of Babilonia, and washed her selfe in a fountaine of water by the campe.

8 And when shee came out, shee brought the God of Israel to direct her way, to the raising up of the children of her people.

9 So she came in cleane and remained in the tent until she did eate her meat at evening.

10 And in the fourth day Olofernes made a feast to his owne servants onely, and called none of the officers to the banquet.

11 Then said hee to Bagoas the Eunuch who had charge over all that he had: Goe now and perswade this Hebrew woman which is with thee, that she come unto vs, and eate and drinke with vs.

12 For loe it will be a shame for our person, if we shall let such a woman goe, not having had her company: for if we draw her not unto vs, she will laugh vs to scorn.

13 Then went Bagoas from the presence of Olofernes, and came to her, and he said, Let not this faire damofell feare to come to my lord, and to be honoured in his presence, and drinke wine, and be merry with vs, and bee made this day as one of the daughters of the Assyrians, which serue in the house of Nabuchodonosor.

14 Then said Iudeth unto him, Who am I now that I should gainesay my lord? surely whatsoever pleaseth him, I will doe presently, and it shall be my toy unto the day of my death.

15 So she arose, and decked her selfe with her apparel, and all her woman attire, and her maid went and laid soft fumes on the ground for her, and against Olofernes, which shee had received of Bagoas for her daily vte, that shee might sit and eate vpon them.

16 Now when Iudeth came in, and sat downe, Olofernes his heart was raiuisht with her, and his mind was moued, and he desired greatly her company, for he waited a time to deceaue her, from the day that he had receiue her.

17 Then said Olofernes unto her, Drinke now, and be merry with vs.

18 So Iudeth said, I will drinke now, my lord, because my life is magnified in me this day, more then all the dayes since I was borne.

19 Then shee tooke, and ate and dranke before him, what her maid had prepared.

20 And Olofernes tooke great delight in her, and dranke much more wine then he had drunke at any time in one day since he was borne.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Iudeth is left alone with Olofernes in his tent, 2 she prayeth God to giue her strength, 3 she cutt off his head while he slepeth, 4 And returned with it to Bethulia: 5 They saw it, & commended her.

Now when the evening was come, his servants made hast to depart, and Bagoas shut his tent without, and dismissed the waiters from the presence of his lord, and they went to their beds: for they were all weary, because the feast had bin long.

2 And Iudeth was left alone in the tent, and Olofernes lying along vpon his bed, for he was filled with wine.

3 Now Iudeth had commanded her maid to stand without her bed-chamber, and to wait for her coming forth, as shee did daily: for she said she would goe forth to her prayers, and she spake to Bagoas, according to the same purpose.

4 So all went soorth, and none was left in the bed-chamber, neither little nor great. Then Iudeth standing by his bed, said in her heart: O Lord God of all power, looke at this present vpon the works of mischance, for the affliction of Ierusalem.

5 For now is the time to helpe thine inheritance, and to execute mine enterprises to the destruction of the enemies which are set against vs.

9 Then she came to the pillar of the bed, which was at Olofernes head, and tooke downe his fuchin from thence,

7 And approached to his bed, and tooke hold of the haire of his head, and said, Strengthen mee, O Lord God of Israel this day.

8 And shee smote twice vpon his necke with all her might, and shee tooke away his head from him,

9 And tumbled his body downe from the bed, and pulled downe the canopy from the pillars, and anon after shee went forth, and gaue Olofernes his head to her maid.

10 And shee put it in her bag of meate, so they twaine went together according to their custome vnto prayer, and when they passed their campe, they compassed the valley, and went vpon the mountain of Bethulia, and came to the gates thereof.

11 Then said Iudeth a farr off to the watchmen at the gate, Open, open now the gate: God, our God is with vs, to shew his power yet in Ierusalem, and his forces against the enemy, as he hath euer done this day.

12 Now when the men of her city heard her voyce they made hast to goe downe to the gate of their city, and they called the Elders of the city.

13 And then they ran all together, both small and great, for it was strange vnto them that shee was come: so they opened the gate and receiued them, and made a fire for a light, and stood round about them.

14 Then shee said to them with a loud voyce, Praise, praise God, praise God: (I say) for he hath not taken away his mercy from the house of Israel, but hath destroyed our enemies by mine hands this night.

15 So shee tooke the head out of the bag, and shewed it, and said vnto them, Behold the head of Olofernes the chiefe captaine of the army of Assur, and behold the canopy wherein he did lie in his drunkennesse, and the Lord hath smitten him by the hand of a woman.

16 As the Lord liueth, who hath kept me in my way that I went, my countenance hath deceiued him to his destruction, and yet hath hee not committid sinne with me, to defile and shame me.

17 Then all the people were wonderfully astonished, and bowed themselves, and worshipped God, and said with one accord: Blessed be thou, O our God, which hast this day brought to nought the enemies of thy people.

18 Then said Ozias vnto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the most high God, above all the women vpon the earth, and blessed be the Lord God, which hath created the hairens and the earth, which hath directed thee to the cutting off of the head of the chiefe of our enemies.

19 For this thy confidence shall not depart from the heart of men, which remember the power of God for euer.

20 And God turne these things to thee for a perpetual praise, to visit thee in good things, because thou hast not spured thy life for the affliction of our nation, but hast renoued our sinne, walking a straight way before our God: and all the people said, So bee it, so bee it.

CHAP. XIII.

8 Achior heareth Iudeth shew what she had done, and is circumcised, 11 The head of Olofernes is hanged vpon, 12 He is found dead, and much lamented.

Then said Iudeth vnto them, Heare mee now, my brethren, and take this head, and hang it vpon the highest place of your walles.

2. Mat. 15. 35.

CHAP. XV.

1 The Assyrians are chased and slain. 8 The high Priest cometh to see Judeth. 11 The staff of Olofernes is given to Judeth. 13 The women crowne her with a garland.

AND when they that were in the tents heard, they were affrighted at the thing γ was done, and feare and trembling fell vpon them, so that there was no man that durst abide in the sight of his neighbour, but rushing out along ther, they fled into euery way of γ plain, & of the hill country.

3 They also that had camped in the mountaynes round about Bethulia, fled away. Then the children of Israel, euery one that was a warrior among them, rushed out vpon them.

4 Then sent Ozias to Bethomasthem, and to Hobai, and Chobai, and Colai, and to all the coasts of Israel, such as should tell the things that were done, and that all should rush forth vpon their enemies to destroy them.

5 Now when the children of Israel heard it, they all vpon them with one consent, and flew them vnto Choba: likewise also they that came from Ierusalem, and from all the hill country, for men had told them what things were done in the campe of their enemies, and they that were in Galilee, and in Galilee, γ chased them with great slaughter, until they were past Damasces, and the borders thereof.

6 And the residue that dwelt at Bethulia, fell vpon the campe of Assur, and spoyled them, and were greatly enriched.

7 And the children of Israel that returned from the slaughter, had that which remained, and the villages, and the cities that were in the mountaynes, and in the plaine, gave many spoiles: for the multitude was very great.

8 Then Iosiam high Priest, and the ancients of the children of Israel that dwell in Ierusalem, came to behold the good things that God had shewed to Israel, & to see Iudeth, and to salute her.

9 And when they came vnto her, they blessed her with one accord, and said vnto her, Thum art the exultation of Ierusalem, and art the great glory of Israel: thou art the great relieving of our nation.

10 Thou hast done all the things by thine hand, thou hast done much good to Israel, & God is pleased therewith: blessed be thou of the Almighty Lord for evermore, & all the people said, So be it.

11 And the people spoyled the campe, the space of thirty daies, and they gave vnto Iudeth Olofernes his tent, & all his pliers, and his sword, and all his buffet and the cooke it, and laid it on her mule, and made ready her cars, and laid them thereon.

12 Then all the women of Israel ran together to see her, and blessed her, and made a dance among them for her: and she cooke branches in her hand, and gave also to the women that were with her.

13 And they put a garland of olive vpon her, and her maid that was with her, and they went before the people in the dance, leading all the women: and all the men of Israel followed in their armour with garlands, and with songs in their mouths.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The song of Iudeth. 15 She dedicates the staff of Olofernes. 23 She dead at Bethulia a widow of great honour. 25 All Israel did launus her death.

THEN Iudeth began to sing this thanksgiving in all Israel, and all the people sang after her γ this song of praise.

2 And Iudeth said, Begin vnto my God with timbrels, Give vnto my Lord with cymbals, take vnto

2 And so some erles morning shall appeare, and the Sun shall come forth vpon the earth, take you euery one his weapons, and goe forth euery valiant man out of the city, and get you a captaine ouer them, as though you would goe downe into the field toward the watch of the Assyrians, but goe not downe.

3 Then they shall take their armour, and shall goe into their campe, and raise vp the captaines of the army of Assur, and they shall run to the end of Olofernes, but shall not find him, then feare shall fall vpon them, and they shall see before your face.

4 So you, and all that inhabit the coast of Israel, shall pursue them, and overthrow them as they goe.

5 But before you doe these things, call me Achior the Ammonite, that hee may see, and know him that despised the house of Israel, and that sent him to vs, as it were to his death.

6 Then they called Achior out of the house of Gaius, and when he was come, and saw the head of Olofernes in a mans hand, in the assembly of the people, he fell down on his face, & his spirit failed.

7 But when they had recovered him, hee fell at Iudeths feet, and remembered her, and said, Blessed art thou in all the Tabernacle of Iuda, and in all nations, which bearing thy name shall be comforted.

8 Now therefore, tell mee all the things that thou hast done in these dayes: Then Iudeth declared vnto him in the midst of the people, all that shee had done, from the day that she went forth, until that hoore she spake vnto them.

9 And when she had left of speaking, the people shouted with a loud voyce, and made a ioyfull noise in their city.

10 And when Achior had seene all that the God of Israel had done, hee believed in God greatly, and circumcised the foreskin of his flesh, and was ioyed vnto the house of Israel vnto this day.

11 And as soone as the morning arose, they hanged the head of Olofernes vpon the wall: and euery manooke his weapons, and they went forth by bands vnto the γ straits of the mountaine.

12 But when the Assyrians saw them, they feare to their leaders, which came to their captaines and tribunes, and to euery one of their rulers.

13 So they came to Olofernes tent, and said to him that had the charge of all his things, Waken now our lord: for the flames haue him hold to come downe against vs to battell, that they may be wretchedly destroyed.

14 They went in Begeas, and knocked at the doore of the tent: for he thought that he had slept with Iudeth.

15 But because none answered, he opened it, and went into the bed-chamber, and found him cast vpon the floore dead, and Iudeth was taken from him.

16 γ Therefore he cryed with a loud voyce, with weeping, and sighing, and a mighty cry, and rent his garments.

17 After hee went into the tent where Iudeth lodged, and when he found her not, he leaped out to the people, and cryed.

18 Their flauers haue deit treacherously, one woman of the Hebrewes hath brought shame vpon the house of King Nabuchodonosor: for behold, Olofernes lyeth vpon the ground without a head.

19 When the captaines of the Assyrians army heard these words, they rent their coats, and their minds were wonderfully troubled, and there was a cry, and a very great noise throughout the campe.

him a new Plaine, and bid call upon his Name.

3 For God breaketh the battels: for amongst the camps in the midde of the people, he hath deliuered me out of the hands of them that persecuted me.

4 Adir came out of the mountains from the North, he came with ten thousands of his army, the multitude whereof stopped the torrents, and their horsemens haue covered the hills.

5 He bragged that he would breake vp my borders, and kill my young men with the sword, & dash the sucking children against the ground, and make maide infants as a prey, and my virgins as a spoile.

6 But the Almighty Lord hath disappointed them by the hand of a woman.

7 For the mighty one did not fall by the young men, neither did the fumes of the Titans smite him, nor his grants sit upon him: but Iudeth the daughter of Merari weakened him with the beauty of her countenance.

8 For she put off the garment of her widowhood, for the exaltation of those that were oppressed in Israel, and adorned her face with ointment, and bound her haire in a tūre, andooke a linnen garment to decieve him.

9 Her sandals rauished his eyes, her beautyooke his minde prisoner, and the charian passed thorow his necke.

10 The Persians gazed at her boldnesse, and the Medes were i daunted at her hardnesse.

11 Thus my afflicted thought for you, and my weak knees cried aloud; but if they were astonish'd: these lifted vp their voyces, but they were overthrom.

12 The fons of the demostels haue pierced them thorow, and wounded them as fugiues children: they perished by the battell of the Lord.

13 I will sing unto the Lord a new song, O Lord, thou art great: and glorious, wonderful in strength, and invincible.

14 Let all creatures praise thee: for thou spakest, and they were made, thou diddest send forth thy Spirit, and it created them, and there is none that can resist thy voyce.

15 For the mountains shall be melted from their foundations with the waters, the rocks shall melt as waxe at thy presence: yet thou art mercifull to them that feare thee.

16 For all sacrifices is too little for a sweet savor vnto thee, and all the fat is not sufficient: but thy burnt offering: but he that feareth the Lord, is great at all times.

17 Woe to the nations that rise vp against my kindred: the Lord Almighty will take vengeance of them in the day of Iudgement, in putting fire and wormes in their felts, and they shall scold them, and weep for ever.

18 Now alsoone as they entred into Ierusalem they worshipped the Lord, and alsoone as the people were purified, they offered their burnt offerings, and their free offerings, and their gifts.

19 Iudeth also dedicated all the flint of Olofernes, which the people had giuen her, and gave the canopy which she had taken out of his bed-chamber, for a gift vnto the Lord.

20 So the people continued feasting in Ierusalem before the Sanctuary, for the space of threemonths, and Iudeth remained with them.

21 After this time, every one returned to his owne inheritance, and Iudeth went to Bethulia, and remained in her owne possession, and was in her time honourable in all the country.

22 And many desired her, but none knew her all the dayes of her life, after that Manasses her husband was dead, and was gathered to his people.

23 But she increased more and more in honour, and waxed old in her husbands house, being an hundred and five yeeres old, and made her assid free, so she died in Bethulia: and they buried her in the place of her husband Manasses.

24 And the house of Israel lamented her seven dayes, and before she died, she did distribute her goods to all them that were neere of kindred to Manasses her husband: and to them that were the neere of her kindred.

25 And there was none that made the children of Israel any more afraid, in the dayes of Iudeth, nor a long time after her death.

¶ Mardocheus remembereth and expoundeth his dreame of the river, and the two dragons.

Hen Mardocheus said, God hath done these things.

5 For I remember a dreame which I saw concerning these matters, and nothing thereof hath failed.

6 A little fontaine became a river, and there was light, and the Sun, and much water: this river is Epher, whom the King married, & made Queen.

7 And the two dragons are I, and Aman.

8 And the nations were those that were assembled, to destroy the name of the Iewes.

9 And my nation is this Israel, which cryed to God, and were saved: for the Lord hath saved his people, and the Lord hath deliuered vs from all shoulde cuts, and God hath wrought signes and great wonders, which haue not bene done among the Gentiles.

10 Therefore hath he made two lots, one for the people of God, and another for all the Gentiles.

11 And these two lots came at the house, & time, & day of Iudgement before God amongst all nations.

12 So God remembered his people, and iustified his inheritance.

13 Therefore those dayes shall be vnto them in the month Adar, the fourteenth and fiftenth day of the same month, with an assembly, and joy, and with gladnesse before God, according to the generations for ever among his people.

CHAPTER XI.

¶ The snake and quality of Mardocheus. 6 He dreameth of two dragons, concerning forth so forth 10 and of a little fontaine which became a great water.

IN the fourth yeere of the reigne of Ptolomeus, I and Chozarza, Dositheus, who said mee was a Priest and Leuiter, and Ptolomeus his son brought this Epistle of Pharis, which they said was the same, and that Lyfmacus the son of Ptolemus, that was in Ierusalem had interpreted it.

2 In the second yeere of the reigne of Artaxerxes the great: in the first day of the moneth Nisan, Mardocheus the sonne of Iaïrus, the sonne of Semei, the sonne of Cifa, of the tribe of Benjamin, had a dreame:

3 Who was a lew, and dwelt in the city of Sals, a great man, being a seruaier in the Kings court.

4 He was also one of the captiues, which Nabuchodonosor the King of Babylon carried from Ierusalem, with Iechonias King of Iudca; and this was his dreame.

5 Behold, a noise of a tumult with thunder, and Earthquakes, and uproare in the land.

6 And behold, two great dragons came forth ready to fight, and their cry was great.

7 And at their cry all nations were prepared to battell, that they might fight against the righteous people.

8 And loe, a day of darknesse and obscurity: tribulation, and anguish, affliction, and great uproare vpon the earth.

9 And the whole righteous nation was troubled, fearing their owne euils, and were ready to perill.

10 Then they cryed vnto God, and vpon their cry, as it were from a little fontaine, was made a great flood, euen much water.

11 The light and the Sun rose vp, and the lowly were exalted, and deuoted the glorious.

12 Now when Mardocheus, who had seene this dreame, and what God had determined to doe, was awake, hee bare this dreame in minde, and vntill night by all meanes was desirous to know it.

CHAP. XII.

2 The conspiracie of the two Eunuches is discovered by Mardocheus: 3 for which he is rewarded by the King, and rewarded.

AND Mardocheus tooke his rest in the Court, with Gabatha, and Tharza, the two Eunuches of the King, and keepers of the palace.

3 And he heard their deuises, and searched out their purposes, and learned that they were about to lay hands vpon Artaxerxes the King, and so he certified the King of them.

4 Then the King examined the two Eunuches, and after that they had confessed it, they were strangled.

5 And the King made a record of these things, and Mardocheus also wrote thereof:

6 So the King commanded Mardocheus to serue in the Court, and for this he rewarded him.

7 Howbeit, Aman the sonne of Amadathus the Agagite, who was in great honour with the King, sought to molest Mardocheus and his people, because of the two Eunuches of the King.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The copy of the Kings letter to destroy the lewites. 2 The prayer of Mardocheus for them.

THE copy of the letters was this, The great King, Artaxerxes writeth these things to the Princes and Gouernours that are vnder him from India vnto Ethiopijs, in an hundred and seuen and twenty Princes.

2 After that I became Lord ouer many nations, and had dominion ouer the whole world, not liued vp with presumption of my authority, but carrying my selfe alway with equity and mildnesse, I purposed to settle my subiects continually in a quiet life, and making my kingdom peaceable, and open for passage to the yemest euils, to serue peace, which is desired of all men.

3 Now when I asked my Counsellors how this might be brought to passe, Aman that excelled in wisdom among vs, and was approued for his constant goodwill, and steadfast fidelity, and had the honour of the second place in the kingdom.

4 Declared vnto vs, that in all nations throughout the world, there was scattered certaine malicious people, that had lawes contrary to all nations, and continually despised the Commandements of Kings, so as the vaiting of our kingdomes, honourably intended by vs, cannot goe forward.

5 Seeing then was understood that this people alone is continually in opposition vnto all men, differing in the strange manner of their lawes, and euill affected to our state, working all the mischiefes they can that our kingdomes may not bee firmly established.

6 Therefore haue we commanded, that all they that are signified in writing vnto you by Aman, (who is ordained ouer the affaires, and is next vnto vs) shall all with their wiues and children be utterly destroyed by the sword of their enemies, without all mercy and pity, the fourteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar of this present yeere.

7 That they who of old, and now also are malicious, may in one day with violence get into the graue, and so euer hereafter canie our affaires to be well settled, and without trouble.

8 Then Mardocheus thought vpon all the works of the Lord, and made his prayer vnto him, 9 Saying, O Lord, Lord the King Almighty: for the whole world is in thy power; and it thou hast appointed to saue Israel, there is no man that can gaine-ay thee.

10 For thou hast made heauen and earth, and all the wondrous things vnder the hea. en.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thee which art the Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, and thou knowest the Lord, that it was neither in contempt, nor pride, nor for any desire of glory, that I did not bow downe to proud Aman.

13 For I could haue bene content with good will, for the situation of Israel, to kisse the soles of his feet.

14 But I did this, that I might not preferre the glory of man aboue the glory of God; neither will I worship any but thee, O God, neither will I doe it in pride.

15 And now, O Lord God, and King, spare thy people; for their eyes are vpon vs, to bring vs to nought; yet they desire to destroy the inheritance that hath bene thine: from the beginning.

16 Despise not the portion which thou hast delivered out of Egypt for thine owne selfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercifull to thine inheritance; turne our sorrow into ioy, that we may lue, O Lord, and praise thy Name, and destroy not the mouthes of them that praise thee, O Lord.

18 All Israel in like manner cryed most earnestly vnto the Lord, because their death was before their eyes.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The prayer of Queen Esther, for her selfe, and her people.

QUEENE Esther also being in a feare of death, resorted vnto the Lord,

2 And laid away her glorious apparell, and put on the garments of anguish, and mourning; and as head of precious ornaments, she covered her head with ashes and dung, and she humbled her body greatly;

greatly, and all the place of her joy face filled with her tresses haire.

3 And she prayed vnto the Lord God of Israel, saying O my Lord, thou onely art our King: helpe me, desolate woman, which haue no helper but thee:

4 For my danger is in mine hand.

5 From my youth vp I haue heard in the tribe of my family, that thou, O Lord, tookest Israel from among all people, & our fathers from all their predecessors, for a perpetual inheritance, & thou hast performed whatsoever thou didst promise them.

6 And now we haue sinned before thee therefore hast thou giuen vs into the hands of our enemies.

7 Because we worshipped their gods: O Lord, thou art righteous.

8 Nevertheless, it satisfieth them not that we are in bitter captiuitie, but they haue stricken hands with their idols.

9 That they will abolish the thing, that thou with thy mouth hast ordained, and destroy thine inheritance, and stop the mouth of them that praise thee, and quench the glory of thy house, and of thine Altar.

10 And open the mouths of the heathen, to see forth the prizes of the idols, and to magnifie a fleshly King for euer.

11 O Lord, giue not thy Scepter vnto them that be nothing, an: let them not laugh at our fall, but: cast their deitie vpon themselves, and make him an example that hath begun this against vs.

12 Remember, O Lord, make thy ielle knowne in time of our affliction, and giue me boldnesse, O King of the Iustitias, and Lord of all power.

13 Giue mee eloquent speech in my mouth before the Ioue: turne his heart to hate him that fighten against vs, that there may be an end of him, and of all that are like minded to him.

14 But helpe vs with thine hand, and helpe me that am desolate, and which haue none other helper but thee.

15 Thou knowest all things, O Lord, thou knowest that I haue the glory of the righteous, and abhorre the bed of the vncircumcised, and of all the heathen.

16 Thou knowest my necessity: for I abhorre the signe of my high estate, which is vpon mine head, in the daies wherein I flew my selfe, and that I abhorre it as a merchants rag, and that I weare it not when I am private by my selfe.

17 And that thine hand-maid hath not eaten at Amias table, and that I haue not greatly esteemed the Kings feast, nor drunke the wine of the drinke offerings:

18 Neither had thine hand-maid any ioy since the day that I was brought hither to this present, but in thee, O Lord God of Abraham.

19 O thou mighty God above all, heare the voyce of the forlorne, and deliuer vs out of the hands of the malicious, and deliuer me out of my feare.

CHAP. XV.

6 After cometh into the Kings presence. 7 He doeth angrily, and shew himselfe. 8 The King doeth take her vp, and comfort her.

And vpon the third day, when she had ended her prayer, she leaued away her mourning garments, and put on her glorious apparell.

2 And being gloriously adorned, after she had called vpon God, who is the beholder and Sinsour of all changes, she tooker two maids with her.

3 And vpon the one she leaned, as carrying her selfe continually.

4 And the other followed, beating vp her traine,

5 And thus was I ready through the perfection of her beauty, and her countenance was cherefull, and very amiable: but her heart was in anguish for feare.

6 Then hauing passed thorow all the doores, she stood before the King, who sat vpon his royall throne, and was clothed with all his robes of Maiestic, all glittering with gold and precious stones, and he was very dreadfull.

7 Then lifting vp his countenance, that shone with maicesty, he looked very fiercely vpon her: and the Queene fell downe, and was pale, and turned, and bowed her selfe vpon the head of the maid that went before her.

8 Then God changed the spirit of the King into mildnesse, who in a fiere leaped from his throne, and tooker her in his armes, till she came to her selfe againe, and comforted her with loving words, and said vnto her:

9 Either, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good chere.

10 Thou shalt not die, though our commandment be generally come neere.

11 And so he held vp his golden Scepter, and laid it vpon her necke.

12 And embraced her, and said, Speake vnto me.

13 Thus said she vnto him, I saw thee, my lord, as an Angel of God, and my heart was troubled for feare of thy maicesty.

14 For wonderfull art thou, lord, and thy countenance is full of grace.

15 And as she was speaking, she fell downe for faintnesse.

16 Then the King was troubled, and all his seruants comforted her.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The letter of Ariaraxes, to whom he saith Ananias, to remoueth the decree procured by Ananias to destroy the Iewes, 22 and containeth the day of their deliuerance to be kept holy.

The great King Ariaraxes, vnto the Princes and gentlemen of an hundred and thirtie and twenty prouinces, from India, vnto Ethiopia, and vnto all our faithfull subiects, greeting.

2 Many the more often they are honoured with the great bounty of their gracious Princes, the more proud they are waxen,

3 And endenour to hurt, not our subiects suckly, but not being able to beare abundance, doe tak in hand to praeside also against those that doe them good;

4 And take not onely thankesfull away from among men, but also lifted vp with the glorious words of Iewd persons, that were neuer good, they thinke to escape the iudice of God, that iudiceth all things, and hateth euill.

5 Oftentimes also faire speech of those that are put in trust to manage their friends affaires, hath caused many that are in authority to bee partakers of innocent blood, and haue enwrapped them in reuelles calamities:

6 Beguiling with the falsehood and deceit of their lewd disposition, the innocencie and goodness of Princes.

7 Now yee may see this, as we haue declared, nor so much by ancient Historie, as ye may, if ye search what hath bene wickedly done of late, through the pestilent behaviour of them that are vaworthily placed in authority.

8 And we woulde take care for the time to come, that our kingdomes may be quiet and peaceable for all men,

Or, vnto colourado, Or, as amiable, or smiling.

9 Back by changing our purposes, and always judging things that are equall, with more equall proceeding.

10 For Aman a Macedoniar, the soune of Amadath, being indeede a stranger from the Persian blood, and far distant from our goodnesse, and as a stranger received vs :

11 Had so far forth obtained the fauour that we shew toward every nation, as that hee was called our father, and was continually honoured of all men as the next person vnto the King :

12 But hee not bearing his great dignity, went about to deprive vs of our kingdom and life :

13 Having by manifold and cunning deccits sought of vs the destruction of Mardocheus, who saved our life, and continually procured our good, as also of blamelesse Esther, purtaker of our kingdom, with their whole nation, 14 For by these meanes hee thought, finding vs delicate of friends, to haue translated the kingdom of the Persians to the Macedonians.

15 But we finde that the Iewes, whom this wicked wretch had deliuered to vnto destruction, are no euill doers, but liue by most iust lawes :

16 And that they be children of the most High, and most mighty liuing God, who hath ordered the kingdom both vnto vs, and to our progenitors, in the most excellent manner.

17 Wherefore ye shall doe well not to put in execution the letters sent vnto you by Aman the soune of Amadath.

18 For he that was the worker of these things is hanged at the gates of Susa, with all his family : God, who ruleth all things, speedily rendering vengeance to him according to his deserts.

19 Therefore ye shall publish the copy of this letter in all places, that the Iewes may reely liue after their owne lawes.

20 And ye shall aide them, that euen the same day, being the thirteenth day of the twelfth moneth Adar, they may be succoured on them, who in the time of their affliction shall ier vpon them.

21 For Almighty God hath turned to vs vnto them, the day wherem the choise people should haue perished :

22 You shall therefore among your solemne feasts keepe it an high day with all feasting.

23 This both now and hereafter there may hee asseue to vs, and the well affected Persians : but to those which doe conspire against vs, a memoriall of destruction.

24 Therefore every city & country whatsoever, which shall see do according to these things, shall be destroyed without mercy, with fire and sword, and shall be made not only vnsuffisable for men, but also most hartuall to wilde beasts and soules for euer.

THE WISDOME OF SOLOMON.

CHAP. I.

1 To whom God giueth himselfe, 4 and Wisdome her selfe. 6 An euill speaker cannot lie by. 12 Wee procure our owne destruction: 13 For God created not death.

1 One righteousnesse, ye that be Iudges of the earth: thinke of the Lord with a good (heart) and in simplicitie of heart seeke him :

2 For hee will be found of them that tempe him not : and sheweth himselfe vnto such as doe not distrust him.

3 For froward thoughts separate from God, and his power when it is tryed, reproacheth the vniuete.

4 For into a malicious soule wisdom cannot enter : nor dwell in the body which is subiect vnto sin.

5 For the holy spirit of discipline will the deccit, and remoueth from thoughts that are without vnderstanding : and will not abide when vniuersitic commeth in.

6 For wisdom is a louing spirit : and will not acquie a blaspheemer of his words : for God is witness of his remes, and a true beholder of his heart, and a bearer of his tongue.

7 For the Spirit of the Lord filleth the world : and that which is containeth all things hath knowledge of the voyce.

8 Therefore he that speaketh vniuersitic things cannot be hid : neither shall vengeance when it smiteth passe by him.

9 For inquisition shall be made into the counsels of the vngodly : and the sound of his words shall come vnto the Lord, for the manifestation of his wicked deccits.

10 For the care of ialousie heareth all things : and the noise of murmuring is not hid.

11 Therefore beware of inuising which is vnprofitable, and refraine your tongue from backbiting :

for there is no word so secret that shall goe for nought : and the mouth that belyleth, layeth the soule.

12 Seeke not death in the error of your life : and pull not vpon your selues destruction, with the workes of your hands.

13 For God made not death : neither hath hee pleasure in the destruction of the liuing.

14 For hee created all things, that they might haue their being : and the generations of the world were healthfull : there is no poison of destruction in them : nor kingdom of death vpon the earth.

15 For righteousnesse is immortall.

16 But vngodly men with their workes and words called it to them : for when they thought to haue it their friend, they continued to mourne, and made a covenant with it, because they are worthy to take part with it.

CHAP. II.

1 The wicked thinke this life short, 5 and of no other after this, & therefore they will take their pleasure in this, and conspire against the iust : 11 What that is which nourisheth them.

For the vngodly said, reasoning with themselves, but not rightly : Our life is short and tedious, and in the death of a man there is no remedy : neither was there any man knowne to haue returned from the graue.

2 For wee are borne at all aduenture : and we shall be hereafter as though wee had neuer bene : for the breath in our nostrils is as smoke, and a little sparke in the mooning of our heart.

3 Which being extinguished, our body shall be turned into ashes, and our spirit shall vanish as the fume of a candle :

4 And our name shall be forgotten in time : & no man shall haue our workes in remembrance : & our life shall passe away as the trace of a cloud : & shall be disposed to a mist that is driven away with the beams of the Sonne, and I come with the heat thereof.

5 For our time is a very shadow that passeth away: and after our end there is no returning: for it is full sealed, so that no man can come againe.

6 Come on therefore, let vs enjoy the good things that are present: and let vs speedily visit the creatures like as in youth.

7 Let vs fill our selves with costly wine and oyments: and let no flower of the spring passe by vs.

8 Let vs crowne our selues with iust-buds, before they be withered.

9 Let none of vs goe without his part of our voluptuousnesse: let vs leave tokens of our infidelitie in every place: for this is our portion, and our lot is this.

10 Let vs oppress the poore righteous man, let vs spare the widow, nor surrendre the ancient gray-haires of the aged.

11 Let our strength be the law of iustice: for that which is lesse is found to be nothing worth.

12 Therefore let vs live in wait for the righteous:
 because he is not for our curse, and he is cleane contrary to our sinnes: hee vpholds delvs with our offending the Law, and ostendeth to vs inlawy the transgressings of our education.

13 Let vs clepe to him the knowledge of God:
 and he will call himselfe. The child of the Lord.

14 He is wiser then vs: to reprove our thoughts.

15 He is greater in vertue vs, more comendable: for his life is not like other mens, his wayes are of another fashion.

16 We are esteemed of him as if we were beasts: he abrayneth from our wayes as from filthy filth: he pronounceth the end of the iust to be blessing, and maketh his boast that God is his Father.

17 Let vs see if his words be true: and let vs knowe what shall happen in the end of him.

18 For if the iust man be the Sonne of God, he will helpe him, and deliver him from the hand of his persecutors.

19 Let vs examine him with despectfulness:
 and torture, that we may know his uselessnesse,
 and prove his patience.

20 Let vs condemn him with a shameful death:
 for by his owne saying he shalbe requited.

21 Such things they did imagine, and were deceived by their owne wickednesse: and blinded themselves.

22 As for the mysteries of God, they knowe them not: neither hoped they for the wages of righte-ousnesse: nor if discerned a reward for blamelesse soules.

23 For God created man to be immortal, and made him to be an image of his owne eternitie.

24 Neither the lesse, though enuy of the deuil come death into the world: and they that doe hold of his side doe find it.

CHAP. III.

1 The godly are happy in their death, 5 and in their troubles, 10 The wicked are wretched, their children 15 Bussiey that are piteous are happy, though they have no child, 20 For the adulterer and his seed shall perish.

1 Yet the wiles of the lighters are in the hand of God, and they shall be consumed with chum-2 In the light of the wile the fowles to die:
 and their destruction is known in misery.

3 And their generation shall be ever desolation: but they are in paine.

4 For though they be multiplied in the light of things yet is their hope full of humilitie.

5 And having become a little chastised, they shall be greatly rewarded: for God punished them, and found them: I was thy for himselfe.

6 As gold in the furnace hath he tryed them, and received them as a burnt offering.

7 And in the time of their visitation they shall shine and come to and fro, like sparkes among the stubble.

8 They shall iudge the nations, and have dominion over the people, and their Lord shall reigne for ever.

9 They that put their trust in him, shall understand the truth: and such as be faithful in love, shall abide with him: for grace and mercy is to his Saints, and hee hath care for his elect.

10 But the vngodly shall be punished according to their owne imaginations, which haue neglected the righteous, and forsaken the Lord.

11 For whoseof speech is withoute and withoute, he is miserable, and their hope is vaine, their labours vaine, and their workes vngodly.

12 Their wiles are foolish, and their children wicked.

13 Their off-spring is cursed: wherefore blessed is the barren that is vndesired, which hath not knowne the foolish bird: these shall have fruit in the visitation of soules.

14 And blessed is the Eunuch, which with his hands hath wrought no iniquity, nor imagined wicked things against God: for unto him shall be given the speciall gift of faith, and an inheritance in the Temple of the Lord, more acceptable to his mind.

15 For glorious is the fruit of good labours:
 and the root of wickednesse shall never fall away.

16 As for the children of adulterers, they shall not come to their perfection, and the seed of an unrighteous ned, shall be rooted out.

17 For though they live long, yet shall they be nothing regarded: and their last age shall be without honour.

18 Or if they die quickly, they have no hope, neither comfort in the way of trial.

19 For horrible is the end of the unrighteous generation.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The chaste man shall be crowned, 2 The hard slip shall not thrive, 3 They shall witness against their parents, 4 The iust are young, and are happy, 19
 The miserable end of the wicked.

1 Better it is to haue no children, and to haue ver-tue, for the memoriall thereof is immortal: because it is knowne with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example of it, and when it is gone, they desire it: it weareth a crown, and triumpheth for ever, having gotten the victory, it iuing for vnderheld rewards.

3 But the multiplying brood of the vngodly shall not thrive, nor take deepe rooting from hard slips, nor lay any firm foundation.

4 For though they flourish in branches for a time: yet standing not fast, they shall be shaken with the wind: and through the force of winds they shall be rooted out.

5 The vipers seed shall be broken off, they shall be vngodly, not ripe to eat: yet water for noising.

6 For children begotten of unlawfull fathers are witnesses of wickednesse against their parents in their trial.

7 But though the righteous be persecuted with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that is measured by number of yeeres.

9 But wisdom is the gray haire vntomens, and an vnperced life is vtiage.

10 He pleased God, and was beloved of him: so that living among flowers he was sanctified.

11 Yeas, speedily was hee taken away, lest that wickednesse should alie: his vnderstanding, or deceit beguile his soule.

12 For the bewitching of pangs, iustesse, doeth obscure things that are honest: and the wandering of conscience doth vndermine the simple mind.

13 Hee being made perfect in a short time, fulfilled a long time.

14 For his soule pleased the Lord: therefore hastened hee to take him away from among the wicked.

15 Thus the people saw, and vnderstood it not: neither laid they vp this in their iudges, that his grace and mercy is with his Subjects, and that he hath respect vnto his chosen.

16 Thus the righteous that is dead, shall condemn the vngodly which are living, & youth that is soone profaned, the many yeeres and old age of the vnrightheous.

17 For they shall see the end of the wise, and shall not vnderstand what God in his counsell hath decreed of him, and to what end the Lord hath set him in safety.

18 They shall see him, and despise him, but God shall laugh them to scorn, and they shall hereafter be a vile carcasse, and a reproch among the dead for evermore.

19 For he shall read them, and cast the in iourne headlong, that they shall be speechlesse: and hee shall shake them from the foundation: and they shall be vtterly laid waste, and be in sorrow: and their monuments shall perish.

20 And when they cast vp the accounts of their sinnes, they shall come with feare: and their owne iniquities shall conuince them to their face.

CHAPTER V.

1 The wicked shall wonder at the vngodly, & and confesse their error, & the vanity of their lines: 2 God will regard the iust. 17 and war against the wicked.

1 Then shall the righteous man stand in great boldnesse, before the face of such as haue affected him, and made no account of his labours.

2 When they see it, they shall be troubled with terrible feare, and shall be amazed at the strangenesse of his saluation, so farre beyond all that they looked for.

3 And they repenting and grooning for anguish of spirit, shall say within themselves, This was he whom we had sometimes in derision, and a proreche of reproch.

4 * We foolles accounted his life madnesse, and his end to be without honour.

5 How is hee numbered among the children of God, and his lot is among the Saints?

6 Therefore haue wee erred from the way of truth: and the light of righteousnes hath not shined vnto vs, and the Sauer of righteousnesse role not vpon vs.

7 Wee were wicked our selues in the way of wickednesse and destruction: yet, we haue gone thorow darkness, where there lay no way, but as for the way of the Lord, we haue not knowne it.

8 What hath pride profited vs? or what good hath riches with our vanishing brought vs?

9 All these things are pulled away like a smoke, and as a pefte that hattereth by.

10 And as a shippe that passeth ouer the waves of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof cannot be found, neither the path way on the keele in the waves:

11 * Or as, when a bird hath flowne thorow the ayre, there is no token of her way to be found, but the light aire being breuen with the stroke of her wings, and parted with the violent voye and motion of them, is paled thorow, and the trace afterwards no signe where she went, is to be found.

12 Or like as when an arrow is shot at a mark, it pierceth the aire, which immediately cometh together againe: so that a man cannot know where it went thorow.

13 Euen so we in like manner, as soon as we were borne, began to draw to our end, and had no sight of vertue to shew: but were conuincid in our owne wickednesse.

14 * For the hope of the vngodly is like a duff that is blowne away with the wind: like a thing froth that is arisen away from the floure: like as the smoke which is dispersed here and there with a tempest, and passeth away as the remembrance of a guest that carrieth but a day.

15 For the righteous iustice for their reward also is with the Lord, and the care of them is with the most High.

16 Therefore shall they receive a glorious Kingdome, and a beautesfull crowne from the Lords hand: for with his right hand shall hee cover them, and with his arme shall hee protect them.

17 Hee shall take to him his iacule for a temple armor, and make the creature his weapons for the vengeance of his enemies.

18 Hee shall put on his armour as a breast plate, and true iudgement in heart of an helmet.

19 Hee shall take his holines for an iacule: the sword, and the world shall fight with him: against the vniuers.

20 His iurre wrath shall see tharpen for a sword, and the world shall fight with him: against the vniuers.

21 Then shall the right-aiming thunder bolts gre abroad, and from the clouds as from a well-drawne bow, shall they fly to the mark.

22 And hailstones full of wrath shall be cast out of a stonebow, and the water of the Sea shall rage against them, and the floods shall cruelly drowne them.

23 Yet a mighty wind shall stand vp against them, and like a storme shall blowe them away: the iniquity shall lay waste the whole earth, and all standing shallouerthrow: the thrones of the mighties.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Kings must giue eare: 2 They shal see their power from God, 3 who will not spare them. 12 Wickedness is soone found. 17 Princes must be iust: 18 For a wise Prince is the flag of his people.

1 Heare these: 2 O ye kings, & ye that outleare: ye that be iudges of the ends of the earth.

3 Giue eare you that rule the people, as glory in the multitude of nations.

4 For power is ginen you of the Lord, and sovereignty from the Highest, who shall trie your works: and search out your counsels.

5 Because being Ministers of his Kingdome, you haue not iudged aright: nor kept the Law, nor walked after the counsell of God.

6 Horribly and dreadfully shall hee come vpon you: for a sharpe iudgement shall be to them that be in high places.

7 For mercy will soone pardon the wrong: but mightie iure shall be mightily tormented.

7 For he which is Lord over all, shall feare no mans person neither shall hee stand in awe of any mans greatness, for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike.

8 But afore trall shall come vpon the mightie.

9 Vnto you therefore, O Kings, doe I speake, that ye may learne wisdom, and not fall away.

10 For they that keepe holinesse holily, shall be iudged holy: and they that haue learned such things, shall finde what to answer.

11 Wherefore set your affection vpon my words, desire them, and yee shall be instructed.

12 Wisdom is glorious, and neuerfadeth away; yea, there is easily scene of them that loue her, and looue of such as feele her.

13 Shee proceeth them that desire her, in making her selfe first knowne vnto them.

14 Vnto those that seeke her early, shall haue no great trouble: for she shall finde her sitting at his doores.

15 To thinke therefore vpon her, is perfection of wisdom; and who so watcheth for her, shall quickly be without care.

16 For she goeth about seeking, such as are worthy of her, and wreth her selfe equably vnto them in the wayes, and meeteth them in every thought.

17 For the very true beginning of her, is the desire of her disciplin, and the care of discipline is her.

18 And looke is the keeping of her lawes, and the going heed vnto her lawes, is the assurance of incorruption.

19 And incorruption maketh vs neere vnto God.

20 Therefore the desire of Wisdom bringeth to a kingdome.

21 O your delight be then in thrones and scepters, O ye Kings of the people, haue not Wisdom, that ye may reigne for euermore.

22 As for wisdom, what shee is, and how shee came vnto me, I will tell you, and will not hide mysteries from you: but will seeke her comen from the beginning of her nature, and bring to the knowledge of her into light, and will not passe ouer the truth.

23 Neither will I goe with consuming enuie: for such a man shall haue no fellowship with me.

24 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the world: and a wise King is the vpholding of the people.

25 Receiue therefore instruction through my words, and it shall doe you good.

CHAP. VII.

1 All men haue their beginning and end alike: hee preferred wisdom before all things else. & God gaue him all the knowledge which hee had. 22 The praise of wisdom.

I myselfe also am a mortall man, like to all, & the offspring of him that was first made of the earth.

2 And in my mothers wombe was fashioned to be flesh in the time of ten moneths, being compassed in blood, of the seed of man, and the placenta that came with sleepe.

3 And when I was borne, I drew in the common ayre, and fell vpon the earth, which is like nature, and the first voyce which I uttered, was crying, as all others doe.

4 I was cursed in swaddling clothes, and that with cares.

5 For there is no King that had any other beginning of birth.

6 For all men haue one entrance vnto life, and the like going out.

7 Wherefore I prayed, and vnderstanding was giuen me: I called vpon God, and the iurys of wisdom came to me.

8 I preferred her before Scepters and Thrones, and esteemed riches nothing in comparison of her.

9 Neither compared I vnto her any precious stones, because all gold in respect of her, is as a little dust of sand, and silver shall be counted as clay before her.

10 I loued her about health and beauty, and chose no haue her in stead of light: for the light that cometh from her, neuer goeth out.

11 All good things together came to mee with her, and innumerable riches in her hands.

12 And I reioyced in them all, because wisdom goeth before them: and I knew not that she was the mother of them.

13 I learned diligently, and doe communicate liberally, I doe not hide her riches.

14 For shee is a treasure vnto men that neuer faileth: which they that vse, liberate the friends of God, being commended for the gifts that come from learning.

15 God hath granted me to speake as I would, and to conceiue as I meet for the things that are giuen me: because it is he that leadeth vnto wisdom, and directeth the wise.

16 For in his hand are both we and our words: all wisdom also and knowledge of workmanship.

17 For he hath giuen me certaine knowledge of the things that are, namely, to know how the world was made, and the operation of the Elements.

18 The beginning, ending, and midst of the times; the alterations of the turning of the Sonne, and the change of seasons.

19 The circuits of yeeres, and the positions of starrs.

20 The natures of liuing creatures, and the faculties of wild beasts: the violence of winds, and the reasonings of men: the diuinities of plants, and the virtues of roots.

21 And all such things as are either secret, or manifest: them I know.

22 For wisdom which is the worker of all things, taught me: for in her is an vnderstanding spirit; holy, pure, ouerly, manifold, subtile, diuine, cleere, vndissembled, plaine, not subject to hurt, louing the thing that is good, quicke, which cannot be letted, ready to doe good.

23 Kinde to man, steadfast, free from care, hauing all power, ouerseeing all things, and going thorow all vnderstanding, pure and most subtil spirit.

24 For wisdom is more moouing than any motion: she passeth and goeth thorow all things by reason of her purenesse.

25 For shee is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almighty: wherefore can not be sheld thing fall into her.

26 For shee is the brightness of the everlasting flames of light; the vnspotted mirror of the power of God, and the image of his goodnesse.

27 And by her we can doe all things: and remaining in herselfe, she maketh all things newe: and in all age entering into holy soules, she maketh them friends of God and Prophets.

28 For God leaureth none but him that dwelleth with wisdom.

29 For shee is more beautifull then the Sonne, and aboute all the order of Starrs, being compared with the light, she is found before it.

30 For shee is this cometh might: but vice shall not preuaile against wisdom.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Hee is loue with wisdom: & for hee shall be his, hath every good thing, as it cannot be had but from God.

Wisdom reacheth from one end to another magically; and if sweetly doeth the order all things.

1 I loved her, and sought her out, from my youth,
I desired I might see her my spouse, and I was a lover of her beauty.

2 In that she is conuersant with God, she magnified her nobilitie: yea, the Lord of all things hath loved her.

3 For thus is it prouide to the mysteries of the knowledge of God, and a louer of his works.

4 If riches be a possession to be desired in this life: what is richer then wisdom, that worketh all things?

5 And if prudence worke: who of all that are,
is a more cunning workman then she?

6 And if a man lose righteousnesse, her labors are vexatious: for she teacheth temperance and prudence, Iustice and fortitude: which are such things, as men can haue nothing more profitable in their life.

7 If a man desire much experience, she knoweth things of old, and conuerseth aright what is to come: she knoweth the subtillies of speeche, and can expound darke sentences; she foreseeeth sickness and wonders, and the courses of seasons and times.

8 Therefore I purposed to take her to mee, to liue with mee, knowing that she shall be a counsellor of good things, and a comfort in cares and grieues.

9 For her sake I shall haue estimation among the multitude, and honou with the elders though I be young.

10 I shall be found of a quick conceit in Iudgement, and shall be aduanced in the sight of great men.

11 When I hold my tongue, they shall hide my secret, and when I speake, they shall giue good care vnto me: for I talke many things they shall lay their hands vpon: for they shall 12 Moreouer, by the means of her, I shall obtaine immortalitie, and haue behind me an ever lasting memoriall to them that come after me.

13 I shall set the people in order, and the nations shall be subiect vnto me.

14 Horrible tyrants shall bee afraid when they doe hear the name of me, I shall be found good among the multitude, and valiant in warre.

15 After I am come into mine house, I will repose my selfe with her: for her conuersation hath no bitternesse; and to liue with her, hath no sorrow, but mirth and ioy.

16 Now when I considered these things in my selfe, and pondered them in mine heart, how that she be allied vnto wisdom, is immortalitye,

17 And great pleasure: it is to haue her friendship, and in the workes of her hands are sweete riches, and in the exercise of conference with her, prudence: and in talking with her, I good report;
I went about seeking how to take her to me.

18 For I was a wittie child, and had a good spirit.

19 Yea, rather being good, I came into a body vndefiled.

20 Notwithstanding, when I perceived that I could not otherwise obtaine her, except God should giue her me, (and that was a point of wisdom also to know whom his gift he was) I prayed vnto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said:

CHAP. IX.

1 A prayer vnto God for his wisdom: 6 without which the best man is nothing worth, 23 neither can he selfe see to please God.

O God of my Fathers, and Lord of mercy, who hast made all things by thy word,

2 And ordained man through thy wisdom that he should haue dominion ouer the creatures which thou hast made,

3 And order the world according to equitie and righteousnesse, and execute Iudgment with an immutable heart.

4 Giue mee wisdom that detecteth by thy Lawe, and teach me not from among the children;

5 For I am thy seruant, and some of thine hand maide, am a feeble person, and yet a first borne, and too young for the vancitie name of Iudgement and Lawes.

6 For though a man be neuer so perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wisdom see one with him, he shall be wishing regarded.

7 Thou hast chosen me to be King of the people, and a iudge of the sonnes and daughters;

8 Thou hast commannded me to build a Temple vpon thy holy mount, and to offer vnto thee wherein thou dwellest, 23: I shall be a goodly Tabernacle, which I shall prepare for thee among the people.

9 And wisdom was with thee, which knoweth all thy workes, and was present when thou didst the world, and knoweth what was acceptable vnto thy sight, and right in thy commandments.

10 O God be mercifull vnto thy seruants, from the care of thy glory, and let thy power be labour with me, that I may know what is pleasing vnto thee:

11 For she knoweth and understandeth all things, and she shall lead me vnto life in my dayes, and preserve me in thy power.

12 So shall my workes be acceptable, and shall I Iudge thy people righteously, and be worthy to sit in my fathers seat.

13 For what man is he that can know the counsell of God? or who can thinke what the will of the Lord is?

14 For the thoughts of mortall men are vnicerta-ble, and our desires are but vncertaine.

15 For the vncertaine beinge, we knowe not the soules, and the earth, and we knowe not the mind that moueth vpon many things.

16 And hardly doe we knowe aright at things that are open vnto vs, and with them doe we finde the things that are best: for vnto the things that are in heauen, who hath searched out?

17 And thy counsell, who hath knowne, except thou giue vnto mee, and send thy holy Spirit vnto me?

18 For in all wayes of them which liued vnto thee, thou art referred, and men were taught the things that are pleasing vnto thee, and were saved through wisdom.

CHAP. X.

1 What wisdom didst thou giue Adam, 4 Noe, 5 Abram, 6 Lot, and against the butchers, 20 for Jacob, 23 Ioseph, 28 Moses, 27 and the Israelites.

She preterred the first formed father of the world Shee was created alone, and brought him out of his fall,

2 And gave him power to use all things,

3 For when the vniuersall was away from her in his anger, he persecuted all in the sea, wherewith he murdered his brother.

4 For whose cause the earth beinge drowned with the flood, wisdom againe preterred it, and directed the course of the righteous in a piece of gold of small value.

5 Moreover, the nations in their wicked com-plicitye beinge confounded, shee found out the righteous, and preterred him blamelesse vnto God, and kept him strong: gainst his tender compassion toward his sonne.

6 When the vngodly perished, shee deliuered the righteous min, who fled from the fire which fell downe vpon the false cities.

7 Of whose wickednesse thus to this day the waile loud that flourisheth is a testimony, and plants bearing fruit that neuer come to ripen: and a standing pillar of salt: a monumēt of an vnblesing Cyle.

8 For regarding not wisdom, they gate not onely this hurt, that th y knew nat the things which were good, but also they behnd them to the world: a memoriall of their foolishnesse: so that in the things wherein they offended, they could not be mouned to be hid.

9 But wisdom deliuered from paine those that attend vpon her.

10 When he rigorous fled from his brothers wrath, shee guided him in right path, shewed him the kingdom of God, and gaue him knowledge of holy things, made him rich in his travels, and multiplied the fruit of his labours.

11 In the court of iustice when as opposeth him, shee stood by him, and made him rich.

12 Shee deliued him from his enemies: and kept him safe from state that lay in wait, and in a close conflict she gaue him the victory, that hee might know the goodlines is forgotten them all.

13 When the righteous was sold, shee forsooke him not, but deliuered him from sin: that hee were downe with him into the pit.

14 And left him not in bonds: till shee brought him the scepter of the kingdom, and power against those that oppressed him: as for them that had accused him, shee shewd them to be liars, and gaue him perpetuall glory.

15 Shee deliuered the righteous people, and blamethesse them from iustice that oppressed them.

16 Shee entered into the scale of the servant of the Lord, and with two dreadful Kings in wonders and signes.

17 Rendered to the righteous a reward of their labours, guided them in a nameles way, and was vnto them for a cure: by way, and a light: shewd them the right season.

18 Shee brought them thorow the red Sea, and led them thorow much water.

19 But shee ouerthrew their enemies, and cast them vp out of the bottom of the deepe.

20 Therefore the righteous spoiled the vngodly, and praised thy holy Name, O Lord, and magnified with concord thine hand that fought for them.

21 For wisdom opened the mouth of the dumb, and made the tongues of them that cannot speake, eloquent.

CHAP. XI.

1 The Egyptians were punished, and the israelites returned in their former state. 2 They were plagued by the same things, which in the former time. 3 God could have destroyed them otherwise. 4 But he is mercifull to all.

5 He prospered their workes in the hand of the Holy Spirit.

6 They went thorow the wilderness that was not inhabited and pitched tents in places where there lay roway.

7 They stood against their enemies, and were a gage of their aduersaries.

8 When they were thirsty, they called vpon thee, & water was giuen them out of a flintie rocke, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.

9 For by what things their enemies were punished, by the same they in their need were benefited.

6 For in stead of a fountain of a perpetual running riuer, troubled with foule blood,

7 For a vngodly reuerent of that commandment where the infants were slaine, thou gauest vnto them abundance of water by a meane which they hoped not in.

8 Declaring by that thist iben, how thou hadst punished their aduersaries. Exa. 70. 10.

9 For when they were tried, albeit but in mercy chastised, they knew how the vngodly were iudged in wrath, and so amended, thursting in another manner than the lust.

10 For these thou didst admonish and try as a father: but the other as a severe king thou didst condempne and punish.

11 Whether they were absent or present, they were vexed alike.

12 For a notable grieffe came vpon them, and a grieving for the remembrance of things past.

13 For when they heard by their owne misfortune the other to be benefitted, they had some feeling of the Lord. Or. per. c. 10.

14 For whom they reuelled with iustice, when hee was long before the owners at the casting forth of the infants, him in the end, when they saw what came to passe, they admited.

15 But for the foolish deuires of their wickednes wherewith being overcome, they worth pyed serpents void of reason, and vild beasts; thou didst send a multitude of unreasonable beasts vpon them for vengeance.

16 That they might know that wherewithall a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.

17 For thy Almighty hand that made the world of matter without forme, wanted not means to send among them a multitude of Beares, or fierce Lyons.

18 Or vnknewe wild beasts full of rage newly created, breathing out either a liey vapor, or filthy fents of scattered smokes, or shooting horrible sparkles out of their eyes.

19 Wherof not only the harme might dispatch them at once: but also the terrible sight vicerly destroy them.

20 Yea, and without these might they have fallen downe without blast, being persecuted of vengeance; and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power: for thou hast created all things in measure, and number, and weight.

21 For thou canst thee thy great strength at all times when thou wilt, and who may withstand the power of thine arm?

22 For the whole world before thee is as a little of graine of the ballance, yea as a drop of the measuring dew that falleth downe vpon the earth. Or. lish weight.

23 But thou hast mercy vpon all: for thou canst do all things, and wilt sit at the times of wrath because they should amend.

24 For thou knowst all the things that are, and abhorrest nothing which thou hast made: for neuer wouldst thou haue made any thing, if thou hadst hated it.

25 And how could any thing haue endured, if it had not bene thy will? or bene persecuted, if not called by thee?

26 But thou sparest all for they are thine, O Lord: thou louest of soules.

CHAP. XII.

1 God did not destroy those of Canaan all at once.

2 If he had done so, who could contrail him? 3 But by sparing them, he taught us. 4 They were punished with their gods.

For thine incorruptible Spirit is in all things. Therefore chastenest thou them by little and little that offend, and warnest them by putting them in remembrance when they have offended, that leaving their wickedness, they may believe on thee, O Lord.

2 For it was thy will to destroy by the hands of our fathers, both those old inhabitants of thy holy land.

3 Whom thou hatedst for doing most odious works of witchcrafts, and wicked sacrifices;

4 And also those mercilesse murderers of children, and drawers of mans flesh, and the seals of blood;

5 With their priests out of the midst of their idolatrous crew, and the parsons that killed with their own hands, insles defraite of helpe:

6 That the land which thou esteemedst above all other, might receive worthy scchooly of Gods, children.

7 Neuertheless, even thou sparedst as men; and didst send a wispe forerunners of thine holtes, to destroy them by little and little,

8 Not that thou wast unable to bring the vngodly vnder the hand of the righteous in battell, or to destroy them at once with cruell beasts, or with one rough word;

9 But executing thy iudgements vpon them by little & little, thou giuest them place of repentance, not being ignorant that they were a naughty generation, and that their malice was bred in them, and that their cogitation would neuer be changed.

10 For it was a cursed seed from the beginning, neither didst thou for feare of any man geue them pardon for those things wherein they sinned.

11 For who shall say, what hast thou done for who shall withstand thy iudgements; or who shall accuse thee for the nations that perish whom thou hast made; or who shall come to stand against thee, to be reuenged for the vrighteous men?

12 For neither is there any God but thou that careth for all, to whom thou mightest shew that thy iudgement is not vnsight.

13 Neither shall King or Tyrant be able to set his face against thee, for any whom thou hast punished.

14 For so much as thou art righteous thy selfe, thou orderest all things righteously: thinking it not agreeable with thy power to condemne him that hath not deserved to be punished.

15 For thy power is the beginning of righteoussnesse, and because thou art the Lord of all, it maketh thee to be gracious vnto all.

16 For when men will not beleue that thou art of a full power, thou shewest thy strength, and among them that know it, thou makest their boldnesse manifest.

17 But thou mastering thy power, iudgeth with equitie, and orderest vs with great fauour; for thou mayest vse power when thou wilt.

18 But by such workes hast thou taught thy people that the iust man should be mercifull, and hast made thy children to be of a good hope that thou giuest repentance for sinnes.

19 For if thou didst punish the enemies of thy children, and the condemned to death with such deliberation, giuing them time and place, whereby they might be deliuered from their malice.

20 With how great circumspection didst thou iudge thine owne sinnes, vnto whose fathers thou hadst sworn, and made conuents of good promises?

21 Therefore whereas thou dost chasten vs, thou scourgest our enemies a thousand times more, to the intent that when we iudge, we should carefully thinke of thy goodnes, and when we our selues are iudged, we should looke for mercy.

22 Wherefore, whereas men haue lined dishonestly and vrighteously, thou hast tormented them with their owne schismations.

23 For they went astray very far in the wayes of error, and held them for gods (which euery man of the beasts of their enemies were diuinely being) being deceived as children of no vnderstanding.

24 Therefore wato thou, as to children without the vse of reason, thou didst send a iudgement to mocke them.

25 But they that would not be reformed by that correction wherein he distressed with them, shall receiue a iudgement worthy of God.

26 For looke for what things they grudged when they were punished, (that is) for them whom they thought to be gods (now) being punished in them, when they saw it, they acknowledged him to be the true God, whom before they denied to know; and therefore came extreme damnation vpon them.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 They were not excused that worshipped any of Gods workes; as to his most wretched are they that worshipped the workes of mens hands.

2 Vncleynesse are all men by nature, who are ignorant of Gods, and could not out of the good things that are seene, know him that is: neither by considering the workes, did they acknowledge the worke-maister.

3 But dreamed it ekebraine, or wind, or the wise airt, or the circles of the heauens, or the violent waters, or the lights of heauen, to be the gods which gouerne the world:

4 With whose beautie, if they being delighted, took them to be gods: let them know how much better the Lord of them is: for the first Author of beaustie hath created them.

5 But if they were astonished at their power and regne, let them vnderstand by them, how much mightier he is that made them.

6 For by the greatnesse and beauty of the creatures proportionably the maker of them is seene.

7 But yet for this they are the lesse to be blamed, for they peraduenture erre seeking God, and diffident to finde him.

8 For being conuerted in his workes, they search him diligently, and beleue their sight; because the things are beautifull that are seene.

9 Howbeit, neither are they to be pardoned.

10 For if they were able to know so much that they could aime at the world, how altho they not could finde out the Lord thereof?

11 But miserable are they, and in dead things is their hope, who called them gods which are the workes of mens hands, gold and silver, to shew them, and resemblances of beasts, or a stone good for nothing, the worke of an ancient hand.

12 Now a Carpenter that selleth timber, after he hath sawn downe a tree meet for the purpose, and taken off all the barke skillfully round about, and hath wrought it handiwork, and made a vessel thereof fit for the seruice of mans life:

13 And after spending the seruise of his work to dreffe his meat, hath killed himselfe:

14 And taking the very residue among those which serued to no vse (being a crooked piece of wood, and full of knots) hath carried it diligently when he had nothing else to doe, and for medicty the skill of his vnderstanding and fashioned it to the image of a man:

15 Or made it like some vile beast, laying it on with vermilion, and with paint colouring it red: and crucifying every spot therein:

17 And when he had made a convenient roome for it, set it in a wal, and made it fall with yron:

18 For he provided for it that it might out last: knowing that it was vnable to helpe it selfe, (for it is an image, and hath need of helpe.)

19 Then maketh he prayer for his goods, for his wife and children, and is not ashamed to speake to that which hath no life.

20 For health, he calleth vpon that which is weake for life, vpon that which is dead: for aile, humbly beseecheth that which hath least means to helpe and for a good iourney, he asketh of that which cannot see a foote forward:

21 And for gaining and getting, and for good successe of his hands, asketh abillie to doe, of him that is most vnable to doe any thing.

CHA P. XIII.

1 Though men doe not pray to their ships, yet we see they feare rather by them then by their idoles.
 2 Idoles are accursed, and so are the makers of them.
 3 The ingenuity of idolatry. 23 and the effects thereof. 20 God will punish them that swear falsly by their idoles.

A Gaineous preparing himselfe to saile, and about to passe thorow the raging waves, calleth vpon a peece of wood more rotten then the vessel that carrieth him.

1 For verily desire of gaine deuileth that, and the wo:ken man built it by his skill:

2 But thy providence, O Father, governeth it: for thou hast made a way in the Sea, and a safe path in the waves:

3 Shewing that thou canst saue from all dangers yet, though a man went to Sea without Art.

4 Neuertheless, thou wouldest not that the workes of thy wisdom should be idle, and therefore doe men commit their liues to a small peece of wood, and passing the rough Sea in a weake vessel, are saued.

5 For in the old time also when the proud giants perished, the hope of the world, governed by thy hand, escaped in a weake vessel alike to all ages a seed of generation.

6 For blessed is the wood whereby right consciences cometh.

7 But that which is made with hands, is cursed, as well it is, as he that made it: because he made it: and it, because being corruptible, it was called God.

8 For the vngodly, and his vngodlinesse, are both alike hateful vnto God.

9 For that which is made, shall be punished together with him that made it.

10 Therefore euen vpon the idoles of the Gentiles shall there be a visitation, because in the creature of God, they are become an abomination, and a stumbling block to the foules of men; and a snare to the feet of the vniuise.

11 For the deuiling of idoles was the beginning of spiritual fornication, and the invention of them, the corruption of life.

12 For neither were they from the beginning, neither shall they be for euer.

13 For by the vaine glory of men they entred into the world, and therefore shall they come shortly to an end.

14 For a father afflicted with vniuise mourning, when he hath made an image of his child, sooner than a way, now honoured him as a god, which was then a dead man, and deliued to those that were vnder him, ceremonies, and sacrifices.

15 Thus in process of time an vngodly custome growne strong, was kept as law, and graven images were worshipped by the commandements of Kings.

16 Whom men could not honour in presence, because they dwelt far off, they took the consuetude of his village from far, and made an expresse image of a King which they honoured to the end that by this their forwardnesse, they might flatter him that was absent, as if he were present.

17 Also the singular diligence of the Artificer did helpe to set forward the ignorant to more superstition.

18 For he peraduenture willing to please one in authority, forced alhis skill to make the resemblance of the best fashion.

19 And so the multitude assured by the greer of the worke, took him no for a god, which a little before was but honoured as a man.

20 And this was an occasion to deturbe the world: for men sending ether calamities, or tyranny, did ascribe vnto stones, and rocks, the incommunicable Name.

21 Moreover, this was not enough for them, that they erred in the knowledge of God, but whereas they lined in the great warre of ignorance, those so great plagues called they peace.

22 For whilst they slew their children in sacrifices, or vnto false ceremonies, or made crucifixings of strange rites:

23 They kept neither lines nor marriages any longer vndertaken: but either one slew another traiterously, or giued him by adultery:

24 So that there reigned in all men without exception, blood, man slaughter, theft, and falsification, corruption, vniuise inhouse, and perjury.

25 Disquieting of good men, forgetfulness of good turnes, deuiling of soules, changing of kind, disorder in marriages, adultery, and shameful vncleanesse.

26 For the worshipping of idoles, is not to be named, is the beginning, the cause, and the end of all euill.

27 For either they are mad when they he merry, or prophesie lies, or liue vniuise, or else lightly forswear them: idles.

28 For inso much as their trust is in idoles which haue no life, though they sweare falsely, yet they looke not to be him.

29 Howbeit, for both causes shall they be iustly punished: both because they thought not well of God, giuing heed vnto idoles, and also vniuise swore in deceit, despising holinesse.

30 For it is not the power of them by whom they sweare: but it is the iust vengeance of sinners, that vniuise alwayes the offence of the vngodly.

CHA P. XV.

1 Hee doe acknowledge the vniuise God. 2 The folly of idol-makers. 3 and of the enemies of Gods people. 4 because he desires the idoles of the Gentiles. 5 They worshipped wilde beasts.

B V: thou, O God art gracious and true: long suffering, and in mercy ordering all things.

2 For if we see we are worthy, knowing thy power: but we will not: sin knowing we are counted thine.

3 For to know thee, is perfect righteousness: yet, to know thy power, is the root of immortality.

4 For neither did the mischieuous invention of men decture vs, nor an image spotted with diuers colours, the Painters fruitlesse labour.

3 The sight whereof gentileth scales to lust after it, and so they desire the forme of a dead image that hath no breath.

4 Both they that make them, they that desire them, and they that worship them, are lovers of evil things, and are worthy to have such things to haunt upon.

5 For the potter tempering soft earth, fashioneth every vessel with much labour for our service; yet of the same clay he maketh both the vessels that serve the clean vessels, and the filthy also all such as thou to the contrary; but what is the use of either sort, the potter himselfe is the iudge.

6 And employing his labours lewdly, he maketh a vaine god of the same clay, even he which a little before was made of earth, and within a little while after returneth to the same out of the which he was taken; when his life which was lent him shall be demanded.

7 Nor withstanding his eyes, not that he shall labour much labour, nor that his life is short; but strength to excell goldsmiths, and siluer smiths, and countercraft to doe like the workers in brass, and countercraft to his glorie make counterfeiting things.

8 His heart is as flint, his booke is no euill then; and his life is lesse value then clay.

9 For as much as he knew not his Maker, and him that he should be made to him as a brute soule, and created to a living point.

10 But the same were as if a passion, and our fault were as much as the graine; for say they, we were made by getting; surely way, though it be by will makes.

11 For he that maketh the way of earthly matter maketh brittle vessels, and golden images, knoweth himselfe to offend alone all others.

12 And all the enemies of the people, that build them in afflictions, are more foolish, and are more miserable then very bad.

13 For they counted all the life of the heathen to be gods; which whether have the use of eyes to see, good noses to draw breath, no eares to hear, nor fingers of hands to handle, and as for their feet, they are slow to goe.

14 For an image they, and he that borrowed his owne spirit, fashioned them; but no man can make a god like unto himselfe.

15 For being mortall he worketh a dead thing with wicked hands; by he himselfe is better then the things which he worshippeth; whereas hee liued once, but is now dead.

16 Yes, they worshipped those beasts also that are most hateful; for being compared together, some are worse then others.

17 Neither are they brutish, so much as to be desired in respect of beasts, but they went without the praise of God, and his blessing.

CHAP. XVI.

1 God gave strange meate to his people, to stir up their appetites, and while he talks to their enemies to eat in his house, hee feeding with his serpents, hee has some healed them by his word.

2 The creatures also of their nature, to please Gods people, and to offend their enemies.

3 These therefore by the like were they punished with this, and by the multitude of beasts tormented.

4 In stead of which punishment, dealing graciously with thine own people, thou preparedst for them, meate of a strange taste; such as quailles to stirre up their appetites.

5 To the end that they desiring food, might for the euill sight of the brass sent among them, loath: such that which they mistaketh delict; but these suffering penury for a short space, might be made partakers of a strange taste.

6 For it was requisite that upon them, exercising tyranny, should come penury, which they could not avoid; for to these it should only be shewed how their enemies were tormented.

7 For when the horrible fire-remnant of brass came upon them, and they perished with the same; for that they were crooked serpents, they were hindered not for ever.

8 But they were troubled for a small season, that they might be made-willed having a figure of correction; to put them in remembrance of the commandment of the Law.

9 But he that ruined himselfe towards it, was not saved by the thing that he saw; but by the that at the saunour of all.

10 And in this time made thine enemies confesse, that it is thou who doest hurt all with all.

11 For the bite of a serpent, and the bite of a scorpion, neither was there found any remedy for their life; for they were worthy to be punished by such.

12 But thy snakes, not the very teeth; thy venomous dragons overcame; for thy mercy was more by them, and healed them.

13 For they were provoked, that they should remember thy words, and were greatly said, that not being able to forget, they might be continually mischievous of thy people.

14 For it was neither their nor our will; yet pleased thee, that thou shouldst heal them; but thy words, O Lord, which heareth all things.

15 For thou hast power of life, and death; thou art able to give to the dead, and bringst up againe.

16 A man indeed killeth through his malice; and the spirit when it is gone forth, returneth not; neither the soule receiveth any comfort.

17 But it is not possible to escape thine hand.

18 For the wretched that wanted to know thee, were tormented by the strength of thine arm; with fire, and stones, and bowes were they persecuted; that they were able to stand, and through fire were they consumed.

19 For, which is most to be wondered at, the fire hid more soe in the water, than quenched all things; for the world light th for the righteous.

20 For sometimes the flame was misperced, that it might not be ney up the hearts that were sent against the vnpudly; but the flames might see as, because that they were persecuted with the argument of God.

21 And at another time it burneth even in the midst of water, shewing the power of fire; that it might destroy the traces of an vnjust hand.

22 In feed whereof thou feddest thine owne people with Angels food, and didst feed the nation from heauen bread prepared without their labour, able to content every mans delight, and as being to every taste.

23 For thy suffenance declared by sweetness to thy children, and sending to the appetite of the eater, I tempered it to every mans liking.

24 But thou and yet reduced the fire, and melted me; that they might know that fire burning in the haile, and sparkling in the rains did destroy the fruits of the enemies.

25 But this againe did even forget his owne strength, that the righteous might be more filled.

26 For the meate that touched thee, who art the Maker

Maker, increaseth his strength against the unrighteous for their punishment, and increaseth his strength for the benefit of such as put their trust in thee.

25 Therefore when thou was distressed into all afflictions, and was obedient to the griefs that man hath all things, according to the deficiency of them, that had need.

26 That thy children, O Lord, whom thou haest taught to know thee, that it is not the growing of flax: that is as which manna: that it is as the word which prevaileth them that put their trust in thee.

27 For the which was one of the eyes of the fire, but it waxed with a little Sun-beams, too: as it is said.

28 That it might be known to one, that we must present it to God, to give their thoughts, and at the saying of prayer into thee.

29 For the hope of the unrighteous shall melt away as the Waters: but the righteous shall in every way as vapourable water.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Why the Egyptians were punished with darkness, 2 The terrors of the darkness, 3 The terrors of an ill conscience.

For God is the iudgement, and cannot be expiated: neither is he merciful: neither is he merciful. For when unrighteous men thought to oppress the iudicially: they being that were in their captivities, captives of darkness, and fettered with the bonds of a long night, [by this] called from the eternal providence.

3 For while they supposed to lie hid in their former times, they were scattered & under a darkness of forgetfulness, being horrible, southerly, and terrible, with strange & Egyptian terrors.

4 For neither might the water that held them keep them from fear: for the water (as of waters) falling down, forced among clean and sad viols appeared worse than among unclean ones.

5 Nay more of the fire: for the light in them light: neither could the light of the fire's nature be taken from them by any light.

6 Once there appeared unto them a fire kindled in them: they were afraid: for being much terrified they thought, that things which they saw, to be worse than the light they saw see.

7 As for the allusion of Art Magick: they were put down, and their vanishing in wisdom, was reported with diligence.

8 For the same permitted to drive away curious and curious: some like souls, were like themselves at least, to be laughed at.

9 For though so terrible thing did scare them, yet being feared to be things that passed by, and hissing of serpents.

10 They died for fear, for saying that they saw the eyes, which could of no fear be avoided.

11 For wretchedness, caused by her own witness, is very curious, and being pressed with conscience, always here: such grievous things.

12 For fear is nothing else but a betraying of the face: which is the more true.

13 And the expectation from within being false, counteth the ignorance more than the cause which bringeth the torment.

14 But they sleeping the same sleep that night, which was indeed intolerable, and which came upon them one of the bits men of unsearchable things.

15 Were partly vexed with mouth: with apparitions: partly haunted, their heart failing them: for a light, which was not looked for, came upon them. So then when the fallowen was first ly kept, shut up in a prison, without prison bars.

17 For whether he were husbandman or shepherd, or a labourer in the field, he was overtaken, and enclosed: that he might be who could not be away: for they were all bound with one chain of darkness.

18 Whether it were a whistling wind, or a melonaceous out of the bushes among the spreading branches, or a plating fall of water running violently.

19 Or a terrible sound of thunders, or a rumour that could not be seen: of skipping brass, or a roaring voice of such language, which health, or a rebounding, led them from the holy mountains: these things made them to tremble & fear.

20 For the world would have with darkness light, and not with a storm in the hour.

21 One then, who was spread an hour night, an image of that darkness which should afterwards receive them: but yet were they with them: let us be grievous than the darkness.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Why the Egyptians were punished with darkness, 2 and with the death of their children, 3 They themselves saw the sufferings of, 4 God's judgment upon his own people, 5 By what means that plague was stayed.

For the which, they saw, had a very great light, in whose voice they hearing, and not seeing their things, became they also had to suffer the same things, which counted them happy.

2 But for that they did not love them, of whom they had been wronged: before they thanked them: for that they had pardoned, so that they had done enemies.

3 In that which the flames gave them a burning pillar of fire, both to be a guide of the way, and to be a punishment: so to be a sign to enquire them honourably.

4 For they were worth, to be punished of light and darkness: and darkness, who had kept the same: but by whom the light of the day was to be given unto the world.

5 And when they had determined to slay the babes of the Egyptians, and to bring a curse for them, and to slay to give them, they took away the multitude of their children, and destroyed them altogether in a mighty water.

6 Of that which were our fathers certified afore, that suddenly knowing unto what woe they had given occasion, they might afterwards be of good cheer.

7 So of the people was accepted both the salvation of the righteous, and destruction of the enemies.

8 For wherewith thou dost punish our sinners: by the same thou dost glorify us whom thou hast called.

9 For the righteous children of good men, did suffer innocently, and was not content made: holy law, that the Saints should be alike partakers of the same good and evil, the Fathers now singing out the songs of praise.

10 But on the other side: there sounded an ill according cry of the enemies, and a lamentable noise was carried abroad for children that were bewailed.

11 The water and the serpent were punished after one manner, and like as the Kings suffered after one manner.

12 So they together had irremovable death, with one kind of death, neither were the living to live: to bury them: so in one moment the nobility of living of them was destroyed.

13 For 13 For whereas they would not beleue any thing, by reason of the enchantments, vpon the destruction of the first borne, they acknowledged this people to be the fones of God.

14 For while all things were in quite silence, and that night was in the midst of her iust course,

15 Thine Almighty Word leapt downe from heauen, out of thy royall Throne, as a fierce man of warre into the midst of a land of destruction, 16 And brought thine vniuersall Commandment, as a sharpe sword, and standing vpon, killed all things with death, and it touched the heauen, but it stood vpon the earth.

17 Then suddenly visions of horrible dreames troubled them sore, and terrors came vpon them vnlooked for.

18 And one throwe here, another there halfe dead, shewed the cause of this death.

19 For the dreames that troubled them did sore shew this, lest they should perish, and not know why they were afflicted.

20 Yea, the tasting of death touched the righteous also, and there was a destruction of the multitude in the wilderness; but the wrath endured not long.

21 For when the blamelesse man made haste, and stood forth to defend them; and bringing the shield of his proper ministry, euen prayer, and the propitiation of incesse, set himselfe against the wrath, and so brought the calamity to an end, de- claring that he was thy seruant.

22 So he came the destroyer, not with strength of body, nor force of armes, but with a word subdued hee him that punished, alleging the oathes and covenants made with the Fathers.

23 For when the dead were now fallen downe by heaps one vpon another, standing betweene, he stayed the wrath, and parted the way to the liuing.

24 For in the long garment was the whole world, and in the fure rowes of the stones was the glory of the Fathers gauen, and thy Maiestie vpon the diademe of his head.

25 Vnto these the destroyer gaue place, and was afraid of them: for it was enough that they vnsly tasted of the wrath.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Why God showed no mercy to the Egyptians: 2 and how wonderfully he dealt with his people. 3 The Egyptians were worse then the Sodomites. 4 The wonderfull agreement of the creatures to serue Gods people.

AS for the vngodly, wrath came vpon them without mercy vnto the end: for hee knew before what they would doe;

1 How that hauing giuen them leave to depart, and sent them hastily away, they would repent and pursue them.

2 For whilst they were yet mourning, and making lamentation at the graves of the dead, they added another foolish device, and pursued them as fugitives, whom they had contreated to be gone.

3 For the destiny whereof they were worthy, drew them vnto this end, and made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might fulfill the punishment which was wanting to their crimes.

4 And that the people might passe a wonderfull way that they might finde a strange death.

5 For the whole creature in his proper kind, was fashioned againe anew, forming the peculiar com- mandments that were giuen vnto them, that thy children might be kept without harme.

6 As surely, a cloud shadowing the campe, and where water stood before, dry land appeared, and out of the Red Sea, a way without impediment, and out of the violent streames a greene field:

7 Where thorow all the people went that were defended with thy hand, seeing thy marvellous strange wonders.

8 For they went at large like horses, and leaped like lambs prancing thee, O Lord, who hadst de- livered them.

9 For they were yet minded of the thing that were done, while they forwarde in the strange land, low the ground brought forth fishes instead of carrell, and how the river call vpon a multitude of frogs in stead of fishes.

10 But afterwards they saw a new generation of fowles, when being led with their appetite, they asked delicate meates.

11 For quails came vpon them from the Sea, for their consentment.

12 And punishments came vpon the sinners, not without cause: for by the force of thunders for they suffered, iustly according to their owne wickednesse, inasmuch as they vied a more hard and hateful behauiour toward strangers.

13 For the Sodomites did not receive those whom they knew not when they came: but these brought friends into bondage that had well deserved of them.

14 And not onely so: but perditione are some respect in the had of those, because they vied stran- gers not friendly.

15 But these very grieuoud afflicted them whom they had receiued with feastings, and were already made partakers of the same Lawes with them.

16 Therefore euen with blindness were these stricken, as those were at the doors of the righte- ous man: when being compassed about with horri- ble great darkenesse, euen one sought the passage of his owne doores.

17 For the Elements were changed: in them- selves by a kind of harmony, like as in a psalter, notes change the name of the tune, and yet are al- wayes sounds, which may well be perceived by the sight of things that haue bene done.

18 For earthly things were turned into watery, and the things that before swam in the water, now went vpon the ground.

19 The fire had power in the water, forgetting his owne vertue: and the water forgot his owne quenching nature.

20 On the other side, the flames wasted not the flesh of the corruptible liuing things, though they walked therein: neither melted they the yee, a kind of beaustly meat that was of nature apt to melt.

21 For in all things, O Lord, thou didst magnifie thy people, and glorifie them: neither diddest thou highly regard them: but didst assist them in suc- cey time and place.

THE WISDOME OF IESVS THE SONNE OF Sirach, or Ecclesiasticus.

Of A Prologue made by an uncertaine Author.

This Iesus was the sonne of Sirach, and grand-child to Iesus of the same name with him: This man therefore lived in the latter times: after the people had bene led away captive and called home againe, and almost after all the Prophets. Now his grand-father Iesus (as he himselfe wistfull) was a man of great diligence and wisdom among the Hebrewes; who did not only gather the grace and short sentences of wise men, that had bene before him, but himselfe also wretted some of his owne, full of much understanding and wisdom. When at the time the first Iesus dyed, leaving this booke almost finished, Sirach his sonne receiving it after him, left it to his owne sonne Iesus, who having gotten it into his hands, compiled it all orderly into one volume, and called it Wisdom, insinuating it both by his owne name, his fathers name, and his grand-fathers, alluring the hearer by the very name of Wisdom, to have a greater love to the study of this booke. It containeth therefore wise sayings, like Sentences and Parables, and certaine particular ancient godly stories of men that pleased God. Also his prayer and Song. Moreover, what benefits God had vouchsafed his people, and what plagues hee had leaped vpon their enemies. This Iesus did imitate Solomon, and was no lesse famous for wisdom and learning, both being indeed a man of great learning, and fore reputed also,

Of The Prologue of the Wisdom of Iesus the sonne of Sirach.

Wheras many and great things have bene delineated vnto vs by the Law and the Prophets, and by others that haue followed their steps, for the which things Israel ought to be commended for learning and wisdom, and wheres of not onely the readers must needs become skillfull therelike, but also they that desire to learne, be able to profit them which are without, both by speaking and writing: My grand-father Iesus, when he had much giuen himselfe to the reading of the Law and the Prophets, & other bookes of our fathers, and had gotten therein good iudgement, was drawne on also himselfe to write something pertaining to learning and wisdom, to the intent that those which are desirous to learne, and are addicted to these things, might profit much more in hearing according to the Law. Wherefore let me intreat you to read it with care and attention, and to pardon vs wherein we may seeme to come short of some words: which wee haue laboured to interpret. For the same things wretted in Hebrew, and translated into another tongue, haue not the same force in them: and not onely these things, but the Law itselfe, and the Prophets, and the rest of the bookes haue no small difference when they are spoken in their owne language. For in the eight and thirtieth yeere, coming into Egypt when Emeretes was king, and continuing there some time, I found a litle booke of no small learning: therefore I thoughte it most necessary for me to bestow some diligence and trauell to interpret it: Vsing great watchfullnesse and skill in that space to bring the booke to an end, and set it forth for them also which in a strange country are willing to learne, being prepared before in manners to liue after the Law.

CHAP. I.

1 All wisdom is from God: 10 He giueth it to them that loue him. 12 The feare of God is full of many fruits. 13 To feare God without hypocrisie.

14 Wisdom cometh from the Lord, and is with him for ever.

15 Who can number the sand of the Sea, and the drops of raine, and the dayes of eternitie?

16 Who can find out the height of heauen, and the breadth of the earth, and the deepe, and wisdome?

17 Wisdom hath bene created before all things, and the vnderstanding of prouidence floweth everlastingly.

18 The Word of God most high is the fountain of wisdom, and her wayes are ceaselesse commandements.

19 To whom hath the root of wisdom bene revealed? or who hath knowne her wise counsels?

20 [Unto whom hath the knowledge of wisdom bene made manifest? and who hath vnderstood her great experience?]

21 There is one wise, and greatly to be feared; the Lord sitting vpon his throne.

22 He created her, and saw her, and numbered her, and poured her out vpon all his works;

23 She [is] with all flesh according to his gifts, and he hath giuen her to them that letuethim.

24 The feare of the Lord is honour, and glory, and gladnesse, and a crowne of reioicing.

25 The feare of the Lord maketh a merry heart, and giueth ioy and gladnesse, and a long life.

26 Who so feareth the Lord, it shall go well with him at the last, and hee shall flourish in the day of his death.

27 To feare the Lord, is the beginning of wisdom: and it was created with the faithfull in the wombe.

28 She hath built an everlasting foundation with men, and shall continue with their seed.

29 To feare the Lord is wisdom of wisdom, and filleth men with her fruits.

30 She filleth all their house with things desirable, and the garner is with her increase.

31 The feare of the Lord is a crowne of wisdom, making peace and perfect health to flourish; her which are the gifts of God, and it enlargeth their reioicing that loue him.

32 Wisdom raineth down skill and knowledge of vnderstanding, and exalteth them to honour: that hold her fast.

33 The root of wisdom is to feare the Lord, and the branches thereof are long life.

21 The feare of the Lord driueth away sin: and where it is present, it turneth away wrath.

22 A lions man cannot be inflid, for the sway of his fury shall be his destruction.

23 A patient man will beare for a time, and afterwards joy shall spring vp vnto him.

24 He will hide his words for a time, and the lips of many shall declare his wisdom.

25 The parables of knowledge are in the treasures of wisdom: but gouernes is an abomination to a sinner.

26 If thou desire wisdom keepe the Commandements, and the Lord shall giue her vnto thee.

27 For the feare of the Lord is wisdom and instruction: and faith and meeknesse are his delight.

28 I distrust not the feare of the Lord when thou art poore: and come not vnto him with a double heart.

29 Bee not an hypocrite in the sight of men, and take good heed what thou speakest.

30 Exalt not thyselfe, lest thou fall, and bring dishonour vpon thy soule, and so God discover thy secrets, and cast thee downe in the midst of the congregation, because thou camest not in troth to the feare of the Lord: that thy heart is full of deceit.

C H A P. III.

1 Gods seruants must looke for trouble, y and be patient and trust in him: 2 for man is vncertaine that doth not so: 3 But they that feare the Lord, will doe so.

My son, if thou come to see me the Lord, prepare the soule for temptation.

2 Set thy heart aright, and constantly endure, and make not haste in time of trouble.

3 Cleane vnto him, and depart not away, that thou mayest be increased at thy last end.

4 What sooner is brought vpon thee, take cheerfully, and be patient when thou art changed to a low estate.

5 For gold is tryed in the fire, and acceptable men in the furnace of adversity.

6 Release in him, and he will helpe thee, orier thy way aright, and trust in him.

7 Ye that feare the Lord, wait for his mercy, and goe not aside, lest ye fall.

8 Ye that feare the Lord, bleasent him, and your reward shall not faile.

9 Ye that feare the Lord, hope for good, and for everlasting ioy and mercy.

10 Look at the generations of old, and see, did ever any trust in the Lord, and was confounded: or did any abide in his feare, and was forsaken: or when did he ever despise that called vpon him?

11 For the Lord is full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, and very pitifully, and forgiveth finnes, and saucth in time of affliction.

12 Woe be to fearefull hearts, and faint hands, and the sinner that groweth two wayes.

13 Woe vnto him that is faint-hearted, for he be- leueth not: therefore shall he not be defended.

14 Woe vnto you that haue little patience: and what will ye doe when the Lord shall visit you?

15 They that feare the Lord, will not disobey his word, and they that loue him will keep his wayes.

16 They that feare the Lord, will seek that which is well pleasing vnto him, and they that loue him, shall be filled with the law.

17 They that feare the Lord, will prepare their hearts, and humble their soules in his sight.

18 Saying, Woe will fall into the hands of the Lord, and not into the hands of men: for as his Majesty is, so is his mercy.

3 Children must honour and helpe: both their pa- rents, 21 We may not desire to know all things, 26 The incurisible wound needs perfite, 30 Almes are rewarded.

1 Honour your father, O children, and do there- after, that ye may be wise.

2 For the Lord hath given the father honour ouer the children, and hath committed the authority of the mother ouer the sonnes.

3 Whoso honoureth his father, maketh an accom- pment for his finnes.

4 And he that honoureth his mother, is as one that layeth vp treasure.

5 Whoso honoureth his father, shall haue ioy of his own children, and when he maketh his prayer he shall be heard.

6 He that honoureth his father, shall haue a long life, and he that is obedient vnto the Lord, shall haue a comfort to his mother.

7 He that feareth the Lord, will honour his fa- ther, and will do seruice vnto his parents, as to his masters.

8 Honour thy father and mother, both in word and deed, that a blessing may come vpon thee from them.

9 For the blessing of the father establisheth the houses of children, but the curse of the mother toucheth out foundations.

10 Glory not in the dishonour of thy father, for thy fathers dishonour is no glory vnto thee.

11 For the glory of a man, is from the honour of his father: and a mother in dishonour, is a reproch to the children.

12 My sonne, helpe the father in his age, and giue him not as long as he liueth.

13 A mans vnderstanding faile, haue patience with him, and despise him not when thou art in thy full strength.

14 For the returning of thy father shall not be forgotten: and in stead of finnes it shall be added to build thee vp.

15 In the day of thine affliction it shall be re- membered, thy sin also shall melt away as the yee in the faire warme water.

16 He that fooleth his father, is as a blasphem- er: and he that sugreth his mother is cursed of God.

17 My son, go on with thy businesse in weekents, so that thou be beloved of him that is thy god.

18 The greater thou art, the more humble thy selfe, and thou shalt stand fauourable before the Lord.

19 Many are in high place, and of renouew: but manye are reucaled vnto the necke.

20 For the power of the Lord is great, and he is honoured of the lowly.

21 Seeke not out the things that are too hard for thee, neither search the things that are above thy strength.

22 But what is commanded thee, thinke there- upon with reverence, for it is not used full for thee to see with thine eyes the things that are in secret.

23 Bee not curious in vncertaine matters: for moe things are shewed vnto thee, then men vnderstand.

24 For many are deceiued by their owne vaine opinions, and an euill suspition hath overthrowen their iudgement.

25 Without eyes thou shalt see right professe not the knowledge therefore that thou hast not.

26 A stubborn heart shall see euill at the last, and he that leueth danger shall perishe therein.

27 An obdurate heart shall bee laden with sorrows, and the wicked man shall haue sines vpon sines.
 28 In the punishment of the proud there is no remedy: for the plant of wickednesse hath taken root in him.
 29 The heart of the prudent will vnderstand a bus parable, and an attentiu eare is the desire of a wise man.
 30 Water will quench a burning fire, and almes maketh an agreement for sines.
 31 And he that requirerh good turnes, is mindful of that which may come hereafter, and when he fallerh, he shall finde a stay.

CHAP. liiii.

1 Wee may not dispise the poore or fatherlesse, 21 but seeke for wisdomes 26 and not be ashamed of some things, 27 we gainesay the truth, 30 we be as Lyons in our houses.

MY sonne, and not the poore of this liuing, and take not the needy eare to waite long.
 1 Make not an hungry relesorowfull, neither pecaake a man in his distresse.
 2 Adie not nor be trouble to an heart that is vexed, and deferre not to giue to him that is in need.
 3 Reiect not the supplication of the afflicted, neither to reuay thy face from a poore man.
 4 Turne not away thine eye from the needy, and giue him some occasion to cease thee.
 5 For if he curse thee in the bitterness of his soule, his prayer shall be heard of him that made him.
 6 Get thy selfe the loue of the congregation, and bow thy head to a great man.
 7 Let it not grieue thee to bow downe thine eare to the poore, and giue him a friendly answer with meeknesse.
 8 Delicte him that inuereth wrong from the hand of the oppressour, and be not faint hearted when thou art in iudgement.
 9 Be the father vnto the fatherless, and in stead of a lumbe, vnto their mother: so shall thou bee as the son of the most High, and he shall loue thee more then thy brother.
 10 Wisdome exhorteth her children, and saith hold of thee the facke her.
 11 Hee that loueth her, looeth life, and they that secke to her early, shall be filled with me.
 12 He that holdeth her fast shall inherite glory, and whoso euer she exhorteth, the Lord will blesse.
 13 They that serue her, shall be like to the holy One, and them that loue her, the Lord doth love.
 14 Whoso giueth eare vnto her, shall iudge the Nations, and hee that attendeth vnto her, shall dwell surely.
 15 If a man commit himselfe vnto her: he shall inherite her, and his generation shall hold her in possession.
 16 For at the first shee will walke with him by crooked waies, and bring lease and tread vpon him, and torment him with her discipline, vntill she may troff his sense, and trye him by her lawes.
 17 Then will shee reuolue the straight way vnto him, and comfort him, and shew him her secrets.
 18 Doe if he see wrong, she will forsaake him, and giue him oer to his owne ruine.
 19 Offe not the opportunity, and beware of euill, and be not ashamed when it concerneth thy soule.
 20 For sheweth a shame that bringeth fame: and there is a shame which is glory and grace.
 21 Accept no perswagant thy soule, and let not the crumme of any man caule thee to fall.
 22 And receiue not to speake when there is occasion to doo good, and hide not thy wisdome in her beauty.

 23 For by speech wisdome shall be knowen; and learning by the word of the tongue.
 24 In no wise speake against the truth, but be abashed of the error of thine ignorance.
 25 Be not ashamed to confesse thy finnes, and force not the course of the sin.
 26 Make not thy selfe an vnderling to a foolish man, neither accept the portion of the nighty.
 27 Strive for the truth vnto death; and the Lord shall fight for thee.
 28 Be not busy in thy tongue, and in thy deeds slacke and remisse.
 29 Be not as a Lion in thine house, nor franticke among thy seruants.
 30 Let not thine hand be stretched out to receive, and thus when thou shalt repay.

CHAP. v.

1 Wee must not be proud of our wealth and strength, 6 we of the mercy of God to sune, 9 Wee must not be double tongued, 12 nor aswure without knowlege.

SEE not thy heart vpon thy goods, and say not, "I haue enough for my life."
 2 Follow not thine owne mind, and thy strength, to walke in the wayes of the heart.
 3 And say not, Who shall controule mee for my works for the Lord will surely reuenge thy pride.
 4 Say not, I haue sinned, and what haue I hath happened vnto me? for the Lord is long suffering, he will in no wise let thee goe.
 5 Concerning propitiation be not without feare to adde sinne vnto sinne.
 6 And say not, His mercy is great, he will be pacified for the multitude of my finnes; for mercy and wrath come from him, and his indignation resteth vpon sinners.
 7 Make no carrying to turne to the Lord, and put not off from day to day: for suddenly shall the wrath of the Lord come south, and in the security thou shalt be destroyed, and perish in the day of vengeance.
 8 See not thy heart vpon goods vniustly gotten; for they shall not profit thee in the day of calamity.
 9 Winnow not with euery wind, and get not into euery way; for to deeth the finner that hath a double tongue.
 10 Be steadfast in thy vnderstanding, and let thy word be the same.
 11 Be swift to heare, and let thy life be sincere, and with patience giue answer.
 12 If thou hast vnderstanding, answer thy neighbour; if not, lay thy hand vpon thy mouth.
 13 Hee that is in talke, and the tongue of man is his fall.
 14 Be not called a whispe er, and lie not in wait with thy tongue; for a feele floure is vpon schiele, and an euill condemnation vpon the double tongue.
 15 Be not ignorant of any thing to a great matter, or a small.

CHAP. vi.
1 Do not trust thine owne conceits, 7 but make choice of a friend, 18 Serue wisdom better than it is glorious to sune, 25 Yet shee must not be a pleasure, 31 Be ready to reuere wise men.

IN READ of a friend become not an enemy: for I [cherdy] thou shalt inherite an ill name, shame and reproach: when thou shalt a finner that hath a double tongue.

owne heart, that thy soule be not toyne in pieces, as a bull [straying alone.]

3 Thou shalt eat vpon thy leanes, and lose thy fruit, and leave thy selfe as a dry tree.

4 A wicked soule shall destroy him that hath it, and shall make him to be laughed to scorn of his enemies.

5 Sweet language will multiply friends, and a faire speaking tongue will increase kind greetings.

6 Be in peace with many, though thou hast but one counsellor of a thousand.

7 If thou wouldest get a friend, procure him first, and be not hasty to credit him.

8 For some man is a friend for his owne occasion, and will not abide in the day of thy trouble.

9 And there is a friend, who being turned to enemy and strife, will discover thy reproach.

10 Again, some friend is a companion at the table, and will not continue in the day of thine affliction.

11 Live in thy prosperity he will be as thy selfe, and will be bold over thy servants.

12 If thou be brought low, he will be against thee, and will hide himselfe from thy face.

13 Separate thy selfe from thine enemies, and take heed of thy friends.

14 A faithfull friend is a strong defence: and he that hath found such an one, hath found a treasure.

15 Nothing doth concern a faithfull friend, and his excellency is unvaluable.

16 A faithfull friend is the medicine of life, and they that feare the Lord shall find him.

17 Whose seareth the Lord, shall direct his friendship aright, for as he is, so shall his neighbour be also.

18 My soune, gather instruction from thy youth vpon: so shalt thou find wisdom till thine old age.

19 Come vnto her, as one that ploweth and soweth, and waite for her good fruits, for thou shalt see toyle much in labouring about her, but thou shalt eat of her fruits right soone.

20 She is very vnplesant to the vncarned: but that is without vnderstanding, will not remaine with her.

21 She will lie vpon him as a mighty floe of trial, and he will cast her from him ere it be long.

22 For wisdom is according to her name, and she is so manifest vnto many.

23 Give care my soune, receive my aduice, and refuse not my counsell.

24 And put thy feet into her fetters, and thy necke into her chaine.

25 Bow downe thy selfe colder and beate her, and be not grieved with her bonds.

26 Come vnto her with thy whole heart, and keep her wayes with all thy power.

27 Search and seeke, and shee shall be made knowne vnto thee, and when thou hast got hold of her, let her not goe.

28 For at the last thou shalt find her rest, and that shall be turned to thy joy.

29 Then shall her fetters be a strong defence for thee, and her chaine a robe of glory.

30 For there is a golden ornament vpon her, and her bonds are i purple lince.

31 Thou shalt put her on as a robe of honour: and shalt put about thee as a crowne of joy.

32 My soune, if thou wilt, thou shalt be taught: and if thou wilt apply thy mind, thou shalt bee prudent.

33 If thou loou to heare, thou shalt receive vnderstanding: and if thou loou thin eare, thou shalt be wise.

34 Sead in the multitude of the Elders, and cleue vnto him that is wise.

35 Be willing to heare euery goodly discourse, and let not the passables of vnderstanding escape thee.

36 And if thou seeke a man of vnderstanding, get thee betimes vnto him, and let thy feet weare the steps of his doore.

37 Let thy mind be vpon the Ordinances of the Lord, and meditate continually in his Commandments: he shall establish thine heart, and thou shalt see wisdom at thine owne desire.

CHAP. VII.

1 We are exhorted from sinne, 4 From ambition, 8 presumption, 10 and fainting in prayer 112 from lying and backbiting, 18 and how to esteeme a friend: 19 a good wife: 20 a for want: 21 our cattle: 23 our children and parents: 24 The Lord and his Promises 25 The poor and shee that moune.

Doe no will, so shall no man come vnto thee.

2 Depart from the raike, and iniquity shall turne away from thee.

3 My soune, loou not vpon the seruices of vngodly gods, and thou shalt not reape them seuen fold.

4 Seeke not of the Lord preeminence, neither of the King the seat of honour.

5 Iudise not thy selfe before the Lord, and doe not of thy wisdom before the King.

6 Seeke not to be iudge, being not able to take away iniquity, lest at any time thou see the person of the mighty, and lay a stumbling blocke in the way of thy righteousness.

7 Offend not against the multitude of a city, and therefore shalt not cast thy selfe away among the people.

8 Bind not one stone vpon another, for in one thou shalt not be unpunished.

9 Support, God will looke vpon the multitude of thy obligations, and when I offer to the most high God, he will accept it.

10 Be not faint hearted when thou makest thy prayer, and neglect not to giue almes.

11 Laugh no man to scorn in the bitterness of his soule: for there is one which lambleth and exaleth.

12 Dewise not a lie against thy brother: for thou doest the like to thy friend.

13 Vse not to make any manner of lie: for the outcome thereof is not good.

14 Vse not many words in the multitude of Elders, and make not much backbiting when thou prayest.

15 If thou not labourious worker, nor thy husbandry, and thy which the most high hath ordained.

16 Number not thy selfe among the multitude of the wise: but remember that wealth will not tary long.

17 Humble thy soule greatly: for the vengeance cometh of the Lord: he is fire and worme.

18 Change not a friend for any good by no means: neither a faithfull brother for the gold of Ophir.

19 For go not a wife and good woman: for her grace is more gold.

20 Where a thyseruunt wortheeth thee, extract him not still: nor the hireling that becometh himselfe wholly thy.

21 Let the soule loou a good seruant, and defende him out of libertie.

22 Hast thou cattle? have an eye to them, and if they be for thy profit, keepe them with thee.

23 Hast thou children? instruct them, and bow downe their necke from their youth.

CHAP. VIII.

Whom we may not strive with, & nor despise, to nor provoke, is our love to not with.

STAYE not with a mighty man, lest thou fall into his hands.

1 Be not a variance with a rich man, lest hee overweigh thee: for gold hath destroyed many, and perverted the hearts of Kings.

2 Stand not with a man that is full of tongue, and heape not wood upon his fire.

3 Let not with a rinde man, lest thy ancestors be disgraced.

4 Reproch not a man that turneth from sin, but remember that we are all worthy of punishment.

5 Dishonour not a man in his old age: for even some of us waxe old.

6 Rejoyce not ever thy greates enemy being dead, but remember that we die all.

7 Dispise not the discourse of the wise, but acquire thy selfe with their proverbes, for of them thou shalt learne instruction, and how to serue great men with ease.

8 Dispise not the discourse of the Elders: for they also learued of their fathers, and of them thou shalt learne vnderstanding, and to give answers as need requireth.

9 Kindle not the coales of a sinner, lest thou be burnt with the flame of his fire.

10 Rise not vp (in anger) at the presence of an inuicious person, lest he lie in wait to entray thee in thy words.

11 Lead not vnto him that is mightier then thy selfe, for if thou despisest him, come it but loost.
